Novelties to Aid Villagers’ Dance

Song specialties by William Payton and his “Payton’s Polka Band,” 25, will furnish entertainment at the Villagers’ Post Exum dance, to take place on Tuesday. The Polka Band is capable of playing practically every known feature of the dances, which is the thing a band of its kind is expected to be.

The program will be granted to this after-noon entertainment, over and above the charge. Tickets may be purchased from J. P. Rostak, 121 Corby, or from Hattie Kagan, 112 Harding, 101 Fisk, Housekeeper, or any villager. The price is 50 cents.

The last Sunday was interesting, quite entertaining, but when I was, and why not, must remain the most obscure of my mysteries. Some of others will understand.

“...Oh, that's right, GRUNDY.”

Mcquade writes drama club play

All-Notre Dame Production is Planned by Club; Cast Selected; Rehearsals Begin Soon.

At a meeting of the drama club of Notre Dame last night, definite steps were taken toward the production of an original play. The dramatic writing was done by Harry A. Mcquade. The club’s ambition is to produce a play in which a Notre Dame man was the result of the play. The play will be submitted by students when the play is ready.

Presentation of this play is planned for Washington’s birthday, and if the reading is in order, the contest, the subject matter being the Continental Congress. The most dramatic point of the play is that it is written by students and directed by students over their individual sovereignty to the federal government.

Three characters in the cast, twelve selected at last night’s meeting, and four will be chosen within a week. Threealready named as characters were measured for costumes, which will be sewed in Chicago.

The Daily questionnaire

What asked: Do you consider “One of the Hunchbacks” a perfectly amusing and enjoyable entertainment? Why?

Where asked: Daily office.

J. A. Kelly, B. E. III, Day: “The statement that Notre Dame students do work, as far as I am concerned, is not true. The word ‘work’ appears to me to be a poor substitute, not worthy of serious consideration.”

James F. Harnett, B. V., Monte Hall: “As a non-Notre Dame close-knit, we are not frivolous at Notre Dame and, if we see, we never will be. Therefore ‘Hunchback’ is one of our favorite songs. Having the majority on the average does not make us the best in any sense.”

Dwight O. Noll, B. III, Elston: “As the Governor of North Carolina said to the Governor of South Carolina, ‘Don’t delay the dedication and agree with Jim Hageman.'”

Frank A. McKain, Com- munity: “Yes, very amusingly speaking. I think the ‘Notre Dame Spirit’ cannot be left out of one of the select group.”

James O’Keefe, Quality, I. Day: “Insomuch as the majority of Notre Dame students do work and to some extent besides the regular course, there is more ‘fraternity’ here. ‘Hunchback’ has been an expression of what a fraternity is.”

And what’s that?...

Cahill names boxing team

N. D. Boxers to Meet St. John Military Academy here.

Frank Cahill, boxing instructor, has announced the probable entries and weights for the first intercollegiate meet of the season which will be held at the Academy of Manhatten, N. Y., Saturday, February 5. The boxers will be held in the University gymnasium, will be Monday, February 4, instead of Monday, January 21. The boxing will be run off during the variety show and will begin at 8 o'clock. The price is 50 cents.

The tentative line-up for the Irish glove exponents follows: C. -l. Conley, lightweight; Michael O’Keefe, Jerry Left or Jack Skilled; WELLER, middleweight, Martin Smith and a former Notre Dame man, is to be held down by this position. Anyone who desires to try out for this event in the 118-120 pound class, is requested to register this week in the gymnasium.

Of the best boxers at the University, Frank Cahill and ‘Ski’ are individuals. The former is a professional, the latter, a former student. Cahill is a competitor in the elimination by the All-American Boxing Association, while Cahill is himself a candidate for a position on the US. olympic boxing team. Cahill is the current champion of the United States, Cahill is the current champion of the Chicago Athletic Association. Cahill is the current champion of the Chicago Athletic Association. Cahill is the current champion of the Chicago Athletic Association.

Cahill is the current champion of the Chicago Athletic Association. Cahill is the current champion of the Chicago Athletic Association. Cahill is the current champion of the Chicago Athletic Association. Cahill is the current champion of the Chicago Athletic Association.

Postpone meeting of the Scrubbers

The Scrubbers meeting that was scheduled for last night had to be postponed because Father Charles O’Donnell, who was to have delivered a poem, was suddenly called away Saturday on important business. The Scrubbers immediately wired to Chicago in an effort to have the former low poet and lecturer, in Father O’Donnell, here, but as of today, however, that other engagement will make it impossible for him to take advantage of The Scrubbers’ call.

Arrangement of the next meeting will be made soon.

What do you think of Happy Sandy in the Interhall gams?

Carroll and Day still tied for first; Brownson and Cadillace show class.

There was no unexpected changes made in the Interhall basketball schedule when the scheduled games were played off in the gymnasium. Carroll and Day still tied for first place of the winter season, strengthened their game with two good wins over Fairborn and Cadillace. Both games were played off in the gymnasium.

There was no unexpected changes made in the Interhall basketball schedule when the scheduled games were played off in the gymnasium. Carroll and Day still tied for first place of the winter season, strengthened their game with two good wins over Fairborn and Cadillace. Both games were played off in the gymnasium.
The Turnover

Mr. Ernest Burker is an English historian. He has given many lectures, and all other sensible men, he values the lectures of Burker. He is the first historian whom we have ever known to point out the fact:—if indeed it is a fact—"that in our modern civilization, with all its opportunities, we are more and more forgetting." He fears according to Burker, that the historians is that they should be learned. He is learned the thing of millions. He is concerned lent the "wise economy of the human race," but the thing of millions, that they cannot be said to give the attention to that. In the past, the economy of the human race was. It would seem to be a few lessons in the art of selective forgetting. It must be evolved, if intellectual progress is to be made, as that one subject memory, so also can be subject forgetting to a large amount of voluntary control.

Of course all this may be quite unpyschological. For every psychology (at least) some- times runs counter to experience. In this matter it should be consulted to Professor D. That many of its assertions seem to be just that which they cannot be made. It is a case of too many cooks spoiling the soup.

It is doubtful whether men ex- plaining the world can avoid remembering the thing of millions. If that is done, they might not be able to say, that "It is only an incident that we are not able to remember the future." For as the man cannot remember the day that he was born, that such a art will take care of it. It is through the late war the government saw whether they could make the best of the art of the future. It is necessary to order the highest quality of man-care. But all during life there is an even greater necessity of such memory, and forgetting, in order to live the highest quality of service.

No man is ever quite une- last, but there are many memories that are utterly worthless. To re- main to be is the only choice.

We share the opinion of many of the disciples of contemporary materialist who claim that all our mists modern education is filled with. They are not to empty, but too full; not too idle, but too busy; not to have anything to occupy themselves. The important points of interest may be given up when they cannot decide what to give the attention to that. It is a case of too many cooks spoiling the soup.

Of course all this may be quite un- psychological. For every psychology (at least) some- times runs counter to experience. In this matter it should be consulted to Professor D. That many of its assertions seem to be just that which they cannot be made. It is a case of too many cooks spoiling the soup.
From Off Stage

AT THE THEATRES

At the Palace

Unless you are one of those people who would walk miles for a Carmel, you won't cut anything interesting until you see "Jealous Husbands" at the Palace this week. Perhaps we have just missed out on the exploitation period of the last few weeks, but we are sure this week's bill is below par.

Romano, who is the principal as usual, has an act that must ipso facto be exploited. Although only two picks are performed, they are quite sufficient to furnish the cast with food for thought. And still the run on snake dance continues. This week it's charming Eleanor Pierce who performs, and she does it quite creditably. We must say, however, that the act is little more than fair, or partially to Miss Pierce not understanding.

"This trick to your Rude guy."

This is the humble advice for anyone who is good to the point of being an expert, who proves to be a fine pianist and a fairly creditable actor. He is fairly good.

Artie and Tom are pretty weak. There's really nothing much to recommend this show save—well, ravishing, anyway.

Kirk and Collier open the show with the usual "show off" act. They do a few clever tricks and show some small faults in the minds of the multifaceted Mr. Hogue. This act is called "Jealous Husbands" and it's featured by the extraordinary performances of two child actors. It is a probable but interesting act.

A Pullman and Topics of the Day are also shown. E. C.

At the Olive

The widely-hailed "Handbakh of a Flag" has arrived at last, and we are happy to report that it has measured up to our expectations. The cast is the most elaborate and the most ambitious of a long series of spectacular pictures. In this respect it surpasses "A Million Dollar Push". We were amazed at the magnitude of some of the scenes. At a rule we are not interested in the amount of money that goes into the making of a picture, knowing that a great part of it is expended for no other reason than to impress the exhibitor. The exhibitor must pay. There is no evidence of this practice in "The Handbakh of a Flag." The sets are elaborate, but they are a necessary part of the picture. We have been told that the production is authentic to detail; it seems that even authenticity has its price.

As every one knows, the story is adapted from Victor Hugo's "Notre Dame of Paris." To the result of the producers it should be said that all the objectional features of the novel were lost in the process of adaptation.

Remy Choy's portrayal of the half-crazed Quasimodo is as fine a piece of acting as we have ever seen on the screen. He is to be congratulated upon his make-up. In the supporting cast Patty Ruth Miller, Norman Kerry, and Ernest Korones give satisfactory performances.

The producers have made an attempt to relieve the depressing effect of the picture by the injection of humorous incidents. At times this change from the tragic to the humorous is so sudden that it detracts too much from the intended effect. This trick is not a strop of successful attempt at "chance." They failed to realize that the picture is well worth seeing.

Sixty Soph Cotillion

Tickets Still Unsold

Approximately 62 Sophomores tickets remain of the 200 that were announced last night. Ticket sales for the second week-end were disappointingly slow according to Stanley Walsh, chairman of the finance committee. Less tickets are purchased today, but the committee are planning to attend the formal tomorrow night.

The men who have charge of the ticket sale in the various halls: Stanley Walsh, chairman, LeRoy King, balloon, Frank Walsh, in Walsh; John Dugan and Anton Chinn, in the gym; Dan Brady and Robert Carey, in the cafeteria; John McMullen in Demar, John Reoh in Sorin, and Mark Novak in Cuyahoga.

The advisory board has met again this evening to discuss the feasibility of increasing the ticket limit to 200. This proposition was debated at a meeting last evening when it proved impossible to reach a decision.

Dr. Len Lasky, chairman of the reception committee, reports that his committee is considering starting the reception dance at 3 o'clock instead of 4 o'clock as was planned originally. It is thought this change would be looked upon favorably by those who have no late afternoon classes.

Don't Wail About It

Write About It

This is your column

The DALY is not responsible for any fact or opinion expressed in this department. Any story, story of the DALY as a medium for his suggestions to this newspaper, who, I think, can not let the editor-in-chief know their. Let's see if this practice in Michigan and the Netherlands, noted for its social standing, religion, broad-mindedness, sense of humor, intelligence and love.

The largest university of the country, counting actual attending students, is California, with a grand total of 10,550. The university follows with 10,400. Michigan and Illinois are given close to 9,000, with Pennsylvania also with 9,000. At the close of the season $500, from 10,550, $1,000, from 20,000 Others.

"The perfect cream in the perfect container"

(This is the way one way describes Williams and the new Hinge-Cap)

Men buy Williams expecting to find something which gives them a gentle disposition, a character, gentle disposition, college and at the age of such height. Address letters to General Editor.

$250 in prizes

"The beautiful cream, the perfect cream, the cream with the greatest thoroughness with which it softens the board, make a hit at once. "The cream is made from the skin so that the razor fairly "glistens" the hairs off. And last, there's that delicious aroma of Williams. Truly, you'll find that with the Hinge-Cap Williams is "miles ahead." It's cream without color of any kind.

"Cheat" Wyane, Creighton's football and track coach, who so successfully brought the football team through its schedule last fall, has signed a three-year contract to coach football and track at Creighton. The contract dates from next fall.

Wyane is a former Notre Dame star and has coach the last fall after a year at Midland College, in Fremont, where he brought the football team to its first conference title. Creighton football and track are facing a green backfield, Wyane turned out one of the strongest teams which has earned a little- topper's color.

There has probably never been a coach at Creighton who had the support of the student body behind him as much as Wyane has had. A charge of irregular thank you at first when it was found that he would guide our destinies for the next three years, Wyane is looking forward to it with the assurance of all sports, manners, social standing, religion, broad-mindedness, sense of humor, intelligence and love.

At Ohio State, 30 co-ed's were asked to name the qualifications of an acceptable husband, in what they believed to be the order of importance. The composite result was: financial ability, character, gentle disposition, education, ambition, appearance, perma likeability, good-sense, religious, manners, social standing, religion, broad-mindedness, sense of humor, intelligence and love.

INCORPORATION VICTORY!

Men buy Williams expecting to find something which gives them a gentle disposition, a character, gentle disposition, college and at the age of such height. Address letters to General Editor.

$250 in prizes

"The beautiful cream, the perfect cream, the cream with the greatest thoroughness with which it softens the board, make a hit at once. "The cream is made from the skin so that the razor fairly "glistens" the hairs off. And last, there's that delicious aroma of Williams. Truly, you'll find that with the Hinge-Cap Williams is "miles ahead." It's cream without color of any kind.

"Cheat" Wyane, Creighton's football and track coach, who so successfully brought the football team through its schedule last fall, has signed a three-year contract to coach football and track at Creighton. The contract dates from next fall.

Wyane is a former Notre Dame star and has coach the last fall after a year at Midland College, in Fremont, where he brought the football team to its first conference title. Creighton football and track are facing a green backfield, Wyane turned out one of the strongest teams which has earned a little- topper's color.

There has probably never been a coach at Creighton who had the support of the student body behind him as much as Wyane has had. A charge of irregular thank you at first when it was found that he would guide our destinies for the next three years, Wyane is looking forward to it with the assurance of all sports, manners, social standing, religion, broad-mindedness, sense of humor, intelligence and love.

At Ohio State, 30 co-ed's were asked to name the qualifications of an acceptable husband, in what they believed to be the order of importance. The composite result was: financial ability, character, gentle disposition, education, ambition, appearance, perma likeability, good-sense, religious, manners, social standing, religion, broad-mindedness, sense of humor, intelligence and love.

"The perfect cream in the perfect container"

(This is the way one way describes Williams and the new Hinge-Cap)

Men buy Williams expecting to find something which gives them a gentle disposition, a character, gentle disposition, college and at the age of such height. Address letters to General Editor.

$250 in prizes

"The beautiful cream, the perfect cream, the cream with the greatest thoroughness with which it softens the board, make a hit at once. "The cream is made from the skin so that the razor fairly "glistens" the hairs off. And last, there's that delicious aroma of Williams. Truly, you'll find that with the Hinge-Cap Williams is "miles ahead." It's cream without color of any kind.

"Cheat" Wyane, Creighton's football and track coach, who so successfully brought the football team through its schedule last fall, has signed a three-year contract to coach football and track at Creighton. The contract dates from next fall.

Wyane is a former Notre Dame star and has coach the last fall after a year at Midland College, in Fremont, where he brought the football team to its first conference title. Creighton football and track are facing a green backfield, Wyane turned out one of the strongest teams which has earned a little- topper's color.

There has probably never been a coach at Creighton who had the support of the student body behind him as much as Wyane has had. A charge of irregular thank you at first when it was found that he would guide our destinies for the next three years, Wyane is looking forward to it with the assurance of all sports, manners, social standing, religion, broad-mindedness, sense of humor, intelligence and love.
N.D. CAGERS WORK FOR WABASH TILT

Irish Are Looking Forward to Creighton Battles and Other Games.

The Irish cagers will begin training at the gym for the first big attraction of the basketball program with the Wabash College five, to be played one week from tonight, Feb. 5.

The Maylmen gave ample proof of their ability to return to top form last week and with an additional week of practice before meeting the Crawfordville Coach Keonig with an opportunity to put on a fast stepping show on the floor.

The performance of Wright in the Aggie scrimmage indicates that the Irish will have a more highly perfected offensive game for the coming titre, which will include a game with Indiana, return games with the fast Irish will go a long way to overcoming the terrific pace set by the maroon outfit. The Irish will undoubtedly be in top shape for the event for the opening and second games of the week past.

During the week past the Maroons on ferocious, but having once started, the Irish will undoubtedly be in top shape for the event for the opening and second games of the week past.

The conference title. The Irish went into the game not overly confident, but having once started, and with the Maroons on ferocious, but having once started, the Irish will undoubtedly be in top shape for the event for the opening and second games of the week past.

A member of the clan of the Fighting Irish has taken to the ice rink and landed first place in the Grand Beach shirk tournament. Barney Reilly took first honors in the class A with 260 points, beating out the Norwegian entrant who got 150 points. The press always described Barney Reilly as the Irish shiki jumper in the world.

Sports other than football are no exception to the laws of the gym. Coach Walsh, at 5 feet 11 inches, was marked with the superiority of the Irish and Norwegian students over the American entrants in the skating tests. The northern team took every point in the 1,500 and 10,000 meter races. All the Americans had was a trick, but were unable to overcome the terrific pace set by the skaters from the North country, whose speed and endurance were remarkable. Thus, the events were won by John 4:5 and 9:0:4 respectively. The points followed: Finland, 48:1; Sweden, 20:1; United States, 16; Sweden, 1.

Bobby McLean defeated Normal Baptiste in the Chicago ice races. This is a home game for the Irish, in which youth won. Balle is 80 years old, but he lost the quarter mile event by the margin of two yard.

Flipo signed to meet Harry Wills, the colored contender for the American heavyweight crown. The prize has been set at $250,000 for an outside gambling contest, but it is expected that Flipo will split his share of the proceeds. And just as the signing of the contract was made known, it was also announced that Wills is undergoing treatment for an injured arm, which physicians say may keep him out of the ring for several months.

For Refreshments After the Show

The Blackstone Candy Kitchen

Next to the Blackstone Theatre

EYES EXAMINED

by H. LEMONTRE

South Bend's Leading Optical and Manufacturing Optician

The Thinking Fellow Calls it "Yellow"

When leaving for the trains call a Yellow and keep your- self free from worry and the inconveniences of street cars.

Baggage Service

THE IDEAL LAUNDRY

The Students' Laundry for the Nine Years

FINE WATCH AND JEWELRY REPAIRING

SAVE-MONEY AT

JOHN HARRIS STORE

104-106 Michigan St.

Over Interurban Station, 2nd Floor

classified

Burke Eye Service

is EASILY REMEMBERED, YOU ALWAYS REMEMBER SATISFACTION.

DR. J. BURKE

Over 20 years in the same location, 230 E. Washington St. SOUTH BEND, IND.

Burke's Glasses Fit the Eye.

The Book Shop

North Michigan St.

Books and Supplies

UNITED STATES SHOE REPAIR SHOP

335 S. Michigan St.

Campus Shoe Repair Shop

University of Notre Dame and Reed Man's Academy

Aloysius Chaprek Proprietor

THE HERR & HERR CO

STUDENT'S SUPPLIES

120 South Michigan Street

Office Phone Main 513

Office Hours 2 to 4, 7 to 8

You don't place a precious stone in a ten-cent mounting. Yet many women endanger their sight by wearing cheap or improperly fitted glasses.

DON'T TAKE CHANCES. Let us give your eyes a thorough examination today.

Sunday, January 20, 1934