Hart fogged in at South Bend

Special to The Observer

Democratic Presidential contender Gary Hart made an unexpected stop at South Bend last night when his plane was fogged in en route to Chicago.

"Speaking at Michiana Regional Airport during his one-hour delay, Hart said he was unsure whether Senator John Glenn's decision to drop out of the race would help his campaign, but he noted "many of Glenn's supporters have already come across to us." Hart said he was unable to know what the exact effect will be," Hart said.

The stopover in South Bend hampered Hart's plans to attend a fund-raising dinner that was being held at the Conrad-Hilton in Chicago. Local newspaper reporters hurried to the airport to interview Hart as the national campaign reporters who travel with Hart from one stop to another were forced to wait.

Hart said his campaign has always struggled with issues of logistics and said he would be dealing practically with problems surrounding transportation, personnel, the environment and the economy. "I'm afraid we came across to us," Hart said, "as if we were a year ago," Hart said.

Hart said his campaign has always struggled with issues of logistics and said he would be dealing practically with problems surrounding transportation, personnel, the environment and the economy. "I'm afraid we came across to us," Hart said, "as if we were a year ago," Hart said.

The Observer/Lev. Chapelsky

Hart fogged in at South Bend

Special to The Observer

Democratic Presidential contender Gary Hart made an unexpected stop at South Bend last night when his plane was fogged in en route to Chicago.

"Speaking at Michiana Regional Airport during his one-hour delay, Hart said he was unsure whether Senator John Glenn's decision to drop out of the race would help his campaign, but he noted "many of Glenn's supporters have already come across to us." Hart said he was unable to know what the exact effect will be," Hart said.

The stopover in South Bend hampered Hart's plans to attend a fund-raising dinner that was being held at the Conrad-Hilton in Chicago. Local newspaper reporters hurried to the airport to interview Hart as the national campaign reporters who travel with Hart from one stop to another were forced to wait.

Hart said his campaign has always struggled with issues of logistics and said he would be dealing practically with problems surrounding transportation, personnel, the environment and the economy. "I'm afraid we came across to us," Hart said, "as if we were a year ago," Hart said.

The Observer/Lev. Chapelsky

Hart fogged in at South Bend

Special to The Observer

Democratic Presidential contender Gary Hart made an unexpected stop at South Bend last night when his plane was fogged in en route to Chicago.

"Speaking at Michiana Regional Airport during his one-hour delay, Hart said he was unsure whether Senator John Glenn's decision to drop out of the race would help his campaign, but he noted "many of Glenn's supporters have already come across to us." Hart said he was unable to know what the exact effect will be," Hart said.

The stopover in South Bend hampered Hart's plans to attend a fund-raising dinner that was being held at the Conrad-Hilton in Chicago. Local newspaper reporters hurried to the airport to interview Hart as the national campaign reporters who travel with Hart from one stop to another were forced to wait.

Hart said his campaign has always struggled with issues of logistics and said he would be dealing practically with problems surrounding transportation, personnel, the environment and the economy. "I'm afraid we came across to us," Hart said, "as if we were a year ago," Hart said.

The Observer/Lev. Chapelsky

Hart fogged in at South Bend

Special to The Observer

Democratic Presidential contender Gary Hart made an unexpected stop at South Bend last night when his plane was fogged in en route to Chicago.

"Speaking at Michiana Regional Airport during his one-hour delay, Hart said he was unsure whether Senator John Glenn's decision to drop out of the race would help his campaign, but he noted "many of Glenn's supporters have already come across to us." Hart said he was unable to know what the exact effect will be," Hart said.

The stopover in South Bend hampered Hart's plans to attend a fund-raising dinner that was being held at the Conrad-Hilton in Chicago. Local newspaper reporters hurried to the airport to interview Hart as the national campaign reporters who travel with Hart from one stop to another were forced to wait.

Hart said his campaign has always struggled with issues of logistics and said he would be dealing practically with problems surrounding transportation, personnel, the environment and the economy. "I'm afraid we came across to us," Hart said, "as if we were a year ago," Hart said.

The Observer/Lev. Chapelsky

Hart fogged in at South Bend

Special to The Observer

Democratic Presidential contender Gary Hart made an unexpected stop at South Bend last night when his plane was fogged in en route to Chicago.

"Speaking at Michiana Regional Airport during his one-hour delay, Hart said he was unsure whether Senator John Glenn's decision to drop out of the race would help his campaign, but he noted "many of Glenn's supporters have already come across to us." Hart said he was unable to know what the exact effect will be," Hart said.

The stopover in South Bend hampered Hart's plans to attend a fund-raising dinner that was being held at the Conrad-Hilton in Chicago. Local newspaper reporters hurried to the airport to interview Hart as the national campaign reporters who travel with Hart from one stop to another were forced to wait.

Hart said his campaign has always struggled with issues of logistics and said he would be dealing practically with problems surrounding transportation, personnel, the environment and the economy. "I'm afraid we came across to us," Hart said, "as if we were a year ago," Hart said.

The Observer/Lev. Chapelsky

Hart fogged in at South Bend

Special to The Observer

Democratic Presidential contender Gary Hart made an unexpected stop at South Bend last night when his plane was fogged in en route to Chicago.

"Speaking at Michiana Regional Airport during his one-hour delay, Hart said he was unsure whether Senator John Glenn's decision to drop out of the race would help his campaign, but he noted "many of Glenn's supporters have already come across to us." Hart said he was unable to know what the exact effect will be," Hart said.

The stopover in South Bend hampered Hart's plans to attend a fund-raising dinner that was being held at the Conrad-Hilton in Chicago. Local newspaper reporters hurried to the airport to interview Hart as the national campaign reporters who travel with Hart from one stop to another were forced to wait.

Hart said his campaign has always struggled with issues of logistics and said he would be dealing practically with problems surrounding transportation, personnel, the environment and the economy. "I'm afraid we came across to us," Hart said, "as if we were a year ago," Hart said.
In Brief

The residence halls will be locked during the upcoming Spring Break, according to Father Michael Heppens, director of student residences. Access may be gained by key or Deencrypt card. Students remaining on campus should make arrangements with the rector of the dorm. Parents will remain unchanged. The North Dorm dinner hall will close after the noon meal on Friday, and the South Dining Hall will close after dinner. The Oak Room Cafeteria, however, will remain open from 4 p.m. to 7 p.m. daily and 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Sunday. — The Observer

Philip Politowicz, a Ph.D. candidate in chemistry at Notre Dame, has been selected as a NATO Postdoctoral Fellow. The fellowship program, initiated in 1959 in an effort to advance research in Europe, provides its recipients with full-time postgraduate work at institutions and laboratories around the world. Politowicz, a native of Glen Ridge, N.J., is among the students who were selected from the physical sciences. He will receive a stipend of $1,500 a month for up to 12 months, and will continue study next year at Oxford University in Cambridge, England. — The Observer

Father Walter Burghardt, theologian-in-residence at Georgetown University, has been named first recipient of the Reverend William A. Toohey National Award for Distinquished Preaching. The Toohey Award honors the memory of Notre Dame's director of Campus Ministry from 1970 until his death in October 1980. Burghardt will visit Notre Dame April 8 to receive the award and to preach at the 12:15 p.m. Sunday Mass at Sacred Heart Church. Burghardt was ordained in 1941 and holds degrees from Woodstock College and Catholic University of America. He is editor of Theological Studies and co-editor of Ancient Christian Writers. — The Observer

Experts said the odds were in 700 million that identical twins Marthus Moran Messersmith and Sudie Moran Rigdon of Marion, Indiana, would both celebrate their 100th birthday. The sisters born March 14, 1884 marked the century mark Wednesday at Heather Village nursing home where both have lived for over two years. "Nothing special," Mrs. Messersmith said. "Just our family and a few gifts." — AP

A fractious Senate Judiciary committee, whose chairman promised that "there will be no cover-up," agreed yesterday to open new hearings next week on Edwin Meese III's nomination, sidetracked after President Reagan's top policy adviser said he had "inadvertently failed" to tell the committee points for men who had helped Meese get out of financial difficulties. "There will be no cover-up," pledged the committee chairman, Strom Thurmond, R-S.C. — AP

Two promising new products of genetic engineering are being tested on Boston AIDS patients in an effort to "rearm" their weakened immune systems so they can fight off germs that otherwise would ultimately kill them. The two substances, both natural human proteins which help regulate the body's immune response, were in tests for a year at Oxford University in Cambridge, England. — The Observer

It's about time to head away from this weather. Golden today; winds and partly sunny, with the high in the mid or upper 60s. Partly cloudy and cooler tonight, with the low in the mid or upper 50s. Variable cloudiness and continued cool tomorrow. High in the low-mid 60s. — The Observer

One might not think Notre Dame President Father Theodore Hesburgh and long-dead Louisiana tycoon Harry P. Long have much in common. After all, Hesburgh is Roman Catholic, and Long garnered much anti-Catholic support when he was governor and senator in Louisiana from 1928 to 1935. But when it comes to education, the two have much in common. Louisiana State University was made a first-rate university thanks to Long. Similarly, Notre Dame was little more than a football school living off of the legend of Knute Rockne and Frank Leahy when Hesburgh became president in 1953. As soon as Hesburgh took the reins, he made the University turn in its pigeon for shrewsby by getting rid of Leahy and Rockne. He opened the University to be the greatest Roman Catholic university in the nation. Hesburgh has fulfilled his dream — in every recent survey of colleges and universities, Notre Dame ranks highest among all Roman Catholic universities. But like father, like son, Long does not want to lose control of a university he built from literally nothing. Hesburgh, instead of accepting a position whereby he could travel around the world and leave all the day-to-day chores of the University to a younger member of the family, said he would form the University of Notre Dame, Inc., a corporation whose board will select the President. — The Observer

Paul McGinn Executive Editor

The Observer Note

The views expressed in the Inside column are the views of the author, and do not necessarily reflect the views of the editorial board or staff.
Wisconsin sociology professor gets
White Chair in Arts and Letters

Special to The Observer

Dr. Maureen Hallinan, professor of sociology at the University of Wisconsin, Madison, will assume the William P. and Hazel B. White Chair in Arts and Letters at Notre Dame. The appointment is effective next fall, according to Provost Timothy O'Meara.

Hallinan is the second woman named to an endowed professorship at Notre Dame. She joins another sociologist, Dr. Joan Aldous, who was appointed to the William R. Kenan, Jr., Chair in Sociology in 1978.

A faculty member of the University of Wisconsin's sociology department since 1972, Hallinan received her bachelor's degree in mathematics from Marymount College, a master's degree in mathematics from Notre Dame and a joint Ph.D. in sociology and education from the University of Chicago.

She has been a visiting professor at the University of Chicago and Madison. Hallinan said cooperation with the new laws was also a problem. Hesburgh noted, especially in Mississippi, again, the pressure applied by the commission and its supporters in Washington spurred a reaction to the bills in state governments as well as in private industry.

Support from the oval office did not carry over into the Nixon administration, said Hesburgh. He was appointed to chair the commission in 1969, only to be fired a few years later when Nixon vented his feelings over some strong positions Hesburgh had taken as chairperson.

The Ford and Carter Administrations contributed little to the civil rights movement, Hesburgh said, and the Reagan Administration's rule "has not been a happy time for human rights, either abroad or here," he said.

The United States Civil Rights Commission was disbanded a few years ago, but it has recently been reformed with all new people. Hesburgh is pessimistic about its future.

"As it is presently constituted, you can forget about it," he said. But he insisted that the strides of the past cannot be erased, and he ended on a positive note: "I have a lot of hope for America."

Making a clean break
Sophomores Tim Dahl (foreground) and Ed Graber do some last minute washing for spring break in the Foyle Hall laundry room, which was open to men last night.
Who has the right metaphor for it? Is what is happening in the political race a horse race, a dog fight or what? But what does it matter what we call it? Does the metaphor we use express and declare what the Reagan Administration will not — that in school a child can pray any time he or she wants to, that the school merely cannot or should not organize the prayer?

But Hart volunteered his position on school prayer, or he mentioned it in response to the issue. Either way, his position did not check banner headlines or stories devoted to the issue. It was as if no one much cared. Prayer, shyness, or on something else.

Back in Washington, the Congress was tied up in knots on the issue of school prayer. The Reagan Administration, particularly certain of its Democratic members, has taken the Administration to task for killing the bill. If El Salvador at the same time the so-called Death Squads, either aligned with or supported by the government, continue their murderous ways.

The notion that the early primaries voters are more "independent" than in other states is a dubious piece of rhetoric. The "independence" of each consists in following the lead of the voters in the preceding caucus or primary. After Iowa they clustered around the image of other voters who had clustered around Gary Hart, much as groupies follow their favorite rock star to get at the new star. What is being called "momentum" is actually an acceleration effect, close to hysteria, which is part of the psychology of mass feeling.

However, there are schools, some of which are part of our myth of democracy. They are the nation's judges and as actors.

Notre Dame's advocacy of the military is unjust. In agreement with the governor, in keeping with the government, and dedicated to suppression and inhuman treatment of those aligned with or opposed to it, he seems to say.

In its defense, Notre Dame has submitted to the government's will. It may be obscured by the glittering star appeal of TV, but presidential election politics has always been nasty, unforgiving, heartbreaking, ruthless, cunning. It adds the dark element to the exercise of choice in a democracy. But if we are asking for a metaphor the difference today is that it has become a war of images, fought out to the bitter end on a battlefield which is really a room of mirrors.

The Observer

The Observer is the independent, non-profit newpaper published by the students of the University of Notre Dame, the LaSalle and Saint Mary's College. It does not necessarily reflect the policies of the administration of either institution. The Observer is published weekly on Friday mornings. The Observer is a non-profit, student publication. Its purpose is to promote the free expression of a variety of opinions on campus, through letter, encouraged.

Editorial Board

Editor-in-Chief: Vermont Vedeza
Executive Editor: Rachel Skaret
Assistant Editor: Paul McGinn
News Editor: Megen Dobraski
Features Editor: Anna Monatrykh
Viewpoint Editor: Isabel Hain
Photo Editor: Clark Barlow

Business Manager: Christopher Owen
Advertising Manager: Jeanne Poole
Circulation Manager: Mark Morris
Webmaster: Andrew Wachtel

Founded November 3, 1966
Showcase

Letters to a lonely God

The silence treatment

by Rev. Robert Griffin
features columnist

In one of Chaim Potok's novels, a distinguished Hasidic rabbi uses silence as a way of raising his gifted son to be a caring, compassionate adult. Outside of religion, the boy and his father never talk of anything. The son does discover the whole world outside his family, but he is not set to explore once more is nothing even men- tioned to his father, because of the distance they maintain with only the Talmud. The father cares deeply for his son, but he can't reach out to him, or put his arms around him. The boy finds most of his answers, which lie close to his heart, without his father to help him.

By the end of the novel, the reader feels that despite the pain it causes, silence is the most effective way this rabbi could reach his unresponsive son, whom he loved as much as he loved the Masters of the Universe. Now silence is complete it becomes a language full of meaning.

You don't have to be Jewish to use silence as a pedagogical device. It goes unsaid between parents and children. A parent thinks: "This child of mine will never learn this lesson if I don't make him understand the mistake. I could tell him or her a thing."

However, there is a way to be helpful if it were to happen. Children don't always appreciate being pointed at the errors of their ways. Love sometimes means you have to let a kid find out for himself, without interfering.

A parent's pride gets hurt at times. Parents expect to relate to their children, to have their say. One is not the other. Words lay on the table from the other. The parent asks: "My son to be a caring, compassionate adult. You don't have to be Jewish to use silence as a pedagogical device. It goes unsaid between parents and children. A parent thinks: "This child of mine will never learn this lesson if I don't make him understand the mistake. I could tell him or her a thing."

However, there is a way to be helpful if it were to happen. Children don't always appreciate being pointed at the errors of their ways. Love sometimes means you have to let a kid find out for himself, without interfering.

A parent's pride gets hurt at times. Parents expect to relate to their children, to have their say. One is not the other. Words lay on the table from the other. The parent asks: "Junior is his own answers, which lie close to his heart, without his father to help him.

By the end of the novel, the reader feels that despite the pain it causes, silence is the most effective way this rabbi could reach his unresponsive son, whom he loved as much as he loved the Masters of the Universe. Now silence is complete it becomes a language full of meaning.

You don't have to be Jewish to use silence as a pedagogical device. It goes unsaid between parents and children. A parent thinks: "This child of mine will never learn this lesson if I don't make him understand the mistake. I could tell him or her a thing."

However, there is a way to be helpful if it were to happen. Children don't always appreciate being pointed at the errors of their ways. Love sometimes means you have to let a kid find out for himself, without interfering.

A parent's pride gets hurt at times. Parents expect to relate to their children, to have their say. One is not the other. Words lay on the table from the other. The parent asks: "Junior is his own answers, which lie close to his heart, without his father to help him.

By the end of the novel, the reader feels that despite the pain it causes, silence is the most effective way this rabbi could reach his unresponsive son, whom he loved as much as he loved the Masters of the Universe. Now silence is complete it becomes a language full of meaning.

You don't have to be Jewish to use silence as a pedagogical device. It goes unsaid between parents and children. A parent thinks: "This child of mine will never learn this lesson if I don't make him understand the mistake. I could tell him or her a thing."

However, there is a way to be helpful if it were to happen. Children don't always appreciate being pointed at the errors of their ways. Love sometimes means you have to let a kid find out for himself, without interfering.

A parent's pride gets hurt at times. Parents expect to relate to their children, to have their say. One is not the other. Words lay on the table from the other. The parent asks: "Junior is his own answers, which lie close to his heart, without his father to help him.

By the end of the novel, the reader feels that despite the pain it causes, silence is the most effective way this rabbi could reach his unresponsive son, whom he loved as much as he loved the Masters of the Universe. Now silence is complete it becomes a language full of meaning.

You don't have to be Jewish to use silence as a pedagogical device. It goes unsaid between parents and children. A parent thinks: "This child of mine will never learn this lesson if I don't make him understand the mistake. I could tell him or her a thing."

However, there is a way to be helpful if it were to happen. Children don't always appreciate being pointed at the errors of their ways. Love sometimes means you have to let a kid find out for himself, without interfering.

A parent's pride gets hurt at times. Parents expect to relate to their children, to have their say. One is not the other. Words lay on the table from the other. The parent asks: "Junior is his own answers, which lie close to his heart, without his father to help him.

By the end of the novel, the reader feels that despite the pain it causes, silence is the most effective way this rabbi could reach his unresponsive son, whom he loved as much as he loved the Masters of the Universe. Now silence is complete it becomes a language full of meaning.

You don't have to be Jewish to use silence as a pedagogical device. It goes unsaid between parents and children. A parent thinks: "This child of mine will never learn this lesson if I don't make him understand the mistake. I could tell him or her a thing."

However, there is a way to be helpful if it were to happen. Children don't always appreciate being pointed at the errors of their ways. Love sometimes means you have to let a kid find out for himself, without interfering.

A parent's pride gets hurt at times. Parents expect to relate to their children, to have their say. One is not the other. Words lay on the table from the other. The parent asks: "Junior is his own answers, which lie close to his heart, without his father to help him.

By the end of the novel, the reader feels that despite the pain it causes, silence is the most effective way this rabbi could reach his unresponsive son, whom he loved as much as he loved the Masters of the Universe. Now silence is complete it becomes a language full of meaning.

You don't have to be Jewish to use silence as a pedagogical device. It goes unsaid between parents and children. A parent thinks: "This child of mine will never learn this lesson if I don't make him understand the mistake. I could tell him or her a thing."

However, there is a way to be helpful if it were to happen. Children don't always appreciate being pointed at the errors of their ways. Love sometimes means you have to let a kid find out for himself, without interfering.

A parent's pride gets hurt at times. Parents expect to relate to their children, to have their say. One is not the other. Words lay on the table from the other. The parent asks: "Junior is his own answers, which lie close to his heart, without his father to help him.

By the end of the novel, the reader feels that despite the pain it causes, silence is the most effective way this rabbi could reach his unresponsive son, whom he loved as much as he loved the Masters of the Universe. Now silence is complete it becomes a language full of meaning.

You don't have to be Jewish to use silence as a pedagogical device. It goes unsaid between parents and children. A parent thinks: "This child of mine will never learn this lesson if I don't make him understand the mistake. I could tell him or her a thing."

However, there is a way to be helpful if it were to happen. Children don't always appreciate being pointed at the errors of their ways. Love sometimes means you have to let a kid find out for himself, without interfering.

A parent's pride gets hurt at times. Parents expect to relate to their children, to have their say. One is not the other. Words lay on the table from the other. The parent asks: "Junior is his own answers, which lie close to his heart, without his father to help him.

By the end of the novel, the reader feels that despite the pain it causes, silence is the most effective way this rabbi could reach his unresponsive son, whom he loved as much as he loved the Masters of the Universe. Now silence is complete it becomes a language full of meaning.

You don't have to be Jewish to use silence as a pedagogical device. It goes unsaid between parents and children. A parent thinks: "This child of mine will never learn this lesson if I don't make him understand the mistake. I could tell him or her a thing."

However, there is a way to be helpful if it were to happen. Children don't always appreciate being pointed at the errors of their ways. Love sometimes means you have to let a kid find out for himself, without interfering.

A parent's pride gets hurt at times. Parents expect to relate to their children, to have their say. One is not the other. Words lay on the table from the other. The parent asks: "Junior is his own answers, which lie close to his heart, without his father to help him.

By the end of the novel, the reader feels that despite the pain it causes, silence is the most effective way this rabbi could reach his unresponsive son, whom he loved as much as he loved the Masters of the Universe. Now silence is complete it becomes a language full of meaning.

You don't have to be Jewish to use silence as a pedagogical device. It goes unsaid between parents and children. A parent thinks: "This child of mine will never learn this lesson if I don't make him understand the mistake. I could tell him or her a thing."

However, there is a way to be helpful if it were to happen. Children don't always appreciate being pointed at the errors of their ways. Love sometimes means you have to let a kid find out for himself, without interfering.

A parent's pride gets hurt at times. Parents expect to relate to their children, to have their say. One is not the other. Words lay on the table from the other. The parent asks: "Junior is his own answers, which lie close to his heart, without his father to help him.
This is to encourage students to stop beaches for spring break festivities.

The Pit Stops are sponsored by Budweiser and the Indiana and Georgia state highways leading to Florida.

To all visitors, refreshments, tourist information and spring break activities.

The Budweiser Pit Stop will provide free donuts, and highway safety tips at 8:50 a.m. to 8:50 p.m.

Spring break basics: sun, surf and safety

Whether or not Florida is your goal this week, there are some important driving tips to remember for a safe trip:

- Don't exceed the posted speed limit.
- Bring along flashlights, flares and a spare tire, just in case of emergencies.
- Don't drink and drive; and drink in moderation, at all times once you arrive at your vacation spot.
- Don't litter; Hold onto any candy wrappers, empty soda cans and apple cores, until you can deposit them in a proper garbage container (There will be plenty of waste cans at the Budweiser Pit Stops).
- Remember: If you're a responsible driver, you won't become a statistic.

Along with providing safety tips, Budweiser Bosch is also hosting a variety of activities which Budweiser Pit Stops on major interstates highways leading to Florida. This is to encourage students to stop and rest during their trek to the beaches for spring break festivities. The Pit Stops are sponsored by Budweiser and the Indiana and Georgia State Tourism Departments. Each Budweiser Pit Stop will provide free to all visitors, refreshments, tourist information and spring break activity information.

The Stops will be located along I-65 in Huntsville, Al. and I-75 in Valdosta, Ga. and I-95 in Savannah, Ga. on March 16-18, and 23-25.

The sound of New Orleans

Preservation Hall Jazz Band, a group of New Orleans musicians who have created their own spirited sound, will perform at 8 p.m. March 5 in the O'Laughlin Auditorium at Saint Mary's.

Preservation Hall Jazz is sweet, sad, gentle, exuberant music that evolved from turn of the century street parades, saloons and river boats in New Orleans. This special, unique music has an unmistakable beat, but the sound allows the musicians a freedom of phrasing that literally commands audiences to stamp their feet and shout. The musicians determine what selections they will play by the reactions of the audience. No two concerts are the same.

When not on tour, the musicians are based in Preservation Hall, a building in New Orleans' French Quarter that has served as a house, tavern, art gallery and most recently, music hall. One of the most popular attractions in New Orleans, Preservation Hall perpetuates the New Orleans sound.

The concert is the third event in the 1983-84 Saint Mary's Performing Arts Series. Tickets, priced at $5 for general admission and $2 for Saint Mary's students, may be reserved by calling the Saint Mary's ticket office at 284-4620.

For more information about the Patron, Fort Lauderdale and Fort Walton Beach program, vacationers should contact the Chamber of Commerce in each area. Daytona Beach (904/255-0981), Fort Lauderdale (305/462-6000), and Fort Walton Beach (904/244-
Baseball

continued from page 12

Pitchers Mark Clementz, Tom Conlin, Joe Dobosh, and Buster Lopes are the four experienced hurlers remaining on the depleted pitching staff. Jason Schomer, Mark Warze, Steve Powell, John Glecnon, and Kevin Rudge now will have to contribute a great deal.

Even with the abundance of strong players on this squad, Gallo has no visions of one star player. "Strong players on this squad, Gallo has no visions of one star player..." and contribute for us to do well. I hope we have nine leaders out there every game, all doing their job."

The Observer

HOW TO GET YOUR UNCLE TO HELP YOU PAY OFF YOUR COLLEGE LOAN

If you have taken out a National Direct or Guaranteed Student Loan since October 1, 1975, our Loan Forgiveness program will repay 15% of your debt (up to $10,000) or $500 whichever is greater, for each year you serve.

Find out more about how a Reserve Enlistment can help pay for college. call us: SGT Jones 234-4187

ARMY RESERVE, BE ALL YOU CAN BE

Students interested in surveying the North East Neighborhood during break. Please contact: John Kennedy 233-6298

Navy Officers

Get Responsibility Fast.

Sooner or Later
You’ll Get Responsibility Like This.
In The Navy It’s Sooner.

You’re maneuvering 445 feet of guided missile frigate through the navigational hazards and non-stop traffic of one of the world’s busiest ports.

But you’ll dock safely. Because you know your equipment. You know your men. And even when the responsibility weighs in at 3,600 tons...you’re ready.

After four years of college, you’re ready for more responsibility than most civilian jobs offer. Navy officers get the kind of job and responsibility they want, and they get it sooner.

Navy officers are part of the management team after 16 weeks. Instead of boot camp, officer candidates receive four months of leadership training. It’s a professional schooling designed to sharpen their technical and management skills.

Then, in their first assignment, Navy officers get manage-
Sports Briefs

Women's Basketball: Pull-away win on Sunday, March 25; closed a 3-1 record in ACC play and a 13-6 record overall.

Next week, however, Janis will be for his capstone. He is currently competing in a field of 50 of the best men in the country. The competition will be an elimination tournament-round robin, fencing, with six fencers eliminated in each round. The six who make it to the final round will be honored with All-American status.

Next week, however, Janis will be for his capstone. He is currently competing in a field of 50 of the best men in the country. The competition will be an elimination tournament-round robin, fencing, with six fencers eliminated in each round. The six who make it to the final round will be honored with All-American status.

Fencers continued from page 13

qualifying round to win a spot at Princeton.
The last two national championships for Notre Dame in fencing were in 1977 and 78. In each year, the Irish had two fencers finish first, with one taking third and the other fourth in 77 and a foiler also coming in second in 78.

Since 1978, the Irish team has had two first-place finishes both in 1980 and last year. In each of those years, there was a first place finisher for Notre Dame.

There are only four teams that have a chance — us, Wayne State, Penn State, and Columbia,” says Janis. “It’s going to be up for grabs. I’d say that Wayne State is probably the favorite but I think that we have a really good shot at taking it from them.”

“Heath-wise, this may be the first time that we’ll have them all together where they’re all healthy,” says DeCicco, and “they all know what to expect.”

“I think that every one of our fencers will at least have to make the semi-finals and that we’d have to get a couple of people in the finals. That’s the goal.”

DeCicco continues “At least four of our fencers can make it to the nationals. To win the national championship, I think that we will have to have six people in the semi-finals.”

While Notre Dame failed to qualify its women’s team as a “team-athlete co-op,” the Irish will be represented by freshman Pia Albertsson, 57-2, who went undefeated both during the season and at Lakes Championship Qualifying in the NCAA and qualifying in the national championship.

“Pia is in the top ten of the country,” says Janis. “She has a chance to conceivably win it (first place at the NCAA’s as an individual), but she may not have to fence at her very best.”

Next week’s NCAA championships will be the conclusion of the men’s and women’s 1983-84 seasons. For the men, hopefully, the result will be a third national championship.

Associate Press

PHOENIX, Ariz. — Arizona Wranglers Coach George Allen yesterday that he seriously doubts Baltimore Colts owner Robert Irsay will move his National Football League franchise to Phoenix.

"But if Baltimore loses the Colts, it will be a great city for the United States Football League to move in," added Allen. "It would be a tremendous addition to the USFL. That city is blue-collar. They support sports so well, and the Orioles are a good example in baseball."

Eddie Benjamin

"I remember Baltimore when it was a great NFL city, when the Colts had Johnny Unitas and John Mackey. But they've probably had the worst record in football over the past seven years. All you have to do is give them a team that's well-coached and they can turn things around."

Disadvantage or not, Janis has an excellent opportunity to excel at either Phoenix or Indianapolis.

The new Hoosier Dome in Indianapolis awaits a possible NFL team, while the club stadium in Phoenix would have to play in Sun Devil Stadium in Tempe — the home of the Sun Devils.

The Observer Notre Dame issue, located on the third floor of Laxson Student Center, accepts classified advertising from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m., Monday through Friday. The Observer Notre Dame staff is located on the third floor of Haggar College Center, accepts classifieds from 12:30 p.m. until 5 p.m., Monday through Friday. Deadline for next day classifieds is 3 p.m. All classifieds must be prepaid, either in person or by mail. Charge is 50 cents per character per day.
In 1886, following a shipwreck off the west coast of Africa, an infant child became part of a family of apes who raised and protected him. As he grew, he learned the laws of the jungle and eventually claimed the title, Lord of the Apes. Yet, years later, when he was returned to civilization, he would remain uncertain as to which laws he should obey… those of man… or those of the jungle.

Now, the director of “Chariots of Fire” captures this epic adventure of a man caught between two different worlds.

For those snubbed by NCAA and NIT

Loyola coach sets up tournament

“For those snubbed by NCAA and NIT the Madison Square Garden of the (Madison Square) Garden (site of the finals)”, he added. The Cinderella would represent another valley by Sullivan, but considered a masterpiece by his peers, in this battle in college basketball’s establishment – especially the NIT selection committee. In the two previous seasons, Sullivan’s Ramblers posted records of 17-12 and 19-10. In 1981-82, he groused about the NIT’s selection of Oral Roberts – which went 18-12. That was backed by Loyola in the Midwestern City Conference’s post-season tournament. He called the selection of last year’s NIT field “sharply bad,” claiming Loyola should have been picked ahead of all three Midwestern centres – DePaul (17-11 and beaten by the Ramblers), Northwestern (16-12) and Notre Dame (19-9 against competition Sullivan considers weaker than his own schedule.)

Last week, Sullivan suggested Loyola snub the NIT, a ploy that was quickly rejected by the school’s administration.

“But I’ve always had faith in what Thomas Jefferson said. ‘That the test of an idea, good or bad, is public exposure.’”

David Cawood, assistant executive director of communications for the NCAA, didn’t hop on either side of the fence.

“I haven’t heard about it happening before. What Sullivan does is his business… I don’t think any response from the NCAA is necessary.”

Arizona governor sees Irssy

PHOENIX, Ariz. – Gov Bruce Babbitt and Phoenix business executives met with Baltimore Colts owner Robert Irssy in Bakersfield, Calif, yesterday to discuss a potential Colts move to Arizona.

“Nothing was decided, but a decision has to come soon for him,” Babbitt told a news conference, “if we can strike a deal that’s good for Arizona State University and Arizona, that’s fine. But I said there wouldn’t be a nickel of taxpayers’ money involved.”

Earlier in Annapolis, the Maryland General Assembly had handed Irssy a concession he had been seeking for several years — the right to start Sunday football games at 1 p.m. in Baltimore Memorial Stadium. And Maryland Gov. Harry Hughes said at a news conference he would sign a concession he had been seeking before. What (Sullivan) does is his business… I don’t think any response from the NCAA is necessary.”

GREYSTOKE — THE LEGEND OF TARZAN

LORD OF THE APES

A HUGH HUDSON FILM Starring RALPH RICHARDSON - JAN HOLL M JAMES FOX and introducing CHRISTOPHER LAMBERT ANDIE MACDO WELL Music by JOHN SCOTT Produced by HUGH HUDSON and STANLEY S. CANTER

Directed by HUGH HUDSON SCENIC ART BY JOHN RANSOM COSTUMES BY LEXI LEWIS Make-up by HOWARD KAYE 20TH-Fox I nternational LORD OF THE APES

“He should be a bowling success for the guys not invited to the big balls (the NCAAs and National Invitation Tournament). We had a better record than 24 of the 32 teams playing in the NIT this year”, said Sullivan, whose Ramblers finished 20-9 this season.

Sullivan has extended bids to the inaugural event to Bucknell (24-5), Illinois-Chicago (22-7), George Mason (21-7), Montana (25-8), Navy (24-8), Samford (22-8), and Ohio University (20-8). And the Cinderella, with each team having more than 20 wins, will expose the backyard discussions and the unfair practices that lets the NIT selectors bring their buddies to

At theaters everywhere Friday, March 30.
With Florida trip golfers hope to repeat history

By JOE BRUNETTI
Sports Writer

Notre Dame golf coach Noel O'Sullivan hopes that history will repeat itself this season for his Irish squad.

In 1979, O'Sullivan's team played impressively and just missed a bid to the NCAA golf championships. That year he took his squad on a "special" trip to Florida which only involved playing rounds of golf with no competition against other teams. O'Sullivan will use the same strategic approach this year, hoping the trip will help bring the Irish an invitation to the NCAA tournament.

"I'm only doing this because I have skill and maturity (in my players)," said O'Sullivan. "I wouldn't do this with a young team. I'm doing this because of my seniors and the overall ability of the players.

O'Sullivan has scheduled the Irish to play the toughest courses in Florida, which are not usually available to college teams this time of year. He has arranged for the Irish to play on such notable courses as Indian Creek Country Club, the Everglades Country Club, and the PGA National Golf Course.

O'Sullivan feels that the trip to Florida will be a good representation of the team's potential this year.

"If our guys can manage these courses well it will give the players and myself an indication of the team we're going to have," commented O'Sullivan. "On paper we're brilliant, but now when we come back we will have a sound understanding of how good we are skill wise."

He feels that the difficulty of the courses in Florida will help his team's performance later in the season.

"These courses have a high degree of difficulty," said the Irish coach. "Playing these courses will give us an emotional stability, build our confidence, and give us an excellent approach for the season."

Dave Moorman

"I want to instill in their minds that if we play the best courses in Florida it will help make them better players," continued O'Sullivan. "It's going to help us in the long run. It has to make us because it did in '79."

Moorman returns as captain this season last year, which included a first, second, and third place finish in tournaments, and three seniors in the starting lineup, no one should wonder why O'Sullivan is so optimistic about his team this year.

This year has one of the best teams that I have coached in my eleven years," said O'Sullivan. "This team is better in skill and attitude towards the game of golf. Sometimes I feel they have more experience among the players, but in this team that is not so." Of the eight monograms earned by the starters, captain Dave Moorman earned one of the success of the Irish will depend on his performance. Moorman placed third in the highly prestigious Florida men's golf tournament last year. O'Sullivan has nothing but words of praise for the senior.

"He's highly respected by his team," said O'Sullivan. "We've best all around captain I could ask for. He performs well on the golf course and in the classroom. He's number one."

Two other seniors, Dave Pangraze and Frank Leyes, will fill out other places in the Irish starting lineup this year. Pangraze has three monograms to his credit, and he finished last year's campaign with an impressive 78.1 stroke average. A South Bend native, he is coming off a junior year in which he owned the Irish's lowest cumulative average.

"These three players are experienced, matured, skilled, and disciplined," praises O'Sullivan. "They have it all. I'm blessed as a coach."

O'Sullivan hopes that competing in this year's Midwestern City Conference Championships will help the Irish reach the NCAA's. "The Irish were members of the MCC last year, but could not compete in the championships because of exams."

"We have a championship to go to and that gives us a better chance," said O'Sullivan. "If we win the championships we will have an excellent chance of going to the NCAA's."

The Irish leave for Florida today. There is no doubt that O'Sullivan hopes he will be able to repeat history.

BISCAYNE COLLEGE SCHOOL OF LAW
Miami, Florida

Biscayne, a new law school, is accepting applications for its first class to begin in August 1984.

The only Catholic law school in the Southeast, Biscayne is ideally located in suburban Miami on a 140 acre campus. The School will offer a three-year, full-time program, with small classes, modern, computerized research facilities, and the opportunity for specialized study in a variety of areas, including international law.

The Biscayne College School of Law intends to seek ABA provisional approval as quickly as possible, which will be after the first year of teaching.

For information write or call: Office of Admissions, Biscayne College School of Law, Dept. W, 16400 NW 32 Ave., Miami, FL 33054. (305) 621-1856.

Biscayne is an equal opportunity Institution.

NBA Standings

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Eastern Conference</th>
<th>Atlantic Division</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Boston</td>
<td>W: 20  L: 16</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Philadelphia</td>
<td>W: 18  L: 18</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>New York</td>
<td>W: 21  L: 15</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>New Jersey</td>
<td>W: 20  L: 16</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Washington</td>
<td>W: 19  L: 17</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Midwest Division</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Milwaukee</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Detroit</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Chicago</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Cleveland</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Indiana</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Western Conference</th>
<th>Pacific Division</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Los Angeles</td>
<td>W: 20  L: 16</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Portland</td>
<td>W: 21  L: 15</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Seattle</td>
<td>W: 21  L: 15</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Denver</td>
<td>W: 23  L: 13</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Golden State</td>
<td>W: 27  L: 9</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Conference Championships</th>
<th>Eastern</th>
<th>Win %</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Midwestern City</td>
<td>0.666</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Mr. Davis

"BRUNOS"

wishes Notre Dame and Saint Mary's a happy Saint Patrick's Day!!

THIS OLD HOUSE PIZZERIA & PUB

BRUNOS

Do You Live

Steadyboy Results

Atlantic Division

Philadelphia 147, Dallas 137
Washington 90, Chicago 86
Atlanta 101, Los Angeles 99
Oklahoma City 104, Baltimore 63
San Antonio 103, Seattle 102
Milwaukee 102, Milwaukee 101
Bismark 101, Detroit 99
Portland 100, Denver 98
Boston 99, Boston 98

Central Division

Detroit 101, Washington 90
Charlotte 100, Chicago 99
Cleveland 99, Cleveland 98
Boston 98, Boston 98

Western Conference

Denver 101, Seattle 99
San Antonio 100, San Antonio 99
Denver 100, Seattle 99

Pacific Division

Portland 101, Sacramento 100
Los Angeles 100, Oakland 99
Denver 99, Portland 99
Seattle 98, Seattle 98

Golden State 101, Golden State 100

THIS OLD HOUSE PIZZERIA & PUB
BRUNOS

277-4519

BRUNOS

548-2200

277-4519

Do You Need a Full Time Summer Job? Do You Live In The Chicago Area?

PSI MARKETING is expanding its Telemarketing Sales Staff to accommodate additional summer college students. In the past, our summer students have earned, on the average, of $150-$525 per week salary/commission during the summer. We offer an extensive training program, great hours, flexible shift schedule, guaranteed salary, and congenial working atmosphere.

What's the Catch?

You must be aggressive, willing to learn, an above average student, and enjoy talking on the phone.

Call our Toll Free number 1-800-621-6426 before Spring Break to set up an interview date while you're in Chicago during your Spring Break. If accepted, you can lock up a summer job ahead of time. Ask for Mr. Davis when calling.
Sports

Notre Dame fencers go for third national championship next week

By MICHAEL J. CHMIEL
Sports Writer

While most of Notre Dame is on break next week, Mike DeCicco will be leading his Irish fencers to Princeton University, where they will be vying for their third national championship in seven years on March 20 and 21 at the 1984 NCAA Men’s Fencing Championships.

DeCicco, head coach of the Notre Dame fencing team with a lifetime record of 411-39, will bring six of his men to compete against fencers from across the country, including the defending national champions, Wayne State.

The Irish lost to Wayne State during this past season, they did manage to overcome the Tarriers in the Great Lakes Championships, which Notre Dame won, and in an NCAA qualifying round, where the Irish took first place in every individual weapon.

"The national champion will probably be decided by the four schools who each have six (or at least four) fencers in the NCAA’s," says DeCicco.

Tennis team faces eight matches in Florida

By ED KONRADY
Sports Writer

Today the resurging Notre Dame men’s tennis is making a traveling south to Florida for their annual spring break trip.

This road trip, however, has its share of perils. The team will face eight matches in nine days. But the biggest perils the Irish must face is eight straight matches against Miami.

Miami, who lost three players to the professional ranks this summer and who are still strong enough to maintain such a high national ranking, will be a tremendous challenge.

"We expect to be tested," said Head Coach Tom Fallon. "We’ll be facing good teams and some weaker ones."

"Hopefully we’ll know more of the caliber of the team after this," said the young Irish who will start their working vacation by playing Biscaire tomorrow. Then it is Florida National, Miami-Dade, and the University of Miami on consecutive days.

Following a needed day of recuperation on Wednesday, the Irish face Central Florida, Rollins, St. Leo, and finally Eckerd on Sunday before returning home.

"Rollins is a good team, and I heard that Central Florida is a tough team," said Fallon. "If we come out with 500 record, I’d consider that pretty successful. It’s more important to see how we adjust to playing outdoors day after day. This will be a good test of our consistency."

The players first chance to show how much their team has improved will be two days later on the Tuesday after break, when the Connecticut team will arrive on the ACC. The match begins at 5 p.m., and, if weather permits, it could be the first home match this season at the Courtney Tennis Center.

Leading Notre Dame’s bid for the national title will be highly favored junior Mike Janis in the saber division. Janis won the gold medal at the Great Lakes Championships on March 5, going undefeated in the process.

Janis, 40-0 this year, was the top Irish fencer in the saber at the 1982 NCAA men’s championships. That year, he finished 18th in a field of 188 fencers from 66 different schools.

That experience as a freshman, along with his improvement and experience gained since then, have made Janis one of the top not top three men in the country.

"I have a shot (at winning the saber competition) but it’s going to be tough," commented Janis. "I just hope I’ll fence my best and get up there."

Joining Janis at Princeton in the saber division will be sophomore Don Johnson. Johnson, who finished fourth in the saber at the Great Lakes Championships, took first in the NCAA qualifying round to earn his spot at the NCA’s. He was 35-6 during the season.

In the foil, the Irish also will be well-represented by two sophomores, Mike VanderVelden, 32-8, and Freshman Dave Ogden, 27-10, who will compete at Princeton.

At Great Lakes VanderVelden and Tom Quaroni, 30-1, finished first and fourth, respectively, while in the NCAA qualifying round the two came in first and second, in the same order. While they have only the experienced from the saber divisions, the combination of their talents and experience gained during the past season should be enough to get them into or beyond the tough semifinal round.

The showing of these two will be crucial to Notre Dame’s chances as a team and the first place finish it hopes to achieve.

"The national championship will be won by strong and talented junior Andy Quarioni, captain of the epee squad with a record of 34-5, finished second at the Great Lakes Championships. Janis also finished first in the NC qualifying round to earn a berth in the national tournament."

Joining Quarioni in the epee will be sophomore Brian St. Clair. St. Clair came in seventh at the Great Lakes tourney but finished third in the NCAA’s.

see FENCERS, page 8

Going for broke

Janis leads fencers to Princeton

By PHIL WOLF
Sports Writer

For many of us, spring break is a time for homecomings, and Notre Dame fencer Mike Janis is another one who will be travelling home next week.

The Franklin, N.J., native will return to his home state to compete in the NCAA Men’s Fencing Championships at Princeton on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Janis, the captain of the men’s fencing team, will be competing in the epee division. Janis qualified for a spot in the NCAA Tournament by winning the regional qualifying round at Great Lakes last weekend.

It was Janis’ first national championship. A review of the NCAA’s as well as a profile of Janis can both be found on this page.

Baseball team opens season with long road trip to Texas

By ERIC S cheuermann
Sports Writer

Pitching will be the question mark as the Notre Dame baseball team opens its 1984 spring season with a long road trip to Texas over spring break.

"We’ve had injuries to our top six pitchers," Brad Croan, senior shortstop and a fourth-year starter, said, "and Dan Naczynski," Head Coach Larry Gallo said, "only four of our nine remaining pitchers really have any experience. I don’t know how they’ll perform."

Yet, even with the inexperienced pitching staff, this spring’s edition of Notre Dame baseball appears to be very promising.

"Defense has been a major strength of the team’s strengths. Although this is a very young team, there is a great deal of experience at the defensive positions, and Gallo is very high on his defense during.

"We should be a very good defensive club," he said. "In fact, we feel the potential to be the best defensive club I’ve ever had here."

This fact will be welcomed by Irish supporters, who watched as an abundance of defensive mistakes led to losses in last year’s campaign.

The team seems to have the ability to develop into a strong hitting squad, but Gallo prefers to remain quiet on his assessment of his sluggers at this time.

"I don’t like to say too much about hitting at this point. We haven’t been in a game situation yet, and I don’t know what they can do. After we get back from this trip, with about twelve games under our belts, I’ll know more."

Gallo does know, however, who will have to perform well for his team to accomplish what he wants. Especially important will be the play of the Irish middle infielders. Junior second baseman Jackie Moran, a third-year starter, and sophomore shortstop Tony Shieds should provide a steady influence for the team. Captain Carl Vuono will be an integral part of the team, both as a leader and as a first baseman. Mike Metzler, Jim Dec, and John Murphy will vie for the starting spot at third base. Metzler and Dec also will provide help at first base.

"We have good depth on our pitching staff and in the field," said Head Coach Larry Gallo.

"We’ll make the starting lineup against Texas."

Dave Clark, Mike Doming, and Brian Gobbs form an imposing trio of catchers that the Irish will be looking for for their third national championship. A review of the NCAA’s as well as a profile of Janis can both be found on this page.

see BASEBALL, page 7