CAMPUS BY-PATHS

I am no weather prophet, but I am a film-watching, picture, I was never before a movie. I have always known that film was the only picture that I would ever see. And I have often watched it, for I have always known that film was the only picture that I would ever see.

It was the day before the Spanish class on Tuesday, and I was the only person in the class. I had always known that film was the only picture that I would ever see.

The other three experts held a meeting while I was writing my daily column. The meeting was held in the faculty room.

DATE OF MONOGRAM REVUE IS CHANGED

Thursday, March 20, is Date; Swift To Be Interlocutor; New Songs Introduced

The Absurdities of 1924, the long-waited revue, will be presented on Thursday, March 20, in the gymnasium. It is the monthly-priced, as is usual in Washington. The revue will be presented in a manner so as to make the audience laugh.

Joe Boland of the Daily News sang the songs. Joe's Home Sweet Home is among the hits. Vie Lebo wrote the songs, music and words for the revue. Steve McCafferty and Joe Boland are the writers of the revue. Vie Lebo wrote the songs, music and words for the revue.

The chorus of the song is composed of the members of the Monogram club, and Rockne is in charge. All the boys of the Irish team, from the players to the substitutes, are welcomed by the boys.

KENTUCKY CLUB MEETS

Father McNamara

The Rev. George McNamara, C. S. C., will speak at the National University of Washington, on the subject of the Irish team. He is the author of the daily column in the Irish Times.

FROST TRACK SQUAD AWARDED NUMERALS

Twenty-three freshmen were awarded. The tryouts for the outdoor track season, which were held last week, were successful. The tryouts were held last week, and the freshmen who qualified were awarded numerals.

A letter appeared in the last issue of the DAILY in which the writer complained about the effect which news print is having on filling the columns of newspapers. It was suggested that the printing staff should be in full accord for, important as expression of opinion is, the primary function of any publication aspiring to the name "newspaper" must be to gather news and publish it. The group of reporters may be, and reporters are to be commended, with an excess of news work, who are not paid for their services, but can devote as much time as they shall or as they would to their duties on the DAILY, cannot do the same for any cooperation from all concerned.

The hands of various editors, in the hands of other newspapers, and in the hands of the editors of each school, and anyone who sees a good story in the office can do no betterly save the time of the reporters, who are to be commended. No such cooperation will be appreciated and the result will be a newspaper which is truly representative of Notre Dame.

Barney Google to Repay Debt to Notre Dame by telling Secret of Puddle Jumper Invention.

Mr. Barney G. Google, inventor of the second airplane, which has been flying throughout the country as the "own- ing" airplane, has recently offered to sell his invention to Notre Dame. The invention, which is a "flying machine" with no wheels, is being patented by the university police department. The invention is placed at such places as many other places.

This change will influence not only the traffic, but adjustments are being made in the truck to make the machine possible. This offer will undoubtedly be accepted immediately by every student on the campus for reasons which are only too evident. The effects of his offer are expected to be almost revolutionarily great in the course of the next few years. Mr. Google is actively working on the design of a flying machine which will be ready for delivery this year.

McDonald Talks to Commerce Students

Mr. Angus McDonald, vice-president of the Southern Pacific railroad, gave an interesting talk on the conditions of the railroads to the junior and senior commerce students last Tuesday. Mr. McDonald in a graduate of Notre Dame and a football player.

His talk dealt largely with the transportation problem and he told of the difficulties that were encountered in giving good service. He also gave some of the solutions that were offered to solve transportation problems. Mr. McDonald intersected his talk with a good deal of personal reminiscence of the railroad game so that the lecture was both interesting and instructive.

CARROLL CINCHES LOOP CHAMPIONSHIP

Defeats Sorin Loopmen 22 to 12; Final Games Sunday; Standing of the Teams Given.

Carroll bull, undeleased leader in the Methodist league, with 11 meets to his credit, cinched the championship of the league and the cup to go to the winner, when it was presented by Sorin Loopmen in the gym Tuesday night.

The first quarter was close, with the ball going back and forth between the two teams, and passed the half with the score Sorin 7, Carroll 6. Carroll closed the first half and had a 4-point lead going into the second. Carroll followed up with a 16-point lead and scored in the third. Carroll had 9 points to Sorin 0 in the fourth quarter. The final score Sorin 12, Carroll 22.

The week's loop victory was a welcome addition to the list of school supremacy over the Methodist entity, and Carroll Loopmen showed up remarkably well against a team that was an equal or even superior to them throughout the season.

On the Opening Day of the 1924 Track Season-

The winter sports season for the 1924-25 school year is nearing a close and one of the final events on the program will be the annual sectional conference indoor meet next Saturday night at Patton gymnasium at Northwestern.

The interest that will be evinced in the meet, with the conference states will be of great necessity. The rivalry is increasing among Iowa, Illinois, and Michigan high school conferences, which has been the case in the Middle West in some time.

England has sent another fighter to this country to capture Benny Leonard, the King of the Lightweight class. He is expected to meet Benny to meet the same fate that has befallen his contemporary on John Bull's soil, that of.glorious defeat. This latest high-toned Britisher, Harry Mas- son, taunted "Kid" Brown in a New York heat the other night and had to be excused to itself in the middle of the Bout.
