FROSH FROLIC-TOMORROW EVEN

Nevery Favors Promoted; Men Escorted St. Mary's Girls Meet Them at 8:45 o’Clock.

The frolic is planned to be held topmost at the Palatine, where dancing will continue until 11 o’clock. Two older permissions have been granted to all students who attend the dance. Music will be furnished by “Husk,” one of the best in the country.

A big surprise is in store for the girls in the line of favors according to the committee in charge. The men, escorted St. Mary’s girls are to meet them in the LaSalle hotel prospectus. For the day students who have not yet purchased their favors may do so at the offic-campus office. Others may receive tickets in their respective dormitories. This event is usually heavy, and from all indications a record crowd will attend.

HALL MAIL BOXES

Another problem we have, A. C. and the hall rectors to think about at this time—a problem which has been raised in different colleges, and from different sources—is that of distribution of the mail in the halls. This problem has been a very hot one ever since 1910, but the method of distributing the morning, noon, and

"The Song of Love" struck no discords in our critical and sensational souls. Our "bede noth," the chorus here, is a smart and delightful delight. It is not dead yet, but the beauty of Norma Toland, and the clever work of Joseph Schenk, elevates this play to a point where a little plot makes no big difference. The play is laid as usual in the sandy wastes of Sahara, whose chief commodity of late has been unconvincing love affairs, and emphasizing the usual run of hard-railing, straightforward shafts. The only original notes in the plot were that the sheik finds his love unrequited, a young man of a very dumb kind, and acts the part in a manner that leaves us wondering what natural talent he has after all.—P. NOTRE DAME DAILY
The last week-end in February will be the last opportunity for the basketball team and a squad of track men to engage in competitive activity; the Meyoless playing a return game with Logan, and Rourke and Rockne competing in the annual Illinois track day. The basketball team has no home game this season and the Farmers are off their home floor, after they have beaten Tuesday night by St. Visitors. The Aggies played ragged ball when the best of them were pressed hard by some of the high school and the more experienced. The basketball team have shown their ability to play hard, and may win the DAILY or the Scholastic. The same. team will have to worry about 'dry rot' setting in.

N.R. TANKMEN TO MEET INDIANA

First Big Splash of Year: Monogram Present to Team.

Notre Dame's varsity swimmers will meet the Indiana University Tankmen in the initial college meet of the season, which will be held in Bloomington, at the public nattatorium Saturday, March 8. According to Coach Goss this will be a friendly meet. The Irish swimmers have ever opened a college in this sport at South Bend. The Bloomington squad is well known throughout the state and large teams from various colleges and high schools have shown their ability. The varsity is expected to push the lightly tuned divers to do their best in the coming contest. The Bloomington squad is well known throughout the state and the Bloomington squad is expected to push the lightly tuned divers to do their best in the coming contest.

As a special feature of the Indiana meet, the water ballet will be held between the two schools. The Notre Dame team was organized a short time ago and is as yet of somewhat unknown strength. The Bloomington squad has announced that any swimmers who wish to try for places on the water ballet team may do so by watching out for the notice at the meet that will be held in Bloomington.
