In remote jungle

Rep. Ryan dies, reports claim mass suicide

WASHINGTON, (AP) The Guyanese government airlifted troops yesterday into the remote jungle where a California cult was holding 900 followers, but said one settler was killed and another 35 wounded.

Government officials denied reports that 200 or more of the People's Temple settlers committed suicide after the Saturday ambush, staged by members of the People's Temple who were angered by the ordination of women to the ministry.

The government said it was an 18-year-old American whose age and hometown were not known.

At least seven people, including well-known attorney Mark Lane, were listed as missing in the areas of the attack, the State Department said in Washington.

The U.S. Embassy identified the dead as the 53-year-old Ryan, reporter Don Harris, 42, and cameraman Robert Brown, 36, both of NBC News and both Los Angeles residents, and photographer Gregory Robinson, 27, of the San Francisco Examiner.

The death toll was raised to 241, the State Department said, due to confusion over the identities of those killed.

Ryan's party was ambushed as he tried to escort unhappy settlers out of the camp in the aftermath of the Saturday ambush of the People's Temple compound.

The embassy said that 200 or more of the sect's members had committed mass suicide at the camp in the aftermath of the Saturday ambush of the People's Temple compound.

The ordination of Roman Catholic women to be held in O'Laughlin Auditorium.

The conference supports ordination of women by Karen Gerhart

Throughout the history of the Roman Catholic Church, the priestly ordination of women has been forbidden. In order to express support for changes in this matter, more than 2,000 people attended the Second Conference on the Ordination of Roman Catholic Women, held Nov. 10-12 in Baltimore.

Members of the conference included nuns, lay women, priests, and lay men.

Reformation of the Church includes growing awareness of the need for reforms. Although women are involved in nearly every facet of the Catholic ministry, they are excluded from presiding at the Eucharist.

The question of whether or not women belong in positions of Church authority is, according to participants in the conference, a question of justice.

The politics of ordaining women into the present church system led to discussions on structural changes within the Church.

The ordination of women was supported by Father Hesburgh, and Elisabeth Schussler Fiorenza, a main speaker at the conference.

For Thanksgiving, Darby's extends invitation

by Paul Stauder

Students who remain on campus for the Thanksgiving break are invited to take advantage of the activities at Darby’s Place in the basement of LaFortune Student Center, according to Fr. Robert.

Harvard to hold interviews

Interviews will be conducted tomorrow by Harvard Law School in room 222 of the Administration Building. In addition, a speaker from the Cooley Law School will give a presentation tomorrow night at 7 in O’Shaughnessy Room 104.

Griffin, director of Darby’s Place. For the fifth straight year, Griffin and the staff of Darby’s Place will put on Darby’s Thanksgiving Day Party. All Notre Dame and St. Mary’s students who live on or off campus are invited, along with members of the faculty and staff, and “whoever else wants to come,” according to Griffin. “The place is there for everybody.”

The activities planned for the party on Thanksgiving Day include snacks and a light supper that will, according to Griffin, “supplement the serving at the dining hall.”

Griffin estimated that the snacks will be available all afternoon, with the upper being served “around seven.” The dining hall will serve dinner on Thanksgiving Day from 2:30 to 5 p.m.

Georgetown, where a U.S. Air Force C-141 transport plane pick-up them up. Air Force Southern Command officials said the plane was flying to Andrews Air Force Base, outside Washington, with a possible intermediate stop if the condition of the plane required it. Ryan, from St. Mary’s County and re-elected to a fourth term, Nov. 70, had gone to Guyana with aiders and reporters to investigate alleged abuses at the settlement. Jones, a former San Francisco city official, founded the agricultural company a year ago.

Unaccounted for were Lane; Charles Garry, another American lawyer reportedly representing Jones; Robert Eick, an NBC field producer; a representative of the Guyanan Information Ministry, and four relatives of settlers from the colony. They were not on the Guyanese list of dead or wounded.

The wife and children of the remaining refugees from the camp was not immediately known.

St. Mary’s to sponsor WOW

A Women’s Opportunities Week (W.O.W.), sponsored by St. Mary’s Student Government will be held this semester during April. W.O.W. is a three-day seminar/workshop intended to awaken students to the opportunities open for women in all areas of life. The move toward a seminar/workshop, and away from lectures enables students to bring their own ideas and thoughts to the seminar, and away from lectures enables students to bring their own ideas and thoughts to the seminar. Bomb explodes killing four JERUSALEM (AP) - A bomb exploded on an intercity bus packed with Israelis and tourists in the occupied West Bank, and hospitals reported four persons were killed and 37 wounded in the worst terrorist incident here in five months.

In Beirut, Yasser Arafat's Fatah guerrillas claimed responsibility for the attack, saying in a communiqué that an "underground squad acting inside occupied Palestine planted a time heavy explosive charge in an enemy bus while en route from the Dead Sea area to Jerusalem."

Hospital officials said three of the dead were young Belgian and two Israelis, and that 13 of the injured were tourists from Canada, Sweden and Britain. No Americans were reported hurt. The identity of the fourth person killed was not immediately known.

The bomb blast occurred only hours after the Israeli Cabinet, meeting 10 miles away in Jerusalem, began debate on Egypt's demand for a timetable to establish Palestinian autonomy in the West Bank and Gaza Strip.

A major concern of the Israelis in the Washington, D.C., peace talks has been security and the pursuit of terrorists in the occupied territories if they are given autonomy. The Cabinet debate was adjourned until tomorrow without a decision.

The bombing, and a separate blast in Tel Aviv's Jaffa district that wounded two Israelis, came on the first anniversary of Egyptian President Anwar Sadat's visit to Jerusalem, when he began a go-alone drive for peace with Israel that has been violently opposed by Arafat's Palestine Liberation Organization.

Police later announced that another bomb had been discovered and defused at a busy intersection in the center of Jerusalem. The Fatah guerrillas also claimed responsibility for planting that device.

The driver of the bus, which was filled with holiday visitors enjoying a sunny day at resorts by the Dead Sea, said the bomb exploded just after he let the passengers off at an Israeli West Bank settlement, Mitpeth Jericho.

"I stopped the bus and opened the doors as well as I could. Luckily a truck came by filled with soldiers," he told the Israeli army radio. The army truck ferried the casualties to hospitals.

Career center to open Monday

Saint Mary's Counseling and Career Development Center will be open until 10 p.m. today and every Monday for the remainder of the semester. Trained personnel will be available to assist interested students.

Celebration of Humanity

By Mel Wesley

What are you doing for Thanksgiving this year? Are you going to get together with your family to feast with your family, or to be on your own? Thanksgiving always seemed the best holiday of the year to me, perhaps because it’s the least commercialized. It is a time for family, friends, and the giving of thanks.

If you’re not sure what you’re going to do, maybe you could consider an alternative this year, a celebration of humanity. The holidays are a time to introduce or renew the efforts to make it as easy as possible for everyone to participate. It doesn’t matter if you’re black or white, male or female, rich or poor. Everyone has a right to feel safe and secure during the holidays.

In Tupelo, the United Nations is using language that’s familiar to us all. The language of peace, the language of hope, the language of love. It’s a language that’s needed more than ever. It’s a language that can make a difference in our lives.

There’s a man by my side walkin’ through the streets of the world. And I can see he’s got the world in his arms. He’s got the world in his arms.

A plan to live where there is a place to live. Don’t you think that’s something that’s needed here? From the city to the suburbs, from the city to the countryside, from the city to the mountains, there’s a place to live. And it’s yours. It’s yours. It’s yours.

There are problems with off-campus life. Security, transportation, and expense to name the most common three. But they are not insurmountable. This is the focus of the program: there is a place to live. It’s not a monster. Everything can be fixed. And we can do it. And we can do it.

Bowl produces champions

by Leslie Griffith

Last week, the Saint Mary's College Bowl contest produced a champion consisting of juniors Patty Field, Lisa Fulks, Cathy Loftus, and Mary Laverty, director of Student Activities, and chairman of the Saint Mary's College Bowl. "Girls from any class, dorm or major were allowed to enter, while a team coach was required. The questions, given in competition packets, focused on the liberal arts areas, ranging from sociology to history. "They were fairly hard," remarked Laverty, "but the scores, on the whole, were pretty high." Fiscalled by the Saint Mary's Student Government, the contest used a buzzer system. Entire practice sessions were devoted to the use and reaction time of the buzzer.

The team we're sending consists of four regulars and four alternates," said Mary Laverty, chairman of the Student Affairs Committee for the Illinois-Indiana region will visit Notre Dame for the weekend of March 3-6. The agenda will include a formal reception for the ND students and their hosts, which will be attended by several Toronto directors, according to Flynn. The visit will also include various tours of Toronto, taking in such sites as the University itself, the Canadian National Tower, Queens Park, downtown Toronto, as well as many theatres and art galleries.

Two information seminars are also scheduled for the weekend, along with free access to the UT athletic complex. Flynn also promised a more than ample tour of the Toronto night life, for the more "socially oriented.

"This year," Flynn explained, "our program will be more concentrated and extensive than it was in the past. We're sure to have something for everyone." The itinerary for the Toronto students will have yet to be finalized, but DelGrande plans to have it completed shortly after the Thanksgiving holiday. "We (HPC) should have the formal process completed after break, and at that time all the necessary information will be given to the students," DelGrande said. We have a number of activities to audition for the UT students, Flynn explained, possibly even a tour of Chicago."

This the fourth year in a row that the University of Toronto has initiated this exchange program with an American school, and Flynn commented on what the three previous exchanges have accomplished. "In the past, the exchanges have provided both groups with a better understanding of each other as Americans and Canadians," Flynn pointed out. "I know it has cleared up a lot of misconceptions about Americans for us, because for most of us our only input on the American personality is what we see on the television screen."

"However," he continued, "the biggest accomplishment of the program is the lasting friendships and contacts that develop between the students. Although eight days doesn't sound like much time to develop friendships, it really works, and everyone benefits."

Ferguson sparkles in 38-21 ND win
Irish defeat Yellowjackets, fish and bottles before accepting bid

ATLANTA, GA — With the major bowl picture looking dim for the Irish, Dan Devine's team left for Atlanta realizing it had to beat Georgia Tech and let the rest work itself out. Notre Dame followed through with its plan Saturday at Grant Field as it crushed the Yellowjackets before a spirited and partially beleaguered home crowd.

Notre Dame did not wait long settling the trend as Tim Huffman and Forry cut an opening in Tech's defensive line. Vagas Ferguson could have driven a truck through.

Instead the junior halfback blasted through and then cut back to his left for 13 yards. The Wreck six-yard line.

Ferguson's penalty sent ND back to the seven yard line where the Georgia Tech defense was reeling. Chuck Male was called in to hit a 23-yard field goal, giving the Irish a 3-0 lead with 2:11 left.

In what was to be a dual between two teams with nothing to play for, Ferguson had a stunning day. He over ran a too-thin Georgia the Irish star broke the irons. His 14-yard rushing mark with 255 yards (Ferguson held the old mark with 249 yards earlier this season vs. Navy) putting him over the 1,000-yard mark for the season. His 1,160 yards already this year is a Notre Dame season record (previous record held by AI Hunter with 3,063 yards in 1976).

For Ivory it was to be a long day. The Heisman candidate entered the game with 1,300 yards and picked up 163 more on 26 grueling carries. Ivery, who is the toughest 100 yards I have ever gained," commented the senior halfback after the game.

Notre Dame dominated the play in a nearly flawless second half. The first Irish touchdowns came at the 7:06 mark of the first quarter. The 12-play, 92-yard drive was highlighted by a Joe Montana scramble for 43 yards on a third down play that made a first down by inches. A Montana to Pete Pallas pass was good for the touchdown by inches.

A Montana to Pallas pass was good for the game tying touchdown as the Irish showed that Georgia Tech was good for the final 26 yards down play that made a first down by inches.

Two Montana to Pallas passes were key for the Irish, one of which earned the momentum swinging heavily in favor of the Irish.

Lass than three minutes later, the Yellowjackets were erased by the Irish. Ivory had one well made carry to his 1-yard mark for the season. His 1,160 yards already this year is a Notre Dame season record (previous record held by AI Hunter with 3,063 yards in 1976).

Ferguson and Ivory made the most of Tech's defense. The Yellowjackets surrendered 274 rushing yards on 37 attempts. If I'm just guessing it was getting dangerous when bottles started being thrown. I told the players I wanted to finish the game and not soften the blow before Notre Dame's dignity to do that. I'm not sure I've seen a game with as many broken bottles as this one. Past a one yard strike to Georgia Moore closing the scoring at 38-21.

Kelley finished the day with 295 yards passing on 19-40 attempts and one interception. "Kelley is an excellent passer," praised Irish free safety Joe Teafic. "We didn't expect him to be this good especially since he's only a freshman. He has the potential to be a great quarterback."

Kelley and Ivory proved to be the bright spots on a Georgia Tech team that finishes the home season 7-2-1.

"Ivery is a great runner," com­mented Devine as the game came to an end. "You have to spot Ivery to win. We have to run. We have to hit him the more he gets up smiling."

Notre Dame's win, coupled with a tie between Auburn and Georgia, opened the door to a Cotton Bowl berth. Notre Dame officials promptly contacted Irish Travel to Los Angeles Saturday to play USC before completing the season on New Year's Day against projected SWC winner Houston.

ST. PAUL, Minn.—After Minnesota, the third ranked team in the WCHA, and ND's fourth ranked Fighting Irish tied, 1-1, in the first game on Saturday, the Irish defeated the Gophers 6-4. It was the Fighting Irish's first conference win of the season.

The Irish grabbed the lead again after State tied the score, 2-2, with 2:11 lapsed. Freshman goalie Dave Laurion, who stopped 42 of 43 shots on goal for the game, was key for the Irish. Forty saves alone in the second period led the Irish to a 5-4 win over the Spartans.
