Apolo Splashdown

ABOARD USS ESSEX (UP)-Apolo 7's astronauts splash upfide down into the Atlantic yesterday winding up the nation's most successful space flight and clearing the way for the United States to stage one of the monumental conquests of history-a dash to the moon.

Slicing into the dense atmosphere without the intense car and radio interference that had awaited the Apollo 6 astronauts, Walter Schirra, Donn Eisele and Walt Cunningham dropped nose down, but softly, into the ocean 1,200 miles east of Cape Kennedy at 7:12 a.m. EDT.

Their historic voyage, the final mission of the craft built to carry Americans to the moon, lasted 11 days and covered 4.5 million miles.

Peace Jockeying

PARIS (UPI) French Foreign Minister Michel Debre said yesterday President Johnson's "courageous policy" in Vietnam is beginning to bear fruit. This and developments in other capitals made it clear Johnson has launched a major peace offensive in Vietnam.

In Saigon, President Nguyen Van Thieu in an apparent major reversal of policy announced that he "does not oppose" a conditional halt to the bombing of North Vietnam-reported to be the key part of the new peace plan. Only Saturday the South Vietnamese President said a halt was "impossible." Hanni radio broadcast that the halt by the National Liberation Front Viet Cong for a total bombing halt.

But for the first time the Viet Cong demanded publicly that there be direct peace negotiations between it and the United States. It appeared the Viet Cong did not want to be left out of there are peace talks.

Debre's statement was made in an interview with Radio Luxemboury and it appeared to substantiate worldwide reports of a major diplomatic offensive by Johnson to bring peace to Vietnam before his term as President expires Jan. 21. Debre, who conferred at length with President Johnson in Washington 10 days ago, said "President Johnson, by a courageous act, has decided a completely new direction of American policies. We can see its fruit these days."

Debre's carefully optimistic remarks came on the eve of the 27th meeting between the U.S. and North Vietnamese negotiators.

Jackie To Live In NYC

NEW YORK (UPI) The mother of the bride announced yesterday that the former Jacqueline Kennedy and her husband of two days, Aristotle Onassis, will go to New York in about two weeks and live there.

Mrs. Hugh Auchincloss made the announcement in Athens just before she flew back to New York along with the new Mrs. Onassis' two children, John Jr., and Caroline, and Mrs. Patricia Lawford and Mrs. Joan Smith, sisters of her late husband, President John F. Kennedy.

While relatives and guests flew home, the honeymooners docketed photons reporters and missed most of the sunshine yesterday on their luxury yacht Christiana, in the Ionian Sea.

Gun Bill Signed

WASHINGTON (UPI) President Johnson yesterday signed into law a bitterly contested ban on mail order rifle and shotgun sales but it falls short of needed gun controls in a nation that has completely new direction of American policies. We can see its fruit these days.

Debre's statement was made in an interview with Radio Luxemboury and it appeared to substantiate worldwide reports of a major diplomatic offensive by Johnson to bring peace to Vietnam before his term as President expires Jan. 21. Debre, who conferred at length with President Johnson in Washington 10 days ago, said "President Johnson, by a courageous act, has decided a completely new direction of American policies. We can see its fruit these days."

Debre's carefully optimistic remarks came on the eve of the 27th meeting between the U.S. and North Vietnamese negotiators.

Jackie To Live In NYC

NEW YORK (UPI) The mother of the bride announced yesterday that the former Jacqueline Kennedy and her husband of two days, Aristotle Onassis, will go to New York in about two weeks and live there.

Mrs. Hugh Auchincloss made the announcement in Athens just before she flew back to New York along with the new Mrs. Onassis' two children, John Jr., and Caroline, and Mrs. Patricia Lawford and Mrs. Joan Smith, sisters of her late husband, President John F. Kennedy.

While relatives and guests flew home, the honeymooners docketed photons reporters and missed most of the sunshine yesterday on their luxury yacht Christiana, in the Ionian Sea.

Gun Bill Signed

WASHINGTON (UPI) President Johnson yesterday signed into law a bitterly contested ban on mail order rifle and shotgun sales but it falls short of needed gun controls in a nation that has completely new direction of American policies. We can see its fruit these days.

Debre's statement was made in an interview with Radio Luxemboury and it appeared to substantiate worldwide reports of a major diplomatic offensive by Johnson to bring peace to Vietnam before his term as President expires Jan. 21. Debre, who conferred at length with President Johnson in Washington 10 days ago, said "President Johnson, by a courageous act, has decided a completely new direction of American policies. We can see its fruit these days."

Debre's carefully optimistic remarks came on the eve of the 27th meeting between the U.S. and North Vietnamese negotiators.

Jackie To Live In NYC

NEW YORK (UPI) The mother of the bride announced yesterday that the former Jacqueline Kennedy and her husband of two days, Aristotle Onassis, will go to New York in about two weeks and live there.

Mrs. Hugh Auchincloss made the announcement in Athens just before she flew back to New York along with the new Mrs. Onassis' two children, John Jr., and Caroline, and Mrs. Patricia Lawford and Mrs. Joan Smith, sisters of her late husband, President John F. Kennedy.

While relatives and guests flew home, the honeymooners docketed photons reporters and missed most of the sunshine yesterday on their luxury yacht Christiana, in the Ionian Sea.

Gun Bill Signed

WASHINGTON (UPI) President Johnson yesterday signed into law a bitterly contested ban on mail order rifle and shotgun sales but it falls short of needed gun controls in a nation that has completely new direction of American policies. We can see its fruit these days.

Debre's statement was made in an interview with Radio Luxemboury and it appeared to substantiate worldwide reports of a major diplomatic offensive by Johnson to bring peace to Vietnam before his term as President expires Jan. 21. Debre, who conferred at length with President Johnson in Washington 10 days ago, said "President Johnson, by a courageous act, has decided a completely new direction of American policies. We can see its fruit these days."

Debre's carefully optimistic remarks came on the eve of the 27th meeting between the U.S. and North Vietnamese negotiators.

Jackie To Live In NYC

NEW YORK (UPI) The mother of the bride announced yesterday that the former Jacqueline Kennedy and her husband of two days, Aristotle Onassis, will go to New York in about two weeks and live there.

Mrs. Hugh Auchincloss made the announcement in Athens just before she flew back to New York along with the new Mrs. Onassis' two children, John Jr., and Caroline, and Mrs. Patricia Lawford and Mrs. Joan Smith, sisters of her late husband, President John F. Kennedy.

While relatives and guests flew home, the honeymooners docketed photons reporters and missed most of the sunshine yesterday on their luxury yacht Christiana, in the Ionian Sea.
Brademas Spokesman Says... NPP A Liability

The New Politics Party assembly last night opened with a statement by Chairman Richard Bizot that its members were faced with a dilemma. The meeting, which took place at 8:00 p.m. in Snauhaug Hall, resulted in the decision not to publicly support the candidacy of incumbent Democratic Congressman John Brademas; the "dilemma" lay in the fact that it was originally the Party's intention to officially endorse him.

The circumstance which forced the organization to assume a contrary course of action, according to Bizot, was the refusal of Brademas' campaign manager Jack Schuster to appear at the meeting. Bizot said, "I received a call from Schuster about a half-hour before the meeting. Schuster expressed concern that a New Politics Party endorsement might be a 'liability' to Mr. Brademas' candidacy. Bizot's plan was to publicize happiness in eating at the ox restaurant.

The war goes on. Young people protest. And then they are drafted and they all go. To jail, to Canada, to Vietnam. They all go underground, one way or another. Young people protest, but no one listens to them anymore. The war goes on. And The Left declines at Notre Dame.

The super-heros are dead and gone. Gone, at least. The "charismatic leaders" in the Class of '68 left this campus last June. Kickham, Keysy, O'Dea, Figel, Sherry, Kelly, Higgson... They are gone. And without them The Left is declining. A change in outlook accounts for the decline, and the change was fostered by many of the events John Connely talked about in his last column. But a blow-by-blow description of the decline will not suffice. A mood, more than a combination of events, accounts for the malaise that has stricken The Left. It is a new year, but the Left at Notre Dame has grown old.

One belief that last year's radicals held, and this year's radicals no longer hold, was that things really could be changed politically. In a column last year I mocked seniors who believed that they could change the world. But looking aside, I admired the Kickhams - the people with the self-confidence and imagination to make their own American Dream a reality. I called them the "Last Great Americans." Now a lot ofastics around here think they Ave.

The radicals in the Class of '68 will be the Last Great Americans if no one succeeds them.

It is hard to say what this year. The Left has watched its Mock Convention Peace Candidate, Mark Hatfield, turn around and endorse Richard Nixon. It has watched Richard Rosiee be recalled, and Eugene McCarthy lose. The establishment has continually won against the forces of progress. It is difficult to keep on trying when the avenues of change are dead-end streets.

The Left must face reality and adjust to it if it is going to succeed. The New Right has found the manuevaribility that the Left once possessed. The Afro-Americans at Notre Dame are showing the kind of creative thinking that The Left once demonstrated. The Left is hanging on to dead organizations and dead leaders. It needs to air itself out, and then do some radical re-thinking. I must believe that it can get things done.

Above all, it must bury the dead and find new resources. The '68 super-heros are dead and gone to campus politics. Many of them are now face-to-face with the draft. And unless the war is stopped, The Class of '68 will really need burial. This year's Left faces an impossible war. The way goes on.

Boyle Resigns

In a statement released yesterday, Off-Campus Senator Sam Boyle announced his resignation from the Senate. Boyle gave as his reason disqualification with the potential of the Senate in light of the power of the Senate of the Student Life Council.

"It has become increasingly clear to me," Boyle said, "that a candidate cannot live in a local Senate, especially when even the actions of this body can be overshadowed by a Student Life Council which can be described as moderate at best."

Under the C.L. ratification of the Student Government, an election must be held to fill a vacant seat in the Senate, but as of yet there has been no time set for it.

Boyle was a member of the Action Student Party, and his resignation could mean a lowering of the party's voice in the Senate. His candidate (assuming they run a candidate) loses the election.

Organ Concert

Organist Robert Anderson will present an Organ concert at Sacred Heart Church tonight. There will be no admission for this Music Department sponsored event.

Fashion Firsts

EDWARDIANS
- NEHRUS
- BELL'S
- NAPOLEOANS

SAVED
AQUINAS BOOK SHOP
138 N. Michigan
Ph. 233-7602

REPEPT AND BE SAVED
If you've already repented, please disregard this notice but come in and see us anyway

Besides good books, we feature a complete selection of banners, posters, art prints, records, greeting cards, stationery and our previous articles.

AQUINAS BOOK SHOP
U.S. 31 north
now toll road.

Are you looking past tomorrow?

Since cave drawings of the Ice Age man, people have struggled to communicate. With stories, maps, legends, paper, spoken words of love and fear. This business of communications...meaningful dialogue...is still chief among people's preoccupations. And it's one we at Western Electric, indeed the entire Bell System have worked at since 1862.

Cable, microwaves and satellites have brought nations face-to-face across continents and oceans. Closed-circuit TV helps educators penetrate barriers of sun and tar paper shacks. In fact, our whole way of life in America is being enriched simply by advances in phoning. Whether basic or brilliant, each advance must arrive when it's needed. And each must be economically producible whenever it's needed. At Western Electric we specialize in production and logistics. It's our job in the Bell System...to help men overcome communication barriers with dependable service at low cost. To this end we need an ever increasing number of new fresh ideas. Your ideas. Ideas that look past tomorrow.

Are you looking past tomorrow?

YAF Head - Ignore SDS

Tom Misner, chairman of Notre Dame Young Americans for Freedom, has urged Notre Dame and St. Mary's students to ignore the demonstration planned to start at 9 a.m. this Saturday, St. Joseph County airport.

Tom, as chairman of the YAF, has termed SDS an "irresponsible minority." Misner contended "The SDS has continually shown itself to be an irresponsible minority". He likened this to the failed campaign of the "Last Great Americans".

The SDS was formed in 1960, and stated, "we are an equal opportunity employer with plants and service in Canada, Germany, England, and Australia."

SDS has continually shown itself to be an irresponsible minority. The war goes on.

The war goes on. Young people protest. And then they are drafted and they all go. To jail, to Canada, to Vietnam. They all go underground, one way or another. Young people protest, but no one listens to them anymore. The war goes on. And The Left declines at Notre Dame.

The super-heros are dead and gone. Gone, at least. The "charismatic leaders" in the Class of '68 left this campus last June. Kickham, Keysy, O'Dea, Figel, Sherry, Kelly, Higgson... They are gone. And without them The Left is declining. A change in outlook accounts for the decline, and the change was fostered by many of the events John Connely talked about in his last column. But a blow-by-blow description of the decline will not suffice. A mood, more than a combination of events, accounts for the malaise that has stricken The Left. It is a new year, but the Left at Notre Dame has grown old.

One belief that last year's radicals held, and this year's radicals no longer hold, was that things really could be changed politically. In a column last year I mocked seniors who believed that they could change the world. But looking aside, I admired the Kickhans - the people with the self-confidence and imagination to make their own American Dream a reality. I called them the "Last Great Americans." Now a lot ofastics around here think they Ave.

The radicals in the Class of '68 will be the Last Great Americans if no one succeeds them.

It is hard to say what this year. The Left has watched its Mock Convention Peace Candidate, Mark Hatfield, turn around and endorse Richard Nixon. It has watched Richard Rosiee be recalled, and Eugene McCarthy lose. The establishment has continually won against the forces of progress. It is difficult to keep on trying when the avenues of change are dead-end streets.

The Left must face reality and adjust to it if it is going to succeed. The New Right has found the manuevaribility that the Left once possessed. The Afro-Americans at Notre Dame are showing the kind of creative thinking that The Left once demonstrated. The Left is hanging on to dead organizations and dead leaders. It needs to air itself out, and then do some radical re-thinking. I must believe that it can get things done.

Above all, it must bury the dead and find new resources. The '68 super-heros are dead and gone to campus politics. Many of them are now face-to-face with the draft. And unless the war is stopped, The Class of '68 will really need burial. This year's Left faces an impossible war. The way goes on.

Are you looking past tomorrow? | Ignore SDS

Since cave drawings of the Ice Age man, people have struggled to communicate. With stories, maps, legends, paper, spoken words of love and fear. This business of communications...meaningful dialogue...is still chief among people's preoccupations. And it's one we at Western Electric, indeed the entire Bell System have worked at since 1862.

Cable, microwaves and satellites have brought nations face-to-face across continents and oceans. Closed-circuit TV helps educators penetrate barriers of sun and tar paper shacks. In fact, our whole way of life in America is being enriched simply by advances in phoning. Whether basic or brilliant, each advance must arrive when it's needed. And each must be economically producible whenever it's needed. At Western Electric we specialize in production and logistics. It's our job in the Bell System...to help men overcome communication barriers with dependable service at low cost. To this end we need an ever increasing number of new fresh ideas. Your ideas. Ideas that look past tomorrow.

Are you looking past tomorrow? | Ignore SDS

Are you looking past tomorrow? | Ignore SDS

Since cave drawings of the Ice Age man, people have struggled to communicate. With stories, maps, legends, paper, spoken words of love and fear. This business of communications...meaningful dialogue...is still chief among people's preoccupations. And it's one we at Western Electric, indeed the entire Bell System have worked at since 1862.

Cable, microwaves and satellites have brought nations face-to-face across continents and oceans. Closed-circuit TV helps educators penetrate barriers of sun and tar paper shacks. In fact, our whole way of life in America is being enriched simply by advances in phoning. Whether basic or brilliant, each advance must arrive when it's needed. And each must be economically producible whenever it's needed. At Western Electric we specialize in production and logistics. It's our job in the Bell System...to help men overcome communication barriers with dependable service at low cost. To this end we need an ever increasing number of new fresh ideas. Your ideas. Ideas that look past tomorrow.

Are you looking past tomorrow?
The Observer

ASp Spurns SDS, Endorses Rossie

Acting on recommendations of the Party Central Committee, the Student Central Committee last night voted eleven to six to endorse Student Body President Richard Rossie in the recall election. The decision came at the urging of Party chairman Peter Kelly and Senator and candidate SDS Coordinator Mike Kendall.

The Central Committee recommendations adopted by the Party call for an "educational campaign stressing issues" to be waged by the ASP in the course of the recall campaign. While strongly backed SSB, Rossie, the recommendations welcomed the entrance of Afro-American Society candidate Don Wyckoff and SDS spokesman Ed Rokicki into the race as expressions of opinion which the student body needs to hear.

The endorsement last night came as the object of more radical elements of the party just as SDS spokesmen object to a Monday's Central Committee session. Speaking strongly in favor of the endorsement at both meetings Kendall stressed the reasons for Party endorsement of Rossie last winter. Speaking last night, the stay senator contended "The cure of the problem is first why we endorsed Richard last year and why we shouldn't endorse Richard again. Richard Rossie has done nothing which would in any way justify not endorsing him this time. In a larger sense, I think this party must support a man of Rossie's caliber and beliefs."

Commenting on other candidates in the race, ASP Chairman Kelly maintained "Our ideas in the Central Committee were that the other candidates would have trouble getting up governments and governing. Besides, Richard Rossie has done absolutely nothing to merit not supporting him at this time. I feel we need a continuity of leadership here at this time for the fulfillment of any and all student aspirations."

Off-campus Senator Armond Geline, who opposed Kelly for Party Chairman last May, spoke against the Rossie endorsement, saying "As one who abstained in the Central Committee vote I would like to say that if ASP endorses one candidate it will cause an irrevocable split in the party. I think, judging from belief and what these men stand for, that it would be proper for us to endorse all three candidates."

Arguing against the endorsement but taking a contrary position was Bill Beyer, campaigning chairman in ASP's recent unsuccessful bid to win control of the Senate. Beyer contended "I feel that as a member of the ASP if we vote to endorse one candidate we are saying that we are against the other two."

The Rossie endorsement last night saw a repeat of the split which occurred in party ranks last February, when by a 23 to 19 vote the ASP chose to endorse Rossie. At that time several party members argued against ASP taking a stand, saying that the Party should as one put it afterwards "die beautifully."

In the current controversy some Party elements have backed Rokicki. However, Kelly contended last night that Rokicki had not sought Party support and pointed to the fact that two SDS members had left Monday's Central Committee meeting without speaking of any candidate endorsement. Summing up majority sentiment on the Rokicki candidacy, Kelly stated "I think we have with SDS a group which is by choice a different group completely separated from our Party."

The ASP meeting was the second since the unsuccessful Party bid to control the Senate. The Party has been in a state of relative inactivity over the last three weeks in spite of the candidacies of Kelly and Geline in the Student Life Council election. At the session last night and in the Central Committee meeting Monday there has been considerable debate on the Party's future.

Editor:
In his column entitled "On Withdrawing," Mr. Wolfe displayed a political and historical ignorance of the situation in Vietnam that he betrayed.

First of all he assumes that the division between North and South Vietnam is a real national division. The split between North and South was made in 1954 by the Geneva Convention committee, and was only to be a temporary boundary, until elections could take place. This split has remained in the country of Vietnam because of United States military and political intervention.

Mr. Wolfe states that the goal of negotiations should be a democratic government in South Vietnam. The goal is, Mr. Wolfe, that the people of Vietnam decide for themselves what type of government they shall have. If they choose communism, that is their Action, not yours or America's.

Perhaps Mr. Wolfe should investigate why the people would respond to Ho Chi Minh as a leader. It is because he has led the people's opposition to colonialist intervention in Vietnam, against the French, the Japanese, the Chinese, and now the American Imperialists.

The Mail

The crux of the problem is first why we endorsed Richard last year and why we shouldn't endorse Richard again. Richard Rossie has done nothing which would in any way justify not endorsing him this time. In a larger sense, I think this party must support a man of Rossie's caliber and beliefs.

Commenting on other candidates in the race, ASP Chairman Kelly maintained "Our ideas in the Central Committee were that the other candidates would have trouble getting up governments and governing. Besides, Richard Rossie has done absolutely nothing to merit not supporting him at this time. I feel we need a continuity of leadership here at this time for the fulfillment of any and all student aspirations."

Off-campus Senator Armond Geline, who opposed Kelly for Party Chairman last May, spoke against the Rossie endorsement, saying "As one who abstained in the Central Committee vote I would like to say that if ASP endorses one candidate it will cause an irrevocable split in the party. I think, judging from belief and what these men stand for, that it would be proper for us to endorse all three candidates."

Arguing against the endorsement but taking a contrary position was Bill Beyer, campaigning chairman in ASP's recent unsuccessful bid to win control of the Senate. Beyer contended "I feel that as a member of the ASP if we vote to endorse one candidate we are saying that we are against the other two."

The Rossie endorsement last night saw a repeat of the split which occurred in party ranks last February, when by a 23 to 19 vote the ASP chose to endorse Rossie. At that time several party members argued against ASP taking a stand, saying that the Party should as one put it afterwards "die beautifully."

In the current controversy some Party elements have backed Rokicki. However, Kelly contended last night that Rokicki had not sought Party support and pointed to the fact that two SDS members had left Monday's Central Committee meeting without speaking of any candidate endorsement. Summing up majority sentiment on the Rokicki candidacy, Kelly stated "I think we have with SDS a group which is by choice a different group completely separated from our Party."

The ASP meeting was the second since the unsuccessful Party bid to control the Senate. The Party has been in a state of relative inactivity over the last three weeks in spite of the candidacies of Kelly and Geline in the Student Life Council election. At the session last night and in the Central Committee meeting Monday there has been considerable debate on the Party's future.

Nixon Students

The Notre Dame students for Nixon will meet tonight at 7:00 pm in 127 Newell Science Hall. The meeting will discuss attendance at a Thursday rally for Nixon at the St. Joseph's County airport featuring Ronald Reagan. Future plans will also be discussed, and campaign materials distributed.

Things You Want to Know:
1. E. Lansing is dry; dry, dry.
2. Because the train leaves before the stores in S. Bend open, you must buy Friday Night for the round trip.
3. Ice & cups will be on the train.
4. Equal sales at SMC and ND; ergo 1:1.

Nixon candidates will endorse Rossie in the fulfillment of any and all Party endorsements. The endorsement came after a repeat of the split which occurred in party ranks last February, when by a 23 to 19 vote the ASP chose to endorse Rossie. At that time several party members argued against ASP taking a stand, saying that the Party should as one put it afterwards "die beautifully." In the current controversy some Party elements have backed Rokicki. However, Kelly contended last night that Rokicki had not sought Party support and pointed to the fact that two SDS members had left Monday's Central Committee meeting without speaking of any candidate endorsement. Summing up majority sentiment on the Rokicki candidacy, Kelly stated "I think we have with SDS a group which is by choice a different group completely separated from our Party."

The ASP meeting was the second since the unsuccessful Party bid to control the Senate. The Party has been in a state of relative inactivity over the last three weeks in spite of the candidacies of Kelly and Geline in the Student Life Council election. At the session last night and in the Central Committee meeting Monday there has been considerable debate on the Party's future.

Open! Courtesy Cleaners

410 N. Michigan Next to McDonald's

One day service
NO EXTRA CHARGE
Cleaning and Shirts

Diamond Import Co.
The Ultimate in Diamonds
WHOLESALE - SELL BY APPOINTMENT
PHONE 287-1427
2927 S. Michigan Ave.
MICHIGAN STATE TRIP
Ever started at 9:30 in the morning...?

Because there is a difference

NML
NORTHWESTERN MUTUAL LIFE
WISCONSIN offers
FINANCIAL PLANNING COLLEGE MEN

Your future starts the day you plan for it and sound planning starts with a call to:

David J. Stumm
134 S. Edward's Hall
283-8796
T.H.H. Back of Week

Sports Parade

By Milt Richman, UPJ columnist

MEXICO CITY (UPI)—This was a painful week. 34 years ago Jesse Owens broke the world record in the men's 200-meter dash at the 1936 Olympic Games in Berlin. He was a 6-foot-tall African-American athlete who had already achieved great fame in the United States for his athletic feats.

Jesse’s Rejection

Sports Editor

The Irish Eye

By Terry O’Neill, sports editor

Duffyisms

With the ND-MSU battle just a few days away, the time is ripe for a sampling of “Duffyisms”—true anecdotes about Spartan coach Ara Parseghian and how he interacts with his team.

The newsmen were waiting for Duffy as he stepped out of the Stadium’s visiting locker room. It was 1965 and Starbuck had beaten the Irish 12-3. Wearing only a smile, Duffy said, “This is the best showing I’ve made this season.”

Later Daugherty quipped, “I wasn’t worried about getting our backs beat by the game with Notre Dame. They were too high at last week that we had to shake the trees around the field to get them down for practice.”

Duffy was asked “What kind of quarterback is Bill Fennaco (this year’s QB)?” “He’s Italian,” Duffy answered.

Earlier this season, Duffy told the press that tiny flanker Charley Owens was an upset blocker, despite his size, and that he never was guilty of clipping. “The reason is,” Duffy explained, “that he does a ‘look out block’. When he wants to block some guy he just has his head held out. Then when the guy turns to see what’s up, Charley lets him have it.”

Duffy was trying to emphasize the vital importance of good blocking when he asked a big lineman one day at practice, “Where are more football games lost than anywhere else?”

And his protege replied, “Right here at Michigan State, coach.”

It was a reporter at the start of the year, “Whom are you happiest to see returning this year?” Daugherty shot back, “Me.”

“Would you believe Bubba Smith was once an 89-pound weakling?” Duffy inquired. “He was—when he was three years old.”

As Duffy was leaving the field after an MSU victory one afternoon, a youngsters mixed his cap and disappeared into the crowd. Unperturbed, Duffy commented, “The way that kid moved, we’ll be recruiting him in a few years.”

There was a memo practice, explaining a new NCAA rule: “Now fellows, remember that this year you may block with only one arm and one head.”

Duffy said to a reporter at the start of the year, “Whom are you happiest to see returning this year?”

It was a reporter at the start of the year, “Whom are you happiest to see returning this year?”

Irish 5th

This week’s college football ratings each have the Irish number five. Here they are with first-place votes in parentheses:

AP

1. Southern Cal (21) 21 500
2. Ohio State (9) 4-0 490
3. Kansas State (5) 3-0 460
4. Penn State (1) 4-0 442
5. Notre Dame 4-1 410
6. Tennessee 4-0-1 369
7. Georgia 3-0-1 332
8. Florida 3-1 317
9. Miami, Fl. 4-1 289
10. Syracuse 3-1 278
11. California 4-1 260
12. Michigan 4-1 252
13. Texas 3-1-1 240
14. Missouri 3-1 203
15. Florida 3-1-1 194
16. Arabkansas 4-1 186
17. Minnesota 4-1-1 166
18. Louisiana State 4-1 166
19. Texas Tech 3-0-2 158
20. Florida State 3-1 136

UPI

1. Southern Cal (20) 5-0 325
2. Ohio State (9) 4-0 314
3. Kansas (5) 5-0 294
4. Notre Dame 4-1 265
5. Notre Dame 3-1 252
6. Tennessee 4-0-1 234
7. Miami, Fl. 4-1 216
8. Syracuse 3-1 198
9. Texas 3-0-2 198
10. Texas Tech 3-0-2 180
11. California 4-1 172
12. Texas 3-0-2 166
13. California 4-1 158
14. (Tie) Arkansas 10
15. (Tie) Michigan 10
16. Louisiana State 8
17. (Tie) Texas 8
18. (Tie) Southern Methodist 7
19. (Tie) Florida, Texas Tech, Oregon State, and Mississippi 5

The Observer

Wednesday, October 23, 1968

Page 4

Editor’s Note: Irish quarter- back Terry Hanratty made a co-art P rewind the wire service’s individual honors this week. Monday, he was named Associated Press Back of the Week.

CHICAGO (UPI) — Some day, when the going gets tough for a Notre Dame football team, Ara Parseghian might call upon the players to “win one for the Gobblers.”

“The Gobblers” is the present title of Irish backfield, Terry Hanratty, who Saturday played half the game against Illinois and still erased from the record books. It was a half-century ago by one of the most noted Notre Dame players ever, Knute Rockne.

Gipp held the mark for most yards gained in a career with the Irish, and his final season resulted in Knute Rockne’s appeal long ago to his players to “win one for The Gipper.”

Against Illinois, Hanratty directed the offense for the first half, earning a 24-10 lead. He passed for 212 yards and rushed for 41, completing an 18-yard pass to his favorite receiver, Jim Seymour, on the play which broke the Gipp record.

His total of 269 yards gave him 1,189 yards in five games and 4,180 for his 24 game Notre Dame career. Gipp’s record was 4,110 in 27 games over four varsity seasons.

For his feat, Hanratty was named Associated Press National Midwest Back of the Week.

It was almost a pre-season conclusion that Hanratty would break the mark since he had 2,993 yards for his first two years. But it was a surprise that he broke the record so quickly.

“I was pleased to see him break the record, but I didn’t think it would happen against Illinois, let alone in the first half of the season,” Parseghian said.

Earlier this season, Duffy told the press that tiny flanker Charley Owens was an upset blocker, despite his size, and that he never was guilty of clipping. “The reason is,” Duffy explained, “that he does a ‘look out block’. When he wants to block some guy he just has his head held out. Then when the guy turns to see what’s up, Charley lets him have it.”

Duffy was trying to emphasize the vital importance of good blocking when he asked a big lineman one day at practice, “Where are more football games lost than anywhere else?”

And his protege replied, “Right here at Michigan State, coach.”

It was a reporter at the start of the year, “Whom are you happiest to see returning this year?” Daugherty shot back, “Me.”

“Would you believe Bubba Smith was once an 89-pound weakling?” Duffy inquired. “He was—when he was three years old.”

As Duffy was leaving the field after an MSU victory one afternoon, a youngsters mixed his cap and disappeared into the crowd. Unperturbed, Duffy commented, “The way that kid moved, we’ll be recruiting him in a few years.”

There was a memo practice, explaining a new NCAA rule: “Now fellows, remember that this year you may block with only one arm and one head.”

Duffy said to a reporter at the start of the year, “Whom are you happiest to see returning this year?”

It was a reporter at the start of the year, “Whom are you happiest to see returning this year?”

AP

1. Southern Cal (21) 21 500
2. Ohio State (9) 4-0 490
3. Kansas State (5) 3-0 460
4. Penn State (1) 4-0 442
5. Notre Dame 4-1 410
6. Tennessee 4-0-1 369
7. Georgia 3-0-1 332
8. Florida 3-1 317
9. Miami, Fl. 4-1 289
10. Syracuse 3-1 278
11. California 4-1 260
12. Michigan 4-1 252
13. Texas 3-1-1 240
14. Missouri 3-1 203
15. Florida 3-1-1 194
16. Arkansas 4-1 186
17. Minnesota 4-1-1 166
18. Louisiana State 4-1 166
19. Texas Tech 3-0-2 158
20. Florida State 3-1 136

UPI

1. Southern Cal (20) 5-0 325
2. Ohio State (9) 4-0 314
3. Kansas (5) 5-0 294
4. Notre Dame 4-1 265
5. Notre Dame 3-1 252
6. Tennessee 4-0-1 234
7. Miami, Fl. 4-1 216
8. Syracuse 3-1 198
9. Texas 3-0-2 198
10. Texas Tech 3-0-2 180
11. California 4-1 172
12. Texas 3-0-2 166
13. California 4-1 158
14. (Tie) Arkansas 10
15. (Tie) Michigan 10
16. Louisiana State 8
17. (Tie) Texas 8
18. (Tie) Southern Methodist 7
19. (Tie) Florida, Texas Tech, Oregon State, and Mississippi 5