WASHINGTON (AP) - President Carter's draft registration plan failed its test in Congress when a House committee refused yesterday to approve funds the administration had sought for the program.

Opponents of registration hailed the House Appropriations subcommittee action as a serious setback for the Carter administration.

However, administration officials and backers of Carter's program predicted the president's plan will be approved in the full Appropriations Committee at a later date.

Carter had asked Congress for $21.9 million in the current fiscal year to begin registering men and women, aged 19 and 20, beginning this summer. The committee did not even consider the issue of registering women, and first struck $3.6 million from the Carter request.

That left about $13.3 million in the bill. To the key vote, the panel deadlocked 6-6 on whether to recommend approval of the $13.3 million. A tie vote traditionally kills a measure.

But Carter's supporters tried to argue that the bill should be sent to the full committee for further action, anyway.

In the end, the committee decided to approve legislation appropriating $4.7 million - an amount that would not allow for registration this year. But it would finance a program proposed by Selective Service - and later discarded - for a registration program only after the president signed an emergency proclamation to moratorium on drafts.

Earlier, the committee had voted 6-3 against an almost identical proposal.

However, even supporters of registration joined in later and voted for the lower amount, merely as a means to send something to the full committee and in hopes that the full committee would approve $13.3 million.

CONCORD, N.H. (AP) - President Carter's campaign managers are mapping a cross-country effort to eliminate Edward M. Kennedy as a presidential contender, but the senator said yesterday he's fashioning a comeback around voter wrath over the soaring cost of living.

That issue didn't do much for Kennedy in New Hampshire, after Carter's comfortable victory in the keynote event. "I'm going to wear him out," Kennedy said he has no intention of changing or complimenting after the race.

But around the Carter camp, there are suggestions that it would be better for the party if Kennedy did quit. Kennedy said he has no intention of doing so, and offered no comment on Kennedy's "history" or "inflation" as a dominant theme in the keynote address.

As saying an Islamic scholar was among those killed by authorities in the aftermath of the bloody street fighting. Mass arrests also were made, the report said. Medical sources said at least 400 civilians and an undetermined number of Soviet and Afghan troops were killed in the fighting that led to the imposition of martial law in Kabul.

That, in effect, made the Soviet government's victory in the key northern sector of the capital of Kabul, according to a report published here yesterday.

In one incident, the report said, rebel forces killed a van of government troops on a road between Jalalabad, in eastern Afghanistan, and Kabul and "killed 400 troops and destroyed a number of armored vehicles."

Western diplomats in New Delhi said the strike by shopkeepers that prompted the up-rising shows only "about 10 percent of the city."

One diplomat in New Delhi, quoting Afghan sources, said 70-75 percent of the shopkeepers in Kabul opened for business yesterday, but that the strike was hurting "the economic life of the city."

There were indications, meanwhile, that Soviet leaders were suffering conditions under which they might withdraw their troops.

In London, a Foreign Office spokesman said British officials had "wishful thinking" attributed to "high-level sources close to President Brezhnev" saying the Soviets might consider the "possibility of using the air force used in Afghanistan."

In Calcutta, India, Soviet Deputy Prime Minister I.V. Arkhipov told reporters that he had "doubled the trouble in the region."

Riehle, Ciancio ticket wins run-off easily

Paul Riehle and Don Ciancio collected 60.8 percent of the vote to win the SBP-SBVP run-off election yesterday and to end a quiet campaign. Tom Belhey and Frank Guilfoyle won 37 percent and two percent went to write-in candidates.

"I'm going to wear him down," Bush said. But Reagan said he means to show the Washington he gained in New Hampshire, his first victory after Bush had won two early season GOP contests.

"You've got to keep on going. And I know there are areas here in fact, I'm not exactly a favorite son candidate."

For the record, Carter and his spokesman said it's Kennedy's business to decide whether the challenge to the nomination of the president should be pursued after three defeats, plus a virtually uncontested Carter victory in Minnesota.

And he needs a comeback, after Carter's comfortable victory in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New Hampshire as the Republican victor in New News in brief

Dylan, Doobies place among winners at Grammy Awards

LOS ANGELES (AP) - Veteran performers Dionne Warwick, the Doobie Brothers and Bob Dylan topped the collection of music superstars honored in the 22nd Annual Grammy Awards program last night. "Oh my dears, my dears, Warwick" was a winning way as she clutched the Victoria-shaped trophy for best female pop vocal performance, which she won for "Never Love This Way Again." Earlier, she captured best female rhythm and blues female vocal Grammy for "Deja Vu." Donna Summer won one Grammy for best female rock vocal performance for her energetic rendition of "Hot Stuff." But she lost to Gloria Gaynor in the new disco category. Moss Gaynor won her fourth album, "I Will Survive." The Doobie Brothers won a Grammy for best pop vocal performance by a group with "Minute by Minute." Group member Michael McDonald also won an arranging award for "What a Fool Believes." Bob Dylan, looking uncharacteristic in a tuxedo, performed his "Born Again Christian tune," "Gotta Serve Somebody," and went on to win Grammy for best male rock vocal performance. "I didn't expect to get it, I'd like to thank the Lord for it," Dylan said.

Ex-NFL star Hayes leaves prison after ten month stay

HUNTSVILLE, Texas (AP) - Former Olympian and Dallas Cowboy star Bob Hayes was released from the Texas state prison yesterday after serving 10 months on a narcotics conviction. Before dawn, Hayes slipped quietly out the front of the red brick building called "The Walls" by prison inmates. Officials had said Hayes would be freed between 8:30 and 9 a.m., but they said Hayes had made a special request for an earlier release time. Rick Hartley, the prison's director of public affairs, said Bob Hayes had been held in the walls but did not want to talk to the media and asked if it were possible for him to leave early. "707 explodes while landing; over one hundred aboard

MANILA, Philippines (AP) - A Taiwanese 707 jetliner with 124 passengers aboard exploded yesterday as it landed at the Manila International Airport on a flight from Taipei, the official Philippine News Agency reported. The airline, China Air Lines, said it had no immediate information on the number of casualties.

Weather

Light snow is expected over the state beginning today, but the weather service said it probably will end by tomorrow in all areas but those near Lake Michigan. The extended outlook called for little or no snow tomorrow through Sunday, with the 20's and 30's. By then, much of the state could be covered with snow.

Campus

2 p.m. EXHIBITION "works on paper" by university of dallas IDS GRANT
3:30 p.m. MEETING leadership training class by campus crusade for christ LEWIS HALL
7 p.m. MOCK CONVENTION PRESIDENTIAL FORUM LIBRARY AUDITORIUM
7 p.m. BEGINNING AUTO MECANICS by free LIBRARY AUDITORIUM
3:30 p.m. TALK, dean roemer, spon. by campus crusade for christ LEWIS HALL

Ford trial continues

WINNAMAC, Ind. (AP) - Ford Motor Co., hoping to show the "73 Pinto crash tests performed on '73 models of the Dodge Colt, Chevrolet Vega and Impala, American Motors Gremlin and Toyota Corolla.

In each test, three dummies were placed in the car, weighing between 105 and 107 pounds, the approximate weight of the female subject. Among dummy, weighing 140 pounds, was placed in the van. In each test a camera was placed in the van, and two cameras were on either side of the crash vehicle, Harrenstadt said. The van weighed at least 4,600 pounds and the cars weighed between 2,100 and 4,300. The Pinto weighed about 2,000 pounds, he said.

In all tests, as in the case of the fatal crash, there was considerable leakage from the fuel tank. The test vehicles used a non-flammable solvent instead of gasoline.

In the Toyota Corolla, the solven was splashed up on the windshield of the van.

The Observer is a member of the Associated Press. All reproduction rights are reserved.

MENDOZA'S GUITARS, REPAIRS, ACCESSORIES
1 mile north of campus 212-7130

MILLER DRAFTS
5 / 1.00

Corby's

MOTHER'S DAY
Sunday, May 19th
5 pm - 7 pm

MOLSON 75'
Trigiani recounts successes

by Mary Kay Leydon

"The goal of Saint Mary's student government this year is to increase visibility for all students, diversity in social programming, and pride in Saint Mary's," according to Student Body President Pia Trigiani. Trigiani said that she believed her administration's greatest success was better representation of students in all aspects of the college, as well as its confrontation of specific problems head on.

The methods which the members of student government use to assist their fellow students are as diverse as they are specialized. The social programs and attempts to have activities appeal to more than one group of students - the Speaker and movie series, OK-who's, and the Christmas Bazaar - were all great successes.

"The movie series has turned into a money making endeavor, and the money in this fund is then used to sponsor other activities," Trigiani said.

Other programs either sponsored or supported by student government include a rape prevention program and alcohol education council, the Student Mission Care, retreat programs, and the intramural athletic program.

"We are revising the whole structure of student government." Another program initiated by the student government was the installation of shuttle bus passes. Trigiani explained this was not a profit making endeavor. "It is a service to the students and needs no money," she said.

On the academic level, student government organized the used book sale, College to Career Days in cooperation with the Counselling and Career Development center, is now working on a course evaluation booklet.

"Working with the Board of Governance and the Student Assembly, we restructured the judicial system as well as the election rules," Vice President of Student Affairs Kathleen Sweeney said. Sweeney also plans to combine the student handbook with a student activities book to give students a concrete source of information.

"We are revising the whole structure of student government" Vice President of Academic Affairs Chip Donaubach commented.

Survey discloses apathy toward SMC government

by Ceci Balles

A random opinion survey of 30 Saint Mary's students revealed a lack of awareness of SMC student government activity. The survey questioned students about what they believed were the student government's successes and failures.

Several students said that the duties of student government were not well publicized. Many said that they were unaware that student government was involved in things other than social activities. They were surprised to find that social activities were only a small part of student government responsibilities.

Students were uncertain about student government failures. One student commented that although the used book sale was a very good idea, it could have been better organized. Another said that all of the campaign promises had not been fulfilled, but that they rarely were. She also commented that many of the students do not realize how involved student government is in many different aspects of student affairs.

Several students questioned were apathetic toward student government. They indicated that since it did not affect them personally, they were not involved. Others however, admitted that they were apathetic because they did not know enough about it.

Many students agreed that student government's biggest accomplishments involved social concerns. However, an equal number also said that the Cambodian Relief Program and St. Mary himself were also very important.

Many students said that they had not realized that the shuttle service was a student government concern. However, they commented that the shuttle passes provided this year were a very good idea.

One student said that student government's accomplishments have not been in one large area but rather in many small areas. The average student does not realize they have occurred. However, these small accomplishments really improve our life here.

Another student commented that student government was not competent in arranging social events. It offers many things to do but does not become an integral part of student life.

Arthur Treacher's

1733 North Ironwood, South Bend 401 Lincoln Way West, Mishawaka
ATTENTION!!! ND-SMC STUDENTS, FACULTY, and STAFF

ALL YOU CAN EAT
Fish Fry
EVERY SUNDAY $279

COUPON
2 pieces of fish with chips, hush puppies, and drink
SUPER VALUE $159 expires 3-15-80

COUPON
Fish Sandwich Special with Drink
SUPER VALUE $109 expires 3-15-80

COUPON
Arthur Treacher's has super values for you

The Observer Thursday, February 28, 1980 - page 3
Guys and Gals

GREAT A GOLDEN TAN IN MINUTES! YOU’VE HEARD ABOUT US, NOW COME TRY MINUTE IN OUR BOOTHS AND SAVE $7.00 ON OUR 20 VISIT MEMBERSHIP IF YOU BRING THIS AD TWO MINUTES IN OUR CENTER EQUALS TWO HOURS IN THE SUN AS SAFE AS SUN LIGHT OFFER EXPIRES 3/6/80

WANT INSTANT RESPONSIBILITY?

Kennedy sounded the same theme yesterday as he took his campaign to Birmingham, Ala., seeking votes in the state's March 11 primary. The senator goes home to Massachusetts for a primary Tuesday. White House press secretary Jody Powell will be satisfied if Carter comes through in his "decent" chunk of the 111 Democrats in Congress.

Powell said 26 percent of the vote would be an acceptable showing for a candidate who might not be the country's "first choice." Still, a decent chunk of the 111 Democrats in Congress.

Powell said 26 percent of the vote would be an acceptable showing for a candidate who might not be the country's "first choice." Still, a decent chunk of the 111 Democrats in Congress.

The $50 fee covers the cost of the band, hall rental, favors, dinner, complimentary dinners for guests invited by the seniors.

Next semester students will be encouraged to pick up information packets which should answer most of their questions according to Perry Thomy, committee member. Each student's packet will contain a card which must be sent to the Marriott at least three weeks in advance in order to reserve a hotel room.

The card need not be accompanied by payment, although sending a check with the reservation notice is one option. Otherwise, students must pay at the Marriott in one of three ways: cash, check along with a credit card, or credit card alone.

Saturday evening's cocktail party will start at 7:30 p.m. and include hors d'oeuvres and a cash bar. For the first time at the senior prom dinner, the students will get to ask at the main course.

Being a missile launch officer in the Air Force is an awesome responsibility. But it's an exciting job with leadership opportunity from the day you arrive. If you can qualify for the missile field, you can work on an active missile site.

Air Force ROTC can help you prepare for this exciting field by granting two, three or four-year scholarships. These will pay for tuition, books, and lab fees, and give you $100 a month for some of your other expenses.

The Grand Ballroom will accommodate 2000 people, which will allow the estimated 500 to 700 couples to have more space to dance on either one large or two smaller dance floors. Expenditures for this year's formal total $50,000, said Carey Committee member, to total $115,000, as compared with last year's total of $110,000. The state of the art, $14 million, facility of the Palmer House, which cost $4,000 less last year's event at the Palmer House, which cost $4,000 less.

The Grand Ballroom will accommodate 2000 people, which will allow the estimated 500 to 700 couples to have more space to dance on either one large or two smaller dance floors. Expenditures for this year's formal total $50,000, said Carey Committee member, to total $115,000, as compared with last year's total of $110,000. The state of the art, $14 million, facility of the Palmer House, which cost $4,000 less.

The Grand Ballroom will accommodate 2000 people, which will allow the estimated 500 to 700 couples to have more space to dance on either one large or two smaller dance floors. Expenditures for this year's formal total $50,000, said Carey Committee member, to total $115,000, as compared with last year's total of $110,000. The state of the art, $14 million, facility of the Palmer House, which cost $4,000 less.

The Grand Ballroom will accommodate 2000 people, which will allow the estimated 500 to 700 couples to have more space to dance on either one large or two smaller dance floors. Expenditures for this year's formal total $50,000, said Carey Committee member, to total $115,000, as compared with last year's total of $110,000. The state of the art, $14 million, facility of the Palmer House, which cost $4,000 less.

The Grand Ballroom will accommodate 2000 people, which will allow the estimated 500 to 700 couples to have more space to dance on either one large or two smaller dance floors. Expenditures for this year's formal total $50,000, said Carey Committee member, to total $115,000, as compared with last year's total of $110,000. The state of the art, $14 million, facility of the Palmer House, which cost $4,000 less.

The Grand Ballroom will accommodate 2000 people, which will allow the estimated 500 to 700 couples to have more space to dance on either one large or two smaller dance floors. Expenditures for this year's formal total $50,000, said Carey Committee member, to total $115,000, as compared with last year's total of $110,000. The state of the art, $14 million, facility of the Palmer House, which cost $4,000 less.

The Grand Ballroom will accommodate 2000 people, which will allow the estimated 500 to 700 couples to have more space to dance on either one large or two smaller dance floors. Expenditures for this year's formal total $50,000, said Carey Committee member, to total $115,000, as compared with last year's total of $110,000. The state of the art, $14 million, facility of the Palmer House, which cost $4,000 less.

The Grand Ballroom will accommodate 2000 people, which will allow the estimated 500 to 700 couples to have more space to dance on either one large or two smaller dance floors. Expenditures for this year's formal total $50,000, said Carey Committee member, to total $115,000, as compared with last year's total of $110,000. The state of the art, $14 million, facility of the Palmer House, which cost $4,000 less.
New parliament may defer hostage fate until May Iran's new parliament will not be ready to decide the fate of the U.S. Embassy hostages until May at the earliest, a top Iranian official said yesterday. The official, Ayatollah Mohammad Reza Pahlavi, who had met with the hostages, said that the new parliament may defer to the earlier release of the hostages, held by Iranian militants since Nov. 4.

Khomeini, leader of Iran's revolution, said last weekend that the hostage fate until May and early April. The new parliament may defer to the earlier release of the hostages, held by Iranian militants since Nov. 4.

Responding to Rehashtags's statement, a high-level U.S. official said in Washington, "It could be a sign of progress if the progress dragged on that long."

Outside the occupied embassy yesterday, several thousand restless clerics staged an anti-American demonstration, shouting, "We are ready to revolt against imperialism!" and "The criminal Shah will be punished here!"

The U.N. investigative commission on Iran, continuing its work in Tehran, met for two hours with Foreign Minister Sadat, and discussed the commission's plans for visiting with the hostages. U.N. officials said in New York.

U.S. spokesman Harold Stavar har said tonight "Whether final plans had been agreed upon, but he said Secretary General Kurt Waldheim hopes the hostages may be set free.

The five-member commission was established to hear Iranian grievances about alleged brutality and corruption during the rule of the deposed Shah Mohammad Reza Pahlavi and al leged U.S. interference in Iran's internal affairs. But U.S. officials have yet to have met with the hostages - khomeini's government has refused - and a U.S. diplomat was killed.

Witnesses said that a dozen gunmen began to shoot when a limousine stopped in front of the embassy, bringing one of the diplomats to the celebration of the Dominican Republic's independence day. An U.S. Embassy spokeswoman confirmed that Ambassador Diego C. A. Acosta, 48, was being taken by the embassy.

She said she had determined he was not wounded, contrary to an earlier radio report. A policeman outside the embassy did not give his name, said Acosta's bodyguard was killed. A background to the embassy, bringing one of the diplomats to the celebration of the Dominican Republic's independence day. An U.S. Embassy spokeswoman confirmed that Ambassador Diego C. A. Acosta, 48, was being taken by the embassy.

She said she had determined he was not wounded, contrary to an earlier radio report. A policeman outside the embassy did not give his name, said Acosta's bodyguard was killed. A background to the embassy, bringing one of the diplomats to the celebration of the Dominican Republic's independence day. An U.S. Embassy spokeswoman confirmed that Ambassador Diego C. A. Acosta, 48, was being taken by the embassy.

She said she had determined he was not wounded, contrary to an earlier radio report. A policeman outside the embassy did not give his name, said Acosta's bodyguard was killed. A background to the embassy, bringing one of the diplomats to the celebration of the Dominican Republic's independence day. An U.S. Embassy spokeswoman confirmed that Ambassador Diego C. A. Acosta, 48, was being taken by the embassy.

She said she had determined he was not wounded, contrary to an earlier radio report. A policeman outside the embassy did not give his name, said Acosta's bodyguard was killed. A background to the embassy, bringing one of the diplomats to the celebration of the Dominican Republic's independence day. An U.S. Embassy spokeswoman confirmed that Ambassador Diego C. A. Acosta, 48, was being taken by the embassy.

She said she had determined he was not wounded, contrary to an earlier radio report. A policeman outside the embassy did not give his name, said Acosta's bodyguard was killed. A background to the embassy, bringing one of the diplomats to the celebration of the Dominican Republic's independence day. An U.S. Embassy spokeswoman confirmed that Ambassador Diego C. A. Acosta, 48, was being taken by the embassy.

She said she had determined he was not wounded, contrary to an earlier radio report. A policeman outside the embassy did not give his name, said Acosta's bodyguard was killed. A background to the embassy, bringing one of the diplomats to the celebration of the Dominican Republic's independence day.

In Colombia

Terrorists seize diplomats

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP) - Attackers believed to be leftist guerrillas shot their way into the Uruguayan embassy here yesterday, ambas sador and other diplomats hostage-taking, police and diplomats said. A radio station put the number of hostages at 10. At least five persons outside the embassy were reported wounded. A Bogota radio broadcast said a Colombian soldier was killed.

Witnesses said after a dozen gunmen began to shoot when a limousine stopped in front of the embassy, bringing one of the diplomats to the celebration of the Dominican Republic's independence day. An U.S. Embassy spokeswoman confirmed that Ambassador Diego C. A. Acosta, 48, was being taken by the embassy.

She said she had determined he was not wounded, contrary to an earlier radio report. A policeman outside the embassy did not give his name, said Acosta's bodyguard was killed. A background to the embassy, bringing one of the diplomats to the celebration of the Dominican Republic's independence day. An U.S. Embassy spokeswoman confirmed that Ambassador Diego C. A. Acosta, 48, was being taken by the embassy.

She said she had determined he was not wounded, contrary to an earlier radio report. A policeman outside the embassy did not give his name, said Acosta's bodyguard was killed. A background to the embassy, bringing one of the diplomats to the celebration of the Dominican Republic's independence day. An U.S. Embassy spokeswoman confirmed that Ambassador Diego C. A. Acosta, 48, was being taken by the embassy.

She said she had determined he was not wounded, contrary to an earlier radio report. A policeman outside the embassy did not give his name, said Acosta's bodyguard was killed. A background to the embassy, bringing one of the diplomats to the celebration of the Dominican Republic's independence day. An U.S. Embassy spokeswoman confirmed that Ambassador Diego C. A. Acosta, 48, was being taken by the embassy.

She said she had determined he was not wounded, contrary to an earlier radio report. A policeman outside the embassy did not give his name, said Acosta's bodyguard was killed. A background to the embassy, bringing one of the diplomats to the celebration of the Dominican Republic's independence day. An U.S. Embassy spokeswoman confirmed that Ambassador Diego C. A. Acosta, 48, was being taken by the embassy.

She said she had determined he was not wounded, contrary to an earlier radio report. A policeman outside the embassy did not give his name, said Acosta's bodyguard was killed. A background to the embassy, bringing one of the diplomats to the celebration of the Dominican Republic's independence day. An U.S. Embassy spokeswoman confirmed that Ambassador Diego C. A. Acosta, 48, was being taken by the embassy.

She said she had determined he was not wounded, contrary to an earlier radio report. A policeman outside the embassy did not give his name, said Acosta's bodyguard was killed. A background to the embassy, bringing one of the diplomats to the celebration of the Dominican Republic's independence day. An U.S. Embassy spokeswoman confirmed that Ambassador Diego C. A. Acosta, 48, was being taken by the embassy.

She said she had determined he was not wounded, contrary to an earlier radio report. A policeman outside the embassy did not give his name, said Acosta's bodyguard was killed. A background to the embassy, bringing one of the diplomats to the celebration of the Dominican Republic's independence day. An U.S. Embassy spokeswoman confirmed that Ambassador Diego C. A. Acosta, 48, was being taken by the embassy.

She said she had determined he was not wounded, contrary to an earlier radio report. A policeman outside the embassy did not give his name, said Acosta's bodyguard was killed. A background to the embassy, bringing one of the diplomats to the celebration of the Dominican Republic's independence day. An U.S. Embassy spokeswoman confirmed that Ambassador Diego C. A. Acosta, 48, was being taken by the embassy.

She said she had determined he was not wounded, contrary to an earlier radio report. A policeman outside the embassy did not give his name, said Acosta's bodyguard was killed. A background to the embassy, bringing one of the diplomats to the celebration of the Dominican Republic's independence day. An U.S. Embassy spokeswoman confirmed that Ambassador Diego C. A. Acosta, 48, was being taken by the embassy.

She said she had determined he was not wounded, contrary to an earlier radio report. A policeman outside the embassy did not give his name, said Acosta's bodyguard was killed. A background to the embassy, bringing one of the diplomats to the celebration of the Dominican Republic's independence day. An U.S. Embassy spokeswoman confirmed that Ambassador Diego C. A. Acosta, 48, was being taken by the embassy.

She said she had determined he was not wounded, contrary to an earlier radio report. A policeman outside the embassy did not give his name, said Acosta's bodyguard was killed. A background to the embassy, bringing one of the diplomats to the celebration of the Dominican Republic's independence day. An U.S. Embassy spokeswoman confirmed that Ambassador Diego C. A. Acosta, 48, was being taken by the embassy.

She said she had determined he was not wounded, contrary to an earlier radio report. A policeman outside the embassy did not give his name, said Acosta's bodyguard was killed. A background to the embassy, bringing one of the diplomats to the celebration of the Dominican Republic's independence day. An U.S. Embassy spokeswoman confirmed that Ambassador Diego C. A. Acosta, 48, was being taken by the embassy.

She said she had determined he was not wounded, contrary to an earlier radio report. A policeman outside the embassy did not give his name, said Acosta's bodyguard was killed. A background to the embassy, bringing one of the diplomats to the celebration of the Dominican Republic's independence day. An U.S. Embassy spokeswoman confirmed that Ambassador Diego C. A. Acosta, 48, was being taken by the embassy.

She said she had determined he was not wounded, contrary to an earlier radio report. A policeman outside the embassy did not give his name, said Acosta's bodyguard was killed. A background to the embassy, bringing one of the diplomats to the celebration of the Dominican Republic's independence day. An U.S. Embassy spokeswoman confirmed that Ambassador Diego C. A. Acosta, 48, was being taken by the embassy.

She said she had determined he was not wounded, contrary to an earlier radio report. A policeman outside the embassy did not give his name, said Acosta's bodyguard was killed. A background to the embassy, bringing one of the diplomats to the celebration of the Dominican Republic's independence day. An U.S. Embassy spokeswoman confirmed that Ambassador Diego C. A. Acosta, 48, was being taken by the embassy.

She said she had determined he was not wounded, contrary to an earlier radio report. A policeman outside the embassy did not give his name, said Acosta's bodyguard was killed. A background to the embassy, bringing one of the diplomats to the celebration of the Dominican Republic's independence day. An U.S. Embassy spokeswoman confirmed that Ambassador Diego C. A. Acosta, 48, was being taken by the embassy.
Thank you from Logan

To the ND/SMC Community:

A few weekends ago, our students and alumni of Logan Center were able to attend the Notre Dame-Minn. Duluth game with the generosity of the Pegasus Bowl to the wonderful donation of 100 tickets by the Blue Line Club. Although the outcome of the game was not what we hoped, we would like to extend our sincerest thanks to the Blue Line Club and all anonymous donations.

Secondly, we would like to thank all of our volunteers who gave an afternoon of their time in order to win the kids to the game. Your help, enthusiasm, love, and hard work and less energy make our program go and is appreciated many times.

Finally, and most importantly, our warmest and heartiest thanks go out to Lefty Smith and the Notre Dame Hockey team. Every after a disappointing loss, they found the time to come out and share with, sign autographs for, and say hello to all the kids. Many of the kids will never remember the final score, but to see and talk to their heroes played a whole day worthwhile. Once again, thank you and good luck for the rest of the season!

Ed Longbery
Walter Bandow, Jr.

Abortion and Ronald Reagan

Dear Editor:

I would like to commend Messrs. Quinlan, Falvey, and James Bradley for their fine selection of a presidential candidate who is a champion of moral issues. I would like to, but I can't.

I agree with them that abortion is a great moral issue which must not be overlooked. Also I agree that Ronald Reagan is the only candidate who has consistently spoken out against abortion. But he hardly makes him a champion of morality.

Does a champion of morality, for instance, ignore the needs of the poor while catering to the wants of the rich? Ronald Reagan has consistently worked against the interests of the lower classes in this country, whether those interests be welfare rights or farm worker issues. He further denies any interest in being a moral leader through his strong advo-cation of militarism and his "ballyhoo-manifest destiny" approach to solving world problems.

Wander why any of these issues relate to the travesty of torture and murder that lies in the following questions. Is it any more moral to baby it this world and then ignore its needs and let it starve to death than it is to kill it in the womb? Is it more moral to nurture the youth of this country till age eighteen or nineteen and then teach them to hate and fear themselves and to want to murder and be killed and maimed? I think we need a candidate who will speak to all of the moral issues, including abortion, starvation, war, crime, racism, and pollution. We need a candidate who will harp on one popular issue while advocating ignorance on others.

Lastly, Ronald Reagan will not be a champion of moral issues in the Notre Dame tradition. He wants anything that will eliminate the world safe for hypocrisy. If Notre Dame really wants to speak out on moral issues, Ronald Reagan is not the voice to speak through.

Orville Butler

Just what is our goal?

With great interest, I have watched the unfolding of the views of various individuals over the past few weeks on the issue of the military draft. Along with the crises in Iran and Afghanistan, the draft is an issue that currently occupants the minds of those to which it is most affected by the decision.

I am not surprised to find the wave of opinion on campus so overwhelmingly to the right. It has been a number of years since we have had to address this problem seriously. What better position for one to start with than a safe, conservative status quo. In response to the Soviet invasion of Afghanistan, President Carter announced that he would reinstate the policy of conscription registration. I read many articles by students condemning those who would even question our "duty" to protect the freedom that has been so heroically handed to us by those who were victorious in previous wars. I guess that since fellow Americans have been held prisoner since last November, we feel it's time Uncle Sam got up to take them a lesson. Maybe it is time the U.S. did something but we must remember that the world isn't some无情 lawless and Uncle Sam isn't any Clint Eastwood--thank God!

The feeling seems to be that what we have here is a case of the good guys against the bad. The Soviet Union is the one that is challenging the good and the justice that U.S.-style democracy brings. Maybe so, but let us not forget that the Shah, supported by the U.S., was not exactly the nicest guy around during his reign. The CIA didn't help the anti-U.S. leaders in South America during their heydays either. I guess what I am compelled to ask is just what is the goal of this edition of man that may want to send me overseas to fight. Is the goal to reestablish democracy in those nations gone astray? Are we set on impressing our sense of peace, farfaly, and justice which remain with us from the days when we were a Christian nation?

Whatever our ideology is, we need purity in the course we question and that is the issue that currently occupies the minds of those to which it is most affected by the decision.

I dreamed I saw the knights in armor coming.--Neil Young

The Observer

Editor

Editorial Board and Department Managers

Editor-in-chief.....Rosemary Mills
Managing Editor.....Scott Wolferman
Editorial Staff.....Ann Gales
Sports Editors.....Kevin Culhane
Executive News Editor.....Mike Lewis
News Editor.....Mark Roemer
SMC News Editor.....Margie Brissel

Advertising Manager.....Mike Holstein
Production Manager.....John McGrath
Circulation Manager.....Kevin Manson

The Observer is an independent newspaper published by the students of the University of Notre Dame du Lac and Saint Mary's College. It does not necessarily reflect the policies of the administration of either institution. The news is reported as accurately and objectively as possible. Editorials represent the opinions of a majority of the Editorial Board. Contributors are the views and opinions of their authors. Column space is available to all members of the community, and the free expression of varying opinions on campus, through letters, is encouraged.

Thursday, February 28, 1980 -page 6
The Conversation: Cup of misery

Beth Healy

Two white spotlights lit the back corner of the black, brick Washington Hall stage. The setting, a foreman's brewery office in Czechoslovakia in 1967, appeared respectable, though the worn desk cluttered with paper, one silver metal swivel chair backing the desk corner, and a straight-back wooden chair placed at the desk corner. The set offers no elaborate staging, no painted backdrops, no complicated props - nothing. In that "nothing" set, two actors used expression and dialogue to trap the audience into a very real, detailed understanding of man's principles, lost hopes and dreams.

The audience sat on stage, semi-circlely around the stark set, which added intimacy to the production. In that close arrangement, actors Miles Daly and Wilmot Brown invite the audience with their sensitive interpretation of Vaclav Havel's "The Conversation."

The drama opens with the foreman, Coiner, relaxing his head lazily on the desk, a half-finished glass of beer sits at his elbow. A knock. Vanek, the loading dock worker, played by Wilmot, the foreman sharp replies, "I'm not depressed." Later the discussion reveals a mutual depression and misery that the foreman and worker share, each in their own conceptual realm.

The foreman searches for friendship with the brewery worker, the "fair-minded guy" questions Vanek about a report writing and sympathizes with the worker's plight:

"I can tell an honest man when I see one and I can tell a crook when I see one. A fellow's can be as real sons-of-bitches. You're an honest man, Vanek. I thought we'd stick together.

The foreman states that the choice of friends is a valuable thing, but requests that Vanek not allow his colleagues to visit him at the brewery. The foreman, plagued with questions about the workplace from the police, doesn't want the responsibility of writing weekly reports for the police on the dock worker. His refusal to yield his principles in the deal, the actors expose their oppositely-ended miseries. All though Vanek needs the position, he refuses to yield his principles in return for the job. "Please don't misunderstand me. I can't reform on myself... there's a principle... How can I force myself to participate in something I've always found repugnant?..."

Vanek remains a firm, rational character throughout the drama and Wilmot accurately portrays the strong, thoughtful, and unyielding brewery worker.

With the refusal, the drunken foreman flies into rage and criticism of the "fine gentleman," and breaks down in his uneducated, working class manner. "Nobody gives a shit about me. But you got your principles... I ask you to get your hands a little bit dirty... But me, the fine gentleman got your principles... I'm just good enough to show the shit your principles can grow in..." Coiner handles the scene with some sensitivity and evokes compassion from the audience as he cries, "Nobody gives a shit about me... I lead a... miserable life and don't get nothing..."

The foreman sees his life as a waste, an uninteresting, lazy, slothful waste. He dreams for some contact with Vanek's intellectual realm and begs the playwright to bring a beautiful actress to the plant - just for one evening. Maybe then it won't be all for nothing, maybe then this miserable life won't be a complete waste. "Do this for me. If you don't, I don't know what I'll do. It's all a... mess."

Vanek faces another misery. Having had the success the foreman dreams of, Vanek has watched his life crumble because of his adherence to his principles. Now, because he rejects the deal, Vanek surrenders his future to loading barrels at the brewery.

Vanek leaves the desk to use the bathroom. Upon returning, he grabs the brown glass beer bottle and drains it. Just as one "learns to drink" beer as "a kind of tradition" in the brewery, the actor finds that the foreman learns to accept misery. Men, like the character Vanek and playwright Vaclav Havel, continue living in misery, for "It's all a... mess."

On that stark set in Washington Hall, Patrick Fanning successfully conveys the environment's sensitively depict the misery life blankets men like the foreman, Vanek and Vaclav Havel in and the constant, seemingly hopeless struggle for a change.

Jensen 's stages' rock concert

Molly Woulfe

Okay, the lady can act (has had starring roles for three running years in Utah's Shakespeare Festival, for instance) and she's written "between three and thirty" plays. And, she is sixteen, which has been produced at colleges, regional theaters, and experimental theaters. And her numerous honors include a commendation to write a full-length historical play for Robert Redford's Sundance Theater this year. So what else can she do?

Direct. Teeth 'N Smiles, David Hare's savage play about the rock 'n roll world, which features live rock on stage, is the latest artistic undertaking by Julie Jensen, assistant professor of Speech and Drama. It is Jensen's fifth directing venture in the Notre Dame-Saint Mary's Theatre Program (previous plays directed include Beckert's Happy Days and O'Neill's A Touch of the Poet).

Teeth traces the deteriorator of a second-rate British rock group playing their last gig one night in Cambridge, 1969. Their backlogged and neurotic band director takes on a new way of a revolving stage, designed for Jensen's production by ND Senior Mark Rushing. "It's a very tough, obscure play," Jensen promises. "It's really a heavy, load, tough, driving stuff. And what you see is what you hear... there's no record..."

"We all drink it around here. It's a kind of tradition. Wilmot successfully portrays the easy, young writer, cautious and curt, but also looking out for him self by defending the intellectual playwright..."

"He's un¬ threatened writing career. The fore¬ man flies into rage and criticism of the "fine gentleman," and breaks down in his uneducated, working class manner. "Nobody gives a shit about me. But you got your principles... I ask you to get your hands a little bit dirty... But me, the fine gentleman got your principles... I'm just good enough to show the shit your principles can grow in..." Coiner handles the scene with some sensitivity and evokes compassion from the audience as he cries, "Nobody gives a shit about me... I lead a... miserable life and don't get nothing..."

The foreman sees his life as a waste, an uninteresting, lazy, slothful waste. He dreams for some contact with Vanek's intellectual realm and begs the playwright to bring a beautiful actress to the plant - just for one evening. Maybe then it won't be all for nothing, maybe then this miserable life won't be a complete waste. "Do this for me. If you don't, I don't know what I'll do. It's all a... mess."

Vanek faces another misery. Having had the success the foreman dreams of, Vanek has watched his life crumble because of his adherence to his principles. Now, because he rejects the deal, Vanek surrenders his future to loading barrels at the brewery.

Vanek leaves the desk to use the bathroom. Upon returning, he grabs the brown glass beer bottle and drains it. Just as one "learns to drink" beer as "a kind of tradition" in the brewery, the actor finds that the foreman learns to accept misery. Men, like the character Vanek and playwright Vaclav Havel, continue living in misery, for "It's all a... mess."

On that stark set in Washington Hall, Patrick Fanning successfully conveys the environment's sensitively depict the misery life blankets men like the foreman, Vanek and Vaclav Havel in and the constant, seemingly hopeless struggle for a change.

Jensen 's stages' rock concert

Molly Woulfe

Okay, the lady can act (has had starring roles for three running years in Utah's Shakespeare Festival, for instance) and she's written "between three and thirty" plays. And, she is sixteen, which has been produced at colleges, regional theaters, and experimental theaters. And her numerous honors include a commendation to write a full-length historical play for Robert Redford's Sundance Theater this year. So what else can she do?

Direct. Teeth 'N Smiles, David Hare's savage play about the rock 'n roll world, which features live rock on stage, is the latest artistic undertaking by Julie Jensen, assistant professor of Speech and Drama. It is Jensen's fifth directing venture in the Notre Dame-Saint Mary's Theatre Program (previous plays directed include Beckert's Happy Days and O'Neill's A Touch of the Poet).

Teeth traces the deteriorator of a second-rate British rock group playing their last gig one night in Cambridge, 1969. Their backlogged and neurotic band director takes on a new way of a revolving stage, designed for Jensen's production by ND Senior Mark Rushing. "It's a very tough, obscure play," Jensen promises. "It's really a heavy, load, tough, driving stuff. And what you see is what you hear... there's no record..."

"We all drink it around here. It's a kind of tradition. Wilmot successfully portrays the easy, young writer, cautious and curt, but also looking out for him self by defending the intellectual playwright..."

"He's un¬ threatened writing career. The fore¬ man flies into rage and criticism of the "fine gentleman," and breaks down in his uneducated, working class manner. "Nobody gives a shit about me. But you got your principles... I ask you to get your hands a little bit dirty... But me, the fine gentleman got your principles... I'm just good enough to show the shit your principles can grow in..." Coiner handles the scene with some sensitivity and evokes compassion from the audience as he cries, "Nobody gives a shit about me... I lead a... miserable life and don't get nothing..."

The foreman sees his life as a waste, an uninteresting, lazy, slothful waste. He dreams for some contact with Vanek's intellectual realm and begs the playwright to bring a beautiful actress to the plant - just for one evening. Maybe then it won't be all for nothing, maybe then this miserable life won't be a complete waste. "Do this for me. If you don't, I don't know what I'll do. It's all a... mess."

Vanek faces another misery. Having had the success the foreman dreams of, Vanek has watched his life crumble because of his adherence to his principles. Now, because he rejects the deal, Vanek surrenders his future to loading barrels at the brewery.

Vanek leaves the desk to use the bathroom. Upon returning, he grabs the brown glass beer bottle and drains it. Just as one "learns to drink" beer as "a kind of tradition" in the brewery, the actor finds that the foreman learns to accept misery. Men, like the character Vanek and playwright Vaclav Havel, continue living in misery, for "It's all a... mess."

On that stark set in Washington Hall, Patrick Fanning successfully conveys the environment's sensitively depict the misery life blankets men like the foreman, Vanek and Vaclav Havel in and the constant, seemingly hopeless struggle for a change.
New parental testing may help prevent infant deaths

BOSTON (AP) - New tests may tell parents whether their children are likely to have children who are susceptible to sudden infant death syndrome, the mysterious disorder that is the nation's largest killer of infants.

The tests show that parents of susceptible babies often do not inhale powerfully if their breath is cut off. And even though this is not a serious problem for newborns, researchers theorize that it may be a fatal effect if passed on to children.

The new study, conducted at Rutgers Medical School, was published Thursday's issue of the New England Journal of Medicine.

Sudden infant death syndrome, sometimes known as crib death, is especially shocking for parents because it takes the lives of seemingly healthy babies without warning in their sleep. Its exact cause is not known although some doctors believe it represents several potential defects rather than a single gene.

Sudden infant death syndrome is the leading cause of death of children between one week and one year of age. In the United States each year, it takes more than 10,000 babies most often in the third and fourth months of life.

Doctors tried the breathing of six pairs of parents of babies who had died of the syndrome and compared them with six normal couples. They measured whether the babies breathed harder when levels of carbon dioxide were increased or when their breathing was obstructed.

In both tests, the breathing response of the parents whose children had died was significantly lower, the researchers found.

They concluded, "A low ventilation response to carbon dioxide and a disturbed WGRH is a relatively laissez-faire. Managers are left to run their own departments."

"People who live in WGRH production. The chief character is Russell Morash, producer of two of the station's best-known programs, "French Chef" and "Crookett's Victory Garden." Morash had proved he could do things that were both appealing and successful, and he decided last December it might be a fun to take an old Victorian house, rip it down, and show people how to put it back together - in 13 lessons," Tyler said.

"The show was No.1 in the ratings in Boston last spring, and it's been funded by Montgomery Ward for national distribution this year."

"The station took in excess of $100,000, gave it to Russell Morash and he gave them 'This Old House,' which the audience, and the station, loved," Tyler said.

"This Old House," in 59 installments, including the old house program, was broadcast previously in Boston, where it was fed nationally to Public Broadcasting Service stations.

A year ago, WGRH was behind public TV's most ambitious project to date, dramatization of Nathaniel Hawthorne's "Scarlet Letter." It was a huge task by any standards, from creating a 17th century New England town near Newport, R.I., to the research that provided detail for the film.

"In digging beneath the common held notions of what 17th century Boston was like," WGRH said, "we found that far from being dour and dingy, Puritan America was in fact a colorful, almost gaudy place, decorated by gay costumes and decorated furniture."

Some WGRH productions require less elaborate preparation, "The station's 'Victory Garden' for example. WGRH studios are on land leased from Harvard University, and the garden itself backs up against the Crimson football stadium."

Julia Child, perhaps best known among WGRH television personalities, began her TV career in 1961 with an appearance on a locally broadcast...
Election Results

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>HALL</th>
<th>BEHNEY / GUILFOYLE</th>
<th>RIEHLE / CIANCIO</th>
<th>OTHER</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Alumni</td>
<td>194</td>
<td>37</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Badin</td>
<td>20</td>
<td>76</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B-F</td>
<td>9</td>
<td>97</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Carroll</td>
<td>9</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Cavanaugh</td>
<td>30</td>
<td>47</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dillon</td>
<td>74</td>
<td>7</td>
<td>5</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Farley</td>
<td>40</td>
<td>105</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Flaherty</td>
<td>128</td>
<td>158</td>
<td>12</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Grace</td>
<td>78</td>
<td>160</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Holy Cross</td>
<td>28</td>
<td>59</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Howard</td>
<td>66</td>
<td>237</td>
<td>6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Keenan</td>
<td>11</td>
<td>227</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Lewis</td>
<td>12</td>
<td>7</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Lyons</td>
<td>68</td>
<td>74</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Morrissey</td>
<td>69</td>
<td>74</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Parker</td>
<td>32</td>
<td>68</td>
<td>10</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sorin</td>
<td>32</td>
<td>50</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Stanford</td>
<td>73</td>
<td>87</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>St. Eds</td>
<td>42</td>
<td>54</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Walsh</td>
<td>84</td>
<td>78</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Zahm</td>
<td>69</td>
<td>86</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Fisher</td>
<td>23</td>
<td>76</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>O-C</td>
<td>12</td>
<td>54</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>TOTAL</td>
<td>1222</td>
<td>2009</td>
<td>89</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

[continued from page 8]

WGRH program to promote her new cookbook. On the show, she made an omelet, which is definitely not what she said she liked. The following summer, she was invited to make three pilot programs. "The French Chef" premiered Feb. 11, 1963. This season's show is called "Julia Child & More Company." The value of WGRH programs goes beyond what's on the air. At one point last year, WGRH had four books on the New York Times' best seller list: "Julia Child & Company," "Julia Child & More Company," "Crockets' Victory Garden" and "Crockets' Victory Garden Indoors." Just over 500 people are on the WGRH payroll, operating two television stations and the radio station. Tyler said it costs about $30 million a year to run them all, with much of the money coming from the Corporation for Public Broadcasting as well as other public TV stations. "A good year is when we break even or don't lose too much. . . . But when you hustle for 85 percent of our money every day, and I mean hustle, if we didn't ask for it, we wouldn't get it," he said. WGRH was the first public TV station to buy color equipment. "But when you get yourself so well-equipped your challenge is to use it. And that means you've got to keep the business coming in," Tyler said. How WGRH puts those extensive facilities to work is best observed in the breadth of programming it makes available to PBS stations, Tyler said. The range is from impors like "Masterpiece Theatre" and this season's, "Mystere," to shows like the science series "Nova" and the long-running "Evening at Pops" and "Evening at Symphony" music programs. "The reason there is such diversity," he said, "is that there are few million-dollar or multimillion-dollar projects a-mong them.

"We've always prided ourselves in the funding packages we've put together, not asking for a lot from each source, maybe $300,000 or $400,000," he said. One series now in production is typical: "The Vietnam Project," a 13-week examination of U.S. involvement in Vietnam and produced in collaboration with ABC News, is planned for broadcast in the 1981-82 season. The project's $4 million pricetag is being paid with money from several sources, including the National Endowment for the Humanities.

Student body elections

SMC announces rules

by Mary Lavelle
Staff Reporter

Dates and rules, for the saint Mary's Student Body election, have been released by Mary Mullaney, Election Commissioner.

Nominations open on March 12 for the position of Student Body President, Vice President, of Academic Affairs and Vice President of Student Affairs. Nominations end and campaign begins at midnight on March 16. The election will then be held on March 20.

Candidates wishing to debate each party's platform has been submitted the debate may be held on March 18. The rules for this year's election are newly revised and were just passed by the SMC Student Government last week.

Campaigning rules are: Ed.

Candidates for any of the three student body positions must submit the names of the three people on their ticket and three copies of a one-page, typed platform to the Election Commissioner. Platforms will not be accepted after nominations close. All platforms are to be posted the next day by election commissioner in the dining hall for the benefit of the student body.

Balloting should take place between 10 a.m. and 6 p.m. on election day. The ballots must be initialed by a member of the Election Commissioner or a representative of the election Commissioner on duty at the ballot boxes. The voter must put her ballot in the ballot box.

Delegates hold mandatory meeting

There will be a mandatory meeting for all Pennsylvania delegates tonight at 7 in room 115 O'Shaughnessy. The meeting will concern the 35-page platform, voting strategy, general rules of the convention, and any other details the delegate can and cannot do.

Lewis Hall sponsors family

Lewis Hall is sponsoring a family for Lent and asks that faculty and students lend their support. Clothing, a crib and other articles are needed for an infant. Anyone who would like to help may call Beth Brezeo at 16299 or Sue Fleck at 8888.
The Observer Thursday, February 28, 1980 -page 10

Doonesbury

by Garry Trudeau

[continued from page 11]

[prophet than a coach, DeCicco expressed his prediction for the quad's future.] "I see in the cards - it won't take a whole lot more for us to be a top contender for the national championship. The girls are working their fannies off, and I just love them for what they're doing."

Women

... "Fencers"

[continued from page 12]

The Tartar epee squad will give the Irish a real run for their money. Gill Pacific, a junior from Milan, Italy, is a returning All-American. He sports a 10-3 mark, and is supported by Mike Davis and Geza Kogler, who both own 29-4 records.

Sophomore Kevin Tinelli and freshman Rich Daly lead the Irish epeeists, posting marks of 24-6 and 18-4, respectively. Epee captain Thom Callum, last year's representative to the national finals, is 21-5.

Gold medalist Yuri Ravinovich has graduated from Western State, leaving the brunt of the saber cores in the hands of Tom Kleckner and Neil Hick. Kleckner is 28-5, while Hick is 27-6.

Senior captain Chris Lyons heads the Irish saber corps with a 32-4 mark. Sophomore Greg Arm is 29-7, while Sal Musico and Tom Valdiserri own respective marks of 17-4 and 10-4.

"We've been aiming at this one for some time now. We may not be favored like we have in the past, but I can guarantee you all that you'll be fencing the same as in the past. Right now I'm just keeping my fingers crossed."

NSHP seeks workers

The Neighborhood Service Help Program needs to fill several positions for the 1980-1981 school year. Irish choices are open to anyone currently involved and/or interested in helping to coordinate the program. For information, call Sue Claus at #41-4514, John Sax at #232-0263 or Joe Wuliger at #7102.

NSHP seeks workers

The Neighborhood Service Help Program needs to fill several positions for the 1980-1981 school year. Irish choices are open to anyone currently involved and/or interested in helping to coordinate the program. For information, call Sue Claus at #41-4514, John Sax at #232-0263 or Joe Wuliger at #7102.

The Daily Crossword

by Michael Molinelli

[continued from page 11]

We've been aiming at this one for some time now. We may not be favored like we have in the past, but I can guarantee you all that you'll be fencing the same as in the past. Right now I'm just keeping my fingers crossed."

NSHP seeks workers

The Neighborhood Service Help Program needs to fill several positions for the 1980-1981 school year. Irish choices are open to anyone currently involved and/or interested in helping to coordinate the program. For information, call Sue Claus at #41-4514, John Sax at #232-0263 or Joe Wuliger at #7102.

NSHP seeks workers

The Neighborhood Service Help Program needs to fill several positions for the 1980-1981 school year. Irish choices are open to anyone currently involved and/or interested in helping to coordinate the program. For information, call Sue Claus at #41-4514, John Sax at #232-0263 or Joe Wuliger at #7102.

The Daily Crossword

by Michael Molinelli

[continued from page 11]

We've been aiming at this one for some time now. We may not be favored like we have in the past, but I can guarantee you all that you'll be fencing the same as in the past. Right now I'm just keeping my fingers crossed."

NSHP seeks workers

The Neighborhood Service Help Program needs to fill several positions for the 1980-1981 school year. Irish choices are open to anyone currently involved and/or interested in helping to coordinate the program. For information, call Sue Claus at #41-4514, John Sax at #232-0263 or Joe Wuliger at #7102.

NSHP seeks workers

The Neighborhood Service Help Program needs to fill several positions for the 1980-1981 school year. Irish choices are open to anyone currently involved and/or interested in helping to coordinate the program. For information, call Sue Claus at #41-4514, John Sax at #232-0263 or Joe Wuliger at #7102.

The Daily Crossword

by Michael Molinelli

[continued from page 11]

We've been aiming at this one for some time now. We may not be favored like we have in the past, but I can guarantee you all that you'll be fencing the same as in the past. Right now I'm just keeping my fingers crossed."

NSHP seeks workers

The Neighborhood Service Help Program needs to fill several positions for the 1980-1981 school year. Irish choices are open to anyone currently involved and/or interested in helping to coordinate the program. For information, call Sue Claus at #41-4514, John Sax at #232-0263 or Joe Wuliger at #7102.

NSHP seeks workers

The Neighborhood Service Help Program needs to fill several positions for the 1980-1981 school year. Irish choices are open to anyone currently involved and/or interested in helping to coordinate the program. For information, call Sue Claus at #41-4514, John Sax at #232-0263 or Joe Wuliger at #7102.

The Daily Crossword

by Michael Molinelli

[continued from page 11]

We've been aiming at this one for some time now. We may not be favored like we have in the past, but I can guarantee you all that you'll be fencing the same as in the past. Right now I'm just keeping my fingers crossed."

NSHP seeks workers

The Neighborhood Service Help Program needs to fill several positions for the 1980-1981 school year. Irish choices are open to anyone currently involved and/or interested in helping to coordinate the program. For information, call Sue Claus at #41-4514, John Sax at #232-0263 or Joe Wuliger at #7102.

NSHP seeks workers

The Neighborhood Service Help Program needs to fill several positions for the 1980-1981 school year. Irish choices are open to anyone currently involved and/or interested in helping to coordinate the program. For information, call Sue Claus at #41-4514, John Sax at #232-0263 or Joe Wuliger at #7102.

The Daily Crossword

by Michael Molinelli

[continued from page 11]

We've been aiming at this one for some time now. We may not be favored like we have in the past, but I can guarantee you all that you'll be fencing the same as in the past. Right now I'm just keeping my fingers crossed."

NSHP seeks workers

The Neighborhood Service Help Program needs to fill several positions for the 1980-1981 school year. Irish choices are open to anyone currently involved and/or interested in helping to coordinate the program. For information, call Sue Claus at #41-4514, John Sax at #232-0263 or Joe Wuliger at #7102.

NSHP seeks workers

The Neighborhood Service Help Program needs to fill several positions for the 1980-1981 school year. Irish choices are open to anyone currently involved and/or interested in helping to coordinate the program. For information, call Sue Claus at #41-4514, John Sax at #232-0263 or Joe Wuliger at #7102.

The Daily Crossword

by Michael Molinelli

[continued from page 11]

We've been aiming at this one for some time now. We may not be favored like we have in the past, but I can guarantee you all that you'll be fencing the same as in the past. Right now I'm just keeping my fingers crossed."

NSHP seeks workers

The Neighborhood Service Help Program needs to fill several positions for the 1980-1981 school year. Irish choices are open to anyone currently involved and/or interested in helping to coordinate the program. For information, call Sue Claus at #41-4514, John Sax at #232-0263 or Joe Wuliger at #7102.

NSHP seeks workers

The Neighborhood Service Help Program needs to fill several positions for the 1980-1981 school year. Irish choices are open to anyone currently involved and/or interested in helping to coordinate the program. For information, call Sue Claus at #41-4514, John Sax at #232-0263 or Joe Wuliger at #7102.

The Daily Crossword

by Michael Molinelli

[continued from page 11]

We've been aiming at this one for some time now. We may not be favored like we have in the past, but I can guarantee you all that you'll be fencing the same as in the past. Right now I'm just keeping my fingers crossed."

NSHP seeks workers

The Neighborhood Service Help Program needs to fill several positions for the 1980-1981 school year. Irish choices are open to anyone currently involved and/or interested in helping to coordinate the program. For information, call Sue Claus at #41-4514, John Sax at #232-0263 or Joe Wuliger at #7102.

NSHP seeks workers

The Neighborhood Service Help Program needs to fill several positions for the 1980-1981 school year. Irish choices are open to anyone currently involved and/or interested in helping to coordinate the program. For information, call Sue Claus at #41-4514, John Sax at #232-0263 or Joe Wuliger at #7102.
Irish women fencers improve

Tripucka

The Observer

Thursday, February 28, 1980 - Page 11

Irish women fencers improve

by Kelly Sullivan

Sports Writer

Record breakers are a tough act to follow. Just ask Beth Heid. On Notre Dame's women fencers.

Competing in a minor sport means taking a back seat to football and basketball, and that's dif­

For Sale

Personal

The Observer

Thursday, February 28, 1980 - Page 11
Irish dump Demons in double OT

Top-ranked DePaul falls in another classic ACC thriller

by Mark Perry
Sports Editor

It was like two grand masters facing off for the chess championship of the world. DePaul’s Ray Meyer, the elderly veteran with 38 years of coaching experience who tries to win with the basics, faced Notre Dame’s Digger Phelps, who had only been coaching the game for a decade but has a variety of complex moves.

And in the end, it was the youngster that yielded “checkmate!”

Orlando Woolridge’s two clutch free throws with 19 seconds left in the second overtime clinched a 76-74 victory for the Fighting Irish over the undefeated and top-ranked Blue Devils in a classic confrontation last night at the ACC.

But a couple of strategic moves by Digger Phelps helped clinch the victory for the Irish and continue the series of Notre Dame upsets over number one teams.

For 45 minutes the two teams had fought to a standoff, 70-70, and neither team seemed capable to hit the clutch baskets that would end the game.

With the score tied at 74, DePaul had the ball and was trying to work the ball into their sophomore scoring sensation Mark AIQUE.

But DePaul’s top scorer had hardly seen the ball in the second overtime.

The problem was Notre Dame’s defense, noted Meyer. “They were dropping off and inviting us to shoot.”

Freshman center Terry Cummings finally accepted the invitation, firing up a jumper from the free throw line. The shot bounced off the rim, and Notre Dame’s Bill Halinza, playing his final home game, grabbed the rebound with 1:53 to go.

It was then that Digger decided to try a stall to work for the good shot. But the big task was avoiding DePaul’s low post quick guard, Clyde Bradshaw.

“Bradshaw was closing off our post delay earlier,” Phelps noted, “so we tried to bury their guards in the corner. We felt we could go one-on-one against Cummings and Teddy Grubbs or Jim Minchm.”

So Woolridge, Tracy Jackson, and Kelly Tripucka handled the ball outside, while Bradshaw, Halinza and Halinza remained in the corridors. Finally Cummings bumped Woolridge to send Notre Dame to the line for the tying one-and-one. The “Tree” swished both through, and the Irish had the lead.

DePaul called timeout for one last chance at a tie, but again Notre Dame kept the Demons from getting the shot they wanted. Senior center Jim Mitchm; playing with two broken fingers on his left hand, was forced to take a long shot from the top of the key that came up short.

Bradshaw’s desperation attempts on the long rebound fell out of the backcourt and the number one team was defeated.

“It was a tribute to Notre Dame’s defense that the wrong man took the shot at the end,” Meyer noted. “I was worried about Dillard or Teddy Grubbs from the outside or Aguirre inside. Their lack of handling and distributing had to take it.”

“They played a very smart ballgame.”

The game lived up to the advance billing, as the two teams played even for the entire game. The Irish had the ball at the half, 32-31, but had to fight back when DePaul scored the first eight points in the second stanza. After Tracy Jackson tied the game with two free throws with 1:08 left, DePaul tried to put the problem to Notre Dame’s defense, noted Meyer. “They were dropping off and inviting us to shoot.”

The Irish allowed the low post shot, but Grubbs threw the ball out of bounds looking for Aguirre underneath on the drive. This gave the Irish a chance to bring the ball up the court. And also played a hit jumper with seven seconds left to force the second overtime.

“Tripucka and Arique had 28 of the scoring honors, but Aguirre was the key player,” says DeCicco. “Most Valuable Player in balloting that was concluded before regular time.”

Cummings added 16 points to help the Irish team in rebounding with eight, while Jackson and Branning scored 18 and 11 points, respectively.

“We played our hearts out and came up two points short,” Meyer commented. “I have been talking that all season long as a winner, but as a loser I can’t hang my head. We’ve won a few like this, so we’ll take the loss.”

“We lost our poise a little bit. We made so many mistakes at the end that we beat ourselves. We played with a lot of young talent,” Meyer went on. “but as a loser I can’t hang my head. We’ve won a few like this, so we’ll take the loss.”

“We lost our poise a little bit. We made so many mistakes at the end that we beat ourselves. We played with a lot of young talent,” Meyer went on. “but as a loser I can’t hang my head. We’ve won a few like this, so we’ll take the loss.”

“Tripucka and Arique had 28 of the scoring honors, but Aguirre was the key player,” says DeCicco. “Most Valuable Player in balloting that was concluded before regular time.”

Cummings added 16 points to help the Irish team in rebounding with eight, while Jackson and Branning scored 18 and 11 points, respectively.

“We played our hearts out and came up two points short,” Meyer commented. “I have been talking that all season long as a winner, but as a loser I can’t hang my head. We’ve won a few like this, so we’ll take the loss.”

“We lost our poise a little bit. We made so many mistakes at the end that we beat ourselves. We played with a lot of young talent,” Meyer went on. “but as a loser I can’t hang my head. We’ve won a few like this, so we’ll take the loss.”

“We lost our poise a little bit. We made so many mistakes at the end that we beat ourselves. We played with a lot of young talent,” Meyer went on. “but as a loser I can’t hang my head. We’ve won a few like this, so we’ll take the loss.”

“Tripucka and Arique had 28 of the scoring honors, but Aguirre was the key player,” says DeCicco. “Most Valuable Player in balloting that was concluded before regular time.”

Cummings added 16 points to help the Irish team in rebounding with eight, while Jackson and Branning scored 18 and 11 points, respectively.

“We played our hearts out and came up two points short,” Meyer commented. “I have been talking that all season long as a winner, but as a loser I can’t hang my head. We’ve won a few like this, so we’ll take the loss.”

“We lost our poise a little bit. We made so many mistakes at the end that we beat ourselves. We played with a lot of young talent,” Meyer went on. “but as a loser I can’t hang my head. We’ve won a few like this, so we’ll take the loss.”

“We lost our poise a little bit. We made so many mistakes at the end that we beat ourselves. We played with a lot of young talent,” Meyer went on. “but as a loser I can’t hang my head. We’ve won a few like this, so we’ll take the loss.”

“We lost our poise a little bit. We made so many mistakes at the end that we beat ourselves. We played with a lot of young talent,” Meyer went on. “but as a loser I can’t hang my head. We’ve won a few like this, so we’ll take the loss.”

“We lost our poise a little bit. We made so many mistakes at the end that we beat ourselves. We played with a lot of young talent,” Meyer went on. “but as a loser I can’t hang my head. We’ve won a few like this, so we’ll take the loss.”

“We lost our poise a little bit. We made so many mistakes at the end that we beat ourselves. We played with a lot of young talent,” Meyer went on. “but as a loser I can’t hang my head. We’ve won a few like this, so we’ll take the loss.”