Lee's holds benefit for Camarda

by Tim Joyce
Staff Reporter

A benefit party will be held for Joe Camarda tomorrow night to help defray some of the costs of his recent hospitalization. Camarda was hospitalized for almost six weeks as a result of the Dec. 11 shooting in his home. The party is being sponsored by Lee's Grits, Greens & Legumes, 1152 South Bend Avenue.

Lee's was the idea of Gale Lightbough, all of her staff and the management of Lee's. According to Lightbough, Camarda was a dear friend of Lee's and when he heard of the shooting, he wanted to do something for him.

"I was talking with a friend of Joe's, Jim Mon. He found him for Joe's room number at the hospital and he could see him some flowers. Then I said 'Hey, let's have a big party for him instead.'"

The party will be held from 5 p.m. to 12 midnight at Lee's. There will be a one dollar charge per person and all proceeds will go to Camarda.

In addition to the reduced beer prices, there will also be a raffle with prizes given away throughout the evening. Raffle tickets will be five for a dollar. Prizes include beer mirrors, signs and other assorted beer paraphernalia.

"It's going to be a good time. The beer companies helped out a lot for the party," Lightbough commented, adding, "We're going to raise a thousand dollars for Joe."

SMC board discusses sports festival

by Beth Huffman

As time winds down for this year's Saint Mary's Board of Governance they are hastily completing plans for upcoming events and projects. Topping the discussion at last night's board meeting was a progress report on the Winter Sports Festival which began last night. The festival will continue through Monday with daily events.

A cross-country skiing clinic highlighted yesterday's day festival activities. On the agenda for today's events are a faculty-staff volleyball game at 12:15 p.m., a running and jogging clinic at 4 p.m. and the lacrosse clinic set for 5 p.m. All the events will be held in the Angela Athletic Facility.

The last event, a "Synchronized" swimming clinic held at Regan pool, will begin tonight at 8. Various other events will be held through Monday, including a recreational evening of volleyball slated for Notre Dame and Saint Mary's students on Friday. Angela will be open for the volleyball match-ups from 8-12 on that day.

Other topics discussed included plans for the upcoming Student Governance elections, Saint Mary's campus-wide charity, board finance, and possible athletic scholarships at Saint Mary's.

A revision has been made in election policy to allow out-going seniors to vote for next year's student body officers. Elections will be held on Monday, March 12. Prior to the election, on Monday, a letter will be distributed to each Saint Mary's student explaining offices, nominations, and election procedures. Campaign rules and regulations will be published at a later date in the Observer.

The Board incorporated in its discussion the upcoming projects concerning Saint Mary's campus-wide charity, St. Jude's Children's Hospital.

The Board opted to donate money to the St. Jude's Hospital charity, a charity whose most famous sponsor and patron is Danny Thomas. The Board has asked each residence hall and class to hold various fund raising functions with all proceeds going to St. Jude's.

The "topper" for the fund raising project will be a talent show sponsored by the Sophomore class. Angela Athletic, scullity will be the sight of the Sophomore production and the Glass President Adrian Trigiani says that they hope for an enjoyable and profitable turn-out. Three nights of campus-wide auditions will be held with an auction extended to both Saint Mary's and Notre Dame students.

Sophomore class members will be asked to serve as hostesses and ushers for the evening. All questions concerning the show can be referred to the Sophomore class representatives, the event's Co-Chairman, Mary Joan Pasquin.

To date, the show's date remains tentative, but further details will be published in the Observer.

Student Body President Gail Darragh has been researching the possibility of an increase of the Board's budget and reported yesterday on her research. At present, the board receives $15 per year for each student. This student allotment has not been increased since 1975. When the tuition at SMC has increased.

In contrast to schools of comparable size and mean, Darragh said, Saint Mary's budget has increased in excessively low. Darragh plans to work for an increase.

WASHINGTON (AP) - Thousands of farmers turned their plow-shares into tools of civil disruption yesterday, jamming the capital's roadways with tractors and triggering sporadic violence.

Donahue to speak

by Neal Patterson

Noted television talk show host and Emmy Award Winner Phil Donahue will speak at this evening in Washington Hall at 7 p.m. Admission is free.

Donahue, an ND alumnus, graduated in 1957 with a degree in Business Administration. He began his television career with WNDU-TV while still a student here. He is, at present, host of the Donahue show which originates at WGN-TV in Chicago and is syndicated nationally.

Tomorrow's television program is of special interest because it will feature an hour-long interview with Fred Husbsh in front of a studio audience. The show will be broadcast live at 12 p.m. over WGN-TV and shown subsequently over other stations syndicating the program.

This evening Donahue will speak briefly, after which he will answer questions from the audience. He is utilizing this format so that he can address himself to the topics of greatest interest to the audience.

This event is being sponsored by the Student Union Academic Commission. An official of the commission expressed the group's appreciation to Donahue, pointing out that he is foregoing his usual fee of approximately $5,000 for a speaking engagement.

Farmers jam D.C. roads; spark violence

WASHINGTON (AP) - Thousands of farmers turned their plow-shares into tools of civil disruption yesterday, jamming the capital's roadways with tractors and triggering sporadic violence.

Despite a total mobilization of police, we've raised enough corn, but not enough hell," came the battle cry, as several separate cavalcades of farm vehicles poured into the city in a traffic snarling demand for higher government price supports for their crops.

Police arrested at least 14 farmers and impounded more than a dozen vehicles, many of which were left abandoned in key intersections.

Several police cruisers were rammed, and tires slashed and windows broken on others. One officer was injured when a tractor was driven over his foot. Police Chief Burrall Jefferson, who called out the entire force, was personally involved in a snarling match.

Tear gas was fired at one driver who allegedly resisted arrest after blocking Independence Avenue near the Agriculture Department.

Another tractor driver was clubbed and dragged to a puddle wagon, police said he had brandished baseball bat at them. In another episode, a vehicle was destroyed by fire near the department.

The demonstration was launched by the American Agriculture movement, an organization seeking federal action to force the existing authority of government to guarantee farmers prices of up to 90 percent of parity for their crops. Full parity would give them roughly the same purchasing power that farmers enjoyed early this century. Prices now are around 70 percent.

President Carter said "I don't know of any group that's suffered more from the effect of inflation than farmers." But, in remarks to the National Association of State Departments of Agriculture, he said net farm income had increased 40 percent in the last year, though more should be done to ensure that all farmers share that prosperity.

"The Farmers Are Hungry!" Declared banners trailing from many of the 2,000 tractors and trucks that entered the city at a crawl just before dawn yesterday.

Several of the vehicles-cars, trucks and even mobile homes- had several farmers aboard, and American Agriculture claims their ranks will swell to 30,000 over the next several days.

Tens of thousands of exasperated farmers found themselves arriving at their offices up to four hours late-at all-out of the huge traffic tie-ups on principal freeways and streets. Many, hearing of the chaos via radio and television, simply stayed home.

Jaggers’ marriage shatters; Bianca files for divorce

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Blanca Jagger, wife of Rolling Stones lead singer Mick Jagger, filed for divorce yesterday asking $14,000 a month in support and half the couple’s estimated $25 million in community property. “Although Blanca has been hoping for a reconciliation through the past couple of months, the lawsuit was necessary because Mick has made it clear that it (reconciliation) is not possible—because he has been living with another lady,” said attorney Calvin Michelson, who filed the petition on behalf of Mrs. Jagger, who was in London. “He has failed to support her, sent her bills back, and cancelled her charge accounts,” said michelson. “The amount provided her is meager compared to his obligations to her.” Jagger has been living in Los Angeles with model Jerry Hall, according to the document. He was not available for comment.

ERA stance threatened by revocation proposal

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Indiana’s ratification of the Equal Rights Amendment could be revoked under a proposal endorsed yesterday by a Senate committee and sent to the floor for debate. The plan, sponsored by Sen. Joan Goldsmith, R-Indianapolis, would overturn Indiana’s 1977 vote in favor of the ERA and make it possible for the state to become part of the U.S. Constitution by March 22. Lawyers who testified before the committee disagreed about whether the move would have any legal effect. Sen. Leslie Dorn, D-Indianapolis, an attorney, told the Governmental Affairs Committee that he supported the proposal because Congress had “changed the rules in the middle of the game.”

Sara Moore misses again; recaptured after escape

ALDERSON, W.Va. (AP)—Sara Jane Moore, who pleaded guilty to trying to kill then-President Gerald R. Ford in 1975, escaped from a minimum-security federal prison here Monday night, and was recaptured after four hours after she was discovered missing. Moore, 30, said police said Mrs. Moore and another inmate were taken into custody near White Sulphur Springs, about 10 miles from the prison near here. State police Capt. B.H. Cassell, said the women were arrested while walking along a road. He added that they appeared to be in good condition.

Costello to head Amst dept.

Dr. Donald P. Costello, professor of English at Notre Dame, has been appointed chairman of the Program in American Studies. Costello, a member of the English faculty since 1960, assumes direction of an under­ graduate academic program created at Notre Dame in 1970 to examine the American experience from an interdisciplinary point of view. He succeeds Dr. Thomas Schlereth, who has resigned to return to full-time teaching and research.

Costello received his undergraduate education at DePauw University, from which he received his A.B. degree in 1955. His graduate training was at the University of Chicago, where he received an M.A. in 1956 and a Ph.D. in 1960. He is a specialist in American literature and con­ temporary film and drama, and his doctoral thesis on Bernard Shaw and the motion picture was published in 1963 by the Notre Dame Press.

Before coming to Notre Dame, Costello was an instructor in English and American studies at Roosevelt University in Chicago. His appointment to chair American Studies is effective immediately, and he will retain his professorship in English.

OCC meets to discuss reps

by Janet Rigaux

The Off-Campus Commission (OCC) met last night in LaFortune to discuss a proposed amendment that would allow off-campus students to have a representative on the Student Government Board of Commissioners and the Campus Life Council.

John Fitzpatrick, Off-Campus coordinator, argued last night that off-campus students should have a representative, saying, "They too must pay a $17 student government fee for which they are getting no services." Fitzpatrick explained that the proposed representative would give off-campus students a foothold in student affairs so that their specific needs could be better met.

In order for the proposed amendment to be voted on by the Board of Commissioners, a petition with signatures from 15 percent of the student body must be secured. A petition drive for the amendment will take place in the dining halls next week.

Persons interested in signing the petition can also do so at a planned Off-Campus Night next week according to Dan D'Antonio, director of the Office of Off-Campus Housing (OCH). The O.C. Night will be held in LaFortune and is being sponsored by OCH.

In view of the current disorganization of off-campus students, the committee has decided that for this year it would be best if the representative was appointed by Fitzpatrick and D'Antonio.

Each applicant for the position must submit a petition with 50 signatures to the OCC. The applications will then be screened and the choice narrowed down to five. Next year, however, this representative will be chosen by a general election.

The idea of altering the shuttle bus schedule was also discussed at the meeting. According to Shagun Neville, a member of the OCC, most students are dissatisfied with the present schedule, complaining that the bus returns to their residences too late at night. Neville expressed hope that more runs would be added to the schedule.

D'Antonio also announced plans to make a room in LaFortune available as a center for off-campus students in an effort to "give them a place to identify with on campus."

D'Antonio also hopes that all students wishing to live off-campus will use the OCC to locate a place to live. In this way landlords would be forced to have their houses approved and listed by the OCC. The purpose of this listing is to ensure that available housing would have to meet the standards established by the OCC.

Currently many houses are not listed with the office and in a result students remain uninformed about potential security problems and the physical deficiencies of many off-campus residences.

'Holy man' Khomeini names head to regime

TEHRAN, Iran (AP) - Ayatollah Khomeini took a fateful step in his fight for power last night, naming a veteran anti-shah politician to head a "revolutionary" regime rivaling Iran's shaky government and warning the military they risk God's wrath if they try to stop him.

The Monsters holy man called on the people of Iran to obey the new "transitional government" of 70-year-old Mehdi Bazargan, which is to pave the way for an Islamic republic. He urged them to show their support through peaceful marches nationwide.

Khomeini declared the U.S.-backed government of Prime Minister Shahpour Bakhtiar "must go" and that "all those who were identified with this regime must go," including Bakhtiar himself, who was appointed by Shah Mohammad Reza Pahlavi before the monarch left Iran Jan. 16.

Western diplomats said Khomeini's move heightened the danger of a confrontation between his revolutionary movement and the armed forces, whose commanders have vowed to support the monarchy and the constitutional government. But some say a compromise is still possible.

Speaking to Khomeini's challenge, the army sent troops into the offices of government ministries, apparently to maintain discipline among workers and head off a possible takeover by the rival group. For the third day in a row no political violence was reported in Iran.

Khomeini, who made his announcement at a news conference, urged civil servants and soldiers to cooperate with Bazargan, who insisted he was not a "shadow government." He said it was "a real government" that will oversee elections for a new republic.

But the new "prime minister," reportedly the key intermediary in secret contacts between the two camps, also said he did not intend to try to physically move into the Bakhtiar government offices.

The embattled Bakhtiar told Iranian television that as long as the new "government" was a "manner of words, it's possible."

"But if it comes to action, it's a different thing. I will have no objection to the announcement of a temporary government provided this government plays the role of a shadow government or future government. There is one government," he said.

SMC Celebration

Margie Brassil

At St. Mary's College's Residence Directors' Breakfast, the School and Hall Council of Holy Cross sponsored an open house in celebration of the hall's 75th birthday. This was the first time Holy Cross Hall had celebrated it's anniversary by opening its doors to anyone who wished to take part in the "very special tradition that is St. Mary's Hall tradition." The president spoke to it by saying, "With God. Who else do you expect me to be wrestling with?"

"Are you wrestling with..."

"And what's wrong with you?"

"I can't sleep, eat, or work. I..."

"Do you understand? Jesus was never..."

"So, Mary..."

Battling with Betrayal

Fr. Bill Toohy

Notre Dame students live constantly under the threat of being caught. It can come from any of us: teachers, rectors, campus ministers, fellow students. It happens when any of us engage in the subtle conspiracy to hide the truth or to protect it; when we fail to help students confront and probe necessary tensions; when we attempt to conceal from them the fragmentation and disorganization of our special institutions, the opportunism of our national leaders; and, worst of all, when we present to them a Christianity that is detached and empty, a vitriolic quip about the people.

Some time ago there was a series on public television entitled "Religious America." The series viewed various church groups and individuals. The spiritual experiences are mostly private moments when the individuals feel they are in personal contact with God. For many of these experiences are in the nature of direct signs from heaven—emotional floods of the heart occurring on schedule every Sunday. Exactly how these experiences influence them later in the day or the following week doesn't seem to have much to do with what these people are looking for.

Many of these interviewed emphasized that the value of a spiritual experience is precisely "to get you away" from the world and mundane happenings. For example, a stylishly dressed parishioner in Manhattan said: "I really feel like I'm there..."

In the year of 1932-1933 LaMoye Hall was completed, and was thus called The New College where the entire college was housed. From 1925-1945 Hall House was an all girls boarding high school called St. Mary's Academy.

Holy Cross Hall again became an active part of the St. Mary's College campus. In 1950 it became a freshmen dorm and housed classrooms on the first floor, and on the second floor main on Holy Thursday 1955 the Science Building began construction. By the end of '55 Holy Cross Hall became total residence as well.

The visitors' reaction to the birthday celebration was positive to all aspects. The visitors were able to tour the open house and were able to be prepared by the students. People brought patients to me from the VA Hospital in Palestine, and one day Mary, the wife of Joseph, arrived from Nazareth, bringing her 12-year-old son Jesus. Falling at my feet, she cried out tearfully, "O illustrious sage, take pity on me and heal my son. He has many demons inside him."

I saw myself as a great sage in Jerusalem. I could cure many different diseases, but first and foremost I was able to remove demons from the possessed. People brought patients to me from the VA Hospital in Palestine, and one day Mary, the wife of Joseph, arrived from Nazareth, bringing her 12-year-old son Jesus. Falling at my feet, she cried out tearfully, "O illustrious sage, take pity on me and heal my son. He has many demons inside him."

I had the parents go outside. When I remained alone with Jesus, I cursed his hand and asked him, "Who is my child? Where does it hurt?"

"Here... here..." he replied, poisoning to his heart.

Thistlewaite were enthusiastic that it would.
Thistlewaite said that he would be glad to do it all the time, while Wall said that it should be finalized and made a formal action.
"It is a good idea and we should get together to print it up. It went off very easily, and worked very well, to my knowledge," concluded Wall.

Two-mile relay squad returns from coast with impressive win

by Mark Perry
Assistant Sports Editor

With strong performances from all four runners, Notre Dame's nationally ranked two-mile relay team took a giant step toward an NCAA bid, as they won their event at the Los Angeles Times Track Invitational last Friday.

Rick Rodgers, Chuck Aragon, Pete Burger, and Jay Miranda, running as a team for the first time ever, combined to propel the Irish past some top competition in their first meet of the prestigious indoor meet.

"The guys really got well," said Irish Head Coach Joe Piane. "All four of them ran a really competitive race.

"We asked Rodgers, who led off, to try and stay with the leaders," Piane continued. "He did just that. He finished his leg in fourth place, only five yards in back of the leaders.

Rodgers was running this race for the first time ever, and running the half-mile for only the third time.

"Aragon ran second, and with-in 80 yards we were in the lead," Piane explained. "When he finished, we still had a small lead.

"Then Burger, who ran third, did extremely well," Piane related. "He ran against a fine runner, Greg Jones of the Mac-Cobb Track Club, and held him off by a half and a furlong.

"When Jay (Miranda) got the baton and we still held the lead, we knew we were going to win," Piane said.

Aragon added another feather to his cap on Saturday, as he finished third in the half-mile at the Albuquerque J.C. meet. The sophomore, who hails from Los Lunas, New Mexico, trailed only Mark Belcher, NCAA defending indoor champ, and Gerald Mas-terson, NCAA champ. Aragon's time of 1:51.75 qualifies him for the NCAA indoor meet.

While their teammates were racing to their wins on the west coast, the rest of the Notre Dame track team competed at the Western Michigan Relays.

details about that meet will be reported in tomorrow's Observer.

Despite turnovers
Irish overpower Rambler

by Mark Perry
Assistant Sports Editor

Overcoming some sloppy ball handling with zero effort on the boards, Notre Dame defeated Loyola of Chicago, 84-66, in basketball action last night at the A.C.C.

The Irish committed 15 turnovers in the first half, but out-rebounded the Rambler, 24-11, and held a slim 40-38 lead.

Notre Dame finally regained it in the second half, and Loyola came unhinged with 15 turnovers of their own, as Notre Dame cruised to the win. "I wasn't pleased with our turnovers in the first half," Irish coach Digger Phelps commented, "especially since Loyola wasn't pressing. We just had to cut back on our turnovers as we go." But players were going to move. We were just too anxious about trying to score."

"But I really like the way we dominated the boards in the first half," Phelps added. "We pulled down 24 rebounds, and I was pleased with that.

Neither team could get untracked in the early going, as the Irish turned the ball over four times during the first four minutes. But Loyola could only come closer than seven points for the rest of the game.

Jackson, who was voted the game's most valuable player, led the Irish with 18 points. Flowers and Tripucka were the only other Notre Dame players in double figures, with 13 and 12, respectively.

Knight, who is among the top five players in the nation in rebounding, could only grab six missed shots, but scored 18 points to pace the Ramblers. Stempley and Sprewer ended up with 14 and 10 points, respectively.

Notre Dame coach Jerry Lynne left the A.C.C. with a lot of respect for the Irish. "No other team has beaten us by more than 11 points," Bubba Knight commented. "But Notre Dame was able to blow us out in the end."

GAME NOTES: The Irish play their fifth game in ten days on Wednesday, as they travel to Raleigh, N.C., to take on North Carolina State. The game will be televised on WNDU-TV, beginning at 9:30 P.M. Notre Dame leads the nation in two categories. According to the latest NCAA stars, the Irish are on top in goal percentage, shooting at .564 clip (107 points above Maryland's 1974-75 NCAA record), and in scoring margin at 21.9, where Loyola is seventh in conference play.
