SILVER JUBILEE IS CELEBRATED
Fr. Gallagher Honored on Twentieth Fifth Anniversary of Entrance to Order.

Another member was added to the ranks of those who have spent a quarter of a century in the work of the Holy Cross order, when the Rev. Joseph Greco, C. S. C., superior of the Community house and teacher at the University, celebrated his silver jubilee yesterday.

A telegram of congratulation from Pope Pius XI, and many other messages of friendship were received by the celebrant.

Ceremonies were inaugurated by the celebration of high mass by Father Gallagher, assisted by the Reverends John Cavanagh and Thomas Irving, deacons and sub-deacons respectively. Music and vocal selections were provided by the choir from Most Sacred.

Following supper at 5:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the Community house, Father Gallagher's mansion was filled with his friends. A benediction service at 5:10 o'clock in the chapel closed the celebration.

Father Gallagher was ordained on December 17, 1919, in Baltimore, by Cardinal Gibbons. He was then sent to Notre Dame and later the institution maintained by the Rev. George, the Diocesan order for Washington, D. C. He first arrived at St. Joseph's College, Cincinnati, and after seven years of service there he returned to the same college, now known as Badin Hall. Later he was made assistant rector of Holy Cross University, a position he held until 1920. He was then given the position of president of Columbia University at Portland, Oregon. On his return in 1924 to Notre Dame, he became chaplin at St. Mary's College. He assumed the post of superior of the Community house in 1925.

CLUB MEN MEET
Rev. Thomas Irving and Dr. John M. Connay are Guests of Honor at Club's First Meeting.

With Reverend Thomas Irving, C. S. C., vice-president of the University, and Dr. John M. Conney, Dean of Journalism, as guests of honor, the first regular meeting of the newly organized supper club, Pies and Bowls, was held Saturday night in the College Inn, Hotel LaSalle. John Brennan, chairman of the club, presided as toastmaster, and short addresses by Father Irving and Dr. Conney stressed the importance of such an organization at the University and emphasized the part the club should play in strengthening the spirit of good-fellowship among the students.

The club is the first of its kind to be established at Notre Dame and is modeled somewhat after similar clubs at other universities. The membership will be limited to forty men and will be composed from the four classes. Meetings in the form of a supper will be held every other Saturday night during the scholastic year and will be attended by speakers prominent in various walks of life.

Who Has Just Discovered Santa Claus

At Christmas time I'm up a tree in many ways as a man should be. I trim the thing with great delight, and set out on every toy and light, and ever since I Yet drop, the star which goes away up top. This is one of my most pleasant sights. Some may find only a sun. But even a worm has its value in all the world, for he is able to read it.

One can also, in a sense, turn one's back on his misfortune. You have thoughts which are more than one side, and the bright side isn't always seen first. The lower side easily sparkles when brought to the light. Like Roman houses, all the entrance to its interior is not visible to all who pass through it. It must be sought for. The heart of a thought is never pinned to its sleeve.

You may be proud of the thoughts that visit you. They may do you honor. If so, very likely the rest of us, did not know. It would be fair to your friends, if you once have, and seek an introduction to your guesses. Of course if you have a merely local radar and limited apostles, you might for the introduction in writing. It would be a good idea. Only don't be selfish. If you are you, you shall become a bore to your readers and they shall seek other haunts.

We are making a venture. May be you will like it, maybe yet won't. In either case, we shall not be surprised nor disappointed. We won't be surprised if you do, because we start out by giving you credit for delighting in doses. We won't be surprised if you don't, for it wouldn't be strange if you did not enjoy our particular brand. Others have found fault with them. In fact, we feel it stimulating. We certainly won't be disappointed, for we have everything to gain and nothing to lose.

So as things come, we shall turn them over in our mind. We shall sample them, as it were, and then with a recommendation, send them on to you. If you like them, keep them. If you do not, just pitch them into the basket. No return postage is guaranteed.

Chicago Club Dance Tickets Are Limited

According to the latest report on the Dance Committee there will be no capacity crowd at the Chicago Club Christmas Formal, to be given at the Blackstone hotel in Chicago, January 2, 1924. Owing to the number of students who are planning to attend the dance on their way back to school, and to the number of tickets that must be sent to Chicago to take care of the alumni there, the number of tickets on the campus is very limited. I am urged that those students who desire tickets, see any of the men who desire tickets, see any of the men who are at the Student Activity Board of the Ball committee, Wednesday at 12:30, in Room 116, Corby hall.

The THE JUGGLER’S CHRISTMAS JEEP

The Juggler believes that — he has too long disregarded the day-to-day goings-on of his contemporary’s official clown.

The Juggler has spoken. The Juggler, sole administrator of Notre Dame Jugglers, in his last issue will be all the more serious, viller of those who prefer truth to ceremonies—the Juggler, who has done more than any other man to lift the Juggler’s standards and to improve the Juggler’s name.

It would be quoted in Judge’s—this same Juggler has pronounced the final decision upon the DAILY and upon one of its columns.

The DAILY does not need any Notre Dame sophisticates. It is unfortunate for the sophisticates that, having got their get-up and going in the pin of Notre Dame honor, they find the crust on the crust. Such feeding, intellectuals, is apt to wipe your crusty ears than build your bright foreheads. Nor should you become green with envy if another enters your pin of honor. It falls to offer the moral to your crusty lips.

HOLIDAY CLUB ACTIVITIES

The DAILY is beginning a new column in today’s issue. "By-Paths" has been running two columns until the next column, which will now go under way. "By-Paths" will now assume its former place of one column, conceding its place upon the editorial page to the editor.

Let the intellectuals of The Juggler moan knowingly—morning is about the best thing they have. And it is common to believe that John Bartley is allowed to believe himself Napoleon as long as he stays in his pin of honor.

Criminals on trial have been known to accuse someone else of their own crimes. Poor Juggler! Its one-bit-right reputation having grown steadily and it is a world that has not the time to shield its own. It is extremely the best of long thought and careful selection. But while it is fairly in some respects, its faultless like amorous virtues when compared with The Juggler. At least Mr. Grundy, is not known to act rou the pin of honor. It does not offer to morrow to your crusty lips.

Walsh Hall Honors Grid Men at Smoker

Robert Ignatz Harvey Brown and the members of the football team Monday night in the Knights of Columbus counter room. The characters were filling chairs to the variety and the men of Walsh.

Bob Curry, chairman of the entertainment committee of the hall, presided and after a brief invocation, Father Haggerty, rector of Walsh, addressed the audience, following which Reverend Matthew Walsh, C.S.C., president of the University, read the main address of the evening.

There was no lack of entertainment. Frank Mcllenn entertaining with his dancing act, Arthur Hobbs calling the crowd from the platform in front of the side show, and Joe Murray and his orchestra playing at their best. Songs by Vernon NICkson, Thomas O'Conor, Earl James and others.

The members of the football team, Tom Lebb, Gov Walsh, and Frank Millikan, Fitzgerald O'Kane and Kelley, of Walsh, and Patrik J. O'Sullivan, of Storin, addressed the assembly in short talks, following which Reverend Matthew Walsh, C.S.C., president of the University, gave the main address of the evening.

This was the first of a series of such events that will be held periodically for the benefit of the winners of the Scholastic Achievement Trophy.

The names of the winners are: Bob Pimentel, Paul Martin, Mike Mathers and Donald Brown.

NOTE: The Oread Tourists will form the basis for a new organization on the campus in the near future. It will consist of five members and will be known as the Ohio Valley Tourists.

Rockne Is Interviewed by Daily Man;
He Adances Some Real Dope on Season

"All-American teams are nothing but paper work and the tendency in picking them seems to be to single out the most spectacular of all of the season's players regardless of the earned positions on the picked teams.

That is Kustie Rockne's opinion on the all-something or other teams that are selected at the end of the time of the year. "Notre Dame had many players that would be just as competent if not more so as those picked to carry the honor of the title of All-American," asserts the coach. "But to pick one of the Irish players and single him out as better than the rest would be impossible, due to the fact that every man on the team plays only as well as the rest of the men."

Maloney, in his opinion, was the outstanding player of the East for the past season, due to the fact that he did most of the tackling and proved all of the interference for the Yale team. The West had no outstanding player this year. He continued: "Grange was picked for his ability to carry the ball and that was all. He was nothing but a ball carrier and his work on the defense was nothing extra. All-American teams are not representative, due to the fact that the man who are picked would not, in all probability, be able to play the game that they are capable of if were not for their teammates with whom they had been trained. At that material level this year except for has been playing together all season could no doubt beat a team of picked men. Team work is the greatest essential in playing football, as it is played today."

"Football has not changed in any the fact that more teams have come around to the Notre Dame style of play. By that I mean that the play has been more open and the forward pass has been used to greater advantage than ever before."

"Our chances for next year are fairly good and we should have as good a team for 1924 as we had this season. We are losing some good men, but with the material that we have back and the group of promising freshmen that were developed on the first year squad, our team will be in all ways representative of the teams that Notre Dame has turned out in the past. We have lost fewer men this year than in the years past and the very fact that we have experienced men back insures us a good team."

Rockne's optimistic attitude in regard to next year's team will make the student body look forward to the 1924 season with keen anticipation, for whatever "Rock" says is good enough to rely upon as fact."

Frank Thomas and
Rodge Kiley Here

We have in our midst today two famous alumni of Notre Dame, Frank "Batt" Thomas and Roger "Rodge" Kiley, who have returned to the University for a short visit before returning to their schools to take up basketball.

Frank Thomas is the assistant coach at the University of Georgia, where he had a very successful season, his team winning five games, losing two and tying one. The gridiron scribe at College Football an- nounces the fact that they have both been selected to the First team by Frank Thomas and Rodge Kiley. He was given a gold watch by his men at the end of this sea- son. Kiley, who feel that this year's team is better than last year's, will return to Chi- cago for a few days. LeRoy has great prospects for next year, as all of his first team men of this year will report for spring practice. Kiley's team was seven games and lost two last fall. On Thanksgiving Day it defeated St. Ambrose, a team coached by "Pop" Collins, a former star tackle at Notre Dame, by the score of 6 to 0.

Rockne Issues Call for Track Candidates

Coach Rockne issues an urgent call for track candidates for the coming season. During the past year Notre Dame has lost many of her valuable track men, and it will be necessary for every man who has track ability to answer this call, if Notre Dame is to keep track on the same level with its other major sports.

Christmas Recalls Great Bell's History

At another season of cheer draws near, to the accompaniment of the history of our own—this Notre Dame bell.

And may we introduce our sub- ject with the following paragraph taken from an early issue of "The Scholastic Year": "This fine bell with his rich volume of sound has a national reputation, being the largest in the United States and one of the largest in the world."

In 1866 the bell which now hangs in Sacred Heart Church was cast in Le Mans, France, by the famous Meneau, Ricle. For that day and age it was an extraordinary piece of work, weighing over eighty tons. 7 feet in height and 22 feet in circumference. It excited interest and comment in all Europe. When it arrived in the United States, the bell and Notre Dame were given national publicity. In fact, it was through the bell that Notre Dame first gained country-wide prominence.

For eight years after the bell arrived at Notre Dame it hung in a temporary tower swinging against oak timbers. At that time it was a topic of general interest to the community. Its size, its tone, and its cost, $7,889, were topics di- scussed as eagerly by each student as the football record is today. In 1916 the bell was moved to the place it now occupies. Since that time the bell has been easily heard 27 miles to the west and 36 miles to the east."

With the last touches given the 1923 football season by the appearance of the mythical honor team, consideration reverted from the exploits of the varsity teams to the brilliant work performed in the Interhall football ranks during the season just closed.

The past season has been admitted as the most successful ever recorded in hall athletics. Perhaps the outstanding feature that made Interhall so successful was the supervision under which the games were conducted. To Martin "Biff" Cleary goes the credit for the success enjoyed by the Interhall league this fall.

Through the work of Cleary, the games were all supervised and refereed strictly in accordance with the rules, and the results obtained from his work were the better for his having directed them.

In accordance with past custom of choosing a representative All-Interhall team at the close of the season as a reward for the men who have participated with credit in the games in the league, the DAILY this year publishes the selection of an All-Interhall team. The team would not be decided so much upon merit as upon enthusiasm, the spirit displayed by the men, and the personal acquaintance with the game that each member has made.

$250 in prizes

For the best answers to short questions are given.

Each week the most interesting questions are selected from the columns of the DAILY. Answers to them are solicited, and $250 in prizes is awarded for the best. Two or more prizes may be awarded for the same correct answer. All answers and questions must be submitted before the deadline of the 11th hour of the 11th of the month. Answers which are delayed do not fit the issues so they are held for the next week. All answers and questions are solicited in a spirit of fun and good fellowship. The DAILY reserves the right to edit all answers and questions. The winners will be determined by the DAILY's Editorial Board. The results of the contest will be announced in the Tuesday issue of the DAILY. If any answers are submitted the DAILY reserves the right to withdraw the contest at any time. All answers and questions must be submitted to the DAILY in the writer's own handwriting or typewriting. Give your full name, address and college when sending in your answers and questions. The DAILY reserves the right to refuse to accept any answers or questions and to announce the prize winners.

NEWS-TIMES All-American Selections by Arthur Hughes, South Bend

Walsh to Lead Irish

Walsh, who has had his athletic performances since coming to Notre Dame; he has won a monogram in track as well as football, and according to all indications will be in line for a monogram at the end of the basketball season.

Walsh's participation in athletics during his freshman year at the University, which included football, basketball, track and baseball, stamped him as Notre Dame's all-around athlete, and considering his 190 pounds of brains, his speed and agility, was a revelation to the football world.

Adam Walsh was elected captain of a group of 17 monogram football men who were eligible for the office, and with the models of the veteran freshman team of 1921 to work with next year, Walsh's only concern after his election is how he would do his best to help the team to complete an undefeated season.
