Q: When did you reserve your first room this year?
A: We've been in touch with those on the waiting list.

We do have an overcrowding problem with the freshmen. Lewis has been taken over for30, and we have people living in the study lounges of Badin, Lyons and the basement of Walsh.

Q: Why?
A: It happens because people who don't want their rooms on campus don't bother to tell us.

We also had quite a number of no-shows this year.

Q: I don't quite understand.
A: There are always a certain number of students who either don't want to live in the dormitories after they've reserved space or simply don't show up.

We don't want to have those spaces go unfilled.

My main concern after we lost St. Edward's was accommodating those people in a group. This is the reason I put 32 in St. Vincent Hall and I believe 66 in the study lounges of Flanner and Grace. I let Fr. Mario Petri, the rector of St. John's, make all remaining assignments.

Q: What are the plans for the reconstruction of St. Ed's?
A: We're still talking with the architects. I've seen some sketches, but no final plans have been made.

Q: How aesthetically accurate will the reconstruction be?
A: It will be a historic restoration.

Q: Let's talk about the new dorms. Can you give me some background?
A: They were given by Frank Prosperelli. He is an industrial developer from Johnstown, Pennsylvania. I think he has a great deal of respect for the University and a close friendship with Mr. John Higgins.

Q: How much was spent on it?
A: I'm told the first one will be ready in January.

Discovering the 'Real World'
Margie Brasil

A great deal of talking both serious and joking goes on in college about the “Real World” on the outside, especially when a student reaches his/her senior year in thinking goes on about what the world after graduation will be like. College students spend 9 months of the year in college, so the resignation is the latest evidence of the political and economic ascendancy of Deng's pragmatic policies of flexible, decentralized economies and collective leadership. —AP

John Anderson campaign workers were trying to beat the clock in a state petition drive yesterday. Volunteers were trying to line up at least 6,982 signatures by Monday to get Anderson's running mate, former Wisconsin governor Patrick Lacey, on the ballot in Indiana. Ballots were scheduled to be printed Monday at noon so the same time Republican presidential nominee Ronald Reagan is scheduled to arrive at Kokomo Municipal Airport.

The New Miss America, Susan Powell of Oklahoma, described herself as a deeply religious woman who enjoys'A Night to Remember,' the movie which marked her premartial sex "not right" for her. The 21-year-old brunette from Muskogee, Okla., meeting with reporters the morning after being crowned the 54th Miss America likened her victory to "a wild stallion coming off the plains into the big city." Powell, a senior vocal performance major at Oklahoma City University, defeated 49 pageant rivals partly on the strength of her expressive and amusing rendition of "Lucy with a Phone Call." I feel my greatest asset is my singing... My voice is a gift from God," said Powell, who hopes to earn a master's degree in voice and opera.

"Tough and roughh is how former president Richard M. Nixon describes President Carter's aides. Nixon also contends that Republican candidate Ronald Reagan had better "shape up his staff." But in the first part of a five part interview to be aired this week on NBC "subtly stepped up his party's challenge," according to Shettle. "In five months, he's taken his record, his deeds," Nixon said. "Reagan's weaknesses are his words; and when you run against words, I think the one that is weak on deeds is going to lose." Nixon also said commented, "You know those Georgia boys are a tough bunch. They may play softball down in Plains, but they play hardball in the country."

"Taxi" was the surprise winner for outstanding comedy series of the 1979-80 television season last night at the Emmy Awards. A strangely glossy, formulaic pastiche of a performer, a story line, that was presented at the awards Sunday night, "weren't the weakest of the show," said executive producer Tom Jackman, a former executive producer of " WKRP. The Emmy show got off to a subdued beginning with explanations by last minute emcees Dick Clark and Steve Allen that the show would be lacking star presenters and nominees because of a 50-day-old strike. A six pack of beer and $5 million dollars was the ransom offered for the return of Handsome Dan who had been held captive for 20 months. Handsome Dan, for those unfamiliar with Yale University history was the first in a series of wild black stallions coming off the plains into the big city. It was a taste of what it will be like. Quite a number of bubbles burst last summer, and now the only thing I expect will be the unexpected. But, I guess I'm happier than most, because as I left, Nick and Rick who they did not go for a second job even more surprisingly surprised them, they were happy and proud of their job. Throughout the summer I learned why.

President Ronald Reagan had the largest Toll Department in the state, and could run it themselves, when smaller offices needed 9 men to handle the work. As Rick said, pointing to our supervisor, "Why should I give up this to do what that jerk does?" Everyone has heard the principle,"In any hierarchy one rises to the level of one's incompetency," that is nowhere more true than the phone company. I saw bosses, particularly my own, whose sole function was to make sure the work ran smoothly, despite the fact that they rarely knew a thing about the job. They sat in their offices drawing up charts that meant nothing, or pretended to give advice to the craftsmen who knew more than they did. They, as a craftsmen you answered to them, Fact of Life #2: you do your job to please yourself, because if you do it to please a supervisor, chances are they are to dumb to notice.

Few summer jobs require you to join a union, and even more rarely, do they involve going on strike. Several weeks into my job I learned that the contract between the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers (my union) and the phone company was coming up for renewal, and because of the impending negotiations, members were preparing for a strike in August. Luckily, at the last moment we were saved from having to strike. I think it was to be concerned with the welfare of your coworkers as well as your own. When you work with people every day they become a part of your life. You are happy or unhappy with your job, depending on the people you work with. In my case this past summer—and Jack warned me that it was probably a rare case—each person was respected for the job they did, even when they did not enjoy it. The gaining respect was to show respect in return.

Well, in nine months the real world awaits Jack warned me, and then I found a good taste of what it will be like. Quite a number of bubbles burst last summer, and now the only thing I expect will be the unexpected. But, I guess I'm happier than most, because as I left, Nick and Rick who they did not go for a second job even more surprisingly surprised them, they were happy and proud of their job. Throughout the summer I learned why.

Democrats

The NLFSML Young Demo­crats were organized to pursue the goals of the Democratic par­ty, to assist campaigns for Democratic candidates, to bring politically oriented speakers into the Notre Dame community and to offer members of the Notre Dame community the opportun­ity to take part in the political process.

In the past they have cam­paigned for candidates running for local and state offices as well as those running for national of­fice. Last year’s activities were highlighted by a speech by Bill Bradley, former New York Knick’s star and candidate for the U.S. Senate from New Jersey. Meetings are held once a month.

Judo Club

“The Notre Dame Judo Club is moving ahead this year and expanding their course offerings to better meet the needs and wants of the Notre Dame com­munity,” Head Coach Curt Hersh stated. Three levels of instruction will be offered. The first level of instruction will con­sist of fundamental Judo principles and de­fense techniques alone.

The second level, the core of the Judo Club’s program, will be an introduction to all aspects of Judo. The student will be intro­duced to Judo throws and mat tech­niques; some of the back­ground philosophy of Judo and will be involved in some Judo self-defence activities, including host­ing several Judo tournaments and operating a concession stand at one of the home football games.

The third level is for the avid Judo competitor. Emphasis will be on conditioning and tourna­ment techniques. Beginners are welcome.

Men’s Volleyball

Men’s Volleyball, a new organization which will allow for a regular schedule of play with clubs in the South Bend area. Tournaments are held on weekends during the season.

In addition, court time will be scheduled for practice in the Rock and the Angela Facility. The organization is an effort to expose more men at Notre Dame the chance to play organized volley­ball, and will hopefully develop into a growing sport at ND in the near future.

Marketing

The Notre Dame Marketing Club is an organization designed to bring together interested faculty, students, and business per­sons in an informal environment.

Among the club’s major activi­ties are the Paul D. Gilbert Lecture Series; several members per­sonally conduct a seminar each semester; one field trip per sem­ester; and participation in the Michiana Area Marketing Day.

Dates are $5.00 per year and entitle members — who need not be marketing majors — to all the benefits and privileges of the club.

Interested students should sign up at Activities Night.

Right To Life

Right to Life

Notre Dame Saint Mary’s Right to Life’s Policies are based on the protection of the lives of the unborn. This student group works in four areas: education, politics, publicity, and litigations.

The group attempts to educate the ND-SMC community about abortion by stimulating their in­terest in abortion and its legal status. Right to Life keeps a breast of changes in the political scene affecting abortion and makes its views known to po­litical candidates.

By publicizing Right to Life activities here as well as across the nation, it hopes to gain support and assistance in its effort to restore the unborn child’s right to life. Right to Life sponsors special liturgical ser­vices offered for the restoration of the sanctity of life.

This year efforts will continue in opposition to the abortion clinic opened recently in South Bend. Attempts will be made through legal channels as well as picketing. ND-SMC Right to Life welcomes members concerned about those less able to help themselves — the unborn.

CILA

The Community for the Inter­national Lay Apostolate (CILA) offers its members a combina­tion of South Bend community service, education in justice and Third World causes, and a challenge for mature Christian growth.

NSHP

The Norris Social Concerns or­ganization will be one of the only groups to include the political and moral, the social and academic, and the political and moral concerns. NSHP is the largest volunteer service organization on campus with about 300 Notre Dame and St. Mary’s students working as tutors in 17 schools and neigh­borhood centers throughout the city of South Bend.

The Neighborhood Study Help Program is involved with tutoring the school child ren up to the fifth grade, primarily those in the elementary grades.

Karate Club

The ND Karate Club is a stu­dent run organization with the purpose of teaching practical self-defense techniques along with martial arts training, for beginners to advanced students.

The club has a six degree black-belt master instructor as well as several black-belt instructors.

The major emphasis of the training program is given to those students that want or need some self-defense training. However, for the more advanced student volunteer opportunities and intern­ship available.

Women’s Track

The Notre Dame Women’s Track/Field Club is a club sport and its members com­pete in intercollegiate cross country in the fall and track in the spring. All undergraduate women are welcome to join. Most meets are run on the track, but they are almost exclusively “a­dvisor” events, that is, events occurring throughout Indiana, Michigan, and Ohio.

Today's highlight in history: On Sept. 8, 1974, President Gerald Ford granted former President Richard Nixon an unconditional pardon for any crimes he may have committed during his term in office.

In 1965, a Spanish expedition landed at what is now St. Augustine, Fla., and founded a European settlement.
In 1980, Ten years ago: The Red China syndrome," so-called, was shot in Baton Rouge, La. He died two days later.

Soccer team rallies to win opener 2-1

CINCINNATI Despite sloppy field conditions, courtesy of a torrential rainstorm that forced a 45 minute halftime delay, the Notre Dame soccer team rallied for two second half goals to defeat Cincinnati 2-1.

Ray Buetner opened the scoring for the Bearcats by converting a penalty kick with ten minutes left in the first half.

After the rain delay, Irish forward Sami Kahala headed in a crossing feed from Kevin Lovejoy to tie the score five minutes into the second session. Lovejoy, the senior All-America candidate, scored the game-winner fifteen minutes later as he headed home Mike Sullivan's corner kick.

"It proved the kind of team we have," said Irish head coach Rich Hunter. "We're a very good team and we don't give up."

Notre Dame avenged last year's season opening loss to the Bearcats without the services of four key injured performers. Forwards Mike Mai and Mario Manta as well as halfback Bill Murphy and fullback Jim Stein were all sidelined by various ailments.

I was throwing before the game fully dressed and ready to test chance of me coming off the on-rushing teammate on a badly sprained thumb.

Purdue's loss of quarterback Mark Herrmann was the most natural thing in the world and led his team to an eventual 31-10 romp over the Boilermakers.

"We decided on Courey because he is the best guy," said wide-receiver Tony Hunter, who was on the receiving end of three Courey passes for a total of 73 yards and one touchdown. "I've always had confidence in Mike and knew in time he'd play with confidence."

The confident and poised Courey needed not only for Purdue's first touchdown, but in a collegiate game, scored one himself late in the fourth quarter, his first score as well. The 6-1, 202-pound field general went 10-13 in the aerial attack for a total of 151 yards with one interception and scamped for another 11 yards on the ground.

Not too long into Saturday's Courey directed Irish over Boilers, 31-10 classic it became apparent that a new quarterback had arrived on the 310-thrashing of the Boilermakers.

"I was throwing before the game fully dressed and ready to test chance of me coming off the on-rushing teammate on a badly sprained thumb.

On Saturday, reports from West Lafayette were that if Mark Herrmann was, of course, youth footballer in the backfield for a three yard loss. Junior tri-captain Bob Crable enhanced the attack with 10 tackles, and four others from the linebacking corp dropped a Boiler for a three yard loss directed by freshman tim Marshall.

"The Irish had good reason to be a strength vs. strength clash been a somewhat of an on-rushing teammate on a badly sprained thumb."

The Irish had good reason to improve Notre Dame's youth footballer in the backfield for a three yard loss. Junior tri-captain Bob Crable enhanced the attack with 10 tackles, and four others from the linebacking corp dropped a Boiler for a three yard loss directed by freshman Tim Marshall.
