1954 FOUNDATION PROGRAM
Stress Faculty Development Fund

The Notre Dame Foundation program in 1954 will be highlighted by a meeting on campus of State Governors and City Chairmen; a personal solicitation campaign of all alumni through the efforts of governors and chairmen in the early months of this year; and a continuing emphasis on the over-all Faculty Development Fund as well as advancing the Distinguished Professors Program through corporation support.

Since the January ALUMNUS will be published prior to a complete year-end report for 1953, final statistics will be announced in the following issue. From all indications, as the magazine goes to press, 1953 will have been one of the most productive years of the Notre Dame Foundation.

Governors and chairmen, from those states and cities where there is the heaviest concentration of alumni, will return to the University for a real workshop session on February 12. All phases of Foundation activity will be discussed with the more than 80 representatives expected to attend the conference and University administrative officials will outline various aspects of the Foundation program as they apply to physical expansion on campus and academic developments.

New Governors, Chairmen

Many of those attending the meeting will have been recently appointed to Foundation duties by the Rev. Theodore M. Hesburgh, C.S.C., president, during a process of re-organization. The program is being planned which will allow for maximum discussion periods among participants. Ideas stimulating from those present at the conference will undoubtedly result in furnishing the Foundation campus staff, under the direction of the Rev. John J. Cavanaugh, C.S.C., with additional constructive methods of operation.

A personal solicitation campaign of alumni in chairman areas will start on March 1 and continue through May 20, 1954. Committees, working under the supervision of City Chairmen, will be supplied with information and material from the campus office for this project. In addition to personal contact during the campaign, the Foundation office will send out the usual number of direct mail pieces for the 12th Annual Alumni Fund. In attempting to obtain 100% response from alumni-givers, during this special period, Governors, Chairmen and Committees will then have an opportunity to concentrate on non-alumni solicitation during the remaining months of the calendar year.

Personal Solicitation Campaign

The campus office will forward a report of contributors to City Chairmen and he in turn will notify solicitors concerning those who have given to the Foundation. By the close of the campaign on May 20 alumni in Chairman cities will have had at least one contact from a soliciting committee member.

By mid-December, 1953, just prior to the ALUMNUS going to press, 123 American corporations had contributed financial support to Notre Dame. Scholarships, fellowships and research grants were provided by 105 corporations, while 18 corporations restricted their gifts for the Distinguished Professors Program.

Father Cavanaugh emphasized that “Notre Dame is a private institution which receives financial assistance from neither Church nor State and which must rely in increasing measure on its alumni, friends and corporations for support.”

Industry and Private Education

Pointing up industry's stake in private education, Father Cavanaugh stated that 180 industrial and business organizations sent representatives to Notre Dame during 1952-53 to interview seniors for employment with their firms. “We are pleased and proud that so many of our recent graduates have already established themselves as junior executives in corporations from coast to coast,” Father Cavanaugh said.

Noting that four major buildings have been erected on campus in less than two years, Father Cavanaugh reported that all unrestricted gifts to the University during 1954 would be allocated for faculty development.

With the continued cooperation of individual alumni, of alumni clubs, non-alumni friends and corporations, and of Governors and Chairmen, 1954 could conceivably be the year of greatest financial support for Notre Dame since the Foundation was organized in 1947.

FRONT COVER—With the "new look" becoming more prevalent than otherwise it was thought that the Notre Dame ALUMNUS should fall in line so beginning with the initial issue of 1954 a new cover different in design from any other alumni magazine anywhere, we believe, is presented for the first time. And to keep pace with it, variations in headline styling and general makeup have been added.

GUS DORAIS DIES

AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Charles E. (Gus) Dorais, '14, Knute Rockne's teammate and the man who revolutionized the game of football 30 seasons ago by introducing the forward pass as an offensive weapon, died on January 3 at his Birmingham, Michigan home. He had been ill for more than a year.

Mr. Dorais gained fame not only as a Notre Dame great but also as coach of Detroit University for 18 years, and later as head coach of the Detroit Lions for five seasons.

In the summer of 1913 the Dorais to Rockne forward pass combination was perfected while the two were working at a resort near Sandusky, O. That fall the pair completed 12 passes good for three touchdowns against Army and upset the Cadets 35-13. It was a game that has gone down in football's record books as one of the most famous ever played.

He is survived by his wife and four children who were at his bedside when he died.
Editorial Comments from your Alumni Secretary

Happy New Year!

The 110th anniversary of the chartering of Notre Dame by the State of Indiana!

The Marian Year designated by His Holiness, Pius XII, to culminate in the Centenary of the Dogma of the Immaculate Conception!

All Notre Dame will be sending special and added prayers through Our Lady. The Grotto of Our Lady of Lourdes has special significance. The much newer Shrine of Our Lady of Fatima on the Niles Road, with its ready parking for travelers, as well as the long-worn paths from the campus, is a rich depot of devotion.

It should be a happy new year, indeed . . .

What impressed you most about the football season? An undefeated season is always impressive. But the grim intensity of Frank Leahy for his work; the unending drive of his assistant coaches, and the willingness, work and teamwork of his team must have made themselves clear, whether on the field or on television or on Joe Boland's Irish Network.

Intellectual Champions

It has frequently occurred to you, no doubt, what teachers could do with classes if the same combination of ability, selectivity, and intensity could be projected into the academic processes. Intellectual champions!

But has it occurred to you what Notre Dame's progress could enjoy if you as alumni promoted the University program with this ability, teamwork, and intensity of purpose? You could be champions, in every phase of alumni effort! . . .

"Overemphasis."

This term is a familiar one with Notre Dame men. We have heard it for years in terms of football. More recently, the Alumni Office has been hearing it, from Notre Dame men this time, in terms of money-raising.

The analysis is unattractively simple in both fields.

When Notre Dame Men Gather

The two things that all of us understand and can talk about are football and money. Inevitably, when two or more Notre Dame men gather, these two subjects follow the weather in close order.

But this is not overemphasis. It is simply an emphasis that any great common denominator enjoys.

The unhappy point is that it obscures the many enjoyable and significant subjects that are common only to segments, and victims of conversational segregation.

The law alumnus who meets the doctor or the engineering alumnus on the street hesitates to tell them about the symposia in the College of Law for fear of disinterest.

The doctor or the scientist, meeting the teacher or the manufacturer, will instinctively hold back comment on LOGBUND, or biology, or radiation studies, for fear of being misunderstood or pressed for detailed explanations.

The Great Traditions of N.D.

The writer or the business man, meeting almost any fellow alumnus, will fail to comment on the Marian Year, or Universal Communion Sunday, because in the great tradition of Notre Dame he may not know whether his fellow alumnus is a Catholic, and worries about his enthusiasm being misinterpreted.

So the usual greeting is "Great team," or "I suppose you got another blank check this week."

It is human nature. It is fact. It is likely to continue. But please don't call it overemphasis. Neither athletics nor money-raising have disturbed the fundamental perspectives and purposes of Notre Dame.

So during 1954, let's try to switch back to the silver lining, and stop worrying about the cloud that has it. Believe me, we have made great progress.—JIM ARMSTRONG.
GOLDEN JUBILEE ON CHRISTMAS DAY

The Rev. Matthew Schumacher, C.S.C., celebrated his Golden Jubilee as a priest with the principal event being a High Mass sung on Christmas Day at 10:00 a.m. by Father Schumacher in the Church of St. Mary of the Assumption in South Bend. This is the same church in which Father Schumacher said his First Mass on Christmas Day 1903, and his Silver Jubilee Mass in 1928. It is also the church in which he received his First Holy Communion and was confirmed.

Father Schumacher is a former Dean of Studies (1907-1919 and again 1926-1927) at Notre Dame, and a former President of St. Edward’s University in Austin, Texas (1919-1925), and of the College of St. Thomas in St. Paul, Minn. (1928-1933).

Since 1934, he has been Chaplain and Professor of Philosophy and Religion at St. Mary’s College, Notre Dame, Ind.

Father Schumacher first came into national prominence as Chairman of the Committee on Standardization of Catholic Colleges, 1917-1922. Under his leadership, this committee of the Catholic Educational Association accomplished the huge task of standardization, often in the face of great obstacles and sometimes of opposition.

Dear Fellow Alumni:

By the time you read this, my last letter to you as President, another year will have passed and a new President will have been elected by the Alumni Board of Directors. It has been an honor and a privilege for me to serve as President of your Association.

During the past year, nine new local Alumni Clubs have been formed and our ranks have been augmented by approximately 1000 graduated seniors. It is rather startling to many of us when we realize that 53% of our 23,000 Alumni have graduated since 1940. Of the 140 Alumni Clubs now in existence, only 20 failed to report at least one meeting in the last twelve months.

Personally, I feel we have the broadest and about the most active and enthusiastic Alumni in the world. You are to be congratulated on your club activity and on your response to the needs of Notre Dame. I hope you will increase your participation in Association affairs in the coming year so that we all may render greater honor and glory to Our Lady’s University.

On behalf of the Officers and Staff of the Alumni Association, and for myself, may I extend to each of you cordial greetings with the hope that our Blessed Mother will care for and guide all of us throughout this Marian year of 1954.

Sincerely yours,

JOHN H. NEESON, JR., President
Dean Weimer Lectures at N.D.

Dean Arthur M. Weimer of the Indiana University School of Business gave two lectures to students in Notre Dame's College of Commerce recently. He discussed "Trends in Business and Education for Business" and "Industrial Development and City Growth." Dean Weimer was the fourth guest lecturer in the current series sponsored by the University's College of Commerce Advisory Council.

Weimer, nationally recognized as a leading authority on real estate and land economics, became dean of the Indiana University School of Business in 1939. Under his leadership, the school established a graduate study program making it one of the few institutions in the United States granting the master's degree and doctorate in business.

Father Gabriel Publishes Work

The Reverend A. L. Gabriel, director of Notre Dame's Mediaeval Institute, has just published a study of Robert de Sorbonne, founder of the famous French college which bears his name. Father Gabriel prepared his treatise in connection with the 700th anniversary of the College of Sorbonne in Paris which is being observed this year both in Europe and this country. He is secretary of the American committee for the septi-centennial celebration. A specialist in mediaeval education, Father Gabriel based much of his research on the Mediaeval Institute's microfilm collection of the history of great European universities.

Msgr. Calip Invested on Campus

The Very Reverend Osmundo A. Calip, a Filipino priest studying for his master's degree at the University of Notre Dame, was solemnly invested recently at Notre Dame, as a papal chamberlain to the Holy Father by the Most Rev. John F. O'Hara, C.S.C., Archbishop of Philadelphia.

Pablo Pena, acting Philippine consul in Chicago, represented his government at the rites. The Rev. Philip S. Moore, C. S. C., vice-president in charge of academic affairs at Notre Dame, was the University's official representative. Among specially invited guests were members of the Philippine Catholic Guild of Chicago as well as Philippine students from Notre Dame and other colleges and universities in this area. Monsignor Calip is vice-chancellor and assistant superintendent of schools in the Archdiocese of Nueva Segovia in the Philippines.

Meehan Scholarships

One student from each of six southern states will be eligible for a four-year scholarship at the University of Notre Dame beginning in September, 1954, it was announced by the Rev. Alfred Mendez, C.S.C., chairman of the University's scholarship committee.

The Meehan Scholarships, founded in 1936 by the late Augustus F. Meehan of Chattanooga, Tennessee, provide an annual stipend of $750 for four years for one qualified high school graduate from Alabama, Georgia, Kentucky, Tennessee, Texas and Virginia. Neither religious creed nor financial necessity are determinants in deciding the scholarship winners. The official application form and other details may be obtained by writing the Meehan Scholarship Committee, University of Notre Dame, Notre Dame, Indiana.

Arbitration Meeting Report

The Notre Dame Arbitration Committee has recently announced the publication of the PROCEEDINGS of the CONFERENCE on ARBITRATION in LABOR-MANAGEMENT RELATIONS held here last winter. The sessions were sponsored by the Department of Economics, the College of Law, and the American Arbitration Association.

Other universities which in the past have co-sponsored such arbitration conferences are Yale, Rutgers, the University of Pennsylvania, and the University of California.

The Proceedings, which are available from the Arbitration Committee, are $1.25 per copy.

Mediaeval Institute Publications

The Mediaeval Institute of the University of Notre Dame has inaugurated a new series of publications entitled "Texts and Studies in the History of Mediaeval Education." The Rev. A. L. Gabriel, director of the Institute and a specialist on mediaeval universities will be editor of the series and the Rev. Joseph N. Garvin, C.S.C., will serve as assistant editor. The Mediaeval Institute has a highly specialized library in the history of higher education in the Middle Ages. Its scholars devote much of their time to the editing of unknown texts of scholastic thinkers at these first universities.

Father Gabriel currently is preparing a history of Ave Maria College, at Paris, as part of the University of Notre Dame's contribution to the observance of the Marian Year recently proclaimed by Pope Pius XII.

Gregorian Chant Anniversary

The golden anniversary of the papal decree proclaiming Gregorian Chant as the official music of the Catholic Church was observed at Notre Dame recently with a series of services featuring chant by the congregation and a concert by the Moreau Seminary Choir.

The congregation sang the Ordinary at High Masses in Sacred Heart Church while the Moreau Choir chanted the Propers of the Mass at the earlier service. The new Faculty-Student Choir sang the Propers at the later Mass. The active participation of the congregation in Church services was one of the aims of Pope Pius X and has become a decided trend in recent years.

Wallace is the author of a number of Association publications and has contributed several articles to psychological journals and other publications.

Paintings Exhibited

A collection of ten paintings of American religious folk groups by Constantine Kermes were exhibited in the galleries of the O'Shaughnessy Hall of Liberal and Fine Arts. A blend of new and old world concepts is readily recognized in the works of this 29-year-old artist who works in a Thoreau-like setting on one of Pennsylvania's wooded hills near Pittsburgh. It is in this "Workshop of the Woods," as Kermes calls it, that the artist develops his sketches into colorful paintings of the Pennsylvania Dutch, the rapidly disappearing Shakers, and the Spanish Americans of New Mexico.

Our Lady of Lourdes Grotto

The beautiful Grotto of Our Lady of Lourdes on the Notre Dame campus will be a center of prayer and devotion for students and visitors during the Marian Year. The Marian Year, promulgated by Pope Pius XII who visited Notre Dame in 1936, commemorates the 100th anniversary of the definition of the dogma of the Immaculate Conception of Our Lady for whom Notre Dame is named.

The campus shrine, constructed of unhewn rock and situated beneath a canopy of trees, is a replica of the world-famed Grotto at Lourdes in France where Our Lady appeared to Saint Bernadette on eighteen occasions during 1858. During one of these apparitions, the Virgin Mary identified herself declaring: "I am the Immaculate Conception," as if to confirm the dogma which had been proclaimed four years earlier by Pope Pius IX.

Hampered by lack of funds, the construction of the Grotto was not completed until 1896. Completion of the shrine was made possible largely through the generosity of the Reverend Thomas Carroll of Oil City, Pennsylvania, who at one time was a theological student at Notre Dame.

RECENT GRADS COMMITTEE CONDUCTS SURVEY of 1946-51 CLASSES

Reflects Opinions on Campus Life and Alumni Clubs

Notre Dame's recent graduates—1946 through 1951—prized the fellowship of their undergraduate days most of all, while at N.D., and also were impressed by the quality of the education they received at Notre Dame. This was revealed in a survey undertaken during the year by a committee of young alumni.

The committee was headed by Charles F. Russ, '49, and included William Anhut, Thomas Carroll and George Murphy, all of the '51 class; Edward Snyder, '50; and John P. Walker, '49.

This group was appointed last Spring by the Alumni Association Board of Directors at the urging of recent grads. Its purpose was to examine the attitude and opinions of the graduates of the last five years and to give special emphasis to the operation and general effectiveness of the local alumni clubs.

In addition to fellowship and the cultural environment on campus, young alumni were 'grateful for Notre Dame's religious atmosphere'. Tabulations show that the group was highly critical of several facets of student life—primarily the disciplinary system and the food. But it seems that their criticism was meant to be constructive because almost unanimously they stated that they would encourage their sons to attend the University.

Ninety-two per cent said their opinion of Notre Dame had changed for the better or had remained unchanged. There were many recommendations for altering the curriculum, improving student-faculty relations, providing more and better social life (including St. Mary's), giving Notre Dame less of a football reputation, raising the standards of admission, expanding the placement service and revising the approach to fund-raising.

The survey gave a vote of confidence to alumni publications. Eighty-nine per cent of young graduates read class notes in the ALUMNUS magazine while 92% read the NOTRE DAME magazine.

It was indicated in the survey that a closer bond of cooperation should exist between local alumni clubs and present students. In some cities the price of affairs has discouraged many young alumni from participation in

Industry-College Execs Attend First Conference

The First Industry-College Conference, held in White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., featured nationally-known business and education executives as speakers and it was agreed by those in attendance that a "mutuality of interests" existed between the two groups.

Notre Dame was represented by the Rev. Theodore M. Hesburgh, C.S.C., president, who served as chairman during one of the discussion periods. According to Ben Moreell, Board Chairman of Jones and Laughlin Steel Corp., the consensus at the conference's end was that both groups "reached a basis for understanding and achieved an eagerness to learn about the other's problems."

In all there were 38 leaders of education, most of them college presidents, and 31 industry executives, many of them heads of corporations, present at the meeting. In addition to Father Hesburgh the other chairmen included: Douglas McGregor, president of Antioch College; William Given, president of the American Brake Shoe Co., New York; R. C. Hood, president of Ansl Chemical Co., Marinette, Wis.; and Paul H. Sheats of the Adult Education Association of the United States, Los Angeles.

Frank Holahan Does Great Foundation Job
As District Governor

Solicits Gifts From 60 N.D. Friends in 1953

In the little town of Hollidaysburg nestling amid the Allegheny Mountains of Western Pennsylvania, a member of the 1935 Class decided that he should see what could be done to advance the efforts of the Notre Dame Foundation. This was almost two years ago—in early 1952. As he says, it required more than fifteen years for him to realize that he could do something in addition to his modest, though regular, contributions to the University.

So J. Frank Holahan, valedictorian of '35 with a 94.6% average in Commerce, put his shoulder to the Foundation grindstone. The results have been amazing. Records indicate that during 1953, the first full year he spent some of his "spare time making Foundation contacts, his solicitations resulted in $5,000 from donors whose contributions had totaled less than $400 in the preceding year.
Sixty of Frank's non-alumni "prospects," who had incidentally contributed nothing prior to his first contact with them, gave $3,000 to the Foundation this past year. The statistics are even more phenomenal when compared with 37 non-alumni gifts from the entire State of Pennsylvania in 1952.

Encouragement from Mr. Walker

Holahan became enthused about the Foundation in a conversation with Mr. Frank C. Walker, '09, President of Notre Dame's Associate Board of Lay Trustees and former National Chairman of the Notre Dame Foundation. Mr. Walker told Frank of the success he had had in asking prospective donors to send him their checks for forwarding to the campus.
Frank found that by utilizing this plan he can keep an up-to-date
"tickler" on persons who have promised to send donations. He says that many persons share his own propensity to forget about intended donations and follow-up contacts are occasionally necessary and generally productive.

Currently Frank is District Governor for Central Pennsylvania with supervision over a 23-county area.
Prior to being appointed by the Rev.
Theodore M. Hesburgh, C.S.C., Frank had served as City Chairman and as President of the ND Alumni Club of Central Pennsylvania.

In the story on Governor Joe Farrell, '15, November-December, 1953, ALUMNUS, it was stated that "until last year Joe had done practically a one-man job of stimulating participation in the Annual Alumni Funds." Frank is one of the primary reasons why Joe no longer has a "one-man job."

Alumni Participation 75%

While directing the activities of his alumni club, participation for the area increased to 75%—the highest in Pennsylvania and one of the highest in the entire country. In appreciation of Frank's great work as Club President, he was presented the "Man-of-the-Year" award on Universal Notre Dame Night in 1953.

Holahan's efforts as District Governor have been concentrated on potential contributors among non-alumni. He does not consider someone a prospect unless an interest in Notre Dame already exists either from being a follower of Fighting Irish athletes, or one who appreciates the tremendous part Notre Dame plays in the Catholic higher educational field, or from other factors.

More than one-half of the non-alumni he has approached have contributed and most of these have agreed, often at their own suggestion, that they would give similar amounts annually. Without any doubt this is one of the outstanding percentages of individual fund-raising whether it be in the college ranks or otherwise.

Foundation Work Done in "Spare Time"

Frank's work for the Foundation has to be done in his "spare time." He is employed as a bank examiner for the Comptroller of the Currency and official duties require 60 hours per week. After almost nineteen years on the same job Holahan insists that he is not a salesman and is a neophyte at soliciting funds for any cause. (Editor's note: The writer will take exception to this statement even if it does appear in print. JC)

Many persons are interested in Notre Dame and would like to contribute to the Foundation but they lack knowledge thereof or else they may be just too busy to think of sending in a donation unless approached personally, according to Holahan's theory. Several non-alumni have emphati-sized that they were "glad to find

J. FRANK HOLAHAN
such a worthy place to put some of their earnings . . ."

As part of his work, Frank has discovered that many affluent alumni had given little or nothing to the Foundation but would make substantial annual gifts if personally approached. One example was an alumnus who had graduated many years ago but had never participated in alumni funds. After a bit of encouragement, Frank succeeded in reactivating his interest which led to a gift of $150 for the University. Another gave $200 even though his prior annual contributions were $10.

Several alumni who have been giving $10, $20, $25 regularly over the years have remarked that those original amounts loomed large in family budgets a decade ago but could be increased with present-day incomes by $50 or $100. Although only 16 alumni in Pennsylvania contributed $100 in 1952, Holahan firmly believes that there should be at least 100 persons in this category.

Frank works closely with his city chairmen and is confident that a follow-up by them in the future will retain most, if not all, of the '53 contributors he has personally solicited.

Indoctrinates With ND Mag

He makes good use of the Notre Dame magazine, copies of which he gives to prospects so that they may become fully cognizant of the Notre Dame story. Holahan modestly insists that he has no magic money-raising formula but rather, on the other hand, he has the "easiest product in the world to sell."

Until recent years, Frank admits he did not fully appreciate the financial plight of most private educational institutions. For instance, at Notre Dame the student actually pays only about 70% of his tuition. The remaining 30% has to be defrayed by the University through benefactions from alumni, non-alumni friends, corporations and foundations. It is Frank's own belief that alumni should strive to repay this obligation.

In addition to obtaining financial support for the University, Holahan has also been successful in getting new students from the Hollidaysburg vicinity to enroll at the University.

Frank is convinced that there are many other alumni who have taken little or no part, financially or otherwise, in the Foundation but who can aid in this essential phase of "Operation Notre Dame."

Frank and his lovely wife, Louise, have two potential candidates for Coach Leahy, Johnny 11, and Billy 7. They are one of the most rabid family groups ever to follow the Fighting Irish football squad. For 17 seasons the Holahans have been attending ND games and in recent years the boys have accompanied them to New Orleans, New York City, Cleveland, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Baltimore and South Bend.

Even though it means being away from his family and putting in extra hours, Frank is determined to do all that he can in assisting Notre Dame to provide the best in Catholic higher education—for Johnny and Billy, and thousands of other privileged youngsters who will some day attend classes on the campus of Our Lady's University.—J.N.C.

STUDENTS INSURANCE PLAN

An accident and sickness insurance plan, one of the most comprehensive of its type in the nation, has been offered to Notre Dame students by the Continental Casualty Company of Chicago, Ill. Over 1,400 underclassmen have voluntarily enrolled in the plan which will give additional protection to those services provided by the University Infirmary. Students also receive coverage during vacation periods and other times when infirmary facilities are unavailable to them.

The Notre Dame plan costs $21 for a full twelve month rate but has been prorated for entrants taking advantage of its coverage in October and at the beginning of the second semester this year. All coverage now effective will extend until September 14, 1954, at which time new enrollments will start for incoming freshmen and others. All members of the student body are eligible for the plan.

Accident benefits of the student health plan are completely unallocated and limited only by the maximum amount payable of $750 per accident. Sickness benefits are payable up to $500 based on a set schedule. These latter benefits include hospital room and board, surgeon and special nurses' fees, doctors calls and ambulance service.

The Student Senate has chosen John C. O'Meara, Hillsdale, Mich., a Junior in the College of Arts and Letters, to administer the plan on campus. His function is to process and forward claims to the Chicago office, answer questions of parents and students on the subject, and generally promote interest in the plan. O'Meara has an office in the new LeFortune Student Center.

University officials gave thoughtful consideration to the present Student Health Plan before accepting it as a part of the school's program. The plan is designed to be of maximum value to students and parents alike. Its initial success is evident in that 35% of the current student body are already covered by its benefits.

BOOK REVIEW:

The Presence of Mary
by Sister M. Agnese

THE PRESENCE OF MARY (Fides Publishing Co. $1.50) by Sister M. Agnese, Sisters of Divine Providence. This book, published in 1949, has a new significance in this Marian Year. It is a translation from the French original of a French Jesuit, Father Francis Charmot.

It treats of Mary's role in the lay apostolate; very vital in this year of Marian emphasis. It pictures her in her role as Queen in the fight against evil, never more significant than now. And it treats of Mary as the teacher who forms the necessary interior life for the apostolate.

Sister Agnese is a most capable translator, and those privileged to know her during her years in the summer sessions at Notre Dame, know that her contribution to this work is far more than its translation.—J. E. A.
SHANNON and MATZ '54 CO-CAPTAINS

Dan Shannon and Paul Matz, both juniors from Chicago, who attended Mount Carmel High School together in the Windy City, and who spent the past football season at Notre Dame battling each other for the starting left end job, will co-captain the 1954 Fighting Irish football team.

Both had been primarily defensive men before the 1953 season, Shannon as linebacker and Matz as an end. During the past campaign, Shannon caught seven passes for 138 yards, two for touchdowns. The two touchdowns brought about the 14-14 tie with Iowa in the eighth game of the season. Matz caught five passes for 61 yards. Shannon is an accounting major. Matz is majoring in aeronautical engineering.

Leahy’s Winning Record Tops .888 Percentage

After the 1953 football season, which saw Notre Dame win nine, lose none, and tie one, Frank Leahy, coach of the Irish team for eleven years, now has a record of 87 victories, 11 defeats and nine ties. This is a winning percentage of .888 exclusive of ties.

Leahy also won 20 games and lost two in two years as coach of Boston College. Thus, his all-time coaching record is now 107 victories, 13 defeats, and nine ties. This is a winning percentage of .892.

During his tenure at Notre Dame, Leahy has won four national championships, in 1943, 1946, 1947 and 1949.

The Irish mentor has had six undefeated seasons at Notre Dame, 1941, 1946, 1947, 1948, 1949 and 1953.

Dan Shannon grabs the tying touchdown pass against Iowa. Final score: 14-14.

Worden Sets N.D. Record
With 29 TD’s in 3 Years

Final statistical honors for the 1953 season were fairly well divided among the four members of the starting Notre Dame backfield. Neil Worden, senior fullback, gained the most yards and scored the most points. Johnny Lattner, senior right half, was first in kickoff returns. Joe Heap, junior left half, paced the team in passes received and punt returns, and Ralph Guglielmi, junior quarterback, was the top man in passing and passes intercepted.

Worden made 11 touchdowns to lead the team for the third straight year and ran his three-year total to 29 touchdowns, a new Notre Dame record. The Milwaukee lad also was first in rushing on the basis of 859 yards gained in 145 carries for an average of 5.9 yards. Worden was fifth in the country among collegiate rushers.

ALL-OPPONENT TEAM

Oklahoma and Pittsburgh dominated the 1953 Notre Dame All-Opponent football team. Three Panthers and three Sooners were on the 12-man club, a 12-man team being necessary because of a tie for the second end position.

At the time of voting for the all-opponent team, the Irish players also selected the "best team played." In this balloting, Oklahoma edged Iowa for the honor.

Seven schools were represented on the All-Opponent team.

John Lattner, senior halfback, received the following honors as the outstanding college football player in the United States: Heisman trophy, Maxwell trophy, Washington (D.C.) Touchdown Club award, Cleveland Touchdown Club award and the Detroit Quarterback Club award.

To Coach Frank Leahy, the Assistant Coaches and all members of the Football Team:

Gentlemen:

I believe I express the opinion and desires of the Alumni of Notre Dame when, on behalf of the Association, I offer you congratulations on the victorious completion of one of the finest seasons in Notre Dame football history. The display of the will to win when needed seemed to exceed that always expected of Notre Dame teams.

You should be as proud of your accomplishments as we are proud of you.

Sincerely,

JOHN H. NEESON, JR.,

JOHN V. MORAN, '30, and his Notre Dame associates—90 strong—travelled via the New York, New Haven and Hartford to Philadelphia to see the exciting Pennsylvania game. Among the alumni members making the trip were JOSEPH GREYEL, '48, JOHN BRENNAN, '45, JOHN F. SAUNDERS, '41, and JOHN T. BURKE, '29.

The Honorable John B. Hynes, mayor of the city of Boston, also made the trip. The mayor's eldest boy, John, graduated from Notre Dame in 1929. Another son enrolled at Notre Dame this past September. Among those whom the group met in Philadelphia were our ex-president and his beautiful wife, Claire. Those lucky people in Rochester, N. Y., got both in the same package.

The new officers elected for the year are as follows: President: PHILLIP G. KELLEY, '50; Vice-President: T. R. HERBERT, '48; Secretary-Treasurer, PAUL D. LONERGAN, '50.

The evening before the Lions-Steelers game here, we had a dinner and business meeting at the Cavalry Club, an affair attended by FATHER HESBURGH, LEON HART and GUS CIECHELLI.

This fall we also sponsored a benefit drawing to raise money for a scholarship fund. The winner was RICHARD GREENE and his wife who enjoyed an expense paid trip to the Notre Dame-Penn game.

At present we are making plans for our Communion Breakfast to inaugurate the Marian Year, and are planning a Christmas Dance to be held December 27th.

The annual communion breakfast was held on December 6th at Hotel Syracuse, following 8 o'clock Mass and Communion at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception. Guest speaker at the breakfast was Msgr. Toomey. The menu included hard boiled eggs, frenche fries, double orange juice, assorted hot rolls, marmalade, and plenty of coffee.

Chicago

The Notre Dame Glee Club, sponsored by the Scholarship Foundation of the Notre Dame Club of Chicago, presented a concert at Mundelein College Auditorium the end of October. Approximately seven hundred grads and their families and friends attended. Nothing but praise could be heard for the performance of the boys in the glee club and for Professor Daniel H. Petek in particular.

My leading sentence, you will note, shows DR. CONEY'S tireless training of the boys who, when, where and why is all in that first line. Now let me give you the story. Seven hundred of us — old grads and alumnae not so old as sons and daughters... friends... all of us sat back and enjoyed some of the finest choral singing any of us had ever heard. And we were proud... proud of the Glee Club... and proud of the University for which it stands.

And mind you, the old boy who is writing this piece was a member of that Glee Club just twenty years ago... so I talked with many who attended. They thought the voices blended well; they liked the numbers on the program and the way they were arranged; they thought the boys themselves made a fine appearance. They were right! Then we talked about the soloists. The soloists in every one of them. They were right again.

Then how about Prof. DANIEL PETKIE? Every last soloist in the program did an excellent job. Naturally he is an accomplished musician but it goes deeper than that. The boys respect him and enjoy bringing out the beauty in their voices. These young men are doing much to show the country that Notre Dame loves fine singing. And how do I feel about all this? If I had a son I would be proud indeed if he sang with the Notre Dame Glee Club!

Cincinnati

Our observance of Universal Notre Dame Communion Sunday took place on December 6. Members, their wives and families attended the 9 o'clock Mass at the Holy Spirit Chapel of the Fenwick Club and then adjourned across the street to the Fontbonne Club for breakfast and a short speaking program.

The Eighth Annual Scholarship Ball was held in the Pavilion Caprice of the Netherland Plaza Hotel on Tuesday, December 29, from 9:00 p.m. until 2:00 a.m. A Cocktail Party for patrons took place from 8:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. This dance has developed into one of the social highlights of the holiday season and we usually have from 600 to 900 people attending. We are looking forward to the NCAA Convention, which will be held in Cincinnati during the first part of January. The Club is giving a party in the Hotel Gibson for the coaches and directors from the University as well as all ND men in the coaching profession who will be attending the convention. JOE MORRISSEY, ’28, is acting as chairman of the affair.

Our excursion to the Notre Dame-Purdue game was its usual success with the scholarship fund being the beneficiary. Guest speaker was the Franciscan WALLY NIENABER, ’37, who did his usual outstanding job as our representative.

Two of our club members have recently received positions in the political world. JACK GILLIGAN, '43, who is a Republican State Representative, was appointed one of the commissioners of Hamilton County. Club members JIM MENS, ’47, and BOB McCAFFERTY, ’43, took an active part in Jack Gilligan’s campaign.

DICK SCALLON, class of ’21, is the new Foundation Chairman for the Cincinnati area. He succeeds JACK HEILKER, ’30, who has had the job for the past four or five years. A rising vote of thanks was given to Jack at one of our recent monthly meetings for his very fine work as Foundation Chairman.

Cleveland

Sunday, December 13th, was the date of the Notre Dame Family Communion Breakfast of the Cleveland Club. 9 o'clock Mass at the Cathedral was followed by the breakfast in the banquet room with REV. EDMUND P. JOYCE, C.S.C., executive vice-president of the University, as guest speaker. TIM COLLERAN, ’35, was chairman of the event.

Our capable and industrious president, FLO McCARTHY, ’32, is moving to Chicago around the first of the new year as assistant to the president of the C. & O. Railroad and will handle public relations work. “A word to Chicago should be sufficient.”

FATHER ED SEWARD, ’34, vice-chancellor of the Cleveland Diocese, was elevated to Monsignor recently. He is being saluted as Ohio’s outstanding Notre Dame man in our new directory and we are pleased that the Vatican agrees with us.

—VINCENT F. DeCRANE, Sec’y.

Detroit

Word from the Detroit area has it that the October football trips, conducted by LOU MALONE, class of ’34, were highly successful. One very significant action was taken recently by the directors with the helpful guidance of JIM ARMSTRONG. Steps have been taken to establish an Aid to Needy Students Fund to augment the Fisher Fund when the University feels the need is shown. This program augments the idea for a scholarship fund, on the theory that it is more important to see that worthy students already in school are enabled to graduate rather than to try to get students into school.

The December Communion Breakfast, handled by ED Hickey, ’43, and “LEE” MOORMAN, class of ’36, was a success as always. Breakfast was at the League of Catholic Women and Mass before was held across the street at the Chapel of St. Therese of the Little Flower.

Another Detroit Club extravaganza was this year’s Christmas Dance, with backing from the campus club and local details being handled by LARRY SMITH, ’49, and JIM MOTSCHALL, ’29.

Dubuque

New officers elected at the November meeting of the Dubuque Club are: President, LOUIS RHOMBERG, ’31; Vice-President, REV. WILLIAM C. KUNSCH, ’37; Secretary-Treasurer, HENRY TRENKLE, ’24.

In all events the highlight of the evening was the showing of the All Stars-Detroit Lions football film. A timely companion film on hunting was also shown.

The club observed Universal Notre Dame Communion Sunday on December 6th at Christ the King Chapel of Loras College.

Fort Wayne

Two big events within the short space of ten days were held by the Fort Wayne Club at the beginning of December. First on the list was the football roundup smoker on November 30 at the Creative Brewery. KENTUCKY

We are quite proud of the honor ND has been bestowed on several of our high school graduates from Louisville. Two of the finest high school athletes to ever play football in Kentucky were awarded ND athletic scholarships this year, namely Paul Hornung and Sherrell Sipcs from Flaget High School. In basketball Jack Bedan from Jeffersonville High School won an ND scholar­ship and in scholastic achievement Jim Morris, also from Jeffersonville, won the Burns scholar­ship. Kentucky and greater Louisville is well represented this year at ND with over 50 students.
We have started this year an Athletic Com­mit­tee headed by JOE HARMON, '25, who played center on the 1922, '23, '24 teams. This committee has the duty of studying the local high school talent for possible ND material. It also makes a thorough study of prospective athletes' games and general information.

Our September meeting was the kickoff for our annual football trips advertising campaign. LAW­RENCE WILLENBRINK, JR., '47, our trip chairman, gave the particulars to the 75 members and guests attending, after which, the ND Football Highlights of 1952 were shown. Also at this meeting, our last year's president BILL BOSLER, '41, was presented with a silver platter by president OTTO MILETTI, '44, in the name of the club for his splendid work last year.
This year we ran a bus trip to the Purdue game and a train trip to the Georgia Tech encounter. Two of the biggest and most successful of all our trips. Included in the 14-car train were two cars of boys from the local orphanages and boys' clubs who were guests of the club. Our trip chairman, LARRY WILLENBRINK and boys' chair ROGER HIT, '40, did a wonderful job in handling all the details.
Our annual scholarship raffle, headed by JOE DONALDSON, '23, was again a success. The prize this year was a trip to the Penn game for two.
We are now working towards our Christmas dance which will be held on December 26th at the Henry Clay Hotel Ballroom. This year's dance is being arranged by an Alumni-Student committee headed by DICK PREZEBEL, '33, from the alumni and MIKE McBRATH from the students.
With the students pitching in we should have our most successful dance.

—DICK WILLENBRINK

LaCrosse

The club held a luncheon meeting during the visit of GROVER MILLER, State Foundation Governor and JOHN CACKLEY, of the Notre Dame Foundation office, to LaCrosse. The arrangements were made by AUGIE GRAM, City
Chairman of the Foundation, and President
ROBERT CACKLEY.

Los Angeles

A gigantic rally was held by the Los Angeles Club at the Bilmore Ballroom on the night preceding the ND-Southern Cal game. The room was opened at 4 o'clock in the afternoon and drinks were served starting at that time. A gal­ avy of movie stars, including Jack Haley, Pat O'Brien, Dennis Morgan, and many others, were present, along with Frank Leahy, Moose Krause and the rest of the ND coaching staff.
On Sunday, December 6th, the Annual Community Breakfast was held, with Mass at the Bissacrament Church followed by breakfast at the Hollywood Athletic Club.

Memphis

The Memphis Club observed the annual Notre Dame-Communion Breakfast at the Immaculate Conception Church on Sunday, December 6th.
The Mass was said by Monsignor M. F. Kearney, Chaplain-Principal, as was offered for GALVIN HUDSON, '45, who died in August.
Monsignor Kearney gave a little talk on the

New Jersey

Dan O'Neil and Pete Quinn operated the biggest excursion the N. J. Club has ever had to the N-D-Pennsylvania football game at Philadelphia on Nov. 7. Working for the first time on a guarantee of tickets from the University, and excellent seats at that, Dan and Pete were able to muster over 650 into a private train of the Pennsylvania R. R. The trip remains one of the most popular of N. J. Club functions.

Jack Q. Adams made December 6 a busy Sunday for Club Members starting with 8:00 a.m. Mass and Holy communion at Immaculate Conception Church in Montclair where N. J. Notre Dame men and their families filled the altar rail again and again, as former president of the University, Rev. John J. Cavanaugh, C.S.C., offered the Mass. The Annual Corporate Communion Breakfast, attended by over 300 people, was served at the Montclair Golf Club in Montclair. Russ Riley was an excellent toastmaster with Club President Clark Reynolds presiding. After the Invocation by Rev. John A. Munley, pastor of Immaculate Conception Church, and a welcome by the city magistrate of Montclair, Frank Davis, Assistant Secretary of Agriculture, an award was accepted by Mrs. John Q. Adams on behalf of M. Jacques Maritain, professor of philosophy and former ambassador to the Vatican from France. This award was presented by Mr. Edward Skillin, the editor of The Commonweal. Mr. George K. Batt, Vice-President of Douglas Bros. and winner of the Man of the Year Award of the N. J. Club for 1951, presented scroll awards to Mr. Lorenzo B. Hoopes, on behalf of the Hon. Ezra T. Benson, United States Secretary of Agriculture and the Hon. John H. Davis, Assistant Secretary of Agriculture. The Breakfast this year was unusual in that the ladies were invited and the success of the affair would appear to indicate that it will happen again next year. In keeping with this pleasant change in procedure, Jack Adams was able to prevail on Miss Geneva Warner, soprano of the Metropolitan Opera Company for three delightful selections which were enthusiastically received.

Rev. John J. Cavanaugh, C.S.C., was introduced by our "Mr. Notre Dame," University Trustee Joseph M. Byrne, Jr., Father Cavanaugh's address was a moving admonishment of the threat of ideological communism. This theme was taken up by our second honored guest, the Most Rev. Archbishop Thomas A. Boland, a particular favorite of Notre Dame men in this area. The Archbishop pointed out a solution to the problem. The view point of "Operation Procurement" reach fruition later this year.

ACCREDITATION

One of the busiest men in college sports these days is Ambrose F. "Bud" Dudley, '43, director of athletics at Villanova University. His unprecedented sale of nearly 60,000 tickets to the American Stores Co., in Philadelphia, for Villanova's opening game this past fall with Georgia was one of the primary reasons for an attendance of more than 97,000 people in all at the contest.

A successful businessman who operates his own wallpaper and paint store, Bud has applied what he calls "a business approach" to Villanova football. Bud was a star gridder at St. Joseph's Prep in Philadelphia and later attended Kiski. He earned a baseball monogram at Notre Dame and was a member of the football squad during Elmer Layden's coaching regime.

After establishing a brilliant service record in the Air Force during World War II, he returned to Philadelphia. From 1948 to 1950, Bud was president of the Notre Dame Alumni Club of Philadelphia and received the "Man of the Year" award there in 1950. For several years he was Foundation City Chairman.

Bud is a member of the National Executive board of the Pop Warner Foundation and is also one of the governors of the famed Maxwell Club in Philadelphia. He is married and the father of three youngsters.

AMBROSE F. "BUD" DUDLEY, '43
New Mexico

A Communion Breakfast was held by the New Mexico Club on Sunday, December 6th, in observance of Universal Notre Dame Communion Sunday.

Several members of the club attended the Southern California game and pre-game festivities.

New Orleans

It appears that attempts to reactivate the New Orleans Club are beginning to pay dividends. The club had a Stag Smoker in early November at which boiled seafood and beer was served.

Monk Simons, former coach of Tulane University and one of those responsible in inaugurating the Tulane-ND series, was principal speaker of the evening.

On Sunday morning, December 6th, the club observed Universal Notre Dame Communion Sunday, and had a fairly good turnout. Mr. Fred Digby, General Manager of the Sugar Bowl and an honorary member of the club, had with him movies of the ND-Georgia Tech game which were shown following the breakfast. The Mass and breakfast was held at Sacred Heart Church with Father Peyton cooperating beautifully.

Next event on the rejuvenated schedule was a noon luncheon on December 30th honoring the boys from the area who are currently students.

New York

The principal speaker at the Universal Notre Dame Communion Breakfast of the New York Club on December 6th was Honorable Robert F. Wagner, Jr., mayor-elect of the City of New York. The breakfast was held in the Grand Ballroom of the Hotel Biltmore following 9 o'clock mass in St. Patrick's Cathedral.

Guest speaker on the program was the Rev. Robert W. Greene, M.M., who was only recently released by the Chinese Communists and who was on his first visit to the United States since 1937. Father Greene is the author of “Calvary in China.”

Northern California

The second annual Christmas Dance of the Northern California Club was held on Monday, December 21st, in the Italian Room of the St. Francis Hotel. From all indications the affair was even more rich in a success than the initial one of a year ago.

Pittsburgh

A rare privilege was granted to the Pittsburgh Club on December 6th when its members were allowed to assist at the Liturgy Mass of the Byzantine-Slavonic Rite in conjunction with the observance of Universal Notre Dame Communion Sunday.

The Mass, held at the newly-opened St. Cyril and Methodius Seminary, was celebrated by Monsignor Nicholas Elko, Rector of the Seminary and Vicar General of the Diocese.

Monsignor Elko also gave a speech at the post-Mass breakfast in the Seminary Refectory. His subject was “Our Lady of Fatima and the Conversion of Russia.”

After breakfast there was an Open House which enabled the club members to inspect the new seminary. TOM GILLESPIE, '39, was chairman.

A dinner meeting was held recently during the visit of GROVER MILLER, Foundation Governor and JOHN CACKLEY, of the campus office, to Madison. Club President PHIL SCHWARZ had charge of the meeting at which time talks were given by Miller and Cackley. The "Highlights of 1952" football film was also shown.
The Notre Dame club observed Communion Sunday by attending Mass at Loyola Chapel and later listening to guest speaker Father Clare Dwyer at breakfast meeting.

Southern Colorado

The club held its first Christmas Party, a dinner dance, on Dec. 29, at the Broadroom Hotel, Colorado Springs. Members and guests enjoyed a pleasant evening.

St. Joseph Valley

"The greatest team we ever had at Notre Dame," in the words of Coach Frank Leahy, '27, honored the 34th annual civic testimonial banquet of the St. Joseph Valley Club of Notre Dame on Wednesday evening, December 9. A sell-out crowd filled the cast dining hall on the campus and heard a battery of speakers hail the Fighting Irish as champions.

Joe Boland, '27, sports director of local stations WSBT and WSBT-TV, was toastmaster. Honored guests were the members of the '53 Irish squad which won nine games, tied one, and lost one, and became the subjects of national controversy when they were selected second, behind the University of Iowa, as one of the greatest football teams with whom we have ever played.

Highlights of the evening were the announcement of monogram winners and the presentation of the Irish shield by 1933 Captain DON PENZA to 1954 co-captains DAN SHANNON and PAUL MATZ. Both are junior and both played end on the '53 team.

Boland called the team "the national champions of 1953," while Coach Leahy called it "the greatest football team with whom we have ever been associated." The squad had a capacity for loyalty as well as talent, he added.

Featured speakers included Paul Brechler, director of athletics at the University of Iowa, ARCH WARD, '23, sports editor of the Chicago Tribune, and JACK LAVIDELE, '29, New York sports public relations man and raconteur.

Brechler called the Irish "One of the finest teams that ever played football." Referring to Notre Dame's much-discussed clock-stopping injuries in the ND-Iowa game of Nov. 21, Brechler said "Notre Dame did what they did within the time allowed and within the rules. What's important, they scored the touchdowns. You'll hear no boos from Iowa."

WARD, praising the character-building benefits of inter-collegiate football, called the team "The all-time Notre Dame squad of my experience."

Rev. EDMUND P. JOYCE, C.S.C., '47, executive vice-president of the university, said the Notre Dame last-ditch comeback to tie the score in the Iowa game was "a memorable demonstration of coolness under fire, the hallmark of a champion." He defended spectator interest in the sport as "an integral part of the game."

Also heard were EDWARD (MOOSE) KRAUSE, '34, Notre Dame director of athletics, and Mayor JOHN A. SCOTT, '38, of South Bend. HARRY KOEHLER, JR., '37, president of the sponsoring club, opened the program and Rev. James C. Healy, C.S.C., '39, chaplain, gave the invocation. CHARLES CALHAN, '38, ND director of sports publicity, introduced various press representatives at the dinner.

Daniel J. Youngerman, '35, headed the committee of local Notre Dame alumni who staged the testimonial.

St. Louis

The annual family Communion Breakfast was at the top of the calendar for early December. Father Tom O'Donnell, C.S.C., Assistant Director of the Notre Dame Foundation, celebrated the Mass and was the guest speaker.

OLLIE HINSMAN, '49, completed all the arrangements and did a very fine job, indeed.

Next on the slate was the Christmas dance on December 26th at the Sheraton Hotel. This year’s dance was originated by the students with firm support by the alumni, so that both could become better acquainted.

DON DOHENY, class of ’46, led the alumni support, while Phil Higgins was in charge of the students’ preparations.

Very fine club spirit shown in note from Francis A. Klein, ’26, and his son, Keith R. Klein, ’51, Keith, away in the army now, is kept on active list and fully advised on all activities by his father.

A welcome to new member MURRAY GLASSOW, class of ’29, and a thanks to George C. Fisk, ’43, now of Belleville, Ill., and to all our other nearby Illinois neighbors for their cooperation in the smooth running of the St. Louis club.

Note from Ralph E. Schumaker, ’48. Out of army now, has sales territory covering West Virginia and parts of Ohio, Maryland and Pennsylvania. Last summer Ralph married a girl he had met five years ago at St. Mary’s Academy in South Bend.

Tidewater

Our "Football Special" to the Notre Dame-North Carolina game was both socially and financially a wonderful success. All of our patrons thoroughly enjoyed themselves, and they are already inquiring as to what we plan to do next fall.

Once again we wish to express our thanks to Bob Cahill, whose cooperation and patience was responsible for the success of our venture. The following members attended Mass and received Communion in a group on December 6th: PHILLIP RUSSO, ’49, FRANK AMATO, ’52, HAROLD SOLOMAN, ’52, DON PIEDMONT, ’49, DENNIS O’Neill, ’51, GERAR D McCabe, ’53, FRED HARTMAN, ’52, and HARRY McKnight, ’43.

After Mass we were served a most delicious breakfast in the faculty dining room of the Norfolk Catholic High School. Naturally, the topic of the conversation was how Maryland ever "rated" number one in the nation.

—HARRY McKnight

Tri-Cities

The lovely wives of the Notre Dame Club of the Tri-Cities created quite a bit of enjoyment with their square dance on November 7th. The club attended 8 o'clock Mass and Communion on Sunday, December 6th, at St. Anthony’s Church in Davenport in commemoration of the annual Universal Notre Dame Communion Sunday.

Washington, D. C.

An early evening Christmas cocktail dance was held by the Washington, D. C., Club on December 26th under the chairmanship of DUKE MURPHY. The affair was unusually successful, with dancing from 5 to 8 p.m. in the Sheraton-Carilton Hotel.

Dr. Francis Murray, ’36, was chairman of the Washington, D. C., Club's annual Comm-PANAMA—A farewell luncheon was given to ND students this past Fall. Alumni include Sebastian Company, Lorenzo Ramagoza, Joe Harrington, John Fogarty, Jose Cardenas and Antonio Dominguez.

To celebrate the Marian Year proclaimed by Pius XII, beloved honorary alumnus of Notre Dame (LL.D., 1938), our club received Holy Communion in a body to honor the Immaculate Conception on December 6th. After Mass at St. James' Cathedral we met at the Sorrento Hotel to hear the Rev. Lawrence Willenborg, Archdiocesan Director for the Propagation of the Faith. Again, the wives, daughters and sons of Notre Dame men were invited. James H. Kelleher headed the arrangements.

In the latter part of January, the club plans a mixer under the chairmanship of Charles LaCugna, class of '50, along with George Schill, '27, to make plans for the coming Universal Notre Dame Night.

Youngstown

The Youngstown Club was saddened by the death of Mr. Russell "Busty" Ashbaugh, father of a great Notre Dame football player, "Pete" Ashbaugh. As a player, coach and teacher, Mr. Ashbaugh was loved and admired by everyone. Among the Notre Dame notables coached by Mr. Ashbaugh are Harvey Brown, Ray Dahman, '27, Mike Koken, '33, Fred Mundee, '37, and Bob Dove, '43.

Our thanks to President William Lyden, Jr., '36, who has worked especially hard these past two years for the club's success. Bill appreciates the help given by Paul Guarnieri, '36, of the Warren area for an excellent job as toastmaster for Universal Notre Dame Night.

Last year Griff Allen, '47, also proved a wise choice for this important affair. We have been proud of Chuck Riffle, '40, coach of Warren Harding High School which has been rated high in the state each year.

Johnny Moran, '29, and Gabie Moran, '32, plus Attorney Bob Sanko, '48, beat a good five-man bowling team to help Notre Dame's team up the ladder. A welcome addition to this year's team is Tammy Kerrigan, '44.

We are happy to report Vince "Porkie" Lavell, '32, is doing just fine after his serious auto accident. Dr. Edmund Massullo, '24, is ace high in "Porkie's" estimation for his wonderful care.

Please forward any alumni news and pictures to Charlie Butler, '43, 3411 Hillman St., Youngstown, Ohio, for this Youngstown area column.

JAMES R. RECORD, managing editor of the Fort Worth (Texas) Star Telegram, was recently made a Knight of the Order of St. Gregory the Great by His Holiness Pope Pius XII. Jim's citation stated, "A fine Catholic gentleman, James Robert Record has had the courage as managing editor of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram to print news of religion. Distinguished for his competence and intellectual honesty he is respected not only in Fort Worth but also throughout Texas as an able journalist and a leader in the development of healthy opinion." The Papal honor was bestowed by Bishop Thomas K. Gorman, Dallas, Texas. The bishop praised Mr. Record for having "used a mundane but very effective instrument to bring to the people knowledge and truth. Through the instrument of the press he has served God, and we have come to honor a modern knight journalist."

JUNE 11-12-13

It sent up emotion and sentiment in the class of '14, but we were never turned that our invitation to ED LARNEY of Chicago would elicit such a poetic response. Ed announces his "homecoming" in verse too touching to be revealed in advance. It will be recalled by our class poet at the reunion dinner!

We and the Alumni office were sorry to learn, only recently, of the death a few years ago of IGNATIUS L. SOISSON at Connellsville, Pa. Remember him in your prayers.

To the long list of '14 men who have distinguished themselves, add the name of CHARLES FAHY, Judge of the District of Columbia Circuit of the United States Court of Appeals. We're wondering who SIM FLANAGAN's latest client is. Could be Mrs. Roosevelt, or Santa Claus. Postcards have arrived weekly from Sim and his lovely wife from Dublin, Paris, Rome, Berne, and Madrid. Every card says "See you in June!"

Nice note from Leo Zgodzinski, whose mail from the Alumni office had been returned "unclaimed," advises that he's at 1334 East Cleveland Road, South Bend 17. We're glad to get "Squad" back on the list. Anyone know the present address of other "unclaimeds"—RICHARD W. COLLINS, TIMOTHY E. DOWNEY, JUAN G. GONZALEZ, BENJAMIN GUERRA (a great fellow!), HAROLD F. MADDEN, GEORGE J. MASSEY, PAUL J. MOUSHEY, FRANCIS J. RYAN, or ROBERT E. ("BOB") DALY, formerly of Pittsburgh? Drop us a line if you know where we can reach any of these.

It's been a long, dry summer and fall, as far as news of '23 men is concerned. Not only has the Secretary been soundly asleep at his typewriter, but the incoming mail has hardly reached flood proportions either.

JACK NORTON, Class President, has been quite active in his letter-writing, an achievement not imitated by classmates, or quite appreciated either.

HANK LAUERMAN, sometime after the summer reunion, wrote as follows: "Had a meeting in their prayers. There are two sons: Paul, Jr., and Roger L.

ED COCHRANE's latest address is: Pembroke Hotel, 317 Marion Ave., Seattle, Washington. EDDIE HERBERT is now located at 1595 Elizabeth Pl., Cincinnati, Ohio.

Your secretary had a delightful visit recently in Waseca, Minnesota, with the DANNY COUGHLINS. Besides showing their visitor the scenic beauties of the Waseca area, Dan and his wife, Bess, made Fairbault, Owatonna, Rochester, and Winona ports of call on a scenic tour.

Mrs. Gertrude Foley, wife of our beloved deceased classmate, CHARLES "BUCK" FOLEY, now resides at 3112 NE 28th St., Portland, Oregon. Daughter Mary Ann and son Charles compose the balance of the family.

“BUCK” SHAW'S professional footballers, the San Francisco 49ers, are in second place in the Western Division of the National Football League.

DR. EDDIE ANDERSON, head coach of the Holy Cross football team, had some tough going this year due to some important material losses, particularly the loss of Chuck Maloy, ace passer. Eddie still has a very important assignment ahead of him—helping to weld together a football team to represent the Eastern section of the nation for the annual East-West Shrine football classic in San Francisco in late December.

with FATHER JOHN DUFFY, National Chaplain of the American Legion who was in Menominee at the Upper Peninsula Legion meeting and spoke in the evening . . . Our other classmate, TOM PLOUFF, was occupied elsewhere and missed the opportunity that was mine.” Details of Plouff’s occupation elsewhere were not offered.

Belated scrutiny of the Secretary’s files shows that MERLIN ROLWING mailed in his reservation for the Reunion on June 27, 1953. Does this mean your reservation for the 35th reunion, Merlin?

ED KELLY, of Emmetsburg, Iowa, was instrumental in getting his law partner’s son, Tom Spies, enrolled at ND last September. Tom paid a visit to your Secretary after he got settled in the fall.

Of interest to all Class members is the publication sometime during the spring of 1954 of a revised Class roster, showing geographical groupings and embodying certain questionnaire information gleaned at the Reunion. The cooperation of all men is asked in returning promptly their replies to mailings from the Secretary. We have a modest treasury which we hope to use mainly in mailings and related expense. If I break down and write you, will you please pencil me a memo in reply. PAUL CUSTNER, on the strength of his years of experience as Secretary, predicts you won’t answer your mail. Make a liar out of him now!

CHRISTIE FLANAGAN informed us of the death of HERB SCHULZ in Port Arthur, Texas, on September 29. Herb was single. You will recall he was an AB graduate in your class. I wrote to Herb on June 27 letting him know how much we missed him at the reunion since several of his friends were inquiring about him. A mass card was sent to Herb's mother with a letter expressing the sympathy of the class. Please remember Herb in your prayers.

Mrs. TOM GRIFFIN advises that the masses offered for the repose of Tom's soul were a great consolation to her and to her three sons who are now at Notre Dame studying law. Tom, as you know, died in Knoxville, Tenn., on July 27 just a few weeks after suffering a heart attack. A native of Indiana Harbor, Tom joined TVA as Principal Attorney of the General Counsel's Office in 1933 after serving with a Chicago law firm. In 1944 he became solicitor and was concerned chiefly with TVA's court proceedings.

BILL DOWDALL's father died recently in Chicago. ED RAFTER and I called at the mortuary and expressed the sympathy of the class. Bill has a daughter at Rosary College. I also met WALTER HART, '29, at the mortuary. Bill is president of the Federal Market Company in Buffalo, N.Y.

I wish to call attention to an excellent article by Mary Agnes Boyle, the deceased wife of ABDY JONES, in your class. The article was published shortly after her death and is "a mother's story of what it is to be dying of cancer." Andy has two gates and a daughter age 11 and was 4. He is acting head of the Department of Chemistry at Notre Dame. You will recall that we extending our sympathy to Andy on the death of his wife in our September newsletter.

After 25 years of silence it was a real pleasure to hear from WALTER LAYNE from 81 Bay Drive, Huntington 12, N.Y. Walt writes as follows: "I thought about you fellows many times during June of this year—just as I have thought of our good Notre Dame and all the fine things it meant to us all many times during the years that have passed since June, 1938. However, I am one who simply cannot look back too much. It was all too good to be true; and I prefer to leave it that way. JOE BREIG wrote to me before the reunion and I wrote back saying that I would not be there and explaining it the best I could.

"The world has been quite good to me, Louie. I am married, have a little girl eleven and a job that enables us to live as well as I have any right to expect. I am editor of 'Master Detective' magazine. It is far from literature, but we do not live in a very literary world. I've done a lot of free lance writing and edited dozens of different magazines. It is all in a day's work; but nothing has given me the pleasure that the campus publications gave me.

"I hope all is well with you; and that every member of the Class of ’28 has found a full measure of happiness throughout the years." I am sure the many classmates who asked me about Walt at our reunion will be as pleased as I am to hear from him.

Marshall Field, President of Field Enterprises, Inc., announced the appointment of HOWARD V. PHALIN as Vice President in the educational division and general sales manager for the eastern half of the United States. The Educational division publishes the World Book Encyclopedia and Child Craft. Despite his many business responsibilities Howie has always found time to help out on numerous assignments I have given him for the class.

JOHN LYONS played an important role in the Republican upset in the Chicago judicial election on November 2. John was second high among the Republican candidates who were elected to the Superior Court bench.

JOE BREIG's new book "A Halo for Father" (Bruce) has received excellent reviews. No doubt, you read the reference to this book in Jim Armstrong's column in the November-December Alumnus. Joe, who is assistant managing editor of the Cleveland Catholic Universe Bulletin and a columnist for the Ave Maria, has five children.

I noticed in the Indianapolis paper where BOB GRANT appeared before the Indiana Toll Road Commission in opposition to plans for construct the road across Notre Dame and St. Mary's property.

Father MARK FITZGERALD gave an excellent talk on the labor situation in Europe at an Employment Security institute at Notre Dame in
JAMES J. SHERRY, JR., '36

Starting to work for General Motors Corp., Chevrolet Division in Tarrytown, N. Y., James J. Sherry, '36, has recently been promoted to Assistant Director of Purchases, Buick Motor Division.

In 1941 he was drafted in the Armed Forces and separated in 1945 as a Major after four and one-half years of service in this country and overseas. After returning home from World War II, Jim was transferred from Chevrolet, Tarrytown, to Chevrolet's Central Office in Detroit. Two years later in October, 1947, he was sent to General Motors' Purchasing and Salvage Section and became Assistant Director of the section in 1949.

Jim married Miss Grace Rogers in Manchester, N. H., in November, 1942, and they have three children, Kathleen, James, III, and Deborah. His father, James, Sr., is also a Notre Dame alumnus and a member of the 1905 class.

Having been extremely active in alumni and Foundation affairs, Jim was general chairman of the Detroit Club's Universal Notre Dame Night celebration in 1953. He also served as a director of the Notre Dame Alumni Club in Detroit.

October. The talk was based on his observations in England, France, Scandinavia, Germany, Italy and Switzerland. I also spoke at the ND institute. The complete text of my talk on "Objective Use of Facts" was published in the November issue of the International Association of Personnel in Employment Security News.

Our classmates continue to be prominent in all Notre Dame Alumni activities. The following are presidents of local Alumni clubs: STEVE WOZNIAK (Akron), CHARLEY LYNCH (Los Angeles), JOHN TOGE (Columbus), GEORGE SARGUS (Ohio Valley), AL SCHNURR (Sandusky) and LEO MCVITTIE (East Carolina).

ED BRENNA is carrying on in my old job as a member of the Board of Directors of the Notre Dame Club of Chicago.

We have two Notre Dame Foundation Governors: JOHN WINBERRY (New Jersey) and TOM BYRNE (Ohio). JOE MORRISSEY continues as a member of the Board of Directors and First Vice President of the Alumni Assn.

Our Vice President for the South, JACK CANIZARO, had a Notre Dame Alumni party at his ranch, Green Pastures Hereford Farm, which is just north of the city of Jackson. It resulted in the founding of the Mississippi-Notre Dame Alumni Association. Jack reports that BOB EVANS of Vicksburg, Mississippi, was present with his wife. Bob has a married daughter and a son at the University of Mississippi. Bob is with his father in his lumber and building materials business, the Mississippi Lumber Co. He hopes to return for the 30th Class reunion.

Please keep me advised of additional classmates who should be mentioned in connection with Alumni activities.

WALT TOUSAINT spent the first three weeks of October in Europe on business for the Cadillac & Carbon Chemical Co. of St. Charles, W. Va. He visited London, Brussels, Antwerp, Dusseldorf, Frankfurt and Munich. Walt has a daughter who is a freshman at St. Mary's of the Woods. Dr. FRANK HEGARTY also has a daughter starting there this year.

SWEDE SCHROEDER told me at the Navy game that he visited TIM BERRY who farming near Stanley, N. Y. Jim has five children. He promised Svede that he would be back for our 30th reunion. This is the first report I have had on Jim, so I am very grateful to Svede for the news.

JOHN GAUGHAN has moved to 319 South Shawnee St., Pasadena, Tex. Lt. Col. TOM NOON is now located at M.C.A.S. Cherry Point, North Carolina.

JAMES T. PARKER is now living in Vicksburg, Miss., at 403 Locust St. BOB EVANS reports that Jim is still in the ranks of the bachelors and is on leave from Consolidated Edison Co.

BILL DAILY is now in Atlanta, Ga., where he is Branch Manager of the Employees' Mutual Insurance Co. of Wisconsin. AL HANS is assistant to the Manager of Safety, Standard Oil Co., in Chicago. GEORGE MURRIN is engaged in general practice of law in Houston, Tex. I wish to thank CYP SPORL and RUBE MOMSEN for bringing us up to date on these lawyers. Cyp, by the way, returned to Notre Dame for the Georgia Tech game.

I see ED McGUIRE regularly as we both have offices in the Bankers Building at 100 W. Adams St., in Chicago. Ed is attorney for the U. S. Securities & Exchange Commission in the Chicago regional office. He has two children. Ed regrets very much that he was unable to make the reunion due to sickness in his family.

JIM WHITE was in the 28 section at the Navy game. Jim operates an insurance claims service in South Bend. He is married. He saw his old roommate, DAN MOORE, recently. Dan has a son at ND and a daughter at St. Mary's and 7 other children at home. He is with Western Electric. Jim also reports that he sees JOHNNY NYIKOS (Chevrolet) and IKE VOEDISCH (real estate). Jim mentioned that his old pal BULL JOLISKY, is now a beer baron at Steubenville, Ohio. Jim and Bull get together at a game each year. Jim also told me that he saw ED MCKEOWN in September when one of Ed's daughters was registering at St. Mary's Academy. Ed and his family are now living throughout the year at their home at Dune Acres, Chesterton, Indiana. He commutes to Chicago where he has his law office in the Bankers Bldg., where I am located. I recently purchased a car from the McKeown Motor Sales (Chrysler-Plymouth) which Ed owns.

ART MILLER, FRANK MCCAUCHY and BOB EGGENIAN attended the Georgia Tech game. Art is still practicing law in Fort Wayne, Ind., with offices in the Lincoln Bank Tower. He has two children, a daughter age 9 and a son age 7. Art sees HENRY HASLEY and FRED SCHOPPMAN daily as they are also practicing law in Ft. Wayne. Art made the following comment on our reunion: "Since returning from that unforgettable Class Reunion, I have started on numerous occasions to convey to you and the rest of the members of the committee in charge my inestimable thanks for a truly great time. It was a tremendous success in every phase and in my opinion will reflect, to all who contributed some effort, a lasting page in theirs and our memories."

I had occasion the other day to refer to the publications, "Who's Important in Medicine" and the "Directory of Medical Specialists" and noted the name of DR. SAM ROMANO. He gave me the information I have been attempting to secure for 25 years concerning Sam. He is clinical professor of surgery at Louisiana State University School of Medicine. After receiving his M.D. from Johns Hopkins, he served as a teaching fellow in surgery at the University of Minnesota. He is a diplomat, American Board of Surgery and a fellow in the American College of Surgeons and the author of contributions to medical and surgical journals. Sam is married and has two children. He has offices in the First Marquette Bldg., New Orleans, La.

Father MARK FITZGERALD, C.C.S., gave me a picture of Dr. and Mrs. JOE SULLIVAN, '29, and their two daughters which Father took in London this summer. Joe is head of the U. S. Dept. of Public Health in Great Britain. His address is American Embassy, Grosvenor Square, London, England. You will remember Joe as being from Holyoke, Mass., when he was at school.

I met a number of the classmates at the Georgia Tech and Navy games, including FRANK CREADON, PAUL TOBIN, BILL MURPHY, ED QUINN, VICE WALSH, GEORGE KELLEY, PAT HAYDEN, JOE BRAHNSDORF, GEORGE COVERT, JOHN IGOE, AUSIE GRAMS, FRANCIS (SWEDIE) SCHROEDER, JIM WHITE, JIM ALLEN, HOWIE PHALIN, ED RAFTER and JOE BRANSFORD. We had some great sessions at Gate 4 and at the Alumni Service Booth before and after the games. Father MULCAIRE joined Vince Walsh and me and our wives for dinner following the Georgia Tech game. Father also reports that STAN DEBOTT in Geneva, Joe is still single. Swede also reports that STAN GRANGER is operating a very successful hotel and restaurant at Becker, Minn. Swede, who is practicing law in Detroit Lakes, Minn., has five children including a son who is a senior at ND.

Has his own plane and flies to the games as he did to our reunion. He was grounded in LaCrosse on his way to the Navy game.

The Alumni Service Booth meeting spot after the game also gave me the opportunity to see men in other classes whom we knew at Notre Dame, including BILL NEFF, '29, and TOM DUNN, '27. Bill Neff, who is principal of the Mandal, N.D., High School, recently had a history test book published by Bruce. The title is "World History for a Better World." TOM DUNN, who is practicing law in Morris, Ill., was asking about BILL COYNE. Bill is still in Washington as an attorney for the Housing and Home Finance Agency.

Our Vice-President for the West, ART CANTY, cracked the western iron curtain by sending us information on several classmates about whom we have not had a report in years. Art met DICK ELPERS and HAL HUDSON in Los Angeles for the first time since 1939. He found that Dick is with KFAC, a broadcasting station in the very building in which Art's office is located—5357 Wilshire Blvd. Art's company, the Prudential Insurance Company of America, had a luncheon recently celebrating the fifth anniversary of the installation of their western home office in Los Angeles, and HAL HUDSON was representing CBS at the luncheon. Hal is general sales manager, program division, CBS. He is married and has three children. He has been in Southern California since 1929.

Art also advises that MERV AGGELER is Deputy District Attorney of Los Angeles County and is located in Santa Monica. He had lunch a short while ago with ART PARIENS, who has three children and lives in Upland, Calif., a suburb of Los Angeles.

ED QUINN, Director of the Department of Guidance and Testing, has advised me of additional '28 sons whom he has met recently. One of them is located in Santa Monica. He had lunch a short while ago with ART PARIENS, who has three children and lives in Upland, Calif., a suburb of Los Angeles.

Other classmates mentioned they had seen FRANK DONOVAN and JOE MORRISSEY at these games, but I missed them. We were all pleased to see Joe's boy, Rockne Morrissey, in action on the football field at the Navy game. Father McSHANE advised me that he had the privilege of baptizing ELMER WYNN in Detroit in October. Father was en route to Milwaukee where he was to conduct a retreat. SWEDIE SCHROEDER mentioned that in addition to seeing JIM BARRY in New York, he also visited Joe DeBOTT in Geneva. Joe is still single. Swede also reports that STAN GRANGER is operating a very successful hotel and restaurant at Becker, Minn. Swede, who is practicing law in Detroit Lakes, Minn., has five children including a son who is a senior at ND.

continues to remember the '28 men each day in his prayers and Masses. In addition to offering the Masses at the request of the class for JOHN GRIFFIN, GEORGE O'BRIEN and HERB SCHULZ, he offered an additional Mass for each of the '28 men.

The mail of JOSEPH M. KANE has been returned unclaimed from 55 Latrobe Ave., Burlington, N. Y. Can any of you assist by sending me his correct address?

Our Treasurer, JACK SHEEDY, has asked me to extend thanks to the large number of classmates who have made contributions to the class treasury. His address is 1116 Farmers Bank Bldg., Pittsburgh 22, Pa. Jack was back to Notre Dame for the Pitt game. As you know, he has a son at ND.

I trust each of you received a copy of the reprint of my article in the Sept. 5, 1953, issue of "American Science Association News," entitled: "Profile of a Class: Notre Dame, 1928." I continue to receive inquiries and favorable comments on the class survey report from many sources. The following excerpt from a letter from Dr. Edwin E. Witte, Chairman, Department of Economics, University of Wisconsin, is typical:

"...While I am not a Notre Dame man and in fact have been at Notre Dame only on one occasion, I found the article of very great interest. It reminded me that there is a great national appeal to Notre Dame men as their Alma Mater. While your article is of greatest interest naturally to Notre Dame men, it has a good deal of value for educators generally."

I made a further analysis of the data collected in the 1928 Class survey for a report to a committee of the American Political Science Association on "Citizen Participation in Politics."

The analysis indicates that 12.4% of the classmates who have held political office are predominantly lawyers although individuals in retail trade and public utilities are also well represented in this group. A relatively higher proportion of economists and history majors had held political office than were represented in the total class generally. The college grades of the politicians were as a whole better than those of all classmates. As would be expected, a larger percent (24%) of the future office holders participated in campus politics than did all classmates (19%). Similarly 35% of the future politicians held an office in a campus organization at Notre Dame in contrast to only 19% of all classmates. Not as many politicians currently receive daily and weekly Communion as do all classmates. Fifty-seven percent of the active politicians are Democrats in contrast to only 39% of all classmates.

In order to assist me in making accurate comparisons of my study with the findings in the Time survey of college graduates, Time made a cross tabulation of their data for all male graduates in the 40-49 age group for my use.

We wish to thank JIM DOYLE, Secretary of the Class of 1931, for his words of praise for the 1938 reunion in his class column in the Nov.-Dec. Alumnus. I have already been called upon by two class secretaries to assist them in making plans for their reunion this year. FRANK CREDON has been requested to assist the 25-year class at Loyola University in planning its reunion along the lines successfully employed by our class.

When I saw GEORGE COVERT at the Navy game, he suggested that I prepare a list identifying each of the '28 men in the class picture taken on the library steps at the reunion. I will attempt this project soon and if I am successful in completing it, I will send the list to each of you. You may obtain a copy of this class picture by sending $1.00 to James DuBois, University Photographer, Notre Dame, Ind. He can also supply prints at $1.00 each of the Class of 1928 reunion march (plus bond) to the Alumni Banquet which appeared on the cover of the July-August Alumnus.

Our President, FRANK CREDON, has prepared an excellent "Reunion Reel" from films taken and donated to the class by VINCE WALSH and ART DENCHFIELD. Frank is having a copy of this film of the 25-year reunion made so it will be available for use on a loan basis by classmates. Please write to Frank at 198 Addison Rd., Riverside, Illinois, if you wish to borrow the film to relive what BOB HAMILTON refers to us as "those never-to-be-forgotten days." The film will be made available in exchange for some class news for this column.

The following note was received from BILL CRONIN: "I heard from BOB HAMILTON that CHARLIE SHELANSKEY is with the State Department of Public Works and lives out at Westhampton, L. L.; also, VIC ZIMMERMAN moved to the country, uptight, near Kinderhook, N. Y.—lucky guy."

25 YEAR REUNION
JUNE 11-12-13

From LARRY STAUNDER:
If your family is like that of the Larry Staunders you wonder at the speed at which 1933 passed. It had its highlights—not as many, perhaps, as it could have had. In looking back a year hence we trust that you can include pleasant memories of a JUNE CLASS REUNION with your former roommates and close friends of student years at Notre Dame. Past experience has indicated that attendance at the 25th Reunion is larger than for any other. You will have your best opportunity to see more of your classmates on that occasion. The planning time is already upon us.

DON PLUNKETT who did so well in making arrangements for the 1949 reunion is back at the top spot and will be calling upon many of you soon to lend support. We all know that successful reunions do not just happen.

To the wives, we mention the family picture display that was so popular last June for the Class of '28. Some one hundred or so family pictures were assembled and displayed.

Special groups like engineers, lawyers, architects, medics, glee club and others may arrange.
JOE CONLEY, BOB NEYDON and CHARLIE MANNIX.

As you can recall from the '31 notes in the Alumnus I have had Masses said and sent Mass cards to the widows of several classmates during the past two years. My source of funds for this has been the unexpended balance of funds collected in Farley Hall during the 1931 reunion. As this is nearly depleted I am asking contributions from you for a class fund to provide for Masses as well as a fund to defray the cost of promoting our reunion in 1956. Whatever amount you choose to send will be fine. At the same time enclose a newsletter. These may be sent either to my home or office which is 209 S. LaSalle St., Chicago 6, Illinois.

The home football games brought some news of '31ers. At the Navy game I sat a few rows in front of KELLY POWERS, '32, and his wife, from Milburn, N. J. They were staying at OLA ANICE FUTTER's home in South Bend and during the evening decided to call ED SHEERAN at Long Beach, California. I also saw OLM THEISEN, '32, FRANK BUFORAC, JACK SCHMIDT and his son, Tom, a 6' 2" Loyola Academy basketball prospect, MATT GARRIGAN and his wife who decided to spend Saturday night at the Morris Inn, GIL SEAMAN and his family and GENE VALLEE. At the Georgia Tech game Gil Seaman met the President and Vice President of the Arcola, Illinois Notre Dame Club, TOM MONAHAN and PAUL GRANT. Gil suggested they look for me at the Alumni Information Booth, but I happened to be 90 miles away that day.

OLDERMAN NICK BOHLING appeared on TV November 14th in an attempt to explain his needling the mayor. Nick made the Penn-Louisiana game, but could not come up with any news because of the bad weather. However, one of the reliable '31ers came up with a "Class Secretary's Delight" letter. I had written JOHN BURNS to help me out on news of our eastern classmates many of whom appear to be losing their power of dietation.

Dear Jim:

"Your letter didn't give me much time to get working on news of the boys in this area—that November 30th deadline sorta scared me. Since time's a-wastin' I'll try to get some information off to you pronto!"

"Received the Alumnus last night and was grieved to learn of the deaths of Bob Neydon and Charlie Mannix. I knew Bob very well and remember his infectious cheer and a "Class Secretary's Delight" letter. I had written JOHN BURNS to help me out on news of our eastern classmates many of whom appear to be losing their power of dietation.

and ED CUNNINGHAM yesterday. Slim was busily preparing for a Thanksgiving dinner at his Dad's home for all the members of the family. I know they will have a grand time. Ed Cunningham recently moved from Milford, Delaware to Central Valley, N. Y., about 40 miles outside New York City. His two oldest boys are at school in Newburgh; the three younger boys are attending the local school. Virginia, his wife, looks after Ellen until the boys return and take over the house. Ed finds much to do around the new home. DICK BARBER is now in Miami, having chauffeured his Mother and Dad there last week. However, the Judge expects to fly back in time to do the turkey carving for his brood. All the boys and their families are in good health.

JOSEPH H. MULQUEEN, '40

Joseph Mulqueen, '40, is the originator and Managing Editor of a new magazine called NEW. This is the first issue in America brought out for the express purpose of listing new inventions available for sale to manufacturers. Not only does NEW picture, describe and cost estimate new inventions, it lists the outright sale or royalty lease arrangement desired by the respective inventors.

The first issue of this quarterly magazine came off the presses in October and the number of well-known American corporations that have subscribed to it have raised eyebrows of even the most experienced publishers. Circulation is over 5,000, with a majority of subscribers in top level industrial management and with a growing list of inventors as well.

Since donning his Marine Major's role in 1946, Joe Mulqueen has spent 6 years in the publishing business and is a former executive with both LIFE and QUICK magazines.

Married to a Philadelphia girl in 1941, Joe is the proud father of 6 children—evenly divided between boys and girls.

Red went from four to seven children in seven months. (Photo in this issue of ALUMNUS.)

AL STEPAN phoned recently after seeing DAN HALPIN in New York. Dan has made one of the biggest TV hotel installations at the Sheraton in Los Angeles. DR. BUCKY O'CONNOR and his wife were guests of Al Step an at the Iowa game. They spent four days at the Morris Inn, while attending our football game. It seems as though Red was racing a paper weight down the corridor when VINCE PONIC took over condemning Red and protecting the aide as well. I hear... Need I go further, Vince? Remember when FATHER MARGRAF came upstairs. It was shortly before Sunday night supper.

DON O'TOOLE sent the following note: "I have had more news to report to you, but all I can say is that I spent a very delightful two days at the campus during the middle of the summer, locating at the Morris Inn and playing golf, and dining with some of my old classmates. I can assure you that it is a swell two or three-day vacation. I also took in the Georgia Tech game last Saturday, but did not run into any of my classmates. Again I want to congratulate you on the job you're doing as secretary. I wish I had more to help you. With kindest regards, I am Yours very truly,

Don I have sent notes to HARRY KENNEDY in South America and FATHER DUFFY in Seattle and hope to have something soon. I wrote ED LA BARTHE and he came through with a fine letter.

Dear Jim:

"I received your letter, and first of all I want to congratulate you for the 'awards of class secretary,' which are you are doing a fine job. JERRY CROWLEY has come down to Mexico twice in the past two years and I've had long talks with him. Have you heard from the Notre Dame men? From Al Step an I had a long distance call a couple of months ago, and I was expecting his eldest son to come down here, but later had a letter from his wife saying that the boy couldn't come.

"If it interests you, the dope about me, here it goes: I have four kids, two boys 12 and 13, and two smaller girls. The boys, since the beginning of the year, are in St. Thomas Military Academy for the first half on a year at school and the second half in summer camp and then came home. Last September I went with my wife as far as San Antonio and then left them in the plane to Chicago and St. Paul.

"The last of the Notre Dame men (outside of Mexico) I have seen is GENE CALHOUN. I was in Los Angeles, called him up and he took me up to his house to meet his charming family. I was playing golf with LUCIO MUNAIN and he told me about the Alumni Reunion last June where we met you. I had a fine talk with BILL MORPHY in the last few weeks, but I know he is fine.

"I'm sorry this year we have not been able to get together as we did last year when Lucio, Bill and I flew out of Atlanta to see the Texas-Notre Dame game. I have been at Notre Dame only once since I graduated. That was in Summer of three years ago, and naturally I hope and intend to be there for the 1954-year reunion.

My best wishes to you and your family, and my best regards to all the ND "ex-boys" that you see.
Sincerely,
ED La BARTHE

I wrote ED SHEERAN to take over as regional secretary for the So. Cal game, but in the over 90,000 attendance it was difficult to spot TOM ASHE and many other '34ers who were there.

Dear Jim:

"Thanks for yours of November 23. It is good to hear from you and we wish that you would find an excuse to write more often. Apparently, Kelly forgot to tell you that his call originating in Munich reached here one Saturday evening at 10:00 P.M. Lydia answered the phone and Kelly and Clarence were quite amused to hear that I had already hit the sack. Weekends when one can get to bed early are few and far between so when they do occur, they are doubly appreciated.

"My wife's sister and her husband are flying in tonight from Tokyo, so it will be impossible for me to attend the rally at the Biltmore Hotel. Should I see or hear of any of the fellows of '31 at the game tomorrow, I will put a postscript on this letter before posting it.

"I see ED MASSA almost every holiday season. Ed's home is in Hayward so be he and Grace usually come to see us when we are with our folks in Berkeley at Christmas time. Ed is in the insurance business and doing very well. On our way home we stopped at Kailispel, Montana where we were royally entertained by N. M. (BUD) GIERS and his wife, Jean. They and their children took time out from their busy schedule to show us around Glacier Park. Bud, who was of the class of '31 has not lost a bit of his flare for a good time and enjoys life immensely.

WICHITA—The Alumni Club’s Communion Breakfast, Dec. 6, was attended by (left to right): Dr. B. Leis, ’34; T. Jochens, ’40; Dr. B. Crowley, ’28; E. A. Koester, Bishop Carroll; P. Donigan, ’35; G. Schwarz, ’25; Fr. Murphy, chaplain; Dr. D. Hogan, ’43; and Frank Furstenberg, ’21.

I think the need for news is effectively pointed out by the fact that out of the 150 members of ’33 who attended the 1933 reunion—and nearly all of them promised they’d write—I have received a letter from one—JOE KURTH.

I think Joe’s cooperation was so outstanding I’m going to reprint his letter in full:

Dear Joe:

“Just a ‘little’ note to you in appreciation of the work you did on our 20-year Reunion. It was great to be among the fellows again; to talk with them; to reminisce with them plus the fact that it was just ‘plain fine’ to be back on the campus. Frankly, this reunion was the greatest stimulant the writer has had for some years.

“It is my sincere hope that our silver Jubilee in 1938 can find even a greater number of our classmates back on the campus. It seemed from casual observation that the 1928 class had a wonderful reunion. May I go on record that if there is anything the writer can do in assisting the 1933 class I remain, very truly yours,”

JOSEPH J. KURTH

Joe lives at 2586 Green St., Apt. B, Harrisburg, Pa.—so drop him a line, if only to applaud him for writing!

That’s all for now, mates—here’s expressing the hope again that by the next ALUMNUS I’ll have a column full of news and names.

In reviewing the rosters of Club Officers to serve Notre Dame Alumni Clubs throughout the nation, it appears as if the Class of ’43 is of executive timber. JIM DONIGAN heads the Little Rock, Arkansas Club; JOHN LANAHAN is President of the North Florida group; BILL CLEMENS, the Dubuque, Iowa Club; GUS ZUEHLKE heads the Fox River Valley (Wisconsin) organization; and BOB HACKNER the LaCross, Wisconsin Club. In the newly formed Kansas Club FRED GANS is Vice President; BOB KEARN is Treasurer of the Aurora, Illinois Club; and HARRY HICKMAN is Secretary of the Tidewater (Virginia) Club.

In the last issue, while recapping the highlights of the Reunion week-end, mention of the splendid work of JERRY FEENEY, chairman, was overlooked. Jerry did a fine job of lining up many details in South Bend and on campus to make the week-end a delightful success. As a token of appreciation the Class presented Jerry with a desk lighter.

ED HANRAHAN dropped word of the opening of law offices at 30 N. LaSalle, Chicago. The single reader: Hanrahan and Royal.

WALLY ZIEMBA spent a couple hours in Fort Worth on November 29 scouting the Southern Methodist against Texas Christian. TCU won 13-0 while, according to Dallas papers, SMU revenged nothing to the Notre Dame scout—at the expense of the game? One of Wally’s teammates, BOB DOVE, has transferred from the Chicago Cardinals to the Detroit Lions, which must be going to the Yankees from the Orioles.

BILLY MIDDENDORF is back in Fort Wayne after a brief stint in Decatur, Illinois. Bill is selling real estate in Fort Wayne.

JOHN J. GILLGAN was elected to the Cincinnati City Council on November 3. John’s old roommate, JAMES R. CLARK, JR., has been appointed Commissioner of Hamilton County. What makes this more interesting is that the two former roommates are working on opposite sides of the political fence.

By now everyone in the Class of ’44 whose address is correct in the files of the Alumni Office should have received a mimeographed copy of the class roster. It is to be hoped that this list will help refresh your memory (10 years

IS a long time] with those in our class; and perhaps it has already prompted some renewal of friendships even before our big get-together next June 11, 12, 13 at ND. Time is growing short and within a very few months after receiving this issue of the ALUMNUS we will be campus-bound once again for the big event!

Class President DICK DOERMER had originally planned to appoint committee chairmen in the various cities to "beat the drums" for the reunion; but the early response has been so overwhelming that the event is now certain to be a huge success.

One contingent that is aiming for 100% turnout at the reunion is the '44 Club of Chicago-land. JACK THORNTON, pres of the organization, writes a very interesting and informative report on their activities. Actually, the club got rolling in high gear a year ago when "we rejuvenated our class list and sent out inquiries as to whether the fellows would be interested in getting together socially now and then. The response was favorable," writes Jack, "and we met once a month at a local restaurant —and lounge—for dinner and much social activity. This continued from September to June. We are again starting up and will meet tomorrow evening (Oct. 15) for the initiation of the Fall social season." "MOX" ROGERS is Secretary and JACK COAKER, Treasurer. Here's a partial list of men of '44 in regular attendance at their meetings: BILL BRADY, HERB CLARK, JACK COAKER, STRATTE COORLAS, GEORGE CROVIN, BOB DUFFY, ED DUNGAN, JOE FARMAR, MILT FLYKE, DR. BILL FORD, ED GITS, JIM KANE, BILL KENNEY, JIM LANDGREN, HARRY LAVERY, JIM LLOYD, JIM MCDONOUGH, JACK MCSWEENEY, JACK MORAN, DICK NICKSON, TOM O'DONNOR, JIM PLATT, JIM RICE, CHUCK ROGERS, WALTER "MOX" ROGERS, FRANK ROMANO, GEORGE ST. GEORGE, JACK SEGERSON, JOE TAEFE, DR. AL THOMETZ, NORV TRIMBORN, FRANK VIGNOLA, GEORGE WENDT, JIM WILSON, JIM WHALEN, JACK WITOUS, BOB WOLF, and HARRY YEATES.

JOE NEWTON at Sears, Green Bay, for the game and planning to be on tap in June... BERNIE FINUCANE who says all '4ers from Kansas City will be "present and accounted for" in June... BOB McDONELL and JOHNNY MORRIS who ditto the foregoing as to the Detroit crowd... and what say: are YOU planning to be there???

JAMES M. GOVER was ordained to the Priesthood last May 30 by Bishop Daniel J. Feeney of Portland, Me., for the Diocese of Maine. Father Gover studied his theology at St. Augustine's Seminary in Toronto, Canada. Father Gover's new address is 183 Danforth, Portland, Me.

Received an interesting report from JACK JOHNSON, bringing us up-to-date on his whereabouts. After flying 30 missions in Europe as a gunner on a B-24 and later serving as an instructor with the Air Force in Aerial Photography, Jack returned to ND for his B.S. in Accounting. He's now associated with a Chicago firm selling bottle caps to soft drink bottlers and breweries in Ohio and West Virginia. He married a lovely gal from Oklahoma and they have four little ones—three boys and a girl. Jack confirms he'll be on hand for the reunion in June. Add his name to your roster; his address is 183 Danforth, Portland, Me.

Another classmate, JOHN HEYVAERT, visited New York several weeks ago, and was an overnight guest. It was great fun comparing notes and recollecting. John owns a household appliance store in South Bend and his sales record in a particular line had won him a visit to New York and a weekend trip to Bermuda. He looks swell, married life showing up very good on him.

And talking about marriages, another visitor to New York this past month was GEORGE DESPOT of Shreveport. George finally married his college-days sweetheart, Pearla, and then went down to Silver Springs last month to visit my old roomie, FRED "GODFREY" BREMER and his wife Mary Ellen. They have a beautiful little boy, Davey, who is our little Godchild, so naturally we are prejudiced, but he's really a wonderfully behaved and lovable child. He's only eight months old but already shows signs of being very intelligent... just like the Godparents. Fred is in his last year of law studies, having done the whole course in the evenings at the George Washington University Law School. He graduates this coming June, and all indications are that he'll be the proud father of two children by then.

Another classmate, FRANK J. CURRAN (M.D.) with a return address of 7779 Medical Det. G. A.P.O. 227, c/o Postmaster, New York, N. Y. . . . Frank Curran is a First Lt. in the Marine Corps... a note from RAY BADDOUR, our treasurer, states that out of a possible 374 dues-paying members, we have received contributions from 110 . . . not too good a picture when you consider all the effort that has been put behind this all-important project which is the backbone of our coming reunion. . . . MELVYN P. TOMBER's address in South Bend is 509 E. Milton Street... those who have signed in their dues this past month are BILL GRANT; BILL WRAPE, MATT ROMEO, E. VERNON FROST, MELVYN TOMBER, THOMAS MCGOUGHY, JOHN J. DOWLING, and MICHAEL J. GARRY... saw JIM GLYNES, HARRY WALTERS, JOHN O'ROURKE and others at recent New York Club meeting... congratulations from the class to BOB GRIFFIN who was recently engaged to Miss Elizabeth Musante.

From Mary Agnes Grant, wife of Bill Grant: "Just seems busy husbands take much additional going on. Some last doors, so I'll get this off for Bill. Just now we're extra busy with two boys—one almost 2 1/2 years old, and the other almost a year—and building a OREGON—The club luncheon in honor of Most Rev. Loras T. Lane, '32, Auxiliary Bishop of Dubuque, was held in Portland. Left to right: Bill Schmitt, '10, Foundation Governor; Rev. John J. Walsh, '30; Bishop Lane; Rev. Michael J. Gavin, C.S.C., president of University of Portland; and Judge Frank J. Lonergan, '04.
From Bill Winpe: "Sincere apologies for being so tardy with the enclosed dues. I know we'll all be rewarded with a big turnout for the reunion in '55. Thanks again for your patience, and best regards to all of the class." (Bill, thanks for the dues and for the good words. I note that your new address is 207 North Palm, Little Rock, Arkansas. We certainly do hope we get the whole gang out for that reunion now only a little over a year away, and we are working hard toward that end. See you then. Regards. Al.)

From Lt. John Brozo, USN: "So many times I have wanted to sit down and write, but never seem to get around to it. I like your plans for a joint reunion (the WHOLE class of '45, including the NROTC). I think I was the only RO to go into the Regular Navy after World War II. I haven't seen many of the old gang since then.

"At present I'm an exchange pilot with the 42nd Fighter Interceptor Squadron at International Airport, Park Ridge, Illinois. Will be the last year we've seen the F-46, then back to the Navy. Wife and family have remained in Jacksonville, Florida. Count me in on next reunion. My best to J. D. USNA, and the rest of the boys."

From Joe Romeo, brother of Matt Romeo: "This letter is to inform you of the whereabouts of one of your no doubt lost members of the ND class of '45, my brother, Matthew P. Romeo. I am enclosing $1 to cover Matt's dues and thought I would send you his present address so you and the Alumni Office can contact him direct from now on. I also want to send you additional information about him.

"Matt graduated from St. Louis University's Medical School in 1946 and has been in the Navy ever since. He was stationed in California most of the time but is now serving in Hawaii, where he will be for a couple more years. He holds a Lieutenant's rank, is doing fine, is married and has three children—two girls and a boy. Here is the present address where I hope you will have all his alumni mail sent: Dr. Matthew P. Romeo, 209 Plantation Drive, Honolulu 18, Hawaii.

"I think this just about covers everything. Hope this letter has helped you bring another sheep back into the fold. I plan to enter ND myself next September." (Joe, thank you very much for your thoughtfulness in writing. I have noted Matt's address, as well as sent it on to Notre Dame so that the Alumni Office puts it into their own records. We'd like to wish you the best of luck while attending Notre Dame. Naturally, guided by our own experience, we don't think you will ever regret having picked such a school as Notre Dame. Again, good luck, Al.)

From E. Vernon Frost: "Just a note along with my dues. Please address all correspondence to my home address, 3196 S. Kings Road, Los Angeles, California. Recently I served as Commander Service Forces, Pacific Fleet here in Hawaii, as Assistant Technical and Engineering Officer in the Pacific Command Petroleum Office. As collateral duty, will probably be coach-player of the CinC Pac Fleet-Com Serv Pac basketball team. Your letter had difficulty catching up with me since previous to July I was in the Far East as Administrative Asst. and Aide to Rear Admiral Ragan on General Clark's HQ, F.E.C. staff.

"If plans go as scheduled, next May 8th will find me in Los Angeles at which time I will be anxious to return to Sales and Engineering in the petroleum, steel, and related industries, again representing possible Eastern, Midwestern, or Gulf Coast companies with coverage throughout California. I hope to join the class in '55, and personal thanks to you at secretary, Al, for keeping us posted the past years on so many of the fellows."

From Tom McCaughey: "Enclosed please find my dues. My delay is inexcusable, but believe me, Al, my intentions have always been good. It sounds like our reunion in 1955 is bound to be a big success. I'm looking forward to that. "Your letters have been very enjoyable, and,
WALTER MONACELLI, '38

As manager of the Patent Section, Koppers Co., Inc., Walter Monacelli, '38, has the responsibility for all matters pertaining to patents, trade-marks, and copyrights of Koppers. He supervises a staff of eight patent attorneys.

Walt also received a Ph.D. degree from Notre Dame, in addition to a Bachelor of Science, in 1941, and graduated from the DePaul U. School of Law with a J.D. degree in 1945. He is the second of three Monacelli brothers to attend Notre Dame—Al graduated in 1934 and Carl finished his pre-dental studies in 1943.

Following his graduation from Notre Dame, Walt worked as research chemist with Atlantic Refining Co., in Philadelphia and the Sherwin-Williams Paint Co., in Chicago. Thereafter he was with Industrial Rayon Corp., Cleveland, prior to joining the Koppers organization.

Walt is married to Miriam Johnson of Atlanta, Ga., and they have two daughters, Linda, 4, and Janet, 2.

From Francis M. Guigney: "Enclosed please find my dues. I'm sorry for being so late. I received your letter at the end of September and now hasten to send in my dues. Regards to you." (Thank you for the invitation to tell the rest of the class that your address is 2413 Seventy-Seventh Crescent, Belluzo, Long Island, New York.)

From Miss Nancy Coffey, sister of Michael Coffey: "Enclosed please find a check for $1 to cover the class dues of my brother, Michael J. Coffey," (Mike Coffey is a distinguished professor in Germany, although I had thought he would be back in the USA by this past March. If anyone has further word, please send it on to me. Al.)

From Ed LaRocque: "I want to get off your 'delinquent list' so I'm enclosing some more for buck. I hope the rest of the class was a little better than I in paying as soon as requested."

"I don't have much in the way of news for you. I got out of the Navy a year ago this October and have been back working in Fort Wayne with International Harvester Company since that time. Naturally, living about 70 miles from the campus, I went to several of the games this Fall. If you get down around this way, do look us up." (Dear Ed, thanks for the invitation to look you up. I certainly will if I ever get down around there. Note your new address is 15965 Spy Run Avenue, Fort Wayne, Indiana. Good luck, and we'll be seeing you at the 10-year reunion.)

From Vince Lauria: "I received your letter of September and hope I can renew some of your faith in mankind. I too must belong to that group of 'non-dues payers,' but I have somewhat of an excuse. Any way within the last year we have moved and in that space of time have received little correspondence and no issues of the ALUMNUS. However, I believe most of the fault is mine since I probably overlooked sending a change of address card. Enclosed you will find my dues.

I do not asked for volunteers from the South Bend area, and since we have established residence here, and looks as if we might here for some time to come, I will be glad to help in any way at all. Another thing of special interest to me concerns the NROTC reunion, as I am a member of that 2nd NROTC graduating class. I had heard that you hold our '55 reunion with the balance of the class, and when you confirmed it, I was most happy with the news. I certainly did like the idea."

"I have been here in South Bend a little over a year now. I was a teacher at John Adams High School as a teacher and also coaching football (backfield assistant) and track. I have seen some thirty or more of our classmates and Al this past year, who have dropped in to see a game or who were just passing through town. I am anxiously awaiting the opening of ND's home schedule so I will get the chance to see some more of the old gang. Seems I have said more than my share of late talk will be glad to. Give my regards to all." (Dear Vince, thanks for the enthusiasm. You are being put on a very short list so that I will call upon you as the plans develop, should I need you. Some of the points and questions which the editor of your letter are best answered directly by mail, so I have not printed the whole letter. You'll be hearing from me as the start date nears, and I will be happy with what my answers will be. Good luck to you. I note that your new address is 729 Sylvan Lane, South Bend 19, Indiana.)

From Mike Garry: "Your correspondence has always been well-received and I hope you continue even though I am making my dues payment. The Garry family now includes an almost two-month-old daughter, Susan Marie. Though the Grain Business is still trying to provide for them. With best wishes to you and the class." (Thanks for the phone number for those living in Jersey, is 42 Madison Avenue, Fanwood, New Jersey. The phone is Fanwood 2-4955."

Notre Dame Alumnus, Jan.-Feb., 1954
JOHN A. MATOUSEK, '32

Announcement has just been made by the Baker-Raulang Co., Cleveland, O., industrial truck and tractor manufacturer, of the appointment of John A. Matousek, '32, as vice-president and general manager. He will be responsible for all activities in the company's operation.

John is also a director of the Baker-Lull Corp., in Minneapolis, Minn. He is a member of the Society of Automotive Engineers, Cleveland Chamber of Commerce, Shaker Heights Country Club and the Notre Dame Alumni Club in Cleveland.

Joining Baker-Raulang in 1949 as manager of manufacturing, John was named to a vice-presidency in this division in October, 1951. Before his association with the Baker-Raulang Co., John was manager of the Detroit Division of the Hupp Corp.

From John J. Dowling: "Enclosed is my check for class dues. I must explain WHY you haven't heard from me. My present address is my fourth in less than two years, and it is a miracle that your last communication has been forwarded to me via Newport, R. I., Dyeon, Pa., and Philadelphia, Pa.

"I have been out of the Navy (the reason for the California and Newport addresses) for 8 months, and am now back in my residence in Orthopedic Surgery. Will be at the State Hospital for Crippled Children, Elizabethown, Pa., until July, 1954, when I return to Jefferson Hospital in Philadelphia. My home address will be 106 Rolling Road, Carroll Park, Philadelphia 31, Pa."

From Ray Baddour: "A couple of weeks ago I was home (North Carolina) and saw SAM RIZK there. He is making lots of money, is still single. JIM BUTLER dropped in on me here in Boston on business. He stayed with me a couple of days and it was nice seeing him again for the first time since 1943. He, too, looks swell and is doing very well as a metalurgist for U. S. Steel Corp. As far as the class dues picture goes, we have collected just under 29% of the present maximum. Let's hear from you." (Dear Ray, thanks for the news and the fact that we still have a lot of waiting to do until some of the class begin to feel like sending in their dues. First chance I get I'll be up to Boston as there are several things I want to talk over with you concerning some of the embryo plans for our future reunion. See you soon. Al.)

I want to state once more—for any of the class who are still in doubt—that the '51 reunion will be planned for the WHOLE class, including all the men who attended or graduated with our class, and including the whole NROTC group. Special functions will be planned exclusively for NROTC participation, and a plan is being worked on now that will leave a whole floor for NROTC within the hall assigned for '41 returnees. The important thing will be that the majority of the reunion will be a concentrated effort to have everyone meet everyone, renewing old friendships, and talking about all the things that have happened since we all parted way back in 1945. More details as they develop. For the time being, best of luck to all of you and to your families. S'long for now . . . Al.

JIM DOUGHERTY who is employed with the Elder Manufacturing Company of St. Louis came up with a good suggestion in his letter to the Alumni News. He suggests that each member of our class would personally write or contact only five fellow 48ers, the fellows he knew best, telling of his intention to be in South Bend for the reunion, I think our attendance would increase. Periodically your secretary would issue a listing of who intends to be present.

JACK SULLIVAN's letter reached us too late for inclusion in the last ALUMNUS. Jack is out of the Army now and is presently employed with the Rockford (Illinois) Wholesale Paper Co., Inc. He was released from the Army after active duty with the Quartermaster Corps and the Armored Audit Agency of the Fifth Armored Division. CHUCK ROULT is with the Automatic Sprinkler Corporation (Chicago office) and is now living in Evanston. Chuck spent 34 months in the Army. While he was over there, he saw DON BUSECK and TOM HANFIN, both '48ers, who are working there.

I was admitted to the New York Bar in November '52 and since the summer of '52 have been practicing law with Bayon, Kelly, Turner & Synders here in Buffalo. I was married last July 11th to Phyllis M. Bruno.

From Oceanside, Long Island, New York, comes word from JOHN KENNEDY that family responsibilities will prohibit him from attending the reunion. John is with the FBI and tells me that the squad to which he is assigned is practicing anti-government Notre Dame club. Jack and his wife Kathleen have a daughter and another heir on the way.

DICK LAMERE is living in Milton, Mass., and is a reporter on the Boston Herald-Traveler.

TOM HANLON is a special agent for the Business Life Co., and is assigned to the South Bend office.

Also from South Bend comes word from BOB MACHIN. He has been working for Bendix Aircraft in Production Control for four years. The Machtins had their third child in October.

My old Prefect and neighbor from the third floor of Dillon Hall—GEOE O'NEILL—is going great guns out in Chicopee Falls, Mass, where he heads the E. J. O'Neill insurance agency. Here's what he had to say: "I'll have to work with the ever-increasing volume of business—yet I'm I'm managing to attend as of now. . . we are having our third some time in May so if everything is OK I'll be there. I'm secretary-treasurer of our local club and see some of the fellows. BOBBY CAMPBELL is married and has two children. MOE CASEY (49) is doing pretty well and has his own business.
