The transition from Dean of Students Macheca to Dean of Students Roemer is presently underway. Both men are still reluctant to discuss any official plans for the future of the office, and Dean Macheca is presently trying to provide an element of continuity under the new Dean, whose appointment has been effective for seven days now.

Roemer has been involved with many student activities throughout his years at Notre Dame, ranging from his duties on the board of directors of the Neighborhood Study Help Program to those on the board of director's of the Ombudsman service at the University.

Looking to the future, Macheca commented, "We have to hold expectations up for each other; that's the only way to continue to grow and better ourselves." Story on page three.

Mr. Joseph A. La Fortune, a 1916 graduate and member of the Board of Trustees at the University, died Tuesday night in Colorado Springs, Colorado.

Mr. La Fortune's cash gift to the University helped finance the renovation of the former Science Hall, which turned it into the present La Fortune Student Center. Mr. La Fortune also served on the Board of Trustees and the Associate Board of Trustees. Since 1971, he had served as a trustee emeritus. Story on page two.

Who says a newspaper has to be heavy all of the time? Certainly not us. It's fun and games time on pages six and seven, as the OObserver presents a Puzzle Page to help you wile away your summer hours. Brain teasers, word games, mazes and trivia questions abound. Bring a pencil and eraser.

DOONESBURY

by Garry Trudeau
AN ICE CREAM SPECIAL
BUY ONE HOT FUDGE SUNDAY
AND GET ONE FREE
(with this coupon)
AT FARRELL'S ICE CREAM PARLOR
SCOTTSDALE MALL 291-3800

THIS SUNDAY AUG. 2
NO COVER CHARGE
WITH THIS AD
NOW APPEARING
CITY BOYS
SHULA'S
NITE CLUB
On U.S. 31 between Niles and South Bend. Free Parking. Ph. 683-4350
CONTINUOUS ENTERTAINMENT FROM 9 P.M. TILL 2 A.M.

70,000 Job Openings.
Good salary. Your choice of training over 300 good jobs. Work near home or abroad. Educational opportunities. Free medical and dental care. Free housing, meals, and 30 days paid vacation. Special bonuses. Physical training. Adventure. If you qualify, we guarantee you job training. Pay you while you learn. You'll train for four months. Start at $344.10 a month (before deductions). With a raise to $383.40 the following month.

In response to international criticism, the State Department has pointed out that the controversial American Evacuation of Orphans from Vietnam in April was not without historical precedent.

"Many times in the past, humanitarians have come forth to aid the infant victims of international crises and catastrophes," declared a State Department spokesman. He went on to note that during the seveneenth and eighteenth centuries, Portuguese ship captains rescued thousands of helpless children from the strife and political chaos then afflicting the continent of Africa. While during the Middle Ages, courageous bands of gypsies conducted a lonely campaign to free European babies from medieval towns threatened in the Dark Ages. And, in 1248, P. Piper, Westphalian ambassador,responded to the alarming plight of youngsters in rat-endangered Hamelin towns by organizing a massive flood to the nearby secure insides of a mountain.

The Mattel Toy Company has just come out with a female doll whose breasts grow before your very eyes. "Growing Up Skipper" is equipped with a special arm, which, when given a twist, causes two bumps to grow on the doll's chest. Mattel says that "Skipper helps teach children about puberty."

The wife of Evangelist Billy Graham snatched a sign from a protestor during a Bicentennial Celebration in Charlotte, North Carolina. The Celebration was being attended by President Ford.

A young man, a member of the antirwar Red Hornets Mayday Tribe, was carrying a sign bearing the Revolutionary War slogan, "Don't Tread on Me," when Mrs. Graham leaped up, grabbed it, and planted it between her beribboned white pumps.

LaFortune Student Center. A cash gift to the University in 1973 is a native of Mishawaka.

The murder of Joseph A. LaFortune, a 1916 graduate and member of the Board of Trustees at the University of Notre Dame since 1941, died Tuesday night (Aug. 5) in a Colorado Springs, Colo., hospital. A resident of Tulsa, Okla., 81 year old LaFortune, had been vaccinated at the time of his death. Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. tomorrow, in Christ the King Church, 1539 S. Rockford, Tulsa.

Mr. LaFortune majored in a special merchandising-commerce sequence during his undergraduate days at Notre Dame. The South Bend native moved to Tulsa after graduation where he was employed by the Tulsa World newspaper and began a long association with the oil industry.

He was named deputy administrator of the Petroleum Association in Washington in 1953. Named to the Associate Board of Lay Trustees in 1941, Mr. LaFortune was reappointed to the Board of Trustees in 1967, and has served as trustee emeritus since 1971. He received an honorary L.L.B. doctorate at the 1949 commencement on the campus.

A cash gift to the University in 1953 helped finance the renovation of the former Science Hall for the use as a student center, the present LaFortune Student Center. A scholarship fund in honor of their parents was presented to Notre Dame in 1969 by four children, Joseph Jr., and Robert, Jean Henry and Mary Ann Wilcox. His wife, Gertrude Tremel LaFortune, a native of Mishawaka.
Macheca and Roemer working together for smooth transition

by Andy Praschak
Associate Editor

It was officially announced on July, 31, that Dr. James A. Roemer would be replacing Mr. John Macheca as dean of students at the University of Notre Dame. With the appointment effective for only seven days now, both Macheca and Roemer are still reluctant to discuss any official plans for the future of the office of dean of students. "I am presently working with Dean Roemer to provide as much continuity as possible under the new dean," Macheca said.

Macheca, who was the first lay dean of students ever appointed at the University of Notre Dame, explained that his job now is to help Roemer understand "what" has to be done as dean of students while leaving the choice of "how" the job is to be done to Roemer. He also explained that much understanding and many concepts must be worked out before they can make any definite plans for the future public.

Macheca, who was appointed to this position in 1973, noted that he first started thinking about devoting more time to his master's degree in May when he started discussing the possibilities with Dr. Just Pacesney, vice president for student affairs.

"I now feel that I will have the time to investigate the MSA program that I have been interested in," said Macheca. He said that when he first considered furthering his studies, he did not know exactly how this would affect his job as dean of students.

"I've been here two years and the first year was spent mostly immersed in the process of learning how to be the dean of students. It was an awful lot of hard work. The second year I was beginning to adjust and it wasn't quite so demanding," said Macheca.

A press release issued by the university on July, 31, said that Macheca would serve as a special assistant to Brother Just next fall. Macheca commented that his job as special assistant would include working with Roemer as well as continuing to work with the Senior Club. "I want to be able to give the Senior Club and the Senior Class as much support as possible next year," he said.

Roemer, who announced that his wife is expecting a child in October, explained that his entire family will not take some time to decide exactly what he will be doing in the future. "However, I do plan to stay at Notre Dame for the next semester and probably for the entire year," he said.

Macheca was careful to note that although he will be around to help Roemer as much as possible, each man brings his own personality to a job such as this.

Dr. Roemer, who has been University Counsel since October of 1972, felt that he was chosen for the job because of his close involvement with Notre Dame students throughout all his stay here. "Notre Dame students have been welcome in my house for the last five years," he boasted.

Dr. Roemer, who has been University Counsel since October of 1972, felt that he was chosen for the job because of his close involvement with Notre Dame students throughout all his stay here. "Notre Dame students have been welcome in my house for the last five years," he boasted.

Both Macheca and Roemer agreed that they will be happy to divulge more of their plans for the future and reflections on the past, probably at the end of the summer, when they manage to work out many of the details and concepts they are now discussing.

Kommers named to Civil Rights post

Dr. Donald P. Kommers, professor of Government and International Studies at the University of Notre Dame, has been appointed director of the University's Center for Civil Rights, effective September 1.

Kommers, a member of the Notre Dame faculty since 1963, succeeds Dr. Howard A. Glickstein, who has headed the Center since it was established at Notre Dame by a $500,000 grant from the Ford Foundation in 1973.

Glickstein, a former staff director of the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights, has accepted a law faculty appointment at Howard University, Washington, D.C.

In making the announcement of Kommers' appointment, the Rev. James T. Burtschaell, C.S.C., provost of the University, also announced that "the new program of the University, will now be attached to the Notre Dame Law School. Father Burtschaell said the Law School committee on appointments and promotions will be asked to consider Kommers for a concurrent appointment on its faculty. "The background of Dr. Kommers in political science and (continued on page 10) Photos exhibited at SMC

Award-winning photographs from the Elver Hill competition are currently exhibited in the Little Theater Gallería at Saint Mary's College, Notre Dame, Indiana, August 3-31.

After the show closed at Saint Mary's, it will travel to several South Bend public schools, the Mishawaka Public Library, the City-County Building in South Bend, Nazareth College in Kalamazoo, and other area locations through the first of next year.

The contest and exhibit are sponsored by Saint Mary's College and the National Endowment for the Arts - the Indiana Arts Commission. Judges were Julius Ivánovics, South Bend Tribune staff photographer and instructor at the South Bend Art Center, and Richard Raymond Alasko, gallery director and assistant professor in art at the University of Wisconsin-Waukesha Center and a visiting lecturer in baroque art at Loyola University, Chicago.

Kommers, a member of the Notre Dame faculty since 1963, succeeds Dr. Howard A. Glickstein, who has headed the Center since it was established at Notre Dame by a $500,000 grant from the Ford Foundation in 1973.

Glickstein, a former staff director of the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights, has accepted a law faculty appointment at Howard University, Washington, D.C.

In making the announcement of Kommers' appointment, the Rev. James T. Burtschaell, C.S.C., provost of the University, also announced that "the new program of the University, will now be attached to the Notre Dame Law School. Father Burtschaell said the Law School committee on appointments and promotions will be asked to consider Kommers for a concurrent appointment on its faculty. "The background of Dr. Kommers in political science and (continued on page 10)
I remember running, in 1969, north from the police line in the underground garage, where demonstrators had fled from tear gas. Luckily, the cop's attention was distracted and I slipped away. The judge closes a case today by doctor beaten for trying to help tear-gassed demonstrators by District of Columbia police—beginning with that 1969 "Mob" march. The judge closes a case today by doctor beaten for trying to help tear-gassed demonstrators then. I do not know if this is the same young man I saw. If so, somebody did a better job of reporting it than I did.

Alien vs. Jefco Plc. Judge Waddy has ordered that anyone arrested on D.C. police in a demonstration after 1969 can have his record expunged, so general was the illegality of those arrests. This is of a piece with all the cases thrown out of court during John Bell's reign at the Justice Department.

What is the burning issue of America today? If you talk to New York City's garbage. I was walking through the streets of Manhattan the other day with Wexler and we saw the large piles of plastic bags and garbage cans overflowing the brim. Wexler said, "There is the one political issue that out leaders will have to come to terms with or they're going to be thrown out on their ears."

"You think garbage is the thing that has most people upset?" I asked him. "No garbage," he replied, "but the failures in its picking up. There are a lot of people that upset people in this country—unemployment, inflation, wheat deals with Russia and crime in the streets. These are things you read about and hear about. Garbage is something you can see with your own eyes and smell with your own nose. It reminds you 24 hours a day that there's something wrong with the country and the people who are running it. When it isn't picked up, it's a rich as well as the poor who are bookers.""When you were running the city you wouldn't cut back on sanitation men?"

"I'd give them everything they asked for," Wexler pointed to the glass windows and said. "It was a lot of office men on the line and they wanted more garbage men. If anything they are probably the only companies that can contribute to the refuse problem. Say the guys who take the garbage away should make as much money as the people who make it.

I think you are suggesting!" I asked Wexler.

"I think we should have a Department of Garbage with the same budget as the Defense Department. Its job would be to develop new weapons to take care of America's refuse problems. What good is it to have intercontinental missiles to protect the country when nobody will pick up your garbage?"

"But isn't it true that a country's wealth can be calculated on how much refuse it has in its streets?"

"Not. The economic prosperity of a nation depends on how much it can afford to cart its garbage away. You know why nobody will buy New York City bonds right now? It's because every banker and broker keeps tripping over garbage piles on his way to work. Who wants to invest in a country that doesn't know what to do with its trash cans?"

We reached Tenth Avenue with garbage cans as far as the eye could see. "Our mistake," said Wexler, "in every time the President, the Vice President or the Secretary of the Treasury comes to New York we drive him down Park Avenue. If we told him about the garbage cans he might have thought twice before he turned poor Abe Bonner down.

THE HOUSE OF TURQUOISE

314 South Main 259-0751 Mishawaka Opening Special

- 25% DISCOUNT ON ALL INDIAN JEWELRY -

New Shipments from Gallup every week.

Layaway-Master Charge Available

PLAYLAND GOLF CENTER

Located 1/8 mile off I-90 at Ironwood

- OPEN DAILY TIL 10:00 PM -

- Full 18th 28-0033

(713 LINCOLN WOODS RD. SIOUX CITY)

CLIENTELE COUPON

THIS CERTIFICATE GOOD FOR ONE FREE PAR 3 OR MINIATURE GOLF ADMISSION

WITH A PAID ADMISSION

On Either The 3 Par or the Miniature Course Not good Sundays or Mondays Other expires Aug. 30, 1975
American-sponsored torture

In a televised speech of April 18, 1953, President Eisenhower said, "Any nation's right to a form of government and an economic system of its own choosing is inalienable." Iran was in the process of choosing its own economic and political forms at that very moment. The country nationalized the oil companies run by England, and voted by 86 percent to back this move, along with its sponsor, Premier Mohammed Mosaddegh. The young shah of Iran had crumbled before Mosaddegh's popular strength.

America did not like this show of independence along the Russian border. If the country would not be England's puppet, then we would make it ours. A rival inauguration was at hand. The shah was given CIA pep talks. CIA Director Allen Dulles went to Switzerland to orchestrate the men and money for a coup; and he sent one of his best spies, Kermit Roosevelt, to the scene in Iran.

K. Roosevelt known as "Kim" to his fellow spies, bought himself a mob and an army — he is reported to have spent $10 million in the effort, and emptied Iran's health clubs of all beefy specimens to lead the mob. With things arranged for him in this way, behind him is bought little mobil arm y of taxicabs, the spies, bought himself a mob and a rm y — spooks, Kerm it Roosevelt, to the scene in

The effort, and emptied Iran's health clubs of all beefy specimens to lead the mob. With things arranged for him in this way, behind him is bought little arm y of taxicabs, the spies, bought himself a mob and an arm y — spooks, Kerm it Roosevelt, to the scene in

Yet we toast the shah at the White House, to him to an Arm Margrett's vulgar Las Vegas act, and give his wife an honorary Georges degree. Since we set up the shah's government for him, and surround him with our money and spies and international operators—men like Heims and Roosevelt—we share the responsibility for terror and repression in that country.

There are thousands of Iranian students in America, some of whom knew those reported as a murdered leader. For years they have tried to alert us to what we, in effect, have been doing to human beings with out tax dollars. Now they have gone on hunger strikes in four cities (Washington, Houston, Los Angeles and Chicago) to get visas for an international team of lawyers and doctors to investigate reports that prisoners are mistreated. Anyone who agrees with them can send a letter requesting this to the Iranian ambassador in Washington.

Since we set the shah have our very best spies and spying equipment, and gave him a government to start with, and flaunted Anne-Margrett's thighs in his face, the least he might do is return and let us see the inside of his prisons.

Vice President Nelson Rockefeller and his wife were reading in their $30,000 bed the other night when Happy said to Nelson, "It's a shame that Bo Callaway, Ford's campaign manager, told the press President Ford may be looking for a younger man to be his running mate in 1976.

"Don't pay any attention to what you read in the newspapers," Rockefelll said. "Gerry assured me he was behind me 1,000 percent.

"Callaway also said that besides your age he finds you have no support in the South, the conservatives can't stand you and everyone he's talked to says you'd drag down the ticket.

"Nobody's perfect," Rockefeller said. "I don't see how Callaway can say those things unless the President gave him the okay.

"Don't be silly. Why would an honest, decent person like Gerry Ford pull that kind of a stunt?"

"Nothing. She just giggled."

"And what did she say?"

"No kidding?"

"Happy, don't be unhappy. This is all politics. After the dust settles, Gerry Ford will be back to his own self again."

"I think the President told Callaway to cut my throat to get sympathy for me. It's part of the Southern strategy. Don't worry, Happy, I'll get through it."

"Okay then, Nelson, let me ask you this. Why did Mrs. Ronald Reagan call me this morning and ask the color of our drapes in the vice-presidential bedroom?"

"She did?"

"Yes, and when I told her it was a blue floral print she said, 'They'll have to go. Ronnie can't stand blue.'"

"What did you say?"

"I said I didn't expect Ronnie to come into our bedroom."

"And what did she say?"

"Nothing. She just giggled."

"I wouldn't put too much emphasis on one telephone call from Nancy Reagan. The President assured me we will have an honorary vice-presidential house any way we wanted it, and he said he was looking forward to coming to dinner here as soon as the house was ready."

"Did he say he or before, any,"

"Next to come to dinner here as soon as the house was ready."

"Happy, don't be unhappy. This is all politics. After the dust settles, Gerry Ford will be back to his own self again."

"I think the President told Callaway to cut my throat to get sympathy for me. It's part of the Southern strategy. Don't worry, Happy, I'll get through it."

"Okay then, Nelson, let me ask you this. Why did Mrs. Ronald Reagan call me this morning and ask the color of our drapes in the vice-presidential bedroom?"

"She did?"

"Yes, and when I told her it was a blue floral print she said, 'They'll have to go. Ronnie can't stand blue.'"

"What did you say?"

"I said I didn't expect Ronnie to come into our bedroom."

"And what did she say?"

"Nothing. She just giggled."

"I wouldn't put too much emphasis on one telephone call from Nancy Reagan. The President assured me we will have an honorary vice-presidential house any way we wanted it, and he said he was looking forward to coming to dinner here as soon as the house was ready."

"Did he say he or before, any,"

"Next to come to dinner here as soon as the house was ready."

"Happy, don't be unhappy. This is all politics. After the dust settles, Gerry Ford will be back to his own self again."

"I think the President told Callaway to cut my throat to get sympathy for me. It's part of the Southern strategy. Don't worry, Happy, I'll get through it."

"Okay then, Nelson, let me ask you this. Why did Mrs. Ronald Reagan call me this morning and ask the color of our drapes in the vice-presidential bedroom?"

"She did?"

"Yes, and when I told her it was a blue floral print she said, 'They'll have to go. Ronnie can't stand blue.'"

"What did you say?"
Rebus Puzzles

How would you read the following?

1. stand take to my stand
2. U throw throw

Or this, which was found on an envelope sent by mail?

- Hill
- John
- Mass

Or this description of a man in love?

- L
- AF
- D

Relationships

Many problems arise over the relations between words and ideas. Some special problems arise over the relations between humans. See what you can do with these.

1. The television wrestler said: "You have the same problem as my brother Henry." Yet, the friend knew that Henry had no brother. Was the wrestler lying?

2. Want to have lots of laughs. Take a card and write on one side: "The sentence on the other side is true." On the other side, write: "The sentence on the other side is false." This is good for keeping arts and letters majors busy.

3. John Doe (remember him), a lawyer, gave his friend Richard Nixon free use of office facilities, for Richard had just lost a high-paying job and there was little hope of recent employment. Richard agreed to pay John as soon as he won his first case. (Watch out, John, Richard is not known to keep his word!!) Richard was admitted to the bar, but he had no clients. (No wonder.) After six months, John grew impatient and changed his last name to Dean. John planned out a sure-fire strategy. If I sue him and win, the court will order him to pay: If I lose, he must pay according to the terms of the agreement. How did Tricky Dick see the suit?

Had’s in a Row

See if you can punctuate the following sentence, so that it becomes intelligible and makes sense. (Taken from the application for Notre Dame law school.)

John were James had had had had had had had had had had had had had had had had had a better effect on the teacher.
Help Wanted

This puzzle lists well-known authors and different professions. Your job is to match the author with the profession he or she followed before or in addition to writing.

If you get them all, consider yourself a wizard of sorts. Misses one to three, and you're in the white-collar wizard category. Four to six - out of the wizard's league. Missed seven or more? What were you wasting your time on this puzzle for in the first place?

1. William Carlos Williams
2. Lew Wallace
3. Herman Melville
4. Edwin Arlington Robinson
5. Wallace Stevens
6. James Michener
7. Willa Cather
8. Robert Frost
9. Ralph Waldo Emerson
10. Robert Frost

Hints:
1. An athlete. Misses one or two, and you're In the white-collar wizard category. Four to six - out of the wizard's league. Missed seven or more? What were you wasting your time on this puzzle for in the first place?

2. An army general. Misses one to three, and you're In the white-collar wizard category. Four to six - out of the wizard's league. Missed seven or more? What were you wasting your time on this puzzle for in the first place?

3. A Pullman coach with a Connecticut man, doesn't know any. Miss Drury once shared a dormitory with one. A Miss Drury is Mills' girl. Miss Drury, Johnson is Brown's. Miss Snow Is Robin's son's. Eleanor Roosevelt Is nobody's daughter.

4. She knows none. Miss Drury once shared a dormitory with one. Miss Drury, Johnson is Brown's. Miss Snow Is Robin's son's. Eleanor Roosevelt Is nobody's daughter.

5. A Pullman coach with a Connecticut man, doesn't know any. Miss Drury once shared a dormitory with one. Miss Drury, Johnson is Brown's. Miss Snow Is Robin's son's. Eleanor Roosevelt Is nobody's daughter.

6. She knows none. Miss Drury once shared a dormitory with one. Miss Drury, Johnson is Brown's. Miss Snow Is Robin's son's. Eleanor Roosevelt Is nobody's daughter.

7. A Pullman coach with a Connecticut man, doesn't know any. Miss Drury once shared a dormitory with one. Miss Drury, Johnson is Brown's. Miss Snow Is Robin's son's. Eleanor Roosevelt Is nobody's daughter.

8. A Pullman coach with a Connecticut man, doesn't know any. Miss Drury once shared a dormitory with one. Miss Drury, Johnson is Brown's. Miss Snow Is Robin's son's. Eleanor Roosevelt Is nobody's daughter.

10. A Pullman coach with a Connecticut man, doesn't know any. Miss Drury once shared a dormitory with one. Miss Drury, Johnson is Brown's. Miss Snow Is Robin's son's. Eleanor Roosevelt Is nobody's daughter.

Pub Crawl

A bunch of rowdy students met at Corby's to celebrate the fact that they were all meeting at Corby's. One of them made an unnecessary comment to the waitress, and they decided to go to another bar. Soon, they decided to visit all the bars in town. One of the men, a bit crazy and drunk at the time, said "Don't let's go over the same roads twice. And it's finish all Shula's." This proposal was taken up, and the men crawled from pub to pub. According to this map, which way did they go?

Six College Men

Miss Snow thinks Harvard men are faggots, though she knows not one. Miss Norton is all out for Princeton, because she had a good time at a party there once. Miss Johnson Is undecided as to which she likes better, Yale or Dartmouth. Smith knows Miss Snow, but she won't go out with him because of the nasty scar on his face. Jones has a "Y" on his football jacket. The author and the profession he or she followed before or in addition to writing. Your job is to match the professions with the appropriate author.

Brown, Jones, Smith, Robinson, Hill and Mills each go to one of the following colleges: Dartmouth, Cornell, Harvard, Yale, Princeton and Columbia.

Miss Clark abhors Cornell, and thus doesn't know any. Miss Drury once shared a Pullman coach with a Columbia man, and contracted a rash. She knows none.

A bunch of rowdy students met at Corby's to celebrate the fact that they were all meeting at Corby's. One of them made an unnecessary comment to the waitress, and they decided to go to another bar. Soon, they decided to visit all the bars in town. One of the men, a bit crazy and drunk at the time, said "Don't let's go over the same roads twice. And it's finish all Shula's." This proposal was taken up, and the men crawled from pub to pub. According to this map, which way did they go?
Womens Political Caucus alive and well at IUSB

by Judy Smith
IUSB Editor

The Women's Political Caucus (WPC) is an organization of men and women who are active in many activities—locally, statewide and nationally.

Some of the membership of the caucus includes the IUSB faculty: Gloria Kaufman, Professor of English, is the WPC membership chairperson. Paula Auburn, Continuing Education, is the vice-president. Other members from IUSB are: Christa Maria Beardsley, German professor; Nicole Dominique, English professor; Patricia McNeal, history professor; Anne Marie Poirotte, foreign language; Dona Harlan, head of the Library.

The annual dues for membership in the local, state and national WPC is $20. According to Kaufman, a scholarship fund is available to pay for the dues of women students who can not afford the membership dues.

Ending Discrimination

The WPC is divided into many task forces. "Women, minorities, and the handicapped are last to be hired and the first to be fired," according to the WPC. Task Forces have been formed by the local caucus to 1) seek ways to overcome the traditional job discrimination and 2) study the ways to develop new kinds of jobs that better meet the changing job market. Statewide a Task Force is being formed to investigate rehabilitative possibilities for incarcerated women. A Task Force was organized locally, initiated by Kaufman, to improve employment possibilities of women. Employment opportunities and fair treatment is one of the main concerns of the caucus according to Harlan, the E.R.A. is for the benefit of men and women. The right to a job with equal pay and the rights of women apply to men in the E.R.A. amendment.

Kaufman said IUSB students will have the opportunity to join the WPC in the fall. Many activities will be planned in the fall by the WPC, which will be of interest to the students. The Women's Committee on Sex Offenses and the caucus are jointly sponsoring Rape Prevention and Awareness Month in August. They will be informing the community of: 1) the fact that a great number of rapes go unreported; 2) the fact that many victims do not know the procedure for reporting rape; 3) the fact that there is a social and emotional burden placed on the victim.

On September 28, the caucus will have a Festival Banquet to celebrate International Women's Year. It will be held at St. Mary's College. At the banquet, the caucus will be awarding a plaque to a local woman for outstanding contributions to society. Rolande Parent is serving as ticket chairperson.

The Sense of Self-Women's Colloquium sponsored by the Michiana Coalition for International Women's Year and IUSB's Continuing Education will be on November 14 and 15. In October plans are being made to raise funds for candidates. The WPC is also working on a workshop on "Women in Government."
Music Academy offered for IUSB students

A Music Academy for beginning and advanced students in piano, guitar or string instruments will be offered by the Continuing Education division of Indiana University at South Bend this fall.

Designed for young people (over 8) and adults interested either in college preparatory training or in developing their musical skills, the academy offers academic and personal support of help the student do well in the classroom.

The program helps students through administration procedures, financial assistance, orientation, counseling, tutoring and career advice.

Special Services students have access to the program’s learning resource center at 1916 Mishawaka Ave., on the north edge of the IUSB campus. The center is supplied with books, typewriters, tape recorders, reading machines and magazines. It provides a focal point for social gatherings for students in the program.

Last year, the program aided approximately 120 students at IUSB, Klaybor said.

He added that a high school visitation in the Michiana area is scheduled for some time in the fall to identify 80 students who might be interested in attending the Special Services comprehensive summer program next year. Information about requirements for the program can be obtained at the Special Services office on the IUSB campus.

Graduate pre-enrollment schedule announced

Graduate students in education at Indiana University at South Bend can pre-enroll for fall classes Tuesday through Thursday, July 29-31, from 3:30 to 7:30 p.m. in the Greenlawn Hall lounge on the IUSB campus.

Fall semester classes begin Sept. 2. Fall registration will be held Aug. 27 and 28.

Pre-enrollment will allow graduate education students to select courses in advance of the registration period. Class assignments will be made after the pre-enrollment period ends, and students will be notified of assignments before registration begins.

Schedules of classes for the fall can be obtained in most IUSB divisions and departmental offices. Schedules can be requested by mail from the University Relations office.

Specified order forms must be filled promptly!
hapless consumer. Some of these measures are being proposed and have become so consumer to the observer.

To The Editor:

Consumers

But if one analyzes consumer issues, one must help himself. He must be educated. Understanding his own predicament, knowing the causes, and learning who to reach, who to talk to, is basic to the problem.

As a result of the activities of people genuinely concerned, sufficient interest in consumer well being has been generated. The attempt to develop an informed public is an ongoing struggle. Whatever the motives of our legislators may be, one can be sure they are not acting to protect the consumer. The laws they do, the businesses which serve the consumer are gradually becoming ensnared in a tangle of governmental regulations and red tape that has reached debatable proportions. It is simply too much for many businesses and business people to cope with and the consumer unwittingly is further taxed and burdened.

Accepting the proposition that consumers must help and protect themselves we should now ask ourselves what proportions. It is simply too much for many businesses and business people genuinely concerned, who must help himself. He must be educated. Understanding his own predicament, knowing the causes, and learning who to reach, who to talk to, is basic to the problem. As a result of the activities of people genuinely concerned, sufficient interest in consumer well being has been generated. The attempt to develop an informed public is an ongoing struggle. Whatever the motives of our legislators may be, one can be sure they are not acting to protect the consumer. The laws they do, the businesses which serve the consumer are gradually becoming ensnared in a tangle of governmental regulations and red tape that has reached debatable proportions. It is simply too much for many businesses and business people to cope with and the consumer unwittingly is further taxed and burdened.

Accepting the proposition that consumers must help and protect themselves we should now ask ourselves what proportions. It is simply too much for many businesses and business people genuinely concerned, who must help himself. He must be educated. Understanding his own predicament, knowing the causes, and learning who to reach, who to talk to, is basic to the problem.

As a result of the activities of people genuinely concerned, sufficient interest in consumer well being has been generated. The attempt to develop an informed public is an ongoing struggle. Whatever the motives of our legislators may be, one can be sure they are not acting to protect the consumer. The laws they do, the businesses which serve the consumer are gradually becoming ensnared in a tangle of governmental regulations and red tape that has reached debatable proportions. It is simply too much for many businesses and business people to cope with and the consumer unwittingly is further taxed and burdened.

Accepting the proposition that consumers must help and protect themselves we should now ask ourselves what proportions. It is simply too much for many businesses and business people genuinely concerned, who must help himself. He must be educated. Understanding his own predicament, knowing the causes, and learning who to reach, who to talk to, is basic to the problem. As a result of the activities of people genuinely concerned, sufficient interest in consumer well being has been generated. The attempt to develop an informed public is an ongoing struggle. Whatever the motives of our legislators may be, one can be sure they are not acting to protect the consumer. The laws they do, the businesses which serve the consumer are gradually becoming ensnared in a tangle of governmental regulations and red tape that has reached debatable proportions. It is simply too much for many businesses and business people to cope with and the consumer unwittingly is further taxed and burdened.

Accepting the proposition that consumers must help and protect themselves we should now ask ourselves what proportions. It is simply too much for many businesses and business people genuinely concerned, who must help himself. He must be educated. Understanding his own predicament, knowing the causes, and learning who to reach, who to talk to, is basic to the problem. As a result of the activities of people genuinely concerned, sufficient interest in consumer well being has been generated. The attempt to develop an informed public is an ongoing struggle. Whatever the motives of our legislators may be, one can be sure they are not acting to protect the consumer. The laws they do, the businesses which serve the consumer are gradually becoming ensnared in a tangle of governmental regulations and red tape that has reached debatable proportions. It is simply too much for many businesses and business people to cope with and the consumer unwittingly is further taxed and burdened.

Accepting the proposition that consumers must help and protect themselves we should now ask ourselves what proportions. It is simply too much for many businesses and business people genuinely concerned, who must help himself. He must be educated. Understanding his own predicament, knowing the causes, and learning who to reach, who to talk to, is basic to the problem. As a result of the activities of people genuinely concerned, sufficient interest in consumer well being has been generated. The attempt to develop an informed public is an ongoing struggle. Whatever the motives of our legislators may be, one can be sure they are not acting to protect the consumer. The laws they do, the businesses which serve the consumer are gradually becoming ensnared in a tangle of governmental regulations and red tape that has reached debatable proportions. It is simply too much for many businesses and business people to cope with and the consumer unwittingly is further taxed and burdened.

Accepting the proposition that consumers must help and protect themselves we should now ask ourselves what proportions. It is simply too much for many businesses and business people genuinely concerned, who must help himself. He must be educated. Understanding his own predicament, knowing the causes, and learning who to reach, who to talk to, is basic to the problem. As a result of the activities of people genuinely concerned, sufficient interest in consumer well being has been generated. The attempt to develop an informed public is an ongoing struggle. Whatever the motives of our legislators may be, one can be sure they are not acting to protect the consumer. The laws they do, the businesses which serve the consumer are gradually becoming ensnared in a tangle of governmental regulations and red tape that has reached debatable proportions. It is simply too much for many businesses and business people to cope with and the consumer unwittingly is further taxed and burdened.

Accepting the proposition that consumers must help and protect themselves we should now ask ourselves what proportions. It is simply too much for many businesses and business people genuinely concerned, who must help himself. He must be educated. Understanding his own predicament, knowing the causes, and learning who to reach, who to talk to, is basic to the problem. As a result of the activities of people genuinely concerned, sufficient interest in consumer well being has been generated. The attempt to develop an informed public is an ongoing struggle. Whatever the motives of our legislators may be, one can be sure they are not acting to protect the consumer. The laws they do, the businesses which serve the consumer are gradually becoming ensnared in a tangle of governmental regulations and red tape that has reached debatable proportions. It is simply too much for many businesses and business people to cope with and the consumer unwittingly is further taxed and burdened.

Accepting the proposition that consumers must help and protect themselves we should now ask ourselves what proportions. It is simply too much for many businesses and business people genuinely concerned, who must help himself. He must be educated. Understanding his own predicament, knowing the causes, and learning who to reach, who to talk to, is basic to the problem. As a result of the activities of people genuinely concerned, sufficient interest in consumer well being has been generated. The attempt to develop an informed public is an ongoing struggle. Whatever the motives of our legislators may be, one can be sure they are not acting to protect the consumer. The laws they do, the businesses which serve the consumer are gradually becoming ensnared in a tangle of governmental regulations and red tape that has reached debatable proportions. It is simply too much for many businesses and business people to cope with and the consumer unwittingly is further taxed and burdened.

Accepting the proposition that consumers must help and protect themselves we should now ask ourselves what proportions. It is simply too much for many businesses and business people genuinely concerned, who must help himself. He must be educated. Understanding his own predicament, knowing the causes, and learning who to reach, who to talk to, is basic to the problem. As a result of the activities of people genuinely concerned, sufficient interest in consumer well being has been generated. The attempt to develop an informed public is an ongoing struggle. Whatever the motives of our legislators may be, one can be sure they are not acting to protect the consumer. The laws they do, the businesses which serve the consumer are gradually becoming ensnared in a tangle of governmental regulations and red tape that has reached debatable proportions. It is simply too much for many businesses and business people to cope with and the consumer unwittingly is further taxed and burdened.
apparently been dealt one more Helsinki, Henry Kissinger has friends with nearly everybody.
other. But the strain became even week when Lawmakers Legal tu ing at each better one.
no-goods seem not so heavy, the Duggan assumes battle. Given the ho-hum list of the new Ford campaign has been
Saint Mary's on February 24, 1975.
Duggan was appointed president of Duggan assumed his duties as president of serving as acting vice president for academic affairs and the tattling is supposed to be the other for higher prices.
true, the entire government is engaged in an all-consuming effort to nothing. No matter. The Branches were, set up to behave this way, and the tail is supposed to be what keeps:breakdown. But when both side come up with egg on their face, the real problem is to find someone to play the hero.

Caster oil

Intuitively, Mr. Ford's Trumanesque position seems the Weiner is not, after all, confronted with a do-nothing Congress; he has been setting popular bill rates at the rate of one a week. An effective challenger (which the Democrats haven't many) might easily exploit Presidential vetos of such votegutters as Conservation, Public Jobs, Housing and Health Care.

No will bullet-hitting economies be to defend to a public deficit of economists. Such castor-oil remedies will need the sugar cube of promises to help them go down. A crucial energy initiative in Congressional willingness to co-operate, the promise won't come to
In the end, the solution may be a good dose of detente at home.

While cooperation may be bad politics - and a strain on short supplies of government good will - there will be at least one important advantage for Mr. Kissinger.
He won't have to take side.

THE RESUME PLACE

25. 8 1/4 x 11
RAG BOND
Only $2.55

insty-prnts

203 N. MAIN
SO BEND, IND.
289-6977

VEGETARIAN ??

WE OFFER A FULL LINE OF VEGETARIAN FOODS, ALSO A LARGE VARIETY OF HEALTH FOODS INCLUDING NON-MEAT PROTEINS. VISIT THE:

CLASSIFIED ADS

FOR RENT

2 ROOMS, $40 per month, girls. Air
cond. 727-7377

PERSONALS

pat, separation gives time for reflection, enjoy your solitude, I still care.

Mary Saugis has mud on her

SOMETHING

TO THE MAIL ROOM CREW:
THANKS FOR THE
VACATION, ENJOY YOUR WEEK OF QUIET.
PATS, I'M GLAD YOU AND LIL JUSSIE
Thanks again for a good meal.
Oriole, I love grapes.
STILL HUNTING FOR AN APARTMENT FOR NEXT YEAR?

CAMPUS VIEW ONE AND TWO BEDROOM FURNISHED APARTMENTS

"LOOK WHAT WE HAVE TO OFFER:"

- ENNIS COURTS (To be completed this summer)
- INDOOR SWIMMING POOL
- COMMUNITY BUILDING (complete with pool tables and pinball machine)
- DEAD-BOLT LOCKS
- EXCELLENT SECURITY
  - BASKETBALL COURT
  - 2 BATHS IN THE 2-BEDROOM APTS.
  - SOUND CONDITIONED
  - REGULAR SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

NOW RENTING FOR SUMMER AND FALL SEMESTER (75-76 SCHOOL YEAR)

FOR RENTAL INFORMATION CALL 272-1441

CAMPUS VIEW APARTMENTS

House Painting

DOES YOUR HOME NEED PAINTING? EXPERIENCE PAINTERS (TWO N.D. GRADUATES) WILL PAINT INTERIOR-EXTERIOR VERY REASONABLE! CALL 234-1889 For Free Estimate

Lunches:

Monday thru Friday 11:30-2:15

Dinner:

Monday thru Thursday 5:00-11:00
Friday and Saturday 5:00-12:00
Sunday 4:00-10:00

WE HONOR CHARGE CARDS 55285 U.S. 31 NORTH 272-5478