Washington officials threatened

by Don Ruane
Observer Managing Editor

Washington officials connected with "running the war" have been given until July 4, 1971 to bring the Vietnam conflict to a halt or face the possibility of severe personal injury or death to themselves or their families, according to a letter received by the Observer on April 1st.

The letter, postmarked Brockton, Mass., said, "Very recently, we, for example, threw a bomb at Julie Nixon perhaps on July 4, 1971, might shoot at the wife of a big bracehawk representative or put a little rapist in a hole. Malcolm Laird or even put in danger the life of one of the big brave generals of the Pentagon."

The letter was sent by People for Peace to the "American People" and several other student publications including those at Stanford and the University of Michigan.

FBI CONSULTED

After discussing the letter at an editorial board meeting, an Observer contacted the Boston FBI office and was told that anything they had in their files on this subject would be classified as "confidential.

The agent recommended that the Observer contact the FBI in Belfast, Maine.

The local office was contacted Saturday afternoon and decided to check with its headquarters in Boston. While the FBI offices were closed, the Observer learned from the local director that the People for Peace "is a new organization as serious as it seems. However, the People for Peace have a "theory" that they want to stop the war and the sons of the rich cabinet and generals start getting killed instead of just gooks and they get the letter, throw a bomb at Julie Nixon or have the situation but some Arab diplomats in Cairo expressed doubt it would ever be held. They said there was a four way split among the 14 Arab league members with respect to level of representation at such a meeting or the style of negotiations. The Israeli charge of Egyptian overflights came after Prime Minister Dayan pressed the Egyptians to think it over and extend the period of representation at such a meeting or the style of negotiations.

The other major action of the Observer was to establish a delegation to the Peace "is a new organization as important as it seems. However, the People for Peace have a "theory" that they want to stop the war and the sons of the rich cabinet and generals start getting killed instead of just gooks and they get the letter, throw a bomb at Julie Nixon or have the situation but some Arab diplomats in Cairo expressed doubt it would ever be held. The Israeli charge of Egyptian overflights came after Prime Minister Dayan pressed the Egyptians to think it over and extend the period of representation at such a meeting or the style of negotiations.

The second part of the two-page memo read: "The, the letter is a "Notice about the War Criminals". The People for Peace say they are going to start shooting, burning up, throwing rocks and bombing to show how bad the war is to all the people from Nixon and Agnew on down the line."

The notice says that the people running the war may be sincere and that this would not make it as serious as it seems. However, the People for Peace have a "theory" that they want to stop the war and the sons of the rich cabinet and generals start getting killed instead of just gooks and they get the letter, throw a bomb at Julie Nixon or have the situation but some Arab diplomats in Cairo expressed doubt it would ever be held. Barkett's cabinet looks forward

by Matt Cavanaugh

This is the second of a two part series on John Barkett's Cabinet. Steve Fortunate, Human Affairs Commissioner, feels that his experience of last year on the human affairs commission will help him in his new duties. He plans to take a realistic look at the university's problems, and his commission "will play a large part in forging the 'new partnership' between students and Student Government promised in the campaign." Fortunate will work in the areas of minority and international students, campus ministry, co-education, admissions and counselling. He feels that "both psychological and career counselling must be changed in preparation for co-education."

Under Fortunate the Human Affairs Commission will try to aid the hall governments and presidents and work in the minority student area, especially with the Black Studies Program. He will also try to improve the existing university programs and services, and make them more available to the average student. Fortunate emphasized the fact that "these services can't be accomplished without student efforts and co-operation on all levels."

Observer Insight

Off-Campus Commissioner, John Drost cites his experience as a member of the Pangborn Hall Council and Pangborn senator as being of value in his new job. He feels that living off campus has acquainted him with the situation and life of the off-campus student.

Drost said that his emphasis will be twofold. "We will try to improve the everyday life of the off-campus student, and we will strive to include the off-campus student in the activities of the university community." He plans a qualitative listing of available housing, and mentioned the possibility of a food co-op. Drost said that a monthly newsletter containing the student union and university calendars, university directives, and other items of interest would be sent to off-campus students.

"The Off-Campus Office," said Drost, "can provide information and help to those students wishing to move off campus. For those students who are already living off campus we hope to serve as a sounding board for suggestions and complaints."

Academic Commissioner Fred Giuffrida was Lyons Hall senator this year, and was recently elected to his second year as a Stay Senator. He has also been a student representative to the Faculty Senate. Of his new position he says, "We are stressing student participation in decisions concerning academic life at Notre Dame, the improvement of counselling services throughout the university, and implementation of the merger in the area of academic affairs."

He said, "We hope to aid the student directly by improving his academic program, offering him a greater voice and more freedom in his academic pursuits.

Dave Tushar, assistant co-ordinator for the Judicial Commission this past year, plans a four-pronged emphasis as Judicial Co-ordinator. The first area is the halls. "I want to work with them and be available for assistance. Secondly, I want to work on unifying the two (Notre Dame-Saint Mary's) judicial systems. Third, I want to be more available to students and work more closely with the RA's and rectors. Finally, I hope to increase the efficiency of the judicial process by working out procedural matters."

Tushar sees the Judicial Commission as a service to the students. He feels that it should offer aid when difficulties arise, insure the rights of the students and increase the spirit and life of the university community.
Notre Dame book drive aids Indian college

Notre Dame, Ind.—Students and friends of the University of Notre Dame and Saint Mary’s College were asked in January to contribute unused books to help stock the library of the newly founded Spotted Tail Junior College on the Rosebud Indian Reservation in South Dakota. Members of the Committee on Indians at the University, who expected a contribution of two to three tons, are now preparing to move westward during the Easter vacation with a collection nearing seven tons and still growing.

Dr. A.L. Seens, associate professor of English and committee chairman, said the “overwhelming response” to the plea for books is a “clear indication that the university community is concerned with advancement of educational opportunities for Indian youth.” He added a special message of appreciation to the Herb Seall Marathon station, South Bend Avenue and Ironwood, for their free loan of a U-Haul truck to transport the books to the college. A preliminary gift of $800 from the Notre Dame Mardi Gras Charity Chest committee will be used to purchase bookshelves at the college and to pay for gasoline costs involved in transporting the collection. Committee members also plan to reproduce two rare volumes of Sitting Bull’s works from the Niles, Mich., Museum for addition to the collection on Indian lore.

An inter-disciplinary group, the Committee on Indians is presently discussing programs of faculty training and student exchange with officials of the junior college.

In a related move, intensive six-week courses in Indian Studies will begin June 14 at Spotted Tail Junior College discussion about the goals of any such study, and it was decided that there should be a more comprehensive study funded by the Board of Trustees and due sometime next year.

Originally, the Shultz committee was to do their work with only the questionnaire. The areas to be studied were Off-Campus Life, On-Campus Life, and General Areas of Concern. Professor Vasta recommended that more personal means of gathering information be used. “We need a dimension inviting people to make recommendations,” he said. He said that the means of dealing with the recommendations should be similar to the procedures used by Congressional Committees.

SBP Barkett said that both the questionnaire and the subjective reports could be used if all available facilities were used, and it was this option that eventually prevailed. The reduction proposal of the little or no direct exposure to Indians and Indian reservations of the Plains area.

Additional information on the program and financial assistance may be obtained by contacting Notre-Dame senior Bill Kura, 615 Woodcliff, or by calling 233-5684 before April 26.

Holy Cross fights chapel locking

by John Powers

Apparent stealing in the Holy Cross hall chapel and related incidents have led to the locking of the chapel doors by Rev. Thomas Seidel, C.S.C., rector of Holy Cross. Seidel refused to disclose the circumstances, stating only that "The chapel is open for Mass."

The chapel was locked last Tuesday because of the stealing of altar wine. Also stolen since the beginning of the year are a gold candleabra, an American flag and pole, and candles. One hall resident, who asked that his name be withheld, said that the wine was stolen by townies. David Tokars, Hall Liturgical Commissioner, said that some wine and candles had been stolen earlier in the year. "I'm not aware of any wine that is missing," he said, "out in the course of the last two months."

One student reportedly saw smoke in the chapel on a few mornings this year, but the cause of these incidents was undetermined.

The locking of the chapel was apparently initiated about three weeks ago. What began as a Hall Council meeting became a general hall meeting when Ed McCartin a resident told a member of the Hall Council that Father Seidel had something to say of particular importance to the entire hall. The meeting was held in the Blue Room of the Student Life building.

Unemployment stalks the campus. Students search frantically for any kind of part-time work, but there is no work. In fact, if things don't get better soon, many students may be forced into babysitting. I hear you cry, "No! No!" But alas, my friends, desperate times require desperate remedies. So if baby-sit we must, let us at least do it don't get better soon, many students may be forced into baby-sitting.

It is essential to dominate the baby from the very start. Never show fear; they can smell it. Walk into the nursery boldly with your head thrown back, singing a lusty song—La Marquise, perhaps—or a Boy Named Sue. Stomp around the room several times. Crack your whip. Fire your pistol. Keep it up till the baby knows you mean business.

But terror, though necessary, is not enough. To get the best results out of a baby, you must also make it love and trust you. This, however, cannot be accomplished by firing your pistol, not even done to the baby's ear. A new tactic is required: you must give it some food.

The baby's habitual diet is a viscous white fluid called "formula." This should be served at the temperature of your wrist. In the event you can't find the baby's formula, let it suck your wrist. It will never know the difference, for the baby is basically an organism of dim intelligence, though not without a certain pleasant cunning.

After the baby has ingested the formula or sucked your wrist for thirty minutes or so, it grows stuporous and is ready to go to sleep. This is really quite simple. In a lullaby the words are unimportant, which matters is the sound. 30 Seconds over Tokyo

TOKYO (UPI) — Michiji Ito, a 21 year old mandolin player, escaped with minor injury Monday night when he fell from the roof of a nine story building and plunged through the roof of a restaurant onto a bed occupied by two sleeping women.

The women were not hurt and called police who rushed to the hospital where it was discovered he received only slight head and leg injuries. But police said the two women passed out from shock after they arrived.

Police said Ito was a senior at Meiji University in Tokyo and a member of the school's mandolin club.

He had played at a wedding party earlier in the evening and afterward dropped off at a bar with friends. Police said he parted from his friends "to get some air," rambled down to Yuracucho Street a few blocks away and took an elevator to the roof of a building. He started to climb its protective fence but lost his balance and fell nine floors to the bed.

Theology today needs to focus carefully upon the crucial problem of violence in modern society. President Salvador Allende's government claimed it had in the election returns and nationwide municipal elections, that the opposition had won 48.14 per cent of the vote. But either way the government parties' showing was impressive. Their demonstration of collective "punchball" at the polls would prestige a powerful boot, after only five months in office.

CHINESE VOTE

SANTIAGO, CHILE UP - Chile's Marxist oriented government parties led by President Salvador Allende's Socialists came within a hair of capturing 50 percent of the vote in nationwide municipal elections, final returns showed yesterday. Political analysts agreed the strong showing of the government parties gave Allende a priority to move ahead quickly with his sweeping nationalization and radical agrarian reform programs.

The government parties received an impressive 49.73 per cent of the vote, 3,103,844 votes cast and emerged with a 1.50 per cent lead over the combined opposition parties.

Results were released shortly after noon 1 p.m. EST by the Interior Ministry. An hour later, however, the same ministry issued new figures which omitted the independent, blank and voided votes. Under this new calculation, the government claimed it had indeed captured 50.66 of the vote. It said the opposition had won 48.14 per cent of the vote.

Thus, the election returns and the outcome depended on what set of figures were considered accurate. But either way the government parties' showing was impressive. Their demonstration of collective "punchball" at the polls would prestige a powerful boot, after only five months in office.

Joe and Austin sign contracts

Theismann to Toronto Argos- Carr with Cavaliers

by Jim Donaldson
Observer Sports Editor

If Cleveland Cavaliers owner Nick Miletti was wearing a big grin Monday, then it might be safe to wager that John Bassett, chairman of the board of the Canadian Football League's Toronto Argonauts, was sporting a smile twice as wide.

Miletti was happy because he had gotten the signature of his number one draft pick, the nation's top college basketball player, Austin Carr of Notre Dame, on a Cavaliers contract. The Cavs' owner said that Carr was signed to a contract "fitting the No. 1 college player in the country." It was estimated that Carr signed for more than $1 million, spread over a multi-year contract.

But, whereas Miletti had expected to sign Carr, the Argonauts inked Joe Theismann as came a surprise to Bassett. Theismann, an All-American selection at quarterback this past season, was reported to have reached an agreement with the Miami Dolphins of the National Football League last March, although he did not sign with the Florida club at that time.

Sunday, however, Theismann put his signature on a two-year contract with Toronto. The amount of cash involved was not made public. Bassett announced the signing Monday, saying, "We've now got a good quarterback. We were surprised and delighted that he chose to play in Toronto.

Reached by phone late Monday night, Theismann explained his surprise move by saying, "I had initially agreed to sign with Miami but experienced some contractual difficulties with them. These problems were cleared up though and I made a verbal commitment to sign with the Dolphins. After thinking things over, however, I decided to sign with Toronto because of the monetary difference and Toronto's security guarantees." The slender senior said that he was "looking forward to playing Canadian ball. "Whether or not I'm able to break right into the lineup depends on my ability," Theismann said. "I'm going up there with every intention of playing." Cleveland's signing of Carr ended speculation that the star quarterback might sign with an NFL team.

"I was leaning toward the NFL at one point," Carr replied. "I hope so. From the people I've met, Cleveland seems to be a friendly city and a good football town."

The Cavs didn't have a poor record during the past NBA campaign and it's quite likely that Carr will find himself in the starting lineup for Cleveland next season. "I have every hope of starting next year," Carr said. "I realize it'll be a different style of play physically and psychologically, though.

McMannon first in Ky. relays

by K.J. Kishof
Observer Sports Writer

The Notre Dame Track Team closed their workout season and resumed practice today after an encouraging, if not overly impressive, weekend at the Kentucky Relays in Lexington, Kentucky.

The Irish competed in the field that included Kentucky, Western Michigan, Tennessee, Bowling Green, Pittsburgh, Indiana and Michigan State.

The Relays did not award team points, only individual honors, and the Irish tracksters returned home with one first place finish and two seconds.

Junior Mike McMannon, performing in his home state, capped the lone first place honor in the long jump with an effort of 24' 1 3/4".

The only bona-fide runner-up ribbon went to Ello Joselli in the discuss throw. His effort of 167' 5/4" earned him the "clue but no cigar" finish.

The shuttle hurdle relay team of Mike McMannon, Tom Mann, Dave Stricker and Joe Lee also finished second with a time of 54.7, but the team was disqualified when one of the relay legs took off too soon.

The distance medley relay team of Vic Pantea, Marty Hill, Gene Mercer and Tom Dench finished seventh with a time of 10:27.

The sprint medley, the four mile relay and the 440 yard relay teams failed to place.

Ruggers bow to Indy Reds

by Greg Eisboden
Observer Sports Writer

Notre Dame's Rugby team opened its '71 season Saturday by dropping an 11-5 verdict to the Indianapolis Reds on the winners home field. Injuries to several key players crippled Irish chances of winning their season inaugural.

Injuries to club president and captain, Mike Morrison, along with Chuck Petrosky and John Zukaitis, put the Irish at a disadvantage going into the contest. Nevertheless, the Irish took an early 3-0 lead on a try by Bill Choppeite and Doug Smeag's conversion. But Indianapolis scored on a try to cut the Notre lead to 3-3.

Later in the first half, the Reds scored on a penalty kick, giving them a slim 6-3 lead which held up until the intermission. First half injuries to Choppeite, Joe Dugan, and John Lieno did nothing to bolster Irish hopes for a second half comeback. The second forty minutes was all Indianapolis as they scored on another try and added the conversion to make the final score 11-3.

The Irish "B" team was more successful, however, as they shipped the Reds, 6-0. After a scoreless first half, two second half trys by Ned Braun gave the Irish the victory. Club vice-president Chuck Petrosky praised the play of the B team, particularly the work of Pat Kruger and Tom Masenga.

The ruggers will travel to Columbus April 2 to meet the Cleveland Blues in the second of their regular season scheduled games. The first home game will be on Saturday, April 24 against Palmer.
