Hesburgh speaks on school's character

By Mary Rathburn
Staff Reporter

"We have a long way to go, but we owe it to ourselves to try to create a Catholic University," said University President Rev. Theodore Hesburgh in a speech last night in the Library auditorium. About 70 graduate students and professors heard Hesburgh's talk on the Catholic Character of the University.

Sharing the stage with Hesburgh were Professor James Donohue of the Chemistry department, Profes­ sor Carol Moore of History and two Ph.D. candidates, Father Roger McGraith and James Stewart. Hesburgh cited the historical forces of the Reformation and French Revolution as responsible for the disappearance of the original Catholic universities. When universities were reestablished by the State, theology was relegated to seminaries.

Even today, Hesburgh thinks, there is an uneasy co-existence between departments of theology and state or non-sectarian private universities. "First of all, theology faculties and even buildings are most often separated from the university itself," Hesburgh emphasized the importance of integrating theology and philosophy departments in the university. "Second, departments, he said, "are concerned with transcendence and ask larger questions about human values and God and the universe." He indicated that there are only two great Catholic universities in the world today, Louvain and Notre Dame.

Disagreeing with George Ber­ nard Shaw's statement that "a Catholic university is a contradiction in terms," Hesburgh argued that universities do not have an."free speech" of their own. He feels there is a need to discuss and freedom to express and discuss controversial views. "I cannot recall in my 23 years at Notre Dame a single violation of intellectual freedom," he remarked.

Danehy, who is president of the Student Body, is quoted as saying, "I didn't even know the election was today." Another added, "I didn't vote because only one party was running."

Last week signs were anonymous posted advising students not to abstain, saying that the election should be a democratic one and that others be given a chance to run.

In response to the question of whether student government is a representative voice of the student body and worth continuing, Mc­ Deen noted it, "does represent the desires of the students and people want something done. They're too young to do it." Coventry emphasized, "Student government did a lot of important things this year, the kids really worked. However, it was student government's own fault that more positive results weren't made known to the students." She then noted, "It's not used to its full potential. Student government has an effect on you whether you know it or not."

Ricci discussed the probability of initiating a student government newsletter. She stated, "The newsletter will be the first step in the process of making students more aware of our function and what we are doing for them."

"The ticket of Mary Lou Bilek, Cathy Coyne and Mary Ann Stolze won," Gassman said that the election was uneventful. Fifty-eight percent of the "yes" vote, "the only candidate running for office, she collected 57.9 percent of the vote." (Photo by Mike Krom).

Hesburgh's talk will be the first step in the process of making students more aware of our function and what we are doing for them." She then noted, "It's not used to its full potential. Student government has an effect on you whether you know it or not."

Mary Lou Bilek was voted the next St. Mary's Student President yesterday. The only candidate running for office, she collected 57.9 percent of the vote. (Photo by Mike Krom).

SMC votes in new SBP-SBVP

By Valerie Zurlibris
Executive Editor

Ken Ricci will be the next Student Union director, it was announced last night by Student Union Director Tom Birsic and Student Body president-elect Mike Gassman. Ricci assumes his new duties April 1.

The sophomore accounting in­ dent from Cleveland, Ohio and served as assistant comptroller this semester is from Cleveland, Ohio and served as assistant comptroller this semester. He was the financial trouble­ duties A p ril 1.

As a dormitory student he was given the position because he felt there was a need for financial control. "You have to know where you stand, and my financial background would help," he said.

"I think Birsic's administration have come so far from last year. They have improved 1000 percent. Our goal will be to improve that," Ricci added.

When asked about his feelings concerning a sophomore stepping into the position, Ricci replied, "I think anyone who has the job should be just as competent as anyone else, just as competent as a senior." Ricci applied for the position because he felt there was a need for financial control.

"I am very sorry about a student who has the job," Ricci reiterated. "I cannot recall in my years at SMC voting in new SBP-SBVP."

Students, however, voiced other opinions. One freshman stated, "I didn't even know the election was today."

Another added, "I didn't vote because only one party was running." Last week signs were anonymously posted advising students to abstain, saying that the election should be a democratic one and that others be given a chance to run.

In response to the question of whether student government is a representative voice of the student body and worth continuing, McDeen noted it, "does represent the desires of the students and people want something done. They're too young to do it." Coventry emphasized, "Student government did a lot of important things this year, the kids really worked. However, it was student government's own fault that more positive results weren't made known to the students." She then noted, "It's not used to its full potential. Student government has an effect on you whether you know it or not."

Ricci discussed the probability of initiating a student government newsletter. She stated, "The newsletter will be the first step in the process of making students more aware of our function and what we are doing for them."

"The ticket of Mary Lou Bilek, Cathy Coyne and Mary Ann Stolze won," Gassman said that the election was uneventful. Fifty-eight percent of the "yes" vote, "the only candidate running for office, she collected 57.9 percent of the vote." (Photo by Mike Krom).

Hesburgh's talk will be the first step in the process of making students more aware of our function and what we are doing for them." She then noted, "It's not used to its full potential. Student government has an effect on you whether you know it or not."

"The ticket of Mary Lou Bilek, Cathy Coyne and Mary Ann Stolze won," Gassman said that the election was uneventful. Fifty-eight percent of the "yes" vote, "the only candidate running for office, she collected 57.9 percent of the vote." (Photo by Mike Krom).

"The ticket of Mary Lou Bilek, Cathy Coyne and Mary Ann Stolze won," Gassman said that the election was uneventful. Fifty-eight percent of the "yes" vote, "the only candidate running for office, she collected 57.9 percent of the vote." (Photo by Mike Krom).

"The ticket of Mary Lou Bilek, Cathy Coyne and Mary Ann Stolze won," Gassman said that the election was uneventful. Fifty-eight percent of the "yes" vote, "the only candidate running for office, she collected 57.9 percent of the vote." (Photo by Mike Krom).
Witch doctor succeeds

RUMA LUMPUR, Malaysia — Officials here claim shining success for the witch doctor they hired to keep away the rain from the Malaysian Open Golf Championship. Torrential rains had drenched the city for four previous days, but none fell on the golf course Sunday until play had ended.

No money for Sadat

BUNN, West Germany — West German officials said yesterday that Egypt's President Anwar Sadat will not get the massive financial aid he is hoping for from the Germans.

Airline fares will increase

WASHINGTON — Prices for first class airline tickets will increase between 4 and 7.3 percent on all domestic flights, April 1, and coach class fares may rise by 3 percent on some routes, mostly in the South and Midwest.

Homosexuality and the state

WASHINGTON — The Supreme Court ruled yesterday a state may constitutionally prohibit private homosexual acts between consenting adults.

Heard arraigned

LOS ANGELES — Patty Hearst, convicted of bank robbery charges 10 days ago, was arraigned yesterday on 11 felony charges of kidnapping, robbery and assault. She was ordered to return April 14 to enter a plea.

The 'Cuckoo' crows

LOS ANGELES (AP) — "One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest," a controversial novella hospital, won a post-mortem award Monday night, and its stars, Jack Nicholson and Louise Fletcher were honored as best performers of the year.

Do it for money

Edmund Joyce, University Vice Dame, in his address to the dinner crowd, traced the history of Notre Dame and, in particular, the financial problems the University has faced historically.

Joyce offered no solution to the financial problems the University may face in the future, but confess­ ed confidence in the continued financial stability of Notre Dame.

The evening began with an informal reception before the diner and concluded with the presentation of Notre Dame's Award of the Year, presented to Jerry Ham­ nes, a prestigious citizen of the South Bend - Mishawaka commun­ ity.

Fr. Joyce, in his address to the dinner crowd, traced the history of Notre Dame, and, in particular, the financial problems the University has faced historically.

"It costs the University $50 million to operate today," Joyce explained. "As administrators, we are forced to deal with the constant rise of prices and the increase involved with operating a private university. We cannot be forced to pass that onto the students who enroll here."

"Private education no longer has a favored place in society," he continued. "The federal government and independent corporations are putting their money elsewhere, and considering the falling birth rate, education will become more expensive in the future."

Joyce offered no solution to the financial problems the University may face in the future, but confess­ ed confidence in the continued financial stability of Notre Dame.

Near the conclusion of his ad­ dress, Joyce commended the sup­ port of "The outstanding people" in attendance last night and cited the "spiritual character" of Notre Dame as a reason for their dedi­ cated support.

On Campus Today

10 a.m. book sale, n.d. library association book sale.
5 p.m. library concourse. proceeds to go to rare book room.
10 a.m. lecture, the history of economic thought as it pertains to economic development in Latin America, by Lloyd rains, Queens college and Cambridge university.
12:15 p.m. mass, lasalle ballroom.
12:15 p.m. in-house lecture, a reading from a novel in progress, 'The economics of enjoyment,' by Cynthia Davis, room 220 o'Shaughnessy hall, sponsored by English dept.
1:30 p.m. computer course, 'pl-11,' room 115, computer center.
3:40 p.m. seminar, 'The effects of the mishugah city power plant on salmonid movements in Indiana streams,' by dr. david w. morgan, n.d., room 278, galvin aud., sponsored by biology-dept.
7:30 p.m. prayer meeting, charismatic prayer meeting, Luther place church.
7:30 p.m. lecture, transcendental meditation, lib. lounge also 9 p.m.
8 p.m. and-film, 'Magnificent Ambersons,' engineering aud.
10 p.m. sponsored by cultural arts commission, ticket $1.
12 p.m. album lunch, 360 am, 4 a.m., 'A trick of the trade.'
12:15 a.m. — nocturne night flight, 550 am, 6:49 a.m., the best in progressive rock, jazz and blues, tonight's host, dave urymanski.

Have you been ripped off lately?

Persons encountering problems with the vending machines of campus are encouraged to notify the Vending Department according to Dean Winter, vending manager.

With the machines, there are many things that can go wrong, Winter noted. The machine may reject or steal your coin, it may not give you the correct change, the wrong product may be received or the desired item to be purchased may not be available.

"The policy of the vending operation is to return any money that the vending machine has accepted without giving a product in return," Winter indicated. He emphasized furthermore, that the vending department strives to pro­ vide the products the consumers wants and to provide products of high quality.

If you have been short­changed or have any suggestions to improve vending, Winter encourages those who come to 8888 or write to the Manager of Vending in the North Dining Hall.

Help and suggestions may be found also by contacting the Direc­ tor of Food Services in the South Dining Hall and.

The Observer is published Mondays through Fridays and weekly during the summer session, except during exams and vacation periods. The Observer is produced by the students of the University of Notre Dame. Manuscript and photographs should be submitted in a timely manner. Books for review should be sent to the Book Review Editor, The Observer. News, school events, requests for information, correspondence should be sent to the Editor-in-Chief, The Observer, Notre Dame, IN 46556.

The Observer is a student publication, published weekly, Monday through Friday, except during exams and vacations. The Observer is produced by the students of the University of Notre Dame. Printed in the United States of America. Responsibility for the views expressed in this paper lies with the writers and editors. The Observer is published by The Observer, Inc, Notre Dame, IN 46556.

School of Arts

129 DIXIEWAY SOUTH
PORTAGE REALTY BUILDING
ROSSELAND
277-0734
ACROSS FROM RANDALL'S INN

Tha observer
Tuesday, March 30, 1976

Newspapers

International

Witch doctor succeeds

RUMA LUMPUR, Malaysia — Officials here claim shining success for the witch doctor they hired to keep away the rain from the Malaysian Open Golf Championship. Torrential rains had drenched the city for four previous days, but none fell on the golf course Sunday until play had ended.

No money for Sadat

BUNN, West Germany — West German officials said yesterday that Egypt's President Anwar Sadat will not get the massive financial aid he is hoping for from the Germans.

Airline fares will increase

WASHINGTON — Prices for first class airline tickets will increase between 4 and 7.3 percent on all domestic flights, April 1, and coach class fares may rise by 3 percent on some routes, mostly in the South and Midwest.

Homosexuality and the state

WASHINGTON — The Supreme Court ruled yesterday a state may constitutionally prohibit private homosexual acts between consenting adults.

Heard arraigned

LOS ANGELES — Patty Hearst, convicted of bank robbery charges 10 days ago, was arraigned yesterday on 11 felony charges of kidnapping, robbery and assault. She was ordered to return April 14 to enter a plea.

The 'Cuckoo' crows

LOS ANGELES (AP) — "One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest," a controversial novel hospital, won a post-mortem award Monday night, and its stars, Jack Nicholson and Louise Fletcher were honored as best performers of the year.

On Campus Today

10 a.m. book sale, n.d. library association book sale.
5 p.m. library concourse. proceeds to go to rare book room.
10 a.m. lecture, the history of economic thought as it pertains to economic development in Latin America, by Lloyd rains, Queens college and Cambridge university.
12:15 p.m. mass, lasalle ballroom.
12:15 p.m. in-house lecture, a reading from a novel in progress, 'The economics of enjoyment,' by Cynthia Davis, room 220 o'Shaughnessy hall, sponsored by English dept.
1:30 p.m. computer course, 'pl-11,' room 115, computer center.
3:40 p.m. seminar, 'The effects of the mishugah city power plant on salmonid movements in Indiana streams,' by dr. david w. morgan, n.d., room 278, galvin aud., sponsored by biology-dept.
7:30 p.m. prayer meeting, charismatic prayer meeting, Luther place church.
7:30 p.m. lecture, transcendental meditation, lib. lounge also 9 p.m.
8 p.m. and-film, 'Magnificent Ambersons,' engineering aud.
10 p.m. sponsored by cultural arts commission, ticket $1.
12 p.m. album lunch, 360 am, 4 a.m., 'A trick of the trade.'
12:15 a.m. — nocturne night flight, 550 am, 6:49 a.m., the best in progressive rock, jazz and blues, tonight's host, dave urymanski.

Have you been ripped off lately?

Persons encountering problems with the vending machines of campus are encouraged to notify the Vending Department according to Dean Winter, vending manager.

With the machines, there are many things that can go wrong, Winter noted. The machine may reject or steal your coin, it may not give you the correct change, the wrong product may be received or the desired item to be purchased may not be available.

"The policy of the vending operation is to return any money that the vending machine has accepted without giving a product in return," Winter indicated. He emphasized furthermore, that the vending department strives to pro­ vide the products the consumers wants and to provide products of high quality.

If you have been short­changed or have any suggestions to improve vending, Winter encourages those who come to 8888 or write to the Manager of Vending in the North Dining Hall.

Help and suggestions may be found also by contacting the Direc­ tor of Food Services in the South Dining Hall.

Erratum

There was an error in the story in yesterday's Observer about the co­exchange program between the North and South Dining Halls. The program will begin today, instead of Tues., April 30, as was printed.
Some confusion resulted when the Notre Dame-St. Mary's shuttle bus implemented a new schedule yesterday. The new timetable is designed to better satisfy student's needs. For story and revised schedule see page 6. (Photo by Paul Joyce)
Would you believe holy orders for WOMEN, too?

The earth-shaking issue of equal rights for women in matters of the Church.

EDITOR’S NOTE: This is the final part of a two-part article.

"It’s much deeper than hearing voices in the ear," said Sister Mary Walden of Ft. Worth, Texas who fled the country for a spiritual conviction. That call is so deeply held as not to be understood. Bonding together not to "do" fine church but "be" church, key women religious agreed that the success of the conference proves ordination to be a significant issue. Instead of allowing the task force, which had organized the meeting to self-destruct, the women approved the designation of a national group to keep the issue alive. This is to be done through constant dialogue with the bishops and the people in the pew.

"It has been difficult for the church to accept the idea of lay ministers. They are seen as invading sacred space," says Sr. Hughes. "It is the same on the ordination move for women. It is the time to explore the issue." Ordination will come not through a "wild resolution" but through a "peaceful and ongoing dialogue."

"It is our duty to keep this dialogue alive and ongoing," added Dr. James Storcy, professor of theology at the University of Notre Dame. "They are presented with this bold strategy and advocated a more aggressive call to action.

The general atmosphere of the conference was gentle, unthreatening, prayerful. The issue was dissolved slowly, not what to do and in the end we should be masters of the process, not it. I think the time has come to take an aggressive approach."

Storcy and Sr. Anne Carr, who spoke on "The task force which had organized the meeting to self-destruct, the women approved the designation of a national group to keep the issue alive. This is to be done through constant dialogue with the bishops and the people in the pew.

Women are not asking for piddly concessions. I think it gratuitously insulting that women are not recognized to be official readers at the mass. Women want the be "women" of the church, not the "good girls, meek and mild. I think that the movement to ordain women will transform the ministry."

"There are male authority structures, the committee is in the charge of the male authority structure."

"I think any woman wanting to enter the church has a right to be present while the bishops and the people in the pew."

SOCIAL AND THEOLOGICAL TENSION

The real crux of the ordination move is that this is the theologians will not condemn the issue, but they will condemn the rhetoric. The issue is that the ordination move is being of equal rights for women in matters of the Church.

"It’s much deeper than hearing voices in the ear," said Sister Mary Walden of Ft. Worth, Texas who fled the country for a spiritual conviction. That call is so deeply held as not to be understood. Bonding together not to "do" fine church but "be" church, key women religious agreed that the success of the conference proves ordination to be a significant issue. Instead of allowing the task force, which had organized the meeting to self-destruct, the women approved the designation of a national group to keep the issue alive. This is to be done through constant dialogue with the bishops and the people in the pew.

"It has been difficult for the church to accept the idea of lay ministers. They are seen as invading sacred space," says Sr. Hughes. "It is the same on the ordination move for women. It is the time to explore the issue." Ordination will come not through a "wild resolution" but through a "peaceful and ongoing dialogue."

"It is our duty to keep this dialogue alive and ongoing," added Dr. James Storcy, professor of theology at the University of Notre Dame. "They are presented with this bold strategy and advocated a more aggressive call to action.

The general atmosphere of the conference was gentle, unthreatening, prayerful. The issue was dissolved slowly, not what to do and in the end we should be masters of the process, not it. I think the time has come to take an aggressive approach."

Storcy and Sr. Anne Carr, who spoke on "The task force which had organized the meeting to self-destruct, the women approved the designation of a national group to keep the issue alive. This is to be done through constant dialogue with the bishops and the people in the pew.

Women are not asking for piddly concessions. I think it gratuitously insulting that women are not recognized to be official readers at the mass. Women want the be "women" of the church, not the "good girls, meek and mild. I think that the movement to ordain women will transform the ministry."

"There are male authority structures, the committee is in the charge of the male authority structure.

"I think any woman wanting to enter the church has a right to be present while the bishops and the people in the pew."

WOMEN IN SCRIPTURE

These theologians moved by the women’s issues have delve into Scripture and discovered that women served Jesus as equals to the men. Women are also the first to receive the central message of the Resurrection.

Not only do the advocates of ordination marshal biblical evidence to support the importance of women in witnessing the life of the church. The traditionalist argument is that the ordination of women is essentially the same as the ordination of men. This line of reasoning is based upon customs. The Spanish traditions rooted in scripture and those of other Church institutions are used to prove the ordination of women. This argument is not based upon practice.

"This is not the case," says Sr. Hughes. "One half of the population of the church is being denied this privilege."

In other words, women are "incapable of leadership," says Farley. "It is the same on the ordination move."

"I think any woman wanting to enter the church has a right to be present while the bishops and the people in the pew."

WOMEN IN THE PRIESTHOOD

"The ordination issue is not solely a question of gender," says Sr. Hughes. "One half of the population of the church should be ordained."

Advocates of the ordination movement argue that people may not have a right to consecrate Bernadin stressed, but that they do have a right to test the vocation to which they feel called. In this sense the issue becomes one of justice which calls for a break with customary tradition.

"There are two types of tradition," said Father William Storcy of the University of Notre Dame. "There are those traditions rooted in scripture and those which are based upon customs. The Spanish
The Choice Is Yours
Spectacular Music...Incredible Artists

JUST FOR THE RECORD
KAMM'S BREWERY
Joseph County, expressed concern United Religious Community of St. think it is wrong," the Chemistry Catholic faculty at Notre Dame. "1 professor said. He added that faculty members contribute spiritual about tokenism. He added that faculty women now than in 1972. to be discrimination in hiring among students, faculty and administrative. Danehy is Protestant, Jewish and agnostic also disturbed by problems of Hesburgh admitted his concern honesty and lack of loving concern on problems at ND. Danehy, Moore speak on problems at ND (continued from page 1) United Religious Community of St.-Joseph County, expressed concern about the preference in hiring Catholic faculty at Notre Dame. "I think it is wrong," the Chemistry professor said. He added that Protestant, Jewish and agnostic faculty members contribute spiritually to the university. Danehy is also disturbed by problems of honesty and lack of loving concern among students, faculty and administrators. Moore noted that there appears to be discrimination in hiring women faculty. There are fewer faculty women now than in 1972. Hesburgh admitted his concern about tokenism. He added that integrating Blacks and Chicanos into the university community is a continuing problem. "If I had more beverage, I'd move faster," Hesburgh said. Both Moore and a questioner in the audience disagreed with Hesburgh's statement that tenure is not necessary for academic freedom. Moore said that faculty women are reluctant to speak out on their status because they might be labelled feminists and denied tenure. Moore is chairperson of the status of women. Last night's program was the last in a series sponsored by the Graduate Student Union.

Due to continued problems and confusion with the Notre Dame-St. Mary's shuttle bus, the Office of Student Affairs and the Ombudsman Service have implemented a new shuttle bus schedule. The new schedule has been established to make the shuttle simpler and more efficient in meeting students' needs. The schedule went into effect yesterday and will continue to the end of the semester.

During class periods, there will be an express bus leaving both campuses three minutes after each class, and arriving before the next class begins. The buses leave from behind Nieuwland Science Building at Notre Dame and from the LeMans Hall parking lot at SMC. Other stops will be at Madeleva Hall, the Grotto and at the Notre Dame power plant.

During classes, the buses will be on the road. The buses will go from the ND Library to the LeMans parking lot and back, while stopping at the Main Circle, the ROTC Building, the Grotto and Madeleva. These buses will make three trips each way, every fifteen minutes after the start of the class period.

At night and on weekends, the buses leave the ND Library Circle at fifteen minutes after and before the hour. It leaves the LeMans parking lot at the hour and at the half-hour.

There is a new route for all night and weekend runs. The bus will go from the east side of the Library Circle to the Main Circle and downtown Notre Dame Ave. to St. Mary's. This bus does not travel within the Notre Dame campus at any time.

At SMC the bus stops at Holy Cross and Regina Halls before arriving at LeMans Hall. After leaving LeMans, the bus stops at McCandless Hall before returning to Notre Dame. The last bus on Sunday thru Thursday will be the 12:30 SMC to ND bus. On Friday and Saturday nights, the last bus will leave SMC to ND at 2:30.

If anyone has any questions or complaints about the operation of the shuttle, they should call Bob Visser at 4611 or the Ombudsman Service at 5455.

Ombudsman, OMBUDSMAN SERVICE
ACTION EXPRESS
ACTION EXPRESS
ACTION EXPRESS
ACTION EXPRESS
ACTION EXPRESS

PRE-ADVANCE REGISTRATION PROGRAM
Pre-advance registration programs will be conducted for freshmen in all college program areas on WEDNESDAY, MARCH 31 at 7:00 P.M. At each program, complete information will be given on the advance registration procedures and on the sophomore year and its relationship to the degree curriculum. At some of the programs there will be mixers with the faculty and upperclass students, as well as tours of the facilities.

The meeting places for the programs, according to college areas, are as follows:

Arts and Letters College Programs (all, including AL Preprofessional)
Washington Hall

Business Administration College Program
Hayes Healy Center, Room 122
(A through G at 7:00 P.M., H through Z at 8:00 P.M.)

Engineering College Programs
Aerospace & Mechanical Engineering
Chemical Engineering
Civil Engineering
Electrical Engineering
Mechanical Engineering
Metallurgical Engineering
Computer Science

Science College Programs
Biology
Chemistry
Earth Sciences
Mathematics
Microbiology

Preprofessional (Science only)

Engineering College Programs
Engineering Bidg., Rooms 301, 302, 303
Architecture Bidg., Rooms 201
Radiation Lab., Conference Room
Engineering Bidg., Room 205
Engineering Bidg., Room 212
Engineering Bidg., Rooms 301, 302, 303
Engineering Bidg., Room 5
Engineering Bidg., Room 22

Galvin Life Science Auditorium, Room 278
Newkirk Science Hall, Room 343
Earth Science Bidg., Room 101
Computer-Mathematics Bidg., Room 226
Galvin Life Science Hall, Room 105
Newkirk Science Hall, Room 327
Center for Continuing Education, Auditorium

ALL FRESHMEN ARE REQUIRED TO ATTEND

THE PROGRAM OF THE COLLEGE OR DEPARTMENT THEY INTEND TO ENTER IN THE SOPHOMORE YEAR.

Arlo Guthrie
and Shenandoah
IN CONCERT
TUES., MAR. 30, 8 PM
MORRIS CIVIC AUDITORIUM, SOUTH BEND.

$5.50 in Advance
TICKETS: 6.50 At the Door

Tickets Available at:
Auditorium Box Office
Boogie Records
Suspended Chord
Just for the Record
The Record Joint (Niles)

Ombudsman, OSA implement revised shuttle bus schedule

Observer Chess Tournament

April 3rd&4th
in the basement of LaFortune

Sign up in the Observer office (3rd floor of LaFortune)

Entry Fee $2.00

Prizes and trophies awarded

For more information call
John Newcomer 272-1913
or Jim Stevens 8640
The other alternative Savio discussed is federal governmental regulation of business and government in establishing ethical standards. Savio advocated such formalized standards in business, in cooperation with the situation in which his competitors use illegal or unethical practices to gain an advantage. He "would gladly lose the business" in engaging in similar abuses.

 Classified Ads

Papers professionally and promptly typed. IBM Selectric II, complete typing service. Call 277-7943.

Lost and Found
Last, lost or keys on Friday, March 31, possibly in small leather car coming back from Nuncio. If found please call Craig at 3323.

Lost pair of glasses, brown plastic frame.
Hobbies
Furniture, brown couch. Call Denny 6881.

Lost purse, N.C. University student. Beautiful, one black strap with white flowers. Call 226-7900 for return and reimbursement. Reward offered.

Lost Campbells Soup Box. If found, please phone 232-2279.

Lost Complete Works of Shakespeare. If found, please phone before break time at 9:30 a.m. Call 327-9083.

Lost shopping bag full of books, in a brown paper bag. At Nike Store Sat night. Please return, call 8231.

Our son lost his class ring! $717 at a game a few weeks ago. If found, please phone 226-6701. It had a V Very Special image, and we are unable to replace it. However, we are really hoping that the ring may mean a great deal to us. Could the finder please consider returning it? If not, please call 823-6151. Thank you kindly.

NOTICES
Accuracy, fast typing. Hours 8 A.M. to 6 P.M. Mrs. Donald, 232-0741.

Shingles, 20 milligrams, 100 count. Proudly produced in the USA by Miss. Boots, 232-9871.

For rent
For rent next school term 5 bedroom house furnished, 1 1/2 blocks from Notre Dame campus.

FOR SALE

 Nielsen's North Campus unit over President Ford led him to change tactics, and switch temporarily to computer-assisted telephone network, where he is conducting follow-up surveys.

Reagan is on the ballot in only one state, New York, where he is facing New York primary rival George Bush. Reagan is running comfortably at home.

"This was the advice offered by executive Leon­ard M. Savoie, vice-president and president of the Notre Dame AAUP," the observer said.

Included among the debaters was NBC's Jim Nessen, who presided over the hearing in the initial Eastern appearance of his new position.

Others taking part in the debate and seeking the '74 nominating vote, in addition to Bush, were New York primary winner George Jas. Jim, a former hero Jackson of Washington, former Oklahoma Sea. Food Harris and Rep. Morris Udall of Arizona.

"I think that is a healthy thing," the observer said.

By David O'Keefe
Staff Reporter

"Do that which you would feel most comfortable explaining to your conscience." This was the advice offered by executive Leon­ard M. Savoie, vice-president and president of the Notre Dame AAUP, yesterday in a lecture on business ethics.

A key question asked in the poll was, "What is your own ethical code and enforce it to allow businesses to establish public confidence in industry." Savoie said, "All of business has been tarnished by a guilty conscience."

He went on to say the public has demonstrated it will not tolerate fair business practices and one of the most important tasks in business ethics today is to revitalize public confidence in business. He proposed two options, both of which have certain limitations.

The first, according to Savoie, is to allow businesses to establish their own codes and enforce them themselves. This might not be the best way, however, Savoie believes, because the nature of business might lead to double standards and the businesses would act on ethics or self-interest.

The second alternative Savio discussed is federal governmental regulation of business and government in establishing ethical standards. Savio advocated such formalized standards in business in cooperation with the situation in which his competitors use illegal or unethical practices to gain an advantage. He "would gladly lose the business" in engaging in similar abuses.

UNIVERSITY DAILY NEWS
Tuesday, March 30, 1976

 Classified Ads

Looking for energetic people to run the IN!PIRG's Board of Directors. 7 positions available, to serve on board, must meet in form at IN!PIRG office and return by April 11.

Looking for people to run
In!PIRG's Board of Directors. 7 positions available, to serve on board, must meet in form at IN!PIRG office and return by April 11.

For rent
For rent next school term 5 bedroom house furnished, 1 1/2 blocks from Notre Dame campus, 9 blocks from the student center. Large, comfortable, air conditioning, 9 month lease.

FOR SALE

Small 3 bedroom house in excellent condition, $25,000, call 7434.

Summer houses and rooms for rent, rates reasonable. 232-2413 or 232-7265.

Furnished houses, two to seven bedrooms, available for September or October. Furnished.

Lost: shopping bag full of books in parking lot, possibly in small foreign car lot. If found, please phone 232-0746.

Stereo components, 20 40 percent negotiable, Chris 277-0953.

有效! 但您仍需注意，这仅是一个自然语言的页面。
The closest Michigan could get after that was four points when Steve Grote converted a pair of free throws with 6:22 left to cut the Indiana margin to 63-59. But May hit from the field and Quinn Buckner and Tom Abernathy each collected a pair of free throws to quickly boost the Hoosiers to a 10-point margin, 69-59.

Downs Wolverines 86-68 in final

The victory for No. 1-ranked Indiana was the 32nd of the season for the Hoosiers' perfect season. Ninth-ranked Michigan wound up 25-7 — with the closest losses coming at the hands of Indiana — after the first National Collegiate Athletic Association final in history between teams from the same conference. Trailing 23-20 at halftime, the Hoosiers drew even at 39-39 on an 11-foot fadeaway jumper by May with 15:13 remaining.

The score was tied five times and the lead changed on six occasions before May, college basketball's Player of the Year, thrice the floor for an eight-footer at 9:58 to put Indiana out 53-52. The Hoosiers steadily pulled away thereafter.

Indiana went on to outscore the Wolverines 18-8, boosting their margin to 55-32 with 4:43 left in the clock.

Despite a sprained ankle, Joe Montana participated in the opening spring practice. Montana was one of seven regular starters out with a knee injury. The third-string quarterback was out with a minor sprain but in the final 20 minutes slipped to a running back while Burgmeier played split end. The surprise of the year's first practice session was the shift of Jim Weiler from tight end to strong safety as practice concluded.

Indiana's 3-2 season equaled the best perfect record in major college basketball history, accomplished by North Carolina in 1957.

The Hoosiers were able to win handily despite a discouraging injury: with the first half only 3:41 old, Bobbi Wilkerson, the 6'-6" senior guard, suffered a slight concussion and had to be carried from the floor on a stretcher. Wilkerson, who had collected 19 rebounds in the semifinal victory over UCLA on Saturday, was admitted to Temple University hospital for observation.

UCLA, last year's national champion, won third place by beating Rutgers 106-92 in the consolation battle which preceded the championship game.

The closest Michigan could get after that was four points when Steve Grote converted a pair of free throws with 6:22 left to cut the Indiana margin to 63-59. But May hit from the field and Quinn Buckner and Tom Abernathy each collected a pair of free throws to quickly boost the Hoosiers to a 10-point margin, 69-59.

The victory for No. 1-ranked Indiana was the 32nd of the season for the Hoosiers' perfect season. Ninth-ranked Michigan wound up 25-7 — with the closest losses coming at the hands of Indiana — after the first National Collegiate Athletic Association final in history between teams from the same conference. Trailing 23-20 at halftime, the Hoosiers drew even at 39-39 on an 11-foot fadeaway jumper by May with 15:13 remaining.

The score was tied five times and the lead changed on six occasions before May, college basketball's Player of the Year, thrice the floor for an eight-footer at 9:58 to put Indiana out 53-52. The Hoosiers steadily pulled away thereafter.

Indiana went on to outscore the Wolverines 18-8, boosting their margin to 55-32 with 4:43 left in the clock.

Despite a sprained ankle, Joe Montana participated in the opening spring practice. Montana was one of seven regular starters out with a knee injury. The third-string quarterback was out with a minor sprain but in the final 20 minutes slipped to a running back while Burgmeier played split end. The surprise of the year's first practice session was the shift of Jim Weiler from tight end to strong safety as practice concluded.

Indiana's 3-2 season equaled the best perfect record in major college basketball history, accomplished by North Carolina in 1957.

The Hoosiers were able to win handily despite a discouraging injury: with the first half only 3:41 old, Bobbi Wilkerson, the 6'-6" senior guard, suffered a slight concussion and had to be carried from the floor on a stretcher. Wilkerson, who had collected 19 rebounds in the semifinal victory over UCLA on Saturday, was admitted to Temple University hospital for observation.

UCLA, last year's national champion, won third place by beating Rutgers 106-92 in the consolation battle which preceded the championship game.

The closest Michigan could get after that was four points when Steve Grote converted a pair of free throws with 6:22 left to cut the Indiana margin to 63-59. But May hit from the field and Quinn Buckner and Tom Abernathy each collected a pair of free throws to quickly boost the Hoosiers to a 10-point margin, 69-59.

The victory for No. 1-ranked Indiana was the 32nd of the season for the Hoosiers' perfect season. Ninth-ranked Michigan wound up 25-7 — with the closest losses coming at the hands of Indiana — after the first National Collegiate Athletic Association final in history between teams from the same conference. Trailing 23-20 at halftime, the Hoosiers drew even at 39-39 on an 11-foot fadeaway jumper by May with 15:13 remaining.

The score was tied five times and the lead changed on six occasions before May, college basketball's Player of the Year, thrice the floor for an eight-footer at 9:58 to put Indiana out 53-52. The Hoosiers steadily pulled away thereafter.

Indiana went on to outscore the Wolverines 18-8, boosting their margin to 55-32 with 4:43 left in the clock.