Plan Organization of Off-Campus Men

Organization of the Day Students will be attempted at a meeting to be held on Saturday evening, October 7, at 8 o'clock in St. Joseph Hall. The purpose is to form a club that can conduct social activities for the benefit of the men to get acquainted, and to act as a common forum for the exchange of ideas.

The organization hopes to develop in the men, the spirit that may develop in the procession of the men.

Bowling bouts, music, and social events will be held for the evening. Officers will be elected.

Colors may be adopted by the men, as has been done by the halls on the campus.

To prevent drinking of intoxicating liquors by Notre Dame students, the Student Activities Committee was appointed with University authorities. This was decided at a meeting of the B.A.C. Society on Monday. Plans for Homecoming are being made with the approval of the University officials.

The committee has been received from concerns in Lincoln, St. Louis, and Chicago, for individual and group pictures. John Moran, pictures, are being sent to these concerns.

A petition was presented asking that the University authorities approve the Student Activities Committee's plans for Homecoming.

The committee deliberated and decided on a special committee.

BROOKLYN FLORIAN IS DEAD
Last Saturday death swooped down on Notre Dame. Yesterday morning the funeral of Brother Florian took place in Sacred Heart Chapel. The last and saddest of the relatively few ceremonies that have been held in the breasts of undergraduates and generations of alumni of men of whom fell the burden of grey hair, one of the good men that have been so dear to the men of Boon and 70.

The life of Brother Florian was a golden monument of Christian charity. As rector for 14 years of St. Joseph hall—the Ballin hall of today—his tabernacle of Christ would found itself in the hearts of the country than at some time or other inhabited Old St. Joe. His love for the aged and infirm is a memory that transcends the ages.

Not only to the infirm was he a friend, but to the infirm in spirit also. He was the Barm of the campus and gave them all the offenses that were given him. His face was a solace to the heart and his conversation a comfort to the soul.

From those of us who have experienced the splendor of Brother Florian’s friendship, we receive a jewel that cannot be stolen or destroyed. He had a lovely nature, a friendly smile, rich gold. Abundant love brought the smile of human feeling which he was ready to share with any disheartened wayfarer. In a world where the ideal is sometimes so cold, so sorrowed, and so injured, he pieced the gloom with the golden glory of mercy. God grant him the rest he so amply earned.

Bro. Arnold Tells About Oriental Trip
Brother Arnold gave an interesting account of his experience on a trip through India and other oriental countries, to the Agriculture club at a meeting held in the Agriculture building at 7:30 Tuesday evening. The lecture, which described customs and peoples of the countries through which Brother Arnold traveled, followed the election of officers for the fall. Paul Kennedy was elected president; Ferdinand Krup, vice-president; Walter Condon, secretary-treasurer, and Lauren P. Mundin, press agent.

More Than Hundred at Club Guest Party
One hundred and forty guests, including those who did not attend, were present Tuesday night at the last party of the year, arranged by the Student government Building Administration building by the scholarship club. The dance was given by the students who organized their and their friends and was not included in the series of entertainments planned for the University men to work so perfectly as did Roonee's men. There's not a resemblance of all but in the 'Gigers' camp. Although the most has been frustrating for a shorter period than has Notre Dame, there is no denying that few Princeton eleven, even at the close of the season in the battle with Yale, has been drilled to the degree of football perfection that Notre Dame showed in Palmer stadium. That the coordination of men is due to the coach is certain, and Rockne has developed this coordination in his men to a science, almost to an art. To see every Notre Dame man who carried the ball supported by five interference was more than to lose local followers of the grizzled green game. Even when the Princeton tackles were not held and the runner was stopped, Notre Dame had gone forward from three to five yards. It is still a further opinion of Princetonians that Jim Crowley, the brilliant halfback, deserves an undisputed place on any all-American team. The way he twisted and dodged his way from tackle after tackle was a reminder of Dr. Lawrie.
Purdue Faces Rockmen Next

Phelan's Charges Make Good Showing in Big Ten; Irish Draw Bids for Coast Games.

With the third great intercollegiate clash safely staved away in the annals of football history, the Rockmen are looking forward to the Homecoming struggle against Purdue Saturday night, a duel in the shade, since Jimmy Phelan's predictions, made the day after the match, were not far towards fulfilling those predicted by the prophet. The Irish will have had more practice and, with the exception of the preparation of the Purdue offensive, the game should be the purest of the season.
