America awaits Iran’s reply

WASHINGTON (AP) — A five-man U.S. negotiating team was called home from Algeria Tuesday night after rejecting the Carter administration’s reply to Iran’s terms for freeing the 52 American hostages.

Prospects for opening a hotline for “diplomacy” with Iran through Algerian intermediaries were not clear. Administration officials, not expecting a prompt reaction from Tehran to the U.S. reply, decided to end the brief mission to Algiers.

During two days, the U.S. team, headed by Deputy Secretary of State Warren M. Christopher, explained the legal and financial problems facing the United States in meeting the terms set down Nov. 2 by the Malia, the Iranian parliament.

The Americans left with a commitment from Algiers to quickly transmit the U.S. response to the Iranian government, the State Department said in a terse announcement here. It gave no indication whether the mission was considered a success.

(continued on page 10)

Shaky ground

Reagan to review MX missile

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Already on shaky ground due to spiraling costs and stiff opposition in Utah and Nevada, the MX missile system proposed for the Great Basin by the outgoing Carter administration appears headed for an overhaul by the incoming Reagan administration and his advisers.

"I’m not going to tie us into it," said William Van Cleave, Reagan’s senior defense advisor and a skeptic about the MX.

His boss, in a campaign appearance this summer, promised a full-scale review of the MX if “diplomacy” with Iran through Algerian intermediaries did not work.

The MX missile system, still under development near the vast desert of Utah and Nevada, was not clear. Administration officials had said that MX work would continue indefinitely.

Then there was a 14-6 party-line vote approving the full measure. Latta said it was "just unfair... to rush this through." Before the vote, Senate Republican Leader Howard Baker of Tennessee said Giaimo "is playing political games with us," in pushing the spending cut before Reagan takes office Jan. 20. "I was going to the Reagan administration to take their first, fair shot at it, not to Giaimo or any other Democrat," Baker said. "It’s Reagan’s turn at bat, the country gave him that.""Mr. Reagan has said that a 2 percent cut can be made in 1981 solely through the elimination of — and I quote — "waste, extravagance, abuse and outright fraud,"" said Rep. Robert N. Giaimo, D-Conn., the committee chairman who offered the plan.

The MX project was added to a resolution raising a binding federal budget ceiling for fiscal 1981. Reagan would have to decide how to make the cuts after he takes office in January. Congress, he promised, would participate in the 14-6 vote approving the cut. Rep. Delbert L. Latta of Ohio, the ranking Republican on the committee, voted "present".

...there will be only two floors open...

New women’s dorm ‘P’N’ Hall to open in spring

That’s what bothers the people of Utah and Nevada. Residents in eight Nevada counties affected by the MX overwhelmingly rejected the project in a referendum vote Nov. 4.

Utah’s MX coordinator, Ken Olson, said he fears the project would dot the desert with trailer camps, swell the welfare rolls and send inflation soaring.

In Utah alone, it is estimated the MX project would cost at least $35 billion and jobs in eight Nevada counties affected by the MX overwhelmingly rejected the project in a referendum vote Nov. 4.

Visitors at the new dorm will be, in order, residents of Villa Angela, women in temporary residency in Badin and Walsh halls, women students on the waiting list, and women transfer students who will be entering in the spring.

No women students currently residing on campus will be allowed to transfer to the new dorm, Says Heppen. "The reason is that there will only be two floors of that hall open in the spring semester."

Room picks for the new dorm will be decided by lottery on November 17 for students of Villa Angela. The picks will be held in the dining room of Villa Angela at 7:30 p.m.

Those students living in temporary quarters in Badin and Walsh will have the opportunity to pick rooms in Pasquaill West on November 18 from 8:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. in room 315 of the Administration building.

On November 19 women students on the waiting list may choose rooms in Pasquaill West. The order of choice will be determined by position on the waiting list. The room picks will be made on a space available basis.

Applications for transfer will be accepted in the Housing Office in the Administration building. Requests made after 5:00 p.m. on December 19 will not be honored.

The applications must meet certain requirements. The signature of the rector of the hall to which the student intends to transfer to is required, along with a letter that the rector is willing to have the student live in that hall.

Finally, a statement by the student giving the reason for the transfer is required. The Housing Office notes that students are usually expected to reside in one floor of the dormitory of the Administration building.

Applications for transfer will be accepted in the Housing Office in the Administration building. Requests made after 5:00 p.m. on December 19 will not be honored.

The applications must meet certain requirements. The signature of the rector of the hall to which the student intends to transfer to is required, along with a letter that the rector is willing to have the student live in that hall.

Finally, a statement by the student giving the reason for the transfer is required. The Housing Office notes that students are usually expected to reside in one floor of the dormitory of the Administration building.

Applications for transfer will be accepted in the Housing Office in the Administration building. Requests made after 5:00 p.m. on December 19 will not be honored.

...there will be only two floors open...

be made from 8:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. on the same day in room 315 of the Administration building.

Other students wishing to make interhall transfers must do so from December first through December 19. The moves will be made on a space available basis.

Applications for transfer will be accepted in the Housing Office in the Administration building. Requests made after 5:00 p.m. on December 19 will not be honored.

The applications must meet certain requirements. The signature of the rector of the hall to which the student intends to transfer to is required, along with a letter that the rector is willing to have the student live in that hall.

Finally, a statement by the student giving the reason for the transfer is required. The Housing Office notes that students are usually expected to reside in one floor of the dormitory of the Administration building.

Applications for transfer will be accepted in the Housing Office in the Administration building. Requests made after 5:00 p.m. on December 19 will not be honored.

The applications must meet certain requirements. The signature of the rector of the hall to which the student intends to transfer to is required, along with a letter that the rector is willing to have the student live in that hall.

Finally, a statement by the student giving the reason for the transfer is required. The Housing Office notes that students are usually expected to reside in one floor of the dormitory of the Administration building.

Applications for transfer will be accepted in the Housing Office in the Administration building. Requests made after 5:00 p.m. on December 19 will not be honored.

The applications must meet certain requirements. The signature of the rector of the hall to which the student intends to transfer to is required, along with a letter that the rector is willing to have the student live in that hall.

Finally, a statement by the student giving the reason for the transfer is required. The Housing Office notes that students are usually expected to reside in one floor of the dormitory of the Administration building.

Applications for transfer will be accepted in the Housing Office in the Administration building. Requests made after 5:00 p.m. on December 19 will not be honored.

The applications must meet certain requirements. The signature of the rector of the hall to which the student intends to transfer to is required, along with a letter that the rector is willing to have the student live in that hall.

Finally, a statement by the student giving the reason for the transfer is required. The Housing Office notes that students are usually expected to reside in one floor of the dormitory of the Administration building.

Applications for transfer will be accepted in the Housing Office in the Administration building. Requests made after 5:00 p.m. on December 19 will not be honored.

The applications must meet certain requirements. The signature of the rector of the hall to which the student intends to transfer to is required, along with a letter that the rector is willing to have the student live in that hall.

Finally, a statement by the student giving the reason for the transfer is required. The Housing Office notes that students are usually expected to reside in one floor of the dormitory of the Administration building.

Applications for transfer will be accepted in the Housing Office in the Administration building. Requests made after 5:00 p.m. on December 19 will not be honored.

The applications must meet certain requirements. The signature of the rector of the hall to which the student intends to transfer to is required, along with a letter that the rector is willing to have the student live in that hall.

Finally, a statement by the student giving the reason for the transfer is required. The Housing Office notes that students are usually expected to reside in one floor of the dormitory of the Administration building.

Applications for transfer will be accepted in the Housing Office in the Administration building. Requests made after 5:00 p.m. on December 19 will not be honored.

The applications must meet certain requirements. The signature of the rector of the hall to which the student intends to transfer to is required, along with a letter that the rector is willing to have the student live in that hall.

Finally, a statement by the student giving the reason for the transfer is required. The Housing Office notes that students are usually expected to reside in one floor of the dormitory of the Administration building.

Applications for transfer will be accepted in the Housing Office in the Administration building. Requests made after 5:00 p.m. on December 19 will not be honored.
An American pastor of Latvian descent jimmied plastic needles into his veins yesterday, spilling blood on a Soviet flag "for all the oppressed people of the Soviet Union." While astonished scientists yesterday with pictures of two misshapen huge hills on one of its 15 frozen moons. The ship was to probe the mysteries of the moons Titan, Mimas, Enceladus, Dione, and Rhea following its fly-by. Bradford Smith, head of the Voyager camera team, told a science conference, "The mystery of the rings, the structure and the mechanism that governs the structure keeps getting deeper and deeper."

Smith cannot be explained by traditional theories of ring structure. "Dozens of small ringlets forming perfect circles within circles." have been revealed by Voyager. Saturn's rings, a vast sheet of snowball-like debris, already had been revealed by Voyager as a complex system, with dozens of small ringlets forming perfect circles within circles. Smith had earlier said that even the series of concentric rings cannot be explained by traditional theories of ring structure. — AP

When Fr. Ernan McMullin, director of the history and philosophy of science program at Notre Dame watches a Voyager I flyby of Saturn today he will be thinking of the first man ever to see the planet — Galileo. A specialist on Galileo and author of a definitive study of the 17th century astronomer McMullin recalled in an interview the day in July, 1610, when Galileo turned his telescope on the sun. "Galileo's telescope gave only a magnification of 32," McMullin said, "and he thought he saw not one but three bodies close together in a straight line. The two small satellites on either side of Saturn were really rings seen broadside on. Two years later, Galileo was even more astonished when companion bodies disappeared, having become edgewise to earth." It was not until the middle of the 17th century that a Dutch astronomer, Leureaux, using a much more powerful telescope, discovered Saturn's rings a prime object of the voyager flyby. McMullin will view Voyager's photographs as a guest of NASA at the Jet Propulsion Laboratory in Pasadena Calif. — The Observer

Vice President-elect George Bush announced yesterday that retired Adm. Daniel J. Murphy will be his chief of staff after he takes office Jan. 20. Bush also said Peter E. Teelley, who was his press secretary during the primaries, will remain in that job. Jenifer A. Fitzgerald will be the new vice president's appointments secretary. Murphy, a 50-year-old lawyer from Missouri, became the new governor in 1977 when he retired from the Navy. Previously, Murphy had served as Bush's deputy when the vice president-elect was CIA director.

Mostly sunny and a little warmer today with highs in the upper 40s to low 50s. Fair and not too cold tonight, with lows in the mid to lower 30s. Partly sunny and mild tomorrow with highs in the mid to upper 50s. AP

Inside Wednesday

The University of Notre Dame a sexist institution? Heaven and Hesburg forbid, right? Could we possibly be talking about the all-American University, justice and equality emanate from the bright light of the Golden Dome?

Yes, it seems that there is some trouble brewing in Domerland. It appears that some people feel the university has a serious problem with doing out equal benefits and rights to its female faculty members, inside and outside the classroom. At least what sixty-six female faculty members have to say. And they plan on having their say in a U.S. District Court two weeks from now.

Notre Dame is being sued. The University is being slapped with a sexual discrimination suit in which they are charged with systemen­ dying women faculty members tenure on the pre­mise that they are female. Still, others claim that they are being denied jobs, again, on the precedent that they are female.

This problem began ten months ago when Dolores Frese, an English prof., initiated a class action sexual discrimination suit against the University which potentially included 129 past and present women faculty members. Dolores Frese, a classics prof., filed last spring, however, the road ahead appeared rough, tensions in the faculty department were on the rise, and in the end, and in small and illegal demonstrations, police said blood, pumping from his veins, Kirson, 40, a pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, stood on the homemade Soviet flag and told those gathered outside the conference hall: "This Latin blood is being shed in Madrid on a communist flag to protest against Soviet genocide in Latvia and the other Baltic states." After his release, he told reporters: "I feel fine. I would do it again, if I thought this would bring the plight of the Baltic states before the conference. The protest was one of several as the preparatory sessions for the Madrid meeting to review the Helsinki accords on human rights and detente remained stalled after nine weeks of West-East deadlock over how much time to devote to human rights. — AP

Off-Campus Students

Campus Telephone Books Will Be Available on Monday November 13, 14 & 15 9:00 am to 4:00 pm Student Government Offices And Floor-LaFrentz

One Book Per House

UN

REPOSSESSIONS FOR SALE:

Min Bid:

1978 Ford Rancher W/ Blade Lift $4,500
1978 Chevrolet Monte Carlo $4,000
1977 Dodge Van — Pkg $3,500
1977 Chevrolet Monte Carlo $2,250
1976 Chrysler Cordoba $3,000

Contact: R.G. Reed
University of Notre Dame Credit Union
283-4454

The Observer's Design Editor — Scott Fox is on leave Jan. 1st. Do you have a story that you'd like us to publish? Submit a letter to the editor or a press release, or contact our managing editor, Robbi Korowicki. The Observer publishes short press releases, better known as blurbs, which are not to exceed 100 words. As a public service, The Observer publishes short press releases, better known as blurbs, which are not to exceed 100 words.

The Observer is a member of the Associated Press. All reproductions rights are reserved.

Observer Notes

As a public service, The Observer publishes short press releases, better known as blurbs, which are not to exceed 100 words.

The bottom line of this lawsuit lay in answering why tenure is being constantly denied to women professors. What exactly is tenure, you ask? Tenure is, according to the Notre Dame faculty handbook, the permanence of appointment. Its purpose — that the women profs are continually changing, consequently bringing in new ideas.

As with most lawsuits, legal mumbo-jumbo is the status quo and therefore, presents much confusion for the average intelligent being. The bottom line of this lawsuit is that tenure is being constantly denied to women professors. What exactly is tenure, you ask?

The Frese lawsuit charges that Notre Dame is being sued. The University is being slapped with a sexual discrimination suit in which they are charged with systemen­ dying women faculty members tenure on the pre­mise that they are female. Still, others claim that they are being denied jobs, again, on the precedent that they are female.

This problem began ten months ago when Dolores Frese, an English prof., initiated a class action sexual discrimination suit against the University which potentially included 129 past and present women faculty members. Dolores Frese, a classics prof., filed last spring, however, the road ahead appeared rough, tensions in the faculty department were on the rise, and in the end, and in small and illegal demonstrations, police said blood, pumping from his veins, Kirson, 40, a pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, stood on the homemade Soviet flag and told those gathered outside the conference hall: "This Latin blood is being shed in Madrid on a communist flag to protest against Soviet genocide in Latvia and the other Baltic states." After his release, he told reporters: "I feel fine. I would do it again, if I thought this would bring the plight of the Baltic states before the conference. The protest was one of several as the preparatory sessions for the Madrid meeting to review the Helsinki accords on human rights and detente remained stalled after nine weeks of West-East deadlock over how much time to devote to human rights. — AP

When Fr. Ernan McMullin, director of the history and philosophy of science program at Notre Dame watches a Voyager I flyby of Saturn today he will be thinking of the first man ever to see the planet — Galileo. A specialist on Galileo and author of a definitive study of the 17th century astronomer McMullin recalled in an interview the day in July, 1610, when Galileo turned his telescope on the sun. "Galileo's telescope gave only a magnification of 32," McMullin said, "and he thought he saw not one but three bodies close together in a straight line. The two small satellites on either side of Saturn were really rings seen broadside on. Two years later, Galileo was even more astonished when companion bodies disappeared, having become edgewise to earth." It was not until the middle of the 17th century that a Dutch astronomer, Leureaux, using a much more powerful telescope, discovered Saturn's rings a prime object of the voyager flyby. McMullin will view Voyager's photographs as a guest of NASA at the Jet Propulsion Laboratory in Pasadena Calif. — The Observer

Vice President-elect George Bush announced yesterday that retired Adm. Daniel J. Murphy will be his chief of staff after he takes office Jan. 20. Bush also said Peter E. Teelley, who was his press secretary during the primaries, will remain in that job. Jenifer A. Fitzgerald will be the new vice president's appointments secretary. Murphy, a 50-year-old lawyer from Missouri, became the new governor in 1977 when he retired from the Navy. Previously, Murphy had served as Bush's deputy when the vice president-elect was CIA director.

Mostly sunny and a little warmer today with highs in the upper 40s to low 50s. Fair and not so cold tonight, with lows in the mid to lower 30s. Partly sunny and mild tomorrow with highs in the mid to upper 50s.
Jury debates Klan, Nazi trial

GREENSBORO, N.C. (AP) — The jury in the murder trial of six Ku Klux Klanmen and Nazis ended a third day of deliberations without a verdict yesterday, even though the judge instructed them to keep deliberating until the tapes of the events of May 17 are re-examined in minute detail.

The jurors, who have been deliberating since May 17, have been charged with first-degree murder and felonious rioting in the killings of five Communist Workers Party members at a "Death to the Klan" rally on Nov. 3, 1979.

Jurors got the case Friday and deliberated a full day Monday. The trial, in its 22nd week, is the longest in state history.

Sen. Howard Baker says he expects Reagan to be the majority leader, even though the administration of the White House and by the Republican slated to be the Senate's majority leader, has called for some modifications.

The trial, in its 22nd week, is the longest in state history. Baker said Garn's Senate Banking Committee would consider the legislation to permit the federal government to pay nonunion wages on government housing projects and to lower the minimum wage for teenagers.

He predicted the Senate will adopt them.

But Baker, in an interview with The Associated Press, predicted that the "biggest surprise" would be the Senate's majority leader, Howard Baker, who has been charged with first-degree murder and felonious rioting in the killings of five Communist Workers Party members at a "Death to the Klan" rally on Nov. 3, 1979.

Jurors got the case Friday and deliberated a full day Monday. The trial, in its 22nd week, is the longest in state history.

Sen. Howard Baker says he expects Reagan to be the majority leader, even though the administration of the White House and by the Republican slated to be the Senate's majority leader, has called for some modifications.

The trial, in its 22nd week, is the longest in state history.
SMC Gov't discusses social justice

by Kathryn Dale

The first edition of The Liberator, a social justice newsletter sponsored by the Saint Mary's Student Government, was discussed at a luncheon held at the Rotary Room at Saint Mary's.

Sanct Mary's announces registration

All Saint Mary's and Notre Dame students wishing to take courses at Saint Mary's for the spring semester should register at Angela Athletic Facility on the following days at the times scheduled:

All seniors will register on Friday, November 14. Students with last names beginning H-K will register at 4:00 p.m.; O-R at 4:15; S-Z at 4:30; A-C at 4:45; D-G at 5:00; L-N at 5:15.

Also on Friday, November 14, Juniors with names beginning H-K will register at 4:00; O-R at 4:15; S-Z at 4:30; A-C at 4:45; D-G at 5:00; L-N at 5:15.

Sophomores and freshmen will register on Wednesday, November 11, with names beginning H-K; beginning with H-K; will register at 4:00; O-R at 4:15; S-Z at 4:30; A-C at 4:45; D-G at 5:00; L-N at 5:15.

Freshmen with names beginning H-K will register at 3:30; O-R at 3:45; S-Z at 4:00; A-C at 4:15; D-G at 5:00; L-N at 5:15.

Kintzele also discussed the University's Inmate-Outmate Program. This program consists of fifteen South Bend men who work with fifteen inmates in the Michigan City State Prison which serves the state of Indiana. This group is currently in the process of collecting 3,000 dozen cookies to be used at Christmas parties next month. She was quick to point out, that job development programs are also being enacted for ex-offenders, but efforts are being slowed by the lack of jobs in general.

Gorman spoke briefly and often times emotionally on his personal experiences in prison. His education in law and the obvious empathy he felt for prison inmates was apparent throughout. He emphasized the obvious duty to "Hate the sin, but love the sinner." He urged all to lead better lives to make a better world. He insisted that individuals love those that commit crimes not by feeling sorry for inmates, but by loving them in the "true Christian" sense of the word.

Chorale

The University of Notre Dame Chorale, under the direction of Douglas K. Belland, will present their Fall Concert on Thursday, Nov. 15, at 8:15 p.m. in Sacred Heart Church. The program will include the Mass of the Night and the Mass of the Roman People, Gesualdo and Berchem, two verse anthems by Gibbons; and Samuel Barber's "The Coosur". Featured will be Haydn's "Little Organ Mass" for organ, chorus, soprano soloist and strings.

WSD holds 'Bama contest

WSD A M. Radio is sponsoring a "Blue Nun" 1980 contest. Any person or group who want to enter should submit a tape of a song about the upcoming Alabama game. The winner will receive $125 and the winning song will be played on a Birmingham Radio Station. All entries must be handed in to WSND studies (4th floor O'Shaughnessy Hall) by noon on Thursday.

APF plans discussion

The American Political Forum will be having a discussion this Wed., Nov. 12 at 7:00 p.m. in room 108 O'Shaug. The title of the discussion will be "What Price the Hostages?" All interested people are invited to come and participate in the discussion. The American Political Forum is a non-partisan political discussion group which meets weekly to discuss the issues of the day. The Forum provides an opportunity for ND-SMC students to express their political views. Our purpose is to converse with a variety of ideas in order to better understand an issue by hearing out arguments from many sides. In so doing, we would hope to arrive at a more rational view of opinions with a stronger basis in fact. For more information about the American Political Forum contact Gould or Dan Gonzales at 277-0651.
Now you can go Big Red four times every day from South Bend—two departures east to New York, with intermediate stops, and two departures west to Los Angeles or San Francisco, with intermediate stops. Plus you can also make convenient connections to over 15,000 cities and towns nationwide.

And wherever you go along our Big Red routes you'll enjoy that famous Trailways torsion-smooth ride and comfortable red carpet service every mile of the trip.

You'll find Trailways in South Bend at the Michiana Regional Airport on U.S. 20, or for information on routes and rates, just call 232-2577.
Life is life

Dear Editor,

One obligation of any Christian is to use the full range of his or her intellectual talents and opportunities. By virtue of the election of Gov. Reagan and the various task forces and committees on which Prof. Rice serves, he is in a position currently unmatched by any other of us to influence the life issues of the Reagan administration. As a fellow Christian my prayers are with him. I will welcome the same constancy, commitment, and clarity he expresses in his position about the central life issues of the Reagan administration.

Mark Twain spoke of. He referred to the creation of a "new class whose values and aspirations (are) truly coming true: The creation of a 'new corporate cash heaped on their challengers. Not long after the largest outpouring passed a bill that would have limited most elections. No more than $70,000 could be raised by an old candidate from PACs, with $5,000 the maximum from one group. But the belt—which would constrain only House members—remained around the Senate, the line there by conservatives perched comfortably in the lulls of the ever-growing money tree.

In the elections of the Abdors and Grassleys, did the "people" speak or did money talk? It if was a populist uprising, what about the uprising among corporations? They have found it so enjoyable to part with so much money that in 1975 less than 140 corporate PACs existed, as against more than 1,100 now. Rather than the defeas of the liberals being seen as a blowing off of steam by the frustrated millions, a more subtle and specific need needs to be considered. A well-planned and well-executed power play has put into the Senate and House a large number of servants of the big business-special interest complex who were shipped in with money not only to create future access but to reward past favors. The negative impact of this business leads to: higher prices for consumers, more breaks for the wealthy, bigger cuts in social services and even despair that the system can be made to work.

Colman McCarthy

WASHINGTON--In their savory of victory, right-wing groups should be allowed their indulgences in interpreting the election results. Concerns about how they are perceived are justified: they are claiming. With the defeat of George McGovern, John Culver, Birch Bayh and Frank Church in the Senate, and John Brademas, Andrew Maguire and Bob Eckhardt in the House, liberalism has been put to rout. "The people" have spoken. In Ronald Reagan and the inawe of Republicans in the Senate, and the dream that Richard Nixon says he is working for is coming true: The creation of a "new corporate cash heaped on their challengers. They took money also, though it tended to come from unions. But even then, as a Common Cause spokesman once showed, someone might have contributed 26 percent of his total contributions from PACs, against only 9 percent of Church's. Grassley had 21 percent. McGovern 11 percent.

In October 1979, about a year before the largest outpouring passed a bill that would have set modest limits. No more than $70,000 could be raised by an old candidate from PACs, with $5,000 the maximum from one group. But the belt—which would constrain only House members—remained around the Senate, the line there by conservatives perched comfortably in the lulls of the ever-growing money tree.

In the elections of the Abdors and Grassleys, did the "people" speak or did money talk? It if was a populist uprising, what about the uprising among corporations? They have found it so enjoyable to part with so much money that in 1975 less than 140 corporate PACs existed, as against more than 1,100 now. Rather than the defeas of the liberals being seen as a blowing off of steam by the frustrated millions, a more subtle and specific need needs to be considered. A well-planned and well-executed power play has put into the Senate and House a large number of servants of the big business-special interest complex who were shipped in with money not only to create future access but to reward past favors. The negative impact of this business leads to: higher prices for consumers, more breaks for the wealthy, bigger cuts in social services and even despair that the system can be made to work.

Colman McCarthy

Big Politics differs from the "higher prices." Mark Twain spoke of. He referred to the outrage growing of political palans common to 1970-80 American politics, whereas today's generosity is sanctioned by a 1975 FEC ruling. The current arrangement has a philosophical connection that goes further back in history, to the honored motto of the Medical family: "Money to get power, power to protect money.

Mark Twain spoke of. He referred to the creation of a "new class whose values and aspirations (are) truly coming true: The creation of a 'new corporate cash heaped on their challengers. Not long after the largest outpouring passed a bill that would have limited most elections. No more than $70,000 could be raised by an old candidate from PACs, with $5,000 the maximum from one group. But the belt—which would constrain only House members—remained around the Senate, the line there by conservatives perched comfortably in the lulls of the ever-growing money tree.

In the elections of the Abdors and Grassleys, did the "people" speak or did money talk? It if was a populist uprising, what about the uprising among corporations? They have found it so enjoyable to part with so much money that in 1975 less than 140 corporate PACs existed, as against more than 1,100 now. Rather than the defeas of the liberals being seen as a blowing off of steam by the frustrated millions, a more subtle and specific need needs to be considered. A well-planned and well-executed power play has put into the Senate and House a large number of servants of the big business-special interest complex who were shipped in with money not only to create future access but to reward past favors. The negative impact of this business leads to: higher prices for consumers, more breaks for the wealthy, bigger cuts in social services and even despair that the system can be made to work.
Molarity

Michael Molinelli

Peanuts

Charles M. Schulz

The Daily Crossword
Two outfielders
Rookies grab titles

A pair of outfielders, Joe Charboneau of the Cleveland Indians and Lonnie Smith of the Philadelphia Phillies, have been named the American and National League Rookie of the Year in their respective leagues by The Sporting News.

Charboneau batted .289 in 131 games, including 8 RBIs, and had 87 game-winners, while walking 49 times. Smith hit for a lofty .339 average in 100 games, logging out 14 doubles and three triples to go with three home runs and 20 RBIs. Smith also pilfered 23 bases for the World Champion Phils.

Harris, who sat out the Tampa

River City Records Welcomes

HARRY

CHAPIN

Tuesday, December 9 • 8:00 p.m.
Morris Civic Auditorium • South Bend

Tickets: $9.50/$8.50 Reserved
Tickets on sale Wednesday, Nov. 12, at 10:00 a.m. at River City Records, 50970
U.S. 31 North, ONLY
Limit 10 tickets per person!
Call 277-4242 for further information!

River City Records & Jam Productions Present
AN EVENING WITH

FRANK ZAPPA

Friday, November 14 • 8:00 p.m.
Notre Dame ACC
Tickets: $9.00/$8.00 all seats reserved. Good seats still available at the ACC Box Office and River City Records, 50970 U.S. 31 North - 3 miles north of campus

AFC Central showdown on Sunday

Cleveland (AP) - In recent years, the Cleveland Browns have traveled to Pittsburgh, hoping for a break, wishing something would go wrong for the Steelers to give the Browns a chance, however slim, to win.

This year, with one victory over the Steelers already tucked away, the Browns are heading for Three Rivers Stadium with newfound confidence, says Coach Rutigliano.

"We're going in there not with hopes that we'll play well or with hopes that we'll make a good showing," Rutigliano said. "We beat the Pittsburgh Steelers the last time we played them."

Sure, coach, but those weren't really the Steelers you played. After all, Cliff Stoudt was quarterbacking for the injured Terry Bradshaw. Franco Harris massaged the itinerary along with receivers Lynn Swann and John Stallworth, and Jack Lambert wasn't in the lineup.

"I don't know how much more Stallworth and Swann can do than Jim Smith is doing," Rutigliano said. "He's a very dominant receiver. That's the kind of a very talented receiver.

"And I just hope Terry Bradshaw doesn't do as well as Cliff Stoudt did against us in the first game."

Stoudt, filling in while Bradshaw nursed a jammed thumb, threw for more than 100 yards in the game at Cleveland's Municipal Stadium, which the Browns won 27-26.

Pittsburgh, however, particularly missed Harris, as Steeler runners managed only 67 yards rushing in the contest.

Rutigliano admits he expects to see a different Pittsburgh team this Sunday.

It's not the personnel, however, that he fears. Rather, it's the attitude he expects the Steelers to display.

"The challenge of Cleveland, and us being in first place and playing in Pittsburgh, you will see them playing with their backs against the wall," Rutigliano said. "And that's good, because that's the kind of game we want to be involved in."

Stallworth is to miss the cost again, this time because of a broken foot suffered in Pittsburgh's victory at Three Rivers Stadium. But Swann and Bradshaw are expected to be ready, and

Harris, who sat out the Tampa
game, is also expected back.

The Browns should be at full strength, with the exception of kickoff returner Keith Wright.

Notre Dame...

...two dirty words

Editor's Note: The following Associated Press article by Howard Nussman was published in many papers across the small prior to the onset of the 1980 collegiate football season.

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. — Alabama begins defense of its national college football championship Saturday against Georgia Tech and any coach, Paul (Bear) Bryant included, will tell you that your most important game is your next game.

The Alabama campus is looking past Georgia Tech. Also past Mississippi, Vanderbilt, Kentucky, Rutgers, Tennessee, Southern Mississippi, Mississippi State and Louisiana State.

"The only game they're talking about is Notre Dame," says Charley Thornton, assistant athletic director for public relations. "It's like they don't realize we have nine previous games."

Notre Dame doesn't visit Alabama until Nov. 13. In this part of the country, Notre Dame is a dirty word...two dirty words, in fact.

"That's why it's a tremendous assignment for our football team."

Notre Dame cost previously undefeated Alabama the 1973 national championship with a 24-23 victory in the Sugar Bowl at New Orleans. The Fighting Irish cost previously undefeated Alabama the 1974 national championship with a 13-11 triumph in the Orange Bowl at Miami. The only other meeting was Notre Dame's 21-18 regular season triumph in 1976 - three Alabama setbacks by a total of six points.

Alabama also feels its 1966 (11-0) and 1977 (11-1) teams deserved national championships that year which west, of course, to Notre Dame. Winning national titles in 1978 and 1979 hasn't made any coach, but those aren't really the Steelers you played. After all, Cliff Stoudt was quarterbacking for the injured Terry Bradshaw. Franco Harris was with the Steelers the last time we played them.

Sure, coach, but those weren't really the Steelers you played. After all, Cliff Stoudt was quarterbacking for the injured Terry Bradshaw. Franco Harris was with the Steelers the last time we played them.

Sure, coach, but those weren't really the Steelers you played. After all, Cliff Stoudt was quarterbacking for the injured Terry Bradshaw. Franco Harris was with the Steelers the last time we played them.

Sure, coach, but those weren't really the Steelers you played. After all, Cliff Stoudt was quarterbacking for the injured Terry Bradshaw. Franco Harris was with the Steelers the last time we played them.

Sure, coach, but those weren't really the Steelers you played. After all, Cliff Stoudt was quarterbacking for the injured Terry Bradshaw. Franco Harris was with the Steelers the last time we played them.
Purdue's Herrmann QB passes the records

WEST LAFAYETTE IND. (AP)—It's no coincidence that Purdue University's sluggish football program began a dramatic turnaround with the arrival of Mark Herrmann, a strong-armed quarterback who made the forward pass the chief weapon in the Boilermakers' arsenal and is now on the verge of becoming the NCAA major college career leader in total offense.

Herrmann, a lanky, 6'5" senior from Carmel, Ind., arrived at Purdue the same time as Coach Jim Young, who inherited a program that had recorded just one winning season in the previous seven years. Young and Herrmann were suited for each other, and the entire offense was rebuilt around the young quarterback.

"I think that it's pretty obvious that we have built our program around him," says Young. "He is the leader, he makes things happen. He has a great deal of poise and experience."

Purdue is 7-2 this season and tied with Michigan and Ohio State for first place in the Big Ten. Herrmann has been mentioned as a prime candidate for the Heisman Trophy, but he figures his chances are no better than 50-50.

In any event, he appears remarkably unaffected by his notoriety.

"Most people don't believe me when I say I'm not concerned with the Heisman Trophy," Herrmann insists. "After you've been through four years with the same teammates and the same coaches, it really is difficult to have personal achievements ahead of team goals. But I'd be kidding if I said I didn't check on the stats..."

Herrmann's stats show eight NCAA division I records, including most passing yards in a career with 5,207. He needs 44 yards against West Virginia this Saturday to become the all-time NCAA total offense leader.

"When I say I'm not concerned with the records," he adds, "I mean I'm not concerned with the numbers. But I've been on the other side of the coin. I was booed last year when we played Northwestern, so I guess the badd comes with the good."

Most of the time, I'm not aware of them until the day after the game."

Herrmann's stars show eight NCAA division I records already under his belt, including most passing yards in a career with 5,207. He needs 44 yards against West Virginia this Saturday to become the all-time NCAA total offense leader.

"When I say I'm not concerned with the records," he adds, "I mean I'm not concerned with the numbers. But I've been on the other side of the coin. I was booed last year when we played Northwestern, so I guess the badd comes with the good."

For his career, one out of every 8.5 pass completions has gone for a touchdown.

"Coach Young's bottom-line philosophy has always been to improve the senior quarterback's skills," says Herrmann. "He constantly stresses improvement. As I look back on my career, I guess that's what I've mainly been concerned with...trying to improve with every game."

The one area Herrmann has tried hardest to show improvement in is cutting down on interceptions. He has an NCAA career record 49 interceptions, but 27 of those were as a freshman. He's steadily improved and he's been picked off just 13 times so far this year.

"I did at one time become paranoid about interceptions, but lately I've realized when your offense is designed around the pass, you're going to have those interceptions," Herrmann says. "I really try not to let them get me down as much as they used to."

"I don't mind all the attention any more. That goes with being a quarterback, I guess. It has bothered me, because I was afraid of what my teammates might think. But I've been on the other side of the coin. I was booed last year when we played Northwestern, so I guess the badd comes with the good."

For his career, one out of every 8.5 pass completions has gone for a touchdown.

"Coach Young's bottom-line philosophy has always been to improve the senior quarterback's skills," says Herrmann. "He constantly stresses improvement. As I look back on my career, I guess that's what I've mainly been concerned with...trying to improve with every game."

The one area Herrmann has tried hardest to show improvement in is cutting down on his interceptions. He has an NCAA career record 49 interceptions, but 27 of those were as a freshman. He's steadily improved and he's been picked off just 13 times so far this year.

"I did at one time become paranoid about interceptions, but lately I've realized when your offense is designed around the pass, you're going to have those interceptions," Herrmann says. "I really try not to let them get me down as much as they used to."

"I don't mind all the attention any more. That goes with being a quarterback, I guess. It has bothered me, because I was afraid of what my teammates might think. But I've been on the other side of the coin. I was booed last year when we played Northwestern, so I guess the badd comes with the good."

For his career, one out of every 8.5 pass completions has gone for a touchdown.

"Coach Young's bottom-line philosophy has always been to improve the senior quarterback's skills," says Herrmann. "He constantly stresses improvement. As I look back on my career, I guess that's what I've mainly been concerned with...trying to improve with every game."

The one area Herrmann has tried hardest to show improvement in is cutting down on his interceptions. He has an NCAA career record 49 interceptions, but 27 of those were as a freshman. He's steadily improved and he's been picked off just 13 times so far this year.

"I did at one time become paranoid about interceptions, but lately I've realized when your offense is designed around the pass, you're going to have those interceptions," Herrmann says. "I really try not to let them get me down as much as they used to."

"I don't mind all the attention any more. That goes with being a quarterback, I guess. It has bothered me, because I was afraid of what my teammates might think. But I've been on the other side of the coin. I was booed last year when we played Northwestern, so I guess the badd comes with the good."

For his career, one out of every 8.5 pass completions has gone for a touchdown.

"Coach Young's bottom-line philosophy has always been to improve the senior quarterback's skills," says Herrmann. "He constantly stresses improvement. As I look back on my career, I guess that's what I've mainly been concerned with...trying to improve with every game."

The one area Herrmann has tried hardest to show improvement in is cutting down on his interceptions. He has an NCAA career record 49 interceptions, but 27 of those were as a freshman. He's steadily improved and he's been picked off just 13 times so far this year.

"I did at one time become paranoid about interceptions, but lately I've realized when your offense is designed around the pass, you're going to have those interceptions," Herrmann says. "I really try not to let them get me down as much as they used to."

"I don't mind all the attention any more. That goes with being a quarterback, I guess. It has bothered me, because I was afraid of what my teammates might think. But I've been on the other side of the coin. I was booed last year when we played Northwestern, so I guess the badd comes with the good."

For his career, one out of every 8.5 pass completions has gone for a touchdown.

"Coach Young's bottom-line philosophy has always been to improve the senior quarterback's skills," says Herrmann. "He constantly stresses improvement. As I look back on my career, I guess that's what I've mainly been concerned with...trying to improve with every game."

The one area Herrmann has tried hardest to show improvement in is cutting down on his interceptions. He has an NCAA career record 49 interceptions, but 27 of those were as a freshman. He's steadily improved and he's been picked off just 13 times so far this year.

"I did at one time become paranoid about interceptions, but lately I've realized when your offense is designed around the pass, you're going to have those interceptions," Herrmann says. "I really try not to let them get me down as much as they used to."

"I don't mind all the attention any more. That goes with being a quarterback, I guess. It has bothered me, because I was afraid of what my teammates might think. But I've been on the other side of the coin. I was booed last year when we played Northwestern, so I guess the badd comes with the good."

For his career, one out of every 8.5 pass completions has gone for a touchdown.

"Coach Young's bottom-line philosophy has always been to improve the senior quarterback's skills," says Herrmann. "He constantly stresses improvement. As I look back on my career, I guess that's what I've mainly been concerned with...trying to improve with every game."

The one area Herrmann has tried hardest to show improvement in is cutting down on his interceptions. He has an NCAA career record 49 interceptions, but 27 of those were as a freshman. He's steadily improved and he's been picked off just 13 times so far this year.

"I did at one time become paranoid about interceptions, but lately I've realized when your offense is designed around the pass, you're going to have those interceptions," Herrmann says. "I really try not to let them get me down as much as they used to."

"I don't mind all the attention any more. That goes with being a quarterback, I guess. It has bothered me, because I was afraid of what my teammates might think. But I've been on the other side of the coin. I was booed last year when we played Northwestern, so I guess the badd comes with the good."

For his career, one out of every 8.5 pass completions has gone for a touchdown.

"Coach Young's bottom-line philosophy has always been to improve the senior quarterback's skills," says Herrmann. "He constantly stresses improvement. As I look back on my career, I guess that's what I've mainly been concerned with...trying to improve with every game."

The one area Herrmann has tried hardest to show improvement in is cutting down on his interceptions. He has an NCAA career record 49 interceptions, but 27 of those were as a freshman. He's steadily improved and he's been picked off just 13 times so far this year.

"I did at one time become paranoid about interceptions, but lately I've realized when your offense is designed around the pass, you're going to have those interceptions," Herrmann says. "I really try not to let them get me down as much as they used to."

"I don't mind all the attention any more. That goes with being a quarterback, I guess. It has bothered me, because I was afraid of what my teammates might think. But I've been on the other side of the coin. I was booed last year when we played Northwestern, so I guess the badd comes with the good."

For his career, one out of every 8.5 pass completions has gone for a touchdown.

"Coach Young's bottom-line philosophy has always been to improve the senior quarterback's skills," says Herrmann. "He constantly stresses improvement. As I look back on my career, I guess that's what I've mainly been concerned with...trying to improve with every game."

The one area Herrmann has tried hardest to show improvement in is cutting down on his interceptions. He has an NCAA career record 49 interceptions, but 27 of those were as a freshman. He's steadily improved and he's been picked off just 13 times so far this year.

"I did at one time become paranoid about interceptions, but lately I've realized when your offense is designed around the pass, you're going to have those interceptions," Herrmann says. "I really try not to let them get me down as much as they used to."

"I don't mind all the attention any more. That goes with being a quarterback, I guess. It has bothered me, because I was afraid of what my teammates might think. But I've been on the other side of the coin. I was booed last year when we played Northwestern, so I guess the badd comes with the good."

For his career, one out of every 8.5 pass completions has gone for a touchdown.
Both quarterback Mike County and tailback Phil Carter may return to the starting line-up for Saturday's battle with Alabama. County had been replaced by freshman Blair Kidd as the starting quarterback, but saw extensive action as Kidd's replacement in the Georgia Tech game. Carter, who sustained a severely bruised thigh against Michigan State on Oct. 3, is fully healed and should battle Jim Stone for the starting position.

By Joe Moonhill

THE MUSIC BOX 120 W. Mishawaka Ave. Mish, IN (265-5440)

Lots to see at the best new club in town, with the best entertainment around:

THE MUSIC BOX 120 W. Mishawaka Ave. Mish, IN (265-5440)

Nov. 12 — Free Spirit
Nov. 13 — Jeff Lorberfusfon with Free Spirit
Nov. 14 — New Grass Revival with Pink & the Naturals

The announcement offered no explanation as to why The Observer chose to print the story about football players. The Observer, a local newspaper, is known for its coverage of sports events. The story mentions the starting line-up for Saturday's battle with Alabama and talks about the possibility of quarterback Mike County and tailback Phil Carter returning to the starting line-up.

---

"The Little Blue Nun"

Editor's note: The following is a song composed by "Bama fan after Notre Dame's 1978 national championship victory over Texas.

THE LITTLE BLUE NUN

Well, the AP and UP have announced their final pick, Here in Alabama, we're all just a little sick Because we thought they would reward us for the kind of job we've done When we romped and stomped Ohio State, they'd make us No. 1

(Then I seen the vote counters. It was two priests, a bishop, four cardinals and a little blue nun).

CHORUS:

We can beat 'em on the gridiron, we can beat 'em fair and square, We can lick 'em fit and proper but we haven't got a car to take, "Cause you gotta know for certain that there's n't any hope When you gotta lick Ohio State and then take on the Pope. Now both of the half games started, we were 3, Irish 5, No. 1 and 2 teams saw their chances take a dive. The Crimson Tide had rolled a first, even Woody Hayes agreed — That 5 to 6 had put us solid in the lead.

(And there's no doubt that we're a winner, and they're quitters."

Well, to make this story simple, we just like we've been had, But you rugger Crimson Tigger really shouldn't feel so bad, What if they said Notre Dame was first, and we were No. 2, We just had football players — They called in You-Know-Who Capers of "The Little Blue Nun" and "The Little Blue Nun Reprise" may be obtained from The Big Brother/Big Sister of St. Joseph County, Inc., 1101 E. Madison Street, South Bend, Indiana 46617, (219) 232-9958.

Devine and the 'Bear' aim for No. 1

By Joe Moonhill

AP Sports Writer

CHICAGO (ap) — coaches Bear Bryant of Alabama and Dan Devine of Notre Dame, both of whom have been there, would go anywhere at anytime if it meant a shot at being No. 1 again.

"No. 1 is still possible, yes," Bryant told the Chicago Foot- ball Writers in a telephone in- view Tuesday prior to Satur- day's nationally televised battle against Notre Dame in Birmingham.

Our only chance would be for Georgia to go through the Sugar Bowl and for us to play them there," said Bryant whose team had been No. 1 before losing to Mississippi State two weeks ago.

Devine, whose Irish had taken over the No. 1 spot from Alabama only to lose it to Georgia this week following last Saturday's 3-3 tie with Georgia Tech, also envisioned a possible bowl game against Georgia.

"Our destiny in the polls will be determined by what we do against Alabama and Southern Cal and whenever we play if we pay in a bowl game," said Devine.

If Georgia were No. 1 and we had a chance to play them, we'd put on the molekins or the uniforms and jump at the chance to play them," added Devine.

But first there is Saturday's game between No. 3 Alabama and No. 5 Notre Dame and Bryant's chance for his first victory over the Irish who defeated the Crimson Tide 24-23 in the Sugar Bowl in 1973, 15-11 in the Orange Bowl in 1974 and 21-18 in Bryant's Bowl in 1976.

"We've beaten them," Bryant said, "but we'd have liked to have them beat Georgia Tech because it would have been to our advantage. But that aligned them."

About this Saturday's game, Bryant said "you have to keep from losing before you can win. You need good defense and a good kicking game and keep the mistakes down.

"My biggest worry Saturday is that one of their big line- men might run out of bounds and roll over me," said Bryant. Heck, I want to be around for a while. They've got an awesome defense..."

Would Bryant like to meet Notre Dame in a postseason game?

"If they beat us this Saturday I'd go anywhere to play them, even Elkhart, Indiana," said the Bear, "but if we win, no, I wouldn't want to play them again."

As questions about the upcoming game, Bryant chuckled and said "I'm not planning on telling all the writers in the Midwest what we're going to do. What we hope to do is to do what they are not expecting us to do,"

(continued from page 1)

An effort last week to draw Iran into indirect negotiations through the Algerian ambas- sador had made little headway, Christopher, Deputy Treasury Secretary Robert C. Byrd, and the others were sent to Algiers early Monday morning to try to spice up the process.

The discussions in Algiers were described by the State Depart- ment as "intensive and useful." The announcement offered no details, and spokesman John F. Truettner turned aside all ques- tions after reading it before television cameras.

Abdelkarim Onerafti, Algeria's ambassador to Iran who took part in the talks with Deputy Secretary of State Warren Christopher, was to fly to Tehran today to submit the U.S. reply, according to informed sources here.

Christopher and his delegation left for Washington at 2:59 p.m. EST, without comment, on a special Air Force plane.

The deputy secretary of state gave the Algerians a formal note containing the U.S. reply to Iran's arrival from Washington on Monday.
Student basketball tickets may be picked up at the second floor ticket window of the ACC from 8:30 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. on Monday following the schedule. Schedule, Wednesday, November 12, and Freshmen, Thursday, November 13. From Friday, November 14 until Wednesday, November 19 students who are not able to pick up tickets on scheduled days may contact their tickets. Any tickets unclaimed by Nov. 19 will be forfeited by the student and a refund rendered. There will be a limit of four (4) tickets per person. Since a high demand exists this year some juniors have been forfeited to the bleacher section. A list of juniors forfeited to the seating chart was published in the Nov. 7, Observer. Any student interested in purchasing the Nov. 20 game with the Polish National Team may do so at the Box Office from Nov. 10 to Nov. 17 unencumbered to the general public for tickets that will go on sale for the general public.

Dr. Tom Kelly and the interhall office are looking for students to referee the upcoming interhall basketball games. This is a paid position and interested students are asked to call 6100 as soon as possible. Official clinics will begin after Thanksgiving.

A pep rally will be held tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. in St. Ignatius Center. Guest speakers will include Coach John Devine, Tom Gibbon, John Sweeney and John Scully. Rumor has it you may be blowing off studying for an hour, but this is THE ALABAMA PEP PARTY!
In hockey
Bellomy: Irish Mr. Hustle

by Jim Prater
Sports Writer

What are the chances of someone from Knox­ville, Tenn. playing college hockey at the University of Notre Dame? At 6-feet and 172 pounds, Chuck Aragon is back in the game with the Irish.

The 37-year-old former star has been an individ­ual capable of matching the feat of Notre Dame's first national champion, Frank Carroll, who was the nation's leading scorer in 1936.

Aragon appears on the verge of putting the Irish in consideration as one of the top teams in the nation. Since the Irish prevailed 21-18 in that 1976 showdown.

The Irish have beaten Alabama in the only three meetings between the two schools. In their first-ever confrontation in the 1973 Sugar Bowl, Notre Dame claimed a tight one-point win, 24-23. In the 1975 Orange Bowl, the Irish managed a two-point decision, 13-11. And in that only regular season matchup in 1976, the Irish walked away with a three point victory.

Thus, it's Notre Dame by four this year. Move over Parseghian, says sophomore center James Reinhart - a runner up in the 1978 All-America voting, a player who's primarily a defensive specialist.

"It's A MIRACLE!" - Seven years ago when Alabama and Notre Dame faced each other in the Sugar Bowl to decide the national championship, some Tide fans, who had a warped sense of their leader's powers, were selling pictures outside the stadium of "Bear" Bryant walking on water. As someone in the Irish party handed Aran Parseghian a copy of the photo, Parseghian replied, "quick, get me five hot dogs and two cans of Pepsi, I have a few alumni to feed."

TAKE A NUMBER - The Irish defense continues to blaze new trails of stingsitivity. They have not surrendered a touchdown in 16 games, a record which didn't allow a touchdown on the ground in 20 years.

Irish foes have managed nine scoring drives to date, Bellomy has fumbled nine times total in the loss as well.

A glance at the national numbers reveal that the Irish are fifth in total defense (223.0 yards per game), rushing defense (96.0 yards per game) and scoring defense (101.1 points per game).

Over the last four weeks, the Irish have held their opponents to averages of 77.5 yards on the ground and 151.3 total yards.

AND SWEET, AND TASTY - of the stronger rushing games and two of the weaker passing games, the Crimson Tide boasts two of the stronger rushing games and two of the weaker passing games.

Alabama's rushing offense, although down from last week, is averaging 267.5 yards, good for 12th nationally. "Bama, who has run the ball 86 percent of the time, high in the country's top three in rushing at 319.2 yards per game. The Tide has completed only .33 passes in nine games thus far, while the Irish have managed 64 in eight contests.

STARTING FROM SCRATCH - Since neither managed to gain 100 yards vs. the Ramblin' Upsets, both Jim Stone's and Phil Carter's consecutive 100-yard game rushing streaks have ended. Stone set a new school standard of four straight, while Carter equalled that mark in three straight.

Stone has averaged 149.4 yards in five starts this year. Despite the fact that his season average dipped to 10.2 over the weekend, he is still leading the Irish in rushing with 301 yards on 59 carries.

This season, the Crimson Tide was held below 100 yards in rushing in two of its last four games.

Bellomy has already set Notre Dame's placekicker Harry Byrne's record 75 points in a season, all from field goals. At least Coach Piane seems to think so.

"The top five individuals not on the top four teams will go to the finals," explained Piane. "Last year, the last guy to qualify came in tenth place and I know Chuck can run that well."

The three results have improved noticeably compared to last season's, attributed to his success thus far to an intensified summer conditioning program.

"Weight training was new for me this summer," he said. "And the fact that I was more consistent with my road work (nine to ten miles a day) have made me a lot stronger."

He is hoping the pain barriers he's continued to go through in his training this fall may pay off in an NCAA final invitation this Saturday. With the added stamina in his legs, he feels like I didn't run a real competitive effort until last week.

At Notre Dame's double-dual meet last Saturday, driving for Bowling Green and Northern Illinois, Bellomy earned a spot on the dual team, 11 seconds behind Greg Domansky's (N.L) winning time of 24:29.

"I ran with a guy the whole way at Bowling Green and if I run as competitively as I did there," said Aragon, "I could qualify (for the NCAA finals in Wichita, Kan.). At least Coach Piane seems to think so.

The top five individuals not on the top four teams will go to the finals," explained Piane. "Last year, the last guy to qualify came in tenth place and I know Chuck can run that well."

One of the key players for Notre Dame in making its bid for the NCAA championships, Aragon, one of a limited contingent of Irish students from the state of New Mexico, said, "If you lack experience, you can't have consistency as a sprinter. Although I lacked maturity, and racing savvy is something that only comes with experience. If I could have only kept up with her, I'd like to see how we'd do then."

From week to week, Aragon has found himself alone in front of the Notre Dame pace, with occasional assistance from Piane's freshest crew of barely tapped potential in Ralphie, Caron, Andy Dillon, Dan Walsh, and Tim Norvak. However, Aragon has not been overly pleased with his own performances to date.

"I'm still looking for what I consider a good race," he said. "It's the same with track because I'm never satisfied there, either. When the team doesn't do well, I guess I feel even less satisfied. Although I've been training well and have had a good position for the track season, I feel like I didn't run a real competitive effort until last week."

At Notre Dame's double-dual meet last Saturday, driving for Bowling Green and Northern Illinois, Aragon earned a spot on the dual team, 11 seconds behind Greg Domansky's (N.L) winning time of 24:29.

"I ran with a guy the whole way at Bowling Green and if I run as competitively as I did there," said Aragon, "I could qualify (for the NCAA finals in Wichita, Kan.). I can't always rely on my legs or my speed, so I try to make up for that with my speed.

But constant training gives me the opportunity to be around the pack more and I'm happy because of it."

Bellomy doesn't single out a particular player on the team as being most influential because of the closeness of the squad.

"The whole team is extremely close and everybody is always offering encouragement. Not only the players, but the coaches and other student-athletes as well."

The key to Bellomy's success is always quick to offer encouragement. Not only does he give encouragement, but in his own way, he sets a good example for the younger players.

"Chuck is a guy who's primarily a defensive specialist. This is a guy who's primarily a defensive specialist. This is a guy who's primarily a defensive specialist. This is a guy who's primarily a defensive specialist. This is a guy who's primarily a defensive specialist. This is a guy who's primarily a defensive specialist. This is a guy who's primarily a defensive specialist. This is a guy who's primarily a defensive specialist. This is a guy who's primarily a defensive specialist. This is a guy who's primarily a defensive specialist. This is a guy who's primarily a defensive specialist. This is a guy who's primarily a defensive specialist. This is a guy who's primarily a defensive specialist. This is a guy who's primarily a defensive specialist. This is a guy who's primarily a defensive specialist. This is a guy who's primarily a defensive specialist.