Performance Maxims Underway

This week will see the dedication of the University Athletic and Convocation Center. Performance Maxims, the much-heralded spectacular schedule of preview attractions will present a number of program and sports activities intended to give the public its first glimpse of featured entertainment to come. To start with, there will be Andy Williams, Joe Garagiola, Bill Cosby, and UCLA.

Individuals and business firms of South Bend and the surrounding county have cooperated with Notre Dame in building the $8.6 million center by contributing $1.8 million toward its construction. The center was planned to house virtually all Notre Dame athletic, ticket and coaches as well as practice and playing areas. At the same time it was to provide a desirable place to present community events ranging from large banquets to conventions and trade shows. The south arena has a seating capacity of 11,000 capable of handling both major convocations and Notre Dame basketball. The north arena is essentially a field house. Notable facilities include a hockey rink, a track and field area, three tennis courts, a batting cage, and a baseball infield. There is also a multi-purpose area.

Scattered throughout the building, which was designed by Elberic Architects of St. Paul, Minnesota, are several auxiliary rooms as well as other intramural sports facilities including handball, squash, volleyball and badminton courts. Service facilities include press accommodations, concessions and an adjacent garage. Everyone can see the place this week, as Performance Maxims get under way. Here is the week’s schedule:

- Wed., 8:00 pm: Andy Williams show in the South Arena.
- Thurs., 7:30 pm: Football Banquet with Joe Garagiola as master of ceremonies. Over 1,400 are expected.
- Fri., 8:00 pm: Notre Dame Alumni Association Dinner in the Monogram Room for donors and the community and campus officials will precede the Valley of Vision High School Music Festival.
- Sat., 8:00 pm: Andy Williams show in the South Arena.
- Sun., 12:00 pm: "Metro's" of Sports in the ACC.
- Sun., 8:00 pm: Notre Dame vs. UCLA basketball game.
- Mon., 3:00 pm: The actual dedication of the Center with Father Hesburgh’s blessing and Burtchaell presiding.

The north arena is essentially a field house. Notable facilities include a hockey rink, a track and field area, three tennis courts, a batting cage, and a baseball infield. There is also a multi-purpose area.

Scattered throughout the building, which was designed by Elberic Architects of St. Paul, Minnesota, are several auxiliary rooms as well as other intramural sports facilities including handball, squash, volleyball and badminton courts. Service facilities include press accommodations, concessions and an adjacent garage. Everyone can see the place this week, as Performance Maxims get under way. Here is the week’s schedule:

- Wed., 8:00 pm: Andy Williams show in the South Arena.
- Thurs., 7:30 pm: Football Banquet with Joe Garagiola as master of ceremonies. Over 1,400 are expected.
- Fri., 8:00 pm: Notre Dame Alumni Association Dinner in the Monogram Room for donors and the community and campus officials will precede the Valley of Vision High School Music Festival.
- Sat., 8:00 pm: Andy Williams show in the South Arena.
- Sun., 12:00 pm: “Metro’s” of Sports in the ACC.
- Sun., 8:00 pm: Notre Dame vs. UCLA basketball game.
- Mon., 3:00 pm: The actual dedication of the Center with Father Hesburgh’s blessing and Burtchaell presiding.

The north arena is virtually a field house. Notable facilities include a hockey rink, a track and field area, three tennis courts, a batting cage, and a baseball infield. There is also a multi-purpose area.

Scattered throughout the building, which was designed by Elberic Architects of St. Paul, Minnesota, are several auxiliary rooms as well as other intramural sports facilities including handball, squash, volleyball and badminton courts. Service facilities include press accommodations, concessions and an adjacent garage. Everyone can see the place this week, as Performance Maxims get under way. Here is the week’s schedule:

- Wed., 8:00 pm: Andy Williams show in the South Arena.
- Thurs., 7:30 pm: Football Banquet with Joe Garagiola as master of ceremonies. Over 1,400 are expected.
- Fri., 8:00 pm: Notre Dame Alumni Association Dinner in the Monogram Room for donors and the community and campus officials will precede the Valley of Vision High School Music Festival.
- Sat., 8:00 pm: Andy Williams show in the South Arena.
- Sun., 12:00 pm: “Metro’s” of Sports in the ACC.
- Sun., 8:00 pm: Notre Dame vs. UCLA basketball game.
- Mon., 3:00 pm: The actual dedication of the Center with Father Hesburgh’s blessing and Burtchaell presiding.

The north arena is essentially a field house. Notable facilities include a hockey rink, a track and field area, three tennis courts, a batting cage, and a baseball infield. There is also a multi-purpose area.

Scattered throughout the building, which was designed by Elberic Architects of St. Paul, Minnesota, are several auxiliary rooms as well as other intramural sports facilities including handball, squash, volleyball and badminton courts. Service facilities include press accommodations, concessions and an adjacent garage. Everyone can see the place this week, as Performance Maxims get under way. Here is the week’s schedule:

- Wed., 8:00 pm: Andy Williams show in the South Arena.
- Thurs., 7:30 pm: Football Banquet with Joe Garagiola as master of ceremonies. Over 1,400 are expected.
- Fri., 8:00 pm: Notre Dame Alumni Association Dinner in the Monogram Room for donors and the community and campus officials will precede the Valley of Vision High School Music Festival.
- Sat., 8:00 pm: Andy Williams show in the South Arena.
- Sun., 12:00 pm: “Metro’s” of Sports in the ACC.
- Sun., 8:00 pm: Notre Dame vs. UCLA basketball game.
- Mon., 3:00 pm: The actual dedication of the Center with Father Hesburgh’s blessing and Burtchaell presiding.

The north arena is essentially a field house. Notable facilities include a hockey rink, a track and field area, three tennis courts, a batting cage, and a baseball infield. There is also a multi-purpose area.

Scattered throughout the building, which was designed by Elberic Architects of St. Paul, Minnesota, are several auxiliary rooms as well as other intramural sports facilities including handball, squash, volleyball and badminton courts. Service facilities include press accommodations, concessions and an adjacent garage. Everyone can see the place this week, as Performance Maxims get under way. Here is the week’s schedule:

- Wed., 8:00 pm: Andy Williams show in the South Arena.
- Thurs., 7:30 pm: Football Banquet with Joe Garagiola as master of ceremonies. Over 1,400 are expected.
- Fri., 8:00 pm: Notre Dame Alumni Association Dinner in the Monogram Room for donors and the community and campus officials will precede the Valley of Vision High School Music Festival.
- Sat., 8:00 pm: Andy Williams show in the South Arena.
- Sun., 12:00 pm: “Metro’s” of Sports in the ACC.
- Sun., 8:00 pm: Notre Dame vs. UCLA basketball game.
- Mon., 3:00 pm: The actual dedication of the Center with Father Hesburgh’s blessing and Burtchaell presiding.
MINERVA, N.J. (UPI) Rebel student leader Mark Rudd, who led the student takeover that shut down Columbia University for a week last spring, and 52 others underwent a six-hour battery of physical and mental tests.

As Rudd was tested inside, his supporters, on the steps of the sleek stone and glass federal building, chanted "millenniums profit as GI's die."

Rudd, who lives in Maplewood with his mother and 30-year career army officer father, has vowed to take his campaign for revolution into the Army.

Performance Superfluous

Joel Connelly

About a month ago, in an elaborate booklet sent out to the student body, the Notre Dame community was "invited" to Performance Maximus, the opening of Notre Dame's $9 million Athletic and Convocation Center. The "invitation" reminded me of a long-ago wedding summons in which the bride's mother wrote suggestions of gifts we might purchase. Performance Maximus is going to be quite a show. Andy Williams, Bill Cosby, Lew Alcinder, and Bishop Parsley have been booked for the occasion. Even the Dedication Mass is written as the "largest religious event ever held in this area." The Center itself, while not much to look at outside, contains enough room for three Notre Dame pep rallies and a South Bend gang fight to take place simultaneously.

Even by Roman standards, Performance Maximus rates as an impressively heavy. Perhaps also, Ancient Rome would have been a better setting for events of this week. To put on this extravaganza at Notre Dame is an insult to the principles underlying a Christian University. Performance Maximus is, first of all, blatantly financial. A demonstrative forerunner to this week's show was the letter of Mr. Cahill announcing a new student basketball ticket procedure. Now that we have a big arena plus visiting teams which can fill it you can bet your life they aren't going to let you in without a good gouging first. As to what's happening now, one should mortgage the family home if he wants enough money to take a girl to see both Williams and Cosby.

Perhaps, in spite of feelings expressed up to now I shouldn't be knocking Performance Maximus. The gaudy carnival may produce awareness of the obvious, namely the fact that the Athletic and Convocation Center has no redeeming value for the average Notre Dame student and faculty member. It is, rather, devoted to making money and increasing the professionalism of the sports program at Notre Dame.

I need not go into some conditions at this University. Students live in dorms which are more than 60 percent overcrowded. Faculty salaries are such that a New York City plumber earns more than some full professors. With these facts on my mind, I ask the question which was put to officials two years ago, namely: Is this $9 million extravagance necessary? Can't money have been raised and put to use in a way which benefits the entire community rather than the tiny minority which will constantly use the Center? Shouldn't the enormous fund raising drive in South Bend have been directed at alleviating social conditions in the "Valley of Vision"–instead of erecting a Palace to be used by only the community's most affluent?

No answers were given these questions when the Center was in construction. I suppose a similar response will greet the student inquiring why an Olympic-size swimming pool, a facility which would have seen constant use, was the major element of the Center to be eliminated. Perhaps officials in the Athletic Department are too busy contracting the Monogram Room to make known facilities of the Center which we can use.

Yesir, Performance Maximus is quite a show. The Athletic and Convocation Center will make a lot of money; much of it from students. However, while the Center itself is gaudy, conditions elsewhere on this campus are bleak. Perhaps officials in the Athletic Department are as Aztec temples stood amidst the squalor of Mexico, namely as a great obscene Pagan temple, one in this case devoted to the dollar bill.

Kaufmann Speaks

Professor Walter Kaufmann of Princeton University will give the second of three department of philosophy Perspective Lectures today entitled "Hegel: Myth and Reality." The lecture is scheduled at 8 p.m. in the Law Auditorium.

450 UCLA TICKETS

STUSOC has 450 UCLA basketball tickets available for students. Due to the demand, these tickets will be allocated through a computer lottery. Those wishing to enter must bring a check for $52 made payable to Student Union Fund. Only one entry per I.D.

Lottery Entry – WEDNESDAY, Dec. 4

3-5 Fiesta Lounge, LaFortune Center

7-9 Fiesta Lounge, LaFortune Center

Winners will be posted Thursday, Dec. 5 and tickets can be picked up Thursday night 7–9 in LaFortune.

BERMUDA '69

Sign up NOW thru Christmas for the Met Club trip.

Make your $50 deposit in either 459 or 229 Zahm

The Hits Andy Sings...

HONEY ANDY WILLIAMS
INCLUDING: THEME FROM "VALLEY OF THE DOLLS" BY THE TIME I GET TO PHOENIX SCARBOROUGH FAIR LOVE IS BLUE UP UP AND AWAY THE IMPOSSIBLE DREAM

in his new album are the songs you've been waiting for him to sing. It's a "Honey" of an album.

And there are more great hits in these two Andy Williams albums.

CYN'S BARBER SHOP
Razor Cutting and Pair Styling
Michiana's Leading Barber Shop
100 102 South Main Street
Opposite Court House
Save time by calling for an appointment
Phone: CE 3-0687
W.E. CYR, Proprietor

KAUFMANN SPEAKS

STUDENTS FOR A FEW DOLLAR BILL

PENNSYLVANIA STATE UNIVERSITY PA 16802

Andy Williams on COLUMBIA RECORDS® available at:

N.D. HAMMES BOOKSTORE
TUESDAY, DECEMBER 3, 1968

THE WORLD TODAY

Hayden Testifies BeforeHUAC Again

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A protest leader testified yesterday that demonstrators were not tried to avoid violence during the Democratic National Convention in hopes of "all classes and races" would join the street marches.

Theodore F. Hayden, a founder of Students for a Democratic Society, told the House Committee on Un-American Activities that Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley's well-publicized buildup of police and National Guardsmen battling thousands of antiwar demonstrators last August, charged that "the weight of violence was overwhelmingly on the side of the police." Police Supt. James B. Conlisk refused to find some Chicago policemen "rioted" during the week of the Democratic National Convention, called yesterday for "prompt and severe" disciplinary action against them.

Under oath, the first witness of the committee, examined its hearings on the Chicago demonstrations, also testified that by July, while he was planning the protests, North Vietnamese diplomats met him in Paris because "they're always interested in demonstrations in the United States against the war."

"They're pleased at any sign of activity that the people are coming to their store. People in Vietnam, whether they were in Chicago demonstrations or not, I have their cards," he said.

He later told newsmen that although "the committee would like to show some linking up of our movement with the North Vietnamese, the fact is we went in Paris to help arrange the release of American prisoners of war from North Vietnam." In his testimony, he said that while in Paris he also briefed M. Avreth Harriman, top U.S. peace negotiator.

The committee is seeking evidence that Communists played a major role in the demonstrations. Hayden, under questioning by committee counsel, contrasted John Conklin, admitted members, of the Communist party participated. But he said scornfully of the Communist party and said he disagreed with "their political program."

Walker Calls For Police Discipline

CHICAGO (UPI) The director of a federal task force that found some Chicago policemen "rioted" during the week of the Democratic National Convention, called yesterday for "prompt and severe" disciplinary action against them.

"The blue curtain cannot he permitted to stay down," Daniel Walker, head of the study team which submitted its report yesterday to the National Committee on the Causes and Prevention of Violence, told a new conference the report provides "the cold, hard-nosed, unadulterated facts."

The report, a new bombshell in the city where police and demonstrators battled thousands of antiwar demonstrators last August, charged that "the weight of violence was overwhelmingly on the side of the police."

Police Supt. James B. Conklin refused to comment on the report yesterday. Frank Sulzberger, director of public relations for the police department, said Conklin had read the report but was studying it.

"Good Progress" Reported From Paris

PARI S (UPI)—United States and North Vietnamese diplomats yesterday opened off stage negotiations aimed at solving the political questions for expanded talks that will include South Vietnam and the Viet Cong. American officials reported "good process" and a North Vietnamese spokesman said there was "movement."

Both sides were optimistic that the broadened conference could get under way. The chief of the South Vietnamese delegation, Ambassador Pham Dung Lam, was expected to arrive in Paris Thursday.

On Monday, however, in a suburban Paris villa away from the limelight of the regular meeting place where the United States and North Vietnam began talks May 13, involved Cyrus R. Vance and Col. Ho Van Lao, Vance is the No. 2 man on the American negotiating team. Lao holds a similar post on the Hanoi delegation.

More behind the scenes meetings were scheduled for the balance of the week.

SUAC Lecture

Dr. Robert E. Rhodes, professor of law, will speak this evening at 8 p.m. in the Library Auditorium on "Authority, Dialectics, and Contraception: A Judicial View."

The Observer is published daily during the academic year by our students of Notre Dame. Sale of all subscriptions $10 from the Observer, Box 13, Notre Dame, Ind. 46556, second class postage paid, Notre Dame, Ind. 46556.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 3, 1968

THE WORLD TODAY

THE OBSERVER

Violence Erupts Anew At SFSC

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) Demonstrations clashed with Acting President S.I. Hayakawa, and police marched across the campus yesterday at the reopening of San Francisco State College.

At least four demonstrators, one a non-student, were arrested. Police also impounded a sound truck.

Bottles, dirt clods, rocks and sticks were thrown at police by charging demonstrators, but no injuries were reported. Some windows in the main administration were broken.

Hayakawa was jeered, shoved and hit in the face with strike leaflets when he went to the campus for the start of classes under his new, get tough rules. Many students reported to their teachers and the strike ridden school's educational process began operating near normal.

Hayakawa then was struck in the face by a bundle of strike leaflets.

After a noon rally, however, a group of hard core demonstrators attempted to march through the campus for the start of classes under his new, get tough rules. Many students reported to their teachers and the strike ridden school's educational process began operating near normal.

A white youth and a Negro youth were arrested for throwing books, rocks and sticks.

Uniformed officers stationed in hallways prevented the militiamen from entering classes. However, the demonstrators bonged on garbage cans and screamed through bullhorns, "pigs off campus" outside the buildings, prompting many students inside to rush to the windows of their classrooms.

ROTC Talk Set

The Air Force R.O.T.C. is sponsoring a lecture today at 4:10 in the Library Auditorium to be given by Col. Alfred F. Hurley, who is the head of the department of history at the Air Force Academy. He will speak on "The Military Profession and the Uses of History."

Free U. Wants You!

People with ideas to share with others.

If you're one of the Good Guys, see Rick Libowitz - 331 Holy Cross (3203)
Maryanne Wolf - 225 McCandless (4053)

SLC Statement

We hold that without the corollary of an "open listeners" policy, i.e., without a guarantee that any member of the University community can exercise his right to hear or to consult with other members or authorized visitors to the campus, then the "open speakers" policy of the University becomes a mockery. This realization means that when a portion of the community dissenters with the views of other members or authorized visitors or dissent with the policies of the institutions which they represent, then this dissent must be expected in a manner that does not abridge the freedom of those members or visitors to carry out their authorized activities on the campus. This principle demands in particular that dissenters refrain from sustained "heckling" of a speaker and that they refrain from actions which forcibly obstruct the authorized activity or render the conditions under which such activity can be carried out repugnant to common human sensibilities. To violate these limitations on the expression of dissent is to engage in totalitarian tactics which are alien to a University. We reiterate the provisions of the Notre Dame Student Manual which specify that such action shall make the speaker subject to the disciplinary action provided for in the said Manual, and we urge other segments of the University community to be equally frank in their disregard of these violations of the free nature of the University community.

Movie!

Poise Corps Film of India

Call 263-8262

The Observer is published daily during the academic year by our students of Notre Dame.也希望 by the University of Notre Dame. Sale of all subscriptions $10 from the Observer, Box 13, Notre Dame, Ind. 46556, second class postage paid, Notre Dame, Ind. 46556.

SCLC Statement

We hold that without the corollary of an "open listeners" policy, i.e., without a guarantee that any member of the University community can exercise his right to hear or to consult with other members or authorized visitors to the campus, then the "open speakers" policy of the University becomes a mockery. This realization means that when a portion of the community dissenters with the views of other members or authorized visitors or dissent with the policies of the institutions which they represent, then this dissent must be expected in a manner that does not abridge the freedom of those members or visitors to carry out their authorized activities on the campus. This principle demands in particular that dissenters refrain from sustained "heckling" of a speaker and that they refrain from actions which forcibly obstruct the authorized activity or render the conditions under which such activity can be carried out repugnant to common human sensibilities. To violate these limitations on the expression of dissent is to engage in totalitarian tactics which are alien to a University. We reiterate the provisions of the Notre Dame Student Manual which specify that such action shall make the speaker subject to the disciplinary action provided for in the said Manual, and we urge other segments of the University community to be equally frank in their disregard of these violations of the free nature of the University community.

OPEN POLE RESTAURANT - HOLY CROSS HALL

FRESH PIZZAS - HOT SANDWICHES

NITES 6-12 WEEKENDS 'TIL 2 A.M.

let JADE EAST say the word for you

Dine on Jade East, the classic gift that_ says the word. Open late. Call 290-1441. After Show from 2-9:30. Cocktail & After Show Gift Set, $5.95. as an appetizer, to give, or to give: the word. Open late. Call 290-1441. Also available is a collection of exquisite gifting essentials. See Dealership.

Free U. Wants You!

People with ideas to share with others.

If you're one of the Good Guys, see

Rick Libowitz - 331 Holy Cross (3203)
Maryanne Wolf - 225 McCandless (4053)
or at

The Student Government Office
Cagers Visit King's College Tonight

The Observer this season.

Thursday.

first offering — coming captain Bob Arnzen will tonight in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., its history, Notre Dame

PAGE 4

Cagers Visit King's College Tonight

The Observer

Arnie previews UCLA in his

Page dimensions: 817.9x1213.0

support the most optimistic advance publicity in its history, Notre Dame basketball opens its 63rd season tonight in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., against King's College.

Ranked No.1 by True magazine, No.4 by the Associated Press, No.5 by Sports Illustrated and No.8 by Basketball Weekly, the 1968-69 Irish cagers could distinguish themselves as the best of all-time on this campus.

Coach Johnny Dee likely will send out two sensors and three sophomores to face King's tonight. At guards will be Bill Sinnott (6-4, 201) and Austin Carr (6-3, 200).

Sinnott, known to his mates as "The Elizabeth Big Eye," won a starting spot from his roommate, Jackie Meehan, just last week. Meehan's bid to enter the lineup wasamped somewhat by a slight leg injury.

Carr is the team's finest shooter. Last season, as a freshman, he popped in 34.7 points per game and carried a field goal percentage of .578. This fall, for sure, his exhibitions, Carr banged in 35.4 markers per outing and turned in a .590 field goal accuracy percentage.

At forwards for the Irish this evening will be captain Bob Arnez (6-5, 205) and Sid Catlett (6-8, 220). Arnez's center statistics this past year averaged of 21.3 points and 13.3 rebounds plus a .487 norm from the line.

Catlett, who missed frosh ball with academic difficulties last year, scored at a 19.8 points-per-game pace in the exhibitions this year and garnered almost that many rebounds.

Notre Dame's center is Bob Whitmore (6-7, 195). In two seasons, he has 19.3 tallies and 13.3 rebounds per game. He was the team's most productive offensive weapon last year with 22 points and 13.3 "bounds" a contest.

Today's game is the first in King's new $2.2 million fieldhouse. The structure, which seats 3,450, was dedicated yesterday.

The Monarchs also have a new coach and athletic director in Ed Donohue, a former assistant basketball mentor at Niagara University and the man who recruited Calvin Murphy for the Purple Eagles.

Donohue will send out guards Jim Williams (6-0, 175) and John Angelo (5-11, 170). Williams, a senior, averaged 13.2 points for King's last year, tops on a squad which finished the year 10-13. Angelo is a sophomore.

Masten forward will be Ron Roser (6-3, 195) and George Reimuller (6-3, 195). Roser was the ace of King's freshman team last winter, with a 25-point game average. Reimuller, a junior, cracked for 9.2 as a starter in 1967-68. King's center is sophomore Dave Lampman (6-5, 205).

King's has had three scrimmages this fall, playing nearly even with Wilkes College and American University while losing badly to Bucknell.

Terry, George, Jim On TV

Irish gridders Terry Hanratty, George Kunz and Jim Seymour appear on a television special as members of the Coaches All-American squad at 7:30 p.m. Friday on ABC.

It will be the second tube showing of the week for Hanratty and Kunz. They and the other 20 Look magazine All-Americans visited the Johnny Carson Show last night.

In addition, Hanratty, Kunz and Seymour all made the UPI All-American team announced last week.

King's College may be the immediate foe, but ND basketball fans are looking ahead to Saturday when UCLA comes to town, led by one of the most awesome front lines in college basketball history. The Bruins' starting center certainly will be Mr. A. The forwards are undetermined at present, but coach John Wooden probably will call on Curtis Rowe (left) and Lynn Shackelford (right).

Irish Fourth

New York (UPJ) -- Notre Dame was ranked fourth and Purdue 11th yesterday in the Pre-season College Basketball ratings by coaches.

Notre Dame's 114 points compared with 280 for UCLA, which received 28 of the 35 first place votes, 215 for North Carolina, and 165 for Kentucky.

The Notre Dame total was only one point ahead of Kansas. Purdue received 52 points compared with 56 for 10th place Cincinnati and 46 for 12th place St. Bonaventure.

Others in the top 10 were Houston, sixth; Davidson, seventh, New Mexico, eighth, and Villanova, ninth.

CAREER AVERAGE

Hawkins 79 games 23.0
Arnez 58 games 21.4
Whitmore 58 games 19.3

FIELD GOAL PERCENTAGE

Sheffield 499 1140 .438
Arnez 494 1015 .484
Whitmore 425 878 .484

FREE THROW PERCENTAGE

John McCarthy (55-58) .947
Bob Arnzen 253 311 .814

ND Sailors Finish 3rd

After three stormy days on Lake Michigan, the University of Southern California nudged for Navy the team title in the Timmies Angerton Memorial Regatta.

Going into Sunday's final heat, the Trojans and Midshipmen were tied with 172 points each, leading 15 other teams. But SC skipper Tim Hogan placed fourth while Navy's Dan Roff managed only eighth, giving the Trojan's first place, 176-181. Hogan set a meet record in winning "B" Division with 39 points.

Notre Dame's Ritchie Doyle placed first in "A" Division, leading the Irish to a third place overall finish with 218 points. Bill McPhee and Mike Mooney split the chores in "B" Division, taking third.

Grid Fete

Thursday

For the first time in the University's history, the Notre Dame student body will be able to participate in honoring its football team at the annual Football Banquet, sponsored by the St. Joseph Valley Notre Dame Club Thursday in the Athletic and Convocation Center.

Notre Dame and St. Mary's students will be admitted free to the speaking portion of the banquet program, highlighted by toastmaster Joe Gaugnola, NBC-TV personality. An I.D. card will admit students, starting at 8:45 p.m. at Gate 1 of the Center. They will occupy Arena seats surrounding the banquet for 1,400 persons on the Arena floor.

In making the announcement, St. Joseph Valley Notre Dame club officials noted that in the past, the limited seating and cost of tickets had served to virtually eliminate the student from the banquet.