Corrigan advocates morality and fairness in college sports

By MARK DILLON
News Staff

Last night Notre Dame Athletic Director Gene Corrigan spoke on "Morality in Athletics" at the Knights of Columbus Hall. Corrigan spoke briefly on a variety of topics and then opened the floor to questions from a small crowd. Violations of NCAA regulations are decreasing, Corrigan said. When asked about NCAA Executive Director Walter Byers' figure that 50 percent of all NCAA teams violate regulations, Corrigan replied, "If this is so then twenty years ago it was 60 percent."

Corrigan attributed these decreases to the conceptions of university presidents and leaders. Corrigan said conscience is the only effective way to halt the violations. "Look at jails, they don't stop thieves, the only thing that stops the breaking of rules is a conscience," he said.

Corrigan said there is an increasing conscience on the national level that is affecting other athletic areas. Corrigan commented on Duke athletics as well. As an example he used the recent firing of Florida football coach Charlie Pell by the University's president in the face of 108 NCAA violations.

Despite being adamantly opposed to cheating in any form, Corrigan said he understood the reason for some of it. The violations are most apparent in the state universities because of the intense pressure. If Oklahoma loses to Nebraska for five years running it becomes a matter of state pride. Pressure is put on the university and especially the coach to do whatever possible to regain their lost pride. It is this pressure that almost forces a program to cheat, Corrigan said.

"However," said Corrigan, "that kind of pressure does not exist here. As proof he cited an interview with University President Father Theodore Hesburgh. Corrigan said, 'Hesburgh told me in our first meeting that he would put up with a few losing seasons and would stand behind me, but if I ever cheated I would be gone by midnight.'"

Corrigan said he uses the same philosophy with his coaches and for so far it has worked. Notre Dame has never been cited for any violation of NCAA regulations. Corrigan said, "The most important thing is the integrity of the institution, the integrity of the athletic program, and the good opinion of the alumni."

Prompted by question, Corrigan also spoke on the recent intensifying of the women's volleyball program. "In the government's eyes there was a lack of parity with respect to grants-in-aid between male and female. Rather than throwing the money around into different scholarships, it was decided to build the volleyball team into a contender for a national championship," he said.

Corrigan gave two reasons for volleyball being the choice. "First you need an excellent coach and we have one. Second, in talking to volleyball experts, it was discovered that the Beach Volleyball area in the country is Chicago area Catholic schools. For these reasons Corrigan foresees a national contender within four years."

see CORRIGAN, page 4

Reaganomics subject of last night's debate

By SUE FOLEY
News Staff

Reaganomics was defended by Economics Professor Thomas Swartz last night in a debate sponsored by the Election Task Force at the Center for Social Concerns.

Fairness and overall effectiveness were the two key issues explored in the debate.

Swartz blasted Reagan's supply-side economic policy. "We are seeing a recovery led by massive deficits. We simply do not know what the ramifications of these deficits will be," he said.

Noting that the tax breaks for upper income families failed to increase investments as predicted, Swartz said, "Reaganomics failed by creating the worst economic situation since the depression of the '30s."

In explanation of the rising economic indicators of fiscal 1984 he said, "Next to the recession almost anything looks good."

Rakowski defended Reagan's cutbacks in social programs, saying they are neither unjustified nor excessive. Noting that his reputation for being unynepathic to lower-income people was carefully nurtured by opposing parties, Rakowski went on to show that per capita disposable income and real in-kind household transfers both increased during the Reagan years.

In closing Swartz said, "I find it unconceivable for a public official to work against the American people."

see DEBATE, page 4

Neal encouraged by good attitude of students planning social events

By SCOTT BEARY
News Staff

Notre Dame Student Activities Officer Joni Neal said she is "encouraged by the positive attitude. There is no scheduling campus events, at last night's Hall Presidents' Council meeting.

Neal spoke on the opportunities that are available to halls and organizations. She said Lafourche Student Center, Washington Hall, and the Senior-Alumni Club are currently available for renting by campus groups.

Neal listed upcoming movies scheduled to be shown in the engineering auditorium this year. These include "Kramer vs. Kramer", "Star Wars", "The Big Chill", "Romancing the Stone", and "Purple Rain." On a trial basis the Student Activities Office will offer groups the opportunity to travel to Chicago and Indianapolis for various activities.

Neal said these trips would take place on Saturdays and would be partially subsidized by Student Activities in order to alleviate student costs.

In other business the Council discussed the current United Way Drive and the upcoming World Food Day which will take place Oct. 16.

Kevin McGovern, director of the Student Activities Board, discussed upcoming events, including the Nov. 16 concert by The Fixx at the ACC. Tickets are scheduled to go on sale one week from today. There will be no lottery due to lack of time. Tickets will be approximately $12 with a probable limit of six tickets per person, McGovern said.

McGovern also said the campus T-shirt shop is now open for business and taking orders. The Student Activities Board will also be working to compile a list of locations which will and will not sign agreements to take responsibility for off campus events. McGovern said due to a recent directive by the Office of Student Affairs, this agreement must be signed in order for a group to hold an off campus activity.

The Council will announce the August-September Student Festival Award for outstanding hall spirit in the coming weeks.

Oktoberfest to start today at SMC

By PAT CONLIN
News Staff

The annual event Oktoberfest is scheduled to begin at Saint Mary's today. Oktoberfest is a series of events that coincides with the annual Founder's Day celebration. Included in the planned activities are a Beer Garden and the second annual Root Beer Garden for those students under 21.

Today, from 4:30 to 6:15, there will be a beer stein sale in all dorms at Saint Mary's. The steins feature the Saint Mary's College logo.

A country music band will play at a picnic at 4:15 tomorrow in the dining hall. Following this at 6:45 the first annual Hall Olympics will be held in Angelo Athletic Facility. Events will include Twister, Apple Pong, a suspended race, Steal the Pretzel, a sneaker race, the Root Beer obstacle course and a hot dog eating contest.

Teams from McCandless, Regina, LeMans and Holy Cross will compete for a trophy. The Hall Olympics will replace the hall decoration of last year.

Tonight at 9 "The Sound of Music" will be shown in Carroll Hall. This will cost $1.50, and is sponsored by the ski club.

The 'Best Garden' will be tomorrow night from 9 to 11. The Root Beer Garden will be on the lawn in front of Holy Cross and is free of charge.

The beer garden, which will be outside Madeleva Hall, requires a 21 I.D. and will cost $1.
The Amateur Night, comedy contest held last night at the O'Shaughnessy Student Center with the aid of Bern T. Pellegino of Dallas Hall. All of the winners will perform at The Budweiser Comedy Shop to be held Oct. 17, at 8 p.m. in the Laughlin Auditorium, where Pellegino will be the opening act. Second place was taken by Ruth Kwaark, while there was a tie for third place between Avo Green and John Flynn. For their efforts the winners all received cash and Budweiser apparel. - The Observer

No more "Ladies Night" specials at local bars. University of Nebraska-Lincoln according to the student newspaper there. After the state Equal Opportunity Commission issued a complaint to several campus bars, bars dropped their special price nights for women. Others continue, but under names such as "Person's Night" or "Skirt's Night." - The Observer

Corby Tavern is seeking to regain its liquor license. C.T.I., the corporation which owns Corby's, has filed suit against the Indiana Alcohol Beverage Commission asking for judicial review of the Commission's decision to revoke the bar's license. When official-closed bars near the campus, there was no C.T.I. had filed for bankruptcy. A stay order issued by judge prevented the license from being wasted and the bar has remained open since then. No hearing date has been set. - The Observer

Solidarity leader Lech Walesa called on Poland's Communist authorities to restore trade union freedoms in a statement issued Monday for the second anniversary of the outlawing of his labor federation. Walesa, said in a telephone interview that he had no special plans to mark the anniversary of the Oct. 8, 1982, document that Poland's Parliament to ban the 5 million-member independent trade union. The 41-year-old shipyard electrician, who won the 1985 Nobel Peace Prize, said in a statement read to The Associated Press earlier in the day: "Solidarity still exists as an organization, only we cannot officially act. We didn't cease to be Solidarity members, we are still together and that's what continues our strength." - AP

Of Interest

Today's Open Forum topic: economics. The forum will be held Monday for the second anniversary of the outlawing of his labor federation. Walesa, said in a telephone interview that he had no special plans to mark the anniversary of the Oct. 8, 1982, document that Poland's Parliament to ban the 5 million-member independent trade union. The 41-year-old shipyard electrician, who won the 1985 Nobel Peace Prize, said in a statement read to The Associated Press earlier in the day: "Solidarity still exists as an organization, only we cannot officially act. We didn't cease to be Solidarity members, we are still together and that's what continues our strength." - AP

Corby Tavern is seeking to regain its liquor license. C.T.I., the corporation which owns Corby's, has filed suit against the Indiana Alcohol Beverage Commission asking for judicial review of the Commission's decision to revoke the bar's license. When official-closed bars near the campus, there was no C.T.I. had filed for bankruptcy. A stay order issued by judge prevented the license from being wasted and the bar has remained open since then. No hearing date has been set. - The Observer

Weather

Pardy sunny and mild today after the fog lifted this morning. High in the lower to mid '70s. Becoming cloudy tonight with a 20 percent chance of thunder showers tomorrow. Low in the upper 50s. Mostly cloudy with 50 percent chance of showers. - The Observer
Seeking asylum

Jose Sanchez, left, and his family Juan Carlos (2), Carla (4), Claudia (6), and wife Marina prepare to depart Little Rock Monday in a caravan to dramatize the plight of Salvadoran illegal immigrants like themselves.

Police have better test against drunks

Associated Press

GARY, Ind. - Jerky eye movements and poor concentration are telltale signs of drinking that may help police in northwest Indiana to snooze more drunken drivers.

Police in four communities have learned three new field sobriety tests that check involuntary eye movement and the ability to think and balance at the same time.

The National Highway Traffic Safety Administration is trying to make these tests standardized throughout the United States," Highland Sgt. Jerry Toler told the Gary Post-Tribune in a recent interview.

One test looks for a condition called gaze nystagmus - the involuntary, rapid movement of the eyeball. The other tests require the motorist to walk and then turn, and to stand on one leg, while following an officer's instructions.

State law defines a blood-alcohol level of 0.10 percent as legally drunk. Police officers using the old sobriety tests generally can't detect levels of drunkenness ranging from 0.10 percent to 0.15 percent blood-alcohol, Shererville Patrolman Michael Kesie said.

Police say that means many legally drunk motorists go free because the officer can't establish probable cause for the more conclusive breath analysis test.

"Officers will be able to bring in more drivers who are at 0.10 than ever before," Hammond Cpl. Jay Govert said.

In the eye movement test, the officer holds up a pen and asks the motorist to focus on the tip as the officer moves the pen around.

A drunken motorist cannot smoothly track a moving object, and the drunker the motorist, the more difficult the task, police say. The test has long been used by doctors looking for eye abnormalities.

A Gary lawyer who defends motorists charged with driving while intoxicated says the medical principle that undergirds the eye test could make his job more difficult.

"A lot of our attacks on the current field sobriety tests would be nullified with this test," attorney John D. Brecourt said.

Still, jerky eye movements could be caused by the use of legal or illegal drugs or by a medical condition, he said.

Police officers trained in the eye test will also administer the other new field tests - walking and turning, and the one-leg stand. Both require the motorist to follow a series of in­ suctions while maintaining balance.

A manual published by federal safety officials says drunken motorists have difficulty performing such "divided attention" tests.

Saint Mary's appoints new PR director

Lawrence W. Durance, Vice President for College Relations at Saint Mary's, has appointed Paula McLean as Director of Public Relations there.

McLean's professional experience includes work in media relations, special events, publications and community relations in New York and Chicago.

The Publicity Club of Chicago awarded McLean two Golden Trumpet awards for excellence in public relations. She is a former president of Women in Communications, Inc., North Shore (Chicago) Chapter.

SAB Musical Entertainment Presents

THE BANGLES

lve at Stepan Center

Sunday, Oct. 14 at 8:00pm

- toured with Flock of Seagulls
- hit single "Hero Takes a Fall"
- on MTV

tickets: $3.50 in advance

$4.50 at the door

on sale at SAB record store and in Dining Halls

THE IRISH GARDENS

your Screw your Roommate Headquarters

Hours:

12:30-5:30 p.m.

Dial 283-4242 to place an order

Order corsages and wrapped flowers in advance

Two days notice required for corsages

THE KNIGHTS OF THE CASTLE

Men's Hair Styling at its finest minutes from campus

$5.00

HAIRCUTS

Hair must be Shampooed day of cut.

We are only minutes from campus

SENIOR B & BAR

LIVE!!

I. C. HOTT

The BAND, The SOUND

FRIDAY, OCT. 12

10-2am

ICE TEA SPECIAL

$1.35

THE OBSERVER

Wednesday, October 10, 1984 — page 3

Seeking asylum

Jose Sanchez, left, and his family Juan Carlos (2), Carla (4), Claudia (6), and wife Marina prepare to depart Little Rock Monday in a caravan to dramatize the plight of Salvadoran illegal immigrants like themselves.

Police have better test against drunks

Associated Press

GARY, Ind. - Jerky eye movements and poor concentration are telltale signs of drinking that may help police in northwest Indiana to snooze more drunken drivers.

Police in four communities have learned three new field sobriety tests that check involuntary eye movement and the ability to think and balance at the same time.

The National Highway Traffic Safety Administration is trying to make these tests standardized throughout the United States," Highland Sgt. Jerry Toler told the Gary Post-Tribune in a recent interview.

One test looks for a condition called gaze nystagmus - the involuntary, rapid movement of the eyeball. The other tests require the motorist to walk and then turn, and to stand on one leg, while following an officer's instructions.

State law defines a blood-alcohol level of 0.10 percent as legally drunk. Police officers using the old sobriety tests generally can't detect levels of drunkenness ranging from 0.10 percent to 0.15 percent blood-alcohol, Shererville Patrolman Michael Kesie said.

Police say that means many legally drunk motorists go free because the officer can't establish probable cause for the more conclusive breath analysis test.

"Officers will be able to bring in more drivers who are at 0.10 than ever before," Hammond Cpl. Jay Govert said.

In the eye movement test, the officer holds up a pen and asks the motorist to focus on the tip as the officer moves the pen around.

A drunken motorist cannot smoothly track a moving object, and the drunker the motorist, the more difficult the task, police say. The test has long been used by doctors looking for eye abnormalities.

A Gary lawyer who defends motorists charged with driving while intoxicated says the medical principle that undergirds the eye test could make his job more difficult.

"A lot of our attacks on the current field sobriety tests would be nullified with this test," attorney John D. Brecourt said.

Still, jerky eye movements could be caused by the use of legal or illegal drugs or by a medical condition, he said.

Police officers trained in the eye test will also administer the other new field tests - walking and turning, and the one-leg stand. Both require the motorist to follow a series of in­nsuctions while maintaining balance.

A manual published by federal safety officials says drunken motorists have difficulty performing such "divided attention" tests.

Saint Mary's appoints new PR director

Lawrence W. Durance, Vice President for College Relations at Saint Mary's, has appointed Paula McLean as Director of Public Rela­tions there.

McLean's professional experience includes work in media relations, special events, publications and community relations in New York and Chicago.

The Publicity Club of Chicago awarded McLean two Golden Trump­et awards for excellence in public relations. She is a former president of Women in Communications, Inc., North Shore (Chicago) Chapter.

SAB Musical Entertainment Presents

THE BANGLES

live at Stepan Center

Sunday, Oct. 14 at 8:00pm

- toured with Flock of Seagulls
- hit single "Hero Takes a Fall"
- on M TV

tickets: $3.50 in advance

$4.50 at the door

on sale at SAB record store and in Dining Halls
Program in Ireland exposes students to different cultures

By MICHELE MARCHAND
News Staff

Each September twenty-five students from Notre Dame and Saint Mary's College in South Bend, Indiana, fifteen miles west of Notre Dame and Saint Mary's College, Ireland, for a year they study at Saint Patrick's College in Maynooth, fifteen miles west of Dublin.

The Saint Mary's foreign studies program in Ireland is an excellent opportunity for students with strong academic ability and motivation to "immerse themselves in another culture," said Ellen Pugh, director of the program.

Sophomores, and occasionally juniors, make up the group in the Ireland program. The program is geared toward the liberal arts, but Pugh said it serves for a balanced program. A group that's "not predominantly anything" provides a better cultural year for all, Pugh said.

The primary criteria for participation is strong self-motivation, because the program is very independent. Students live in their own houses and manage their finances. There is no strict cut-off GPA, but applicants must have two academic recommendations and a personal recommendation.

Meetings for the program are mandatory, and applications are due Dec. 1. The applicants go through an interviewing process, and 25 are selected. The cost is approximately the same as a year's tuition at Saint Patrick's, but students must pay their rent and travel expenses.

Nancy Brennan, a senior who studied in Ireland two years ago, said the best thing about the program is the "opportunity to see America from another viewpoint." Irish culture is very different than in the United States, "people are more laid back," she said. The appreciation of time was stressed over three-hour teas.

Corrigan

Corrigan attributed the decision to have ND play in last year's Liberty Bowl in part to the fact that the Liberty Bowl Chairman was a Notre Dame Alumnus. He said that going to the Penn State game at 6-3 they was a dream come true for him because the Irish would then be available for the Liberty Bowl, Corrigan said, "It became a real experience because it gave them a chance to regain lost confidence and end the season on an up note.

The debate, which consisted of a fifteen minute opening address, a rebuttal, a question and answer period, and a closing statement, was excellent.

The audience consisted of approximately 75 students and a few faculty members.

Mike Lochhead, co-coordinator of the debate, said "I was pleased with the turnout and I think the debate itself went very well."

The next debates in the series sponsored by the Election Task Force will be held Monday, Oct. 15 and Monday, Oct. 29. The first will focus on life issues and the Oct. 29 debate will deal with the economy and its effects on the budget.
Iraq breaks 'lull' in Gulf war, attacks Liberian ship, 6 dead

Associated Press

Iraqi warplanes broke a 22-day lull in attacks on Persian Gulf shipping Monday by hitting a super-tanker with an Exocet missile, setting the vessel afire and killing six crewmen, shipping sources reported.

Six other seamen were badly burned in the attack on the 254,000-ton, Liberian-registered World Knight, marine shipping and salvage sources said in Bahrain.

An Iraqi military communique said "two large naval targets" were attacked southwest of Iraq's Kharg Island oil shipping terminal. Iraq commonly refers to ships as "naval targets" in communiques about its four-year-old war with Iran.

Marine shipping and salvage executives in Bahrain said only one ship was hit. They said radio operators picked up a distress signal, "We are under attack, we are on fire," from the World Knight at 11:30 a.m. (4:30 a.m. EDT).

The same sources, speaking only on condition of anonymity, said it was not clear if the tanker was loaded or empty when it was hit.

They said the missile rocked the ship's aft section, wrecking the engine room and setting fire to the crew's quarters. They reported at least one life raft was lowered.

Irish navy helicopters flew to the crippled ship to aid the rescue effort, and at least one salvage company tugboat took aboard survivors and stayed on the scene to fight the fire, sources said.

The nationality of the victims was not known. The marine shipping sources said the crew was made up of five British officers and 33 seamen from Hong Kong.

The World Knight is owned by the Greek company Naarchos and operated by Hong Kong shipping magnate Sir Y.K. Pao's World-Wide Shipping Group, sources said.

The Iraq military statement said the raid was an "implementation of previous warnings to all ships against sailing to Kharg or other Iranian ports."

Five teenagers taken from liquor store lot

Associated Press

CHICAGO - Five teen-age women looking for someone over 21 to buy liquor for them were abducted at gunpoint from a liquor store parking lot and two of them later were raped, police said.

The women, all from the Chicago suburb of Calumet City, drove in a van to a local liquor store late Saturday, police said.

As one woman left the van to find someone to buy alcohol, a man with a handmade shotgun joined the two gunmen and took the women on a Calumet City road crossing. "They told me they were looking for someone over 21 to buy liquor for them," one victim said.

The abductors freed the woman, and drove the two other women on the Indiana Toll Road near Gary, Ind., where authorities believe a third man driving a getaway car picked up the two gunmen.

Cpl. Richard Broughton said Indiana State Police officers found the abandoned van and the three women about 1 a.m. Sunday.

The women were treated at St. Margaret Hospital in Hammond, Ind., and released, police said. No arrests have been made.
Sure, they said it would be tough. It would take a lot of time and require organization. But they didn't tell us that being a social commis­ sioner would be almost impossible. Now, thanks to the latest "Special Bulletin," the pos­ sibility of off-campus social events is fading fast.

On Sept. 14, our dorm, Walsh Hall, held a Luau at Erskine Country Club. The two of us, besides having the event approved of by the administration in advance, even scheduled a special meeting with Dr. Goldrick the week of the event. We told him all of our plans, even about the open bar included in the ticket price. We confidently told our Rectress, Sr. Jo, that everything had been okayed. But that was then, and this is now.

Fox and Boland

After the event, a Rect­essor from a boys' dorm on campus made a phone call to Dr. Goldrick on our "behalf." We'd really like to express our appreciation, but we have yet to discover his identity. In this phone call, this Rect­essor described our Liass in our control. Since we realize that second-hand information is AL­ WAYS the complete truth, we again commend our appointment, a "Special Bulletin" was printed this newspaper, but through P.O. Box Q and guest column you can address issues which have not been raised to your satisfaction in this newspaper. Viewpoint encourages all of its readers to fully explore and voice their opinions. Simply send your letter to P.O. Box Q or deliver it to our offices. Letters should be no longer than 150 words in length and guest columns should not exceed 600 words. All works must be signed.

Carol Brown

in thinking about reactions to the recent football game, the disappointment, the dis­ gust, and especially the diminished spirit among my fellow Domers, I pondered the question - What is Notre Dame all about? Does Notre Dame stand for "Our Football Team?" I think not. Notre Dame means "Our Lady." This simple meaning is easily forgotten in the midst of a "dated" football loss, the much­ criticized alcohol policy, and the tremendous academic pressures faced by all, yet, this meaning is the very essence of the University. The core and character of Notre Dame, the specialness of Notre Dame, is found in these two simple words - "Our Lady." I am writing this article in tribute to Notre Dame. She is where the spirit of the University stems from, not from a "Sack" or a touchdown. Although I have only claimed the title of "Domer" for a few short weeks, Her presence has already found a special place in my life. Just to catch a glimpse of the glorious Golden Dome is enough to make me realize how very lucky I am to be here - we are to be here.

The feeling of peace is overwhelming. Al­ ways by a gentle, loving, and strong hand. O ur Lady is felt - at Notre Dame - and I was being guided - here - at Notre Dame - and I was being guided - there - at Notre Dame - and I was being guided - everywhere - at Notre Dame - and I was being guided - all over the place - at Notre Dame. She is among us always, guiding us, protecting us, and reassuring us of the goodness, purity, and truthfulness that she is - among us - always.

In closing, I will say that this article was written in the spirit of gratitude to Our Lad­ y. Thank you, Notre Dame. You have helped this student "survive" her first encounters with Notre Dame. You have made her feel privileged to be a part of Your greatness, and You have made her want to stay here for the next four years.

Carol Brown is a freshman at Notre Dame
Test your news IQ

Features briefs

SAN ONOFRE, Calif. - The bride and groom were all set, but the couple's splashing nuptials were upset as they sat aside surfboards, a half-mile from shore in the Pacific Ocean.

The minister who married lifeguards Greg Page and Tisha Ramsey now hopes to break even by breaking Nam Nam, their horse, in the rodeo.

The co-authors of the work are Juniper Press and the University of Notre Dame.

Associated Press

Shy person's guide to life

by Cat Francis

FEARLESSLY, a shyer person has to be able to go ahead and answer the question. To avoid either of these uncomfortable situations, you should wear nondescript clothing so you won't be recognized when you make your entrance. They may tell their friends about the jerk in their class. The teacher may laugh at you. He may tell a funny story at the cocktail party. The librarian hiss at you behind your back. The professor looks accusingly at you when "Hungry Like the Wolf" starts to play. Cashiers are pleasant when an error is pointed out. Others are downright humiliating.

There are several tactics one can use to deal with these obnoxious salesclerks. Extroverted friends can be of invaluable help. They may tell a funny story at the cocktail party. The librarian hiss at you behind your back. The professor looks accusingly at you when "Hungry Like the Wolf" starts to play.

Associated Press

Features columnist

SAN ONOFRE, Cali.: Harlot Wayne Ramsey is a drugstore cowboy who went to his first auction at the Ventura County Fair and spent $14,295, learning the hard way just how expensive lamb is by the pound.

Ramsey, a nurse who inherited a farm, says he is liked Nam Nam - a black booted Suffolk with a sweet face and friendly disposition - in auctions. "I have compiled a few situations in which the shy may begin to feel considerably better."

Cashiers often seem to go out of their way to annoy shy people. For a shy person, pointing out an incorrect charge or an invalid frequency of change to a store clerk is painfully embarrassing. Many cashiers are pleasant when an error is pointed out.

The joke-box syndrome is when you don't want to play music on the joke box because you're not sure everyone else likes "She Bop" as much as you do. At the very least, those within earshot and eyeshot will know it was you who played the tune and will look at you witheringly. They might decide to throw food.

There are several tactics one can use to deal with these obnoxious salesclerks. Extroverted friends can be of invaluable help.
Sports Briefs

The Co-Rec basketball entry deadline is today. Rosters consisting of five men and five women should be submitted to the NVA office with a $10 entry fee. All men on a team must live in the same hall, but women may participate on an "at large" basis. - The Observer

The Co-Rec volleyball entry deadline is today. Rosters of eight to 12 men and women should be submitted to the NVA office. Six players - three men and three women - may participate at one time in the best of five matches. - The Observer

A singles racquetball tourney is being sponsored by NVA. Entries may be made at the NVA office today. - The Observer

A singles handball tourney is being sponsored by NVA. For more information and entry forms, stop by the NVA office today. - The Observer

Rosters consisting of five men and five women should be submitted to the NVA office with a $25 entry fee. Details of the match will be meeting tomorrow at 6:30 p.m. in the LaFortune Little Theatre. Anyone interested may attend. For more information, call 283-6354. - The Observer

The Notre Dame ski team will be meeting tomorrow at 7 p.m. in the Angela Athletic Facility lounge. Anyone interested may attend. - The Observer

The Notre Dame lacrosse team will be meeting at 1 p.m. Sunday on Carrier Field for team pictures and a scrimmage. - The Observer

The Notre Dame Little Theatre will be meeting at 7 p.m. tonight in the LaFortune. Members should bring insurance numbers. - The Observer

The ND Windsurfing Club will be meeting at 7 p.m. tonight in LaFortune. Members should bring insurance numbers. - The Observer

The ND field hockey team lost on the road last night at the University of Toledo, 5-3. Molly McCabe, Christina Weinmann and Corinne DeGiacomo scored the Irish goals. Notre Dame will play host to Western Illinois on Friday afternoon. - The Observer

The ND field hockey team lost on the road last night at the University of Toledo, 5-3. Molly McCabe, Christina Weinmann and Corinne DeGiacomo scored the Irish goals. Notre Dame will play host to Western Illinois on Friday afternoon. - The Observer

The ND women's cross-country team ran against a competitive field of teams from five states last weekend at the Anderson Invitational. The top three Irish finishers were Julia Merkel (eight place), Susan Watchow and Ganny Elbert. Notre Dame will play host to St. Joseph's College of Rensselaer today at 5 p.m. on the Burke Memorial Golf Course. - The Observer

The ND women's cross-country team ran against a competitive field of teams from five states last weekend at the Anderson Invitational. The top three Irish finishers were Julia Merkel (eight place), Susan Watchow and Ganny Elbert. Notre Dame will play host to St. Joseph's College of Rensselaer today at 5 p.m. on the Burke Memorial Golf Course. - The Observer

NCAA Volunteers for Youth is inviting all athletes interested in forming a one-on-one friendship with an area youth to join the program. Interested athletes should call Pati Gal­lager at 283-2999, Tammy Schmidt at 283-4001 or Dave Clark at 283-1663 by Saturday. - The Observer

The Observer Sports Briefs are accepted Sunday through Thursday until 4 p.m. at The Observer office on the third floor of LaFortune. Briefs must be written clearly. - The Observer

The Broadway Theatre League Presents

On tour from New York
Louis Jourdan
Betsy Palmer
Taina Elg
in LERNER & LOEWE'S

GiGi

FRI. & SAT., OCT. 26 & 27—8 P.M. E.S.T.
Matinee, Oct. 27, 2 p.m.
Morris Civic Auditorium
Evenings: $12-$40 $19.50 $14.50 $10.50 SOLD OUT
Matines: $18.50 $15.50 $12.50 $8.50
Special Discount Matines Only—Students & Senior Citizens $5.00 Off Listed Ticket Price.
Box office open daily (except Sunday). Hours in 5 p.m. Telephone (219) 284-9190
Fasting, Free Delivery™
Expires in one week.

NURSING MAJOR INTENSIVELY CARE FOR DOMINO'S PIZZA.

$1.00 Off
On any $10 or more order with this coupon.
Valid at Plaza 23 Center, South Bend Ave. South Bend
Phone: 277-2151
Expires in one week.

Items continued from page 12
bouncing back from that loss to capture a Liberty Bowl win, the Irish had one month to recuperate. This team of the Irish has more character than the 1984 Irish team has character, it will bounce back against Air Force much like its predecessor did against Boston College. If not, Irish fans may have to utter a line familiar to Cub fans: "Wait 'til next year."

Pick of the Week: The regular season volleyball championship of the North Star Conference could be on the line tonight in the south dome of the ACC when Art Lambe's Irish players entertain the Loyola Ramblers at 7 p.m.

Both teams are undefeated in conference play, and Loyola has an impressive 11 game winning streak against conference foes. Many a winning streak has been stopped in the arena by Irish blockers, but now the volleyball team has a chance to play "Breakbusters." Come out and see if it happens tonight!
Texas stays on top of football poll

Associated Press

Texas and Oklahoma missed by just 11 points having a chance to tangle for the nation's top two ranked college football teams. Texas held onto No. 1 ranking yesterday in The Associated Press poll, while Oklahoma, the Longhorns' opponent next Saturday, climbed from fifth place to third.

Washington took advantage of Ohio State's 28-25 loss to Purdue and replaced the Buckeyes as No. 2, while Purdue, South Carolina and Kentucky made the Top Twenty after absences of several years.

A Texas, 5-3-1 winner over Rice, received 95 of 59 first place votes and 1,170 of a possible 1,180 points. The other two first place ballots went to Boston College, which was idle for the second week in a row, and Oregon State.

Notre Dame, UCLA, Auburn, Vanderbilt, Purdue, 4-1, last appeared in the Top Twenty since 1978. And Georgia, also 4-0 after a 27-14 win over Arkansas, remained in the Top Twenty for the first time since 1980.

Brigham Young moved up from seventh to fifth with 932 points with 807 points to advance from ninth to seventh. Eighth place Washington, No. 3 last week, moved up one spot with 932 points after a 19-7 triumph over Oregon State.

Asked if the Texas-Oklahoma game would match the nation's two top ranked college football teams, Texas coach Fred Akers replied: "I don't know. I'd say we're two of the best. This game is considered by most to be the No. 1 college football game in the country today." Brigham Young moved up from seventh to fifth with 932 points with a 5-2-6 rout of Colorado State and Nebraska, a 17-5 winner over Oklahoma State, rose from eighth to sixth with 869 points while the Cowboys fell from ninth to 13th.

Southern Methodist also was off last weekend and the Mustangs received 807 points to advance from 10th place to seventh. Eighth place Florida State dropped from sixth to ninth with 646 points after a 17-17 tie with Memphis State. Miami rounded out the Top Ten, vaulting from 14th to 10th with 605 points by defeating Notre Dame 31-13 and knocking the Irish out of the rankings.

The Top Twenty college football teams in the country today, with first place votes in parentheses, are:

1. Texas (19) 5-0-1 1,170
2. Washington (3) 5-0-1 1,049
3. Oklahoma (1) 4-0-0 1,038
4. Penn State 4-0-0 943
5. Brigham Young 5-0-0 932
6. Nebraska 4-1-0 869
7. Miami 4-1-0 807
8. Michigan State 4-1-0 799
9. Oregon State 4-2-0 796
10. Florida State 4-0-1 765
11. Penn State 4-1-0 737
12. Michigan 4-2-0 713
13. Nebraska 4-0-0 690
14. Purdue 4-1-0 686
15. Michigan 4-2-0 673
16. Rutgers 3-2-0 579
17. South Carolina 4-0-0 568
18. Texas 4-1-0 557
19. Kentucky 4-0-0 553
20. Georgia Tech 4-1-0 503

The Top Twenty college football teams in the country today, with first place votes in parentheses, are:

1. Texas (19) 5-0-1 1,170
2. Washington (3) 5-0-1 1,049
3. Oklahoma (1) 4-0-0 1,038
4. Penn State 4-0-0 943
5. Brigham Young 5-0-0 932
6. Nebraska 4-1-0 869
7. Miami 4-1-0 807
8. Michigan State 4-1-0 799
9. Oregon State 4-2-0 796
10. Florida State 4-0-1 765
11. Penn State 4-1-0 737
12. Michigan 4-2-0 713
13. Nebraska 4-0-0 690
14. Purdue 4-1-0 686
15. Michigan 4-2-0 673
16. Rutgers 3-2-0 579
17. South Carolina 4-0-0 568
18. Texas 4-1-0 557
19. Kentucky 4-0-0 553
20. Georgia Tech 4-1-0 503

The Observer Wednesday, October 10, 1984 — page 10

Golf continued from page 12

76, and Rich Connolly shot a 78 for a total of 582.

The second-place Notre Dame team scored a 380. The team featured Blake Garsdale, Tom Hanson, Tom Ryan, Joe Hills and Mike Culver.

Last year's winner, Central College of Iowa, finished the best among the remaining twelve teams but could only shoot a 390 for third place.

Bouts and Huffman finished in a tie for third in the individual medal standings, just four off the pace of medalist Scott Hodovol, who shot a 71 for Hillsdale College. Brian Goldsworth from Central College of Iowa came in second with a 73.

The golf season will resume in the spring, and if the Notre Dame golfers can maintain their winning ways they could be looking at a possible berth in the NCAA Tournament.
By BRIAN MCCARTHY
Sports Writer

A noteworthy event took place this weekend in interball football competition as Keenan Hall, which had not won a game this year, pulled off a monumental upset of previously unbeaten St. Ed's Ramblers.

The true test for Notre Dame, however, did not come off a strong week of play, but rather in the North Star Conference tonight when they face a very strong Loyola team. The Irish have been playing well lately, and Lambert seems pleased with the way things are going.

"We sure could do with some more wins," he admits, "but there's no question I've seen a lot of improvement. I've seen improvement in all the girls."}

Sports Writer

By ERIC SCHEUERMANN
Sports Writer

Irish looking for upset

The Irish stand at 7-7, and they are going.

In the Leahy division, Cavanaugh takes on first place Stanford at 2 p.m. St. Ed's at 2 p.m., undefeated Stvin joins against Pangborn and Howard at 2 p.m.

Even though their record stands at only 5-0-1, the Irish can take a big step toward a successful season with a win tonight. The team's main goal this season has been to win the conference championship. An upset tonight against the Ramblers could put the Irish ahead in the race for first place.

Chuck Freaby
Sports Writer

Irish Items

an assortment of all-stars, with Steve Beuerlein being the latest addition to that group with a bruised right shoulder. The injuries are tough, and they certainly hurt the team. However, it would be a cop-out to use them as an excuse.

Instead, the Irish have to respond to the challenge. Chuck Grooms, who controls the gaze of a quintessential Irish offense, hoping to find a way to move the ball effectively for 60 minutes. It is not an easy task, considering the Ramblers' lineup. They have a fine job at quarterback and still have problems putting the ball into the end zone. The Irish will have to be more inventive in the passing game, and they will have to avoid costly penalties. The Irish secondary must be alert for split end Ken Pangborn had St. Ed's stopped, but a face mask penalty on the last play of the game allowed the Ramblers to gain 15 yards for a touchdown.

The Irish have been through so much and partially because there haven't been holes to run through. Now the Irish must make the running game to help Grooms combat a solid Falcon defense.

Defensively, the Irish have their work cut out for them. For the last two years, the Irish have had major problems stopping the Falcons in their wishbone option attack. This year, the task doesn't look any easier, as Air Force ranks second in the nation in rushing, averaging 355 yards per game. The Falcons' top two runners, fullback Pat Dean and halfback Paul Pangborn, are both averaging nearly seven yards per carry, so the Irish can't key on just one player.

The Falcons have thrown effectively this year, but an injury to quarterback Brian Knorr has hampered that aspect of their game in recent weeks. Brian Beuerlein has taken over at quarterback, but the Irish.secondary must be alert for split end Ken Carpenter and backs coming out of the backfield or tight ends.

Burning is something the Irish have been doing ever since they took the loss to Miami a couple of weeks ago. The Irish must bounce back from last year's loss to Penn State and try to win their first game since last year's victory over Holy Cross. The Irish have had their share of injuries, but they are coming off a strong week of practice, and they are looking to make up for lost time.

By BRIAN MCDONALD
Sports Writer

Notre Dame will try to stay undefeated in the conference tonight when they face a very strong Loyola team. The Irish have been playing well lately, and Lambert seems pleased with the way things are going.

"We sure could do with some more wins," he admits, "but there's no question I've seen a lot of improvement. I've seen improvement in all the girls."

Even though their record stands at only 5-0-1, the Irish can take a big step toward a successful season with a win tonight. The team's main goal this season has been to win the conference championship. An upset tonight against the Ramblers could put the Irish ahead in the race for first place.

By BRIAN MCDONALD
Sports Writer

Notre Dame must bounce back from loss to Miami

Hello again, everybody!

If you are either a Cuh fan or an Irish fan or by some awful coincidence a fan of both teams, you have first-hand knowledge of what disappointment feels like. You have had your expectations raised, only to get your heart broken. You have raised your fork to your mouth, expecting T-bone steak and you wound up with a mouthful of tofu vegetables.

Yet, losing hurts, and don't believe anybody who says it doesn't. It hurts the fans, it hurts the players, and it hurts the coaches. Looking at Gerry Faust after the game, one saw a man who put a smile on his face that resembled a grimace. He faced the reporters and graciously answered all their questions, but it wasn't easy. It never is after a loss. Call it "Lost Weekend," call it a disaster, call it anyth­

Chuck Freeby
Sports Writer

Irish Items

Notre Dame must bounce back from last year's loss to Penn State and try to win their first game since last year's victory over Holy Cross. The Irish have had their share of injuries, but they are coming off a strong week of practice, and they are looking to make up for lost time.

By BRIAN MCDONALD
Sports Writer

Notre Dame's offense Saturday against Air Force. Grooms will replace injured signal-caller Steve Beuerlein in the Irish lineup.

Scott Grooms will assume a starting role in Notre Dame's offense Saturday against Air Force. Grooms will replace injured signal-caller Steve Beuerlein in the Irish lineup.

Notre Dame's offense Saturday against Air Force. Grooms will replace injured signal-caller Steve Beuerlein in the Irish lineup.

Notre Dame's offense Saturday against Air Force. Grooms will replace injured signal-caller Steve Beuerlein in the Irish lineup.