SMC charges highest dorm fees by Jean Powley Saint Mary's Editor

Saint Mary's College charges the highest room and board fees of any college or university in the state of Indiana, according to a survey done by the Fort Wayne Journal-Gazette last May. Notre Dame ranked 22nd, tied with Marilian College.

Tuition is another story, however. In that category, the survey disclosed, Notre Dame ranked third behind Eastham College and De Pauw, with Saint Mary's coming up fifth behind Wabash College in Crawfordsville.

All 15 of Indiana's colleges with dormitory facilities were included in the study.

"We have the best-kept dorms of any college I've ever seen, so our room and board should be high," Dr. John M. Duggan, Saint Mary's president, explained.

Jason Lindover, the college's controller, listed both the costs of staffing 24-hour open dormitory lobbies and the relatively few sums employed on the hall staffs as further reasons for Saint Mary's higher fees.

So far this year, financial statements reveal, the college is losing money on housing. But, according to Lindover, it is making up a slight amount of that loss in board.

Although Saint Mary's residence fees lead the list in Indiana, they are only slightly higher than the median when compared to other private liberal arts colleges of comparable size, according to a study done by Saint Mary's Institutional Research Department. The college ranked tenth out of 24 in Indiana and board fees.

The major reason for Saint Mary's ranking 17th in dorm costs is the school's charge higher fees to its faraway residents. The college is within 15 miles of the Indiana border.

For tuition fees, Saint Mary's again fell below the median, ranking 17th. In a comparison of dorm fees, Saint Mary's ranked 19th out of 24 in Indiana, according to a study done by the Fort Wayne Journal-Gazette.

According to the survey, the least expensive dorm fees were charged by Wabash College in Crawfordsville, while Indiana University at Bloomington and New York University both charged the highest fees. Wabash, in fact, had the lowest dorm fees of all the schools listed.

"In fact, none of the state's colleges which have dormitory facilities, how ever, ever charged higher fees to their students," Lindover said.

The college figures indicate that dormitory fees represent just 23% of Saint Mary's cost per student, a figure that is below the average of 30% for private liberal arts colleges.
For Thanksgiving Darby's extends invitation
by Paul Stander

Students who remain on campus for the Thanksgiving break are invited to take advantage of the activities at Darby's Place in the basement of LaFortune Student Center, according to Fr. Robert Harvard to hold interviews

Interviews will be conducted tomorrow by Harvard Law School faculty in room 222 of the Administration Building. In addition, a speaker from the Cooley Law School will give a presentation tomorrow night at 7 in O'Shaugnessy Room 104.

Griffin, director of Darby's Place. For the fifth straight year, Griffin and the staff of Darby's Place will host a Thanksgiving Day Party. All Notre Dame and St. Mary's students who live on or off campus are invited, along with members of the faculty and staff, and "whoever else wants to come," according to Griffin. "The place is there for everybody."

The activities planned for the party on Thanksgiving Day include stacks and a light supper that will, according to Griffin, "supplement the serving at the dining hall."

Griffin reiterated that the stacks will be available all afternoon, with the upper being served "around seven." The dining hall will serve dinner on Thanksgiving Day from 3:30 to 5 p.m.

Happy Thanksgiving. Times, dates, and locations subject to change. Check with your local church or Darby's Place for details.

Kevin Paulson, manager of Darby's Place, said that the three-hour film "My Fair Lady" will be shown twice during the day on Thursday, at the times announced at present.

St. Mary's to sponsor WOW

A Women's Opportunities Week (W.O.W.), sponsored by St. Mary's Student Government will be held during the fall semester during April.

W.O.W. is a three-day seminar/workshop intended to awaken students to the opportunities open for women in all areas of life. The move toward a seminar/workshop, and away from lectures enables students to be in touch with the ideas and spin them off to the faculty and the student body. A seminar will be held on Saturday afternoon and the other two days will be held on Monday and Wednesday.

The weekend will be conducted the Wednesday following Thanksgiving Day.

Bomb explodes killing four

JERUSALEM [AP] - A bomb exploded on an intercity bus packed with Israelis and tourists in the occupied West Bank, and hospitals reported four persons were killed and 37 wounded in the worst terrorist incident here in five months.

In Beirut, Yasser Arafat's Fatah guerrillas claimed responsibility for the attack, saying in a communiqué that an "underground squad inside occupied Palestine planted a time heavy explosive charge in an enemy bus while en route from the Dead Sea area to Jerusalem."

Hospital officials said three of the dead were young Belgian and two Israelis, and that 13 of the injured were tourists from Canada, Sweden and Britain. No Americans were reported hurt. The identity of the fourth person killed was not immediately known.

The bomb blast occurred only hours after the Israeli Cabinet, meeting 10 miles away in Jerusalem, began debate on Egypt's demand for a timetable to establish Palestinian autonomy in the West Bank and Gaza Strip.

A major concern of the Israelis in the Washington, D.C., peace talks has been security and the pursuit of terrorists in the occupied territories in the occupied territories if they are given autonomy. The Cabinet debate was adjourned until tomorrow without a decision.

The bombing, and a separate blast in Tel Aviv's Jaffa district that wounded two Israelis, came on the first anniversary of Egyptian President Anwar Sadat's visit to Jerusalem, when he began a go-it-alone drive for peace with Israel that has been violently opposed by Arafat's Palestine Liberation Organization.

Police later announced that another bomb had been discovered and defused at a busy intersection in the center of Jerusalem. The Fatah guerrillas also claimed responsibility for planting that device.

The driver of the bus, which was filled with holiday visitors enjoying a sunny day at resorts by the Dead Sea, said the bomb exploded just after he let the passengers off at an Israeli West Bank settlement, Mitziph Jericho.

"The whole bus filled with smoke and screaming," he said.

"I stopped the bus and opened the doors as well as I could. Luckily a truck came by filled with soldiers," he told the Israeli army radio. The army truck ferried the casualties to hospitals.

What are you doing for Thanksgiving? Going to visit family, or just staying at home? —Just wanted to know what you think of the holiday. I like it because I get to eat my favorite foods and spend time with my family. —I'm not a fan of Thanksgiving, I think it's just a waste of time and资源. —I like it because it's a time for me to reflect on my blessings and give thanks.

DNA life has always been prone to problems, but this year I noticed something special that sets Notre Dame apart from other schools. Firstly, the school has a strong sense of community. Unfortunately, a problem has manifested in the form of off-campus housing. The problem is one that will continue to grow, as the alternative, off-campus housing, has been proven to be a reliable solution. There are efforts to tackle the issue, such as the formation of Off-Campus Housing associations, but they have not been effective in solving the problem.

Do you believe demonstrations bring results? or maybe you feel the need to be home among family and friends, to stuff yourself with home cooking. But in the spirit of the Mass, the Indian tribe who shared their fare with the pilgrims, you are asked to take part in an experience of sharing, of reaching out of your world into another's.

Another Way of Life

If you're looking for a good cause to jump on, there's a good one. Contrary to what you may have heard in the past few years, off-campus housing is not a monster. Many consider it an option for those who do not wish to live on campus, and would not return to campus if they had the option.

There are problems with off-campus living, but solutions exist. In the past few years, many students have voiced their concerns and suggestions. For example, the city of South Bend has worked on improving public transportation, and has increased the number of buses running on weekends. Additionally, the city has added bike lanes and bike-sharing programs to encourage alternative transportation methods.

I'm stop going to Notre Dame. I'm really sorry. I'm sure I'll be in touch soon.

I'm really sorry if you feel that way. You're a great person, and I'm sure you'll find something that makes you happy.

There is a community tradition here, and you are invited to join.

During the past year, I have felt among many of you, and redis- covered in myself, a desire to express in a pure manner of one's daily life affairs. I felt in this response to Pete Seeger, the folk singer, at the Folklore Literary Festival; for Seeger is more than an entertainer, he is a man of simple and straighten long for real involvement like that expression of my age group. It was easier for us, it was more sublime. But the chance is here today, and I feel that it will be rewarding as it is done in the same sense of any involved, there is a need, as expressed in the words of this old protest song:

There's a man by my side walkin' and I'm talka' to him and he say, There's a word that needs a sayin'... Carry it on, carry it on.

Since I did not know what was going on, I sat down with my mother, and we decided to do the right thing. The team was suspended, and later the report of violations was a rumor. Later the tournament director told me that Notre Dame was "expelled" from the college.

In the meantime, the Athletic Coordinator was fired, and the team was suspended. The president of Notre Dame, Dr. Terry St. Mary's, said that the team was not "good enough," and that the team was "on probation." But the team continued to compete, and eventually won the national championship.
Bowl produces champions

by Leslie Griffith

Ending a five-day competition last week, the St. Mary’s College Bowl has produced a champion team on Friday.

Based on television’s well known hit, College Bowl, the competition involves a test of general academic knowledge. Teams who qualify from the St. Mary’s campus will go on to face regional opponents. The regional competition is held on March 7.

The competition is co-sponsored by the Association of College Unions International and College Bowl Inc., the annual competition college and university level.

One of the most successful exchange programs is that between Notre Dame and the University of Toronto. The program is sponsored by the HPC and the administration which are available to students, junior Patty Field, Cathy Loftus, and Mary Laverty will greatly benefit from the experience.

Field, a junior at Notre Dame, has spent her junior year at the University of Toronto. Field is looking forward to the exchange and the chance to have program in Canada, and the use and reaction time of the system.

Field said, "It matched up" on television's well known hit, College Bowl. Field, a junior at Notre Dame, has spent her junior year in Canada, and the use and reaction time of the system.

The election of Donald R. Keough, executive vice president of the Coca-Cola Company and president of Coca-Cola U.S.A., Atlanta, and Anthony J.P. O’Reilly president and chief operating officer of H. J. Heinz Co., Pittsburgh, to the University board of trustees has been announced by Edmund A. Stephean, Chicago attorney and board chairman.

A member of the advisory council of the College of Arts and Letters at Notre Dame since 1974, Keough has been honored by the National Conference of Christians and Jews and served two terms on the consumer affairs committee of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce.

He is a graduate of Creighton University, Omaha, where he serves on the president’s committee. He is also a trustee of The Catholic University of America and a member of the Emory University Board of Visitors. Two of Keough’s children are recent Notre Dame graduates, and a son, Patrick, is a senior at the University.

Also a member of the Arts and Letters advisory council since 1974, O’Reilly is scheduled to become chief executive officer of the Heinz Company next July while continuing as president of the firm. He is a native of Ireland where he received a law degree at University College, Dublin. He is a member of the Incorporated Law Society of Ireland, the American Irish Foundation, and a director of Mercy Hospital and Queens University.

The election of Keough and O’Reilly raises the number of trustees to 44.

The Irish Eye

ATLANTA, GA—Earlier in the week I spoke to Dan Devine about the upcoming game with Georgia Tech and the revenge factor following last year's 69-14 embarrassment of the Yellowjackets. He explained that the game was so important to each team because seven-game winning streaks that revenge was something fans thought more about. He spoke of the time Aria Parsegian brought a team down there and was pitted with fish and fish sticks tossed to him. The first Irish touchdown came at the 7:06 mark of the second quarter. The 12-play, 92-yard drive was highlighted by a Joe Montana scramble for 13 yards on a third down play that made a first down by inches.

A Montana to Pete Pallas pass was good enough for 19 yards making the score 10-0 with the momentum swinging heavily in favor of the Wisdom Bowl.

Less than three minutes later, the Georgia Tech fans and players were in for a long day as Montana continued his heroic hurdling tackles on route to a 30-yard TD run.

Strong performances by freshman players helped lead the Notre Dame Hockey team to a pair of convincing wins over the Michigan State Spartans in WCHA action over the weekend.

Dave Laurion, Notre Dame's rock-solid goalie, was outstanding in the nets on Friday night, as the Irish cruised to a 9-1 win over the Spartans while allowing the fewest goals for the Irish in 38-21 ND win.

On Saturday night, three goals by Minnesota in the third period led Notre Dame to a 5-4 win over the Spartans.

The series sweep, the first of the year for Notre Dame, moved the Irish into second place in the WCHA with 11 points. They trail only Denver, who has 12 points. The win put them atop of third place Minnesota in the WCHA standings with 10 points.

Friday: Meredith scores four

Greg Meredith scored his first four goals of the season in the opening 22 seconds after the opening face-off, with aid from Steve Schneider and Ted Weltzin, and after State tied the score, the Irish iced out eight straight goals on their way to a 9-1 win.

Laurion, who went into the weekend with 11 straight games without allowing a goal, got tossed around in conversations. Meredith continued on his way.

The Irish will need to win four of their final six games if they expect to earn a berth in the NCAA playoffs. Meredith took a pass from Laurion and went onto the field because I just wore them.

Joe Montana played the kind of game that keeps pro scouts interested. While he completed his last ten passes with an accuracy rate next year when he WCHA stepped 42 goals by the Spartans while allowing the fewest goals by a Notre Dame opponent this year.

The Irish goaltender made one of the most saves from the other night in the first period, as Russ Welch came soaring in on a breakaway. The State winger tried a high shot to Laurion's right, but Laurion made the glove save and slid across the ice to a low shot under Mazuoli's pads.

Laurion showed the skill of the third, his career with only 22 saves this season. In the final period, Welz took a pass from Mazuoli's left and a low shot under Mazuoli's pads.

Freshman John Schmidt scored his first goal of the season and added two assists later, as he took a pass from Tim McAuliffe on a breakaway. After giving up a goal late, Welz showed the skills of the third, his career with only 22 saves this season.
