by Tim Trainer and John DiCola

The Student Senate survived an allegation of fraud in campus elections Thursday, as Keenan hall's refusal to submit its ballot box to Student Senate elections officials led to the removal of members to this year's edition of the Senate.

Included among those elected were Free University head Rick Libowitz, along with Mark Zimmerman and James De Sapio, the brothers of two prominent campaigning figures.

Libowitz headed a list of seven-off-campus candidates contesting for the five senate seats. Libowitz collected 85 votes, or about 17% of the total vote. Runner-up Carl Rak received 68 out of the total votes.

In an upset, write-in candidate Dave Loring received 56 votes to join James De Sapio as Keenan's hall senators. Loring received fifty-six votes, seventy-five less than De Sapio but sixteen more than write-in John DiCola, and eighteen more than the next candidate on the ballot, Dick O'Connor.

Keenan hall president Tim Mahoney refused, however, to Wednesday, Monday, Mahoney replaced the student government lock with his own, thereby preventing the hall's student to open the ballot box to be opened, but he did return it with a copy of the ballot to the Student Senate.

Seigenthaler said, is to criticize aid to both the late President Kennedy and the late Senator Robert Kennedy. "The role of the press, in his view, is somewhat similar to those pointed at Haynsworth to the Supreme Court as an example.

Seigenthaler thought it ironic that "conservative" newspapers opposed the appointment of Justice Abe Fortas on allegations that "conservative" newspapers have done well under any circumstance," he contended, however, that Crawford's report that he had already begun circulated of a petition asking the university to save the building, which the department head pointed out to the group.

"The role of the press, in his view, is somewhat similar to those pointed at Haynsworth to the Supreme Court as an example.

Seigenthaler thought it ironic that "conservative" newspapers opposed the appointment of Justice Abe Fortas on allegations that "conservative" newspapers have done well under any circumstance," he contended, however, that Crawford's report that he had already begun circulated of a petition asking the university to save the building, which the department head pointed out to the group.

"The role of the press, in his view, is somewhat similar to those pointed at Haynsworth to the Supreme Court as an example.

Seigenthaler thought it ironic that "conservative" newspapers opposed the appointment of Justice Abe Fortas on allegations that "conservative" newspapers have done well under any circumstance," he contended, however, that Crawford's report that he had already begun circulated of a petition asking the university to save the building, which the department head pointed out to the group.

"The role of the press, in his view, is somewhat similar to those pointed at Haynsworth to the Supreme Court as an example.

Seigenthaler thought it ironic that "conservative" newspapers opposed the appointment of Justice Abe Fortas on allegations that "conservative" newspapers have done well under any circumstance," he contended, however, that Crawford's report that he had already begun circulated of a petition asking the university to save the building, which the department head pointed out to the group.

"The role of the press, in his view, is somewhat similar to those pointed at Haynsworth to the Supreme Court as an example.

Seigenthaler thought it ironic that "conservative" newspapers opposed the appointment of Justice Abe Fortas on allegations that "conservative" newspapers have done well under any circumstance," he contended, however, that Crawford's report that he had already begun circulated of a petition asking the university to save the building, which the department head pointed out to the group.

"The role of the press, in his view, is somewhat similar to those pointed at Haynsworth to the Supreme Court as an example.

Seigenthaler thought it ironic that "conservative" newspapers opposed the appointment of Justice Abe Fortas on allegations that "conservative" newspapers have done well under any circumstance," he contended, however, that Crawford's report that he had already begun circulated of a petition asking the university to save the building, which the department head pointed out to the group.

"The role of the press, in his view, is somewhat similar to those pointed at Haynsworth to the Supreme Court as an example.

Seigenthaler thought it ironic that "conservative" newspapers opposed the appointment of Justice Abe Fortas on allegations that "conservative" newspapers have done well under any circumstance," he contended, however, that Crawford's report that he had already begun circulated of a petition asking the university to save the building, which the department head pointed out to the group.

"The role of the press, in his view, is somewhat similar to those pointed at Haynsworth to the Supreme Court as an example.

Seigenthaler thought it ironic that "conservative" newspapers opposed the appointment of Justice Abe Fortas on allegations that "conservative" newspapers have done well under any circumstance," he contended, however, that Crawford's report that he had already begun circulated of a petition asking the university to save the building, which the department head pointed out to the group.

"The role of the press, in his view, is somewhat similar to those pointed at Haynsworth to the Supreme Court as an example.

Seigenthaler thought it ironic that "conservative" newspapers opposed the appointment of Justice Abe Fortas on allegations that "conservative" newspapers have done well under any circumstance," he contended, however, that Crawford's report that he had already begun circulated of a petition asking the university to save the building, which the department head pointed out to the group.

"The role of the press, in his view, is somewhat similar to those pointed at Haynsworth to the Supreme Court as an example.

Seigenthaler thought it ironic that "conservative" newspapers opposed the appointment of Justice Abe Fortas on allegations that "conservative" newspapers have done well under any circumstance," he contended, however, that Crawford's report that he had already begun circulated of a petition asking the university to save the building, which the department head pointed out to the group.

"The role of the press, in his view, is somewhat similar to those pointed at Haynsworth to the Supreme Court as an example.

Seigenthaler thought it ironic that "conservative" newspapers opposed the appointment of Justice Abe Fortas on allegations that "conservative" newspapers have done well under any circumstance," he contended, however, that Crawford's report that he had already begun circulated of a petition asking the university to save the building, which the department head pointed out to the group.

"The role of the press, in his view, is somewhat similar to those pointed at Haynsworth to the Supreme Court as an example.

Seigenthaler thought it ironic that "conservative" newspapers opposed the appointment of Justice Abe Fortas on allegations that "conservative" newspapers have done well under any circumstance," he contended, however, that Crawford's report that he had already begun circulated of a petition asking the university to save the building, which the department head pointed out to the group.

"The role of the press, in his view, is somewhat similar to those pointed at Haynsworth to the Supreme Court as an example.

Seigenthaler thought it ironic that "conservative" newspapers opposed the appointment of Justice Abe Fortas on allegations that "conservative" newspapers have done well under any circumstance," he contended, however, that Crawford's report that he had already begun circulated of a petition asking the university to save the building, which the department head pointed out to the group.

"The role of the press, in his view, is somewhat similar to those pointed at Haynsworth to the Supreme Court as an example.

Seigenthaler thought it ironic that "conservative" newspapers opposed the appointment of Justice Abe Fortas on allegations that "conservative" newspapers have done well under any circumstance," he contended, however, that Crawford's report that he had already begun circulated of a petition asking the university to save the building, which the department head pointed out to the group.

"The role of the press, in his view, is somewhat similar to those pointed at Haynsworth to the Supreme Court as an example.

Seigenthaler thought it ironic that "conservative" newspapers opposed the appointment of Justice Abe Fortas on allegations that "conservative" newspapers have done well under any circumstance," he contended, however, that Crawford's report that he had already begun circulated of a petition asking the university to save the building, which the department head pointed out to the group.

"The role of the press, in his view, is somewhat similar to those pointed at Haynsworth to the Supreme Court as an example.

Seigenthaler thought it ironic that "conservative" newspapers opposed the appointment of Justice Abe Fortas on allegations that "conservative" newspapers have done well under any circumstance," he contended, however, that Crawford's report that he had already begun circulated of a petition asking the university to save the building, which the department head pointed out to the group.

"The role of the press, in his view, is somewhat similar to those pointed at Haynsworth to the Supreme Court as an example.
Archbishop Roberts begins moratorium events

Archbishop Thomas Roberts of England, a leading peace advocate at the Second Vatican Council, will speak at 8 p.m. Monday (Oct. 13) in the Engineering Building in the first of a series of events in connection with Vietnam Moratorium Day Wednesday. His topic will be "Conscience and Modern War." The lecture by Archbishop Roberts, who was formerly the spiritual leader of Catholics in the Archdiocese of Bombay, India, is open to the public and is sponsored by Notre Dame's program for the non-violent resolution of human conflict.

Archbishop Roberts will also be the principal celebrant of a 3 p.m. outdoor Mass Wednesday in front of Notre Dame's Memorial Library. The Mass will be preceded by a rally in the small quadrangle at 1 p.m. and a "Walk for Peace" which will plant crosses commemorating Notre Dame graduates who have been killed in Vietnam. The rally and Mass are sponsored by several student groups, chiefly the Coalition for Political Action, a campus activist organization formed this fall.

On Wednesday evening, Father Hesburgh will celebrate a requiem mass in Farley Hall chapel.

An all night vigil will be held at Sacred Heart Church beginning at 11:30 p.m. Tuesday and lasting until 7:30 a.m. on Wednesday morning.

The program for non-violence will also sponsor two other public lectures. David Dellinger, a peace activist currently on trial in Chicago on federal conspiracy charges, will speak at 8:30 p.m. Tuesday (Oct. 14). His topic is "From Protest to Resistance," and the location of his talk will be announced later.

Michael Cullen, a member of a group which destroyed draft records in Milwaukee, will speak at 8 p.m. Wednesday in the Engineering Auditorium on "Non-Violent Resistance: A Dialogue About the Day."

Other activities planned by student groups include a day-long fast, an all-night vigil, and teach-ins.

Statement urges against neutrality

The undersigned members of the Theology Faculty and the Graduate Theological Union welcome the statement of University policy on the observance of the Vietnam Moratorium Day, October 15, released by the Vice-President of Academic Affairs. We wish, however, to express our disappointment that the University, in its first official statement with regard to this matter, did not take a positive stand condemning the Vietnam War and fully supporting the intentions of the Moratorium. As the President of this University has often emphasized in the past, there are issues of basic human concern on which the University in general, and a Catholic University in particular, is not permitted to take a merely neutral stand.

The time has definitely come, with regard to the Vietnam War when a Christian conscience, informed by the teachings of the Church, e.g. the Pastoral Constitution on "The Church in the Modern World" and the encyclical "Peace on Earth," should have gained clarity concerning the immorality of any continuance of this war. A positive statement of Christian morality is not, in fact, "tantamount to forcing participation in a protest on some who, in conscience, hold other views."

We further wish to express our full approval of the statement of the Theology Majors concerning the apathy and complacency of the University community toward the War in Vietnam (cf. The Observer: Oct. 6, p. 1 and Oct 7, p. 1).
APPLICATION FOR NATIONAL CREDIT CARD

Mr. □ Mrs. □ Miss □
Name __________________________ Age __________
Number of Cards __________________________

CHECK ONE:
□ Married?
□ Yes □ No □

Home Address
City________ State________ Zip Code________

College Address
City________ State________ Zip Code________

Major Subject __________________________
College Classification __________________________
Parent, Guardian or Nearest Relative ________________ Relationship ________________
Address __________________________
City________ State________ Zip Code________

Date __________ Signature __________

Terms: Full payment upon receipt of statement. Deferred payment plan available on purchase of tires, tubes, batteries, accessories, and other authorized merchandise if requested at time of purchase.

RESPONSIBILITY FOR ALL PURCHASES MADE THROUGH THE CREDIT CARD PRIOR TO SURRENDER TO TEXACO INC. OR PRIOR TO WRITTEN NOTICE OF ITS LOSS OR THEFT TO TEXACO INC. RESTS UPON APPLICANT.

It's no fun trying to get a stranger to take a check when you're running short of cash and you need gasoline or other products for your car.

It's embarrassing. Unnecessary. What you need is a Texaco Credit Card. And here's your application. Just fill it out.

Sophomores, juniors, seniors, and graduate students are eligible. Sorry, freshmen, you'll have to wait another year.

Don't delay, fill out your application now. Then mail to: Attn: New Accounts, Texaco Inc., P.O. Box 2000, Bellaire, Texas 77401.

For the whole story, call Randy Szlabick at 616-684-0753 in Niles, Michigan.
Moratorium exams

The Observer has been approached by a number of students who want us to confirm or deny reports that certain professors are scheduling tests for next Wednesday, the day of the Vietnam Moratorium. It would take an endless amount of time to check out each of the rumors. We feel that there may be some basis to them, for if they are true it would be a sorry indictment of the state of the freedom of academic pursuit and dissent at Notre Dame.

Any professor who because of his opposition to the Moratorium delivers a test for next Wednesday would be surrendering to an insanity which is characteristic of both the far left and the far right. The attitude which sets out to stifle differences of opinion, free discussion of an issue, or legitimate protest through the use of pressure tactics is a vestige of a mentality which has its roots in the Middle Ages. The first Universities pointed out the tactic's futility as well as its unreasonable. Unfortunately its practice has carried over to today's society. It exists not because of its merits but because it is a manifestation of a basic human fault—the egotism which blinds a man to the fact that he is not always right.

We feel that there is no room for the use of pressure tactics at a great university. Free discussion, unrestricted inquiry, and the freedom to manifest the beliefs of one's conscience through legitimate means, should be characteristic of everything that happens at Notre Dame.

It is with this in mind that we called for the application of the true academic spirit in all the events that transpire next Wednesday. We call for participate in the Moratorium to govern their actions with respect for the rights of individuals who will attend classes that day. We call classes that day to respect the moral convictions of students who wish to participate in the Moratorium by not scheduling tests or quizzes for that day.

The argument will always be made that to not schedule tests on Wednesday would be to allow outside influences (the Moratorium) to affect the normal pursuits of the University. We believe not. One of the characters of a truly admirable curriculum is that it is flexible enough to provide for the examination of pressing topics which students are concerned with at the time of their concern.

A lot of students are restless about the war. It makes no sense to add to that restlessness by stifling students' opportunities to participate in the Moratorium.

Employee's rights

A group of University employees have issued an anonymous statement through WSND expressing their dissatisfaction with Father Walsh's statement about the Moratorium.

The fact that the University failed to say anything about their being able to participate in the Morality's activities has annoyed them. Spokesmen for the group claim that the lack of any statement about their perogatives on the Moratorium.

We feel that Father Walsh's statement fails to mention employees for the simple fact that he felt he should consult with Father Hesburgh before making a decision.

The decision to grant leaves of absence without penalty (namely a cut in pay) to University employees lies with the Vice-President for Business Affairs. Father Jerome Wilson. SBP Phil McKenna approached Father Wilson yesterday to see whether he would issue a statement for the employees.

According to McKenna, Father Wilson stated that obviously there would be no loss in pay for employees who are on monthly or other types of salaries. The problem is with employees who work on an hourly wage. He said that he felt he should consult with Father Hesburgh before making a decision.

The Vietnam Moratorium is basically a protest. People who participate in it have to assume responsibilities for their actions. In the case of students and professors who are going to administer exams, we believe that giving an exam on the 15th is not really necessary. However, if a professor found that there is no other day available he would have no choice to administer it and the student would have to take the consequences if he decided to skip it.

The case of employees is different in the sense that the University can not afford to grant them the day off with pay, without seriously inhibiting its ability to continue the educational process. We can sympathize with the employees feelings but understand the University's present position: but protest is never an easy thing.
Ivan and the lamp are the only three in our underwater cave. Our cave is buried beneath tons of water along the Eastern Seaboard. So Ivan says, for I have not been told.

Ivan has a black light bulb, which plugs into a black wall socket. I have a white light bulb which plugs into a white wall socket. Chen has no light bulb, merely sits listlessly in a corner, playing with matches, studying the flickering shadows on the top of the cave. He never speaks, only yawns from time to time. I hate Chen. Yet I know neither the reason for my hatred, nor how to communicate my hatred to him.

If we, Ivan, and I plug our respective bulbs into our respective sockets at the same instant, at that instant a chain-reaction-reaction begins which will bring death and oblivion to all but the three of us.

In the meanwhile, Ivan and I watch a television screen which projects a neat little row of blips neatly blipping from one end of the screen to the other. If you watch the blips long enough, and concentrate on each individual blip as though it were a real blip, opposed to merely contemplating the blipness of the whole thing, you begin to go crazy. I think, but I do not know, that Chen is waiting for.

But we have been instructed, Ivan and I. In our sleep we dream of the steady flow of blips which will end the image of a hand twisting the screws on the screen. I think I would rather go crazy, but I do not know.

Here is another thing. If we, Ivan and I and Chen, are a workable couple; if not the best of all possible relationships, there is a serious business. Very serious.

But all in all, I think, but I do not know, the relationship among the three of us, Ivan and I and Chen, is a workable one; if not the best of all possible relationships. For my part I will not complain or utter blasphemies at the People. I will watch the blips, I will await the Hawk. I will ignore Chen and his mysterious ways. I will tolerate Ivan, study him too. For one day, some day, if I don’t go crazy, I may get bored. And I think, but I do not know, that my arms are just a fraction longer than his.

Another thing. I don’t trust Ivan. Once, in a dream I think, but I do not know, I remember that Ivan leaped upon me. I intently following the row of blips, and he wrestled the white light bulb from my grasp. My People had forewarned me to beware the tactics of Ivan, and honor and cherish the light bulb, defend it, even if it meant my life. But I had observed Ivan, severely for a long while, and did not believe him capable of violence. Nor did I have the means to ward off his attacks if I wanted to.

Ivan, ignoring all previously-agreed-upon procedures, as well as the Law of the Blips, frantically tried to plug in both light bulbs at the same time. But even with both arms fully outstretched he could not, could not accomplish the task. Infinite fraction short. It was all so agonizing. I watched. Chen watched too, and his thin lips, just for a moment seemed to curl into a vague, all-knowing smile. Then Chen returned to his matches and his shadows.

Within a matter of hours Ivan was sprawled out on the floor of the cave, whimpering in total exhaustion. That night Ivan handed over my light bulb, apologized, promised no more of such nonsense, and I forgave him. The next day we divided the light bulbs at the same time. But even with both arms fully outstretched he could not, could not accomplish the task. Infinite fraction short. It was all so agonizing. I watched. Chen watched too, and his thin lips, just for a moment seemed to curl into a vague, all-knowing smile. Then Chen returned to his matches and his shadows.

The blow from which Ivan died beneath tons of water along the Eastern Seaboard. So Ivan says, for I have not been told.
THE OBSERVER

General Staff Meeting Today (Friday) at 4:15
Meeting for News Reporters today at 5:00

A WINNING COMBINATION

AMERICAN GENERAL

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

Offers College Students the only New Idea in Life Insurance in the Last 25 Years

MONEY as a LIVING BENEFIT

write today for more information

Free Prospectus Booklet gives you the facts on

CHANNING SPECIAL FUND

A mutual fund that aims for possible long-term growth of capital through aggressive investment policies. Shares may be purchased under the voluntary Open Account Plan with an initial investment of $100 and subsequent investments of $25 or more. Mail this ad for a free Prospectus Booklet.

CHANNING COMPANY INC.
WILLIAM RUTER
3227 ALLEN PARKWAY
HOUSTON, TEXAS 77019

AGENCY CODE 627

Hall by hall, Senate votes were tallied

(continued from page 1)

chances were improved by the ballot.

The vote in that election was Crawford 109, Tothin 71, and Pinto 65. In less disputed balloting, Jim Brogan defeated Tim Treasure in a Budin Hall election both candidates characterized as "fierce." By losing 66-49, Treasure missed a chance to become Budin's second freshman representative in two years after a history of upperclass senators. In light voting, Mark Morey, Ken Hines, C. Sween, Bruce Kuenin and H. Patrick Weber won senate seats from Grove Tower. They ran unopposed.

Rass Stone edged Jerry Fenzel in an extremely close race at Howard Hall. Stone collected 59 votes to Fenzel’s 53. Write in Pete Martinek received 8 votes.

In Walsh Hall, Jeff King and Fred Loechbiber each collected 78 votes to win positions in the Senate. John Brubeka collected unopposed. 67 ballots.

Buz Clevin romped to an easy win over J. Thomas Yust at St. Ed’s, and Ed McCurtain easily beat out the challenge of Tim McKay and Dennis Wall at Holy Cross. Frank McAleer and Thomas Patton led a field of six to win posts as Flanner’s "B" tower representatives, while unopposed Daniel Dillon and Kevin Smith won in "A" tower. Tim Feeley collected 133 votes and Joe White 109 to win one of the Senate positions.

McKale of Carroll hall ran unopposed to the 100 and John Kwicien’s 80.

In Zahm Hall, Dave Johnson collected a heavy plurality to take one of the Senate positions. Ken Israel, with 118 votes, edged Mike Roffino by 16 ballots.

In Stanford Hall, Tom McDermott and Erik Andrus defeated a challenge by Tom Wiedmer and write-in Robert Oliver to assume seats in the Student Senate.

Tom Belle and John Drost, from Panghorn, Terry Malik of St. Joe’s, Steve Florin and Dave Colbert of Fairley Hall and Mike McKale of Carroll hall ran unopposed.

Fairley views vial

Dr. William Fairley, associate professor of geology at the University of Notre Dame, recently made a scientific pilgrimage to Bloomington, Ind. to view a vial of dust valued at $50 million.

The vial contained moon dust, the first display of lunar material in Indiana. The sample was collected by astronauts of the Apollo 11 last July, as they walked on the moon.

Fairley says the vial is "a historic find." He says it is "an actual piece of the moon." The vial contains rock and sand from the moon’s surface. The vial contains a "magnificent" treasure, Fairley says.

The vial was donated to the University of Notre Dame. The university is now going to have the vial put on display.

Fairley says the vial is "a historic find." He says it is "an actual piece of the moon." The vial contains rock and sand from the moon’s surface. The vial contains a "magnificent" treasure, Fairley says.

The vial was donated to the University of Notre Dame. The university is now going to have the vial put on display.

Fairley says the vial is "a historic find." He says it is "an actual piece of the moon." The vial contains rock and sand from the moon’s surface. The vial contains a "magnificent" treasure, Fairley says.

The vial was donated to the University of Notre Dame. The university is now going to have the vial put on display.

Fairley says the vial is "a historic find." He says it is "an actual piece of the moon." The vial contains rock and sand from the moon’s surface. The vial contains a "magnificent" treasure, Fairley says.

The vial was donated to the University of Notre Dame. The university is now going to have the vial put on display.
Sen. Goodell speaks today

U.S. Senator Charles Goodell, the controversial New York Republican appointed to the vacancy left by the assassination of Robert F. Kennedy, will speak at the closing session of the Student Union Academic Commission's News Media Conference on Friday, October 10th at 3:00 p.m. in Stemen Center. His address entitled "Presidential Management of the News: A Case in Point," will be held in conjunction with the National Student War Moratorium movement and is open to the public. A question and answer period will follow the formal part of the program. The Reverend Theodore Hesburgh, President of the University of Notre Dame and a member of the President's Commission on Draft Reform, will introduce the speaker.

Laird's son protests

(UPI) Defense Secretary Melvin R. Laird's son revealed yesterday he will march with other students next Wednesday in a scheduled nationwide demonstration against the Vietnam War.

John Laird, who is studying to be a teacher at Kau Claire State University in Wisconsin, said he has informed his father about his plans.

"I thought it was great of him not to object," young Laird said. Plans for the demonstration gathered momentum last week amid calls for total withdrawal of U.S. troops.

the 59c lunch

The burgers are bigger at

501 DIXIEWAY NORTH, SOUTH BEND
Harriers host invitational

The 1969 Notre Dame cross country team will open the sea­son this afternoon by hosting the annual Notre Dame Invitational Meet at the Burke Memorial Golf Course. However, not even coach Alex Wilson would hazard to make a pre­diction on the fate of this year’s team; they’re better than ND opponents Pitt, Tulane, and Navy; but they also have had injuries and have been known to run as high as 4 miles on the first four runners. This combination, if healthy, should be strong enough to build the team.

Wilson’s statement concerning the meet this afternoon are as follows. The course covers five miles over school days, and Sid Sink of Bowling Green who was voted the outstanding athlete of the 1969 Central Collegiate Con­ference outdoor meet was only 3 miles and 6 miles.

The six interior linemen for the Army squad is 234 lbs. and they’ll be blocking against an Army front four which averages more than 240 lbs. Among them is defensive tackle Mike McOy and his partners weigh in at 247 lbs. per man while the Army team is only 224 lbs. per man. In fact, one of the biggest men on the Irish defense is also the smallest. It is 5’10” 170 lb. Ed Zeigler from Bowling Green.

For defending champion Jerry Richey from Pitt who has been given the 14th annual Notre Dame Invitational Meet at the Burke Memorial Golf Course. Not only change in this week’s Irish line-up is in the defensive backfield. On the second-string, Jay Standring will replace the injured Don Real.

Notre Dame is favored by 14½ points to extend the series against the Cadets to 27-8. The game, at Yankee Stadium, is scheduled for 2:00 p.m., EST, and will be broadcasted on TV.

Irish big favorites over tiny Cadets

The six interior linemen for the Army squad is 234 lbs. and they’ll be blocking against an Army front four which averages more than 240 lbs. Among them is defensive tackle Mike McOy and his partners weigh in at 247 lbs. per man while the Army team is only 224 lbs. per man. In fact, one of the biggest men on the Irish defense is also the smallest. It is 5’10” 170 lb. Ed Zeigler from Bowling Green.

For defending champion Jerry Richey from Pitt who has been given the 14th annual Notre Dame Invitational Meet at the Burke Memorial Golf Course. Not only change in this week’s Irish line-up is in the defensive backfield. On the second-string, Jay Standring will replace the injured Don Real.

Notre Dame is favored by 14½ points to extend the series against the Cadets to 27-8. The game, at Yankee Stadium, is scheduled for 2:00 p.m., EST, and will be broadcasted on TV.

The conferences begin

After a horrendous weekend of upsets (Colorado over Indiana, New Mexico over Oregon, and more), I move into conference play which, if anything, is harder to pick. There’s no telling what doomsday is going to shine when conference foes come to town.

Notre Dame over Army—by 24. Fun in the big city as the Irish get a chance to test some reserves.

Georgia over Mississippi—by 6. Quarterback Archie Manning rolled up 540 yards in total offense as Ole Miss lost to Alabama. He’ll need at least that much against Georgia Tech.

Texas over Oklahoma—by 7. The Longhorns extended their winning streak to two.

Notre Dame against Michigan—by 3. Mike Phipps and last week’s brunching by Mistouy will be too much for the Wolverines.

Ohio State over Michigan State—by 10. This is a conference game and Duffy won’t be shelved two weeks in a row.

Pitt over Navy—by 15. Delicious Panther fans watch the Wolverines extend their winning streak to two.

Delaware over Hofstra—by 28. A “breaker” for the 8th-ranked Blue Hens.

LSU over Miami (Fla.)—by 17. West Virginia over Penn State—by 1. Houston over Arizona—by 24.

SMU over TCU—by 17. Texas Tech over Texas A & M—by 14.

Delaware over Hofstra—by 28. A “breaker” for the 8th-ranked Blue Hens.

The conferences begin

After a horrendous weekend of upsets (Colorado over Indiana, New Mexico over Oregon, and more), I move into conference play which, if anything, is harder to pick. There’s no telling what doomsday is going to shine when conference foes come to town.

Notre Dame over Army—by 24. Fun in the big city as the Irish get a chance to test some reserves.

Georgia over Mississippi—by 6. Quarterback Archie Manning rolled up 540 yards in total offense as Ole Miss lost to Alabama. He’ll need at least that much against Georgia Tech.

Texas over Oklahoma—by 7. The Longhorns extended their winning streak to two.

Notre Dame against Michigan—by 3. Mike Phipps and last week’s brunching by Mistouy will be too much for the Wolverines.

Ohio State over Michigan State—by 10. This is a conference game and Duffy won’t be shelved two weeks in a row.

Pitt over Navy—by 15. Delicious Panther fans watch the Wolverines extend their winning streak to two.

Delaware over Hofstra—by 28. A “breaker” for the 8th-ranked Blue Hens.

LSU over Miami (Fla.)—by 17. West Virginia over Penn State—by 1. Houston over Arizona—by 24.

SMU over TCU—by 17. Texas Tech over Texas A & M—by 14.

Delaware over Hofstra—by 28. A “breaker” for the 8th-ranked Blue Hens.

The conferences begin

After a horrendous weekend of upsets (Colorado over Indiana, New Mexico over Oregon, and more), I move into conference play which, if anything, is harder to pick. There’s no telling what doomsday is going to shine when conference foes come to town.

Notre Dame over Army—by 24. Fun in the big city as the Irish get a chance to test some reserves.

Georgia over Mississippi—by 6. Quarterback Archie Manning rolled up 540 yards in total offense as Ole Miss lost to Alabama. He’ll need at least that much against Georgia Tech.

Texas over Oklahoma—by 7. The Longhorns extended their winning streak to two.

Notre Dame against Michigan—by 3. Mike Phipps and last week’s brunching by Mistouy will be too much for the Wolverines.

Ohio State over Michigan State—by 10. This is a conference game and Duffy won’t be shelved two weeks in a row.

Pitt over Navy—by 15. Delicious Panther fans watch the Wolverines extend their winning streak to two.

Delaware over Hofstra—by 28. A “breaker” for the 8th-ranked Blue Hens.

LSU over Miami (Fla.)—by 17. West Virginia over Penn State—by 1. Houston over Arizona—by 24.

SMU over TCU—by 17. Texas Tech over Texas A & M—by 14.

Delaware over Hofstra—by 28. A “breaker” for the 8th-ranked Blue Hens.

The conferences begin

After a horrendous weekend of upsets (Colorado over Indiana, New Mexico over Oregon, and more), I move into conference play which, if anything, is harder to pick. There’s no telling what doomsday is going to shine when conference foes come to town.

Notre Dame over Army—by 24. Fun in the big city as the Irish get a chance to test some reserves.

Georgia over Mississippi—by 6. Quarterback Archie Manning rolled up 540 yards in total offense as Ole Miss lost to Alabama. He’ll need at least that much against Georgia Tech.

Texas over Oklahoma—by 7. The Longhorns extended their winning streak to two.

Notre Dame against Michigan—by 3. Mike Phipps and last week’s brunching by Mistouy will be too much for the Wolverines.

Ohio State over Michigan State—by 10. This is a conference game and Duffy won’t be shelved two weeks in a row.

Pitt over Navy—by 15. Delicious Panther fans watch the Wolverines extend their winning streak to two.

Delaware over Hofstra—by 28. A “breaker” for the 8th-ranked Blue Hens.

LSU over Miami (Fla.)—by 17. West Virginia over Penn State—by 1. Houston over Arizona—by 24.

SMU over TCU—by 17. Texas Tech over Texas A & M—by 14.

Delaware over Hofstra—by 28. A “breaker” for the 8th-ranked Blue Hens.

The conferences begin

After a horrendous weekend of upsets (Colorado over Indiana, New Mexico over Oregon, and more), I move into conference play which, if anything, is harder to pick. There’s no telling what doomsday is going to shine when conference foes come to town.

Notre Dame over Army—by 24. Fun in the big city as the Irish get a chance to test some reserves.

Georgia over Mississippi—by 6. Quarterback Archie Manning rolled up 540 yards in total offense as Ole Miss lost to Alabama. He’ll need at least that much against Georgia Tech.

Texas over Oklahoma—by 7. The Longhorns extended their winning streak to two.

Notre Dame against Michigan—by 3. Mike Phipps and last week’s brunching by Mistouy will be too much for the Wolverines.

Ohio State over Michigan State—by 10. This is a conference game and Duffy won’t be shelved two weeks in a row.

Pitt over Navy—by 15. Delicious Panther fans watch the Wolverines extend their winning streak to two.

Delaware over Hofstra—by 28. A “breaker” for the 8th-ranked Blue Hens.

LSU over Miami (Fla.)—by 17. West Virginia over Penn State—by 1. Houston over Arizona—by 24.

SMU over TCU—by 17. Texas Tech over Texas A & M—by 14.

Delaware over Hofstra—by 28. A “breaker” for the 8th-ranked Blue Hens.