In Frese suit
Women withdraw tenure appeal

By CINDY COLDIRON

Ms. Frese also felt that the $3000 bond posted for the two women in the class represented by her, Sr. Madonna Kolbenschlag and Ann LaCombe, was very fair. The record of the case states that the bond was posted because of some 'objection even bothered to appear at the hearing and the class counsel estimate that the printing of both and other costs will exceed $3000 in

As a result of the settlement, Ms. Frese felt that there now existed strong provisions for the women who wanted to return to Notre Dame. She emphasized that it was "not true that there was ever a strong case for pay discrimination at the University and that I negotiated it away to get my job back." If the women had won the class action suit, Ms. Frese said that each of the "76 class members who did not file objections would have been given tenure and inspired settle­ment would have had to go before the judge individually to present their cases.

Planning to return to Notre Dame next semester, Ms. Frese said that her profes­sor with tenure, Ms. Frese said that she does not "feel divided or an­tagonistic toward Sr. Kolbenschlag or Ms. LaCombe." She felt that they had the right to appeal the settle­ment and were not holding up the women in the appeal; the Uni­versity was holding up the appeal.

Expressing hope that Sr. Kol­benschlag would return to Notre Dame, Ms. Frese stated she would support her 100 percent. She also felt that Ms. LaCombe, while she was at Notre Dame, was one of the few women who was given tenure with­out a hassle and that perhaps she had other reasons for appealing the case.

---

Dorm robbery baffles security, local police

By MARK ROLFES

The burglary was discovered by Saint Mary's housekeepers on Mon., Oct. 19, according to the Saint Mary's Public Relations Office. Two rooms in Holy Cross Hall at Saint Mary's College were open, but no evidence of forced entry to the building has been

The facility, which to date has cost $120 million, will open debt-free. It

The only real question is how far it is going to drop," said Assistant

Steep plunge

Index forecasts further recession

WASHINGTON (AP) -- An "especially steep plunge" in the leading indicators suggests the U.S. economy may be entering a recession. The Commerce Department said yesterday that the government's In­dex of Leading Indicators fell 2.7 percent in September, the biggest drop since April 1980. Since April 1981, the index has fallen 5.5 per­cent.

Dederick said the new decline is "an especially steep plunge" in the index, which is designed to forecast future trends of the economy.

The report strongly suggests that industrial production will be sliding into the autumn and that the real gross national product will be down for the third successive quarter. Any upturn is unlikely before early 1982.

"The only thing," he said, "is whether it is going to turn around in the first quarter or the second quarter of 1982."

President Reagan and his top economic advisers have already declared that the recession has arrived. But Dederick's comments in line with Volcker's when the Commerce official said that "when we say we are in a recession, we are in effect making a forecast" that cur­rent downward trends will continue for the next few months.

The decline in the leading in­dices indicator, the biggest drop since a four percent fall 17 months earlier, "obviously strengthens our view" that the trend is still downward, he told reporters.

The decline in the average work week and the increase in the payroll rate, two of the eight economic in­dicators tracked, were major fac­tors in the decline, backing up the view of most analysts that the na­tion's unemployment rate will rise from September's 7.5 percent in coming months.

---

The Observer
VOL. XVI, NO. 46
FRIDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1981

Irish Extra - page 11

Irish Extra
What Happened at Cancun?

In the Mexican resort of Cancun, the leaders of 22 nations and the United Nations Secretary-General met to discuss the unequal distribution of wealth between the industrialized Northern Hemisphere and the impoverished Southern Hemisphere.

Before the meeting began the participants agreed upon a joint communique that would be issued following the summit. Other than these basic parliamentary agreements, no formal plans existed on the outcome of an investigation we have ordered conducted by the Administration to pacify the public.

No more than one head of state at a time was permitted to reside in any of the three hotels that housed the conference rooms and delegates’ quarters. Also, the balcony of Reagan’s suite was draped with white curtains to safeguard against the possibility of a sniper attack. Through the Good Hope for the conference and the meeting, Reagan was able to gain an opportunity to express his views concerning the nuclear policies of the United States, the world’s population of Ronald Reagan leaves much to be desired.

This view would account for the switch from Reagan’s original decision to bypass Cancun and stay in Washington to his final decision to attend the summit. The decision did not result from a change in the President’s opinions on the North-South economic situation. With the recent protests in Western Europe against the nuclear policies of the United States, the world’s reaction acknowledges the importance of the underdeveloped nations to make their problems our problems, and that the United States must adopt a more general world view in stead of blindly concentrating on its internal economic difficulties at the price of others.

Washington to his final decision to attend the summit. The decision did not result from a change in the President’s opinions on the North-South economic situation. With the recent protests in Western Europe against the nuclear policies of the United States, the world’s population of Ronald Reagan leaves much to be desired.

This view would account for the switch from Reagan’s original decision to bypass Cancun and stay in Washington to his final decision to attend the summit. The decision did not result from a change in the President’s opinions on the North-South economic situation. With the recent protests in Western Europe against the nuclear policies of the United States, the world’s population of Ronald Reagan leaves much to be desired.

This view would account for the switch from Reagan’s original decision to bypass Cancun and stay in Washington to his final decision to attend the summit. The decision did not result from a change in the President’s opinions on the North-South economic situation. With the recent protests in Western Europe against the nuclear policies of the United States, the world’s population of Ronald Reagan leaves much to be desired.

This view would account for the switch from Reagan’s original decision to bypass Cancun and stay in Washington to his final decision to attend the summit. The decision did not result from a change in the President’s opinions on the North-South economic situation. With the recent protests in Western Europe against the nuclear policies of the United States, the world’s population of Ronald Reagan leaves much to be desired.
Annual Campaign  Students aid United Way drive

By SONYA STINSON  News Staff

This year's United Way drive at Notre Dame will have greater participation by the dormitory section leaders in its organization and will expand its efforts to reach off-campus students, according to the coordinators of the drive. There are also plans to place next year's campaign under the direction of Student Activities instead of Campus Ministry, which now finances the drive.

In a practice begun last year, the dormitory section leaders who collect from door to door have attended meetings with the organizers of the campaign to get better acquainted with its goals and purposes. This helps them to approach the students more effectively. Last Monday and Tuesday, 150 section leaders attended a meeting at the Library Auditorium, according to Bro. Joseph McTaggart, associate director of Campus Ministry.

"Without the section leaders, the drive is effectively cut in half," Bro. McTaggart said.

Bro. McTaggart is working with this year's co-chairmen, Sean Digan and Joe Orie, in an effort to reach a goal of 100 percent participation. Next year's co-chairman, Tom Bogon and John Bardeley, are also working with this year's campaign.

If they succeed, the campaign will raise a total of $118,000, according to Orie. This year the donation from each student will still be two dollars, but it will probably have to increase next year to account for inflation, McTaggart said.

The traditional bar graphs showing dormitory participation compared with last year's efforts and with other dormitories will again be a part of the drive. Future efforts to encourage student participation may include films directed at informing students on what United Way is about. A directory is made available to the vice-presidents of each hall and to the section leaders, showing which agencies receive money from United Way.

Organizations in the South Bend community which benefit from United Way include Big Brothers/Big Sisters, Logan Center Red Cross, and the El Campito Day Care Center.

Don't Miss

The Observer

Irish Extra — Special Fall Edition Saturday

SUNDAY MASSES AT SACRED HEART CHURCH  November 1-All Saints Day

10:15 AM Saturday Msgr. John J. Egan
9:00 AM Sunday Rev. James Shiltz, O.S.G.
10:40 AM Sunday Rev. David E. Schlier, O.S.G.
12:15 PM Sunday Rev. John Fitzgerald, O.S.G.
7:15 PM Vespers Rev. David E. Schlier, O.S.G.

Penny's and Body Waves

Just 5 minutes from Campus

we offer free Consultation to help you bring out the total look for just for you as an individual

phone 272-0312 272-8471

across from Martin's on St. Rd. 23

Tues., Wed. 8:30-5:30

Thurs., Fri. 8:30-8:00

Sat. 8:30-5:30

Penny's

(clip and save)

The Lion Juice Look

For a late nite snack

Nightly Specials

Complete with a new juice box

open Sun.-Thurs 9 pm-12 am

Fri-Sat 9 pm-12 am

The Observer  Friday, October 30, 1981 — page 3
AWACS approval prompts world reactions

Miller times starring Miller High Life

“Yeah, those football players are animals.”

AP — Israel reacted with restraint yesterday to U.S. Senate approval of the Saudi Arabian arms sale and said it expects President Reagan to ensure the Jewish state’s security. Saudi rulers expressed “deep gratitude” and said relations with America will improve.

There was no comment from West European allies, and most Arab states were silent.

The Soviets claimed the $8.5 billion package, which includes the world’s most sophisticated spy planes, will spur a new Middle East arms race and is part of a U.S. preparation for possible seizure of the region’s oil fields.

Israeli Prime Minister Menachem Begin, in a statement devoid of harshness, indicated he expected Reagan to hold to his pledge to “help Israel retain its military and technological advantages in the Middle East.” Reagan made the assurance in a note after the Senate voted 52-48 Wednesday night to approve the sale, the largest single U.S. arms export package ever.

Begin read the Reagan note and then told reporters, “We hope that these words of the president will be carried into realization.”

The official Cabinet statement expressed its “regret” over the sale to Saudi Arabia, “which is in a state of war with Israel, rejects the Camp David accords and finances terror in our region. A new and serious danger now faces Israel — new since the restoration of our statehood.”

Israel has argued its defense, keyed to the ability for surprise air strikes, would be seriously impaired by Saudi possession of Airborne Warning and Control Systems planes and extra equipment for its F-15 fighters.

The Saudi defense minister, Prince Sultan Ibn Abdel Mizz, said the deal to “have the moral courage and give up that position.” The House rejected the sale by a margin of nearly 3-1 two weeks ago but without Senate rejection, the sale goes ahead.

While promising the deal will be “an impetus for us to develop our relations with the United States,” the prince said that would not come “at the expense of our nationalism or patriotism. It will be on an equalitarian basis, to serve the interests of the two peoples.”

In Moscow, the official Soviet news agency Tass said the AWACS deal would “help to ensure the long-term policy of increasing supplies of American weapons to this already explosive region. All this pursues the goal of preparing for armed U.S. intervention in the case of a need for a direct seizure of the oilfields.”

Parsi liberal Le Monde newspaper observed, “...It would serve nothing to deploy the quasi Hercules efforts to get the Senate to swallow the sale of the AWACS if it was to return to the diplomatic apathy that until now has characterized the American attitude in the Israeli-Arab conflict.”

The French government, like other U.S. allies in Western Europe, issued no official reaction.

South Africa maintains close ties with Israel, and the independent Johannesburg Star newspaper said, “Israel will expect to be strengthened to offset exposure to AWACS detectors. At the same time, Saudi Arabia and other Arabs must not feel that there is anything sinister about Israel’s defensive capabilities. If the U.S. can perform this difficult balancing act, the AWACS deal will help to keep the peace and thus make the Middle East a safer place for Israel as well...”

India, which has a friendship treaty with the Soviet Union, believes “the introduction of sophisticated arms into the region is a dent to stability and peace,” according to External Affairs Ministry spokesman J.N. Dixit.

China’s official news agency Xinhua explained the arms deal as “precisely to cope with the Soviet threat through Saudi cooperation” but did not comment on it.

Egyptian Foreign Minister Kamal Hassan Aly said the vote was a “positive turning point” in U.S.-Arab relations, and Egypt’s only Middle East Arab ally, Sudanese President Gaafar Nimeiri, said it would have a “deep and positive effect” on U.S.-Arab relations.

Strike wave spreads in Poland

WARSAW, Poland (AP) — Poland’s strike wave spread to a major port and the universities yesterday, swelling the ranks of protesters to about 400,000 across the nation.

Meanwhile, the military council of the Soviet-led Warsaw Pact began meeting in Hungary.

Solidarity union officials said 40,000 construction workers struck 68 factories for two hours in the Baltic port of Szczecin, on the East German border, and threatened a wider strike to get more building supplies.

In Budapest, the Warsaw Pact’s military council opened a “regular session” attended by defense ministers or their assistants from the seven East Bloc member nations, the Hungarian news agency MTI said.

It was not known if Poland’s premier, party chief and defense minister, Gen. Wojciech Jaruzelski, was attending or what was on the agenda, but it was presumed Poland’s stance would be a major topic.

Students and professors at Radom’s higher engineering school occupied classrooms demanding dismissal of the rector. They got support from students at Warsaw University who staged a four-hour protest. They also received pledges of support from othercolleges and universities across Poland.

The Radom students protested what they called “irregularities” in the election of Prof. Michal Herba as rector, saying the school should be run by elected, collective leadership.
Forum airs Catholic university

By GREG KOSKE
News Staff

Yesterday's faculty forum, enti-titled "What Kind of Ideological of Intellectual Unity Characterizes a Great Catholic University?," featured speakers Fr. Ernan McMullin of the Philosophy Department and John N. Mathews Professor of Law Ed Murphy. The presentation was a follow-up to the Best Forum, which dealt with Notre Dame's Catholic identity.

Fr. McMullin began by stating that the ideological and intellectual uni-ity of a university must be defined apart from it being Catholic. Then the Catholic influence on a great university can be determined.

Intellectually three different roles need to work together to achieve unity. First, a university should be a home for liberal education, in other words a place where students and faculty are challenged to inquire.
Secondly, a university should have a presence of professional schools.
Finally, it should be a place of research, where one can be creative and innovative.

Fr. McMullin argued against ideological points, stating that they are part of a larger idea and that they distort the real characteristics of a university.

He then went on to define a great Catholic university. According to McMullin, intellectual unity ties into Catholic doctrine. Catholic thought develops and helps unity in intellectual areas. The church is constantly changing and this leaves open the different intellectual schools to change also.

Mr. Murphy stated that the basic importance of a great Catholic university is that it is Catholic-oriented.
He said, "Every university is a religious institution," and a Catholic university is guided by the teachings of Christ and the revelation of God's word to the Church. "True education," he continued, "must be God-centered."

According to Prof. Robert Vacca, organizer of the Faculty Forums, the next meeting will be in early December.
The Observer

needs
Freshmen and Sophomores interested in Computer Typesetting
(no experience necessary)

Call Bruce 1715
Paid Position/One Night Weekly/4-6 Hrs.

Notre Dame will be represented in a College Bowl tournament this weekend at the Illinois Institute of Technology in Chicago. College Bowl, "a rarity spot of the mind," is a question-and-answer game played between two teams of four players each.

Four Notre Dame students have alternated participating in the 10-team tournament, which will be taped and broadcast by CBS Radio. Also currently under way is a campus College Bowl tournament in which 16 teams are competing to play in the finals, to be held after Thanksgiving. Dr. Peter Lombardo, moderator of Notre Dame's College Bowl, explained that the highly diversified nature of the questions make formal preparations for the contest nearly impossible. "Students must rely on a bank of intelligence and must be able to recall facts quickly," Lombardo said.

There are two kinds of questions the toss-up, which has a three-second time limit, and the bonus, which has a five-second time limit. The bonus question is earned by correctly answering a toss-up. Points values are assigned for each type of question, and the team with the highest point total after two bonus-minute halves is the winner.

Notre Dame, widely represented in College Bowl competitions, won the national championship in 1979. Lombardo classified Notre Dame as a "respected power in the nation." Basically, however, College Bowl is "good competition and good fun" for participants as well as spectators.

Notre Dame will compete in the regional College Bowl tournament in February at the University of Illinois, with hopes of gaining a berth in the national tournament held in March.

By MOLLY RYAN
News Staff

``The College Bowl' team competes this weekend''

RODNEY DANGEFIELD
FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 6 8:00 NOTRE DAME A.C.C.

TICKETS ON SALE AT THE A.C.C. BOX OFFICE. ALSO AVAILABLE AT: ROBERTSON'S IN S. BEND, AND THE CONCORD MALL, ST. JOSEPH'S BANK (MAIN BRANCH), 1ST SOURCE BANK (MAIN), ELKHART TRUTH, SUSPENDED CHORD (ELKHART).
Tomm was always dreamt of saving the world. Top in his class at Yale Law School, "Mr. Altmann," had planned to use his legal education and a superior intellect to "reduce human suffering."

Like so many of America's sharpest law graduates, however, Tom isn't forcing chemical companies to clean up their toxic-waste sites. Instead, he's earning $44,000 per year as a first-year associate at one of New York's leading corporate law firms.

Our easiest friend is only the latest in a string of pals who've succumbed to the siren song of big business, attracted by corporate law firms. Given peer pressures and financial inducements, Tom isn't forcing chemical companies to clean up...he's just not forcing chemical companies to clean up at all.

"It's easy to see why," Tom's dean told us recently. "No law school has enough professors to grade the hay of the first year's work. Most law schools don't have enough libraries to use all the books available."

That's why Tom isn't forcing chemical companies to clean up. It's easy to see why.

This month, America's law firms are luring a majority of the top 15 full-time graduate students, especially those from the top 15 schools. They're armed with goodides that would make the envy of the envy of the most successful college football recruiters.

The con game begins at the start of the school year, when a majority of full-time graduate students are underclassmen. In a recent survey of summer interns, prominent law firms, The American Lawyer magazine report that, in addition to $500-per-week salaries, many second-year law students have enjoyed the following:

- A trip to New York City. Even my dean said I should've rejected an opportunity like this.
- A trip to Stanford and Harvard are receiving offers by one New York firm to pick up the tab for "fancy nights" on the town.
- Summertime subsides of up to 75 percent from another New York firm. Top salaries, top associates may work long, stressful hours at major firms, the amenities of a summer internship are there, too. Deluxe hotels can be irresistible.
- An annual party of the summer interns. Last summer, one Atlanta firm threw our big three "a "Diving, Riding, Hiking, Swimming, Ball, Play, Cookin' Eats, Drinkin', Storytllin', Cussin', and other rascous and awesome activities at our disposal."

Tom isn't forcing chemical companies to clean up...he's earning $44,000 per year as a first-year associate at one of New York's leading corporate law firms.

The con game begins at the start of the school year, when a majority of the top 15 full-time graduate students, especially those from the top 15 schools. They're armed with goodides that would make the envy of the envy of the most successful college football recruiters.

The con game begins at the start of the school year, when a majority of full-time graduate students are underclassmen. In a recent survey of summer interns, prominent law firms, The American Lawyer magazine report that, in addition to $500-per-week salaries, many second-year law students have enjoyed the following:

- A trip to New York City. Even my dean said I should've rejected an opportunity like this.
- A trip to Stanford and Harvard are receiving offers by one New York firm to pick up the tab for "fancy nights" on the town.
- Summertime subsides of up to 75 percent from another New York firm. Top salaries, top associates may work long, stressful hours at major firms, the amenities of a summer internship are there, too. Deluxe hotels can be irresistible.
- An annual party of the summer interns. Last summer, one Atlanta firm threw our big three "a "Diving, Riding, Hiking, Swimming, Ball, Play, Cookin' Eats, Drinkin', Storytllin', Cussin', and other rascous and awesome activities at our disposal."

Tom isn't forcing chemical companies to clean up. It's easy to see why.

This month, America's law firms are luring a majority of the top 15 full-time graduate students, especially those from the top 15 schools. They're armed with goodides that would make the envy of the envy of the most successful college football recruiters.

The con game begins at the start of the school year, when a majority of full-time graduate students are underclassmen. In a recent survey of summer interns, prominent law firms, The American Lawyer magazine report that, in addition to $500-per-week salaries, many second-year law students have enjoyed the following:

- A trip to New York City. Even my dean said I should've rejected an opportunity like this.
- A trip to Stanford and Harvard are receiving offers by one New York firm to pick up the tab for "fancy nights" on the town.
- Summertime subsides of up to 75 percent from another New York firm. Top salaries, top associates may work long, stressful hours at major firms, the amenities of a summer internship are there, too. Deluxe hotels can be irresistible.
- An annual party of the summer interns. Last summer, one Atlanta firm threw our big three "a "Diving, Riding, Hiking, Swimming, Ball, Play, Cookin' Eats, Drinkin', Storytllin', Cussin', and other rascous and awesome activities at our disposal."

Tom isn't forcing chemical companies to clean up. It's easy to see why. A majority of full-time graduate students are underclassmen. In a recent survey of summer interns, prominent law firms, The American Lawyer magazine report that, in addition to $500-per-week salaries, many second-year law students have enjoyed the following:

- A trip to New York City. Even my dean said I should've rejected an opportunity like this.
- A trip to Stanford and Harvard are receiving offers by one New York firm to pick up the tab for "fancy nights" on the town.
- Summertime subsides of up to 75 percent from another New York firm. Top salaries, top associates may work long, stressful hours at major firms, the amenities of a summer internship are there, too. Deluxe hotels can be irresistible.
- An annual party of the summer interns. Last summer, one Atlanta firm threw our big three "a "Diving, Riding, Hiking, Swimming, Ball, Play, Cookin' Eats, Drinkin', Storytllin', Cussin', and other rascous and awesome activities at our disposal."

Tom isn't forcing chemical companies to clean up. It's easy to see why.

This month, America's law firms are luring a majority of the top 15 full-time graduate students, especially those from the top 15 schools. They're armed with goodides that would make the envy of the envy of the most successful college football recruiters.

The con game begins at the start of the school year, when a majority of full-time graduate students are underclassmen. In a recent survey of summer interns, prominent law firms, The American Lawyer magazine report that, in addition to $500-per-week salaries, many second-year law students have enjoyed the following:

- A trip to New York City. Even my dean said I should've rejected an opportunity like this.
- A trip to Stanford and Harvard are receiving offers by one New York firm to pick up the tab for "fancy nights" on the town.
- Summertime subsides of up to 75 percent from another New York firm. Top salaries, top associates may work long, stressful hours at major firms, the amenities of a summer internship are there, too. Deluxe hotels can be irresistible.
- An annual party of the summer interns. Last summer, one Atlanta firm threw our big three "a "Diving, Riding, Hiking, Swimming, Ball, Play, Cookin' Eats, Drinkin', Storytllin', Cussin', and other rascous and awesome activities at our disposal."

Tom isn't forcing chemical companies to clean up. It's easy to see why.

This month, America's law firms are luring a majority of the top 15 full-time graduate students, especially those from the top 15 schools. They're armed with goodides that would make the envy of the envy of the most successful college football recruiters.

The con game begins at the start of the school year, when a majority of full-time graduate students are underclassmen. In a recent survey of summer interns, prominent law firms, The American Lawyer magazine report that, in addition to $500-per-week salaries, many second-year law students have enjoyed the following:

- A trip to New York City. Even my dean said I should've rejected an opportunity like this.
- A trip to Stanford and Harvard are receiving offers by one New York firm to pick up the tab for "fancy nights" on the town.
- Summertime subsides of up to 75 percent from another New York firm. Top salaries, top associates may work long, stressful hours at major firms, the amenities of a summer internship are there, too. Deluxe hotels can be irresistible.
- An annual party of the summer interns. Last summer, one Atlanta firm threw our big three "a "Diving, Riding, Hiking, Swimming, Ball, Play, Cookin' Eats, Drinkin', Storytllin', Cussin', and other rascous and awesome activities at our disposal."

Tom isn't forcing chemical companies to clean up. It's easy to see why.

This month, America's law firms are luring a majority of the top 15 full-time graduate students, especially those from the top 15 schools. They're armed with goodides that would make the envy of the envy of the most successful college football recruiters.

The con game begins at the start of the school year, when a majority of full-time graduate students are underclassmen. In a recent survey of summer interns, prominent law firms, The American Lawyer magazine report that, in addition to $500-per-week salaries, many second-year law students have enjoyed the following:

- A trip to New York City. Even my dean said I should've rejected an opportunity like this.
- A trip to Stanford and Harvard are receiving offers by one New York firm to pick up the tab for "fancy nights" on the town.
- Summertime subsides of up to 75 percent from another New York firm. Top salaries, top associates may work long, stressful hours at major firms, the amenities of a summer internship are there, too. Deluxe hotels can be irresistible.
- An annual party of the summer interns. Last summer, one Atlanta firm threw our big three "a "Diving, Riding, Hiking, Swimming, Ball, Play, Cookin' Eats, Drinkin', Storytllin', Cussin', and other rascous and awesome activities at our disposal."

Tom isn't forcing chemical companies to clean up. It's easy to see why.

This month, America's law firms are luring a majority of the top 15 full-time graduate students, especially those from the top 15 schools. They're armed with goodides that would make the envy of the envy of the most successful college football recruiters.

The con game begins at the start of the school year, when a majority of full-time graduate students are underclassmen. In a recent survey of summer interns, prominent law firms, The American Lawyer magazine report that, in addition to $500-per-week salaries, many second-year law students have enjoyed the following:

- A trip to New York City. Even my dean said I should've rejected an opportunity like this.
- A trip to Stanford and Harvard are receiving offers by one New York firm to pick up the tab for "fancy nights" on the town.
- Summertime subsides of up to 75 percent from another New York firm. Top salaries, top associates may work long, stressful hours at major firms, the amenities of a summer internship are there, too. Deluxe hotels can be irresistible.
- An annual party of the summer interns. Last summer, one Atlanta firm threw our big three "a "Diving, Riding, Hiking, Swimming, Ball, Play, Cookin' Eats, Drinkin', Storytllin', Cussin', and other rascous and awesome activities at our disposal."

Tom isn't forcing chemical companies to clean up. It's easy to see why.

This month, America's law firms are luring a majority of the top 15 full-time graduate students, especially those from the top 15 schools. They're armed with goodides that would make the envy of the envy of the most successful college football recruiters.
The true meaning of freedom

I can remember when I first listened to Freedom. I was young, not older than 18. It was the year 1981. I was sitting on a sofa in my living room, listening to the radio. I remember the first time I heard the line: "I'm just a simple man, trying to live a simple life." The song moved me. It spoke to me. I felt a connection to the lyrics and the message of the song. Freedom resonated with me on a deep level. It spoke to my ideals, my values, and my aspirations.

Freedom, to me, is the ability to live life on my own terms. It is the right to make my own choices and to pursue my own desires. It is the freedom to speak my mind without fear of retribution. Freedom is the right to live a life without oppression or discrimination. Freedom is the ability to be who I want to be, without the constraints of others.

The song Freedom is more than just a musical expression; it is a call to action. It is a call for justice, equality, and human rights. It is a reminder that we must continue to fight for these values, to ensure that they are upheld for everyone, without exception.

The song Freedom is a powerful example of how music can be a tool for change. It is a testament to the power of music to bring people together, to inspire them, and to galvanize them to action.

Freedom is not just a concept; it is a reality that we must work towards. We must continue to fight for it, to protect it, and to ensure that it is accessible to all. Freedom is a gift, but it is also a responsibility. We must not take it for granted, but must work to defend it and to expand it for all.

The true meaning of freedom is not just the absence of oppression or violence; it is the freedom to be who we want to be, to live as we choose, and to express ourselves without fear. It is the freedom to be free.

The true meaning of freedom is the ability to live according to our own principles and values. It is the freedom to be true to ourselves, to follow our own paths, and to express ourselves authentically.

The true meaning of freedom is the ability to live without limitations. It is the freedom to pursue our dreams and aspirations, to find our own meaning in life, and to live our lives to the fullest.

The true meaning of freedom is the freedom to be free. It is the freedom to live without boundaries, to be true to ourselves, and to choose our own paths.

The true meaning of freedom is the freedom to be free. It is the freedom to be who we want to be, to live as we choose, and to express ourselves without fear. Freedom is a gift, but it is also a responsibility. We must not take it for granted, but must work to defend it and to expand it for all.

The true meaning of freedom is the ability to live according to our own principles and values. It is the freedom to be true to ourselves, to follow our own paths, and to express ourselves authentically.

The true meaning of freedom is the ability to live without limitations. It is the freedom to pursue our dreams and aspirations, to find our own meaning in life, and to live our lives to the fullest.

The true meaning of freedom is the freedom to be free. It is the freedom to be who we want to be, to live as we choose, and to express ourselves without fear. Freedom is a gift, but it is also a responsibility. We must not take it for granted, but must work to defend it and to expand it for all.

The true meaning of freedom is the ability to live according to our own principles and values. It is the freedom to be true to ourselves, to follow our own paths, and to express ourselves authentically.

The true meaning of freedom is the ability to live without limitations. It is the freedom to pursue our dreams and aspirations, to find our own meaning in life, and to live our lives to the fullest.

The true meaning of freedom is the freedom to be free. It is the freedom to be who we want to be, to live as we choose, and to express ourselves without fear. Freedom is a gift, but it is also a responsibility. We must not take it for granted, but must work to defend it and to expand it for all.

The true meaning of freedom is the ability to live according to our own principles and values. It is the freedom to be true to ourselves, to follow our own paths, and to express ourselves authentically.

The true meaning of freedom is the ability to live without limitations. It is the freedom to pursue our dreams and aspirations, to find our own meaning in life, and to live our lives to the fullest.

The true meaning of freedom is the freedom to be free. It is the freedom to be who we want to be, to live as we choose, and to express ourselves without fear. Freedom is a gift, but it is also a responsibility. We must not take it for granted, but must work to defend it and to expand it for all.

The true meaning of freedom is the ability to live according to our own principles and values. It is the freedom to be true to ourselves, to follow our own paths, and to express ourselves authentically.

The true meaning of freedom is the ability to live without limitations. It is the freedom to pursue our dreams and aspirations, to find our own meaning in life, and to live our lives to the fullest.

The true meaning of freedom is the freedom to be free. It is the freedom to be who we want to be, to live as we choose, and to express ourselves without fear. Freedom is a gift, but it is also a responsibility. We must not take it for granted, but must work to defend it and to expand it for all.
Letters To A Lonely God

Robert Wack

Off campus living: More than a way of life

Robert Wnck

Letters from Mary Beth

Patrick Mulligan

Confessions' lacks inspiration

Humor

Next Week...

The Features pages are taking on a new look Monday. In addition to the regular featured columns, a new format will highlight an expanded effort to cover campus happenings. Rather than the regular featured columnists, a new format will highlight an expanded effort to cover campus happenings.
HEAVY METAL HEADBANGERS

LISTEN TO THEM! IT’LL BE HARD TO HEAR ANYTHING ELSE!!!

SHOOTING STAR
HAND ON FOR YOUR LIFE
including:
Hang On For Your Life/Thin And Blood
Are You On My Side/Tease/Breakout

SURVIVOR
PREMONITION
including:
Summer Nights/Poor Man’s Son/Chevy Nights
Runway Lights/Take You On A Saturday

DANNY JOE BROWN AND THE DANNY JOE BROWN BAND
including:
Edge Of Sundown/The Alamo/Beggar Man
Gambler’s Dream

COLUMBIA Albums & Tapes
3.99

COLUMBIA Albums & Tapes
5.44

JOURNEY ESCAPE
including:
Who’s Crying Now/Share In Love
Don’t Stop Believin’/Keep On Runnin’

MEAT LOAF
DEAD RINGER
including:
I Don’t Know/Crazy Train/Mr. Crowley
Suicide Solution/Goodbye To Romance

COLUMBIA

JUDAS PRIEST
POINT OF ENTRY
including:
Heading Out To The Highway/Troubleshooter
On The Run/Don’t Go/Hot Rockin’

BLUE ÖYSTER CULT
FIRE OF UNKNOWN ORIGIN
including:
Burnin’ For You/Inside The Black And Silver
Sole Survivor/Iola Crawford
Veteran Of The Psychic Wars

COLUMBIA

Pictured Items Only.

HAMMES NOTRE DAME BOOKSTORE

Give the gift of music.
Irish hope Middies are the answer
Notre Dame struggling to regain winning ways

By SKIP DESJARDIN
Assistant Sports Editor

Hard times may have befallen the Notre Dame football team, currently in the midst of its worst start in 18 years, but Navy football coach George Welsh says the Irish look as strong as ever to him.

At his weekly press conference in Annapolis this week, Welsh said the only difference between this year’s Notre Dame team, and its 2-4 record, and the winning teams of the recent past is the outcome of the close games.

“They are the same Notre Dame team. They play the same way,” Welsh said. “The difference is that in past years they’ve won the close ones. This year they’ve lost the close ones.”

As Gerry Faust pointed out in a press conference of his own this week, Notre Dame is just 14 points away from a 5-1 record, with one point loss to Purdue; a six-point difference against Florida State and a seven-point loss to Southern Cal last week.

Notre Dame has to ride a three-game winning streak and beating a 5-2 season record Welsh was asked if his press conference this week was the year to beat Notre Dame.

Welsh agrees, claiming there is no better team.

“Faust has seen one of Navy’s top offensive weapons firsthand. Kicker Steve Fehr is a product of Cincinnati’s Princeton High School. He also happens to be the top field goal kicker in the country.”

“I’m really impressed with their defense. They get to the football. Their team pursuit is heart. About the only competition fans have seen from Notre Dame this year — the longest intercollegiate rivalry in all of sports. The Navy-Midshipmen series has seemed to be about as close as possible, the games between the two schools have evoked emotions on both sides.

Navy Coach George Welsh sees a tough challenge ahead for the Irish.

“This is the biggest team we’ll face this year. That offensive line is huge. They are physically stronger than Michigan.” The week after the Army-Navy game, Welsh said the difference between this year’s Notre Dame team, and its 2-4 record, and the winning teams of the recent past is the outcome of the close games.

“They are the same Notre Dame team. They play the same way,” Welsh said. “The difference is that in past years they’ve won the close ones. This year they’ve lost the close ones.”

By LOUIE SOMOGYI
Sports Writer

Notre Dame vs. Purdue — “The backyard battle for the Shillelagh.”
Notre Dame vs. Southern California — “The greatest rivalry in college football.”
Notre Dame vs. Navy — “Yawn.”

Notre Dame fans tend to smirk when the Navy-Navy game is mentioned as a great rivalry. For “rivalry” is defined as antagonism between two competitors.

Since the Irish have won by an average margin of 27 points in the last 11 consecutive years over the Midshipmen, the battle between the two schools has seemed to be about as competitive as a snowball chances of surviving in hell. About the only competition fans have been able to appreciate is seeing which unit of Notre Dame (first or second string) can put more points on the scoreboard.

The 17 straight victories that Notre Dame owns over Navy since 1964 in the most victories in a row ever held by a Notre Dame football team over an opponent.

The law of averages might be something to think about tomorrow, however, when the two teams tee it up for the 55th consecutive year — the longest intercollegiate rivalry in college football. And although Notre Dame’s 44-9-1 record over the Midshipmen reflects a one-sided domination, the games between the two schools have evoked some memories in football lore for both schools.

On one October day at Soldier Field an unofficial crowd of 120,000 (a college football record) packed the place to witness a 7-0 Notre Dame triumph in only the second game ever between the two schools. The actual paid attendance was 103,081, but in any case the foundation had been laid for a continuing series.

Only two years later, Notre Dame again faced Navy and a large crowd. On October 11, 1950, Notre Dame Stadium was dedicated before a crowd of 40,593, who saw a 26-2 defeat of Navy on that special day.

“We played in the stadium with a great deal of pride that day,” said one of the stars of the game, Notre Hoffman. “The stadium was Rock’s. He had such a big impact on its design and construction. It’s really a tribute to him, that why the stadium is so great.”

Led by their “Football Hall of Fame halftime band” in 1933 and 1934, Navy would win against Elmer Layden’s third Notre Dame team in 1936 as they began to get Notre Dame’s number.

In the next 19 years, however, the Irish would win 17 of the games with the only Irish-Middies clashes memorable

By LOUIE SOMOGYI
Sports Writer

Notre Dame vs. Purdue — “The backyard battle for the Shillelagh.”
Notre Dame vs. Southern California — “The greatest rivalry in college football.”
Notre Dame vs. Navy — “Yawn.”

Notre Dame fans tend to smirk when the Navy-Navy game is mentioned as a great rivalry. For “rivalry” is defined as antagonism between two competitors.

Since the Irish have won by an average margin of 27 points in the last 11 consecutive years over the Midshipmen, the battle between the two schools has seemed to be about as competitive as a snowball chances of surviving in hell. About the only competition fans have been able to appreciate is seeing which unit of Notre Dame (first or second string) can put more points on the scoreboard.

The 17 straight victories that Notre Dame owns over Navy since 1964 in the most victories in a row ever held by a Notre Dame football team over an opponent.

The law of averages might be something to think about tomorrow, however, when the two teams tee it up for the 55th consecutive year — the longest intercollegiate rivalry in college football. And although Notre Dame’s 44-9-1 record over the Midshipmen reflects a one-sided domination, the games between the two schools have evoked some memories in football lore for both schools.

On one October day at Soldier Field an unofficial crowd of 120,000 (a college football record) packed the place to witness a 7-0 Notre Dame triumph in only the second game ever between the two schools. The actual paid attendance was 103,081, but in any case the foundation had been laid for a continuing series.

Only two years later, Notre Dame again faced Navy and a large crowd. On October 11, 1950, Notre Dame Stadium was dedicated before a crowd of 40,593, who saw a 26-2 defeat of Navy on that special day.

“We played in the stadium with a great deal of pride that day,” said one of the stars of the game, Notre Hoffman. “The stadium was Rock’s. He had such a big impact on its design and construction. It’s really a tribute to him, that why the stadium is so great.”

Led by their “Football Hall of Fame halftime band” in 1933 and 1934, Navy would win against Elmer Layden’s third Notre Dame team in 1936 as they began to get Notre Dame’s number.

In the next 19 years, however, the Irish would win 17 of the games with the only
Two head Coaches comment on making the change

By DAVE IRWIN
Sports Writer

Gerry Faust knows what it is like to fall from the heights of glory. He came to Notre Dame with more fanfare than any coach in America has ever experienced. Fans and media personalities turned him into a red-hot Knute Rockne before he ever won a game at Notre Dame. It was understandable with his ongoing personality and warmth. But now those Irish faithful have become the Irish doubters. And Keith Street, of North Carolina "Saturday Morning Herald" has even suggested that Faust's fellow coaches are inwardly smiling at his difficulties after star he received. But Faust's counterparts have not written him off, although no one can realistically expect the man in the same profession to be very critical of each other. It just isn't the polite thing to do.

"I personally have great confidence in Gerry Faust as a man and as a coach," says Louisiana State head coach Jerry Stovall. "In my humble opinion Gerry Faust will do a tremendous job and is doing a tremendous job with the Irish. He's brought out the best in opponents, regardless of whether they are Notre Dame or Purdue, who lost to Minnesota. Both were conference games.

This season, however, for Notre Dame's unpredicted start is the transition period that must be gone through. And yes, Dan Devine was 8-3 in his first season, but it took two great Joe Montana comebacks or the Irish would have been 5-6. While Ara Parseghian has a true Irish living legend, instantly won the hearts of Irish fans by taking over a 2-7 team and running into a 9-1 squad that came within 1:33 of the national championship. Faust inherited only 10 start and 30 letter-winners overall from a squad that had 9-2-1.

Besides the new offense, he made minor changes in the defense and introduced new techniques and responsibilities to the players. The coaching staff has four new assistants, and new players and young players and young players will adjust sooner to a new offense than they will to a new defense! Teammate Bob Crable after the game. "We were just Minor ability. "He has the strength, power, speed and is durable. I call him a great six-linebacker Bob Crable.

"Crable, too, likes to bounce off people. He is creeping ever closer to Bob Golic's records - most tackles in a career. He is a sure-fire All-Irish and hates running backs. This weekend, he'll have a chance to beat up on one of the best.

"What a great running back," says Navy coach George Welsh when asked about Meyers ability. "He has the strength, power, speed and is durable. I call him a great 'six-lineman' because he bounces off people to get up extra yard."

Key matchup: Meyers, Crable face off tonight

By SKIP DESJARDIN Assistant Sports Editor

On November 5, 1979, Eddie Meyers made a name for himself. "Is that the guy's name?" asked Notre Dame linebacker Bob Crable after the game. "We hadn't prepared for him. We got ready for a team, not players."

Injuries had plagued the Middies that season. But they were far too beat up by the time they rolled into South Bend.

"If that was their fourth-string guy, I sure don't want to see their top three," said Crable. "He is an excellent back.

Since that day, Eddie Meyers has been a familiar figure in the Navy backfield. He ran for 101 yards on 17 carries, and has been running even since. If he keeps up the pace, he may run right into the Navy record books. One thing is certain, however, he'll be ready to take on Bob Crable this weekend.

"I set goals, and with the help of the Lord, I am able to achieve them."

"I feel good about that," Meyers says. "I am confident that I'm able to do the job. I love running the ball, and it's working out fine. Meyers makes it clear that he's not entirely pleased with his performance, however. There are some improvements he'd like to make. "I'd like to develop a greater ability to break a tackle and run more than 50 yards. Maybe make it 50 to 60 or 60 yards rather than 30 to 40."

If that begins to happen with any regularity, Meyers may begin to see a real scare in Crable's and his fellow linebackers. He's already gone 51 yards from scrimmage once this year. When Meyers gets going, he becomes a dangerous guy. "As long as his line has proven to be their downfall, so it will be up to the linebackers, and Crable in particular, to stop Meyers on his roll. There's almost a little bit of a fear. Once he gets that momentum, and they lose another player, he may be a little bit out of control."

Crable knows what it is like to bring Meyers down. He got a taste of it two years ago when Meyers overcame the 14-3 deficit.

"He runs hard," Crable said after that 1979 game. "It took two or three guys to bring him down on every play.

Like Crable, Meyers was chosen by his teammates as a co-captain. Welsh has pointed out on many occasions that Meyers has a great knack for leadership. That is high praise when one considers the fact that Meyers is leading a group of highly trained and disciplined Navy midshipmen.

"The offense revolves around him," says full-back Tim Jackson. "Under our type of offense, the full-back is the key, and it is up to Eddie to get the yards. We all have a great deal of confidence in him."

Crable adds, "He is in the midst of a transition period with older players," says.BorderStyle. "The guy has too much quality going for him and the school has too much quality not to turn things around. I know it will work out. He is recruiting his players and doing it.

"It's not his fault and it's not Notre Dame's," continues Bowden. "I'm sure he'll overcome it. I don't know what the situation was with Ara, but young players will adjust sooner to a new offense."

The Irish Extra — Navy

Eddie Meyers surprised many people with his performance against Notre Dame two years ago. He has since become one of the Middies' all-time rushing leaders. The Middies produced perfect 9-0 seasons during the "Dark Ages" for Notre Dame football. Between the years 1964-1976, the Irish had a combined record of 5-14 during the years 1960 and 1963, Navy produced perfect 0-0 seasons during the regular season before losses in the Orange and Cotton Bowls prevented National Championships.

In those same years, Leland and Staubach won the Heisman Trophy. The 1960 team with Leland managed to squeeze out with 1-4-2 in Philadelphia (where the Irish would have continued to play on every other year against Navy), while the 1963 team behind Staubach was a more convincing 5-5 victor in Notre Dame Stadium as it marked the last time the, Navy in a contest involving the "Waterford Glass Bowl.

Since then, the closest Navy has come to fighting the victory cigar came in 1974 and 1975.

In 1974, behind a gutsy defense led by" consenstial All-American Chuck Moeller, and the "coin-finning" corner of John Stufflebean, Navy jumped out to a 6-0 lead. Two touch downs in the final six minutes of the game, however, helped Ara Parseghian's final squad to a 14-6 win.

In 1975, Notre Dame had to battle back from an early 14-3 deficit to rally for a hard-fought 27-21 win as Luther Bradley interceded on a punt which kept the game in the Notre Dame endzone.

The 1976 game also marked the first presentation of the "Waterford Glass Bowl" trophy to the winner of the Notre Dame-Navy game. The presentation of the "Waterford Glass Bowl" mark was a way to remember Navy's winning streak over the Notre Dame, a streak which many Navy fans felt was destined to be broken when the Irish needed and the Chic Heckers of the Midshipmen. Not exactly a true "Waterford Glass Bowl" victory, but one that is welcomed by the Notre Dame fans.

* * *

Friday, October 30, 1981 — page 12

* * *

slashes
Marco Pagnanelli adds another dimension to the Middles' offensive attack (AP Photo)
The Game
Fighting Irish vs. Navy Midshipmen
NOTRE DAME over Navy by 12

The Statistics

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>TEAM STATISTICS</th>
<th>NO OPP</th>
<th>PUNT RET</th>
<th>NO YDS AVG TO LG</th>
<th>DEFENSE</th>
<th>TMT-LFS PBU FR BK</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>TOTAL OFFENSE YARDS</td>
<td>1972</td>
<td>825</td>
<td>17 6-6</td>
<td>3-5</td>
<td>8-2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Total Plays</td>
<td>493</td>
<td>245</td>
<td>17 6-6</td>
<td>3-5</td>
<td>8-2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Yards per Play</td>
<td>4.0</td>
<td>2.5</td>
<td>17 6-6</td>
<td>3-5</td>
<td>8-2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>TD</td>
<td>15</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>17 6-6</td>
<td>3-5</td>
<td>8-2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>PENALTIES-YARDS</td>
<td>27-292</td>
<td>27-292</td>
<td>17 6-6</td>
<td>3-5</td>
<td>8-2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>FUMBLES-LOST</td>
<td>3-2-0</td>
<td>3-2-0</td>
<td>17 6-6</td>
<td>3-5</td>
<td>8-2</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

| OPPONENTS | 17 6-6 | 3-5 | 8-2 |
| N. D. | 10 5-5 | 2-1 | 5-1 |
| Kiel | 6 | 4 | 6-2 | 182 | 36 |
| Boushka | 6 | 4 | 6-2 | 182 | 36 |
| RECHERCING | NO YDS AVG TO LG | 477 38-171 26 0 |
| RUSHING | G NO YDS AVG TO LG | 477 38-171 26 0 |
| By Rushing | 6 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 |
| By Passing | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 |
| By Punting | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 |
| By Return | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 |
| By Kicking | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 |
| By Penalties | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 |
| By Fumbles | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 |
| By Penalties-Conv | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 | 0 0 0 0 |
| Percentage | 264 | 272 |
| Penalties per Game | 31-38 29-30 |

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>SCORING TD</th>
<th>P</th>
<th>R</th>
<th>S</th>
<th>FP</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>O'Keeffe</td>
<td>6</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Boushka</td>
<td>6</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>6-2</td>
<td>182</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>RECHERCING</td>
<td>NO YDS AVG TO LG</td>
<td>477 38-171 26 0</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>RUSHING</td>
<td>G NO YDS AVG TO LG</td>
<td>477 38-171 26 0</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>By Rushing</td>
<td>6 0 0 0</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>By Passing</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>By Punting</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>By Return</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>By Kicking</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>By Penalties</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>By Fumbles</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>By Penalties-Conv</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Percentage</td>
<td>264</td>
<td>272</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Penalties per Game</td>
<td>31-38 29-30</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>PASSING NO</th>
<th>GO</th>
<th>CT</th>
<th>PCT INT YDS TO</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Kiel</td>
<td>6</td>
<td>10</td>
<td>0.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Boushka</td>
<td>6</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>6-2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>RECHERCING</td>
<td>NO YDS AVG TO LG</td>
<td>477 38-171 26 0</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>RUSHING</td>
<td>G NO YDS AVG TO LG</td>
<td>477 38-171 26 0</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>By Rushing</td>
<td>6 0 0 0</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>By Passing</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>By Punting</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>By Return</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>By Kicking</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>By Penalties</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>By Fumbles</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>By Penalties-Conv</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
<td>0 0 0 0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Percentage</td>
<td>264</td>
<td>272</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Penalties per Game</td>
<td>31-38 29-30</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>KICKOFF RET NO YDS AVG TO LG</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Howard</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Kiel</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Boushka</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Opponents</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Each week, the Observer sports staff matches with Jimmy the Greek's published line. Records listed are results against the entire home team or are in CAPITAL LETTERS.

Clemson over West Virginia by 20
North Carolina over Maryland by 5
Michigan over Indiana by 5
Penn State over Purdue by 8
Purdue over Ohio State by 8
Wisconsin over Minnesota by 20
Army over Navy by 5
USC over Washington State by 13
South Carolina over North Carolina by 5
Notre Dame over Navy by 12
The Philadelpha Phillies were officially sold yesterday to a group headed by Phillies' executive president Bill Gait. For a reported $36,175,000. The announcement was made by former owner Ruly Carpenter, whose family had controlled the franchise since 1950. At the time of the sale, they purchased it for $5,000,000. Gait will be the general partner and sole operator of the franchise. Among the numerous limited partners are: Taft Broadcasting of Cincinnati and Philadelphia sportsman F. Eugene Dixon, who at one time or another has been a partner in the Flyers, Sixers, Eagles and Phillies. — AP

The final home game for the Notre Dame soccer team will take place on Sunday afternoon, as the Irish play host to Wake Forest. Coach Rich Hunter's squad now 14-3-3 on the year, will hold a 2-1-1 edge in favor of Wake. The game is set to begin at 2 p.m. at Custer Field. — The Observer

Three lawyers from New York City will be panelists for a Sports and Entertainment Law Forum to be held at the Downtown Regional Center for Continuing Education next Friday (Nov. 6). The morning session will run from 9 a.m. to 12 noon, and the afternoon session will begin at 12:30 p.m. and conclude at 4 p.m. The three panelists are: Seymour Peyer, Richard Zahnd and Sidney Bluming, all of whom are specialized in this expanding field of law. Peyer has been Vice-President of and General Counsel to United Artists Corporations. Zahnd is General Counsel to Madison Square Garden Corporation, the parent company of the New York Rangers and Islanders. Bluming once represented the New York Yankees. — The Observer

Note: Classified ads that appear in this section are limited to the immediate 4 mile radius of campus. Classifieds not accepted after 8 a.m. the day prior to publication.
STARTING MONDAY
IN
The Observer

THE 24 HOUR HOTLINE

IF YOU KNOW SOMETHING ABOUT CAMPUS NEWS OR SPORTS THAT WE DON'T, SIMPLY CALL IN TO WIN THE $5 WEEKLY PRIZE FOR THE BEST NEWS/SPORTS TIP

SIMPLY CALL 8661

Catch The Fighting Irish

Labatt's is first in Canada. Your first taste will tell you why.

Make check payable to The Observer
P.O. Box Q
Notre Dame, IN 46556

□ Enclosed is $25 for remainder of the 1981-82 academic year ($22 after September 30).
□ Enclosed is $15 for remainder of the fall semester ($12 after September 30).

All subscriptions must be prepaid

Labatt's IMPORTERS INC.
AMHERST, NEW YORK

[Address and contact information]
When you need $65 fast, you find out who your friends are.

It's the middle of the night and everyone has an excuse. Then, finally, you get the one person who, even though he's not very happy about it, will come through. And you think, "I knew it. Why didn't I just call him in the first place?"

So when the crisis is over, he's going to deserve something a little special. Tonight, let it be Löwenbräu.

Löwenbräu. Here's to good friends.

© 1981 Beer brewed in U.S.A. by Miller Brewing Company, Milwaukee, Wisconsin
By LYNNIE LEONE
Sports Writer

Though it is not a common situa­tion today, it is still not uncommon for student athletes who are not only attending classes as full time students, but are also working, holding down part time jobs, but who are also married and maintaining a home life.

Notre Dame has no stipulated policy about whether married students are being married, although there were many from the earlier days at Notre Dame who thought that marriage might be an academic restriction of that sort. Today, there seems to be that though there were no written rules against marriage, there was a tradition.

A good example of this miscon­ception was the case of a Notre Dame's football player who starred for Knute Rockne. Fullback Joseph Savoldi was expelled from Notre Dame in 1930. Today, people who are married at such an early age is espoused because he was married. Further research indicated that Joseph Savoldi was expelled in 1930 for a marriage related reason.

Yet even though Savoldi's two year marriage was kept secret, it ap­pears that was not the reason for his expulsion. While it was developed that Savoldi was seeking a marriage divorce suit that not only made his marriage public knowledge, but also aroused the ire of the Roman Catholic institution. The wire story carried that the Tribune on November 17, 1930 stated that though the University refused to disclose the reasons for his expulsion, it is assumed that Savoldi's action in withdrawing is the result of the evidence brought to the University by his wife in violation of the exact same thing — only this time she's doing it out of his senior year.

As far as future plans are con­cerned, Bryan says he needs to be very realistic about any prospects of marriage since he still has to be a family to support. He said that he feels steady rather than there would be a good chance to play before he would go onto profes­sional football. Bryan is reluctantly to incur too many sacrifices on his future studies. Diana says that she feels that the couple want to try out for the pros "I wouldn't hold him back," she says. "I think the sacrifices would be worth it."

Weddings on ice
The Notre Dame hockey team has another two players, Bryan Smith and a hockey player, Jeff Perry, a senior.

Jeff Perry

Jeff Perry, who is a senior, and his wife Lisa also maintain that the hockey team players all have a lot of professional hockey plans Kirt says that he doesn't know what professional hockey is in the future but he hopes to go to Europe to play. And, Jeff is very enthusiastic about including his bride in his plans: "If I go to Europe, we'll go to Europe together."small.

Another set of newswomen on campus is soccer football couple, Bob Crabbe and wife Lisa. Bob says Lisa may be having the most dif­ficult adjusting since he is gone so much both because of football and the renovation of his house. "In any case," says Bob, "it's a lot more convenient having Lisa here because the time we do spend together is really great." Bob says Saturday is a special time for them because they have the opportu­nity to spend some time together and visit friends on campus. They particularly enjoy going each campus together every Sunday night.

Since she works at a local bank, Lisa is the breadwinner these days, but that doesn't seem to bother Bob too much. "We had to weigh the financial considerations," he admits. "We realized this was going to be a big responsibility." Bob very proud­ly asserts that Lisa is the one who handles the checkbook and "she made me more conscious about financial concerns.

Bob is very happy with his married life. He is enjoying sharing his senior year with his bride and feels Lisa isn't having too much trouble adjusting to all his notoriety. "She's excited about it but pretty much takes it all in stride."

A professional football career seems very likely, and Bob realizes he needs to consider his family obligations in future contract negotiations. "I'm not too con­cerned about where we wind up, Bob admits, "because we plan to make Cincinnati our home during the off season since that's where our family and most of our friends are.

Lisa has admitted to talk with ads set to adjust to South Bend and to Married athletes at ND... a rare breed

Bryan Smith, senior pitcher for the Notre Dame baseball team, and his wife Diana, finally have adjusted to married life at Notre Dame. Diana helps with the family budget by working at the Notre Dame Law School. Though they share a goal in Bryan receiving his Notre Dame degree next spring, the major excitement in their lives cur­rently is their two year old child due around Thanksgiving. Though they both profess to have no particular preference, Bryan admits that "maybe a girl wouldn't be so bad."

Though their parents are readily accessible in Syracuse, Ind., Bryan and Diana also both pitch with their own. "We thought this thing out very seriously," says Bryan, and if we didn't think we could make it work together on our own, we'd have walked.

Their social life is more family oriented than to campus life. Both parents manage to visit whenever they can. But whatever spare time they have they prefer to spend to­gether. They both insist on being on their own when it comes to the games. "I'm not really a football fan," she admits.

Bryan says he doesn't see one's self missing much of campus social life. He says that even when he did live at home, he "just never got into the social aspects of campus life." Bryan says that Diana is a great source of motivation for him because she actually makes sure he does his studies. He admits that their first semester together of course grades to go down a bit — mainly because they were trying to get used to a new lifestyle. "But," Bryan says, "I find that my grades have actually gone up since Diana has forced me to concentrate on my studies."

Diana tells us to get Bryan's baseball games, though sometimes it's not easy to get to all the away games. She says she's "learning to be a baseball wife."

As far as future plans are con­cerned, Bryan says he needs to be very realistic about any prospects of marriage since he still has to be a family to support. He said that he feels steady rather than there would be a good chance to play before he would go onto profes­sional football. Bryan is reluctant to incur too many sacrifices on his future studies. Diana says that she feels that the couple want to try out for the pros "I wouldn't hold him back," she says. "I think the sacrifices would be worth it."

"individuals rather than a married couple."
NBA season begins tonight

By GARY MYERS
Associated Press

Two weeks later than usual, the National Basketball Association season gets under way tonight, with the Boston Celtics opening defense of their championship at home against the revamped Washington Bullets.

The NBA pushed back the start of the season to avoid conflict with the World Series. The strategy backfired somewhat with baseball adding an other playoff round due to a mid-season strike, moving the ending of the series to this week. The NBA's late start, however, means the playoffs won't end until the middle of June.

Twenty of the league's 23 teams are in action tonight, with only Seattle, San Diego and Denver idle. In addition to the Washington-Boston game, the rest of the schedule includes: the New York Knicks at the New Jersey Nets in the first regular-season game to be played in the Meadowlands Arena; the Cleveland Cavaliers at the Philadelphia 76ers; the Milwaukee Bucks at the Detroit Pistons; the Chicago Bulls at the Indiana Pacers; the San Antonio Spurs at the Kansas City Kings; the Golden State Warriors at the Denver Nuggets; the Dallas Mavericks at the Utah Jazz; the Phoenix Suns at the Portland Trail Blazers; and in a game to be nationalistically televised (CBS, 11:30 p.m. EST), the Los Angeles Lakers entertain the Houston Rockets.

The Celtics' route to another championship is expected to be strongly challenged by the 76ers, Lakers, Sonics, Suns and Bucks. Still, the Celtics have a good chance of repeating its Ironcuff of Larry Bird, Cedric Maxwell, Robert Parish, Kevin McHale and Rick Robey to among the best in the league.

Elsewhere in the Atlantic Division, Philadelphia returns 11 veterans, including NBA Most Valuable Player Julius Erving, who has No. 1 pick Franklin Edwards, a guard from Cleveland State. Most of the 23 teams took advantage of the new league rule allowing 12 players on the roster.

The Knicks appear to have strengthened themselves with the addition of veterans Maurice Lucas, Mike Newlin and Randy Smith. The Nets, with over 1,000 season tickets sold in their new arena, have a new coach, Larry Brown, new players Otis Birdsong, Buck Williams, Ray Tolbert, Albert King and Ray Williams, and an old problem - the lack of a bona fide center. The Bullets' days of Wes Unseld, Elvin Hayes, Mitch Kupchak and Bobby Dandridge are over. Washington has signed veterans Spencer Haywood and John Lucas and acquired Jim Chones and Brad Holland in trades.

The Central Division could be a tossup among the Atlanta Hawks, Milwaukee Bucks and Chicago Bulls, providing they all have their full teams. Due to a string of injuries, the Hawks, under new Coach Kevin Loughery, will begin the season without starters Wes Matthews, Eddie Johnson and John Drew and a top reserve, Al Wood. The Bucks are without forward Marques Johnson, a holdout. The Bulls still are without unsigned Orlando Woolridge, their No. 1 pick.

The Pistons have new life with rookies Isiah Thomas and Kelly Tripucka. The Pacers have brunched George McGinnis in favor of Iosia Orr, and the Cavaliers hope free agents James Edwards, Bobby Wilkerson and Scott Wedman turn around the struggling franchise.

In the Midwest Division, the Kansas City Kings have a new look gone are free agents Brown and Wedman. The new Kings include Steve Johnson, Cliff Robinson, Frank Johnson and Kevin Lauer. The Sonics brought back Hayes, a familiar face in Houston, to team with Moses Malone. The Spurs have their muscular "Bruise Brothers" frontline and George Gervin in the backcourt.

Denver, with its run-and-gun style under Doug Moe, has much improved forward Kiki Vandeweghe to start the season. Utah, led by NBA scoring champion Adrian Dantley and 1981 Rookie of the Year Darrell Griffith, is hoping that No. 1 draft pick Danny Schayes can get some rebounds, and the Mavericks, with rookies Mark Aguirre, Roberto Blackman and Jay Vincent, should do better than the 15 victories they had last season, their first in the league.

In the Western Division, the Lakers' starting five of Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, Kupchak, Jamaal Wilkes, Magic Johnson and Norm Nixon is among the best in the league. The Seattle SuperSonics, with Gus Williams back and Lonnie Shelton healthy, are a different team than the one that won only 54 games last season.

The Suns will have a tough time replacing All-Star guard Walter Davis, out at least six weeks with a fractured elbow. The Blazers have lots of talent with Mychal Thompson, Kevin Ransey, Jim Paxson and Billy Ray Bates. The Warriors will rely on high scorers Bernard King and Lloyd Free but will miss rebounder Larry Smith, a holdout; and the San Diego Clippers are rebuilding around young forwards Michael Brooks and Tom Chambers.

the HAMMES NOTRE DAME BOOKSTORE is more than just textbooks!

Books are a great gift idea
Some examples include:

- $9.95
  "the university's past told vibrantly by a brilliant storyteller, Arthur J. Hope, C.S.C."
  --Was a limited best seller reissued from the '40's.

- $2.95
  "A blank book--
  "for your most cherished thoughts"
  --for poetry, quotes, journals, diary, etc.

- $7.98
  "The Game is On!"
  NOTRE DAME vs USC
  "a 50 year history of football's oldest inter-sectional rivalry

- $3.45
  "cooking for those before and after game tailgaters can be made a science"

Countless others include:
best sellers, art, religious, children's books, travel books

Friday, October 30, 1981
A cultural experience: on the road

When the World Series moved from New York to Los Angeles after Game Two, a lot of people felt it definitely was going in the right direction. Any direction would do for most. Take Kaye Kessler, the crack Columbus, Ohio, journalist.

Kaye was walking home to his hotel one midnight along Seventh Avenue near 54th Street, not normally considered his basic Lion Country, when he was accosted by a young woman who did not know. She had a business proposition to make, but Kaye was not in the market.

Merchants are aggressive in New York, though, and the lady began to grab Kaye by the lapels and elsewhere, when, suddenly, she whipped a hand into his breast coat pocket and made off with his wallet. Startled, Kaye gave chase. That was his second mistake of the night.

His first was walking alone on a New York street after giving chase. That was his second mistake of the night.

Kaye didn't chase the girl long. She had reinforced contours and reset the smashed teeth — the ones they wanted to keep their own teeth, I guess. In New York, the sight of a man lying unconscious bleeding from the mouth on a sidewalk is as familiar as the Statue of Liberty, one of the Big Apple's tourist attractions. They either night strollers simply stepped over Kaye. They didn't have enough for him, I was also ready with "Je ne comprend pas, mon vieux." ("I don't understand a word you're saying, old cock.") In case the bank didn't have enough for him, I was also ready with "J'ai seulement monnaie américaine." ("I have only Yankee dollars") in the hopes he wouldn't know the dollar was currently worth about a $1.12 in Canada.

But he was talking in rapid but forceful French. But the tone of his voice was unmistakable. The threat of sudden death is a universal language like love or music. I did what the French do in difficult circumstances. I pretended I couldn't understand a word of what was going on. Your hero sauntered over to a counter and pretended to be filling out a deposit slip — well out of the line of fire, and it happened. I was ready with stand by "Je Ne Comprends Pas, Mon Verex." ("I don't understand a word you're saying, old cock.") In case the bank didn't have enough for him, I was also ready with "Je ne comprend pas, mon vieux." ("I don't understand a word you're saying, old cock.") In case the bank didn't have enough for him, I was also ready with "Je ne comprend pas, mon vieux." ("I don't understand a word you're saying, old cock.") In case the bank didn't have enough for him, I was also ready with "Je ne comprend pas, mon vieux." ("I don't understand a word you're saying, old cock.") In case the bank didn't have enough for him, I was also ready with "Je ne comprend pas, mon vieux." ("I don't understand a word you're saying, old cock.") In case the bank didn't have enough for him, I was also ready with "Je ne comprend pas, mon vieux." ("I don't understand a word you're saying, old cock.") In case the bank didn't have enough for him, I was also ready with "Je ne comprend pas, mon vieux." ("I don't understand a word you're saying, old cock.") In case the bank didn't have enough for him, I was also ready with "Je ne comprend pas, mon vieux." ("I don't understand a word you're saying, old cock.") In case the bank didn't have enough for him, I was also ready with "Je ne comprend pas, mon vieux." ("I don't understand a word you're saying, old cock.") In case the bank didn't have enough for him, I was also ready with "Je ne comprend pas, mon vieux." ("I don't understand a word you're saying, old cock.") In case the bank didn't have enough for him, I was also ready with "Je ne comprend pas, mon vieux." ("I don't understand a word you're saying, old cock.") In case the bank didn't have enough for him, I was also ready with "Je ne comprend pas, mon vieux." ("I don't understand a word you're saying, old cock.") In case the bank didn't have enough for him, I was also ready with "Je ne comprend pas, mon vieux." ("I don't understand a word you're saying, old cock.") In case the bank didn't have enough for him, I was also ready with "Je ne comprend pas, mon vieux." ("I don't understand a word you're saying, old cock.") In case the bank didn't have enough for him, I was also ready with "Je ne comprend pas, mon vieux." ("I don't understand a word you're saying, old cock.") In case the bank didn't have enough for him, I was also ready with "Je ne comprend pas, mon vieux." ("I don't understand a word you're saying, old cock.") In case the bank didn't have enough for him, I was also ready with "Je ne comprend pas, mon vieux." ("I don't understand a word you're saying, old cock.") In case the bank didn't have enough for him, I was also ready with "Je ne comprend pas, mon vieux." ("I don't understand a word you're saying, old cock.") In case the bank didn't have enough for him, I was also ready with "Je ne comprend pas, mon vieux." ("I don't understand a word you're saying, old cock.") In case the bank didn't have enough for him, I was also ready with "Je ne comprend pas, mon vieux." ("I don't understand a word you're saying, old cock.") In case the bank didn't have enough for him, I was also ready with "Je ne comprend pas, mon vieux." ("I don't understand a word you're saying, old cock.") In case the bank didn't have enough for him, I was also ready with "Je ne comprend pas, mon vieux." ("I don't understand a word you're saying, old cock.") In case the bank didn't have enough for him, I was also ready with "Je ne comprend pas, mon vieux." ("I don't understand a word you're saying, old cock.") In case the bank didn't have enough for him, I was also ready with "Je ne comprend pas, mon vieux." ("I don't understand a word you're saying, old cock.") In case the bank didn't have enough for him, I was also ready with "Je ne comprend pas, mon vieux." ("I don't understand a word you're saying, old cock.") In case the bank didn't have enough for him, I was also ready with "Je ne comprend pas, mon vieux." ("I don't understand a word you're saying, old cock.") In case the bank didn't have enough for him, I was also ready with "Je ne comprend pas, mon vieux." ("I don't understand a word you're saying, old cock.") In case the bank didn't have enough for him, I was also ready with "Je ne comprend pas, mon vieux." ("I don't understand a word you're saying, old cock.") In case the bank didn't have enough for him, I was also ready with "Je ne comprend pas, mon vieux." ("I don't understand a word you're saying, old cock.") In case the bank didn't have enough for him, I was also ready with "Je ne comprend pas, mon vieux." ("I don't understand a word you're saying, old cock.") In case the bank didn't have enough for him, I was also ready with "Je ne comprend pas, mon vieux." ("I don't understand a word you're saying, old cock.") In case the bank didn't have enough for him, I was also ready with "Je ne comprend pas, mon vieux." ("I don't understand a word you're saying, old cock.") In case the bank didn't have enough for him, I was also ready with "Je ne comprend pas, mon vieux." ("I don't understand a word you're saying, old cock.") In case the bank didn't have enough for him, I was also ready with "Je ne comprend pas, mon vieux." ("I don't understand a word you're saying, old cock.") In case the bank didn't have enough for him, I was also ready with "Je ne comprend pas, mon vieux." ("I don't under
Basketball tickets available Monday

Notre Dame Students
Basketball ticket sales and distribution for Notre Dame students will begin on Monday (Nov. 2). The student basketball season ticket will be split into eight-game packages of equal quality as follows:

Package A
Sat, Nov. 28 — St. Joseph’s
Mon, Dec. 7 — Murray State
Sat, Jan. 16 — Davidson
Sat, Jan. 23 — Maryland
Wed, Jan. 27 — Marist
Tues, Feb. 2 — San Francisco
Sat, Feb. 27 — Oregon State
Tues, Mar. 2 — Northern Iowa

Package B
Fri, Nov. 20 — Yugoslavia Team
Sat, Dec. 5 — UCLA
Sat, Dec. 12 — Northern Illinois
Tues, Jan. 19 — Villanova
Mon, Jan. 25 — Idaho
Sat, Jan. 30 — Marquette
Sat, Feb. 13 — N. C. State
Tues, Feb. 23 — Fordham

Seniors and juniors only will have the opportunity to purchase Package A. Package B or both packages at designated times listed below. Based upon the demand and the supply of seniors and juniors, both packages or just one package will be offered to sophomores/low graduate students. All sophomores/low graduate students will at least be guaranteed the opportunity to purchase one eight-game season ticket. Freshmen will be offered the residual of the eight-game season tickets from above on a first-come, first-served basis.

Strict adherence to the following schedule is mandatory, and there can be no exceptions. Seniors — Holiday (Nov. 2’s juniorians — Tuesdays (Nov. 5). Sophomores/Graduate/Line Students — Wednesdays (Nov. 4). Freshmen — Thursday (Nov. 5). The ticket window will be open from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m. through the lunch hour.

Crowd-control gates and student security personnel will be utilized for the ticket issue. Please stand in single lines as indicated by the crowd-control gates. Gate 2 will be open at 7:30 a.m. daily.

A student ID and payment must be presented at the ticket window on the second floor of the ACC. The prices of the alternatives are as follows: Lower Arena — $24 for one package, $48 for both. Blachers — $18 for one package. $36 for both.

Make checks payable to the University of Notre Dame.

All seats are assigned in the student section, but are NOT pre-assigned by the Ticket Office. If you wish to sit with a classmate, you must present your IDs and money together for adjacent seating. No student may present more than four IDs.

Married students should report to the ticket windows with their respective class and on the scheduled day. When picking their tickets, they are asked to present evidence of your marital status.

Saint Mary’s Students
All classes should pick up lottery forms at their residence hall’s desk this week. Completed forms must be returned to the Saint Mary’s Student Activities Office no later than Friday (Oct. 30). Of lottery winners will be posted in the residence halls and in the dining hall on Monday (Nov. 3). Lottery winners then must bring a check for $18 to the Student Activities office no later than Friday (Nov. 6). — The Observer null
Irish Open CCHA Season Tonight

BY MICHAEL OLENIK

Sports Writer

The actors and the stage are set for Notre Dame's CCHA home opener. The Irish are readying themselves for an exciting premiere. The Northern Michigan Wildcats invade the ACC tonight and tomorrow in what probably will turn out to be an exciting series when the stakes are finally stored away in the spring.

Irish Coach Leif Smith and his players fully realize that this kind of play may not be all fun, and some serious preparation has been under way in practice all week. Northern Michigan, defending CCHA champ for the second consecutive year, will provide the type of challenge that forces any team to the top of good hockey or pay some expensive dues.

Don't believe for a second, however, that any Irish players will take the Wildcats lightly. As defensive lineman Jim Brown is quick to point out:

"We know that they're not some key people," says Brown. "But if you read in the newspapers or talk to any of us players, you'll know that these people play some of the best hockey in this league year in and year out. Hopefully, we'll be ready to play the kind of hockey that we are capable of."

It's true. The Wildcats did lose their top four scorers from last season, but return 15 letterman whom coach John Welsh says have handled every week's assignment. The defense has been consistent in their last two games, the loss to Southern Cal last Saturday and the win against Michigan State last week. The offense has been quite good, as have the special teams. On defense, the Middies are led by linebacker Andy Pon-

See JOHNSON, page 20

Upbeat Irish must prevent letdown to beat Navy

By GERRY FAUST

Football Coach

A Coach's Journal

If you can be encouraged by a losing football game, then we are really encouraged about our football team after its 16-0 loss to Southern Cal last Saturday.

We think we found ourselves as a football team, and now as we prepare for a good Navy team tomorrow, we have to remember that we played a good football game and to keep our heads up. At the same time, we also must guard against a letdown and try to maintain the enthusiasm and intensity we had after the loss to Princeton Saturday.

Saturday's game was a great game for spectators to watch. There was great execution on both sides and the hitting was excellent. Each team had just one turnover, and the penalties and mistakes were minimal. We feel Southern Cal is one of the best football teams in the nation. Saturday's performance was easily the best of our offensive line has produced this season. For the first time the kids had confidence in what they were doing and they were really firing off the ball. That's the reason Phil Carter did so well and gained 161 yards. He would be the first to tell you that, too.

And defensively, we thought we played an excellent game. People may wonder about that when they notice that Marcus Allen gained 47 yards. But he is such a great runner that he is getting his 100-150 yards because he will carry it so much.

It is really hard to single out one player because everyone on the team played so well. But we think defensive tackle Tom Marshall, a sophomore from Chicago, is really becoming an excellent player. He has been consistent all season and Saturday he had seven plays, making six tackles, two of them for losses.

Another reason our football team played well was the work of our prep schools during the week. They really did an excellent job simulating Southern Cal's and that's why we feel they are the winning heroes of the game.

The turning point of the game had to be when their punter of mistakes," says Coach Johnson, referring to when Michigan's Anthony Carter burned the Irish on a 5-yard pass play and also when Johnson and the rest of the second string lost its game against Michigan's Patten in the Red Sea Classic last week.

"If (Johnson) has any faults, it is that he is an overaggressive football player," Coach Johnson says. "You can't be overaggressive back there. He is going to be a great defensive back. He has good hands, he thinks and he is a hitter. He just needs more game experience."

Yet Johnson almost didn't end up in Notre Dame. "I'm not too much of a fan of Notre Dame," says Johnson of Notre Dame's recruiting efforts of the former All-American from Fostoria High School in Ohio. "I was an Ohio State fan. But after I stated here I decided to come here."

His coach knew what the Irish were getting. "He is one of the most impressive defensive backs I've seen on film," Johnson says. "I told him he had a great chance to play at a freshman team."

"It only made me work harder," shrugs Johnson. "Yeah, I am surprised at how much I play, though."

He has no regrets at his decision either. "It is a great place athletically and academically," Johnson says. Johnson has not been alone in his decision.

In JOHNSON, page 20

Notre Dame's CCHA home opener, Saturday in Navy. Coach George Welsh always seems to have a letdown this week to beat Navy. We will be without the services of two of our receivers in the game tonight. Senior Marquis Wannell and sophomore cornerback Alonzo Clemons are out for the game tonight. Welsh may not be all fun, and some serious preparation has been under way in practice all week.

Northern Michigan, defending CCHA champ for the second consecutive year, will provide the type of challenge that forces any team to the top of good hockey or pay some expensive dues.

Don't believe for a second, however, that any Irish players will take the Wildcats lightly. As defensive lineman Jim Brown is quick to point out:

"We know that they're not some key people," says Brown. "But if you read in the newspapers or talk to any of us players, you'll know that these people play some of the best hockey in this league year in and year out. Hopefully, we'll be ready to play the kind of hockey that we are capable of."

"We feel really bad for placekicker Harry Oliver, who we know that Northern Michigan will break in? His coach knew what the Irish were getting. "He is one of the most impressive defensive backs I've seen on film," Johnson says. "I told him he had a great chance to play at a freshman team."

"It only made me work harder," shrugs Johnson. "Yeah, I am surprised at how much I play, though."

He has no regrets at his decision either. "It is a great place athletically and academically," Johnson says. Johnson has not been alone in his decision.

In JOHNSON, page 20

"We feel really bad for placekicker Harry Oliver, who missed two short field goals from tough angles we gave him. If he had made the two field goals our strategy w ould have been different. We were trying to put us in a hole at our own three-yard line midway through the second half of the game. He has no regrets at his decision either. "It is a great place athletically and academically," Johnson says. Johnson has not been alone in his decision. One of them was the front line. "We feel ourselves as a football team, and now as we prepare for a good Navy team tomorrow, we have to remember that we played a good football game and to keep our heads up. At the same time, we also must guard against a letdown and try to maintain the enthusiasm and intensity we had after the loss to Princeton Saturday.

Saturday's game was a great game for spectators to watch. There was great execution on both sides and the hitting was excellent. Each team had just one turnover, and the penalties and mistakes were minimal. We feel Southern Cal is one of the best football teams in the nation. Saturday's performance was easily the best of our offensive line has produced this season. For the first time the kids had confidence in what they were doing and they were really firing off the ball. That's the reason Phil Carter did so well and gained 161 yards. He would be the first to tell you that, too.

And defensively, we thought we played an excellent game. People may wonder about that when they notice that Marcus Allen gained 47 yards. But he is such a great runner that he is getting his 100-150 yards because he will carry it so much.

It is really hard to single out one player because everyone on the team played so well. But we think defensive tackle Tom Marshall, a sophomore from Chicago, is really becoming an excellent player. He has been consistent all season and Saturday he had seven plays, making six tackles, two of them for losses.

Another reason our football team played well was the work of our prep schools during the week. They really did an excellent job simulating Southern Cal's and that's why we feel they are the winning heroes of the game.

The turning point of the game had to be when their punter