Even the "50 Timers" stare

When the chef unloads his luscious cargo

What a smart way to choose your ship for a perfect trip! Follow the "50 Timers," those wise, seasoned travelers who know the ropes, who know "travel"—and have chosen White Star fifty times and more. They know the difference between a meal and a feast, the importance of roomy cabins ... they know—and they've chosen White Star over and over!

Here are the "50 Timers'" favorites of today: The Majestic, world's largest ship; Olympic. Also the Georgic (new) and Britannic, England's largest motor liners, and the well-known Adriatic.

TOURIST CLASS IS "TOP" VIA RED STAR
Minnewaska, Minnetonka, Pennland, Westernland—on these mighty liners, the finest on the ship is yours at low Tourist Class rates! From $106.50 one way; $189 round trip.

For sailings to Ireland, England, France and Belgium, see your local agent, or your own Graduate Travel Service.

This issue of the ALUMNUS is reduced somewhat in size for the sake of economy and speed.

So many things and such good things have been arranged for Commencement that the Alumni Association is desirous of having every possible alumnus on the campus for the program. Hence the announcement.

Also, so many and so splendid were the Club observances of probably the most difficult of the long series of Universal Notre Dame Nights, that the ALUMNUS desired to give these Clubs more recognition than they could hope for in the always crowded and varied Commencement Number of the magazine.

Contracts for advertising also made the present issue almost indispensable.

Therefore, we must confess, this "sandwich issue" is not the desperate expending of surplus resources, but another thought for you.

In return, you are receiving Ballots which are accompanied by a Questionnaire and a Bill.

Please return them all.

The Ballot will name the men who will guide your Association destinies through the next year—a year as critical, at least, as the one through which we have just about passed.

The Questionnaire is an expression of the optimism that the Association and the University feel, that, with adequate information about you, on file in a central Alumni Office, a more intelligent program can be planned by your alumni officers, a more comprehensive and interesting magazine can be published for you, and the cooperation of the University in promoting your interests can be more intelligently and effectivly enlisted.

The Bill has been discussed so much and so many times, that the good old "Please Remit" says it all. The Alumni Association is no exception to economic rules. Your five dollars now, when dollars are scarce, will do more for us, just as it will do more for you. As the proverbial bird in the hand gets the decision, so the five-spot on the line has a decided margin over a ten on the other side of the horizon. You can imagine what a ten in the hand looks like, in case you want to pay this year's and next. However, the policy still holds, until common sense do us part, that you can begin paying for 1933-4 with no questions asked about the strange interlude through which you—and I—and who hasn't—passed.

The University is probably more favorably impressed with the Alumni Association, paradoxical as it may seem, than at any previous time.

While we are relying on the University for more help than at any previous period in our history, nevertheless the men from the campus who have gone out in the interests of the University to make contacts with prospective students, or the men from the campus who have visited the local Alumni Clubs—Dean McCarthy, Dean Konop, Father O'Hara, Prof. Downey, Prof. Froning, Registrar Riordan, Father Lahey, Prof. Phillips, Father Cavanaugh, Pat Manion, Prof. Cooney, Prof. Buckley, Prof. Farrell, Judge Cain, Prof. Rosay, Father Conerton, and others with similar experiences—report that never in their experiences and contacts have they met a more loyal, a more generous (within obvious limitations) or a more helpful group.

You are admired. Your support is appreciated.

This next year let's add to that support the really gratifying feeling of continuing all this help and at the same time paying our own way. Five dollars from Oregon, and five from Texas and five from New York and so on means a little sacrifice here and there. The lump sum necessary for the Association, subtracted from a strained University budget, means a great deal—no matter how deserving the Association, subtracted from a strained University budget, means a little sacrifice here and there. The lump sum necessary for the Association, subtracted from a strained University budget, means a great deal—no matter how deserving the .

Laetare Jubilee, Baccalaureate by Father Coughlin, Commencement Address by Governor McNutt, and Numerous Developments of Annual Features Offer Brilliant Week-End.

Because of the variety and brilliance of the entire Commencement program, this story will take the events in their chronological order. Please read it through for your benefit—every paragraph packs a punch in its facts.

Housing

As in other years, the University generously opens its halls without cost to the returning alumni, on Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights. The two great residence halls, Alumni and Dillon, will be available, as last year, and in anticipation of a record crowd, Howard Hall (the original Old Students Hall) has been included. Alumni will register in the Halls where they will reside. Seniors and local alumni or alumni accommodated off-campus will register in the Alumni Office.

Classes from 1920 on will reside in Dillon, the residence hall next to the Dining Halls. Before 1920, alumni will reside in Alumni Hall. Howard will be reserved for overflow.

Golf

A 36-hole medal play tournament for alumni will be conducted on the William J. Burke-University course on the campus. All alumni are eligible and urged to participate. Rev. Francis C. Ott, Los Angeles, who is studying at Notre Dame this year, has kindly consented to supervise the tournament. The name of the winning alumni will be engraved on the perpetual trophy on display in the golf Club House. The members of the Class of '33 are eligible. All alumni have the privilege of the course during Commencement without charge, whether in the tournament or not. (The type of tournament was decided upon in view of the impossible sibility of setting up an equitable handicap system for alumni from all courses and clubs.)

President's Address

The President of the University will give his annual address to the Class of 1933 in Washington Hall on Friday at 12:45. This event is limited to the Class members.

Alumni - Varsity Baseball

At two o'clock Friday afternoon a team of "old-timers" will take the Varsity baseball team on Cartier Field. Capt. Bill Sheehan, '25, has undertaken the organization of the alumni. All baseballers in the area or who are coming back for Friday—make it a point to be here—are urged to enlist in advance so equipment can be made available. Anybody with a peg to first left in his system is eligible for the alumni.

Fourth Annual Council of Local Alumni Clubs

At 4:30 Friday the Fourth Annual Council of Local Alumni Clubs will be held in the lounge of the Lay Faculty Dining Hall. All Clubs are urged to appoint a definite delegate or delegates to this meeting, and to notify the Alumni Office of the name or names. Supper in the Dining Halls will follow the meeting.

Reunion Dinners

Friday night the Class of 1928 is holding its five-year Reunion Dinner and meeting at the Coquillard Golf Club at 8:00 p. m. The other Reunion Classes are urged to make arrangements for dinners or meetings Friday night, if any are planned, as the remaining program is so filled as to make other arrangement impractical. Local members of the Class could make such arrangements with minimum difficulty. The Alumni Office will be glad to co-operate to its limits in aiding such arrangements. Write your Class Secretary!

University Band Plays

At 7:00 p. m. Friday, the University Band under the direction of Prof. Joseph Casasanta, '23, will give its annual Commencement Concert on the Main Quadrangle. A similar concert given to the students this month revealed the Band in excellent condition and the program one of wide and popular appeal.

Theatre Offers "Richelieu"

Theatre fans who remember the University Theatre's presentation of "Journey's End," "Julius Caesar," and "Abraham Lincoln," will be looking forward with pleasurable anticipation to "Richelieu" at 8:15 Friday night in Washington Hall. Prof. Frank Kelly, '21, is busy directing an able class of actors in the cast and and Prof. Albert Doyle, '27, will carry the title role.

Reunion Mass Saturday

At 8:00 a.m. Saturday in Sacred Heart Church the annual Mass for Deceased Alumni will be celebrated. All alumni, particularly the Reunion Classes for whose deceased members the Mass is particularly celebrated, ought to make special effort to attend.

'33's Last Visit

At 9:30 the Class of '33 pays its official Last Visit to Sacred Heart Church in a private ceremony of particular dignity and impressiveness.

Class Day Exercises

Going directly from the Church to Washington Hall, the Seniors there conduct their Class Day exercises, the Oration, the Poem, the Valedictory, etc., and the University awards the many academic prizes of the year.

Baseball Game

Michigan State College and its always snappy baseball nine supply the opposition for the Notre Dame team on Cartier Field at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

The Alumni Banquet

At 6:00 p. m. in the East Hall of the Dining Halls the Annual Alumni Banquet will be served. As for the banquet itself, the University's hospitality is of too long standing to comment further. The University Band will play a concert during the banquet. The President of the Association will deliver an address this year which will be of particular significance to every alumni and a high spot in the history of the Association. President Manion's eloquence and learning are a treat under any circumstances and it is doubtful if anyone could more clearly and emphatically analyze our present problems and prospects. The brief business meeting will be incorporated in the banquet program. Seniors will be present at the banquet as well as alumni. Through the courtesy of the University, there is no charge.

Glee Club Concert

Guests of alumni and Seniors face no embarrassing lull during the Alumni Banquet. On the quadrangle if the weather permits, or otherwise in Washington Hall, at 8:00 p.m. the University’s famous Glee Club, now under contract for a tour of the United States during the entire summer, will put on its Commencement Concert. Programs already given this year and the annual nature of Prof. Casasanta’s singing organization require no further recommendation in this particular organ.

Baccalaureate Mass

Sunday offers one of the great days in Notre Dame’s history. Seldom has it been the good fortune of the University to assemble such an outstanding and able group of speakers in such an impressive schedule of events.

The academic procession starts its dignified progress from the Main Building at 8:30 Sunday morning. At the present writing, and somewhat dependent upon the weather of the day, its destination will be either the shaded part of the Main Quadrangle where an altar will be erected near the Sacred Heart statue, or the University Gymnasium where the elements are less a matter of concern and the accommodations adequate for the crowds.

His Excellency, John F. Noll, D.D., will celebrate the Mass. The famous Moreau Seminary Choir and the University Glee Club will join in the musical program of the Mass.

The Baccalaureate Sermon brings to Notre Dame the famous Father Charles E. Coughlin, pastor of the Shrine of the Little Flower, Royal Oak, Michigan. Familiar with the millions who have listened to Father Coughlin’s radio addresses on the economic state of the nation, familiar with his brilliance and with his eloquence, the Baccalaureate address of 1933 promises to stand out in a long line of brilliant Baccalaureate addresses.

Admission to the Mass, if in the Gymnasium, will be by ticket. Alumni can secure these tickets from the Alumni Office, without charge.

The Senior Flag, presented on Washington’s birthday, will be blessed after the Mass and the Class of ’33 marches with it to the flag pole on the Main Quadrangle, where it is raised, to fly over the campus for the ensuing year.

Monogram Luncheon

The annual reunion of Monogram men will be held and particularly observed with the traditional luncheon in the University Dining Halls.

Awarding of Degrees

The major event of the annual Commencement, the awarding of degrees, will be held at 5:00 p.m. in the University Gymnasium. The time has been moved ahead a half hour to allow for the evening program, which is an innovation this year.

Besides the awarding of the 531 academic and honorary degrees, the occasion offers the happy outlook of a distinguished Commencement address by the Hon. Paul V. McNutt, Governor of the State of Indiana, Governor of the State which chartered the University in 1844. Gov. McNutt comes here with a natural background of interest and importance. Combining with this his keen interest and active participation in education as dean of the law school of Indiana, and his broad experience as an orator and leader in civic and military organizations, Gov. McNutt takes deserved place in the brilliant line of Commencement speakers.

Fred Murphy, ’92, U. S. Delegate to Geneva

Frederick E. Murphy, ’92, famous farm authority of the Northwest, publisher of the Minneapolis Tribune, has just been appointed by Roosevelt as one of three U. S. delegates to the wheat conference at Geneva, Switzerland. Several newspaper comments are of interest:

“Frederick E. Murphy believed that men learn from their successes, rather than their failures. So when hard times started in the farm belt in 1921, he used his Minneapolis Tribune to scout successful farmers and to organize and educate for success.

“The Minnesota Plan, widely diversifying crops, was the result. Authoritative opinion is that this is the most important one-man contribution to American agriculture in the period of lean years . . .

“Like President Roosevelt, he courageously overcame a physical handicap. For 20 years he had stooped as the result of an injury to his spine. At 48 he straightened his body by exercise ‘and by will power,’ according to his friends. As president and publisher of the Tribune, and as the evangelist of diversified farming, he spread the gospel of sound farm economics, using his paper to induce farmers to drop raw grains and become manufacturers of finished products—eggs, butter, cheese, fruits, vegetables. He got financial backing for the Northwest from J. P. Morgan Co.

“In 1921 he engaged and paid 12 agricultural experts who built the Minnesota plan and who are still working. He developed his 6,000 acre Femco farm, at Breckenridge, Minn., as an agricultural laboratory and incidentally a paying enterprise. He is a republican, another instance of President Roosevelt’s disregard of partisanship in his search for efficiency.”

Mr. Murphy and the other two delegates, Henry Morgenthau, Sr., New York, and George C. Haas, Washington, D. C., sailed aboard the Bremen this month, meeting at the ship for the first time. Mr. Murphy said he was in the dark as to the mission but was told in Washington that instructions would be wirelessed.

“I think representatives of these countries are just going to talk,” he said, “and see if they can’t get together on some basis to reduce wheat acreage.” Argentine, Australia and Canada are the other participating countries. The conference is preliminary to the international economic conference in London in June.

Gus F. Meehan Establishes N. D. Scholarships

Alumni of Notre Dame will be pleased to learn from the following news story of the generous gesture of loyalty to Notre Dame revealed by the will of the late Augustus Farnsworth, Mr. Meehan, '90, who died April 15. In addition to the value of the scholarships themselves, there is, in the bequest, keen evidence of the situation of Catholic education in the states. Mr. Meehan knew so well. His bequest promises to do immeasurable good by publicity and example far beyond the intrinsic value of the several scholarships.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn.—Thirty per cent of the income of the estate of the late Augustus Farnsworth Meehan, Chattanooga industrialist and Notre Dame alumnus, whose death was announced in the previous issue of The Bulletin, will, after the expiration of life estates left to relatives and servants, go to the Catholic schools in Kentucky, Tennessee, Georgia, Alabama, Virginia and Texas; another twenty-five per cent will go to the poor and infirm of Chattanooga, fifteen per cent to the Home for the Aged in Nashville and the remaining thirty per cent to the orphanages, irrespective of creed, of the states whose Catholic schools are aided, according to the terms of the will made public here April 29.

The estate is said to be valued at about a million dollars. These bequests take effect only after the enjoyment of certain life estates, and the income only is to be devoted to the purposes specified. The Hamilton National Bank, Chattanooga, and a director in a number of other corporations. In 1926, Notre Dame gave him the honorary degree of Master of Science. His favorite sports were hunting and fishing; he hunted big game in Wyoming, Canada and Alaska, and enjoyed tarpon fishing at Boca Grand, Fla. Modest and retiring, the benefactions which he did privately in life are reflected by his will. Mr. Meehan died in Cincinnati, April 15, after an illness of several months. The funeral was held from the Church of the Blessed Sacrament, Fort Mitchell, Ky., with interment at St. Mary's Cemetery, near Covington, Kentucky.

Ray Kelly Detroit Counsel

Raymond J. Kelly of the Class of '18 and former president of the Notre Dame Club in Detroit, and former General Counsel of the Department of Street Railways, has been appointed Corporation Counsel of the City of Detroit by Mayor Frank Couzens.

Mr. Kelly, a former Department Commander of the American Legion of the Department of Michigan, was a candidate for National Commander of the American Legion at the Portland Convention last fall and is, at present, National Executive Committee man for the American Legion of Michigan. His home address is 18075 Fairfield ave., he is the proud father of an even half-dozen of little Kelly's, three boys and three girls, the oldest a boy of 13 the youngest a girl of two and one-half months.

Athletic Staff is Retained

Announcement was made this week by the Reverend M. A. Mulcaire, C.S.C., '77, Chairman of the University Board of Control of the retention of five incumbent members of the Notre Dame athletic department for the school year 1933-34.

Athletic Director Jesse C. Harper, Head Football Coach Harty W. Anderson, and assistant football coaches John Voedisch, Marchmont Schwartz, and Noryd Hoffmann each signed a one-year contract to continue in his present capacity.

The sixth member of the staff, Tom Conley, signed a similar contract to act as assistant football coach earlier in the spring. Conley has been on the campus since early in March and took over his duties during the spring training season.

The one-year contracts signed by Harper and Anderson were the third in succession for each of the men. Following the death of Knute Rockne in 1931 his coaching and Athletic Director duties were assumed by the two men.

End Coach Ike Voedisch has been on the Irish coaching staff since his graduation in 1928. Hoffmann and Schwartz were added to the ranks of assistants following the conclusion of their playing careers in the 1931 season. Tom Yarr, center coach last fall and captain of the 1931 Notre Dame team, is the only member of last year's staff who will not return next fall.

McCarthy Back from East

Dean James E. McCarthy, of the College of Commerce, returned Tuesday from a three-week trip in the East during which he interviewed prospective students and their parents. Dean McCarthy's first stop was in Erie, New York. He ended his tour at Wheeling, W. Va., after passing through Massachusetts, Connecticut, Rhode Island, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland and Washington, D. C.

The Dean's longest stay was in New York City where he spent three days. In Providence, R. I., he attended the celebration of Universal Notre Dame night, April 24, of the Rhode Island Club.

Dean McCarthy stated that in most of the towns he had visited there was evidence of economic recovery. He ventured the prediction that within another four months there will be a very decided improvement in business conditions. What the Dean bases his conviction on is that inventories of wholesalers and retailers are very low at present and have to be replenished. This means that factories are employing more men working longer hours, and that the price of raw materials is going up.
The following accounts reflect the widespread and enthusiastic celebrations which marked the Tenth Annual Universal Notre Dame Night. Many Clubs that held observances have not yet reported, but the Clubs herewith listed give sufficient evidence of the spirit with which the organizations went to work to overcome adverse conditions which were the most unfavorable since the first Night in 1924.

The National officers take this opportunity, publicly, through the ALUMNUS, to express their gratitude to the alumni whose efforts made this world tribute to Notre Dame successful. At this particular time, too, the reflection of alumni loyalty furnished by these observances is of especially stimulating significance to the University.

CAMPUS ON CENTRAL STANDARD TIME

BOSTON

The Hotel Kenmore was the scene of the Boston Club's observance of Universal Notre Dame Night and was in every way the most successful affair we have conducted to date. Sixty of the boys sat down to a fine meal, and were then treated to a fine list of speakers. We had as our guest of honor Dr. Edward Anderson, '22, the new head coach at Holy Cross; Joe McKenney, head coach at Boston College, and Hon. John J. Burns of the Massachusetts Superior Court. Charles C. Gilman, a local celebrity, did a wonderful job as toastmaster and kept the entire group in convulsions.

Among the other celebrities present I observed Charlie Crowley, former coach at Columbia, John McMannan, Joe Sheeketski, Joe Locke, John Miller, the old N. D. fullback, Jim Dooley, Dan O'Connor, the old Georgetown star and friend of "Cap" Edwards, Joe Garland, Bob Hearne, Joe Sullivan, Dr. Sherry, Pat Cohen, Bill Higgins, the old N. D. ball player, and a host of others too numerous to mention.

Saw Dean James E. McCarthy in the afternoon of the 24th and had a most enjoyable hour with him. We were very sorry that his date with Charlie Grimes prevented his appearance at our dinner. Charlie certainly beat me to the gun on Mr. McCarthy.

Have started monthly Club dinners here and they have been very successful. On April 10th we seated 35 for the first meeting. They are scheduled for the second Monday in the month. Things are looking up hereabouts.

COME BACK FOR COMMENCEMENT

BUFFALO

While the nation is shuffling off to Buffalo, no official word has come from there of the meeting on the 24th. However, again, the campus eye sees all and knows most of it. Rev. Thomas A. Lahey, C. S. C., eloquent purveyor of the principles of advertising and the morals of newspaper making, made the trip from the campus to the lake city to address the gathering. The intentions were, at last official report, to assemble a number of prospective students as well as alumni and friends.

DALLAS

The Notre Dame Club of Dallas entertained April 24 at Brook Hollow Golf Club with a dinner and business session. The Rev. Vincent Mooney, C.S.C., member of the faculty of St. Edward's University, Austin, was a special guest for the dinner. While visiting at Dallas he celebrated Mass and preached at the Holy Trinity Church. The members of the Club attended Mass and communion in a body. A breakfast at Melrose Court followed. The news from Dallas is that the Notre Dame system of education received a great boost from Father Mooney's sermon.

President Jim Swift of the Club has entered the law firm of McBride, O'Donnell and Hamilton, a leading Dallas firm. For six years President Swift was attorney for the Employers Casualty Co.

DETROIT

The Notre Dame Club of Detroit has not been burning up the circuit in the matter of activities but we have had a couple of small informal gatherings this spring. The first was held at the Stalter House for the purpose of electing officers for the coming year. The second took the form of a Universal Notre Dame Night Stag Party.

With the invaluable aid of the secretary of the National Alumni Association we were able to have Dean Konop (whose first name still remains a dark secret in these parts) with us for a little message from the campus. This he gave us in such a clear, painted and sympathetic manner, that the 40-odd loquacious beer drinkers present did not believe he had kept them quiet for over 30 minutes. The Dean had a few good stories and he told them well. The general impression was that he is a great fellow. And I can say with all assurance that he gets our vote on anything he wants to run for.

Jack Courtney, butcher on the Notre Dame news stand in the early '20s has grown to be a real traveling salesman, covering the midwestern states for the Electro-Refractions and Alloys Corp. of Buffalo. John Sweeney '28 is with the Equitable Life of N. Y. in that company's Detroit office. Dr. Harvey Brown has a junior in the family, arrived March 10th named after his illustrious father.
The mailing list underwent a number of changes of address and a few additional names. All the speakers were either brief, or so good that they seemed to be brief. The beer was fairly good and easily available. The sociability was at a high point. So passed into history another N. D. Night.

I also want to mention a matter that was decided at the business meeting of the club at the time officers were elected. Retiring president, John E. McNamee, presented an item which he had worked out with John T. Higgins for the protection and preservation of the "Scholarship Fund" which we have built up and by which we have carried a student down at the University for several years. The club it was decided, should be incorporated as a non-profit corporation and that the charter and by laws would so prescribe the process by which funds might be withdrawn from the Scholarship Fund that there would be a minimum of danger of the funds being used in any but the way in which the donors intended they should be used and thereby safeguard the fund and at the same time make it more attractive to donors who could be so much better assured against possibility of misapplication of any funds they might care to contribute. The application papers for the charter were signed and Jack Higgins intrusted with the task of putting the job through the legal routine.

Paul Dooley.

CHICAGO

The Chicago Club's secretary was evidently so thrilled and appalled at the wealth of Notre Dame material presented there on Universal Notre Dame Night by the Rev. John Cavanaugh, C. S. C., that the account of the meeting itself has been delayed in transit. But knowing the Chicago Club and Father Cavanaugh as the world does, we can wait with the assurance that speaker and audience enjoyed the evening and profited from its richness of reminiscence and character.

CAPITAL DISTRICT

The Notre Dame Club of the Capital District observed Universal Notre Dame Night with a stag dinner at the "Golden Nugget" in Schenectady.

Officers elected for the coming year are: Tom Dollard, '21, 200 Ninth street, Troy, N. Y., president; Ronald McNamee, Ballston Spa, N. Y., vice-president; John Vincent Smith, '29, 252 First St., Albany, secretary-treasurer.

The Board of Governors are: Joseph Carey, Jack Casazza, F. Jerome Connelly, Frank Duquette, John Meehan.

Informal talks were made by, John Meehan, Tom Dollard, Ronald McNamee, Frank Duquette and your correspondent. '32" was dispensed, which may accord the number of speakers. All 15 of the faithful who turned out for the dinner were unanimous in declaring that they had an enjoyable evening.

President Dollard promises to call an early meeting of Officers and "governors" at which serious consideration will be given to the formulation of plans for the coming year.

John Vincent Smith.

GREEN BAY

At our meeting on Universal Notre Dame Night, the same officers were re-elected, namely Harold Londo, '24, president; John V. Diener, '09, vice-president, and myself as secretary-treasurer. The meeting was held at Collins Fellet's new home, and we more than made up in enthusiasm for our lack of numbers.

Edmond Arvey, '09, Dr. Henry Atkinson, Arnold Biebel, Bob Flatley, Franklin Deuster, Jim Farrell, John Diener, Harold Londo, Mr. Warren Hagerty and Joseph Martin all joined in calling the party a success.

Bob Lynch, '03, was not with us because he had to be in Madison helping the governor decide how many glasses of beer we ought to get for a nickel. Bob was elected state assemblyman last fall.

John V. Diener, '09, was re-elected mayor of Green Bay last month. The voters of Green Bay seem to have the habit of marking a cross after his name although John still puts in a couple uneasy hours while the vote is counted. The same officers who served last year are: Tom Dollard, '21, 200 Ninth Street, Troy, N. Y., president; Ronald McNamee, Ballston Spa, N. Y., vice-president; Joseph Martin of Rapid River, Henry Lauerman, 24-'27, Aurora, Ralph Gosselin, 24-'27, Aurora, Paul Ochsenchiller, '20-'21, Aurora, Frank Shepand '29, Aurora, John Badry, '27-'28, Aurora, Dr. John Tobin, Elected '29, Elgin, Arthur Parker, '19-'20, Elgin, William Amell, '06, Aurora.

LAPORTE

While the Laporte Club has failed to boast of its achievement, the Alumni Office happens to know that a very fine U. N. D. Night meeting was held there. Coach George Keoghan of the varsity basketball and baseball teams was the principal speaker. A number of prominent guests, officials and citizens of Laporte were present, as were a group of boys who are interested in coming to Notre Dame. A. Gordon Taylor, president of the Club, organized and presided at the meeting.

LOUISIANA-MISSISSIPPI

The above heading will convey the news to you that I have actively joined the ranks of the Legal Profession and have erected a shingle at 207 Post Office Building. I am now actively engaged in practice in Louisiana and having done so to the satisfaction of the Local Bar Association am now actively engaged in practice.

The purpose of this letter is to inform you that the Louisiana-Mississippi Club (Alumni) held the accustomed Annual Banquet on Universal Notre Dame Night at 7:30 P. M. The party took place in the Faculty Dining Room of Holy Cross College and was attended by some thirty-five alumni and their friends. It was the most enthusiastic meeting ever held by the Club and was attended by the largest number of Notre Dame men since the organization of the club. The faculty of Holy Cross College headed by Brother Gerard, C.S.C. extended a cordial greeting to members and clergy and to say that the Treasuer is still in town and we do not feel it necessary to bond him at the present time inasmuch as the deficit is in healthy condition and the finances were not affected directly by the inflation arrives in these parts we will know what is happening in this most favored spot, I endeavor to acquaint you with the facts.

KANSAS CITY

Being treasurer of a Club these days really entails no work at all so due to the fact that our worthy secretary, "Rome" Dugan, is on his honeymoon in the sunny South at present, the task has befallen me to inform you as to the outcome of our meeting on Universal Notre Dame Night. The meeting was held at the Hotel Baltimore and when the time to start arrived most of the members were present—much to the amazement of all. About 75 persons were present including "Fog" Allen and Bill Harriss of Kansas University; "Moon" Mullins from St. Benedict's College; Frank Carideo from Missouri University; Major Fleming, former athletic director at Notre Dame; and a host of others too numerous to mention. Our club president, Dan Foley, did a nice job of arranging things and we were furnished talkie pictures of "Rock" and his teams, a little high powered entertainment and plenty of the new 3.2 national drink. In brief, to use the trite expression, a good time was had by all.

Things moved along rapidly and not much time was devoted to transacting any of the weighty matters on our business calendar—in fact, the present officers of the Club were not even voted out. However, we intend at one time or another to cast a few ballots and at that time determine in whose hands will lie the leadership of our Club for the coming year. Many plans and ideas are blossoming forth for a real active Notre Dame club of Kansas City and ere long we hope to be doing much more in our spare time than has been done previously. We have quite a few Notre Dame men around here and if we could ever get them all lined up at the same time I think their number would surprise us all.

LOUIS ANGELES

Because I anticipate a demand from the Alumni throughout the country to know what is happening in this most favored spot, I endeavor to acquaint you with the facts.

First and foremost the Local Club celebrated Universal Notre Dame night with a banquet at the University Club. Forty-nine of the faithful attended. JACOB WADDEN, '06, closed his most successful term as President of the Club by calling for a prayer of thanksgiving that Father O'Donnell was not lost to the University. Retiring Treasurer "SID" SIDENFADEN, '29, (not Dept. head of Union Oil), and LARRY MOORE, '29, of Fox Film Fame, were voted the gratitude of the Club for their efficient two years service.

Honor Judge ALPONSE A. SCOTT, '20, was unanimously selected to guide the destinies of the Club for the ensuing year, and able orator, THOS. HEARN, '14, was likewise drafted to serve as vice-president. Other officers elected, (not without keen competition) were Henry J. MASSMAN, '29, Treasurer and EDWARD P. CUNNINGHAM, '28, Secretary.
It is gratifying to us that many Easterners are coming into our fold. The names include A. Farrell, '31, and Art Sherrin, '31, who have set up here in the finance business. Reggie Bittner, '29, and "Chett" Ashman, '30, have also joined us. Chet is a valued employee of Sears-Roebuck and was responsible for bringing in Big Bill Tilden to town recently. But we belong to the army of the unemployed. Tommy Madden, '30, is also one of our new citizens and a promising young barrister. Charlie Gass, '29, is well placed in the same profession. Speaking of lawyers, banker "Gene" Kennedy, '20, was among those passing the recent bar exams. Spike England, '31, walks in from Redlands occasionally and avows that he is political boss of Riverside County. Joe Daley, '28, and "Doug" Daley, '30, are trying to show their dad how the printing business should be run. Joe's new wife wouldn't let him out the night of our big party, and Doug's little Doug Jr. was breaking in a new tooth so Doug didn't show either. Speaking of babies Ed Ashe, '26, is again a proud daddy, this time it is Junior.

The latest mail tells us that Al Howard, '30, who once called Alhambra his home, is sharing his job as assistant coach at South Carolina with a new bride, (they say she's Irish). Johnny O'Brien, '30, tells us that he is going to take Johnny Jr. sailing this summer and doesn't expect to come West. Tom Lier, '23, is looking forward to his best year at Loyola U. Tom is equally respected for his coaching and his after dinner speaking in this locality. Manly Vezie, '30, had added a selective leash to his farm and a wild game farm to his coaching duties. If it's wild duck, turkey, quail or pheasant that you want, drop our adopted son a line. Emmett McCabe, '29, has finally come down to earth. He is working with the Bureau of Water & Power and does everything but pick his teeth.

You'll readily see, Jim, that California names make news. There'll be more of them and more about them for your next edition. Sorry Jim that the '28 boys haven't the "DINERO" to get back to commencement this year. I guess you'll have to give us until 1938 to make a little. Dick Cannon.

COMEBACK FOR COMMENCEMENT

MILWAUKEE

Universal Notre Dame Night was celebrated by forty members of the Milwaukee Club at the Balcony Grill in the Plankinton Arcade. Ed O'Gara, '17, was toastmaster at the dinner. After dinner was over, we immediately proceeded with the election of officers for the coming year. Bill Reddan, '14, was renominated for the presidency, but declined saying that he had had the position for the last three years and felt that someone else should have it. The following were elected as officers: President, P. Dudley Pearson, '19; Honorary President, Tom Dunne, '28; Vice President, Tom Kelly, '18; Secretary, Dick Cannon, '32; Treasurer, Paul Brust, '28; Sergeant at Arms, Tom Hearndon of Racine, '27; Chaplain, the Rev. John O'Boyle of Pio Nono College, and Director at Camp Rockne.

We had a discussion as to the ways and means of using the sixty dollars got at the card party in December. It was finally decided that fifty dollars be sent to you to use as you see fit. The remaining ten dollars to be sent to Father O'Hara.

There followed a discussion as to the next meeting after the boys get back to their homes. It was finally decided that fifty dollars be sent to you to use as you see fit. The remaining ten dollars to be sent to Father O'Hara.

The meeting was closed shortly after this. This is by way of postscript to my other letter. Lloyd Breen, '29, is at present employed by the Milwaukee Telephone Company.

Professor Downey was in town this last week giving talks in the various schools in this vicinity. Bill Redden, Paul Brust and myself had luncheon with him last Thursday. At that time, we made preliminary arrangements forming a local committee to make a canvass of the local high schools to select students for school.

We hope to be able to bring some of these prospects down to school May 19 and 20 to see what a really fine school and campus we have.

Dick Cannon.

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA

Just a few lines to let you know that the Notre Dame spirit is still alive out here on the Golden Gate although we may have been a bit lax on some matters the past year or two. Yes we have had somewhat of a depression out here on the coast although things as a whole I don't think have been as bad as they were in the past. We hope to get back to commencement May 19 and 20 to see what a really fine school and campus we have.

Dick Cannon.

Now to get down to business as to our doings in these parts. We held our Annual Universal Notre Dame Dinner a week ago tonight at the States Hof Brau Restaurant in San Francisco, with a turnout of nineteen including our several guests. We all had a grand time together, sang several of the old school songs, and everyone was called upon to say a few words. Finally we all agreed to meet often in the future and not wait or depend on football alone to get us together. We all seem to feel that too much of our good fellowship and get together spirit has been motivated mainly by football, but we have and always will believe me when I say that the past two years has shown us who are loyal to Notre Dame primarily as a wonderful school. But the old school has the will I know to come back and win again and dispel all who feel we are out of big time. More power to Hunk Anderson, and convey to him that we here in Northern California are all back of him, but that we wish he would get that game lined up with the University of California so we can show him and the team some real California spirit.

We also had the election of officers to serve the coming year and are as follows:

President: Royal H. Bossard, '17; Vice-President: Richard J. Fuite, '25; Secretary: Robert B. Hill, o. s., '19.

The following are the Notre Dame men who attended the dinner last week:

If you have a list of former Notre Dame men who are living in this part of California I would be very glad to receive the names as there must be quite a few who have never been heard from. Also would like to have the exact birthdate of Knute Rockne as we are planning to institute if possible an annual dinner on the date of his birth, with the idea of inviting all football coaches, players, sport writers and all others interested in perpetuating Knute's memory. This plan is still in the planning stage but as we have quite a few schools and colleges within fifty miles of the bay area among them Slip Madigan, Clipper Smith, Buck Shaw and Bill Ingram who were mighty close to Knute we feel that we might make it go.

Think that this has covered the territory in good shape this time so will sign off. With best regards from the NOTRE DAME CLUB of NORTHERN CALIFORNIA and myself, I am,

Robert B. Hill.
NEW YORK

In connection with the Communion Breakfast held on April 2, the last issue of the ALUMNUS did not give credit to William E. O'Reilly, Jr., for doing fine work as chairman of the committee in charge of that affair.

The signing of the beer bill brought plenty of the well known "amber fluid" to New York, but it also was the cause of taking away our president, John E. Kenney. Jack has gone to New Castle, Pa., where he is manager of the Union Brewing Company, 510-20 Sampson street.

The Board of Governors have elected Mr. Winifred A. Walsh, former mayor of Yonkers, as president and Mr. Raymond J. Scanlan is the new vice-president.

Leo V. McLaughlin has been selected to finish Mr. Kenney's term on the Board of Governors.

Universal Notre Dame Night at the Great Northern Hotel brought out one of the largest crowds that we have had. Our guest of honor for the evening was Jim Crowley, Coach of Fordham University. Dan Halpin was chairman for the occasion and did a great job.

J. P. McEvoy acting as toastmaster had many prominent speakers to call on. Jesse C. Harper was there as Notre Dame's representative and talked about the football prospects. Chick Meehan from Manhattan, Lou Little from Columbia, and Jack Coffey from Fordham all spoke and welcomed Crowley to New York as a fellow coach.

We were honored to have Joe Brandy, famous quarterback of a few years ago, drop in and spend a few minutes with us.

Mr. Edward H. Hopcraft, Director of the Artist's Bureau of the Kinkebecker Broadcasting Co., was kind enough to bring along several of the entertainers that are heard over station WMCA.

Mario Chamlee, Metropolitan star, and John Shevlin, concert singer, completed the fine group of talent that performed for us on that night. Judge Hammer of the Supreme Court, Father Kelly, Chaplain of the Catholic Writers Guild, and "Flame" Baer, famous newspaper writer, all gave very interesting talks.

Dean McCarthy was the guest of the Board of Governors at a luncheon in the New York Athletic club on April 29th. After the luncheon we had a group of prospective students meet Dean McCarthy in the Centre club—the old Catholic club. We hope that the meeting will have been successful in obtaining several new students for Notre Dame.

Camps are being held at Morris-town over the week-end of May 19 is being well planned for by William A. Daunt, promoter for the New York club. Everyone is looking forward to a pleasant and beneficial week-end.

PEORIA

I suppose my first duty as the newly elected secretary of the Peoria Notre Dame Club is to write you about the happenings of our meeting on Universal Notre Dame Night. We had about 20 or 25 fellows from Peoria and vicinity at a stag dinner at the Endres Hotel in Peoria. The meeting was presided over by President John Noppenberger. An election of officers was held in which Albert F. Gury, '28, was elected president, Ralph Dalton, '31, Bloomington, Ill., vice president and yours truly was given the job as secretary and treasurer (of what).

It was decided at the meeting to hold weekly luncheons each Saturday noon at the Jefferson Hotel Grill Room, so if any of the N. D. Boys ever hit Peoria on Saturdays be sure and have them drop in.

Arrangements have been made to hold a party June 11th for the Alumni in Central Illinois and also the students attending school now who will be home from N. D. at that time.

If you ever want to get in touch with me I can be reached at 201 Hillier Place, Peoria Ill.

RHODE ISLAND

Dean J. E. McCarthy of the College of Commerce, arriving too late to report the Providence observance of N. D. Night in Rhode Island, the Editor can only surmise from the precedent and announcement that the new Club enjoyed Dean McCarthy's presence and conducted the meeting with the same spirit of enthusiasm, constructive effort and enjoyment withal as the initial meetings.

ROCK RIVER VALLEY

The Notre Dame Club of the Rock River Valley had a meeting last Monday night at a tavern near Byron, Ill. (Byron is about 12 miles from Rockford.) A most enjoyable dinner was served, following which was the election of officers for the next year. The "business meeting" preceded the real high spots of the evening's entertainment, for the closing hours were filled with typical Notre Dame parley, in which one group tried to outdo the others in stories and etc. A most enjoyable evening was had and plans have already been set in motion for a picnic this summer.

Following are the officers elected for the next term: Honorary president, Frank Petritz, '03; president, Ray Marelli, '27; vice-president, Robert Dixon, '29; secretary-treasurer, Frank Howland, '25.

Hoping to see you in June and until then lost of good luck, I am

Frank Howland.

SYRACUSE AND CENTRAL N. Y.

Universal Notre Dame Night was rather well attended at the University Club in Syracuse. President George Kinney for the last time called the meeting to order, asked for nominations for new officers, he himself nominating Vince Brown for president. That carried the meeting unanimously and the Notre Dame Club of Syracuse and Central N. Y. lost a very good secretary.

All members realized this and tried to retain something of him in his past office so they took me because the name Vince is still there. Those much in attendance were William E. Byrne, Fred De Laney, Jacob Eckel, James Huxford, Leo Kelley, George Kinney, William Sullivan, E. C. Schonlau, Vince Brown, H. J. Corcoran, Patrick J. Quirk and the undersigned. Arrangements were made for a golf match the last Thursday in June.

ST. JOSEPH VALLEY

Observing the calm before what was announced as a prospective storm of activity next N. D. Night, the Notre Dame Club of the St. Joseph Valley gathered its long active membership for a quiet evening of the old N. D. family life in the sociable and comfortable club rooms of the South Bend K. of C. for an informal program launching the administration of the officers announced last month.

Violating second-hand promises of immunity, a number of favorite priests from the University were called on during the evening, learning the difference between "no speeches" and "just a little talk" from the fluent young barrister in command, President Paul Butler. No injustice is intended to the platform eloquence of the speakers when the remark is here made that their impromptu talks could hardly have been improved upon for the occasion, audience and purpose facing them.

Retiring President Meehan and Alumni Secretary Armstrong gave the "organization" orations. The constructive side of the evening was supplied by the Revs. Eugene and Thomas Burke, C.S.C., Rev. John Reynolds, C.S.C., and Rev. Patrick Doherty, C.S.C. The new科mmander of the Club, Rev. Michael Muleaire, C.S.C., was a belated but welcome arrival and spoke to the Club, outlin-

TRIPLE CITIES

The Triple Cities Club celebrated Universal Notre Dame Night with a dinner at the Hotel Benett in Binghamton, New York. A large number of Alumni from this section and a couple of prospective students of Notre Dame were present.

The Rev. James Connerton, C.S.C., of Notre Dame, Honorary President of the local Club was the guest of honor for the occasion and gave a very interesting talk. He stressed the importance of the Alumni to the University and urged the local club to interest qualified young men in Notre Dame.

The club has made contact with a number of prospective students and all the Alumni intend to follow out this work with help and advice in all cases.

Election of officers for the ensuing year took place with the following results:

Joseph Carey, '32, president; Edward O'Brien, vice-president; Joseph Hennessey, '30, secretary; and Donald Kennedy, treasurer.

The remainder of the evening was spent in informal discussions of life at Notre Dame and in the singing of Notre Dame songs. Father Connerton rendered several piano selections. A fine time was had by all present.

TOLEDO

As you know Professor Charles Phillips was here for Universal Notre Dame Night. We had a very good gathering at Hillcrest Arms, Tower Room, about 50 men present.

The following is a short resume of the evening. President Carey gave a short talk commemorating Rockne and introduced Dr. Edward McCormick, toastmaster. Toastmaster Dr. Murphy introduced Dr. Edward McCormick, a man the medical men of Toledo are proud to have in their profession.

Dr. McCormick gave praise to Prof. Phillips, his accomplishments at Notre Dame and elsewhere. He told of responsibility N. D. men should not forget the responsibility they owe to their Alma Mater. 3) Notre Dame men should share with other young boys the advantages they have had in Notre Dame education.

Sandwiches and the amberfluid were served.

Our annual meeting and election of officers will be held the second Tuesday in May. Will mail you financial report, officers selected, etc. then.

Fred Sprenger.

The following is the result of the election held at the annual meeting May 9.

President, Fred A. Sprenger; vice-president, Ed Hagerty; secretary, Joseph Wetli; treasurer, Norbert Scharf; sergeant at arms, Paul Aubry; trustee (4 yrs.), Ray Tillman.

The annual report was incomplete. A golf tournament will be held by the club at Sunningdale on Sunday, June 11. Chairman, John Hurley and Art Suder.

Joe Wetli will advise you of the financial status of the club as soon as report is complete.

Fred Sprenger.
The downtown coach, "inside" dopester, the enthusiastic sport-page columnist, and others have told you either point-blank or in scurrilous innuendo that Notre Dame will do something to get a good football player.

You have probably been informed authoritatively that "the athletic situation at Notre Dame is a rotten mess."

This news, then, will be a welcome change, from an invective of ignominy to a paean of unstinted praise. It is printed here not in the spirit of brag-gadocio but rather to set your misgivings at ease, and more important, to give you a ready answer to any unfounded charges which might come your way. Out of modesty, it was not publicized elsewhere.

C. J. Stradley, dean of registration at Ohio State university, came to Notre Dame during the spring to investigate the athletic situation for the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

"I came with a chip on my shoulder," he said. "Notre Dame's reputation is not good. Some people have the idea that athletes are registered there without a complete high school education, or without any high school education."

He had heard also that athletes are given "rides" at Notre Dame in return for participation in the form of athletics at which they were most proficient.

Mr. Stradley was frank in admitting that he was searching for information on the nature of and that he would leave no stone unturned in ferreting out this information.

It must have been somewhat of a surprise to him when the priests at Notre Dame threw their offices and records wide open to him and welcomed the investigation.

He went into the registrar's office to find that every athlete—or other student—at Notre Dame has fulfilled the requirements for entrance approved by the N. C. A. C. In the director of studies' office, he took the four-year scholastic averages of the 12 graduating football men. Then he went through the files and picked 12 students at random from the classes of the past four years. The scholastic averages of the athletes was three-tenths of one percent higher than that of the other students at random.

He discovered that Mike Leding of South Bend, monogram winning tackle with the 1932 team, is valedictorian of the 1933 class with an average of 96.5 for four years in the college of engineering. He found the names of many prominent high school athletes who were refused admission because of a lack of high school credits.

He went to the office of the secretary and found that the financial accounts of the athletes were in good order.

He found that while athletes are being helped through school by being permitted to work, they are not being singled out for the 400 jobs given to students every year. He went into the dining halls, where most of the jobs are held, and declared that the men working there were earning every cent they were getting.

His report before the association at its Chicago meeting covered nine pages. It contained nothing but favorable comment.

"I only wish I could make as good a report for every school I have examined," Mr. Stradley said. "I went to Notre Dame looking for something and found nothing. The school has as clean an athletic department as any in the association."

He suggested that the report be published, but since that is against the policy of the N. C. A. C., it was not printed. The remarks printed here were made to the Rev. M. A. Mulcaire, C.S.C., vice-president of the University and chairman of the athletic board of control. Many of them were contained in the clean bill of health given Notre Dame in the official report of Mr. Stradley's report.

BASEBALL

Now there are rumors that the big leagues are putting several prospective baseball stars through Notre Dame. The stories started with the ruling that the majors cannot obtain sandlot players directly, but must buy them from a minor league or get them from the colleges and universities. The story is that the major league managers pick out a good high school player, put him into college, and then take him out after a year or two. This is probably true.

S-o-o-o-o-o-o. Every time a player makes a circus catch or gets a hit, someone somewhere says "The Giants is paying his way," or "The Giants own him," or "He's going to Baltimore in June."

Your correspondent rises to assure you that nothing done on the part of the Irish baseball team this spring warrants the rumors. The team has won one game, tied one and lost, at Boston College, 10-9.

GOLF

Nothing seems to be able to stop the Notre Dame tradition for good golf teams, now in its fourth year. Led by Captain Johnny Montedonico of Memphis, the team has won four matches this year, all by comfortable margins. Loyola fell, 15 1/2 to 2 1/2, Purdue, which beat Notre Dame last year, 17 to 11, the next foe, recently tied Northwestern, so you know what to expect there. Chicago comes here May 20, and then Notre Dame goes to Terre Haute to win the state meet.

If entered in the national collegiate tournament, we predict that Notre Dame will take no worse than third behind such well-coached teams as Yale, Harvard, Princeton, or Michigan.

JOHNNY BANKS, Western Junior champ; Vincent Fehlig, consistently the low man in early matches; Billy Cole, and Bill Veeneman have left little to be desired in competition this year. It takes 75 or better to stay on the team, to give you a rough idea.

Hall of fame? In some respects, yes, for all of them. As Class Secretaries they've been good, and as individual alumni of Notre Dame they've been even better. Most of them are pretty regular in attending Commencement.

But, this year they're all Secretaries of Reunion Classes. Not only are they expected in person, but they're expected to bring their Classes with them. Buckley's peppy 5-year crowd of '28 are coming back strong, in every activity. But not much has been heard from the other Classes.

ETC.

Ping-Pong has also found an anonymous sponsor in the person of the gent who thought of having a school tournament in the Carroll "rec" room. Ho hum.

Late Baseball Bulletin

Notre Dame took two games from Iowa by respective scores of 8 to 5 and 2 to 0 as we galloped to press, and Coach George Keogan has decided not to raffle off the team to those who held chances, viz., the department of physical education, Moreau seminary, the interhall league, the Boston Red Sox, the boys, the downtown coaches, St. Mary's college, and the Indiana. Jim Leonard, of football fame, and Johnny Sagartz of Chicago did the pitching behind good hitting and admirable support.

This Dix group contains some of the names of men who are so identified with the progress of the Association that they are certain to form a nucleus for the less frequent visitors of these Classes—Warren Cartier, Very Rev. James A. Burns, C.S.C., John L. Heineman, P. E. Burke, Patrick J. Nelson, Matthew M. White, C. J. Stubbs, (just Knighted by Pius XI you remember), all familiar in present as well as past Notre Dame history.

1904-05-06-07-08

The Silver Jubilee Class of 1908 is listed here with the Dix Group just preceding it because it was undoubtedly the great promise in these Classes that resulted in the formation of the new Alumni Association. In 1908, the 25th anniversary of which so happily coincides with the Silver Jubilee of '08. In these Classes are the men who have formed the nucleus of all the activities of the Association

1883

For the first time in a number of years, the 50-Year Class has an opportunity to really take part in the Commencement program. Prof. Anderson is an able leader and an able alumnus. The general hope is that distance will not prevent the brothers Arnold of Washington, D. C.; Dr. Albert Zahm, of the same place, who ought to be back for the Laetare Medal Reunion Jubilee anyway; Gen. Joseph P. O'Neill, of Portland; Msgr. Burke of Peoria; William J. McCarthy of Cincinnati, and others, from being here for their own Golden Jubilee. The achievements of the Class are reflected in the able and versatile men listed above.

from that auspicious occasion until the present era—Byron Kanaley, Rev. Thomas Irving, C.S.C., G. A. Farabaugh, Harry Hogan, Bob Proctor, Walter Daly, Rev. Maurice Griffin, Quintan Stacard, Dan O'Connell, Father Mike Shea, Billy Jamieson, John Worden, the large Class from the Order in 1906 including the present President of the University, Arthur Funk, Terence Cosgrove, E. M. Morris, Frank A. McCarthy, John Cushion, John Dubbs, Pat Malloy, Paul McGannon, the Superior General Father James W. Donahue, Father Bolger, Ambrose O'Connell, and a host of others, mention of any of whom guarantees a merit list without end. The Silver Jubilee Class has a wealth of alumni leadership represented in its roster—Frank Cull, Leroy Keach, Max St. George, George Sprenger, Varnum Parish, Father Joseph Boyle, C.S.C., John Roach, Robert Bracken, John Berteling, Prof. Caparo, and numerous others not as close to the campus in recent years.

The Alumni Office is going to be very surprised if this crowd doesn't get behind Frank Cull, Silver Jubilee Secretary, '28 at least, and have some sort of a function to reunite this array of prominent figures in the University's life—past, present, and, judging from the hale and hearty '28, to come.

1923-24-25-26

Getting into '23-4-5-6, where the Editor knows the make-up of the Classes, it's just a question of having room enough. There hasn't been a Commencement since '23 that wasn't well represented by this succession of alumni. These Classes caught the spirit of Notre Dame expansion and they come back in a big way to a big spot in their memories.

Louis Buckley, Secretary of '28, speaks for the Class:

This is the last call for the men of '28 to come back for the 5-Year Reunion. The following program has been arranged.

1. Come to Dillon Hall, (next to the Dining Halls) where you will be assigned a room with the '28 gang. There will be some great "sessions" here Friday and Saturday nights.

2. A buffet lunch, with everything that goes with a gathering of '28 men, will be held at the Coquillard (Dining Halls) on Eastern edge of South Bend) from 8:00 to 7:45 Saturday night. We will leave from Dillon Hall about 7:45.

3. Saturday morning the deceased members of the Class will be commemorated in a Mass at 8 o'clock in Sacred Heart Church.

4. Members of the Class are urged to bring their golf clubs and to enter the Alumni Tournament on Friday and Saturday. No charge for the use of the course, Tournament or not.

5. There will be special tables for '28 at the Alumni Banquet on Saturday night in the East Hall of the University Dining Halls.

Letters have been sent to all members of the Class of '28, to men in our Class who did not graduate with us, and to the law men of '29 who started with us in '24, whose addresses we have correctly. If you haven't returned your card as yet, please do so at once so we can make definite plans. If you cannot come, return the card anyway so we can read your message to the gang at the meeting Friday night. The local committee and the Alumni Office have expended a great deal of time and effort to make this a success, so please return the card at once. Cards have been received to date, only a week after the letter went out, from the following men telling us they will be present:

The Painless Operation

High up under the dome of Boston's Massachusetts General Hospital, far removed from the wards so that the screams of sufferers under the knife will not horrify the ward patients, is the Hospital's famed operating amphitheatre. Many a medical student dreads the operations he is privileged to watch, frequently faints. But one day last week Dr. John C. Warren, Boston surgeon, led a group of surgeons and students (class of 1847) up the long stairs, eager, hurrying.

For there beckoned an interesting experiment—surgery without pain. Dr. William Thomas Green Morton, 27-year old Boston dentist, thought it possible, had experimented to that end with ether, a volatile, pungent chemical compound capable of producing insensibility. He had tried it on animals, on himself, then on his patients while extracting the roots of decayed teeth. Finally he had obtained permission from Dr. Warren to let him test his drug before an audience. One Gilbert Abbott, with a tumor on his neck, was to be the first trial.

At 11 a.m. the last privileged student hurried into the amphitheatre. Experimentee Abbott, fidgeting on the operating-table, looked anxiously at the clock. Casual talk ceased, sudden silence prevailed as the minute-hand crawled past the hour, and Dr. Morton did not appear. "He and his anesthetic! Humbugs both, no doubt," mumbled a doctor. It became five minutes past eleven, ten, then a quarter after. The patient stirred uneasily. Dr. Warren selected an instrument, advanced to the table—useless to delay proceedings any longer. As his knife poised for the incision, Dr. Morton, breathless, apologetic, rushed in. He held in one hand a curious globe-and-tube apparatus. In eager concentration, tensely expectant, the waiting group of surgeons and students watched while the newcomer—a charlatan perhaps, a genius possibly—adjusted his peculiar inhaling apparatus to the patient's mouth and with tense composure administered his anesthetic. Veiled skepticism revealed itself when the patient reacted suddenly in wild exhilaration, but this exuberance subsided, relaxation took its place, then unconsciousness. Skepticism was routed, amazement paramount. Said Dentist Morton to Surgeon Warren: "Your patient is ready."

Dr. Warren began to operate, proceeded quickly, in five minutes had finished. From the patient came no cry of pain, no agony of distress, only slight movements, mumbled words as from one who stirs on the borderland of sleep.

"This, gentlemen," exclaimed Surgeon Warren, "is no humbug."

Awake, Gilbert Abbott said, "I felt no pain."

So, in part, had TIME been published in October, 1846, would TIME have reported the first public demonstration of ether as a surgical anesthetic. So, too, would TIME have reported how one Dr. Crawford Williamson Long, of Georgia, came forward later saying that he had used ether four years previous, had given it up as impractical... So, too, would TIME have reported the bitter persecution that came to Dentist Morton when he patented his discovery as "Letheon"; the seizure of "Letheon" by the U. S. Government for its own uses; the claims of Dr. Charles T. Jackson, the Boston chemist from whom Dentist Morton had obtained his ether; the division of the Paris Academy of Medicine's 5,000 franc Monthyon Prize for 1852 between these two, with Morton proudly refusing his share; the long Congressional investigations resulting in nothing; and Dentist Morton's death in poverty in 1865.

Cultivated Americans, impatient with cheap sensationalism and windy bias, turn increasingly to publications edited in the historical spirit. These publications, fair-dealing, vigorously impartial, devote themselves to the public weal in the sense that they report what they see, serve no masters, fear no groups.

A friend of CHESTERFIELD writes us of a salesman who had "something to say":

"I dropped into a little tobacco shop, and when I asked for a pack of Chesterfields the man smiled and told me I was the seventh customer without a break to ask for Chesterfields. 'Smoker after smoker,' he said, 'tells me that Chesterfields click . . . I sell five times as many Chesterfields as I did a while back.'"

Yes, there's something to say about Chesterfields and it takes just six words to say it—"They're mild and yet they satisfy."
