Nixon Announces Cabinet Tomorrow

NEW YORK (UP)-President-elect Richard M. Nixon has chosen his 12 cabinet appointees and will reveal their names in an unannounced package announcement on nationwide television tomorrow night.

Ronald L. Ziegler, Nixon’s press spokesman, said yesterday the president-elect would go to Washington tomorrow evening to make the cabinet announcement and “possibly other major appointments” at 9 p.m. EST from the Sherrill Hotel.

It was believed that at least one president-elect has announced all his cabinet choices at once. It was designed for maximum impact on the prime-time television audience.

You can, of course, naturally conclude that the final cabinet selections have been made.” He added that Nixon would wait until tomorrow to announce them because “it’s a matter of personal preference. He felt Washington would be an appropriate place to make an announcement of this magnitude.”

The other major appointments Nixon might announce tomorrow night were expected to include the Director of the bureau of the budget, and key ambassadorial posts, including negotiators to the Paris Vietnam talks.

SAIGON (UPI)-Alien troops shelled the north of a Viet Cong bastion yesterday, killing 862 Communists in the Demilitarized Zone—the fourth such loss since the bombing halt began Nov. 1. Both crews aboard the RF4C Phantom jet were killed by the North Vietnamese.

The 3,500-ton Dyess and Turner passed through the Bosphorus Straits and into the Black Sea, past an unidentified Soviet tanker, and began Nov. 1. Both crewmen aboard the RF4C Phantom jet were killed by the North Vietnamese.

Dyess And Turner Reach Black Sea

ISTANBUL (UPI)-Two U.S. Navy warships yesterday steamed into the Black Sea to show the American flag in what the Soviet Union regards virtually as its own private preserve.

The Soviets denounced the visit by the 6th Fleet destroyers to the inland sea as a “provocation” and a violation of international treaty. But Soviet sources said yesterday McCarthy got 314 votes, Rockefeller 54, Paulsen 47, Sen. Edward Kennedy 22 and New York City Mayor John Lindsay 13.

Chas Greeting On Way To Vietnam

HAYWARD, Calif. (UPI)-The longest Christmas card in the world—55 million long—was on its way to Vietnam yesterday. The unique holiday tribute is actually a collection of almost 100,000 individual greetings collected by the Hayward Daily Review and transferred to a long ribbon of newspaper.

The “Miles of Messages to Vietnam” project contained letters from every state and overseas. Also included were greetings from Vice President-elect Spiro T. Agnew and entertainers Bob Hope, Red Skelton and Janet Leigh.

The 3,500-ton Dyess and Turner passed through the Bosphorus Straits and into the Black Sea, past an unidentified Soviet tanker, during the early morning hours. Despite the storm of Russian propaganda, only a few persons watched them go through the international waterway.

U.S. officials said only the Dyess and Turner would spend five days in the Black Sea conducting “routine operations in international waters.”

OSHKOSH OFFICIALS BALK

World’s Readiest Students

MADISON, Wis. (UPI)—State university officials announced yesterday they will not reinstatet 94 Negro students at Oshkosh State University who were suspended after a destructive campus rampage Nov. 21.

Robert J. Doyle, university system information officer, said the officials decided to use one of the options in a federal court ruling ordering reinstatement to keep the students on suspension until their cases are decided. U.S. Judge James F. Doyle ruled earlier in the day that the students must be reinstated. But he left open two methods by which university system officials could continue the suspensions, including immediate scheduling of disciplinary hearings.

“Notices will be sent before the 6 p.m. Wednesday deadline to all 94 of them, notifying them of a hearing starting at 10 a.m. Monday at a court house in Oshkosh,” a spokesman said. “They will remain suspended until the hearings, which the judge said is okay,” the spokesman said. He said a decision on each case must be made under the federal court order by Dec. 20.

The students were suspended after a rampage through the Oshkosh administration building, which caused thousands of dollars damage. Seven students filed the federal court suit to challenge the suspensions.

The disturbance occurred after the university president refused to sign a list of grievances presented by black students and forced the school to close down for the Thanksgiving recess three days.

Last Friday, after 200 shouting young people disrupted a meeting of the state university board, Doyle announced an effort to win reinstatement for the suspended students. A window in the state university board room was broken by one of the protestors. Judge Doyle ruled the suspended students “will be irreparably harmed by a significant extension of their present suspensions.”

“I find that there is not available to them the students an adequate remedy at law,” he said. “I find that this suspension has been imposed, and has a reasonable prospect of being continued without due process of law.”

From this discussion the sub-committee will prepare a report to be submitted to the Student Life Council for approval.

Among the topics to be discussed are:

1) Role of Hall Chaplain
2) Role of Rector
3) Role of Judicial Boards

5) Role of Hall Council

7) Tripartite Hall Review Board

He finally made it yesterday and, after the university president refused to sign a list of grievances presented by black students and forced the school to close down for the Thanksgiving recess three days, he left open two methods by which university system officials could continue the suspensions, including immediate scheduling of disciplinary hearings.

At least one person was arrested in the latest confrontation.

Some 300 officers swept across the strike torn campus after the militants staged their smallest noontime rally since striking early last month. Only about 400 persons turned out for the rally.

With Negro community leaders again in attendance, the demonstrators marched twice around the commons on the campus.

In five years under Ara Parseghian, 108 new lines of type have been placed in the Notre Dame record book. Parseghian-coached teams have also tied nine marks including the first downs by passing record this season.
