THE WORLD TODAY

Communists shell “Frontier City”

SAIGON (UPI) — Communists bombarded a U.S. infantry camp near the Cambodian border with mortar fire yesterday but did not renew a ground assault that cost them 214 dead in the first attack.

Military spokesmen said commandos of the 25th Infantry Division, caught in a “fronther City” called in artillery, helicopter gunships and jet fighter support Sunday to silence enemy gains after they had pumped 15 mortar rounds into the camp. Patrols sweeping the area afterward found 13 more bodies, raising the Communist toll for the battle to 227.

Bolivian President killed in crash

LA PAZ, Bolivia (UPI) — President Rene Barrientes Ortuno, whose army crashed the guerrilla forces led by the late Ernesto Che Guevara, was killed yesterday when his helicopter crashed outside his hometown of Cochabamba in the Bolivian interior.

Radio Condor said Barrientes’ helicopter crashed when it hit a power line outside of Cochabamba, about 200 miles southeast of the capital. His side, Lt. Leo Orellana, was accompanying him and also was killed.

A spokesman for the presidential palace confirmed the president’s death shortly after the semiformal Radio Condor broadcast the announcement.

Barrientes was an accomplished pilot, but government officials could not confirm whether he was at the controls of the aircraft when it crashed.

More troops arrive in North Ireland

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (UPI) — The loyal contingent of an outfit of 550 British troops from London arrived Sunday to reinforce British forces already based here in guarding the country’s utility and communications centers. Despite guards posted for the first time a week ago, sabotage of water utilities continued.

More than 15 persons were injured in a clash between Protestant militiamen and Catholics in the west Belfast neighborhood of Blacksburg, 25 miles southwest of here, Cardinal William Conway, who said Mass and confirmed a group of children in Armathwaite, urged Catholics to remain in their homes.

Cornell Afro-American Society disarms

ITHACA, N.Y. (UPI) — At Cornell, Ithaca, N.Y., where black students conducted an armed sit in a week ago, bringing public and faculty outcry for campus disarmament, the Afro-American Society informed the university yesterday that there were no weapons in its headquarters, or in two black cooperative dormitories. Stewart Mueller, vice president of the Afro-American Society, said, “It was confirmed that the assurance was true.

On Saturday, Tom Jones, a spokesman for the Afro American Society, had said a public meeting, “I am not going to disarm and I don’t think anyone is going to disarm.”

McNamara to speak at dedication

Robert S. McNamara, president of the World Bank and former secretary of defense, will be the principal speaker at the May 1 dedication of the University of Notre Dame’s Holy Cross Center for Graduate Study.

The $1 million building was a gift to Notre Dame from Mr. and Mrs. John F. Healy, owners of a long-established Chicago travel agency, Vanderbilt Better Tours, and they will be honored at a dedication luncheon.

The dedication events will start with a 10 a.m. Mass in Sacred Heart Church celebrated by Rev. Theodore M. Hesburgh, C.S.C. Preaching at the Mass will be the Rev. W. Stavei Joyce, S.J., president of Boston College and a former dean of its College of Business Administration.

The luncheon will be followed by an academic convocation which will be addressed by McNamara. McNamara was an assistant professor of business administration at Harvard for three years before beginning in 1946 a 15-year career as an executive of the Ford Motor Company, including the presidency of the company in 1960-61. He served as secretary of defense from 1961 until his appointment last year as president of the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development. His term as secretary was noted for the successful application of a “systems approach” to the massive budget and programs of the defense department.

DeGaulle tounded

French say “non” to “God”

Colomby De Deux Eglises, France (UPI) — President Charles de Gaulle officially resigned last night after French voters defeated his Constitutional reform plan in a referendum. He had been president of France since 1958.

The general made the announcement that will end a political era in France from his country estate here after nearly complete polling results showed Frenchmen had rejected his political reform plan by a tentative margin of 52.48 to 47.52 percent.

DeGaulle’s announcement said his resignation would be effective as of noon Monday.

According to the French Constitution, DeGaulle will be succeeded immediately by French Senate President Alain Poher, 60-year old leader of the Center Party.

The 78 year old general informed France his day—and its day—had come with these terse words:

“T am ceasing to exercise the functions of the president of the Republic.

This decision takes effect at midday today Monday.”

Thus, in 20 words, Charles DeGaulle again stepped out of the hurly burly of French political life as he had done shortly after World War II and ended the DeGaulle reign in France which began in May of 1958. Then, he came forth from retirement from this same estate to lead France out of the bitter games of the Algerian rebellion and to build his Fifth Republic on the political ruins of the fourth.

The issue upon which DeGaulle fell was, technically, a vote for or against his Constitutional reform plan. Broadly, it would have stripped the French Senate of political power, decentralized the nation into about 21 utterly auton­nomous regions and, in all, revised about one third of the Constitution’s lesser provisions.

But many Frenchmen did not even understand fully the pros and cons of these issues and for the entire nation this was a vote for or against continuation of DeGaulle’s power. The general made it so Friday night when he told them in what proved to be his last nationwide television appeal:

“If I am disapproved solemnly by the majority of yourselves on this capital subject...my present task as chief of state will clearly become impossible and I will immediately stop carrying out my functions.”

HPC hears report

Pete Kelly, Notre Dame’s Community Relations Director, told hall presidents last night of his plans to involve individual halls in South Bend community service projects. Kelly, speaking at the HPC’s weekly meeting in the student center amphitheater, described the hall’s role in the Community Action Corps he is organizing.

The corps will consist of three divisions: a Volunteer Service Bureau, a Community Organizing Committee, and a Student Action Committee. The Volunteer Service Bureau, which will concern the halls most, will be the first division set up.

It will coordinate community service projects by handling publicity and recruitment of volunteers.

Kelly asked that the hall presidents, with the assistance of section leaders, keep the residents informed of current projects.

He also asked that the presidents choose a representative for each project with whom volunteers can sign up. The presidents must keep in touch with Notre Dame’s Volunteer Service Bureau which, in turn, will remain in contact with the volunteer service bureau downtown.

“We’d like to involve the halls as much as possible because we’d like to see them establish an individual identity with the South Bend Community,” Kelly said.

Among the projects with which the bureau will deal are neighborhood study help, mental health groups, Big Brother and nursing home visits.

The OBSERVER will no longer be available in the morning during the Continental breakfast due to the one hour time discrepancy between Niles and South Bend.

On Thursday, April 24, there was a massive demonstration (about 15 people) in front of South Bend’s CBS affiliate, WSBT-TV, protesting the cancellation of the Smothers Brothers television show. CBS, undoubtedly worried about such overt displays of loyalty caused by their Smothers Brothers smoother, thus have far remained silent.
All new and old clubs must register with the Student Union by May 1. Organizational cars must be applied for at this time. Applications may be picked up in Room 4-E of LaFortune Student Center on Mon.-Wed. and Fri. between 3:15 and 5:00.

Sophomore Harry Lepham became the new Chairman of the Notre Dame Young Democrats last week. The present Chairman, Richard Hunter, chose not to run for re-election.

At last night's meeting, the YDs also passed two resolutions and announced future plans for a sponsored lecture by John Singenthaler, who managed the California primary campaign of Robert Kennedy.

In a run off election, Lepham defeated the present vice-chairman Rick Libowitz by a margin of one vote. Freshman Jack Gillis, the Chairman of Notre Dame Students for Kennedy in '72, became the new Vice-Chairman.

Steve Novak was elected to the office of Secretary and Bill Joyce to the office of Treasurer. Prior to the elections, the YDs passed a proposal to endorse Indiana Senator Vance Hartke for re-election in 1970. A resolution establishing a policy committee to draft stands on specific issues was also passed. This committee will consist of the newly elected officers and three other members appointed by Lepham.

The lecture by Singenthaler, which will deal with the press reactions to the trial surrounding the Robert Kennedy assassination, is presently scheduled for May eighth in the Library Auditorium.

When asked about his future plans, as chairman Lepham stated that he proposes to contact the Chairman of the Saint Mary's Young Democrats concerning a possible merger of their two organizations. He also stated that he plans to accompany Hunter to the Indiana State Democratic Committee Meeting, which will deal primarily with both the reform of the Democratic Party in Indiana and the necessary planning for the 1970 campaign races. The meeting will be held in Indianapolis on May 12.

Chicago Area Draft Resistors (CADRE) will speak on resistance tonight at 7:30 in the Law Auditorium.

PIZZA HUT

N.D. Beer Night
-Every Monday 7:30-1 A.M.
- $1 pitcher

Pizza Smorgasbord
-Every Monday and Tuesday 5:30-7:30
All you can eat plus one soft drink $1.55
Carry Out...Check Discount Rates for your hall and club parties

No. 1 1738 Lincolnway East 286-6960
No. 2 2307 E. Edison 233-3827

STUDENT UNION ACADEMIC COMMISSION PRESENTS

THE AUTHOR OF
"THE PASSOVER PLOT"
DR. HUGH J. SCHONFIELD

"THOSE INCREDIBLE CHRISTIANS"

"How Christ came to be worshipped as God contrary to His own belief."

8 P.M. Monday, April 28
LIBRARY AUDITORIUM
Letters to the editor

Outraged housewife

I know full well that one cannot reach you through con­ ueniences, through an ordinary appeal to ordinary decency, or, least of all, through the men, or women who possess the great gift of sex among other marvelous gifts. We have taught our children that they possess the great gift of sex in fact, a sacred trust. Never have we permitted anyone of them to use it in an unpleasant, dirty or shameful about sex.

Grace Hall

Editor:

Regarding Joel Connelly's letter in Wednesday's OBSERVER, I am the name of Grace Hall, Joel is entitled to call 'em as he sees fit. Yes, but his disregard for facts makes his rhetoric suspect.

The new high-rite hall is not to be named for the donor. Mr. J. Peter Grace (not in

J. Peter Grace is not, of course, Notre Dame graduate, as Joel pressed without check­

But, then, I suppose it's hard for Joel to make a correct "call" at home plate when he usually

James F. Murphy
Director of Public Information

Anti-Giuseppe

Editor:

After reading of the recent benefits the sophomore class encountered in its abortive attempt to conduct business with Giuseppe Connelly’s, I would reiterate Counselor Barry Boyd’s warning to the student body that Giuseppe “...might do this to someone else.” He

Last fall I had the misfortune of renting Giuseppe’s party room for a week which involved being party

Mr. Grace happens to be generally regarded as one of America’s most distinguished

Tom Heinen

Without regard to the implications of a Christian commitment, it seems the question of ROTC and Notre Dame can be considered on two levels. The essential question asks if a cooperative association with the military is worth less than the budding undertaking ofa university. Peripheral issues involve the academic credit to be awarded student participants in that association, and the university’s ranking in the annual guide to the program’s military directors an award based not on academic criteria, but on a contractual agreement made some years ago.

While the latter two questions can be debated on their own merit, anything but a rather academic decision seems to ride on the answer to the first question: is military training compatible with the function and goals of a university?

If the answer be no, it is clear that the credit and the professorships must leave the campus with the program itself. If, however, ROTC is thought to be a legitimate university activity, its status as curriculum intruder and pollutant does not seem to be all that significant.

Father Hesburgh concerned himself

Father Hesburgh concerned himself with this question of the functions and goals of a university in a recent conference called The Task of Universities in a Changing World. "The university," he pointed out has "always been society’s most persistent and tenacious critic. Today, university professors and students, and some adminis­

He makes a little money, the long years make a little more all have a good time and every­ despite the possibility of a raid, he

He will expand to a tripartite arrangement along the lines of a Military-Industrial-University complex. Such a hodgepodge of role-confusion, conflict of interests, and cast aside checks and balances, we don't need.

What many insist we do need, though, are young officers with a liberal education to somehow “humanize” the Armed S

In this in­

This question of the functions and goals of a university stands for, but necessarily as

Tom Heinen

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­

The university is in no posi­
Error costs ND sweep

For the second weekend in a row the ND baseball squad has split a pair of games with their opposition. This time it was Western Michigan who divided the Friday-Saturday games, the Irish winning 9-2 at home on Friday and Western coming off with a victory at Kalamazoo, 7-6.

The big star of the Irish win had to be sophomore Ron Schmitz. He relieved the Notre Dame ace, Jim Phelps, in the third inning with the bases loaded and nobody out. Schmitz then retired three men in a row without once touching the plate. However, Western did score on Phelps before he made his exit. Besides this brilliant fireman performance, Schmitz added his name with a bases loaded double in the 4-run fourth inning for Notre Dame. The sophomore from Cleveland is now 2-1 on the season.

Rich Lucke was the leading hitter in the ball game with 3 hits in 4 appearances at the plate. One of his hits was a double. He had support from Schmitz, who had a single (fourth inning) and Jim Goyrman, who was 2 for 3 including a run producing triple in the seventh.

The Broncos were held at bay scoring single runs in the third and ninth innings.

The game at Kalamazoo was an extra inning affair which the home team won in the eleventh inning on an errant throw by Irish shortstop Phil Krill. The error occurred with two outs and the bases jammed. There was a 3 and 2 count on the batter, Dave Shoemaker, and this permitted the runners to be go­ ing with the pitch. This forced Krill to make the long throw from short and it was wide of its target.

This was a heartbreaking defeat for the Irish who came from behind with a 4-run ninth to take the lead, 6-5 after trailing by 3. The lead didn’t last long, however, as Schmitz hit a double and Jim Goyrman hit a double and a single to make it 7-6.

Sophomore Tom Sinnott suffered the loss after relieving Bob Arzen in the ninth. This was Sinnott’s first decision of the season.

Ameri­ can­ East
Win Lost Pct. GB
Balt. 15 7 .682
Boise St. 12 7 .636
N.Y. 10 8 .556 3
Dartmouth 9 9 .500
Wash. 10 10 .500 4
Clem. 1 15 .063 11

West
Oak. 11 7 .611
MINN. 10 7 .588 5
Chi. 8 7 .533 15
K.C. 7 6 .545 6
Sac. 6 8 .429 3
SE. 5 11 .313 8
Baltimore 6-10, New York 6-5
Washington 6-8, Cleveland 5
Denver 7-10, Detroit 6-10
California 6-10, Kansas City 2
Minnesota 4-6, Wisconsin 4-10
(called 8-5 rain)
Oakland 7-13, Seattle 5

SENIOR WEEK
TICKET SALES NOW AT:
THE BOOKSTORE
GILBERT S
$9.00 Regular
$7.50 Stockholders

JUNIORS
Applications are now being accepted for Chairman and committees of:
Senior Class Fellow
Senior Ball
Senior Trips
Senior Week
Alumni Club Manager and bartenders

send to: Jack Crawford
351 Morrissey
deadline: May 3rd

AVON ART
THEATRE FRIDAY
Pre-Marital Love!

BE A SWINGER! - and own your own Polaroid -
It's easy, just pick up your own
SCRIPTO Pen at the BOOKSTORE and receive a lucky number from the cashier.

The third drawing will be held TODAY.

MONDAY, APRIL 28, 1969

The Observer is published daily during the college semester except vacations by the students of the University of Notre Dame and St. Mary’s College. Subscriptions may be purchased for $10 from The Observer, Box 11, Notre Dame, Ind., 46556. Second class postage paid, Notre Dame, Ind. 46556.