Sudden there was confusion.

Associated Press

were killed in the stampede to get to the Philippines yesterday, and 44 youths killed in Philippine fire. Fifty-three people were injured.

ATLANTA - The 99-year-old, top-secret formula used to make the soft drink marketing development except to say there would be a newspaper which quoted no sources and said the company would not comment, said a reasonable possible for the new formula was a drop in Coca Cola's market leading share last year.

Coca-Cola Co. spokesman Carlton Carter declined comment except to say there would be a news conference tomorrow at which "the most significant soft drink marketing development in the company's nearly 100-year history will be announced."

The current formula, known as "Merchandise 7X," is frequently described as the best-kept secret in American industry. It was developed by Dr. John Pemberton in 1886.

The New York Times in Saturday editions quoted an analyst who said tomorrow's news conference would be used to introduce a new brand of fruit-based beverages.

People started rushing to the doors," said Jeanette Barja, 13, who was one of 20 people injured seriously enough to be hospitalized. She spoke in a telephone interview from a hospital at Tabaco, 200 miles south of Manila.

Hundreds of people ran out, screaming and shouting each other, from a Sunday matinee featuring a favorite movie star. The theater complex is on the second floor of a three-story building in the center of Tabaco. Barja was among fans, including mothers carrying babies, who packed the Cine Aracade's Cinema I to watch a movie titled Star Without a Glow.

Police said the fire actually was in adjacent Cinema II, which was almost deserted. Two charred bodies were found there, indicating the rest of the deaths occurred as people fled, police said.

"Tate was ready to give up," Keithley said. "The man was getting scared, had been drinking, had been eaten by marshals," he told officers mansing a nearby roadblock.

Tate was arrested Saturday night before Taney County Circuit Judge James Clifford Crouch on charges of first-degree murder in the stamping of Ingram and first-degree assault in the shooting of Hipps. He was booked without bond on the murder charge and bond was set at $1 million on the assault charge. Tate was arraigned Saturday night before Taney County Circuit Judge James Clifford Crouch on charges of first-degree murder in the stamping of Ingram and first-degree assault in the shooting of Hipps.

"It is in the best interests of the United States for our government to help these islands," said McElroy. "Anything that would strengthen these island economies would strengthen our security interests."

44 youths killed in Philippine fire

Coca-Cola to alter secret formula

The newspapers which quoted no sources and said the company would not comment, said a possible reason for the new formula was a drop in Coca Cola's market leading share last year.

The new formula was developed in a secret project launched in January. The Atlanta Journal and The Atlanta Constitution reported in their combined Saturday edition.

SMC professor named to congressional panel

"It is in the best interests of the United States for our government to help these islands," said McElroy. "Anything that would strengthen these island economies would strengthen our security interests."

5-day manhunt ends with arrest of alleged first-degree murderer

Associated Press

FORSYTH, Mo. - Authorities Saturday arrested a reputed member of the neo-Nazi group called The Order and charged with first-degree murder in the trooper's death, was arrested Saturday and without incident in a city park, said Capt. Lee Thompson of the Missouri Highway Patrol.

Hundreds of police using camouflage, helicopters, dogs and road blocks searched the rugged Ozark Mountains on both sides of the Arkansas-Missouri border since the trooper was killed and another wounded with a silenced-equipped automatic pistol on Monday.

Tate was spotted at the edge of a city park near a restaurant, who then told officers mansing a nearby roadblock, said Taney County Sheriff Chuck Keithley.

Tate's arrest was announced before nearly 100 residents and reporters at the Taney County courthouse, the residents clapped and cheered when the arrest was announced. The trial was staged to the Taney County Circuit Judge James Justus said that if Tate was convicted, he could face the death penalty.

Forsyth is about 15 miles from Branson, where Trooper Jimmie Linegar was shot dead and Trooper Allen Hines wounded.

Tate was arraigned Saturday night before Taney County Circuit Judge James Clifford Crouch on charges of first-degree murder in the stamping of Ingram and first-degree assault in the shooting of Hipps.

He was booked without bond on the murder charge and bond was set at $1 million on the assault charge. Tate was arraigned Saturday night before Taney County Circuit Judge James Clifford Crouch on charges of first-degree murder in the stamping of Ingram and first-degree assault in the shooting of Hipps.
The Observer

Monday, April 22, 1985 - page 2

Weather

The streak continues.

Once again it will be sunny today and very warm. Today's high will be 80 to 85 and there is a 20 percent chance of thunderstorms tomorrow with a high around 80. AP

In Brief

Pornographic videos, aphrodisiacs and obscene materials that "poison people's minds" were outlawed in China under new regulations published Saturday. The State Council ban, which appeared in all leading newspapers, follows official complaints that pornography is now readily available in Canton and other Chinese cities. To protect the mental health of the people and especially youth, safeguard social harmony and ensure smooth progress of socialist modernization, various kinds of salacious material must be strictly banned." Those who attend showings of obscene videos and films will be "criticized and educated," according to the regulations. AP

An 8-year-old boy in Guivolp, Miss. ran a one-man race Saturday to help his personal doctor. The March of Dimes and collected $2,000 in pledges. "My stepdad and I were thinking they had spent $26,000 on me," said Billy Holder. "Why don't we take out a little of that back?" The March of Dimes had contributed to Billy's medical bills when he required extensive surgery. Billy, who was born with a diaphragmatic hernia and a slight heart defect, completed the run in five hours and 20 minutes. Billy has run in more than 20 races, but this was his first solo attempt. AP

Of Interest

A special Mass will be celebrated in honor of St. George, patron saint of soldiers, tomorrow morning at 8 in Sacred Heart Chapel. The Mass is being sponsored by the Notre Dame Army ROTC. The Observer

Reverend Leon Sullivan, author of the Sullivan Principles, will speak at 5:30 p.m. today in the Library Auditorium. The Sullivan Principles are a set of guidelines for U.S. corporate behavior. The principles have been used by many corporations which do business in South Africa. The Observer

Security officials at Notre Dame are joining state officials in a new program of safety for joggers on campus roads and adjusting street signs. Joggers are asked to wear colorful and highly visible clothing when running. Motorists are reminded that increasing numbers of joggers and bicyclists are using the streets, and are asked to adjust their driving habits accordingly. The Observer

What's news at Notre Dame and Saint Mary's. Pizza Hut ships 20 to 30 pizzas to campus each night, said manager Tom Littleton. "It seems there may be a market for hamburgers as well as pizzas. "Right now, we're getting a good response," said Charles Watson, owner of the Roseland McDonald's store. "But the deliveries A McDonald's manager said they receive about 40 orders a night. He said deliveries take an average of 40 to 45 minutes, although some take a little longer.

Most items on the regular menu can be delivered, and prices are generally 20 to 30 cents higher than those in the store. According to Watson, this increase covers taxes and delivery costs.

As of now, there is no minimum order for delivery. The service will be in a test phase until the end of the year. "We want to determine what the students want," said Watson.

Students may be anxious to have pizza and hamburgers brought into the campus, but Notre Dame doesn't always welcome these delivery services with open arms. "It took us three years to get it OK" said Bonny, a manager at Domino's. "She said it took Domino's longer to get permission to deliver at Notre Dame than at any school in the country. "Notre Dame is the only school where we have to go through security to get on campus," she added.

Littleton, a Pizza Hut manager, said, "Notre Dame is very concerned about who's allowed on campus and who's not." There has been some contention as to whether McDonald's actually has permission to deliver on campus Watson, the restaurant's owner, said his service has "the same kind of approval that anybody else does that delivers out there."

Watson said he has received clearance from Security and has assured Notre Dame officials that his drivers were fully insured. He said the nickname of his service, Campus Airlift, caused some to believe that someone other than McDonald's was organizing the delivery service. The service is run out of McDonald's of Roseland.

In an interview with an Observer reporter last week, Joe Siciliano, director of student activities, said that a "unified University policy may have to be set up on controlling businesses making deliveries on campus. It seems logical that the administration would want to establish guidelines concerning who may and who not deliver on campus. There are some businesses there that the University certainly would not allow to deliver to the dorms. For example, it is doubtful that any entrepeneur businessman hoping to deliver alcohol to campus would be encouraged by the administration."

If they decide to establish such a policy, administrators should keep in mind that many students appreciate the convenience of on-campus delivery. Time constraints and lack of transportation cause many students to rely on delivery services as a temporary link to the outside world. A rushed student can pick up a pizza and have it delivered to his room in about 40 minutes.

There are some businesses that would be popular with students. Pizza Hut is a good example of this. Other than McDonald's was organizing the delivery service in question. There are some businesses there that the University certainly would not allow to deliver to the dorms. For example, it is doubtful that any entrepeneur businessman hoping to deliver alcohol to campus would be encouraged by the administration."

Weather

The streak continues.

Once again it will be sunny today and very warm. Today's high will be 80 to 85 and there is a 20 percent chance of thunderstorms tomorrow with a high around 80. AP

McDonald's Campus Airlift joins campus delivery menu

Amy Stephan
Managing Editor

Can Government Programs Reduce Poverty?

Charles Murray
Author of "Losing Ground: American Social Policy, 1950-1980"

Wednesday, April 24, 7:30 p.m.
Memorial Library Auditorium

For further information, contact Economics Dept.
University of Notre Dame, Notre Dame, IN 46556
Thousands march in Philadelphia to commemorate Holocaust dead

Associated Press

PHILADELPHIA - Children bearing placards with the names of Jewish communities wiped out during World War II led thousands of people in a march yesterday as American survivors of the Holocaust remembered their dead.

The march followed a memorial service that opened the Inaugural Assembly of the American Gathering of Jewish Holocaust Survivors. About 5,000 people who witnessed the horrors of Nazi concentration camps and their children were in Philadelphia for the three-day gathering.

The marchers wore blue caps with "remember" written in Hebrew, and youths waved cardboard signs carrying the names of cities such as Rotterdam, Nitra, Bratislava, Treviso and Regensberg.

"They want to show that the youth are trying to understand what it was," said Kay Ethrokrantz, 25, a member of Young Judea, a Jewish youth group.

The marchers sang and chanted prayers in Hebrew on the 15-block walk to Independence Mall. There, children handed white carnations to the marchers, who placed them under the Liberty Bell.

Golda Drarom, from Buffalo, N.Y., said her carnation was "to remember my father who got lost in the concentration camp. To pay my respect to him."

"I am going to put my flower on my own grave," said Genia Klapkhoz, of Philadelphia. "I was in Auschwitz and I was sentenced to death," she said, her eyes red from tears.

- After the ceremony, politicians and religious leaders spoke to the gathering.

One spectator, Edith Frymet Milich of Beverly Hills, Calif., wore light blue sweatshirt with big letters that said, "Have you seen my sister Hena Milich?"

Milich said her sister disappeared in 1946 in Poland. She showed the blue 55496 tattooed on her arm in Auschwitz, and said she survived five camps.

A "survivor's village" was set up in the Philadelphia Civic Center, where victims of the Nazi camps could meet, eat kosher food and listen to Yiddish music. Also at the center was a computer containing the names of 55,000 Holocaust survivors living in the United States, to help people find those lost during World War II.

The marchers first gathered at the Monument to the Six Million Jewish Martyrs, criticized by President Ronald Reagan for his scheduled visit to a German military cemetery next month.

"His presence will honor the persecution of his people," she said, as the audience hissed and booed.

Every TI calculator comes with one extra number.

1-800-TI-CARES

When you buy a Texas Instruments calculator you don't just buy a calculator, you buy Texas Instruments conv., nimmt to quality.

It's a commitment backed by a fully developed service network that includes the above toll-free number you can call from anywhere in the United States.

If you have any applications, operations, or service questions, call us Monday thru Friday between 9 am and 4 pm CST, and we'll be glad to help.

If your calculator needs repairing, we'll direct you to one of our 46 conveniently located service centers for an immediate exchange. Under warranty, it's free. If there's no center near you, we'll do it all by mail.

Of course, there's just one catch. It has to be a Texas Instruments calculator. But then, if you're as smart as we think you are, wouldn't it be?

Texas Instruments
Creating useful products and services for you.

Special to the Observer

The legendary Sir Winston Churchill will be portrayed in "Churchill: The Early Years," by former Notre Dame student-performer Mark Grimsich on Monday evening at 7:30 in Carroll Hall at Saint Mary's.

His one-man original play, based on Churchill's own writings, is the result of a senior project which he undertook while attending Northwestern University.

Grimsich, a 1980 graduate of Northwestern and now a resident of New York, attended Notre Dame from 1976 to 1978. A member of the Glee Club while at Notre Dame, he also sang with Saint Mary's Madrigal Singers and participated in several theatre productions.

"At the outset of my work I had numerous stereotyped ideas about the man and his character," said Grimsich. "No sooner had I begun reading than I realized that my previous exposure to this historical figure was only the proverbial tip of the iceberg."

"The further I explored, the closer I came to understanding the true essence of the man behind the public figure," he said.

"Churchill," produced by Face to Face Productions of New York City, will be sponsored by Saint Mary's history department. Admission is free and open to the public.

Alumnius to perform solo show

Special to the Observer

The legendary Sir Winston Churchill will be portrayed in "Churchill: The Early Years," by former Notre Dame student-performer Mark Grimsich on Monday evening at 7:30 in Carroll Hall at Saint Mary's.

His one-man original play, based on Churchill's own writings, is the result of a senior project which he undertook while attending Northwestern University.

Grimsich, a 1980 graduate of Northwestern and now a resident of New York, attended Notre Dame from 1976 to 1978. A member of the Glee Club while at Notre Dame, he also sang with Saint Mary's Madrigal Singers and participated in several theatre productions.

"At the outset of my work I had numerous stereotyped ideas about the man and his character," said Grimsich. "No sooner had I begun reading than I realized that my previous exposure to this historical figure was only the proverbial tip of the iceberg."

"The further I explored, the closer I came to understanding the true essence of the man behind the public figure," he said.

"Churchill," produced by Face to Face Productions of New York City, will be sponsored by Saint Mary's history department. Admission is free and open to the public.

Mr. Goodbar

Here is today's clue, the first of five at the labyrinth of An Tostal's elusive Mr. Goodbar.

Heroes strive long and hard, in the shadow of the band. The place to find heavenly bodies best, in that place shall Mr. Goodbar rest.

If you find - and not before, call Mark or Paul at 4115 to verify, or Joyce at 4121.
Nicaraguan leader Ortega agrees to cease-fire if U.S. ends rebel aid

Associated Press

BOSTON - Nicaraguan leader Daniel Ortega said in a message Saturday his country would agree to an immediate cease-fire if the United States ends all support for Contra rebels. The Boston Sun-Day Globe reported.

The Nicaraguan president presented the message to Senators John Kerry, D-Mass., and Thomas Harkin, D-Iowa, after he com-pleted talks with him in the capital city Managua. Kerry told the news agency.

Ortega also said he would im-me diately restore civil liberties in Nicaragua and end press censorship if the United States agreed to resume bilateral negotiations and aid for the Contras, the senators said.

He also reasserted his country's commitment to Central America as a zone free of nuclear weapons and foreign military bases, including those of the Soviet Union and Cuba.

White House spokesman Bob Simms said late Saturday the ad-ministration was not surprised by the Sandinista offer, nor was it in-clined to be go-between for the Nicaraguan factions. "Basically, what the president had proposed is that the Sandinista government deal with their own people and not deal through the United States," Simms said. "We feel that they should accept the offer al-ready made by the Contras for a cease-fire."

President Reagan said Saturday that Nicaragua's leftist regime "may put forth an 11th-hour so-called peace proposal aimed at buying aid to the democratic resistance.

"The president, in his radio address yesterday, indicated that we would expect some 11th-hour peace proposal from the Sandinistas. I don't know if it's in that category or not, but we certainly would like to know why the Sandinistas couldn't accept the offer made some time ago," Simms said.

Kerry and Harkin called the docu-ment Ortega's first offer of a cease-fire.

Kerry said, however, that Ortega's offer of a cease-fire did not appear to come as a result of congressional rejection Tuesday of aid to the Con-tras, since that vote concerned a one-time $4.5 million aid package for this fiscal year. Votes on the aid are sched uled in the House and Senate this week.

The senators' meetings with Or-tega took up 26 hours of their 38-hour visit.

Protestors march on Capitol

Associated Press

WASHINGTON - Thousands of protestors marched outside the White House on Saturday to start three days of demonstrations against President Reagan's military buildup and policies on South Africa and Central America.

Protesters massed on the Ellipse, the park outside the White House grounds, then swung up Pennsylvania Avenue toward the Capitol for a rally.

As they passed the White House, the Rev. Jesse Jackson dropped to the pavement and uttered a prayer that referred to Reagan's planned trip to South Africa and other rallies led by the Reverend in Seattle.

"What brings us here is the need to reverse the policies of the Reagan administration, the inhuman treatment of the U.S. public, especially the poor, and of people in Third World countries such as El Sal-vador," said Joel Koplitii, 25, a protestor in Los Angeles.

U.S. park police estimated the size of the crowd in Washington at 26,000. March organizers claimed 100,000.

District of Columbia police Lt. William White said at late afternoon there were no arrests and termed it "a very peaceful demonstration."

About 50 counter-demonstrators assembled for an American Conservative Union rally near the Washington Monument and sang "America the Beautiful!"

Boulders of anti-Reagan demonstrators were found around the na-tion waved banners and watched mimes and "street theater" at a "Festival of Resistance" on the Ellipse that opened the "April Actions" weekend.

Eighty groups were listed by protestors as supporting the demonstra-tion, including civil rights, labor, religious, anti-war, envi-ronmental, veterans and minority organizations.

The protestors urged a halt to U.S. intervention in Central America. Congress votes this week on $14 million in aid sought by the ad-ministration for Contra rebels fighting the Nicaraguan government.

College of Science Student Council announces the 1985

Dean's Run

Distance: 7km (twice around the lakes)

Date: Sunday, April 28

Time: 12:00 noon

Registration Fee: $4.00

* Tee-shirts for all registrants

* Please register by Friday April 26 at 5pm

in the Dean's Office, 229 NSH

ATTENTION ALL GRADUATING STUDENTS

Caps and Gowns

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 24, 1985
Planned cemetery visit by Reagan upsets Jews

Associated Press

FRANKFURT, West Germany - World Jewish Congress leaders on Saturday assailed President Reagan's decision to visit a German military cemetery and said they would ask Chancellor Helmut Kohl to urge Reagan to cancel the visit.

"We hope to see Kohl on Sunday. We shall appeal to him to urge Reagan to drop the Bitburg visit," said Israel Singer, secretary general of the World Jewish Congress, speaking Sunday.

A delegation of Congress leaders traveled yesterday to Bergen-Belsen, the site of a Nazi death camp, and expected to meet Kohl before the chancellor spoke at a memorial ceremony there for the victims.

Reagan, trying to appease criticism at home and abroad about the cemetery visit, said he also would visit a former concentration camp during his May 1-6 visit to West Germany. The U.S. and West German governments announced Friday that Kohl and Reagan will visit Bergen-Belsen together on May 5.

At Bitburg, 47 bodies of SS troopers are buried along with nearly 2,000 German soldiers, most of whom were killed in the Battle of the Bulge in December 1944. Thousands of American soldiers also died in that battle.

"We hope to prevail on Kohl and to convince him that he and Reagan are making a mistake by visiting the Bitburg cemetery," Singer told The Associated Press. "The problem has to be solved by Kohl. He could become the hero of the day," he said, and Reagan should "stay at home until he's reassessed the subject."

"The president has shown great misunderstanding of the issue. He needs a lesson on what happened in Nazi Germany," Singer added.

He said his delegation would propose to Kohl that Reagan visit instead the grave of former West German chancellor Konrad Adenauer, a staunch anti-Nazi leader throughout World War II who served as chancellor from 1949 through 1962.

"We have the greatest respect for Adenauer and that would be real act of reconciliation," Singer said.

Kohl said earlier he understood Jewish concern over the cemetery visit.

Open mess

Open mess

Because Notre Dame Food Services headed for the great vegetable bars. Fridays high of 85 degrees promised comfortable weather expected to continue through today.

EVEN BEFORE COMMENCEMENT,
YOU COULD BEGIN USING
THE AMERICAN EXPRESS CARD.

As soon as you get a job, you could get the American Express Card.

If you're a senior, all you need is to accept a $10,000 career-oriented job. That's it. No strings. No gimmicks. (And even if you don't have a job right now, don't worry. This offer is still good up to 12 months after you graduate.) Why is American Express making it easier for you to get the Card right now? Well, simply stated, we believe in your future. And as you go up the ladder, we can help in a lot of ways.

The Card can help you begin to establish your credit history. And, for business, the Card is invaluable for travel and restaurants. As well as shopping for yourself.

Of course, the American Express Card is recognized around the world. So you are too. So call 920-366-4800 and ask to have a Special Student Application sent to you. Or look for one on campus.

Continue from page 1

Literature necessary to study existing technologies. They also began to identify the most crucial problems of the islands and designated some of the researchers to do the commission papers.

"My main concern is that we really understand why agriculture is in decline," said McElroy. "My second hope is that the technologies will be quite accessible to the farmers and the fishermen. That means small scale," he said, adding, "What good is high technology if it is beyond the capacity of the family farmer to operate and maintain?"
Reagan escapes the blame for his many errors

Ronald Reagan is one of the more unique presidents in American history. His unusual wit combined with his uncanny ability to overcome adversity has made him one of the most popular and skillful presidents to date.

Simply by laughing and joking about the many blunders he has committed, Reagan can make the public forgive and forget faster than you can say "OOPS!" In addition, Reagan is a master at shifting the blame to help him escape out of many a political jam.

These qualities have helped Reagan rise to almost unprecedented popularity no matter what he says or does. And it is with this political charisma that the President has been able to get away with many a blunder no other politician would be able to live with, and implement contradictory foreign and domestic policies.

President Reagan has probably committed more blunders than the last ten presidents combined. Yet Reagan seems to escape every mishap without any visible scars. The public invariably forgets whatever blunder was committed, no matter how serious.

A classic example of a forgotten blunder is when while attempting to defend his record on social programs, Reagan blurted out that he had never cut Social Security. When in fact, it was one of the first programs to receive cuts during his first term in office.

But even though this was clearly more than just forgetting the facts, the President managed to get out of the situation without suffering any consequences. The President has repeatedly managed to avoid any trouble from such false statements as these.

More often the case, he has been found to be the master of sarcasm and distortion in a turn. Reagan is frequently concerned, and instead of apologizing to Ann Pettifer on behalf of Daniel Casey, if he is not willing to do so.

Casey owes Pettifer an apology for his remarks

Dear Editor,

I would like to take this opportunity to apologize to Ann Pettifer on behalf of Daniel Casey if he is not willing to do so. That he disagrees with the way Pettifer puts things she discusses, please contribute to the community dialogue by explaining, not by attacking. Then we can all enjoy our lunches a bit more.

Gib Gattis Grace Hall

Pettifer may be right to question the Church

Dear Editor,

The least Daniel Casey can do for Ann Pettifer is to get her statements right. She has pointed out during her first term in office. But perhaps the best example of a serious, but now forgotten, was when, not knowing he was on the air, the president casually said that we were going to bomb Rus­

The statement like this can have tremendous political ramifications and is not something to be taken lightly. Yet he simply brushed it off by joking about it and complaining that the press picked on him too much. Such a tactic struck a note in the public’s heart and the incidents were not even invited to participate in the deliberations of the council. Also, the council’s official liturgies, these women had to remain on the outskirts of the congregation, which was quite a distance in a 2,000-­

plus congregation.

If we all do a little something, maybe we can keep Reagan from making a shambles of our system and our political system. He simply advocates or implements any policy he wishes and when it happens to be one that the public does not agree with, he always manages to shift the blame and avoid accountability for his decisions.

This ability has given Reagan a tremendous advantage over the American public. By not being accountable, he can implement whatever policies he fancies, even if they are not supported by the people. He has already shown how pleasing many with one摆了 gall in social programs, continued high military spending for MX missiles and "Star Wars," and then cleverly aid to the contras.

The American people and Congress must be on their toes at all times. We all must make sure that our president does not implement policies that we do agree with, like cuts in education and social programs. Congress has the ability to check the president, but that won’t matter if we do not participate and write our congressmen expressing our viewpoint. If we all do a little something, maybe we can keep Reagan from making a shambles of our country and economy in his last term. If we continue to let him push us around, the consequences to our society and future administrations could be devastating.

Michael Froning is a Freshman Arts and Letters major at Notre Dame and is a regular Viewpoint columnist.

Casey owes Pettifer an apology for his remarks

Dear Editor,

I would like to take this opportunity to apologize to Ann Pettifer on behalf of Daniel Casey if he is not willing to do so. That he disagrees with the way Pettifer puts things she discusses, please contribute to the community dialogue by explaining, not by attacking. Then we can all enjoy our lunches a bit more.

Gib Gattis Grace Hall

Pettifer may be right to question the Church

Dear Editor,

The least Daniel Casey can do for Ann Pettifer is to get her statements right. She has pointed out during her first term in office. But perhaps the best example of a serious, but now forgotten, was when, not knowing he was on the air, the president casually said that we were going to bomb Rus­

The statement like this can have tremendous political ramifications and is not something to be taken lightly. Yet he simply brushed it off by joking about it and complaining that the press picked on him too much. Such a tactic struck a note in the public’s heart and the incidents were not even invited to participate in the deliberations of the council. Also, the council’s official liturgies, these women had to remain on the outskirts of the congregation, which was quite a distance in a 2,000-­

plus congregation.

If we all do a little something, maybe we can keep Reagan from making a shambles of our system and our political system. He simply advocates or implements any policy he wishes and when it happens to be one that the public does not agree with, he always manages to shift the blame and avoid accountability for his decisions.

This ability has given Reagan a tremendous advantage over the American public. By not being accountable, he can implement whatever policies he fancies, even if they are not supported by the people. He has already shown how pleasing many with one摆了 gall in social programs, continued high military spending for MX missiles and "Star Wars," and then cleverly aid to the contras.

The American people and Congress must be on their toes at all times. We all must make sure that our president does not implement policies that we do agree with, like cuts in education and social programs. Congress has the ability to check the president, but that won’t matter if we do not participate and write our congressmen expressing our viewpoint. If we all do a little something, maybe we can keep Reagan from making a shambles of our country and economy in his last term. If we continue to let him push us around, the consequences to our society and future administrations could be devastating.

Michael Froning is a Freshman Arts and Letters major at Notre Dame and is a regular Viewpoint columnist.
Legend returns to rock with soul

Keith Harrison Jr.
Record review

A little more than a year ago, Van Morrison was on a roll with his new record company and a powerful new record titled A Sense of Wonder. For those who don't know, Van Morrison is the voice behind the 1960s classic "Brown Eyed Girl." After leaving Them, Morrison's early solo work continued in the same raucous vein, although a soul influence soon appeared and led to such hits as "Brown Eyed Girl." In recent years, however, Morrison's records have been more subdued, to deepen the soulfulness of his work and even delve into jazz fusion. The mellow Van Morrison never sold very well, however, which led to the abrupt contract termination at Warner Bros.

But Polygram Records gave Morrison another chance, and he responded with a record which successfully blends the rough-edged r&B of his early years with his more serene recent work. The R&B Morrison opens the album, starting with the single "Three Down A La Rhythm." Trompets and gospel backup vocalists punctuate each line of the chorus, and Morrison's singing is reminiscent of his most soulful work. Not only is it a great song, but it's even getting airplay in South Bend.

His recent problems with record companies and album sales obviously led Morrison to cover More Allison's "If You Only Knew." The music is bluesy, and the words follow suit. If you only knew what could happen to a man for telling the truth. If you only knew all the scruples that go down in gin and vermouth I wouldn't want to steer you wrong but if you want to sing your own song You're gonna have to lose a few If you only knew.

There are a few flaws on A Sense of Wonder. In a few spots, for instance, the mysticism borders on silliness. Also, Morrison includes the instrumental, "Rollflow and Spike," which is the weak point of the album. Morrison's voice is almost always the highlight of his albums, so why include any instrumental in the first place? But these are minor flaws. Songs like the beautifully hypnotic "Ancient of Days" are much more representative of A Sense of Wonder. Morrison has been making brilliant albums like this for twenty years. It's about time someone started listening.

TEARS FOR FEARS: Songs From The Big Chair

Tom Tierney
Record review

"Shout," the album's first single, has an uplifting synthesizer melody and inspiring lyrics which encourage people to hold on to their beliefs and values and to break free of categories and labels that others assign them. "Everybody Wants To Rule The World" is the current single, getting airplay on Top 40 radio and MTV, and the best song on the album. With a warm and cherry feeling, it celebrates freedom and pleasure, and urges everyone to make the most of their lives, for "nothing ever lasts forever" in a world with the "lack of vision" of nuclear weapons.

Another gem on the album is a song buried at the end of side two. "Listen," a slow, sparse piece, beautifully uses Oriental influences in evoking strong visions of peace and contentment. Other songs of note are "Mother's Talk," a funky song whose chanted lyrics inspire the listener to overcome the problems in life which one's mother tried to "protect" one from, and "The Working Hour," powered by a distinctive saxophone and piano melody, it makes a forceful statement in challenging people to question and constructively change the conditions people live under, for "we are paid by those who learn by our mistakes." Songs from the Big Chair indicates that Tears For Fears are moving away from dwelling on sorrow and pain, and are instead focusing on the strength to overcome them. This change of direction is what gives Songs From the Big Chair its vitality. There is more to Tears For Fears than what can be heard on the radio or seen on MTV.

This leftover rock not fit for dogs

John Mennell
Record review

"School for Dogs." The chorus tells the tale: You may be man's best friend But if you're bad I'm gonna send you To the school for dogs.

The song is the story of a pet whose loyalty Briley questions. It is noticeably different from the start, as the back up vocals are done by a contingent of the Mormon Tabernacle Choir. The whole album is an ambitious effort. Briley seems either scared to experiment and explore with different sounds or he is just unimaginative. It is generally shallow, unimaginative and comparable to listening to the Emergency Broadcast System Test; it's definitely not worth the price of an album today, and is probably not worth the vinyl it was pressed on.
Langer edges Wadkins in Heritage

Associated Press

HILTON HEAD ISLAND, S.C. — Masters champion Bernhard Langer of West Germany beat hopeful Bob Wadkins on the final playoff hole and scored his second consecutive victory yesterday, this one in the prestigious Sea Pines Heritage Classic.

Langer, who last week became the first German to win any of golf's major titles needed only a two putt par on the first extra hole to turn back Wadkins, who was seeking his first American victory in an 11-year career that has been played in the shadow of his brother, Lanny.

Langer and Wadkins each finished the regulation 72 holes over the picturesque Harbour Town Golf Links in 273. 11 shots under par on one of the most demanding courses the pros encounter all year.

Bookstore

continued from page 12

A controversial charging call may have been the factor that turned the tide in yesterday's 21-19 win for the New York Yankees over the Houston Astros. The Yankees are reportedly considering asking the league to review the controversial play.

The Yankees base stealing whiz Rickey Henderson, who has been playing for the Oakland A's in the offseason. He walked three times and stole two bases yesterday.

DePaul University School of Accountancy

Review Course for the November 1985

CPA Examination

June 17-October 22, 1985

The 15th DePaul University CPA Review is a non-credit bearing course designed for the Summer 1985 Review. The Review features live classroom instruction, on all CPA materials, practice questions, and special report sections. The Review is open on an open admission policy.

'85 GRADS

Turn in your job offer, future plans information in the concourse of the Library Tuesday and Wednesday and receive a coupon good for:

30% OFF

my purchase of:

CHRIS' ICE CREAM

CAREER AND PLACEMENT SERVICES

DePaul University

School of Accountancy

Monday, April 22, 1985 - page 9

Murer ends pro career

MIAMI — Bobby Murer, who ended his major league career with the New York Yankees nearly two years ago, decided yesterday that his fling as a designated hitter in the Florida State League had gone far enough.

"I had fun," said the 38-year-old former outfielder after his three-game stint with the Fort Lauderdale Yankees in the Triple A league. He had one hit in 12 at-bats.

Murer's main purpose was to supervise the rehabilitation of Yankees base stealing whiz Rickey Henderson, who has been playing for Fort Lauderdale as he recovers from a badly sprained left ankle suffered in an spring training exhibition game.

Both Henderson and Murer will fly to New York today.

"I'm ready to play," said Henderson, who was acquired from the Oakland A's in the offseason. He walked three times and stole two bases yesterday.

Notre Dame Avenue

Apartments

NOW RENTING FOR FALL

Completely furnished, balconies, laundry, and off-street parking.

On site management & maintenance, all deluxe features

ASK ABOUT OUR SPECIAL SUMMER RATES
good deals for Summer Session)

Office 820 ND Ave

or call

campus at 820 ND Ave or cau
dress-------------------------------------------------------------------

WHY CORNELL?

A great location. Study at one of the most beautiful by League campuses and spend the summer in the magnificent courtyard of the Finger Lakes region. Located on forty-mile-long Cayuga Lake, Ithaca is a small cosmopolitan city with restaurants, nightlife and all the urban advantages.

A great university. Choose from a remarkable variety of courses and learning opportunities—more than 100 courses taught by distinguished Cornell faculty members. The curriculum includes computer science, fine arts, pre-law and pre-med studies, and languages. Sign up for a few courses or the entire summer: Courses are offered in three-, six-, and eight-week sessions.

A great adventure. Explore beautiful lakes and parks, spectacular waterfalls and ravines. Enjoy swimming, sailing, tennis, golf, climbing, camping, soaring, biking, birding, and hiking. A rich and lively schedule of free outdoor concerts and lectures makes Cornell an ideal place to meet people and make friends.

Why Cornell? Because we love summer as much as you do. Make plans now. For a copy of the 1985 Summer Session Announcement call or write:

Cornell University Summer Session

Box 84, Bldg Halls

New York, 14853-3901

607/573-9797
Westhoeoen defends six-mile title

By JOHN MENNELL
Sports Writer

It was a better day to watch someone run six miles than to do it yourself.

That didn't stop Jeff Westhoven from defending his men's under-graduate title on Saturday, as the junior finished second overall to Paul Matousal in the six-mile race in 85 degree weather.

For two seconds, Westhoven was third. Unfortunately, he misjudged the time and failed to cross the finish line. It was a close race, with Westhoven finishing the last two seconds behind Matousal.

Westhoeoen finished sixth out of 59 other runners in the three-mile race on Saturday. His time of 16:25 earned him a place in the under-graduate division.

After watching his future champions come to focus, Westhoeoen worked to secure his future in order to take part in the Midwest Regional competition in Charleston, S.C., March 15-16. There, he defeated fighters from Xavier and the Air Force Academy to earn his trip.

Kelly maintains that moving, staying loose and being quick were his three keys to winning.

After winning three fights to take the championship in the 145-pound class at the Bengal Bouts, Kelly worked to secure funds in order to take part in the Midwest Regional competition in Charleston, S.C., March 15-16. There, he defeated fighters from Xavier and the Air Force Academy to earn his trip. After training since September, Kelly's hard work has enabled him to raise his collegiate boxing record to 11-0, but through all of his success he finds it very important to thank all the other people that helped to make everything possible.

"I owe a lot to my coach Sean McCormick and his family. They supported me in every way imaginable. There are also numerous others who I can't even begin to mention, but without their help and support, my effort would have never been possible."

---

STEAK

continued from page 12

for the back-up spot. And Von Wyl also made a strong claim for the starting punter position as he nailed a 60-yard kick. Both he and sophomore Dan Sorenson impressed observers with their 40-yard dash performances.

"It will be a heck of a scrimmage," said Faust. "We've got new 145-pounder Patrick Simms third."
I... I HAVE SOME DREAMS ABOUT... WHAT? RIGHT?

ZETO

BERKE BREATHED

ZETO

NO, I CAN'T CALL HER..!

MY NAME IS...

IM NOT A WIMP!

ALRIGHT, THEY CALL HER UP AND I'M TELLING HER SHE'S WRONG.

DANNY SHOWS OFF HIS SHEEP'S BRAIN.

Friday’s Solution

10 UN diplomat
11 Ralph
12 Seed coat
13 Due prelude
14 Grain elevator
15 "High..."
16 Peanuts
17 Expulsive
18 Whirl
19 Pasha follower
20 Gallic nobleman
21 Strong point
22 Pub drinks
23 Of classic beauty
24 Filming sessions
25 Supplies with crew
26 Sig
27 Certain eyeglasses
28 Of. these
29 Go go dancer
30 Roast top round au jus
31 Of classic beauty
32 Dinner Menus
33 Of classic beauty
34 11:30 a.m.
35 2:00 a.m.
36 11:00 p.m.
37 6:00 p.m.
38 9:30 p.m.
39 10:00 p.m.
40 3:30 P.M.
41 7:30 p.m.
42 7 - 9 P.M.
43 8:00 p.m.
44 6:30 p.m.
45 5:00 p.m.
46 9:00 p.m.
47 11:30 p.m.
48 12:30 a.m.
49 1:30 a.m.
50 2:00 a.m.
51 4:00 a.m.
52 6:00 a.m.
53 6:30 a.m.
54 7:00 a.m.
55 8:00 a.m.
56 9:00 a.m.
57 10:00 a.m.
58 11:00 a.m.
59 12:00 a.m.
60 1:00 a.m.
61 2:00 a.m.
62 3:00 a.m.
63 4:00 a.m.
64 5:00 a.m.
65 6:00 a.m.
66 7:00 a.m.
67 8:00 a.m.
No steak for Saturday scrimmage; will be incentive in Blue-Gold game

By MARTY BURNS
Sports Writer

There was neither steak nor beans at Saturday afternoon's football scrimmage - just a few leftovers.

With more than 20 players cut due to injuries, head coach Gerry Faust decided to take the leftover players and hold a normal practice session instead of the previously scheduled "steak and bean" scrimmage.

The "steak and beans" game - where the winners feast on tenderloins while the losers eat franks and beans - instead will be held next Saturday as part of the traditional Blue-Gold game. Faust hopes not only to see some new faces off the injured list next week, but he will hope also for a more complete effort than he got on Saturday from his squad. Although Faust was disappointed in the outcome of Saturday's scrimmage - just a few leftover from the掠过的 - he still noted that both teams would bow out of the competition in the past three days.

If your favorite team is Hey, Shi-Happens, you better adopt the attitude suggested by the team's name because Drebligking Dyke II caused a little shi to happen yesterday. On Step 6 at 1:30, Kevin Barry hit 7-of-18 to lead the Dyke over Shi-Happens, 22-20, despite Mike Blocker's 8-of-17 effort for the losers.

In another overtime game, DSU's Half Again Their Original Size was victorious over Green-Winners on Lyons 12 at 4:30. The Winners probably would have still found victory if not for DSU's Mark Roesser really was only half his original size, as he hit 10-of-22 to lead his team to the 22-20 victory. Bob Comfort was the King Winner, hitting 11-of-26 in the losing cause.

On Step 4 at 1:30, the Homeboys could not withstand the Big Black Mac Attack. Mike McGauley led the Attack with 10-of-19 shooting, while the other 19 points were garnered from three previous starters. The Homeboys had to fend off the Attack with 9-of-19, but the Boys had to head house with the loss.

It may not be a favorite in the division, but Tofu Vegetables I is establishing a devoted following on the courts. Last week, the Veggies downed former varsity player Barry Spark's team and yesterday the Alumni freshmen downed a seeded team in this year's tournament.

Shysters, an Elite Eight team in Bookstore XIII, was the victim of the se-forested freshmen. An even scoring attack for Tofu was the key to the win. Bill Zadel led the way with 7-of-24 and Matt Hanley was 9-of-24. Carl Livingston hit 6-of-16 for Shysters, and teammate Tom Large was 6-of-21.

Another favored team had difficulty yesterday, but Red Barons pulled out a 21-19 victory over Los Malandros on Step 4 at 6:00. Despite the fact the team had with Los Malandros' zone defense, the Barons emerged from a dogfight at the Inn at 12:20. Communists' 8-of-17 forj the losers.

The highlight of the practice, though, occurred in the place-kicking department. While last year's place kicker John Carney is setting out the spring season with an injury, sophomore Pat Chura and junior Hal Von Wyl are competing to take his place.

The Irish will run at the prestigious Drake Relays this weekend. They will enter a two-mile relay, a four-mile relay, and either a mile relay or sprint medley depending on the availability of injured sprinter Mitch Vansyker.