St. Mary's Girls Utilize Library

To the discerning student it was a surprise on two or three occasions to find our editors in the midst of a lively discussion across the way. No doubt the graduate's choice of subject has its problems to wrestle with the world around them. On closer investigation it was found that the material for these female students were the same, thus explaining their preoccupation during the summer. "Shades of the summer classroom" explained one of the male users.

What Others Say

James Martin, sport editor of the Chicago Tribune, wrote the following in the Chicago Tribune.

"With Notre Dame out of the way—we don't play them again this year—there is no better opportunity to out-flash the Irish, no better opportunity to give us the credit for the state title. State Normal is in the form and they have the men who will make the most of it. In the race, Notre Dame doubles will go through the rest of the schedule undefeated so that the Scarlet would not afford to be beaten. Keep them, Harry!"

of the South reading room of the Library as he entered and left the members of the gentlemen's club engaged in the work before them. "Gosh! if I had known this I surely would have shipped up," he said. Turning he silently left the room, before any of its fair occupants had noticed his departure.

All which goes to show the inconvenience of nondescript institutions.

What to Do This Summer?

If 85 men wanted at once for salesmanship work in the territory during summer there are more than 85 good places for you. Good workers can earn $600 weekly. Not house commuting. "Loye's Dairy" open daily from 7 a.m. to 9 p.m. before Saturday.

QUESTION OSBORNE'S STYLE.

The "western roll" used by Harold Osborne, former Illinois high jump star and now a contender for a place on the American Olympic team, has been questioned by a member of the French athletic community, who questions on the legality of the style were raised by an American newspaper article which described Osborne's jump.
The American member of the Olympic athletic commission has caused an investigation to be made of the jumping roll, as described and reports that the method is legal. The matter has been placed in the hands of the international athletic federation.

The jump used by the former Illinois star who is now competing under the colors of the I. A. A., is referred to by the French athletic fellows as a "dog." In which the head and arms go over the bar before the rest of the body.

But when the names of the Satyr and of the DNA are invoked respectfully in ordinary friendly conversation, something is wrong.
When strong words and abusive words are used for introductory explications for audience after sentence, when every change of inter-test, attention, surprise, dishonor, pleasure, and every other quality of conversation is marked by profanities, the conduct is in the way ofgood conduct. To be true, the very worst of society is a matter of individual taste, but even so that fact does not license the individual to thrust his profanity upon the ears of posterity.

Johnny Murphy, Notre Dame's high jump great during 1930-21, was a jumper whose jump was far removed from any possible question as to its legality. Murphy crossed the bar feet first.

The style used in the Illinois intercollegiate meet at Urbana meet yesterday is in an uncommonly good form. Observe that this form has crossed the world's record. Basil, for

The Consecration of Cushing.

If students possessed neither breathing nor sensation, belonging to the great unwashed, and had no more sense of propriety and de-there are moments when one doubts this, and have a good sense of proper
