Marines attacked after bombing raid

Associated Press

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) - Druse gunners blasted the U.S. Marine base at the Beirut airport last night, killing eight Marines and wounding two, a military spokesman reported.

Maj. Dennis Brooks said the Marines came under intense fire about 12 hours after Syrian anti-aircraft batteries shot down two U.S. Navy jets that were among 29 warplanes that launched the first American air strike in Lebanon.

The Pentagon said a two-man A-6 and a single-pilot A-7 fighter-bomber were downed when the planes attacked Syrian positions in Lebanon's central mountains about 8 a.m. (1 a.m. EST) in response to earlier attacks on U.S. reconnaissance planes.

One Marine was rescued, at least one was captured and Syrian soldiers said a third died of injuries.

U.S. Navy warships opened fire on Druse positions in the mountains overlooking the Marine base and thumped from their heavy gun- and medium machine-gun fire.

One warplane was destroyed and another badly damaged at the Beirut airport.

The Marine encampment was hit by a wall of heavy, sustained artillery, rocket, small-arms and mortar fire that the naval gunfire was the result of heavy, sustained artillery, rocket, small arms and mortar fire that the Marine positions have been under," Brooks said.

He said the Marines "opened up with everything we have," including 155mm artillery, 600 tanks, heavy machine guns and small arms.

The shelling of the Marine encampment ended four hours later, Brooks said.

The deaths of the Marines brought to 254 the number of American servicemen killed in Lebanon, including 230 who perished in a suicide truck-bombing of the Marine headquarters on Oct. 23.

A Defense Department spokesman in Washington said names of the latest victims would not be released pending notification of relatives.

About 1,500 Marines are stationed here as part of a multinational peacekeeping force that also includes British, French and Italian troops.

In Washington, White House national security spokesman Robert Sims said, "I know we've had an attack from Druse and probably Shiite positions around the airport at Beirut and it is pretty intense. We have had some casualties and we have responded with tank and naval gunfire."

White House spokeswoman Shelia Dixon said President Reagan had been briefed about the developments.

At a black-tie reception in the Office of Student Affairs Monday from 8 p.m. to 12 noon, and 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. Additional questions should be directed to the Office of Student Affairs or to residence hall head staff.

Applications are available in the Office of Student Affairs Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 12 noon and 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. Additional questions should be directed to the Office of Student Affairs or to residence hall head staff.

United Way begins new campaign in attempt to reach their 1983 goal

By CHRISTOPHER RYAN

The Observer/ Horn Bradley

A second United Way campaign kicks off this week in St. Joseph County and on campus, as the local United Way chapter attempts to reach its goal of $2.8 million. The campus campaign will take place from Monday, Dec. 5 to Tuesday, Dec. 15.

"The growing needs caused by unemployment and the shrinking resources caused by the ailing economy" have made it more important than ever that the United Way reaches its goal, said Patrick Mangan, associate director of campaigns and communications of the St. Joseph County United Way. The United Way chapter is currently about $200,000 short of its goal.

Mangan added current economic conditions in St. Joseph County have made many of the county's residents more dependent on services of local agencies subsidized by the United Way. This increased dependency has led to the need for more money by the agencies in order to maintain the quality of their services offered to the community.

The second campaign, to have begun today, will again be countywide and will again include a campus effort.

Although the university has reached its goal of $155,000 as its part in the campaign, of which students have contributed $5,250, Mangan is hoping the university's tradition of coming through when a need is present will hold true for the United Way's second effort. He had much to say in commending the students' generous spirit as a whole thus far.

"Students, who for the most part are gatekeepers of the community, white here at Notre Dame," said Mangan, "have cared enough to get behind the United Way campaign and raise several thousand dollars to support the efforts of the health and human care agencies, which speaks highly of the students' generous spirit as a whole thus far."
The Greyhound strike has apparently affected more than bus windowshields. The Notre Dame Boston Club, which normally charters a Greyhound bus for students going home at Christmas break, has had to turn to Indiana Motorbus, which will charge almost 50 percent more for the charter. The Indiana firm has a smaller motorpool and will return the bus to Indiana immediately after the December trip. The bus will travel back to Boston again in January, Boston Club officer Mike Heineman said the extra round trip probably cost students $30 more than the regular $11.50 fare. The Boston Club meets tonight at 7 in LaFourche to discuss the matter. — The Observer

The Observer

In Brief

Billy Joel tickets can be picked up during the next two weeks at the Student Union ticket office. The Student Union advises students to pick up their tickets later this week. Seating will not be affected by when tickets are picked up. — The Observer

FATHER JOHN REEDY, assistant rector of Carroll Hall and publisher of Ave Maria press since 1953, died Friday of leukemia at St. Joseph's Medical Center. He was 58 years old. Services will be today at 8:30 p.m. in Sacred Heart Church. Fr. Reedy, to 31 years of service as a priest, was active in Catholic journalism and publishing. He was publisher for Spiritual Book Association and was a syndicated columnist for Our Sunday Visitor. Fr. Reedy received the 1966 Catholic Press Association Award for outstanding contributions to Catholic journalism. — The Observer

The Greyhound strike has apparently affected more than bus windowshields. The Notre Dame Boston Club, which normally charters a Greyhound bus for students going home at Christmas break, has had to turn to Indiana Motorbus, which will charge almost 50 percent more for the charter. The Indiana firm has a smaller motorpool and will return the bus to Indiana immediately after the December trip. The bus will travel back to Boston again in January, Boston Club officer Mike Heineman said the extra round trip probably cost students $30 more than the regular $11.50 fare. The Boston Club meets tonight at 7 in LaFourche to discuss the matter. — The Observer

The promotion of two employees and the employment of a new manager for compensation and benefits has been announced by G. Thomas Bull, director of personnel at Notre Dame. Fred Freeman, assistant director the last seven years and a member of the department since 1967, has been named associate director with general administrative responsibilities. Terrence G. Wahlin, manager of employee relations since 1979, will be assistant director in charge of employee relations, employment and training. Freeman is a licensed attorney and manager for benefits and insurance at Bethlehem Steel Plant in Chesterton, will assume duties as manager of compensation and benefits. A graduate of Indiana and Valparaso Universities, he will administer pension and group insurance benefits, plan design and wage and salary plans. — The Observer

Of Interest

The annual St. Nick's Christmas Bazaar is scheduled for Dec. 5-9 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the LeMans Hall lobby at Saint Mary's. The bazaar is sponsored by Saint Mary's students, faculty and area craftspeople. Carols, Christmas cards and gifts, needlework, food, rag dolls, silk ties and Irish turleneckes are some of the available items. A $5 fee was collected from each participant in the bazaar and will be donated to charity. — The Observer

The United Way film "Hopes & Dreams" with Mer- lin Olsen will be shown in the Alumni Hall party room tonight at 7. United Way representative Patrick Mangan will be present to answer questions about the United Way. — The Observer

Artificial intelligence and its applications will be the topic of a lecture series by Bruce Buchanan, co-director of the Heuristic Programming Project at Stanford University. The College of Engineering plans the workshop will take place today, tomorrow and Wednesday, and will begin at 4:30 p.m. in Room 2B74 of the Galvin Life Science Center. In his opening talk Buchanan will describe the artificial intelligence and in the second lecture will discuss its applications in the biomedical sciences. His third talk is titled, "Technical Concerns in Building Expert Systems." Heuristic programming is the method by which an artificial intelligence program makes intelligent guesses to imitate human thought. — The Observer

Weather

Mostly cloudy today with 50 percent chance of showers. High in the upper 40's. Low tonight in the low to mid 30's. — The Observer

Saint Mary's housing change: No!

Anne Monastyrski
Saint Mary's Editor

Inside Monday

Housing and room picks at Saint Mary's — it is a volatile subject on campus. Ask just about any student and she will tell you she does not want the changes which will effect next fall. The lottery for room picks and room selection are in March — only a few months away. Until then, the department of housing and residence life will be defending the new system.

The plan is to integrate the dorms so that no one dorm can be considered a class dorm. The drastic change will occur in Regina — the freshman dorm. The number of undergraduates in LeMans will markedly increase. Beginning with room picks this March, rooms in Regina will be allotted to sophomores and freshmen. The number of dorm rooms will be designated for sophomores. This year, approximately two thirds of the freshmen dorm, Regina, for, so not all of next year's sophomores will have to live there again. Director of Housing and Residence Life Patricia Rissmeyer ex-

The Observer

DRAFT: MILITARY COUNSELING

Trained counselors are available to assist Notre Dame students in the discernment of their own consciences regarding whether or not they are morally willing to fight in a war.

For more information contact:
Margaret Garvey
Office of Campus Ministry
239-5242
Free University teachers sought

By MARGARET GRAY

The Free University, which is sponsored by the Notre Dame Student Union, offers people a chance to share their talents and interests with others.

Teaching positions in the Free University are open to the students, faculty and staff of the Notre Dame and Saint Mary's campuses; however, persons in the South Bend area not affiliated with either school are also welcome to sign up as teachers or students.

Those who sign up to teach a class choose what course they will teach, when and where the class will take place, how many students they wish to enroll in their class, and what materials will be required for the class. Teachers are also responsible for drawing up their own lesson plans.

In the past, classes have been offered on such topics as gambling, frisbee, scuba diving, poetry, and stereo buying.

The classes are offered free of charge and are usually held once a week for one hour. They are offered purely as electives. No grades or credits are given to those teaching or taking the courses.

"The Free University is a great way to share your talents, pick up a new hobby and meet new people," said Alyson Miller. This is the second year in a row that she and Debbie Rademacher have been in charge of the Free University.

Teaching positions are still available and can be signed up for in the Notre Dame Student Union until the end of the first semester. Enrollment in the classes themselves will not take place until the beginning of the second semester prior to when the classes actually commence.

Observer note

The Observer announces the promotion of Keith Picher to the position of Viewpoint Editor, a senior Philosopohy/CAPP major from Winthrop, Maine, previously held the position of Assistant Viewpoint Editor. Picher assumes his duties immediately.

Philadelphia Club X-mas Bus Sign-ups

Wednesday, Dec. 7, 7:00 p.m.
1st Floor LaFortune

Cost will be $95 round trip due to Greyhound Strike
Bus will leave Dec. 21 at 10:00 p.m.

Buy
Observer
classifieds

Carlos Sweeney's
Carlos presents his
STUDENT SPECIAL
Bring in Coupon and receive
$1.00 off any lunch or dinner entree

139 W. McKinley Ave.
Mishawaka, Indiana 46545

Carlos Buck
$1.00 of any entree
Dinner Special
Limit: one coupon per visit, per person
Coupon Good Anytime

Carlos Sweeney
Free info. Write IJC,
Box 52-IN, Mishawaka, Indiana 46545

Overseas Jobs

Summer/year round.
Free info. Write L.C., Box 52, IN 4, Coral Del Mar, CA 92625

Admiral Benbow Inns of Memphis

Two great locations Midtown and East. Both locations minutes away from Liberty Bowl. We offer a total of 300 Deluxe Rooms, good food and most of all, hospitality.

SPECIAL RATES:
Single: 27 plus tax
Double: 29 plus tax
$4.00 each add. person

Midtown Location: 901-725-0630
East Location: 901-882-4601
Transportation available to and from Liberty Bowl.

Ham radio operators call shuttle

SPACELAB, Houston — After talking by radio to the King of Jordan, a "happy bunch" of handyman astronauts used a makeshift darkroom inside a bedroll to fix a jammed camera yesterday, then repaired and fired up a twice-broken furnace.

Spacelab scientist Owen Garriott reached fellow ham radio buff King Hussein, who told him, "We're very, very, proud of you, and we share this pride with all the people of America, all the people of the world.

Both Parker and I'll Merbold of the Red Team — one astronaut shift — and Garriott and Byron Lichtenberg of the Blue Team got out tools and instructions yesterday to repair a series of broken experiments aboard their orbiting Spacelab. Then they changed shifts with the non-stop experiment they have kept up since Spacelab was launched with space shuttle Columbia last Monday.

Missions commander John Young and pilot Brewster Shaw worked in the cockpit of Columbia and made little comment to the ground.

The repairs boosted morale aboard Spacelab and Rick Chappell, mission scientist here, said, "They're a happy bunch up there right now."
was reached during the visit of Israeli Prime Minister Yitzhak Shamir recently to Washington."

Analysis

Associated Press

WASHINGTON — A strike by a heavy flight of Navy bombers against Syrian anti-aircraft positions in Lebanon yesterday marks a significant escalation from the mostly passive role played by U.S. military forces since the Syrian takeover of the Marine compound.

The air raid came three weeks after a clear warning from Secretary of Defense Caspar Weinberger, President Reagan's national security adviser, that the United States would respond if Syrian gunners continued shooting at American planes flying reconnaissances missions over Lebanon. It also coincides with a more hostile attitude by the Reagan administration toward the Syrians, whom it blames for blocking evacuation of all foreign troops from Lebanon, and it coincides with a new U.S. Israeli agreement for closer cooperation.

Talk about possible U.S. military retaliation began after the suicide truck bombing of a Marine headquarters building at the Beirut International Airport six weeks ago, which killed 259 American services.

But the Pentagon announcement of yesterday's strike by about two dozen A-6E intruders and A-7 Corsairs made no mention of the Oct. 23 terrorist bombing. And Defense Secretary Caspar Weinberger, speaking to reporters in Paris, stressed the attack was a retaliation for the shoes fired at the reconnaissance planes and was in no way connected with the bombing at the Marine compound.

Asked whether the United States will attack any position that fires on U.S. forces in the future, the Pentagon replied: "Our forces will take action appropriate for self-defense." That statement leaves open the option for further U.S. air strikes, now that a precedent has been set.

As recently as Nov. 11, Weinberger said he had no evidence Syria was responsible for anti-aircraft fire aimed at a Navy F-14 during a reconnaissance mission. But Weinberger's attitude, and that of the Reagan administration, hardened against the Syrians in following weeks, and on Nov. 22 Weinberger flatly accused the Syrian government of "sponsorship and knowledge" of the suicide bombing of the Marine headquarters.

In its statement yesterday announcing the carrier bomber strike against Syrian anti-aircraft batteries, the Pentagon unequivocally blamed Syrian authorities for it said "clearly knew they were firing on U.S. reconnaissance aircraft."
Handeling it

Two girls play their violins during last night's performance of Handel's Messiah. The concert performed by the Notre Dame Chamber and Chamber Orchestra, will be held again at 8 tonight and tomorrow night at Sacred Heart Church.

LIBERTY BOWL
NOTRE DAME VERSUS BOSTON COLLEGE
$184*

Motorcoach, Hotel, Ticket, Premium security, and more
December 28 thru December 30
For Reservations Call... 216-2685
239-7989 (6682) Badin Hall
284-2607 (Haggar College Center)

Shultz visits Europe to discuss deployment

WASHINGTON — Secretary of State George P. Shultz left yesterday for Europe for talks with the NATO allies that will focus on East-West relations, including the new missile rivalry and the possibility of a meeting with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko.

Shultz will go first to Bonn to meet with West German leaders and move on to Brussels where NATO foreign ministers begin a two-day meeting Wednesday. He plans later stops in Tunisia, Morocco and Portugal before returning to the United States on Dec. 13.

In both Bonn and Brussels, Shultz is likely to receive encouragement from U.S. allies for a meeting with Gromyko, which could be held in conjunction with the opening of a European Disarmament Conference in Stockholm in January.

A senior State Department official said Saturday that NATO allies will want Shultz to provide the latest U.S. assessment of Soviet reaction to the deployment of U.S. medium-range nuclear missiles in Europe. The Soviets broke off Geneva talks on medium-range weapons when the missile deployment started.

The health of Soviet leader Yuri Andropov — who has not been seen in public for since August — also is certain to be discussed. Shultz said last week that Andropov has been ill, but that he didn't know how ill.

The senior State Department official said Shultz will engage in "a certain amount of relaying of anxieties and picking up of spirits" in his talks with the allies on the missile issue.

The initial shipments of missile components to Great Britain and West Germany in the past two weeks resulted in widespread public protests. While the protests haven't prevented deployment, NATO leaders want to be able to reassure their nations that the West is still emphasizing negotiations with Moscow to curtail the missiles.

NATO argues that the allies need to proceed with deploying 50-20 missiles in Europe to counter presumed Soviet missiles that threaten Europe from sites in the Soviet Union.

The Reagan administration has predicted Moscow will resume negotiations in Geneva after a four-month period of several months. Moscow insists it won't join talks again until the allies remove the U.S. missiles.

In Bonn and Brussels, Shultz will go first to Bonn to meet with West German leaders and move on to Brussels where NATO foreign ministers begin a two-day meeting Wednesday. He plans later stops in Tunisia, Morocco and Portugal before returning to the United States on Dec. 13.

One of the key issues that will be discussed is the U.S. deployment of medium-range missiles in Europe. The Soviets have expressed concerns about the deployment and have broken off talks with the West over the issue.

The State Department official noted that NATO allies will want Shultz to provide updated information on the U.S. assessment of Soviet reaction to the deployment of U.S. medium-range nuclear missiles in Europe.

A key question is whether the U.S. will consider a meeting with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko. The official said that Gromyko could be invited to participate in a meeting in Europe to discuss the deployment issue.

The U.S. deployment of medium-range missiles is seen as a significant escalation in the arms race between the U.S. and the Soviet Union. The deployment of such missiles in Western Europe raises concerns about the security of Western European countries.

The Strategic Defense Initiative (SDI) was a controversial proposal by the Reagan administration to create a missile defense system to protect the U.S. from potential missile attacks. The proposal was widely criticized and was eventually abandoned.

The arms control efforts and the SDI proposal were part of a broader policy known as Strategic Flexibility, which sought to maintain a strategic balance between the U.S. and the Soviet Union.

The arms control efforts and the SDI proposal were part of a broader policy known as Strategic Flexibility, which sought to maintain a strategic balance between the U.S. and the Soviet Union.

In order to make students more aware of these facts and others concerning the United Way, the St. Joseph County United Way gives a majority of the donations it collects to some 15 agencies in the county, most of whose headquarters are in South Bend and Mishawaka. About four percent of the money donated is used to publicize and run the campaign, and about one percent is given to the national United Way fund to help subsidize its efforts nationwide.

Mangan pointed out the United Way's efforts are visible on the university campus itself. He noted a prime example of the United Way's visibility on campus is the Logan Center. He also added that some of the United Way's donations go to the Red Cross, of which there is a student chapter on the university campus. In addition, he said, the Center for Social Concerns has many programs that cooperate with the United Way.

In order to make students more aware of these facts and others concerning the United Way, the St. Joseph chapter will sponsor a series of meetings in many of the campus halls in order to give students a better understanding of the United Way's purposes and goals, and also to tell where the donated money goes.

In summing up the purpose of the United Way's second campaign, Mangan said "this kind of second campaign doesn't ask you to give an inch, but to give until it helps."
People ask where I get my ideas from and tell me it's hard to write those columns a week. I always reply that ideas are no problem and therefore it is a conch to write three columns a week. I only wish I could write more.

Today I want to write about my fantasy. In my fantasy, I am sitting in the dentist's chair, my head back, my mouth full of plumbing; the awful Molar dancing 'Dancing Ballerina Dance,' when in comes the dental hygienist, Tessa of Hyattsville, and she says, "Now we are going to teach you how to brush." I shoot her dead. When in comes the dental hygienist, less of a mouth for improvement.

I thought about raising my son as a rare Krishna or something and then when he was about 17 or 18 he would rebel and join another religious tradition and wear a suit. I would act scant and angry and tell him he's killing his parents.

The New York Times magazine showed a picture of John Glenn autographing stacks of Jim Woll's book, The Right Stuff. I thought that was very interesting and wondered what it is that Wolfe himself autographs. Could it be John Glenn? And when Glenn came back from space, was he thinning? "The Battle Hymns of the Republic" or "Solidarity Forever?" In the movie, you can't tell.

If Jesse Jackson becomes President, will all his announcements he truthful? I am not a poetry fan but surely it is harmed every time Jackson decides that if something rhymes, it must therefore be logical. I knew just by looking out the door/The time had come to go to war." From the outhouse to the state house to the White House, there is nothing so tires as cheap device.

People sometimes ask if I have trouble coming up with column ideas and say that ideas are never any problem for me. It's just that some days I have to brush my teeth.

Letters policy

Editor's note: The appearance of letters to the editor is subject to the daily constraints of the page. They must bear a letterhead, telephone number, and signature of the author (initials and pseudonyms are not acceptable). Letters must be well-written and typed. Material shorter than 250 words will not be published. All letters are subject to editing and become the property of The Observer.

Campus comments

What should the administration do about the food sales problem?

Since the cafe is not much cleaner and no students have died yet, I don't see much difference. If they don't like it, have them send out.

The administration should maintain some minimum quality control regulations to keep the food edible.

People sometimes ask if I have trouble coming up with column ideas and say that ideas are never any problem for me. It's just that some days I have to brush my teeth.

Letters policy

Editor's note: The appearance of letters to the editor is subject to the daily constraints of the page. They must bear a letterhead, telephone number, and signature of the author (initials and pseudonyms are not acceptable). Letters must be well-written and typed. Material shorter than 250 words will not be published. All letters are subject to editing and become the property of The Observer.

Campus comments

What should the administration do about the food sales problem?

Since the cafe is not much cleaner and no students have died yet, I don't see much difference. If they don't like it, have them send out.

The administration should maintain some minimum quality control regulations to keep the food edible.

People sometimes ask if I have trouble coming up with column ideas and say that ideas are never any problem for me. It's just that some days I have to brush my teeth.
Packed like sardines
by Marc Ramirez
features columnist

I can still remember, packed together like a can of sardines... 2:00 p.m.

"You know, Vince, there's a lot of people here already."
"Yeah, I kinda noticed that. Can you imagine how many people there will be by the time it's 2:30?"

"Man, there must be a thousand people here."

"You ain't kidding."
"Is there supposed to be a line or something?"

Word out of line and you'll find the friends you have are gone forever.

"Vince? Hey, Vince, where's you go? Dave, have you seen Vince? He was right here... Dave Dave, where are you?"

"Well, hello there, nice to meet you, get your hand away from my der-riere..."

"Oh, I'm sorry, I was looking for my friends and I didn't notice. There's so many people in here."
"Hey, you not kidding, huh, say, do you know what's going on here?"

"No, I don't know what's going on."

"Well, I brought 12 IDs. How about you?"

"Nine. But I think you can only get one ticket per ID. Or maybe not.
There wasn't anything about it in The Observer."

2:40 p.m.

"Hey, Vince, what's going on?"

"I do know. Wait, let me tell somebody."

"Okay, this boy is going to be the official ID collection table!"

"You hear that, Vince! Right in front of us!"

"Hey, come on! Wait your turn! Get off me!"

"Wait a minute, everyone! This isn't gonna work! We're gonna move over here..."

"Hey, Vince, where's he going?"

"I don't know."

"Wait! They're over in that room next to Irish Gardens!"

Even though I have absolutely no idea at all what is being said despite the dialogue... 2:55 p.m.

"What are they doing now?"

"They're collecting IDs and putting them in a trash can."

"No, seriously."

"Iam serious."

"Well they're saying something again."

"Hehe eepw u osew osew upw eee..."

"What are you saying?"

"I don't know — oops, sorry, I didn't mean to step on your foot."

Well, the restlessness was handed down, and it's getting very hard to stay.

"I can't take this anymore. You know how long it's gonna take us to get all the way up there just to get our IDs? I'm leaving."

"Hey, everyone's passing up their IDs, Vince! Here, gimme yours!"

"Why didn't they have this in Chautauqua? Or at the Pet? Why do they always screw this up?"

2:40 p.m.

"Kuyio epep wyp epyu epyu mpyu epyu epyu..."

"Hey, everybody's walking the other way! I think we're going outside!"

"Great. First they suffocate us and now they're gonna freeze us."

"You know what I can't figure out? Why didn't they have this in Washington Hall?"

"No, that would make too much sense."

"Well, come on. Everybody's going outside."

2:45 p.m.

"Okay, everybody, back off the stairs! We're gonna call out names, and when you come up, write your name, your ID number, where you want to sit, and how many tickets you want on the back of your envelope. Then go downstairs to the table and the girls will sell you your tickets."

You know how long this is gonna take, Vince? This is crazy. Will you still be by the time it's 2:30?"

2:55 p.m.

"Hey, Wake up. I got our tickets."

3:00 p.m.

"Hey, Vince, where's he going?"

3:15 p.m.

"Well, I brought 12 IDs. How about you?"

"Hey, I brought 12. How about you?"

"Vince? Hey, Vince, where's he going? Dave, have you seen Vince? He was right here... Dave Dave, where are you?"

3:15 p.m.

"Well, hello there, nice to meet you, get your hand away from my der-riere..."

"Oh, I'm sorry, I was looking for my friends and I didn't notice. There's so many people in here."

4:00 p.m.

"Hey, you not kidding, huh, say, do you know what's going on here?"

"No, I don't know what's going on."

"Well, I brought 12 IDs. How about you?"

"Nine. But I think you can only get one ticket per ID. Or maybe not.
There wasn't anything about it in The Observer."

4:00 p.m.

"Wait! They're saying something again!"

"Great. First they suffocate us and now they're gonna freeze us."

The Notre Dame Student Players last week undertook the ambitious task of presenting this well known musical. They performed it in O'Laughlin Auditorium on Dec. 1, 2 and 3. Based on Sholem Aleichem stories, with music and lyrics by Bock and Harnick, the play had a cast of more than forty.

Any production of "Fiddler on the Roof" must stand or fall on the performance of the actor who plays Tevye, the milkman. The Student Players were lucky to have a strapping Perchik (David Kaiser) talks of Kes and marriage to Hodel (Ann Harvey).

Goldie (Denise Blank) scolds her husband Tevye (James Gallagher).

A ll y o u  had to stand in  line. S till, y o u 're stan din g on y o u r foot and you have to wait."

The Observer/Pete Laches

the brisk pace of the show.

Excellent ensemble work also enhanced the pace. The original
choral singing reproduced by Kara
Amis was admirably professional.

The vocal choruses were strong and
sounding, backed with appropriate
defersence by the orchestra. The words of the songs could actually be
heard — which is not always so in choral singing.

In sum the Notre Dame Student
Players gave the campus an excellent performance of a beloved musical, warming the December chill of
front and finals.

The chorus of "Fiddler on the Roof."

The play was skillfully directed by Joseph Dolan. It was produced by Dolan and Paul S. Clay. Clay also designed the stark set, which contained of stone gray steps, ramps, and platforms. Tall brown posts with variously angled cross bars suggested the rooftops and gables of a village, but also hinted somberly of gibbets. Plain benches, a table, and a hearth represented the cottage of

of the same house when God is busy with wars and plagues.

In the duet "Do You Love Me?"
Gallagher and Denise Blank, who played Tevye's wife Golde, evoked a genius for which to find husbands, thinks himself personally hounded by the Almighty, and has some themes that stories of three daughters and their unsuitable suitors.

Gallagher captured remarkably well the ironic relationship of Tevye
with his God, whom he frequently rebukes for his endless bad luck.

"Am I bothering you?" Tevye asks
God, wryly apologizing for speaking from the home I love."

Gallagher and Denise Blank, who

played Tevye's wife Golde, evoked a picture, both humorous and tender, of marital wedded love. This duet was one of the show's best moments.

Other actors also acquitted themselves creditably. Mary Beth Helin was comic and sharp as Yente, the matchmaker; John Schmitt performed the aggrieved butcher, Lazar

Wolf, with notable spirit; and the three pairs of young lovers played out their stories touchingly. Bill Boraczek as Motel the tailor gave a particularly appealing rendition of
"It's a Miracle;" and Ann Harvey as Hodel sang hauntingly of going "far

and by his assurance, unifying the dominate the stage both by his size
and by his assurance, unifying the performances of the actor who plays
Tevye, the milkman. The Student
Players were lucky to have a strappning Tevye and his family. The set was open and flexible, making smooth scene changes, and contributing to
the brisk pace of the show.

Excellent ensemble work also enhanced the pace. The original
choral singing reproduced by Kara
Amis was admirably professional.

The vocal choruses were strong and
sounding, backed with appropriate
defersence by the orchestra. The words of the songs could actually be
heard — which is not always so in
choral singing.

In sum the Notre Dame Student
Players gave the campus an excellent performance of a beloved musical, warming the December chill of
front and finals.

The Observer/Pete Laches

The chorus of "Fiddler on the Roof."

The Observer/Pete Laches

The Observer/Pete Laches

The Observer/Pete Laches
Nebraska’s Rozier wins Heisman Trophy

Associated Press

NEW YORK (AP) - Mike Rozier was worried about graduating from high school. Now he's worried about winning the national collegiate football championship. Along the way, he won a Heisman...
College basketball roundup

No. 7 North Carolina State upset

Associated Press

It was a memorable night for both Ray Meyer and Dean Smith, but perhaps even more memorable for Dell Curry.

While Meyer gained his 700th coaching victory in DePaul's 69-68 triumph over Illinois State and Smith won No. 500 in North Carolina's 88-75 decision over Stanford, Curry got some sweet redemption for himself and Virginia Tech in Tuesday night's game.

"We felt we had a lot to prove as well for Perry Young, who had missed four straight free throws that allowed West Virginia to rally and force Friday night's extra period."

"It was really down because I felt like we lost the game for last night," said Young, who scored 22 points Saturday night. "But the coaches and the players helped me get ready for tonight."

In other games Saturday involving the nation's ranked teams, No. 5 Kentucky topped Indiana 59-54; No. 6 Georgetown walloped St. Francis, Pa., 84-61; No. 4 Memphis State defeated the University of Detroit 90-65; 15th-ranked Iowa trimmed No. 10 Oregon State 56-45; No. 6 Maryland swept Cincinnati 77-55, No. 8 Houston stopped Biscayne 69-51 and No. 9 UCLA edged Notre Dame 98-60.

Also, 11th-ranked Michigan State crushed Illinois-Chicago 99-82; 12th-ranked Louisiana State beat Texas A&M 75-65; 15th-ranked Boston College turned back New Hampshire 97-64; 18th-ranked Wichita State routed Hawaii 89-68; 19th-ranked St. John's crushed Columbia 78-58 and No. 20 Virginia Commonwealth downed East Carolina 75-44.

Although the Wolfpack enjoyed a slight height advantage, they shot only 37 percent and committed 23 fouls. Even so, their defensive effort forced the Flames to 21-for-56 shooting.

Terriers to either rush their shots or shoot from outside their normal range. The St. Francis frontcourt of Jeff Hamilton, Joe Sharley and Jim Conway, who came in to the contest averaging 47 points a game, were held to just one field goal in the first half.

Keith Lee scored 22 points and grabbed 14 rebounds, leading Georgetown over St. Francis. Ewing, dominating play at both ends of the court, scored eight points, blocked three shots and credited with a steal in the first nine minutes as the Hoyas raced to a 20-8 lead they never relinquished.

Defensively, Ewing forced the Terriers to either rush their shots or shoot from outside their normal range. The St. Francis frontcourt of Jeff Hamilton, Joe Sharley and Jim Conway, who came in to the contest averaging 47 points a game, were held to just one field goal in the first half.

Keith Lee scored 22 points and grabbed 14 rebounds, leading Georgetown over St. Francis. Ewing, dominating play at both ends of the court, scored eight points, blocked three shots and credited with a steal in the first nine minutes as the Hoyas raced to a 20-8 lead they never relinquished.

Defensively, Ewing forced the Terriers to either rush their shots or shoot from outside their normal range. The St. Francis frontcourt of Jeff Hamilton, Joe Sharley and Jim Conway, who came in to the contest averaging 47 points a game, were held to just one field goal in the first half.

Keith Lee scored 22 points and grabbed 14 rebounds, leading Georgetown over St. Francis. Ewing, dominating play at both ends of the court, scored eight points, blocked three shots and credited with a steal in the first nine minutes as the Hoyas raced to a 20-8 lead they never relinquished.

Defensively, Ewing forced the Terriers to either rush their shots or shoot from outside their normal range. The St. Francis frontcourt of Jeff Hamilton, Joe Sharley and Jim Conway, who came in to the contest averaging 47 points a game, were held to just one field goal in the first half.

Keith Lee scored 22 points and grabbed 14 rebounds, leading Georgetown over St. Francis. Ewing, dominating play at both ends of the court, scored eight points, blocked three shots and credited with a steal in the first nine minutes as the Hoyas raced to a 20-8 lead they never relinquished.

Defensively, Ewing forced the Terriers to either rush their shots or shoot from outside their normal range. The St. Francis frontcourt of Jeff Hamilton, Joe Sharley and Jim Conway, who came in to the contest averaging 47 points a game, were held to just one field goal in the first half.

Keith Lee scored 22 points and grabbed 14 rebounds, leading Georgetown over St. Francis. Ewing, dominating play at both ends of the court, scored eight points, blocked three shots and credited with a steal in the first nine minutes as the Hoyas raced to a 20-8 lead they never relinquished.

Defensively, Ewing forced the Terriers to either rush their shots or shoot from outside their normal range. The St. Francis frontcourt of Jeff Hamilton, Joe Sharley and Jim Conway, who came in to the contest averaging 47 points a game, were held to just one field goal in the first half.

Keith Lee scored 22 points and grabbed 14 rebounds, leading Georgetown over St. Francis. Ewing, dominating play at both ends of the court, scored eight points, blocked three shots and credited with a steal in the first nine minutes as the Hoyas raced to a 20-8 lead they never relinquished.

Defensively, Ewing forced the Terriers to either rush their shots or shoot from outside their normal range. The St. Francis frontcourt of Jeff Hamilton, Joe Sharley and Jim Conway, who came in to the contest averaging 47 points a game, were held to just one field goal in the first half.

Keith Lee scored 22 points and grabbed 14 rebounds, leading Georgetown over St. Francis. Ewing, dominating play at both ends of the court, scored eight points, blocked three shots and credited with a steal in the first nine minutes as the Hoyas raced to a 20-8 lead they never relinquished.

Defensively, Ewing forced the Terriers to either rush their shots or shoot from outside their normal range. The St. Francis frontcourt of Jeff Hamilton, Joe Sharley and Jim Conway, who came in to the contest averaging 47 points a game, were held to just one field goal in the first half.

Keith Lee scored 22 points and grabbed 14 rebounds, leading Georgetown over St. Francis. Ewing, dominating play at both ends of the court, scored eight points, blocked three shots and credited with a steal in the first nine minutes as the Hoyas raced to a 20-8 lead they never relinquished.

Defensively, Ewing forced the Terriers to either rush their shots or shoot from outside their normal range. The St. Francis frontcourt of Jeff Hamilton, Joe Sharley and Jim Conway, who came in to the contest averaging 47 points a game, were held to just one field goal in the first half.

Keith Lee scored 22 points and grabbed 14 rebounds, leading Georgetown over St. Francis. Ewing, dominating play at both ends of the court, scored eight points, blocked three shots and credited with a steal in the first nine minutes as the Hoyas raced to a 20-8 lead they never relinquished.

Defensively, Ewing forced the Terriers to either rush their shots or shoot from outside their normal range. The St. Francis frontcourt of Jeff Hamilton, Joe Sharley and Jim Conway, who came in to the contest averaging 47 points a game, were held to just one field goal in the first half.

Keith Lee scored 22 points and grabbed 14 rebounds, leading Georgetown over St. Francis. Ewing, dominating play at both ends of the court, scored eight points, blocked three shots and credited with a steal in the first nine minutes as the Hoyas raced to a 20-8 lead they never relinquished.

Defensively, Ewing forced the Terriers to either rush their shots or shoot from outside their normal range. The St. Francis frontcourt of Jeff Hamilton, Joe Sharley and Jim Conway, who came in to the contest averaging 47 points a game, were held to just one field goal in the first half.

Keith Lee scored 22 points and grabbed 14 rebounds, leading Georgetown over St. Francis. Ewing, dominating play at both ends of the court, scored eight points, blocked three shots and credited with a steal in the first nine minutes as the Hoyas raced to a 20-8 lead they never relinquished.
NFL roundup

Associated Press

The Miami Dolphins, with quarterback Dan Marino suffering a knee injury on the opening kickoff drive, clinched the American Conference East championship and a playoff berth with a 19-17 win over the 24-17 National Football League victory over the Houston Oilers yesterday.

In winning their 11th AFC East title, the Dolphins became the fourth team to sew up a playoff berth this season, along with the Los Angeles Raiders, Washington Redskins and Dallas Cowboys.

But the victory might be a costly one for the Dolphins, who lost Marino, their sensational rookie quarterback, near the end of the game.

Meanwhile, other teams continued to scramble for the remaining six playoff berths.

The Buffalo Bills helped their chances for a wild-card berth in the AFC with a 14-9 decision over Kansas City and Green Bay further tightened the National Conference Central race with a 51-26 decision over Chicago. The other two leaders in the NFC central, Minnesota and Detroit, meet tonight.

The Philadelphia Eagles stalled the Los Angeles Rams playoff bid with a 1-5-9 upset and the San Francisco 49ers climbed back into a first-place tie with the Rams in the NFC West by beating Tampa Bay 35-21.

The AFC central race stayed tight as the front-running Pittsburgh Steelers lost 24-17 to Cleveland both lost yesterday. The Steelers losing 23-10 to Cincinnati and the Browns dropping a 27-6 decision to Denver. The Steelers lead the Browns by one game with a 9-5 record to Cleveland's 8-6.

In other action, Washington hammered the Atlanta Falcons 57-21, the New England Patriots stopped the New Orleans Saints 7-0, the St. Louis Cardinals trimmed the New York Giants 10-7, the Dallas Cowboys whipped the Seattle Seahawks 35-10 and the New York Jets downed the Baltimore Colts 10-3.

The day's results brought to five the number of teams eliminated from the playoffs -- Baltimore, Atlanta, Cincinnati, Kansas City and San Diego.

Tony Nathan ran 5 yards for the winning touchdown with 3:51 left to "rally" Miami from a 1-7 third-quarter deficit. The Dolphins, 10-4, drove 82 yards for the game-winning touchdown in an emasculated drive that included three Miami fumbles. Marino left the game with a knee injury on the play before Nathan's touchdown run.

"It was getting to be more and more of a situation in which we had to control our destiny," Nathan said of the final Dolphin drive. "Our backs were against the wall but we took control of our destiny." Miami Coach Don Shula said his team had to overcome a lack of emotion in the first half, when the Oilers led 14-0.

"We talk all week about emotion and then we get out there and get knocked around," Shula said. "The Oilers have nothing to lose and they go all out. Everything seemed to happen on our side of the line in the first half." Mike Kennedy returned an interception of a Bill Kenney pass 22 yards for a fourth period touchdown and Joe Carr ran for a career-high 175 yards to lift Buffalo over Kansas City. With quarterback Joe Ferguson completing only six of 16 passes for 76 yards, Carribbies provided most of the Buffalo offense with a career-high 56 rushes as the Bills, second in the AFC east, improved their record to 8-6.

Jim Stemenick kicked a 19-yard field goal with three seconds left to lift Green Bay over Chicago. The victory gave the Packers a 5-7 record, one game behind Detroit and Minnesota, tied at 7-6.

Quarterback Ron Jaworski's 29 yard touchdown pass to Tony Woodrell with 21 seconds left rallied Philadelphia over the Rams and stopped the Eagles' seven-game losing streak. Los Angeles' Eric Dickerson tied a rookie record with his 16th 100-yard plus game.

Wendell Tyler ran for 102 yards and rookie halfback Roger Craig powered his way to three touchdowns, giving San Francisco quarterback Joe Montana welcome support as the 49ers returned to first place by beating Tampa Bay. With two weeks remaining in the regular season, the 49ers and Rams share the lead in the NFC west race with 8-6 records.

Cincinnati turned a pair of first-quarter Pittsburgh turnovers into Pete Johnson touchdown runs and an early 14-6 lead and the Bengals went on to beat the slumping Steelers, who lost for the third straight time after seven consecutive wins. A victory would have assured the Steelers of at least a wild-card playoff berth.

Rookie quarterback John Elway fired touchdown passes of 39 and 49 yards to rookie wide receiver Clint Sampson, keeping Denver's playoff hopes alive with a win over the Browns. The victory gave Denver an 8-6 mark and the possibility of a wild-card berth.

Joe Theismann passed for three touchdowns and kicker Mark Moseley set an NFL scoring record as Washington beat turnover-prone Atlanta.

Moseley kicked three field goals and four conversions for 15 points, giving him 147 points for the year. That surpassed the non-touchdown record of 145 by Jim Turner of the 1968 New York Jets. The overall record is 176 by Paul Hornung for Green Bay in 1960.

Tony Callins scored on a 3-yard run after Ricky Smith returned the opening kickoff 53 yards, and the New England Patriots overcame snow, slush and heavy rain to beat New Orleans.

Neil Lomax fired a 20-yard touchdown pass to Roy Green while rookie Lionel Washington recovered a fumble and intercepted Miami 10-40.714 324 212 Washington 12 2 0 .857 452 287

Thursday's Results

L.A. Rams 27, Cincinatti 10

Miami 24, Houston 17

Green Bay 31, Chicago 28

Buffalo 14, Kansas City 9

New York Jets 10, Baltimore 6

Denver 27, Cleveland 6

Minnesota at Detroit

Miami 24, Houston 17

Green Bay 31, Chicago 28

Buffalo 14, Kansas City 9

New York Jets 10, Baltimore 6

Denver 27, Cleveland 6

NFL Standings

AMERICAN CONFERENCE

East

W L T Pct. PF PA

New England 10 6 0 .625 493 269

New York 10 6 0 .625 396 260

Green Bay 9 7 0 .581 396 407

Baltimore 8 8 0 .429 225 323

Washington 7 8 1 385 479 300

Cleveland 6 9 1 464 309 397

Kansas City 6 9 1 .429 324 413

St. Louis 5 9 1 .357 303 394

Baltimore 8 6 0 .571 259 297

Cincinnati 6 8 0 429 315 273

Chicago 6 8 0 429 269 267

Dallas 6 8 0 .571 315 293

San Francisco 6 8 0 .571 367 266

San Diego 5 9 0 .357 303 394

Tuesday's Game

Minnesota at Denver
Fate

Across
26 What a woman
29 Headphone
31 Isotope
32 Exile isle
38 A ruler
40 Old Norse
42 Verse
44 New York
45 Tools
46 Words with music
50 Letter of time
51 Gem
52 Past
53 Cairo's
54 Coty partner
55 Comes
56 Saudi
57 Music agcy.
58 Ms. Chase
59 Radar
60 Entry
61 Without
62 Choice
63 Miami's county
district
64 Illinois
65 Idaho
66 Stab
67 Hades
68 — we forget
69 Washington
70 Stuff

Down
1 Woe is me!
2 Light
3 White
4 600 col.
5 British
6 Soldier
7 Mute
8 Dined
9 Pompous one
10 Suit to
11 Mystery
12 Mariner's
13 Borrough in
14 Skirt
15 Heroes
16 Age
17 Garden verse
18 Air speed
19 Arthur
20 Flowers
21 Sandra
22 Reddish
23 Water
24 Garden
25 — we forget
26 Navy
27 — we forget
28 Prim and
29 Number payment
30 Coach
31 Break
32 Popular
33 Monk's
34 Daughter
35 Beach
36 Declare choice
37 Something
38 Runs county
39 Beach
40 Name payment

Saturday's Solution

Why do we want to be a driving board for Boston college?

Bloom County

Bus Trip
Chicago Christmas Shopping Trip

Sunday, Dec. 11
Tickets: $9

- Donuts and Soda will be provided on the bus
- Tickets on sale at the Student Union Record Store Dec. 5-6

Sponsored by the SJ Social Commission

Bus Trip Chicago Christmas Shopping Trip

Sunday, Dec. 11
Tickets: $9

- Donuts and Soda will be provided on the bus
- Tickets on sale at the Student Union Record Store Dec. 5-6

Sponsored by the SJ Social Commission

Student Union takes you to:
- FI. Lauderdale
- Including: "I nights banquet Yankee Trader
- Round trip motor coach

$289

Start thinking about spring break!!!

Berge Breathed

Monday, December 5, 1983 — page 11

ACROSS
1 Menu words
4 Short distance
8 Way off
12 Israeli cut
16 Heroes
17 Garden
sauce
18 Spots
19 Air speed
number
21 Sandra
or Ruby
22 Reddish
crown
24 Lamar of a time
26 Onet's land
29 Hair oil
31 Antique
car
32 Popular
34 Dames
36 Declare
dumber
37 Month
40 Old Norse
verse
41 Award
43 Braves
45 Press for payment
46 Words with music
48 Able to see in the dark
50 Account
ments
51 Gem
52 Past
53 Cairo's
54 Coty partner
55 Comes
56 Saudi
57 Music agcy.
58 Ms. Chase
59 Radar
60 Entry
61 Without
62 Choice
63 Miami's county
district
64 Illinois
65 Idaho
66 Stab
67 Hades
68 — we forget
69 Washington
70 Stuff

Down
1 Woe is me!
2 Light
3 White
4 600 col.
5 British
6 Soldier
7 Mute
8 Dined
9 Pompous one
10 Suit to
11 Mystery
12 Mariner's
13 Borrough in
14 Skirt
15 Heroes
16 Age
17 Garden verse
18 Air speed
number
19 Arthur
20 Flowers
21 Sandra
22 Reddish
23 Water
24 Garden
25 — we forget
26 Navy
27 — we forget
28 Prim and
29 Number payment
30 Coach
31 Break
32 Popular
33 Monk's
34 Daughter
35 Beach
36 Declare choice
37 Something
38 Runs county
39 Beach
40 Name payment

Saturday's Solution

Why do we want to be a driving board for Boston college?

The Daily Crossword

ACROSS
1 Menu words
4 Short distance
8 Way off
12 Israeli cut
16 Heroes
17 Garden
sauce
18 Spots
19 Air speed
number
21 Sandra
or Ruby
22 Reddish
crown
24 Lamar of a time
26 Onet's land
29 Hair oil
31 Antique
car
32 Popular
34 Dames
36 Declare
dumber
37 Month
40 Old Norse
verse
41 Award
43 Braves
45 Press for payment
46 Words with music
48 Able to see in the dark
50 Account
ments
51 Gem
52 Past
53 Cairo's
54 Coty partner
55 Comes
56 Saudi
57 Music agcy.
58 Ms. Chase
59 Radar
60 Entry
61 Without
62 Choice
63 Miami's county
district
64 Illinois
65 Idaho
66 Stab
67 Hades
68 — we forget
69 Washington
70 Stuff

Down
1 Woe is me!
2 Light
3 White
4 600 col.
5 British
6 Soldier
7 Mute
8 Dined
9 Pompous one
10 Suit to
11 Mystery
12 Mariner's
13 Borrough in
14 Skirt
15 Heroes
16 Age
17 Garden verse
18 Air speed
number
19 Arthur
20 Flowers
21 Sandra
22 Reddish
23 Water
24 Garden
25 — we forget
26 Navy
27 — we forget
28 Prim and
29 Number payment
30 Coach
31 Break
32 Popular
33 Monk's
34 Daughter
35 Beach
36 Declare choice
37 Something
38 Runs county
39 Beach
40 Name payment

Saturday's Solution

Why do we want to be a driving board for Boston college?
Irish women get big win over UCLA behind Bastes, Scheuth

By MIKE SULLIVAN

Sports Editor

There's a familiar saying that goes, "Good things come to those who wait." In the case of Notre Dame's women's basketball team, that saying was on full display on Monday.

The Irish defeated the UCLA Bruins 61-57, extending their winning streak to four games and improving their overall record to 16-9. Notre Dame was led by senior forward Kelly Faris, who scored 15 points, grabbed 11 rebounds, and dished out three assists.

"We were very aggressive against them," said Mike Baur, head coach of the Irish. "We didn't let UCLA get into any rhythm and forced them to make bad shots."

The Irish took a 14-13 lead into halftime and never looked back, outscoring the Bruins 33-30 in the second half. They were led by a balanced scoring attack, with eight players scoring at least five points.

"Our defense was key," said Baur. "We held UCLA to just 30 percent shooting from the field and 20 percent from beyond the arc."

Freshman guard Madison Cable added 12 points and four assists, while sophomore guard Ali Galbas scored 12 points and grabbed six rebounds.

"We knew UCLA was going to be a tough team," said Cable. "But we stuck to our game plan and pushed the ball inside.

The Irish will look to build on this momentum as they prepare to face Saint Mary's in their next game.

UCLA tops Irish

Fields silences Notre Dame crowd

By BEFF BLUM

Assistant Sports Editor

The UCLA Bruins defeated the Notre Dame Fighting Irish 88-61 on Monday night, silencing a crowd that had been cheering for the Irish all day.

"We were very, very aggressive against them," said UCLA head coach Steve Alford. "We were able to get easy baskets and forced Notre Dame to turn over the ball 14 times.

"It was a total team effort," added Alford. "Everyone contributed and we were able to dominate from start to finish.

The Bruins were led by senior guard Jordan Adams, who scored a game-high 27 points and grabbed six rebounds.

"I was fired up and ready to play my role as a sixth man," said Adams. "I knew we had to come out and play with energy from the start.

Fields had a big game for UCLA, scoring 21 points and grabbing seven rebounds.

"I was ready to go," said Fields. "I knew I had to be aggressive and get to the basket.

The win was a big one for UCLA, who improved to 17-4 on the season and 4-1 in conference play.

With the win, UCLA remained in the top 10 of the Associated Press poll, while Notre Dame fell to 13-5. The Bruins will look to continue their winning streak as they prepare to face Stanford on Thursday.

Belles salvage a split at Goshen College

By DAVE WILSON

Sports Writer

Facing strong squads from both Defiance and Franklin College, the Saint Mary's basketball team returned from this weekend's Goshen College Classic with a win and a loss. The Belles were upset 76-56 by Defiance Friday night, but rebounded to Goshen the following afternoon to take a last second 65-62 victory away from Franklin.

"I told the team before the weekend that I would be happy with a split," said head coach Mike Rouse. "We were never mentally in the game, see the story at right.

The Belles were led by senior guard Kelly Faris, who scored 15 points, grabbed 11 rebounds, and dished out three assists.

"We're very, very aggressive against them," said Rouse. "We didn't let UCLA get into any rhythm and forced them to make bad shots."

The Irish took a 14-13 lead into halftime and never looked back, outscoring the Bruins 33-30 in the second half. They were led by a balanced scoring attack, with eight players scoring at least five points.

"Our defense was key," said Baur. "We held UCLA to just 30 percent shooting from the field and 20 percent from beyond the arc."

Freshman guard Madison Cable added 12 points and four assists, while sophomore guard Ali Galbas scored 12 points and grabbed six rebounds.

"We knew UCLA was going to be a tough team," said Cable. "But we stuck to our game plan and pushed the ball inside.

The Irish will look to build on this momentum as they prepare to face Saint Mary's in their next game.

UCLA eventually worked itself out to a 6-2 lead, before Tom Sluby's layup off a Joseph Price steal and Price's one free throw 32 seconds later brought Notre Dame back to 6- 5 and the crowd to a fever pitch.

"But then Fields hit a three," said Baur. "The 6'7" senior forward of the Bruins made the shot that would decide the game, this time by hitting a jumper over Sluby, then driving down to Montel Hatcher for a basket, and finally taking it back in for a layup.

"The loss was a tough one," said Baur. "But we have a lot of experience on our team and we will bounce back.

Eight of the Belles scored at least four points, with senior forward Kelly Faris leading the way with 15 points.

"I am proud of my team," said Rouse. "They played hard and gave it their all.

The Belles will play again on Saturday, January 21. Meanwhile, Saint Mary's returns to Angela Athletic Facility Tuesday night to face the team from Hope College.