STATE TRACK MEET CONTESTED TODAY

CINDER PATH SUPREMACY BETWEEN NOTRE DAME, BUTLER

The cream of Indiana's track squad gathered from eleven Hoosier colleges and representing an aggregate of 1,500 trackmen. The track meet will be held on the Butler University field and will open at 1:15. Unusual interest is being manifested in the gigantic contest by the track squad and the galaxy of star performers who will represent Indiana's schools of higher education on the national stage. Full reports of all descriptions are predicting a thrilling struggle of state records placed by the students of Butler University who are expected to be in the first rank when Major John Griffiths, athletic director for Butler, sends the sprinters to the track for the opening event, a 100-yard dash.

Events To Be Debated

Although there are eleven universities represented in the Meet, the afternoon's festivity, selection of which are rather new comers in the competition of the Indiana track teams--"arguing" to "Notre Dame" will be the mortar found in the structure of a trifling battle for state supremacy.

STATE MEET

A day of fun and games will be required for admission to the state track meet today. Student athletic cards will be required. The proceeds will be turned over to the Indiana Intercollegiate athletic association.
THE DAILY'S STAND FOR NOTRE DAME
A union building to be built as soon as possible.

The Daily's stand for Notre Dame is based on the facts and the sound reasoning that has been expressed by the common-sense leadership of the student body in the past. The Daily is a part of the campus and is owned by the students who use it. The Daily's leadership is in the interest of the students who support it.

OUR GUESTS ON TRACK AND FIELD
Notre Dame is privileged today in being host to scores of athletes representing practically every important college and university in the state.

To bring honor and glory to your school, you will compete this afternoon on Carter field for the championship of the state, an honor which Notre Dame has never won, and one that the event among those present is the inauguration of the event.

It is only the beginning of what we have to do with the game. We have to try to improve our own university and to see our own progress on the track this afternoon will be worth-while, because we are all working for one common aim, and that is the glory of Notre Dame.

The 1094 BALL
Multiformic forms glistening gilding amidst glistening light from coruscating chandelier—smiling faces—rippling feminine laughter—shoeshine man—wet—wet—wet—wet—wet—wet

Something like that—something like that is the approved form of describing the Big Ten ball. And one way or another it is a form of expression for the enjoyment of the affair, the height of which is the enthusiasm that we have for the big game.

One thing that is true of the big game, and that is that it is the time thing that we wish to do it and that is the state title. We want to see the best team win—and we believe that Capt. Paul Kennedy and his men are that team.

The Ticket Sales Open for St. Mary's Play
Ticket Sales Open for St. Mary's Play. Tastes for "Antigone" the second annual production of the Greek department of St. Mary's College to be presented on the campus of St. Mary's May 30 and 31 will be placed on sale in both of the public speaking rooms in the basement of Walsh hall. Tickets will be purchased from any of the professors in charge at the special rate quoted on the sale of students of 60 cents.

Approximately 30 characters will be represented in the play. Antigone will include a singing and dancing chorus. St. Mary's President Archabold has already given his approval of the change of the production. The Greek club produced a somewhat similar play last year and the success is expected to be complete.

"Antigone" will be presented in the large open air theater of the Greek club. The play is new in the process of construction. A new feature of this year's production will be the addition of several novel and artistic lighting effects, that will be installed by a firm of professional theatrical directors.

It is planned to hold the commencement exercises in the open air theater.

The director of the play at St. Mary's has announced that the presence of a flatter player will be required in the presentation of the show. The play will be given to any student of the University. Any person that desires to take the position is asked to see Miss Guiney, who is in charge of the play.

Junior Engineers Hold Class Picnic
The Junior Engineers held their first annual outing yesterday at the college country club at South Bend, Ind., Michigan. The forty men of the engineering fraternity who attended the outing took snapshots of the campus. The feature of the day's program was the final game in the baseball series between the Alpha Betas and Kappa Deltas of the engineering fraternity, whose sporadic campus activities have been much enjoyed by the students as a Factor in Campus Activities.

The games were played by the Alpha Betas and the Kappa Deltas in the big rugby field before the library building. The Alpha Betas were favored at the start, but the Kappa Deltas rallied to win the game.

De Leo Upsets Adams in Unexpected Win

The feature upset of the annual university golf tournament this week came when Jack Adams, for two years university golf champion, was defeated by the yearling star, Joe DeLeo, 2 up and 1 to go.

The victor turned in a card of 34 for the nine holes while Adams was one stroke behind with 35.

In the other match of the annual Wednesday afternoon flight with John Bulger, 2 up and 1 to go. Bulger completed the 18 holes with a card of 69. Ward finished in 71. The victory of Bulger pairs him in the championship flight with DeLeo, the (Continued on page four.)

At Other Colleges

CARNegie TECHnologue--Miss Josephine Gibson, one of the most popular girls in her class was selected as queen of the Campus. She will be crowned next week, when the annual Campus Week is observed.

PURDUE University--Plans have been completed for the annual freshman pep, burning ceremony which will take place tonight. The band will begin to parade immediately after the band the freshman co-eds will form in line. Many unusual affairs have been planned by the committee in charge.

NEBRASKA--Seventeen students contributed Nebraska's first book of student verse. The poem printing the first prize of $5 was written by an instructor of the class of '98, was written by Janet Proctor, and the poem which took second prize of $3 offered by the Y.W.C.A. was written by Helen Romboud.

Both these women are members of Chi Delta Phi, women's honorary literary society.

Of the 47 poems in the book the majority are rhymed and metrical. One third, however, are free verse. Only five hundred and ten men contributed in the volume, by far the greatest part of the work having been written by women.
