Smith Hashagen, Eileen Hetterich and Julie Parrish, from left to right, won Friday's run-off election for vice president for student affairs, student body president and vice president for academic affairs, respectively. See story below.

Hetterich, Hashagen, Parrish win SMC student election

By KAREN WEBB
Copy Editor

The ticket of Eileen Hetterich and Julie Parrish won Friday's run-off election for Saint Mary's student body president, vice president for student affairs and vice president for academic affairs, respectively, defeating the opposing ticket of Sarah Koch, Janelle Hannam and Jill Winterhalter.

The Hetterich ticket won 52.4 percent of the total votes, while the Cook ticket captured 45.9 percent, according to Election Commissioner Sandy Cerimele. In the first election, the Cook ticket won 46 percent of the total votes while the Hetterich ticket had 36 percent. The winning ticket needed 50 percent of the total votes plus one vote, Cerimele said.

In the run-off election for next year's senior class officers, the ticket of Mary Kim Koch, Christine Schymik, Julie Baer and Nancy Kloe for president, vice president, treasurer and secretary, respectively, defeating Teresa Donegan, Lois Moranah, Angie Teeples and Kate McDevitt. According to Cerimele, the Koch ticket received 55 percent of the total votes, and the Donegan ticket received 47 percent, with 70 percent of the current junior class voting.

There will be a second run-off election for next year's junior class officers, as neither ticket received the majority vote. The ticket of Rose Pietrzak, Anne Palamaro, Katy Burner and Barb Gulliford received 50 percent of the total votes, and the ticket of Christy Wolfe, Michelle Agostino, Lisa LaMalfa and Tara Stermitz received 49 percent, with 59 percent of the current sophomore class voting.

SANDY CERIMELE: The Observer/Zoltan Ury

Scholastic hit with suspension

By TRIPP BALTZ and MARK PANKOWSKI
News Editors

Scholastic, Notre Dame's student magazine, has been suspended from publication by the Student Activities Office, according to a letter made available to The Observer late Sunday night.

The letter, dated Feb. 22, stated Scholastic was suspended because its editors "printed a photograph of an artistic work... (which) was removed from the fall edition of the Juggler by the Student Activities Office."

"The decision to run the photograph in the Scholastic was done without consultation with or permission from the Student Activities Office, which acts as publisher of the magazine, the letter said.

There was no indication early Monday morning as to how long the suspension would last.

see SUSPENSION, page 5

ND grad: Police use 'scare tactics'

By CHRIS BEDNARSKI
Assistant News Editor

Lawyers for an agency of the state of Indiana are "outraged" at reports of what they call "scare tactics" used by the South Bend Police Department when handing out alcohol violations at off-campus parties, according to 1986 Notre Dame graduate Kevin Flynn. Flynn said the agency, which he declined to identify, is investigating an incident in which three students were charged with public intoxication and another student with underage drinking. The agency is also investigating other incidents, he added.

The reports stem from the possible administration of breathalyzer tests without probable cause at a party on Mark Street last fall and the possible misuse of field tests, according to Flynn. The administration of the breathalyzer test, however, is the "main thing," he said.

According to the agency's lawyers, the events described by the students when having the test administered to them would constitute violations of Indiana law, said Flynn. The agency must now investigate whether or not the complaints were legitimate, he said. "They have to prove they were legitimate for anything to happen."

If the agency determines that the complaints are legitimate, they would initially only inform the city, Flynn said. "They wouldn't charge or sue the city," he added.

If the misuse of the breathalyzer tests continues, however, then the agency could "bring a lawsuit against the city," he said.

Fatherly advice

University President-elect Father Edward "Monk" Malloy delivers the homily at the Junior Parents' Weekend Mass in the ACC on Saturday. University President Father Hessburg was the Mass celebrant. More photos on page 9.

see ELECTION, page 4

Egg gadget - page 5

The Observer/Zoltan Ury

February 22, 1987

The Scholastic is a publication of the University of Notre Dame under the direction of the Student Activities Office. This relationship, the university acts in the capacity of publisher, as it also does with the Dome and the Juggler. Three publications are to operate under the same policies designed in accordance with the mission of Notre Dame. In this relationship, it is desirable to depict the Student Activities Office as an independent body, representing the student voice, and not the Student Activities Office, as publisher, is not external.

In the February 19, 1987, edition of the Scholastic, the editors printed a photograph of an artistic work by Nick Antonakis. This piece of work was removed from the fall edition of the Juggler by the Student Activities Office. The decision to run the photograph in the Scholastic was done without consultation with or permission from the Student Activities Office. Scholastic is under the same policies as the Juggler and the Dome. If the complaints to campus last fall for a football game. He said some of his friends complained about the way South Bend Police administered the tests.

After initially looking into the complaints, Flynn said he con­ lacted lawyers for the agency because he didn't know In­ diana's alcohol laws. Flynn said South Bend Police are biased against Notre Dame students because they only see their bad side. "I know some South Bend cops, he said. There is a real bias towards Notre Dame students. (The officers) would readily admit to it."

Flynn asks any student who feels his rights may have been violated to write to P.O. Box Q at The Observer.

see SCHOLASTIC, page 4
Oral Roberts: intentions good but credibility gone

Reverend Oral Roberts is having a bad year. Vicious rumors are out that his university testers on the verge of bankruptcy, as despite the popularity of this TV evangelist, word of mouth has it that Roberts is having trouble paying his bills.

To make matters worse, Roberts awoke from a peaceful sleep some weeks ago because of a divine summons of the type that fundamentalist prophets learned to dread. In a revelation Roberts reportedly heard the voice of God command him to raise eight million dollars by the first of April or face death.

When Roberts called the television congregation of this heaven-sent mission and turned to them for support, he apparently pushed his popularity too far. News reports originating in Tulsa, the Vatican City of Roberts' new breed of Christian fundamentalism, claimed the TV evangelist was outraged by the reverend's plea for ransom money. How could they believe that God had given Roberts a pecuniary ultimatum? For many it was simply beyond the limits of credibility.

All of this must have come as quite a blow to the poor old reverend. His intentions seemed as good as ever, that is, to raise money for a worthy cause, he apparently pushed his credibility gone. But last week the supernatural knocked once more at Roberts' door. While he dozed peacefully, he turned to the book on his bed and took a life threatening grasp of his throat. As Roberts tells it, while gasping for breath he somehow managed to yell for help. Moments later his wife arrived and promptly "reboke"d the devil by ordering him from the room.

The good Reverend Roberts is an American, and so unlike the Bhagwan of Oregon fame, he cannot be chased out of the country. He is perfectly free to continue his battle with the forces of the nethe world. In all likelihood he will continue to do so, his life is still officially on the line. Nevertheless, by this point friends and close associates must be suggesting a safer profession, perhaps insurance sales or real estate. The risks are simply not as great.

Jim Carroll
Photography Editor

The Observer is always looking for talent. If you have any, come to our offices and start working on your newspaper.

Monday, February 23, 1987 - page 2

Oral Roberts: intentions good but credibility gone

Reverend Oral Roberts is having a bad year. Vicious rumors are out that his university testers on the verge of bankruptcy, as despite the popularity of this TV evangelist, word of mouth has it that Roberts is having trouble paying his bills.

To make matters worse, Roberts awoke from a peaceful sleep some weeks ago because of a divine summons of the type that fundamentalist prophets learned to dread. In a revelation Roberts reportedly heard the voice of God command him to raise eight million dollars by the first of April or face death.

When Roberts called the television congregation of this heaven-sent mission and turned to them for support, he apparently pushed his popularity too far. News reports originating in Tulsa, the Vatican City of Roberts' new breed of Christian fundamentalism, claimed the TV evangelist was outraged by the reverend's plea for ransom money. How could they believe that God had given Roberts a pecuniary ultimatum? For many it was simply beyond the limits of credibility.

All of this must have come as quite a blow to the poor old reverend. His intentions seemed as good as ever, that is, to raise money for a worthy cause, he apparently pushed his credibility gone. But last week the supernatural knocked once more at Roberts' door. While he dozed peacefully, he turned to the book on his bed and took a life threatening grasp of his throat. As Roberts tells it, while gasping for breath he somehow managed to yell for help. Moments later his wife arrived and promptly "reboke"d the devil by ordering him from the room.

The good Reverend Roberts is an American, and so unlike the Bhagwan of Oregon fame, he cannot be chased out of the country. He is perfectly free to continue his battle with the forces of the nethe world. In all likelihood he will continue to do so, his life is still officially on the line. Nevertheless, by this point friends and close associates must be suggesting a safer profession, perhaps insurance sales or real estate. The risks are simply not as great.

Jim Carroll
Photography Editor

The Observer is always looking for talent. If you have any, come to our offices and start working on your newspaper.

Monday, February 23, 1987 - page 2

Oral Roberts: intentions good but credibility gone

Reverend Oral Roberts is having a bad year. Vicious rumors are out that his university testers on the verge of bankruptcy, as despite the popularity of this TV evangelist, word of mouth has it that Roberts is having trouble paying his bills.

To make matters worse, Roberts awoke from a peaceful sleep some weeks ago because of a divine summons of the type that fundamentalist prophets learned to dread. In a revelation Roberts reportedly heard the voice of God command him to raise eight million dollars by the first of April or face death.

When Roberts called the television congregation of this heaven-sent mission and turned to them for support, he apparently pushed his popularity too far. News reports originating in Tulsa, the Vatican City of Roberts' new breed of Christian fundamentalism, claimed the TV evangelist was outraged by the reverend's plea for ransom money. How could they believe that God had given Roberts a pecuniary ultimatum? For many it was simply beyond the limits of credibility.

All of this must have come as quite a blow to the poor old reverend. His intentions seemed as good as ever, that is, to raise money for a worthy cause, he apparently pushed his credibility gone. But last week the supernatural knocked once more at Roberts' door. While he dozed peacefully, he turned to the book on his bed and took a life threatening grasp of his throat. As Roberts tells it, while gasping for breath he somehow managed to yell for help. Moments later his wife arrived and promptly "reboke"d the devil by ordering him from the room.

The good Reverend Roberts is an American, and so unlike the Bhagwan of Oregon fame, he cannot be chased out of the country. He is perfectly free to continue his battle with the forces of the nethe world. In all likelihood he will continue to do so, his life is still officially on the line. Nevertheless, by this point friends and close associates must be suggesting a safer profession, perhaps insurance sales or real estate. The risks are simply not as great.
General Directions

Attorney General Edwin Meese speaks at a Washington news conference where guidelines were released for federal employee drug testing. Meese said the focus of the testing program is to rehabilitate drug users.

Reagan puts 'Star Wars' talks on hold

WASHINGTON - President Reagan, apparently edging toward a decision to approve new tests of "Star Wars" technology, has directed U.S. negotiators to temporarily defer talks with the Soviet Union on space-based defenses, an administration official said Sunday.

An order signed by Reagan last week puts the negotiations in Geneva on a "temporary hold" until consultations are held with foreign governments and with Congress, the official told The Associated Press.

The consultations are due to begin early this week. Reagan is sending Paul Nitze and Richard Perle to meet with leaders of six Western European countries, while Edward Rowen, his senior arms control adviser, leaves Tuesday for China, Japan, South Korea and Australia.

The three U.S. weapons experts are due to return home by next weekend, indicating a decision by Reagan on the controversial tests is likely by mid-March.

Nitze is the senior arms control adviser, while Perle is the assistant secretary of defense for international security policy and a leading proponent of the Star Wars program, known formally as the Strategic Defense Initiative, or SDI.

They will depart today or Tuesday and go to Belgium, Britain, France, Italy, The Netherlands and West Germany.

Seniors

Be a missioner for one year, teaching English in Kyoto, Japan

Find out more from Father McDonnell

Tues. Feb. 24 & Wed. Feb. 25 9-4 p.m.

Contact MaryAnn Roemer 289-7949

Steamboat Ski Trip

Spring Break

259.00 Total Deposit

$100

Call Jeff 3660 or Joe 1190

SAB sponsored

Only 5 spaces left!
Election
continued from page 1

voting.
The run-off election for the junior class officers will be held Tuesday at Haggar College
Center from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m.
Commenting on the student body election, Hetterich said,
"To be honest, being 16 percent behind (in the first election), it came as a big surprise. And 52.4 percent is still close."

All members of the Hetterich ticket agreed they were very excited about the victory, with Hashagen adding . . . and extremely shocked."

Hashagen said they attribute their victory to "hard work and knowing what the students want."

"I think it was, like it said in The Observer (endorsement), our approachability . . . I think people just felt maybe a little more comfortable with us."

She added, "We were happy
we got the Ann Rutger (ticket's) support (after the first election)."

Hetterich said, "The first thing we want to do is go out and get in touch with the students. We really want to let people know that they can come to us."

Parrish said one of her office priorities will be to continue to pursue current Vice President for Student Affairs Betty Burke's work on negotiating senior comprehensive exam policies with the Saint Mary's administration.

All three officers-elect also emphasized the necessity of all aspects of student government working together with the administration, with Parrish stressing "mutual support."

Hetterich, Hashagen and Parrish will replace Student Body President Jeanne Heller,
Vice President for Student Affairs Sarah Cook and Vice President for Academic Affairs Betty Burke on April 1.

According to Cernmole, 50 percent of the student body voted in the elections. "It was the biggest election turnout that we've seen in years. We're impressed with the student body's participation," she said.

Cook said, "I'll lend my support to student government always, but I don't know how directly." She said she plans to pursue "other things on campus that I want to get involved with but never had the time for before," as well as programs that she currently supports.

Winterhalter said she plans to stay involved with student government, possibly applying for a position on senior board.

"Even if I don't get a position,
I will continue to get involved," she said.

She added she has confidence in the officers-elect. "All three are very good leaders."

Student Body President
Jeanne Heller said the Hettrich ticket has a challenge before them based on their campaign slogan of
"Changes."

"I think we've set up a good base this year. It will be interesting to see what changes they will make," Heller said. She added that student government awareness has increased this past year, evidenced by the high voter turnout.

ND AVE APTS.
Early Bird Special

Now renting for Fall
2 Bedrooms completely furnished

Sign up before break and receive a 10% discount
Call 234-6647

Protected by Pinkerton Security Agency

Dazzling Dinner Decorum

Students set up tables in the north Dome of the ents' Weekend.

AC& before the cocktail dance for Junior Par-

The Observer/Zoltan Ury
Suspension continued from page 1

The letter stated, however, that "during the suspension, new operating procedures are to be drawn up addressing proper production schedules to assure against further incidents."

Scholastic Managing Editor Keith Harrison said, "We are trying to contact (Vice President for Student Affairs) Father Tyson and until then we have no comment."

Scholastic Editor Maher Mouasher declined comment.

The letter was made available to The Observer at approximately 11 p.m. Sunday by Director of Student Activities Joseph Cassidy, who declined comment.

Scholastic printed the photo of the artistic work, which appears to be of a man and woman embraced in a sexual act, in its Feb. 19 issue.

The photo originally was removed from Juggler's fall edition. In its place, Juggler printed a different piece of art work, along with the statement "Original choice censored by the Office of Student Activities."

According to Cassidy's letter, Scholastic is subject to "the same policies as the Juggler." Because Scholastic editors "operated contrary to these policies, operations of the Scholastic will be suspended immediately."

Notre Dame's student handbook du Lac states "student publications should be free of censorship and advance approval of copy, and their editors and managers should be free to develop their own editorial policies and news coverage." At the same time, this editorial freedom entails the corollary responsibility to be governed by the canons of responsible journalism and allow for the expression of various points of view."

Cassidy's letter states that "it is unrealistic to depict the Student Activities Office as censor since censorship is an external influence and the Student Activities Office, as publisher, is not external."

---

Back to nature

Two hikers soak up the sun while picnicking on icy shores along the New Meadows River in West Bath, Maine.

---

Purdue students engineer egg gadget

Associated Press

WEST LAFAYETTE, Ind. - Some say breakfast is the most important meal of the day, but it can also be the most complicated, if you ask some Purdue University engineering students.

Five teams of students entered contraptions Saturday in the annual Rube Goldberg contest, which this year challenged entrants to find the most complicated way to fry an egg.

The rules called for a minimum of 25 steps, all done in less than four minutes.

The winner: The "Strategic Egg Initiative" developed by a team calling itself "Moments of Inertia: the Final Chapter." The winners took 33 steps to pop an egg into a frying pan, and their device featured gadgets known as a Purdue Nonlinear Eggcelerator, Agent Grapefruit and a Wishing Wok. There also was a Banana Helper - a guillotine that made fast work of slicing bananas.

The team added extra steps to prepare hearty side dishes, such as grapefruit juice and a bowl of cereal with the sliced bananas and milk.

"We built it backwards, from the last step. The last step has to work," said Jarvis Tous, a member of the winning team.

"The hard part is putting everything together and getting the timing to work."

---

Pop artist Warhol dies in hospital

Associated Press

NEW YORK - Andy Warhol, the pale prince of Pop Art who turned images of soup cans and superstars into museum pieces, died Sunday of a heart attack.

Warhol, who was believed to be 58, died at New York Hospital a day after undergoing gall bladder surgery. A cardiac arrest team worked unsuccessfully for an hour to save him.

Slender, pallid and soft-spoken, instantly recognisable in his blond wig, Warhol abandoned a successful career as a commercial illustrator in the 1950s to gain worldwide fame as the principal exponent of the Pop Art movement.

He won fame in the early 1960s by producing repeated silk-screen images of commonplace items such as Campbell's soup cans, and went on to establish himself as the emotionless recorder of the images of his day.

Warhol was an iconoclast and an eccentric, rejecting accepted concepts of art, society and behavior.
University-run committee could aid student life

Brice Lohman

guest column

Actually SG is both a total waste of time and a fruitful expenditure of one's energies for the betterment of our community. Confused? So am I. With four years of activities behind me, I still don't know if any of my efforts have been worthwhile. Most often I think that I have contributed to Notre Dame in some small, yet imperceptible way. Other times, however, I realize that I should have spent more time trying to educate myself. Should I have listened more frequently to my roommate, "President" advice to you, Bruce, is to start drinking. I should have listened. He's right.

Can we do anything to help SG? Yes, we can. SG can become a proud, effective organization if three easy steps are taken. I will try to describe the first step today.

What does SG really do? I believe that most students do not know. But almost everyone knows what they think SG does. Most students think that SG works to improve student life, or to be more specific, student life which falls under the title student affairs. Most students think that SG is incapable of getting anything accomplished in this area. SG is broken down. Most students are correct in their thinking.

What can we, as students, do to fix SG? Well, at least a good start can be made. No matter what we do, SG is as effective as it will ever be. Remember that we are presently using Crayolas as our main instrument of communication.

Should we just quit? How our heads in shame that we ever thought that SG could do important things? Drink heavily and wash away the despair.

Not yet. Let us put our egos aside for a moment. Is there anyone in our community who can reanimate SG? Of course, there is. Who? The Administration. SG can be an effective organization only as the result of students fulfilling expectations.

So, what if the Administration is not willing to make this first step? (for reasons why they probably will not want to extend this invitation, I refer you to a fine column "Where Captains Meet the Industry Sink," by R.C Longworth of the Chicago Tribune.) One possibility is to just keep urging informal invitations which already exist. These would be the CLC, the Student Senate, the cabinet members, and anyone else who might take the time to try to communicate with the Administration. Does this mean that we all have these in common? Whether your idea is accepted or not depends on the whim of those who sit in the Dome. (Many things are influential in their decisions: alumni donations, parents' letters, whether breakfast settled properly, etc.) Honestly, I believe that a college student has a little more power than most students think SG is dead now. So, I reject this option.

Three options remain, all of which are as acceptable as any of the others. 1. Party more and forget about it. 2. Redirect your energies into your own dorm. Your hall president and recreant could probably use your help. 3. Redirect you energies to those areas where a formal invitation already exists.

The Administration has given plenty of formal invitations. I simply forgot one. Unfortunately, the one they which forgot is what most students think important. It is the one party that most students think SG should be attending.

At present, we can only watch this party through the windows. Sometimes, the Administration will throw us a piece of cake. Most often, they tell us to go home and study. SG needs to stop feeling sorry about its sad condition. Stand up and ask for an invitation. We don't want to be invited because we are students and, as such, deserve to be invited. We, the students, are an asset of the University. An unused asset.

Bruce Lohman is the coordinator of student reports to the Notre Dame Board of Trustees.

Dome's dirty condition inhibits proper tribute

Deep Editor-

What is the first image brought to mind when people speak of Notre Dame? For many, like myself, it is of the dazzling Golden Dome supporting the Administartion Building at the very center of our beautiful campus and the administrative center of the university? What kind of impression does this neglect make upon our visitors? Donesay the administrators that the dome is cleaned at regular intervals and it is not yet time for its refinishing? Would a corporation neglect to replace damaged equipment because it has reached the end of its expected useful life at the time? When the Grotto was all but destroyed by fire in 1985, it received prompt publicity and a reconstructive attention. It would not be permitted to remain in shambles. Is it not improper, also, that our Golden Dome should remain in such neglected condition?

Costs must not deter the university from refurbishing our nationally renowned Golden Dome. Do not let it be said that the University of Notre Dame is too cheap to pay proper respect to its patron saint.

David Dietz
Kean Hall

Quote of the day

"Striving for success without hard work is like trying to harvest where you haven't planted."

David Bly
Salt Lake City Desert News
The duties of a class officer are outlined

Somebody help me! I am suffering from the senior election blues. This is the time of year that I have not neglected my studies for more than a week, have not impressed my election aspirations on my friends, have not inspected every dorm on campus, and have not de­signed campaign materials, including the obvious buttons. I still fail to sleep enough, but that's college. What allows me is the realization that my Student Government experience is ending, but that also means that other enthusiastic students will be able to benefit from the leadership experience as I did. I would like to commend those who worked to enroll other students into the offices that I held for three years. I loved all of it.

David Miklos

P.O.Box 9

Police should combat crime instead of parties

Dear Editor:
Much to my dismay I happened upon and read in the Feb. 13 Observer re­garding the problems of living off­campus. In response to that article, let me address the residents of the Northeast neighborhood: Notre Dame students will live off-campus, and that is as much their town as it is yours. Second, Notre Dame students aren’t irrevocably linked to dangerous and illegal behaviors. You don’t seem to think. We don’t rape, kill, rob people at gun point or burglary homes. These, however, seem to be regular occurrences in your “precious” neighborhood which Notre Dame students fall victim to. If you really are so concerned about the quality of your life then start living off-campus, you will be the only neighborhood that would appreciate the fact that your student neighbors attend a small, private Catholic institution and not an out-of-state public university. As far as reasoning, that may well be the fate the neighborhood deserves. “Say hello to your new neighbors and goodbye to the campus”

I would like next to address myself to those so well respected South Bend officers of the law. I guess you guys never went to college. You can’t seem to tell the difference between hanging out and having a good time and the real crime which plagues these streets. Your attacks of students can’t tell the difference. Go ahead and polish up your night sticks and practice some self defense.

In conclusion, I would like to add that I myself am an off-campus student. So far this year our house has been broken into five times, the stereo was ripped out of my car, and rocks have been thrown through our windows. It shouldn’t be surprising that none of these times was by one of those fine, upstanding South Bend police officers there to protect our rights, nor were any of our “concerned neighbors.” It seems, however, that whenever I go to a party, a wave of club-wielding, life-threatening puppets show up. And they weren’t even invited.

Margaret Keough

Leon Kennedy

Off-Campus

Manic depression may take different avenues

Dear Editor:
I read with interest Mary Jacoby’s inside column of the Feb. 16th Observer on a childhood friend whom doctors diagnosed a manic depressive. Bipolar disorders have generated a lot of interest lately. I fear, however, that some readers of Jacoby’s story may make false conclusions about the nature of these disorders. My brother was diagnosed a manic depressive two years ago. I know that the misconceptions he’s had to face. In writing this, I aim to clarify. In no way do I criticize Mary Jacoby’s article.

Not all manic depressives ‘go crazy’.

In my brother’s case, a usually happy boy began experiencing sudden and extreme mood swings. One minute he would be ecstatic; the next he might come to me crying, searching for someone to reassure him that his world was not falling apart. What most bothered him, I think, was he never knew why he felt what he did; his moods were unpredictable and often times unexplainable.

When my brother’s mood swings grew increasingly unpredictable and intense, his doctor hospitalized him. Psychiatrists discovered that in his case a chemical imbalance caused the disorder. They administered the drug Lithium, and monitored him for reactions. He improved steadily, and after two weeks was discharged.

I infer, perhaps incorrectly, from Jacoby’s story that her friend committed suicide. Not all manic depressives suffer the clear and distinct mood changes and different symptoms. His mood swings were different, I am sure, and his hospitalizations were absolutely short­lived. Mary Jacoby’s friend was less fortunate. Many manic depressives do often recover from their disorders, and go on to live normal, happy lives.

Margaret Egan

Lewis Hall

NVA thanks students for ‘late night’ support

Dear Editor:
The department of NVA wishes to thank all of the Notre Dame and Saint Mary’s students who participated in the Late Night Olympics a week ago. With your help, we had a great event and raised over $1700 for the St. Joseph County Special Olympics.

Thank you for your support and interest in what we hope will be an annual event.

Sally Derengowski

Assistant Director

Non-Varsity Athletics

Viewpoint would like occasionally to highlight quotes from faculty members, students, and readers. So if you or someone you know says something intellectually stimulating, brilliantly funny, or clearly pertinent, send the quote to P.O.Box Q, Viewpoint Department, Notre Dame, IN 46556.

Monday, February 23, 1987 - page 7

The Observer is the independent newspaper published by the students of the University of Notre Dame and Saint Mary’s College. It does not necessarily reflect the policies of the Student Government Association. The views of our columnists represent the views of their authors. Column space is available to all members of the community and the free expression of varying opinions on campus, through letters, is encouraged.

General Board

Editor-in-Chief Joe Murphy
Managing Editor Chris Bowler
Viewpoint Editor Tony Bock
Sports Editor Christopher Murphy
Arts & Entertainment Editor Dawn Connolly
Accent Editor Mary Jacoby
Inkwell Editor Margaret Keough
News Editor Mark Pincusowski

Business Manager Eric Schaumann
Photography Editor James Carroll
Adviser Adm. John I. D’Amore
Advertising Manager Amy Carol Clowdon
Advertising Director Anne A. Mulligan
Marketing Manager Mark McLaughlin
Non-Varsity Athletics Director Melissa Wysocki
Senior Account Executive Jeanelle Reider
Marketing Director Cheryl Panacek
Managing Director Shrew Sexton
Control Executive Alex Voorhees
Graphic Arts Manager Mark Weinfurt
In the past when asked my name, I've tried to rep-y by "Walsh. Kevin Walsh." For a while I tried to pretend that my name had the same resonance as James Bond's, but I was wrong. Of course.

Some names just don't work as well as others. It's a pitiful

Kevin Walsh

Behind the screen door

fact of life. Your name is the luck of the draw. Take Elvis Presley, for example. The name Elvis is unforgottatable and could have been a condemnation as easily as it was a blessing. It helped his career. But what if Elvis' mom had decided to call him Seymour? Seymour Aaron Presley. His shirts would have been initialized SAP and for good reason. I don't think Seymour is a major rock 'n roll star. The nick-could not have been more.

Once

ovelyly, "Walsh.

I

Marsha

astronauts

can safely be abolished. All the names of the Brady kids can be counted among the

missgings. There is no name especially somebody Bobby, or Cindy, or Marsha in good conscience??

No. The names of all the astronauts (Buzz, Gordon) and both Wright brothers (Wilbur) are being tipped a little higher than they should be. For guys, names like Beckett, Claude, Edgar, Herbert and Leonard imply the use of an eighteen-wheel weight in station for the morning weight check.

HILLBILLY NAMES: These are worthy of the granddown, perfectly fine names stuck together for unknown reasons, like Bobbie and Daisy Mac. We're really playing with fire when we talk about compound names because they suggest serious defects of character. Defects like wars, genetic inferiority or turning into one of the Wallets without warning are implied in compound names. Even if you're not like that, after a few years, people will think you are.

NAMES THAT YOU

WOULDN'T WANT TO HEAR ON A REGULAR BASIS: I used to know somebody named Gay. No joke. How do you get somebody named Gay? "Hey, Gay?" "No. Having a good day, Gay?" I considered if the deficiencies in her character were caused by having to sight that every day.

Think about it.

DON'T TRY TO LIKE THE SOUND OF IT. This is a great,

People who name their kids

Milton or Claudia just because they "always thought it's pretty." It's a pretty twisted way tentatively. His face would turn

red. Everybody in the class

would know.

"Um, here," he would reply,

then in the manner of a bruised puppy, he'd add, "Uh, I like to be called Andy..." Once he went over the brink. "IT'S GERMAN, OK?? IT'S NOT ONLY A GIRL'S NAME!!" Then he began babbling things like "it's only a name..." and "...it's all my parent's fault..." It was not pretty. I think somebody told me he's a wanted criminal now. Another pathetic case of being stigmatized by a name.

CUTE NAMES: Does anybody realize what hell it would be to be named something cute like Robby or Laurie? Initial names sometimes get too little cute too.

No J.O.S. or A.O.'s allowed.

JUST FLAM FUGLY NAMES: Claire, Claudia, Eleanor, Ethel, and Harriet as serious names should be wiped off the face of the earth. Who can take a Henny, Lester or Theodore.

NAMES WITH NICKNAMES: Don't name your kid Richard, Chip, Art, Dick, Jack or Chuck. Don't.

STAY AWAY FROM THE SOUND OF IT. This is a great

People who name their kids

Milton or Claudia just because they "always thought it's pretty." It's a pretty twisted way tentatively. His face would turn

red. Everybody in the class

would know.

"Um, here," he would reply,

then in the manner of a bruised puppy, he'd add, "Uh, I like to be called Andy..." Once he went over the brink. "IT'S GERMAN, OK?? IT'S NOT ONLY A GIRL'S NAME!!" Then he began babbling things like "it's only a name..." and "...it's all my parent's fault..." It was not pretty. I think somebody told me he's a wanted criminal now. Another pathetic case of being stigmatized by a name.

CUTE NAMES: Does anybody realize what hell it would be to be named something cute like Robby or Laurie? Initial names sometimes get too little cute too.

No J.O.S. or A.O.'s allowed.

JUST FLAM FUGLY NAMES: Claire, Claudia, Eleanor, Ethel, and Harriet as serious names should be wiped off the face of the earth. Who can take a Henny, Lester or Theodore.

NAMES WITH NICKNAMES: Don't name your kid Richard, Chip, Art, Dick, Jack or Chuck. Don't.

STAY AWAY FROM THE SOUND OF IT. This is a great

People who name their kids

Milton or Claudia just because they "always thought it's pretty." It's a pretty twisted way tentatively. His face would turn

red. Everybody in the class

would know.

"Um, here," he would reply,

then in the manner of a bruised puppy, he'd add, "Uh, I like to be called Andy..." Once he went over the brink. "IT'S GERMAN, OK?? IT'S NOT ONLY A GIRL'S NAME!!" Then he began babbling things like "it's only a name..." and "...it's all my parent's fault..." It was not pretty. I think somebody told me he's a wanted criminal now. Another pathetic case of being stigmatized by a name.

CUTE NAMES: Does anybody realize what hell it would be to be named something cute like Robby or Laurie? Initial names sometimes get too little cute too.

No J.O.S. or A.O.'s allowed.

JUST FLAM FUGLY NAMES: Claire, Claudia, Eleanor, Ethel, and Harriet as serious names should be wiped off the face of the earth. Who can take a Henny, Lester or Theodore.

NAMES WITH NICKNAMES: Don't name your kid Richard, Chip, Art, Dick, Jack or Chuck. Don't.

STAY AWAY FROM THE SOUND OF IT. This is a great

People who name their kids

Milton or Claudia just because they "always thought it's pretty." It's a pretty twisted way tentatively. His face would turn

red. Everybody in the class

would know.

"Um, here," he would reply,

then in the manner of a bruised puppy, he'd add, "Uh, I like to be called Andy..." Once he went over the brink. "IT'S GERMAN, OK?? IT'S NOT ONLY A GIRL'S NAME!!" Then he began babbling things like "it's only a name..." and "...it's all my parent's fault..." It was not pretty. I think somebody told me he's a wanted criminal now. Another pathetic case of being stigmatized by a name.

CUTE NAMES: Does anybody realize what hell it would be to be named something cute like Robby or Laurie? Initial names sometimes get too little cute too.

No J.O.S. or A.O.'s allowed.

JUST FLAM FUGLY NAMES: Claire, Claudia, Eleanor, Ethel, and Harriet as serious names should be wiped off the face of the earth. Who can take a Henny, Lester or Theodore.

NAMES WITH NICKNAMES: Don't name your kid Richard, Chip, Art, Dick, Jack or Chuck. Don't.

STAY AWAY FROM THE SOUND OF IT. This is a great

People who name their kids

Milton or Claudia just because they "always thought it's pretty." It's a pretty twisted way tentatively. His face would turn

red. Everybody in the class

would know.

"Um, here," he would reply,
Junior Parents party

Photography by Zoltan Ury
Religion

Marriage: The Love of God

The beauty of the sacrament of marriage is that it is an opportunity for a couple to experience God's love in a new way through each other, said Tracy Sandman, coordinator of marriage preparation programs at Notre Dame University Ministry.

In an interview Friday Sandman said engaged couples need to seriously ask each other if their marriage will last forever; it is a chance to reflect on their own sense of faith. The couple needs to "see how God acts in their own life and how they experienced God and the love of their partner," she said.

Marriage involves unconditional love she said, adding, "The mystery to me is that in experiencing that type of love in another person, you can begin to experience the love of God."

Sandman said the program she runs is specifically geared to engaged couples but "a lot of couples have come to us who are thinking about becoming engaged and are encouraged, as she calls them, consider issues about whether or not their relationship is mature, what attracts them to each other, and whether or not those attractions are life-time attractions. Infatuation is a key element especially with physical attraction, she said, adding, "A mature relationship goes way beyond just the physical part of the relationship."

With engaged couples, the most common problem they have is to fight with each other and resolve conflict, she said. Each individual has a different way of dealing with conflict. Usually one person will want to discuss the problem immediately whereas the other person may need to step back from the situation in order to discuss the problem calmly, she said.

"One person has to let the partner know what they need at that time," she said. It is difficult for an engaged couple to fight because they are so much in love, they don't know how to share a negative feeling. Also during engagement, she added, it is easy to overlook the negative feelings.

When an engaged couple comes to see Sandman, they are instructed on the requirements of the Church. The couple can either attend a weekend retreat or enter into the host couple program. This involves the engaged couple meeting with a married couple in their home discussing different aspects of married life.

The engaged couple is also given the pre-marital inventory survey. This is a questionnaire given to each person individually. Categories include questions concerning: realistic expectations, personality issues, communication, conflict resolution, financial management, leisure activities, sexual relationship, children and marriage, family and friends, egalitarian roles and religious orientation.

"The inventory is only a reflection of the relationship at this point in time," Sandman said. The couple is not given their scores, but instead they are given the number of issues they agreed on and disagreed on. "If the couple had many disagreements, we ask them to reflect on the relationship.

The length of dating is important especially for college-age students, she said. It is helpful to have separation and see each other in different settings, other than school. It is a myth or misconception that there is only one person for everyone, she said. "Young couples divorce because they meet someone else who they are equally attracted to," and thus feel challenged and scared, she said. It is normal to feel attraction towards another, but the person shouldn't act upon it. There must be a commitment to the relationship and that is the trick: "making it work," she said.

Margie Kersken is Saint Mary's editor and religion page editor for The Observer.

Consider breaking your engagement...

1. If you have known each other for less than three months.
2. If he/she has been drunk three times in the last three weeks or ten times in the last three or four months.
3. If he/she makes statements like, "I owe a great deal to mother, it's my duty to make her happy." and if such statements are coupled with behavior which makes it apparent that he/she will do "most anything to keep parental approval."
4. If one party says things like, "I can't live without you. My life has no meaning apart from you. If I ever lost you I would kill myself."
5. If the majority of times you have been together in the last three months you have developed a "pattern of quarrelling, of disparaging, seriously irritating or hurting each other."
6. If many of the significant, mature people in your life - parents, relatives, teachers and especially good friends who love you - indicate that you are making a mistake.
7. If some very serious problem has come up in the last few weeks and it is definitely troubling you and IF you have not had an opportunity to work it through.
8. If he/she has had more that five or six jobs in the last two years.
9. If your chief reason for marrying is that everybody in your circle of friends is doing it and you feel it is high time you did too.
10. If you have been sexually involved with someone or you have to marry each other even though the relationship is already a little boring and empty.
11. If you are marrying because you "just have to get out of the house."
12. If you are a pregnant couple ask the question: Would we really go through with it if there were no pregnancy?"
The The Observer

Monday, February 23, 1987 - page 11

Sports Briefs

ND football coach Kurt Schultenheimer will leave his position as outside lineback coach and take a job this season with the NFL's Cleveland Browns. Inside lineback coach John Schnitzler, who was hired by Holt last season, will coach special teams at Cleveland for his brother, the head coach of the Browns. The departure leaves Holt with two coaching vacancies to fill. Mike Stack, former running back coach, accepted a job last week with the NFL's Cincinnati Bengals. - The Observer

The ND indoor track team was edged by Purdue, 98-96, last Wednesday in the Indiana Intercollegiate Track and Field weekend. Indiana won the meet. Details will appear in tomorrow's issue. - The Observer

SMC intramural basketball begins the first week of March. Entry forms are available at Angela Athletic Facility and are due no later than Feb. 25. There is a $10 fee per team. - The Observer

The OC hockey team will practice tomorrow at 4-5 and Wednesday from 7-9. Both practices will be at Howard Park. - The Observer

Boris Becker defeated Stefan Edberg 6-4, 6-4, 7-5, yesterday to win the Pilot Pen Classic at Grand Champions Resort. - Associated Press

The Notre Dame tennis team lost to Northern Illinois Friday, 7-2. Saturday, participating in a quadrangular meet, the Irish beat Toledo, 7-2, to give Coach Tom Fallon his 500th career victory. They also lost to Southern Illinois Saturday, 7-2, and also to Iowa Sunday, 7-2. - The Observer

Tee-Chung "T.C." Chen defeated Ben Crenshaw in a playoff to claim the Los Angeles Open Golf title. Associated Press

In the NHL last night, the New York Islanders beat Boston 5-1. Former Pump beat Edmonton 5-3. Hartford topped Hartford, 5-3, and Pittsburgh took a 4-2 victory over the New York Rangers. - Associated Press

In NBA action last night, the Los Angeles Lakers beat Houston 112-110, Philadelphia beat Detroit, New York, 122-110, and Chicago toppled Cleveland, 196-98. Indiana also defeated Sacramento, 103-101. - Associated Press

Perry McDonald scored a career-high 26 points as No. 11 Georgetown beat No. 7 Syracuse, 72-71, before an NCAA tournament crowd of 35,802 at the Carrier Dome. - Associated Press

Sports Briefs are accepted Sunday through Thursday in The Observer offices on the third floor of LaFollette Student Center before 3 p.m. on the day prior to publication. - The Observer

Blue Demons top G. Tech

Associated Press

Dallon Comer scored a game-high 28 points and Rod Strickland added 28, leading fourth-seeded DePaul to an 84-71 triumph over Georgia Tech. The victory was the ninth straight for the Blue Demons, who improved their record to 25-1, Georgia Tech, which upset Duke 79-72 on Saturday, fell to 16-9.

DePaul led 21-16 at halftime, then outscored Georgia Tech 6-4 during a second-half spurt to take a 34-24 lead. DePaul will take command in the second half despite the fact that Comer sat out four minutes with four fouls.

The Blue Demons fell behind 8-2 early in the game as they made only one of their first 11 shots from the field.

Georgia Tech held a 21-17 lead when Kevin Edwards scored the Blue Demons. Edwards followed with a steal and a dunk to tie the game at 21-all. Rod Strickland put DePaul ahead with 3:12 left in the half and Comer scored six of DePaul's last eight points before intermission.

Classifieds

NOTICES

FREE PICTURES & DELIVERY
3/47

WANTED

EXPERT TYPING SERVICES CALL MRS. COORS 203-7058

LOST/FOUND

FREE PICTURES
DELIVERY
270-1267

HELPWANTED

I am seeking a position as a machine operator in some form of printing. Must have print shop experience. Contact Michael J. Moen at 632-1390.

PERSONALS

OAK-HUKE, COLD WINE & LIQUOR, CARRY OUT TO 3 A.M., 900 S. 13TH.

DRUIDS MUST DIE

FOR SALE

WANTED

Attention May Dradl: I am seeking a job in any form of publishing. Since I have been in the business for over 10 years, I am sure we can be of mutual benefit.

Please call (312) 543-7890.

NEED TO SELL

MACHINERY, COMPUTER PRINTER, & SOFTWARE, CALL ROY AT 237-1722 OR 216-407-3046

FREE PICTURES & DELIVERY

270-1267

PERSONALS

How happy are you with your wife? Help is available. CALL MRS. COORS 310-1906

LA DE PUEBLA, 6337 S. MICH.

PERSONALS

Arts Chicago-San Antonio for Rental Round Trip ANE

CALL ANNE 341-2684

NEED DIMENSION PROGRAMMER

MARCH 17-23, 1987

WANT A DUMPSTER FOR

DUMPSTER RENTAL

3/47

ATTY,points to win. With a score of 6-4, you win the championship.

CALL JERRY COLLINS AT 381-2153

NEED A GUY GOOD AT

FITNESS, CAREER ADVANCEMENT

TICKETS

NEED 2 DAYS FOR DEPUL BE Game
call 439-1179

ATTY,points to win. With a score of 6-4, you win the championship.

HELP ALLUMING WING TO

WING WARRIOR WING WARRIOR

CALL 323-7266

NEED $1,000 DOLLAR FOR O.A.

CALL 424-7890

FREE PICTURES & DELIVERY

270-1267

FOR RENT

ROOMMATES WANTED: AAP

CALL CLAUDE 277-8386

FREE PICTURES & DELIVERY

270-1267

FOR SALE

HOLY SMOKE! DUMPSTERS TO

CALL 439-1179

DEPUL BE GAME CALL 439-1179

EACH TAPERED $9.00.

FREE PICTURES & DELIVERY

270-1267

FOR RENT

NEED 4 DE PUL CALL TANNY 349-4937

NEED 1 DE PUL STUDENT OR D.A.

FREE PICTURES & DELIVERY

270-1267

ATTY,points to win. With a score of 6-4, you win the championship.

HELP ALLUMING WING TO

WING WARRIOR WING WARRIOR

NEED MONEY FOR SPRING BREAK
to help you. your share is $300, all in just off of N. Ave. call 233-2452

NEED MONEY FOR SPRING BREAK
to help you. your share is $300, all in just off of N. Ave. call 233-2452

WHAT SPRING BREAK is the time of the year when you need a lot of money.

FOR RENT

WE WILL COME AND GET YOU CALL

3/47

" THE BEST DAIN DEAST IN TOWN"
Honeyghan keeps belt

Associated Press

WEMBLEY, Eng., - Britain's Lloyd Honeyghan stopped American challenger Johnny Bumphus in two explosive rounds to retain his World Boxing Council and International Boxing Federation welterweight titles.

Referee Sam Williams of Detroit halted the contest - 31-30, 26-19 in the Irish. Notre Dame outrebounded Utah 31-26, 26-19, in both.$30.72

NOMINATIONS FROM FEBRUARY 10 TO FEBRUARY 28 FOR THEIR ANNUAL DISTINGUISHED STUDENT AWARD.

Once again the Notre Dame Alumni Association will be accepting nominations from February 10 to February 28 for their annual Distinguished Student Award. The Distinguished Student Award was created to honor an outstanding senior student at the University based on the following:

1. Service to Notre Dame
2. Service to the Community
3. Good Academic standing

Applications can be obtained at the Alumni Association office on the 2nd floor of the Administration Building, University Ministry offices - Badin Hall and Memorial Library and the Center for Social Concerns.

Nominations must be submitted to the Alumni Association by February 28.

Utse

continued from page 16

chibald. "I think our kids played well with some of our best players on the bench with foul trouble. A total of 47 personals were called in the contest - 26 on Utah and 21 on the Irish. Notre Dame shot 22-of-33 from the free-throw stripe, while the Utes hit on 35-of-43. Notre Dame outrebounded the hosts by a 31-16 margin, and led by a point, 31-30, at the half.

"We rebounded well," said Phelps. Junior Gary Voce led the team with nine. "We shoot fouls very well but, tonight, we didn't shoot well at all from the line."

Archibald said he was looking for a set fast-break play off Stevenson's free throws, but Fulton took it himself and pulled up with the off-balance three-pointer.

"We got the ball to the right person," Archibald said. "He probably should have taken it right down inside. He got cautious and pulled up after he looked around for a pass. Sometimes you execute, and sometimes you don't."

The Observer Monday, February 23, 1987 - page 12

SMC swimmers beaten by Calvin, place fourth in Grand Valley Invite

By JANE SHEA
Sports Writer

The Saint Mary's swim team lost to Calvin College on Wednesday by a score of 136-97, bringing its record to 5-4.

We had the overall depth, but we did not place high scores in all events," said Head Coach Nancy Jo Kuwitz.

Sophomore Peggy Halloran swam very well and won both the 100-yard and 100-yard freestyle with times of 5:32.47 and 12:01.85. Meghan Rafferty, a junior, took first in the 100-yard back with a time of 1:08.78. Senior captain Patty Jacksies placed third in that event with a time of 1:10.77.

The Belles were also winners in the 600-yard relay with a team consisting of Rafferty, Halloran, freshman Julie Courtney and Erin Tierney. Their time was 4:08.20.

"We did, as a whole, put in some good individual performances for our last meet," said Kuwitz.

On Friday and Saturday, Saint Mary's in the Grand Valley Invitational and came in fourth out of eight teams with a score of 221.

Rafferty swam excellently winning the 100-yard back and taking third in the 200-yard back. Her first-place time of 1:08.02 made her eligible for Nationals.

In the 200-yard free Jennifer Vanek, a junior, had her best time of the season of 2:31.75.

Sophomore Jenny MacDougall placed 12th overall and was in three individual events on Friday.

All the relay teams placed in the top seven places on both Friday and Saturday. The Belles have 10 swimmers going to Nationals on March 6 and 7.

Honeyghan keeps belt

Associated Press

WEMBLEY, Eng., - Britain's Lloyd Honeyghan stopped American challenger Johnny Bumphus in two explosive rounds to retain his World Boxing Council and International Boxing Federation welterweight titles.

Referee Sam Williams of Detroit halted the contest - 31-30, 26-19 in the Irish. Notre Dame outrebounded Utah 31-26, 26-19, in both.$30.72

NOMINATIONS FROM FEBRUARY 10 TO FEBRUARY 28 FOR THEIR ANNUAL DISTINGUISHED STUDENT AWARD.

Once again the Notre Dame Alumni Association will be accepting nominations from February 10 to February 28 for their annual Distinguished Student Award. The Distinguished Student Award was created to honor an outstanding senior student at the University based on the following:

1. Service to Notre Dame
2. Service to the Community
3. Good Academic standing

Applications can be obtained at the Alumni Association office on the 2nd floor of the Administration Building, University Ministry offices - Badin Hall and Memorial Library and the Center for Social Concerns.

Nominations must be submitted to the Alumni Association by February 28.

Utse

continued from page 16

chibald. "I think our kids played well with some of our best players on the bench with foul trouble. A total of 47 personals were called in the contest - 26 on Utah and 21 on the Irish. Notre Dame shot 22-of-33 from the free-throw stripe, while the Utes hit on 35-of-43. Notre Dame outrebounded the hosts by a 31-16 margin, and led by a point, 31-30, at the half.

"We rebounded well," said Phelps. Junior Gary Voce led the team with nine. "We shoot fouls very well but, tonight, we didn't shoot well at all from the line."

Archibald said he was looking for a set fast-break play off Stevenson's free throws, but Fulton took it himself and pulled up with the off-balance three-pointer.

"We got the ball to the right person," Archibald said. "He probably should have taken it right down inside. He got cautious and pulled up after he looked around for a pass. Sometimes you execute, and sometimes you don't."

The Observer Monday, February 23, 1987 - page 12

SMC swimmers beaten by Calvin, place fourth in Grand Valley Invite

By JANE SHEA
Sports Writer

The Saint Mary's swim team lost to Calvin College on Wednesday by a score of 136-97, bringing its record to 5-4.

We had the overall depth, but we did not place high scores in all events," said Head Coach Nancy Jo Kuwitz.

Sophomore Peggy Halloran swam very well and won both the 100-yard and 100-yard freestyle with times of 5:32.47 and 12:01.85. Meghan Rafferty, a junior, took first in the 100-yard back with a time of 1:08.78. Senior captain Patty Jacksies placed third in that event with a time of 1:10.77.

The Belles were also winners in the 600-yard relay with a team consisting of Rafferty, Halloran, freshman Julie Courtney and Erin Tierney. Their time was 4:08.20.

"We did, as a whole, put in some good individual performances for our last meet," said Kuwitz.

On Friday and Saturday, Saint Mary's in the Grand Valley Invitational and came in fourth out of eight teams with a score of 221.

Rafferty swam excellently winning the 100-yard back and taking third in the 200-yard back. Her first-place time of 1:08.02 made her eligible for Nationals.

In the 200-yard free Jennifer Vanek, a junior, had her best time of the season of 2:31.75.

Sophomore Jenny MacDougall placed 12th overall and was in three individual events on Friday.

All the relay teams placed in the top seven places on both Friday and Saturday. The Belles have 10 swimmers going to Nationals on March 6 and 7.

Honeyghan keeps belt

Associated Press

WEMBLEY, Eng., - Britain's Lloyd Honeyghan stopped American challenger Johnny Bumphus in two explosive rounds to retain his World Boxing Council and International Boxing Federation welterweight titles.

Referee Sam Williams of Detroit halted the contest - 31-30, 26-19 in the Irish. Notre Dame outrebounded Utah 31-26, 26-19, in both.$30.72

NOMINATIONS FROM FEBRUARY 10 TO FEBRUARY 28 FOR THEIR ANNUAL DISTINGUISHED STUDENT AWARD.

Once again the Notre Dame Alumni Association will be accepting nominations from February 10 to February 28 for their annual Distinguished Student Award. The Distinguished Student Award was created to honor an outstanding senior student at the University based on the following:

1. Service to Notre Dame
2. Service to the Community
3. Good Academic standing

Applications can be obtained at the Alumni Association office on the 2nd floor of the Administration Building, University Ministry offices - Badin Hall and Memorial Library and the Center for Social Concerns.

Nominations must be submitted to the Alumni Association by February 28.
GOING A LONG DISTANCE
FOR SPRING BREAK?

Break away with Clark Telecommunications
FREE airfare to Florida.
Are you tired of this Northern Indiana winter yet?
Longing for warm sunshine? Sandy beaches? A place in the sun where you can relax and get away from the books for a while? How does Florida sound?
When you sign up for CTI long distance between now and February 25, you become eligible to win round trip airfare to the Florida city of your choice for you and a friend...the GRAND PRIZE in CTIs “Break Away Sweepstakes.”

There is also a FIRST PRIZE of a $100 gift certificate to Tippicanoe Place and two SECOND PRIZES of $75 in CTI long distance calls. And the first 50 students who sign up for CTI quality long distance through this sweepstakes offer will receive $5 in free long distance calls.

To enter our “Break Away Sweeps,” you must be a registered Notre Dame student and you must be 18 or older. Complete the entry form below and bring it to CTIs on-campus office, Room G89 in the Notre Dame library.
Official entry forms are also available there. Current Notre Dame customers may enter, and there is no purchase necessary.

The deadline for entry is February 25, 1987. So don’t delay. You could break away to Florida this spring!

---

OFFICIAL BREAK AWAY SWEEPSTAKES RULES

No purchase necessary.

1. CTIs Break Away Sweeps is open to all registered, full or part-time Notre Dame students 18 years or older. Employees of CTI and their families, its subsidiaries, advertising and sweepstakes agents are not eligible. Win-ers’ names will be posted at CTIs on-campus office, Room G89, library.

2. To enter the sweeps, complete the entry form and return it to Room G89 in the library between 8 am and 5 pm Monday through Friday. Entry deadline is 5 pm February 25. All entries must be on official entry forms available either in the CTI ad in the Notre Dame Observer or in CTIs on-campus office, Room G89, library. One entry per student. Not responsible for lost, late or misdirected entries.

3. Winners will be selected in a random drawing to be held on February 27, 1987. All prizes will be awarded. By entering this sweeps, entrants agree to be bound by these rules and the decision of the judges will be final.
Winners will be notified by telephone. No prize substitutions are allowed.

4. Prizes consist of the following: GRAND PRIZE: Two round-trip plane tickets to the Florida city of your choice. Tickets must be used by December 31, 1987 and are subject to flight availability. Arrangements for the flight will be made through CTI. Winners will be solely responsible for their own flight arrangements.
Prizes are non-transferable. FIRST PRIZE: One $100 gift certificate to Tippicanoe Place, South Bend, Indiana. SECOND PRIZES: Two certificates worth $75 in CTI long distance service. This must be used prior to May 13, 1987. ADDI-TIONALLY: The first 50 (50) students to sign up for NEW CTI long distance service will receive $5 off their first long distance bill from Clark.
Irish put together year's best game to defeat No. 23 Demons, 53-44

By BRIAN O'GARA
Sports Writer

CHICAGO - The Notre Dame women's basketball team upset No. 23 DePaul, 53-44, here Saturday, putting together their finest effort of the season. The Irish finally came away with the "big win" that has eluded them during their troubled 1986-87 campaign.

The victory gave Notre Dame head coach Mary DiStanislao her 300th career win. Her 12-year record currently is 200-100. In seven years with the Irish, DiStanislao is 111-79.

"It's just a figure," said DiStanislao of the 300th victory. "It's nice, though. I don't even think of it in terms of goals. I'm just really happy that we got the win here at DePaul. I'm happier that it's our eighth win of the season."

Notre Dame improved its overall record to 8-15 while DePaul dropped to 18-6. The Demons, led her squad with 14 points. Sophomore Heidi Bunek added 12 points. Anderson, the senior point guard for the Lady Blue Demons, led her squad with 14 points.

DePaul tried to frustrate the Irish with a tough full-court press while committing only three turnovers.

"You just have to be confident that you can make one mistake and you don't have to make a second," said DiStanislao. "And they played comfortable. Did (Toney) and Mary (Gavin) are very complementary of each other."

Toney scored 11 points and came up with the clutch play whenever a DePaul rally threatened the Irish lead. The sophomore pulled down six rebounds and blocked four shots.

Gavin, the 5-6 forward of the Notre Dame offense, pulled down six boards herself and, as usual, set up several Irish buckets with her stellar passing.

The Irish took a 29-21 lead into the locker room at halftime, holding DePaul to a .310 field goal percentage on 9-29 shooting. DePaul closed the gap for the last time early in the second half as Diana Vines, averaging 21.4 points a game for the Lady Demons, fought for eight quick points. That brought DePaul to within two, 34-32, with 11:41 remaining, but that was as close as they would come. Toney hit a jumper and Ted a pass to Cathy Emerich for a layup to begin the end for the Lady Demons, as Notre Dame held on for the 53-44 upset.

"It was our best game this year in the sense that we beat a really good team," said DiStanislao. "We did what we had to do to stop them defensively and we kept the pressure on them offensively."

And when it was over, the crowd of 866 watched a jubilant Notre Dame team celebrate its upset victory. The Irish had beaten a conference rival, and the 23rd-ranked team in the nation, in an unfriendly environment. Most of all they had beaten adversity, which has looked like a dark cloud over the Irish all season. Saturday, however, the forecast was all sunny.

The victory gave Notre Dame a C.A.C. Conference record of 3-1 in the conference.

Notre Dame was in control of the game from the opening tip, which junior point guard Mary Gavin took to the left side of the court and canned on all four seconds had elapsed. The Irish never lost the lead, playing a relentless Zone defense and patiently executing their offensive game plan to control the game's tempo.

In January, DePaul defeated Notre Dame 80-68, at the ACC. The Demons dominated the game with 14 points. Sophomore Heidi Bunek added 12 points. Anderson, the senior point guard for the Lady Blue Demons, led her squad with 14 points.

DePaul tried to frustrate the Irish with a tough full-court press while committing only three turnovers. The women's team stretched their conference record to 2-3 in the conference.

Notre Dame was in control of the game from the opening tip, which junior point guard Mary Gavin took to the left side of the court and canned on all four seconds had elapsed. The Irish never lost the lead, playing a relentless Zone defense and patiently executing their offensive game plan to control the game's tempo.

In January, DePaul defeated Notre Dame 80-68, at the ACC. The Demons dominated the game with 14 points. Sophomore Heidi Bunek added 12 points. Anderson, the senior point guard for the Lady Blue Demons, led her squad with 14 points.

DePaul tried to frustrate the Irish with a tough full-court press while committing only three turnovers. The women's team stretched their conference record to 2-3 in the conference.

Notre Dame was in control of the game from the opening tip, which junior point guard Mary Gavin took to the left side of the court and canned on all four seconds had elapsed. The Irish never lost the lead, playing a relentless Zone defense and patiently executing their offensive game plan to control the game's tempo.

In January, DePaul defeated Notre Dame 80-68, at the ACC. The Demons dominated the game with 14 points. Sophomore Heidi Bunek added 12 points. Anderson, the senior point guard for the Lady Blue Demons, led her squad with 14 points.

DePaul tried to frustrate the Irish with a tough full-court press while committing only three turnovers. The women's team stretched their conference record to 2-3 in the conference.

Notre Dame was in control of the game from the opening tip, which junior point guard Mary Gavin took to the left side of the court and canned on all four seconds had elapsed. The Irish never lost the lead, playing a relentless Zone defense and patiently executing their offensive game plan to control the game's tempo.

In January, DePaul defeated Notre Dame 80-68, at the ACC. The Demons dominated the game with 14 points. Sophomore Heidi Bunek added 12 points. Anderson, the senior point guard for the Lady Blue Demons, led her squad with 14 points.

DePaul tried to frustrate the Irish with a tough full-court press while committing only three turnovers. The women's team stretched their conference record to 2-3 in the conference.

Notre Dame was in control of the game from the opening tip, which junior point guard Mary Gavin took to the left side of the court and canned on all four seconds had elapsed. The Irish never lost the lead, playing a relentless Zone defense and patiently executing their offensive game plan to control the game's tempo.

In January, DePaul defeated Notre Dame 80-68, at the ACC. The Demons dominated the game with 14 points. Sophomore Heidi Bunek added 12 points. Anderson, the senior point guard for the Lady Blue Demons, led her squad with 14 points.

DePaul tried to frustrate the Irish with a tough full-court press while committing only three turnovers. The women's team stretched their conference record to 2-3 in the conference.

Notre Dame was in control of the game from the opening tip, which junior point guard Mary Gavin took to the left side of the court and canned on all four seconds had elapsed. The Irish never lost the lead, playing a relentless Zone defense and patiently executing their offensive game plan to control the game's tempo.

In January, DePaul defeated Notre Dame 80-68, at the ACC. The Demons dominated the game with 14 points. Sophomore Heidi Bunek added 12 points. Anderson, the senior point guard for the Lady Blue Demons, led her squad with 14 points.

DePaul tried to frustrate the Irish with a tough full-court press while committing only three turnovers. The women's team stretched their conference record to 2-3 in the conference.

Notre Dame was in control of the game from the opening tip, which junior point guard Mary Gavin took to the left side of the court and canned on all four seconds had elapsed. The Irish never lost the lead, playing a relentless Zone defense and patiently executing their offensive game plan to control the game's tempo.

In January, DePaul defeated Notre Dame 80-68, at the ACC. The Demons dominated the game with 14 points. Sophomore Heidi Bunek added 12 points. Anderson, the senior point guard for the Lady Blue Demons, led her squad with 14 points.

DePaul tried to frustrate the Irish with a tough full-court press while committing only three turnovers. The women's team stretched their conference record to 2-3 in the conference.

Notre Dame was in control of the game from the opening tip, which junior point guard Mary Gavin took to the left side of the court and canned on all four seconds had elapsed. The Irish never lost the lead, playing a relentless Zone defense and patiently executing their offensive game plan to control the game's tempo.

In January, DePaul defeated Notre Dame 80-68, at the ACC. The Demons dominated the game with 14 points. Sophomore Heidi Bunek added 12 points. Anderson, the senior point guard for the Lady Blue Demons, led her squad with 14 points.

DePaul tried to frustrate the Irish with a tough full-court press while committing only three turnovers. The women's team stretched their conference record to 2-3 in the conference.

Notre Dame was in control of the game from the opening tip, which junior point guard Mary Gavin took to the left side of the court and canned on all four seconds had elapsed. The Irish never lost the lead, playing a relentless Zone defense and patiently executing their offensive game plan to control the game's tempo.

In January, DePaul defeated Notre Dame 80-68, at the ACC. The Demons dominated the game with 14 points. Sophomore Heidi Bunek added 12 points. Anderson, the senior point guard for the Lady Blue Demons, led her squad with 14 points.

DePaul tried to frustrate the Irish with a tough full-court press while committing only three turnovers. The women's team stretched their conference record to 2-3 in the conference.

Notre Dame was in control of the game from the opening tip, which junior point guard Mary Gavin took to the left side of the court and canned on all four seconds had elapsed. The Irish never lost the lead, playing a relentless Zone defense and patiently executing their offensive game plan to control the game's tempo.

In January, DePaul defeated Notre Dame 80-68, at the ACC. The Demons dominated the game with 14 points. Sophomore Heidi Bunek added 12 points. Anderson, the senior point guard for the Lady Blue Demons, led her squad with 14 points.

DePaul tried to frustrate the Irish with a tough full-court press while committing only three turnovers. The women's team stretched their conference record to 2-3 in the conference.

Notre Dame was in control of the game from the opening tip, which junior point guard Mary Gavin took to the left side of the court and canned on all four seconds had elapsed. The Irish never lost the lead, playing a relentless Zone defense and patiently executing their offensive game plan to control the game's tempo.

In January, DePaul defeated Notre Dame 80-68, at the ACC. The Demons dominated the game with 14 points. Sophomore Heidi Bunek added 12 points. Anderson, the senior point guard for the Lady Blue Demons, led her squad with 14 points.

DePaul tried to frustrate the Irish with a tough full-court press while committing only three turnovers. The women's team stretched their conference record to 2-3 in the conference.
Today

Bloom County

Beer Nuts

Mark Williams

Far Side

Gary Larson

Evidence from a dog crime

Campus

9:00 - 10:00 a.m.: SMC Government Club Lecture, Stapleton Lounge, SMC

3:30 - 5:00 p.m.: Computer Minicourses: Lotus 1-2-3, Part 1, Room 108 Computing Center, limit 7, and SMC, Room 25 Computing Center, limit 15

4:00 p.m.: Blak History Showdown 1987, Quiz-game show, Center for Social Concerns

4:20 p.m.: "Career Planning for PhiLS: Philosophy Majors," by Paul Reynolds, Room 103 O'Shaughnessy Hall

7:00 p.m.: Basketball: SMC vs. Kalamazoo, Angela Athletic Facility

8:00 p.m.: "The College Drug Scene: Facts and Myths," Stapleton Lounge, SMC

8:30 - 9:30 p.m.: SMC Spanish Club Film: "Niebla," (in Spanish), Carroll Auditorium, SMC

9:00 p.m.: Monday Night Film Series II: "Remember My Name," Annenberg Auditorium

Dinner Menus

Notre Dame

Roast Top Round of Beef

Pork Fry w/Julienne Vegetables

Seafood Newburg over Patty Shell

Devonshire Sandwich

Saint Mary's

French Dip Sandwich

Broccoli Stuffed Fish Eggplant Parmesan

Deli Bar

Focus On America's Future

The Daily Crossword

What's Happening this Week?

* Wed, Thurs : Maltese Falcon at 7:9,11
* Fri, Sat : 9 1/2 Weeks 7:9,15,11:30

* Wed-Fri : Sign-ups 3-5, basement of LaFortune for Ft. Lauderdale Spring Break Trip (deadline Friday).

* Fri : Mardi Gras Ball 7-10 Theodores
Iris took another close decision, hold off Utah rally to win, 57-56

By MARTY STRASSEN
Assistant Sports Editor

SALT LAKE CITY - When Chris Fulton fired his three-point shot at the buzzer with the game on the line, it was a freshman in his face.

Joe Fredrick forced the Utah guard’s bomb to sail too far in the thin mountain air, and at the Phelps which could have gone either cost the Irish the ballgame.

Fredrick was fouled on the inbounds pass, missed the front end of a one-and-one, but hustled back and forced the hard shot at the buzzer.

The Irish upped their record to 17-7, while the Utes fell to 16-10.

“We played four freshmen tonight a lot,” Phelps said. “Tony Jackson played three minutes and picked up three quick personals. ‘They were going to make mistakes, and you have to live with that.’

“We’ve lost close road games like this at UCLA, Kansas and Vanderbilt, and tonight we played well enough to win one.”

Junior forward Donald Royal led the Irish with 21 points, and also fouled out of the game in the final minute. Rivers added 13 for the Irish.

Gale Goodrich took hit from inside and out for the Utes, leaving them in the conference with 19.