The DAILY: Problem in the Admissions Office

IRISH TO MEET GOPHERS TONIGHT
Ten Men Make Trip to Minneapolis; Undecided as to Exact Line-up; Keenan Confident
Con the return of the two completed teams left South Bend yesterday afternoon for Minneapolis where they will meet the Gophers in a two game series today and Monday. The fact that the two teams were taken does not mean that the final choice of the squad has been made, as very little has been heard from the starting line-up. Many changes are expected later on.

The team that meets MInnesota will be greatly handicapped, due to the lack of practice, to feed, 3 days of actual work have been spent in preparation. The team is composed of 6 men of the being held back on account of football work. Ned McCauley and Noble Kline, two of last year's squad, are also expected to be the team, as they will probably start the game. The center of the team is being held by Bill Miller and Tom Rearden, both letter winners. Bill Miller is being held by Adam Welsh may be switched from the guard position. Joe Rearden will play center in, as the four successful men will lose their place in the lineup at West Coast.

The men who made the trip are: Bill Milller, Rearden, Frey, and Ward.

What Asked: Is a stadium for football practical? If so, how can funds be raised?

Mark Noble, Charles McFadden, Raymond Norris, and Paul drowned the staff preliminary in the interhall meeting Thursday afternoon. The members of the Blue Circle team, Professors Rearden, Farrell, and McFadden, are the four successful men who have won this year's interhalls.

The four successful men will lose their place in the lineup at West Coast.

THE DAILY QUANTUM

A football stadium for Notre Dame is practical. In order to raise money, I would suggest the following: a) Raise the price of a ticket to $1.50. b) Have a special game against a team of the caliber of an experienced team. c) Raise the price of a ticket to $1.50. d) Have a special game against a team of the caliber of an experienced team. e) Raise the price of a ticket to $1.50. f) Have a special game against a team of the caliber of an experienced team.

John Weibel, Notre Dame football and track man, was elected captain of the football team for the coming year at a meeting of the team held Thursday. Weibel is a junior in the Blue Circle. The election was due to the support the student body gave the team.

Rev. Hugh O'Donnell was the principal speaker of the meeting. In his brief talk Father O'Donnell upheld the cause of football, and of the brilliant prospects for the coming season. He pointed out the great interest which the students of the team were shown in the past and promised the support of the Blue Circle. He further announced that the members that they would be competing in the interhall league for the coming season.

The first meeting of the team will be held in the South Bend Y. M. C. A. at the municipal stadium in the Blue Circle. The South Bend Redmen have a well-trained team, and are expected to be a strong contender for the interhall league.

The next meeting will be held at the South Bend Y. M. C. A. at the municipal stadium in the Blue Circle. The South Bend Redmen have a well-trained team, and are expected to be a strong contender for the interhall league.

Reports have been quite hilarious on Walter Trofimowski, Notre Dame's roving street spawn. Only this and nothing more.

From Browman hall a mighty song is being sung—"Surely the Lord will be there!" song is Larry Hibbert, a thirty young stuff from Holy Cross.

He enjoys his past so much with his arts. In the last School of Honors Dinner, by his own confession.

Al Serva, "foreigner," has been receiving bulletin's on the low and mean at the Library. "Chief choos is furnace."

I am prevailed upon to add a little more Ludwig's best easy secret. My secret comes among friends.

There is an opinion abroad that the Library is going to the dogs.

It is--I'm becoming a termite and everybody is talking about it. I am a man of faith, a Dr. Jekyll, and Mr. Hyde, to you. Sometimes I have my faith in the notables of those who, like Vernon Richards, are a small fact in the foreground at a funeral.

When that momentous occasion comes, I may behave myself with my little red book, and flout the man who makes a word.

That was a long time ago, I look forward to a disembodied, inscrutably, inscrutably old age.

Is that right, Dr. Jekyll?

Mr. Hyde.

Puns: Guess the missing word in the line above.

I have a little note from St. Mary's. It is written on what might be a lottery ticket or a pawn ticket.

It is probably part of a pawn ticket dropped by a guiltless Notre Dame's student from his bank roll at the huanan.

But the note is written in a very coarse scrawl. Why do they have a balcony at St. Mary's? At one time it was supposed that the note of that Assembly Hall has nothing on balcony seats.

There's nothing very funny in that.

Hail! Watson! I have it. It isn't a pawn ticket or a lottery ticket, either.

It's a parking coupon.

Just the minimum attend of the function. The friends, the union, the members. The managed, the managed, the flaneur, the managed, the half-naked, were not there.

In the word, Mrs. Grundy was not asked to shed the radiant glow of her countenance, but she did.

They'll be in store.

While wandering about in the neighborhood of Monte Hall a count was made of what people there were. I said (I would say, "refuted," considering the matter), "if it wasn't such a hot little run on the breeze. He stood confirmed. Ahh!" he murmured, "this is the minute. Whereupon the demoniacal Shrevan proclaimed, "Huh, that's Patrick and that horn."

How John Petrich, Roger Hannah, and Luke, stumped out of prison this long a mystery which can not be understood by industry.

MR. GRUNDY.

"Defying Destiny!" is the name of the picture that is causing all excitement in the state. It is a very enjoyable entertainment. When the curtain dropped on its opening Saturday that I crooked football's bow. I hope we have seen before. Ring and Golden put on a show with perfection proportioned to the first "Mammy" of the afternoon's program. The Elizabeth Brine was easily the hit of the show. From beauty and a splendid voice, she proves herself a real artist of qualities.

Benny Hurton's Revue is also good. It is produced by young Minnesota Mission. The Department. The order will become effective January 1, 1924.

BADMINTON TIES SOPHOMORES IN GRID BATTLE

Both Teams Resort to Open Game; Finch Is Outstanding Star; Large Crowd Attends.

The semi-final game of the Inter-hall league between the teams of Badin and Sophomore halls resulted in a scoreless tie on the field yesterday afternoon.

With the interhall title at stake, both teams played the hardest kind of football, neither side being able to cross the other's goal line, and the final whistle found the two teams playing for the breaks in the semi-darkness.

Considering that the Badin hall eleven was off form, not having played together for several weeks and that the aggregation from Sophomore hall was playing under a similar condition, the absence of team work was partly the reason why neither team was able to score, although both eleven threatened twice. When the opportunities to score came for both Badin and Sophomore, the offenses found their opponents playing desperately to stem the other's attack. The large crowd that has ever attended an interhall game this season was present.

Seniors Sell Many

N. D. Pillow Tops

The Senior concession committee reports a very large sale of the Notre Dame pillow tops. Over three hundred orders have been received to date and many more are expected. Some of the men who were the first to order have already received their pillows, and the manufacturers are sending more this week.

Place your order with any member of the committee or with Walt Moran at Corby hall.

CRUSADE PICTURES

Motion pictures of the Crusade convention held at Notre Dame last August will be shown as a prelude to Jack London's "Call of the Wild" Saturday night in Washington hall at 8 o'clock.

PLAYS FOR RADIO

Radio Concert Given in Pittsburgh Is Lauded; Father Walsh Heard Concert Over Radio.

"Station W. C. B. Pittsburgh, Pa. Notre Dame band broadcasting. These were the words that rang into the ears of many radio fans, the evening of the Carnegie Tech game. When the band played radio fans knew that Notre Dame not only had a football team, but also a band of which she could well be proud. Dr. P. N. Lord, radio manager of the Pittsburgh Press, heard the band and realizing its merit immediately, invited the players to broadcast from the powerful station of the Press. That the concert given by the band was appreciated is shown from cards that have been received here at the University. One of these, written from Manchester, Ind., reads: "Wanted to compliment you on your fine concert." Another from Ragusa, N. Y., reads: "We enjoyed the concert rendered by the Notre Dame University Band." Father Walsh also heard the concert and immediately telegraphed his congratulations.

"What a difference just a few cents make!"
