SENATOR FERRIS OF MICHIGAN CHOSEN FOR JUNE ADDRESS

WILL BE HERE FOR COMMEMORATION DAY CEREMONY

H. Woodbridge Ferris, N. University, will deliver the commemoration address at DePere, Wisconsin, on Sunday, June 15, according to a statement released by Dr. George A. Walsh, president of the university.

Born in East

Ferris was born in Spencer, Wis., in 1883 and received his education at the Oshkosh Normal and Training School and in the medical department of the University of Michigan. He was, in his early life, a student in a business school and academy at Appleton, Wis., professor at Rock River University, Dixon, Ill., and president of the Dismus Business College, Chicago. He was also a founder of Ferris Institute and has since served as president of the board of managers and is now president of the Big Rapids Savges.

As Democratic-candidate for governor of Michigan in 1904, Senator Ferris entered the field in pit-time with a programme of a major reduction in governmental expenses, and the year following his victories in both cases.

The election of Ferris as a candidate for governor of Michigan in 1896 was the signal for a series of events that were to have a great influence on the political life of the state.

Ferris, the candidate of the Republican party, was opposed by the Democratic candidate, Thomas A. Cooper.

The election was hotly contested, and both campaigns were marked by charges of corruption and fraudulent practices.

The result was a close one, with Ferris winning by a mere 700 votes.

The victory was a resounding one for the Republican party, and it marked the beginning of a new era in Michigan politics.

The event is remembered as the "Ferris Day" celebration, and it is still celebrated annually in the state.

Danny McGowan Wins in Olympic Tryouts

Danny McGowan, Notre Dame football, basketball and baseball star of the 1921 season and selected for all-American honors the same year is reported to have signed a contract to become assistant football coach at the University of Minnesota next fall. McGowan will assist Head Coach Cliff Scotting.

The former leader of the Notre Dame eleven has been at Columbia college, Dubuque, Iowa, since his graduation in June of 1922. Anderson, together with his boxing mate, Roddy King, now coach at Loyola university, joined student recognition for their work on the field and were conferred upon the outstanding ends of the 1921 season.

ROWING AT MICHIGAN If gramatial plans are looked upon with favor by the authorities at the University of Michigan, the Wolverine school will add rowing to their sport program. Investigation of the assumptions made earlier revealed the fact that there seems to be no reason why the Crimson athletes cannot be represented on the sport calendar with a rowing crew.

Tennis Pairings

The following pairings were made for the second round in the annual University League tournament:

Eddie Anderson Signs Contract with Minnesota

Eddie Anderson, former Notre Dame football, basketball and baseball player, who was recently received at the University, marks the signing of one of the greatest of the gridiron warriors who made famous the black and gold Notre Dame football.

Beacon played guard on the Blue and Gold eleven for four years, being captain of the team during his third year on the list.

The season of 1923 was completed with a clean slate, the Notre Dame eleven playing a nine-game card. The Michigan 'Ags', Du-Pace, Northwesterns and Wishbone were defeated and total points for the season reached 322.

The following year, with an eight game card, the varsity lost to Wisconsin, Kansas and Purdue. 1925 was another banner year featured by a 14 to 0 score against the American Medical college.

Jerry 'Bud' Sheehan, of Peoria, was with Beacon when the veteran gridiron died. Sheehan was a non-member of Notre Dame Foot- ball teams during the time of Bea- con's playing.

Start K. C. Dance Ticket Sale Today

Tickets for the annual informal K. C. Dance will go on sale Tuesday, Oct. 13, at the student ticket office. The Nelson next Saturday evening will be the official opening night of the dance. Because of the limited space which the Nelson offers only one hundred and twenty-five tickets will be printed. These may be secured from the following students: John James, Corby; Frank O'Boyle, Sorin; Ken Binkley, Corby; Dan Cogen- ningham, George Fisch- er, Corby; John Hurley, Walsh; James Keen, Radin; Gene Kapusta, Sorin.

The dances will be open to all Notre Dame men. Music will be furnished by the Notre Dame- Oliver hotel orchestra. The committee in charge of arrangements follows: Eugene Dpty, general chairman, Raymond Cunningham, Robert Worth, Dan Cunningham, John Hurley, Robert Rink, Verne Rock, John James, Frank O'Boyle and Fred Forbus.

NOLAN PLACES THIRD

The other contestants in the final field were: William Fox, of the University of Chicago; James H. Ziegler, of Northwestern University, and Robert E. A. Fetherston, of Northwestern University.

The Interstate Oratorical Association is a national debating society which includes all the universities and colleges of the states of Indiana, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, Mississippi, Missouri, Iowa, Nebraska, and Kansas. Each of the more than one hundred colleges in these states has its own debate team, which competes for Interstate Oratorical Association, the national debate tourney, held in Chicago Dec. 1-3. The tournament committee will select its best orator in each of the fourteen states which take part, then holds a state debate, at which the winners of the various college contests in that state compete for the honor of representing the state in the national tournament. In the state contests only one man is elected by the school, then divided into eastern and western divisions, the eastern divisions consisting of Indiana, Illinois, Ohio, Michigan, Wisconsin, Kentucky, and Pennsylvania, while the western division includes the seven states of Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, Mississippi, Iowa, Nebraska, and Kansas.

Each of the two divisions then holds a divisional contest, the eastern division being held here at Notre Dame this year, at which the winners of the eastern division will compete for the championship and the title of that division compete again. From these two the two divisional contests three candidates are selected, without being rated individually, to appear at the national contest.
