Cardinals defend, define Catholic social teaching

By THEREZA GUARINO

The independent student newspaper serving Notre Dame and Saint Mary’s

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1985

The Observer

SECURITY BOS PLACES;
Rakow starts October 11

By BILL HARRAN JR.

News Staff

Notre Dame Security Director Glenn Terry resigned recently for “personal reasons” following a meeting with Father David Tyson, vice president for student affairs.

The resignation is effective Oct. 20. Rex Rakow, assistant director of security, will take over the vacant position.

Terry served six years as security director and worked previously in the bacteriology lab. He was a member of the Bend Police when George Wallace, Martin Luther King Jr. and Robert Kennedy visited the campus.

Terry has many memories of his service here, and that his main goal was to help people. “In social and religious circles, Terry has developed meaningful relationships with many of the Holy Cross priests.”

“I have developed fine relationship with other agencies in South Bend,” he added.

Terry’s plans for the future include opening “an investigative agency to provide service to the community in areas of background checks, common detective work, and spinoff of this work,” he said.

These spinoffs include investigative ventures and some criminal work, he said.

“Discussion has already been initiated. My last day here is the 10th, but on the 11th I’ll be working,” he said.

Rakow was hired in December 1979 as an assistant director of Notre Dame security and later became associate director of security. His prior experience includes two years on the police force at the University of Arizona and one at the University of Arizona at Bloomington, where he graduated with a bachelor’s degree in police administration in 1973.

HPC discusses campus leader conference; alumni to help student leaders work better

By SCOTT BEARBY

Assistant News Editor

Approximately 30 alumni will return to Notre Dame this weekend in order to help student leaders obtain a better view of what their roles should be, according to Student Body Vice President Diane Lawrence at last night’s Half President’s Council meeting.

Included as a part of the weekend discussions will be an address by University President Father Theodore Hesburgh, who will give his views on student leadership on Sunday morning.

Open meetings and round table discussions will be held in order to open up areas of concern, according to Lawrence, also co-chairperson for the event.

He added that the discussions will help current leaders, alumni, and the administration get a better feel for the responsibilities a campus leader should have.

Co-chairperson Bruce Lehman is enthusiastic about the event because it will offer the opportunity to have “open dialogue with groups who do not get together very often,” Lawrence added that, to his knowledge, “this is the first time this type of gathering has taken place on this campus.”

Meetings will be taking place throughout the campus on Saturday for any interested students. Half Presidents’ Council Chairman Kevin Howard encouraged half presidents to bring as many potential leaders as they could to the sessions. Lehman said meetings can help solve continuity, the main problem of student government.

In other business, the council discussed whether the alcohol policy permit open beer and wine bars at off-campus hall.formats. Some presidents said rectors are interpreting the policy so that it prohibits having legal beer and wine bars for those under the age of 21.

Howard suggested that each president ask their individual rector if the bars are against university policy or if it is just a matter of their interpretation.

An update was given on the status of extra fees which some rectors are charging for lost keys and Dvex cards. Howard said he will be meeting tomorrow with university officials in order to determine whether the extra fees should be allowed, since fines for lost keys are specifically stated in du Lac. He added that extra fees for Dvex cards may technically be allowed, since fines for them are not mentioned in du Lac.

Badin President Judith Windhorst said the main issue is whether a rector can charge admission to hall mixers among 21 year-olds students.

Lyons President Joanie Cahill suggested getting students to interact better by having more events among hall sections. The HPC concurred in developing a list of all hall section leaders at Notre Dame and Saint Mary’s, so groups of students from different dorms can get together.

Upcoming events related to alcohol awareness were given to the council by Alcohol Awareness Commission member Bill Parke. According to her, a lecture on alcohol awareness will be given by Father Joe Martin at the Marriott tonight at 7:30. He will see HPC, page 4
The Charles and Margaret Hall Center for the study of American Catholicism is sponsoring a conference on "Religion in American Culture." The program sessions for both meetings began Friday morning at 9. Everyone is invited to attend. - The Observer

Of Interest

Weather during exam and vacation periods. The University of Notre Dame and Saint Mary's. The Presidents Association is a division of the American Association of University Professors. The Charles and Margaret Hall Center for the study of American Catholicism is sponsoring a conference on "Religion in American Culture." The program sessions for both meetings began Friday morning at 9. Everyone is invited to attend. - The Observer

Teamsters organizer Vicky Saporta, the only woman organizer directing any major American union, will discuss "Women Workers and the Union in the 1980s" during a talk today at Notre Dame. Saporta will speak at 4:30 p.m. in Room 151 of Deane Faculty Hall. Her lecture is open to the public. Saporta is director of organizing for the International Brotherhood of Teamsters in Washington, D.C., and is in this area for negotiations with South Bend school employees. - The Observer

"Competency in Management" will be the topic of a program by John Anderson, vice president of operations for the Presidents Association, tomorrow at 6:30 p.m. in Carroll Hall at Saint Mary's. Anderson, a graduate of the American Management Association. The lecture is sponsored by the department of business administration and economics, and is open to the public. Anderson also will be speaking to business classes and advising faculty and student groups during his visit to the College. - The Observer

Auditions for the Showcase Production of "The Freedom of the City," a play by Brian Friel, will be held tomorrow and Friday. The auditions are open to all Notre Dame and Saint Mary's students. Notre Dame students in similar roles will receive a 30 minute film featuring Jack Wilke, author of "The Miracle Worker," during the tryout at 9 for an important meeting. On the agenda are: plans for "Respect for Life of Notre Dame and Saint Mary's" meeting tonight at 4 p.m. All members are required to attend. - The Observer

The Thomas More Society of Notre Dame, a Church and social service club, will hold a general meeting tonight at 8:30. All are invited; the meeting will take place in the Lafontaine Theatre. - The Observer

Right to Life of Notre Dame and Saint Mary's meet tonight at 9 for an important meeting. On the agenda are: plans for "Respect for Life," upcoming events, funding requests, and speakers. All in attendance at the Annual March for Life in Washington D.C. The brief meeting will take place in the Center for Social Concerns' multi-purpose room, to be followed by a 30-minute film featuring Jack Wilke, author of "The Handbook on Abortion" and president of the The National Right to Life Committee. - The Observer

A Health Advisory meeting will take place at the Notre Dame Student Health Center lounge today at 4 p.m. All members are required to attend. - The Observer

Frost on your pumpkin ought to melt a bit today, as sunny October sites are forecast for the next few days. Sunny and cool today, with highs in the upper 50s and low 60s. Clear and not as cold tonight. Low in the upper 50s to low 60s. Sunny tomorrow with the high in the low 60s. - The Observer

Weather

Frost on your pumpkin ought to melt a bit today, as sunny October sites are forecast for the next few days. Sunny and cool today, with highs in the upper 50s and low 60s. Clear and not as cold tonight. Low in the upper 50s to low 60s. Sunny tomorrow with the high in the low 60s. - The Observer

The Charles and Margaret Hall Center for the study of American Catholicism is sponsoring a conference on "Religion in American Culture." On Friday and Saturday at the Center for Continuing Education. Martin Martin will be the keynote speaker Friday evening. In conjunction with this conference is the Center for American Studies in Latin America Conference on "Religion in American Culture." The program sessions for both meetings began Friday morning at 9. Everyone is invited to attend. - The Observer

Teamsters organizer Vicky Saporta, the only woman organizer directing any major American union, will discuss "Women Workers and the Union in the 1980s" during a talk today at Notre Dame. Saporta will speak at 4:30 p.m. in Room 151 of Deane Faculty Hall. Her lecture is open to the public. Saporta is director of organizing for the International Brotherhood of Teamsters in Washington, D.C., and is in this area for negotiations with South Bend school employees. - The Observer

"Competency in Management" will be the topic of a program by John Anderson, vice president of operations for the Presidents Association, tomorrow at 6:30 p.m. in Carroll Hall at Saint Mary's. Anderson, a graduate of the American Management Association. The lecture is sponsored by the department of business administration and economics, and is open to the public. Anderson also will be speaking to business classes and advising faculty and student groups during his visit to the College. - The Observer

Auditions for the Showcase Production of "The Freedom of the City," a play by Brian Friel, will be held tomorrow and Friday. The auditions are open to all Notre Dame and Saint Mary's students. Notre Dame students in similar roles will receive a 30 minute film featuring Jack Wilke, author of "The Miracle Worker," during the tryout at 9 for an important meeting. On the agenda are: plans for "Respect for Life of Notre Dame and Saint Mary's" meeting tonight at 4 p.m. All members are required to attend. - The Observer

The Thomas More Society of Notre Dame, a Church and social service club, will hold a general meeting tonight at 8:30. All are invited; the meeting will take place in the Lafontaine Theatre. - The Observer

Right to Life of Notre Dame and Saint Mary's meet tonight at 9 for an important meeting. On the agenda are: plans for "Respect for Life," upcoming events, funding requests, and speakers. All in attendance at the Annual March for Life in Washington D.C. The brief meeting will take place in the Center for Social Concerns' multi-purpose room, to be followed by a 30-minute film featuring Jack Wilke, author of "The Handbook on Abortion" and president of the The National Right to Life Committee. - The Observer

A Health Advisory meeting will take place at the Notre Dame Student Health Center lounge today at 4 p.m. All members are required to attend. - The Observer

Frost on your pumpkin ought to melt a bit today, as sunny October sites are forecast for the next few days. Sunny and cool today, with highs in the upper 50s and low 60s. Clear and not as cold tonight. Low in the upper 50s to low 60s. Sunny tomorrow with the high in the low 60s. - The Observer

Weather

Frost on your pumpkin ought to melt a bit today, as sunny October sites are forecast for the next few days. Sunny and cool today, with highs in the upper 50s and low 60s. Clear and not as cold tonight. Low in the upper 50s to low 60s. Sunny tomorrow with the high in the low 60s. - The Observer

The Charles and Margaret Hall Center for the study of American Catholicism is sponsoring a conference on "Religion in American Culture." On Friday and Saturday at the Center for Continuing Education. Martin Martin will be the keynote speaker Friday evening. In conjunction with this conference is the Center for American Studies in Latin America Conference on "Religion in American Culture." The program sessions for both meetings began Friday morning at 9. Everyone is invited to attend. - The Observer

Teamsters organizer Vicky Saporta, the only woman organizer directing any major American union, will discuss "Women Workers and the Union in the 1980s" during a talk today at Notre Dame. Saporta will speak at 4:30 p.m. in Room 151 of Deane Faculty Hall. Her lecture is open to the public. Saporta is director of organizing for the International Brotherhood of Teamsters in Washington, D.C., and is in this area for negotiations with South Bend school employees. - The Observer

"Competency in Management" will be the topic of a program by John Anderson, vice president of operations for the Presidents Association, tomorrow at 6:30 p.m. in Carroll Hall at Saint Mary's. Anderson, a graduate of the American Management Association. The lecture is sponsored by the department of business administration and economics, and is open to the public. Anderson also will be speaking to business classes and advising faculty and student groups during his visit to the College. - The Observer

Auditions for the Showcase Production of "The Freedom of the City," a play by Brian Friel, will be held tomorrow and Friday. The auditions are open to all Notre Dame and Saint Mary's students. Notre Dame students in similar roles will receive a 30 minute film featuring Jack Wilke, author of "The Miracle Worker," during the tryout at 9 for an important meeting. On the agenda are: plans for "Respect for Life of Notre Dame and Saint Mary's" meeting tonight at 4 p.m. All members are required to attend. - The Observer

The Thomas More Society of Notre Dame, a Church and social service club, will hold a general meeting tonight at 8:30. All are invited; the meeting will take place in the Lafontaine Theatre. - The Observer

Right to Life of Notre Dame and Saint Mary's meet tonight at 9 for an important meeting. On the agenda are: plans for "Respect for Life," upcoming events, funding requests, and speakers. All in attendance at the Annual March for Life in Washington D.C. The brief meeting will take place in the Center for Social Concerns' multi-purpose room, to be followed by a 30-minute film featuring Jack Wilke, author of "The Handbook on Abortion" and president of the The National Right to Life Committee. - The Observer

A Health Advisory meeting will take place at the Notre Dame Student Health Center lounge today at 4 p.m. All members are required to attend. - The Observer

Frost on your pumpkin ought to melt a bit today, as sunny October sites are forecast for the next few days. Sunny and cool today, with highs in the upper 50s and low 60s. Clear and not as cold tonight. Low in the upper 50s to low 60s. Sunny tomorrow with the high in the low 60s. - The Observer

Weather

Frost on your pumpkin ought to melt a bit today, as sunny October sites are forecast for the next few days. Sunny and cool today, with highs in the upper 50s and low 60s. Clear and not as cold tonight. Low in the upper 50s to low 60s. Sunny tomorrow with the high in the low 60s. - The Observer

The Observer (USPS 959 2-0000) is published Mondays through Friday and on some holidays during exam and vacation periods. The Observer is published by the University of Notre Dame and Saint Mary's. The editors of The Observer are responsible for their own opinions. This newspaper is printed by The Observer. P.O. Box 122, Notre Dame, Indiana. The Observer is a member of the American Newspaper Publishers Association. All reproduction rights are reserved.
Study Help Program gives friendship, too

By JOHN FUNSA
News Staff

The Neighborhood Study Help Program returned this year stronger than ever, with 250 to 500 Notre Dame and Saint Mary's students contributing to the academic and social development of local children.

According to the program's co-presidents Debbie Doherty and Tom Pigott, community awareness of the program is a result of the strong commitment to the program by those involved.

In order to solve the problems of tutor attrition and program disorganization that occurred so frequently last year, Secretary Martha Massaman, Doherty and Pigott spent the summer reorganizing the program. They said they considered this year crucial for the program.

The program's staff determined that commitment should be their most important priority.

All students are aware of the emphasis and most share the dedication said Pigott.

Most problems stem from occasional absences by the children, Doherty said. The program has been very successful thus far, and tutor response has been overwhelmingly positive, she said.

The 12 tutoring centers throughout South Bend are filled to capacity with both students and tutors, Doherty said, and with more volunteers and financial support the program will expand.

The program offers goes beyond its one-hour tutoring sessions, the co-presidents said. They said students and tutors often participate in skating parties, picnics, and movies. Sometimes a special relationship evolve. Doherty, while tutoring as a junior, developed a close personal relationship with the 16-year-old student she had been assigned. They grew very close, and the girl often phoned and visited Doherty at Notre Dame.

When the student became involved in a complicated and threatening personal situation, she turned to Doherty for advice and comfort. The situation was resolved in what the student and Doherty consider the best possible way.

According to Doherty and Pigott, with continued dedication and hard work the program will touch even more local children in the future.

Safety Week at SMC October 3-9

Special to The Observer

The week of Oct. 5-9 has been designated Safety Week at Saint Mary's in order to address issues of safety and security at the College.

Directors in the departments of residence life and security have planned programs which will be offered in the residence halls dealing with tornado safety, crime prevention, fire safety, sexual assault, and personal protection.

The programs will consist of films and/or lectures which will take place in the evenings. The schedule is as follows:

- Tornado Safety - A short film and discussion on what to do when the tornado siren sounds. Thursday, Oct. 3, Holy Cross Hall, 9 p.m.
- Crime Prevention - Learn how to keep the things that belong to you. Tips on anti-theft and security. Thursday, Oct. 5, LeMans Hall, 7 p.m.
- Fire Safety - A view of the film “Getting out Alive” with a discussion of safety procedures and evacuation. Monday, Oct. 7, Holy Cross Hall, 7 p.m.; Tuesday, Oct. 8, Regina Hall, 9 p.m.
- Sexual assault - Speakers from Sexual Offense Service will show slides and facilitate a short discussion. Monday, Oct. 7, McCandless, 9 p.m.; Wednesday, Oct. 9, Regina, 7 p.m.
- Personal Protection - Learn basic safety tips and ways to avoid danger situations. Tuesday, Oct. 8, Augusta, 7 p.m.; Wednesday, Oct. 9, McCandless, 9 p.m.

Followers of Indian guru Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh place books written by Rajneesh and the robes of his former personal secretary on a stack of wood in a communal crematorium. Approximately 5,000 books written by the Oregon guru were burned after his followers left the commune and the guru announced the group's disbandment.

Rajneesh’s followers burn books

Associated Press

RAJNEESHPURAM, Ore. - Followers of Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh sang and danced around a bonfire Monday night as they burned approximately 5,000 copies of the "Book of Rajneeshism" and the robes of the guru's former secretary.

The books and the flowing red robes of Ms. Anand Sheela, who abruptly left the commune approximately two weeks ago, were heaped onto four wooden pallets covered with flowers and juniper branches.

The ceremony in the community's crematorium was part of Rajneesh's announced intention to repudiate ideas and projects that he says were conceived by Sheela, who left with approximately 10 other top officials.

Rajneesh, 53, has accused Sheela and her "gang" of criminal activities, ranging from attempted murder to arson.

Disciples in the cult say they have discovered an elaborate electronic eavesdropping network that included bugs in the guru's bedroom.

At Monday's fire, Rajneesh's new secretary, Ms. Prem Flays, proclaimed Rajneeshism dead and then used a torch to light juniper logs.

"Stepping through the holy fire, stepping through the holy flame," approximately 2,000 disciples sang, clapping their hands to music by a 10-piece band.

In the 78-page "Book of Rajnees­hism," the guru defines Rajneeshism as "a religionless religion." The book describes the guru's practices of the sect.

Sheela, who reportedly is traveling in Europe, has denied any wrongdoing in the cult, which first became known for advocating free love, gambling and Rolls-Royces.

Federal, state and local officials have seized a computer and tapes in the commune of approximately 2,000 residents to investigate the allegations.
Terry
continued from page 1

He completed graduate work at Southern Illinois University and received a master of science degree in institutional administration from Notre Dame in 1982. He also completed the Federal Bureau of Investigation National Academy's 11-week management program in 1983.

Rakow is a former president of the Indiana Association of Campus Law Enforcement and a member of the board of directors of the International Association of Campus Law Enforcement Administrators.

Rakow has worked primarily nights in his past six years. As assistant director of security, he experienced improvements in training, general upgrading in the department and an increase of student involvement.

When he came here, "there were about two students positions. Now there are 35."

As director of security Rakow has "no major changes in mind. Some refinement will take place along the way, but from now until next July I plan to re-examine the department."

HPC
continued from page 1

be addressing such questions as "What is an alcoholic?"

Another alcohol information session will be held Monday when Alcoholics Anonymous will hold an open meeting in Dillon's chapel. According to Paras, the meeting will be open to anyone who would like more information on alcohol abuse.

Campus United Way Chairmen Bob McNamara and Mike Huber spoke to HPC on their efforts for the upcoming campus money-raising drive. According to the two, they are planning to substantially top last year's collection figure of $7,460.

The drive will start following the mid-semester break and will continue for two weeks, according to the chairpeople.

If Fletcher Christian and Captain Bligh had known what being stuck in the same boat would mean, chances are neither would have set foot aboard.

And if you're stuck in the same boat with a long distance company that doesn't give you all the services you need, it's easy to harbor mutinous thoughts.

But when you pick AT&T as your long distance company, you know you're in for smooth sailing.

You'll get trouble-free, reliable service. Immediate connections—even during the busiest hours. Guaranteed 60% and 40% discounts off our Day Rate on state-to-state calls. And operators to assist you with immediate credit for wrong numbers and collect calling.

So when you're asked to choose a long distance company, sign aboard with AT&T. With AT&T Long Distance Service, you'll never be left stranded.

Reach out and touch someone.®
Worry follows farmers to farm "World's Fair"

Associated Press

KINGSTOWN, Ind. - Farmer Tony Cain attended yesterday's opening of the 1985 Farm Progress Show, but he was shopping for information that will help keep him aloft another year rather than a shiny red new combine.

"I don't have any money to make any purchases," said Cain, 30, who with his brother farms 990 acres of corn and soybeans near Brookston in White County. "We just have to make do with what we got.

"I've been a bit of a seller in the used market, not a buyer."*Farmer and exhibitors, though, talk with uncertainty about what the future holds for them, and for many, making new investments isn't possible or wise.

"Our bank and several banks in our area are very nervous, not just about our farm, but other farms as well," said Cain. "This year we haven't broken even or show profit or they were going to think about closing us up."*

"I don't have any money to make any purchases," said Cain, 30, who with his brother farms 990 acres of corn and soybeans near Brookston in White County. "We just have to make do with what we got.

"I've been a bit of a seller in the used market, not a buyer."*Farmer and exhibitors, though, talk with uncertainty about what the future holds for them, and for many, making new investments isn't possible or wise.

"Our bank and several banks in our area are very nervous, not just about our farm, but other farms as well," said Cain. "This year we haven't broken even or show profit or they were going to think about closing us up."*

"I don't have any money to make any purchases," said Cain, 30, who with his brother farms 990 acres of corn and soybeans near Brookston in White County. "We just have to make do with what we got.

Worry follows farmers to farm "World's Fair"
Dear Editor:

Christian people in light of the resurrection of "control" rock lyrics. Consider that the priest may have been better served if he had judging process can be nothing but communal. Christ gave the gracious gift of mercy. Christ gave the Church's life, but I lament even more his mistaken theology about the sacrament and his half-hearted analysis of its demise. Among his mistakes are the following. First, Lent is "not the time of fasting and preparation in anticipation of the celebration of Easter," it is a season of baptismal renewal for the Christian people in the light of the resurrection of Christ which has already occurred. Further, we cannot "make sacrifices to God in preparation for our sins, because nothing we do can influence God's intention of salvation for us; we can only accept and rejoice in his gracious gift of mercy." Christ gave the Church no explicit admonition to institute Penance; the Church has simply extended Christ's mercy and forgiveness in its mission and sacramental practices. Finally, Penance is not the "Sacrament of Reconciliation," it is one of at least three sacraments, joined with Baptism and yes, the Eucharist. These mistakes of the first two paragraphs aside, Safranek's hope in the future of Penance would have been better served if he had spoken with Saci Bonanni, whose column followed his, rather than reflecting on the half-hour confessions of nuns. (Did he ever consider that the very people he may have been bro-beating the woman?) Bonanni's call to justice, that is, the restoration of right relationships in Christ, is the key to the revitalization of Penance in the Church's life. The core of the celebration of Penance is that our commitment to right our wrong relationships with our sisters and brothers in the Church, in the world, with nature and with God, is met with God's gifts of mercy and forgiveness, and that the celebration of Penance is a celebration of the lasting love and the beginning of the renewed life in Christ. Penance is nothing more and nothing less than recommitting ourselves to the life and responsibilities of our baptismal commitment.

The renewal of Penance, then, will depend less on mediating about the confessions of the masses, and more on mediating about the Gospel of Christ which points us in the ways of justice and peace with our sisters and brothers, and thus with our God. Robert Kennedy Notre Dame graduate student

Faulty analysis made in Safranek's column

Dear Editor:

I lament with Stephen Safranek's view in his column on Sept. 30 that the sacrament of Penance is a neglected celebration in this time of the Church. This is a mistake but I lament even more his mistaken theology about the sacrament and his half-hearted analysis of its demise. Among his mistakes are the following. First, Lent is "not the time of fasting and preparation in anticipation of the celebration of Easter," it is a season of baptismal renewal for the Christian people in the light of the resurrection of Christ which has already occurred. Further, we cannot "make sacrifices to God in preparation for our sins, because nothing we do can influence God's intention of salvation for us; we can only accept and rejoice in his gracious gift of mercy." Christ gave the Church no explicit admonition to institute Penance; the Church has simply extended Christ's mercy and forgiveness in its mission and sacramental practices. Finally, Penance is not the "Sacrament of Reconciliation," it is one of at least three sacraments, joined with Baptism and yes, the Eucharist. These mistakes of the first two paragraphs aside, Safranek's hope in the future of Penance would have been better served if he had spoken with Saci Bonanni, whose column followed his, rather than reflecting on the half-hour confessions of nuns. (Did he ever consider that the very people he may have been bro-beating the woman?) Bonanni's call to justice, that is, the restoration of right relationships in Christ, is the key to the revitalization of Penance in the Church's life. The core of the celebration of Penance is that our commitment to right our wrong relationships with our sisters and brothers in the Church, in the world, with nature and with God, is met with God's gifts of mercy and forgiveness, and that the celebration of Penance is a celebration of the lasting love and the beginning of the renewed life in Christ. Penance is nothing more and nothing less than recommitting ourselves to the life and responsibilities of our baptismal commitment.

The renewal of Penance, then, will depend less on mediating about the confessions of the masses, and more on mediating about the Gospel of Christ which points us in the ways of justice and peace with our sisters and brothers, and thus with our God. Robert Kennedy Notre Dame graduate student

P.O.Box Q

Doonesbury

P.O.Box Q, Notre Dame, IN 46556 (219) 239-5303

The Observer

The Observer is the independent newspaper published by the students of the University of Notre Dame in the LaC and Saint Mary's College. It does not necessarily reflect the policies of the administration or the students of either institution. The Observer is not responsible for the actions or behavior of its writers. Unsolicited manuscripts are not treated as representing the opinion of the editorial board. Character lines, letters and the inside column present the views of their authors. Column space is available to all members of the community and the free expression of varying opinions on campus, through letters, is encouraged.

Doonesbury

The Observer

The Observer is the independent newspaper published by the students of the University of Notre Dame in the LaC and Saint Mary's College. It does not necessarily reflect the policies of the administration or the students of either institution. The Observer is not responsible for the actions or behavior of its writers. Unsolicited manuscripts are not treated as representing the opinion of the editorial board. Character lines, letters and the inside column present the views of their authors. Column space is available to all members of the community and the free expression of varying opinions on campus, through letters, is encouraged.

The latest movement in Washington has set its sights on rating rock music lyrics. I do not think this is right and I felt compelled to urge all open-minded persons to seriously consider the implications of this new movement to "control" rock lyrics.

Tim Adams

P.O.Box Q, Notre Dame, IN 46556 (219) 239-5303

The Observer

The Observer is the independent newspaper published by the students of the University of Notre Dame in the LaC and Saint Mary's College. It does not necessarily reflect the policies of the administration or the students of either institution. The Observer is not responsible for the actions or behavior of its writers. Unsolicited manuscripts are not treated as representing the opinion of the editorial board. Character lines, letters and the inside column present the views of their authors. Column space is available to all members of the community and the free expression of varying opinions on campus, through letters, is encouraged.

The latest movement in Washington has set its sights on rating rock music lyrics. I do not think this is right and I felt compelled to urge all open-minded persons to seriously consider the implications of this new movement to "control" rock lyrics.

Tim Adams

Guest Column

First, what is the Parent's Music Resource Center asking the record industry to do? I believe it would have been better served if he had spoken with Saci Bonanni, whose column followed his, rather than reflecting on the half-hour confessions of nuns. (Did he ever consider that the very people he may have been bro-beating the woman?) Bonanni's call to justice, that is, the restoration of right relationships in Christ, is the key to the revitalization of Penance in the Church's life. The core of the celebration of Penance is that our commitment to right our wrong relationships with our sisters and brothers in the Church, in the world, with nature and with God, is met with God's gifts of mercy and forgiveness, and that the celebration of Penance is a celebration of the lasting love and the beginning of the renewed life in Christ. Penance is nothing more and nothing less than recommitting ourselves to the life and responsibilities of our baptismal commitment.

The renewal of Penance, then, will depend less on mediating about the confessions of the masses, and more on mediating about the Gospel of Christ which points us in the ways of justice and peace with our sisters and brothers, and thus with our God. Robert Kennedy Notre Dame graduate student

P.O.Box Q

Doonesbury

P.O.Box Q, Notre Dame, IN 46556 (219) 239-5303

The Observer

The Observer is the independent newspaper published by the students of the University of Notre Dame in the LaC and Saint Mary's College. It does not necessarily reflect the policies of the administration or the students of either institution. The Observer is not responsible for the actions or behavior of its writers. Unsolicited manuscripts are not treated as representing the opinion of the editorial board. Character lines, letters and the inside column present the views of their authors. Column space is available to all members of the community and the free expression of varying opinions on campus, through letters, is encouraged.

The latest movement in Washington has set its sights on rating rock music lyrics. I do not think this is right and I felt compelled to urge all open-minded persons to seriously consider the implications of this new movement to "control" rock lyrics.

Tim Adams

Guest Column

First, what is the Parent's Music Resource Center asking the record industry to do? I believe it would have been better served if he had spoken with Saci Bonanni, whose column followed his, rather than reflecting on the half-hour confessions of nuns. (Did he ever consider that the very people he may have been bro-beating the woman?) Bonanni's call to justice, that is, the restoration of right relationships in Christ, is the key to the revitalization of Penance in the Church's life. The core of the celebration of Penance is that our commitment to right our wrong relationships with our sisters and brothers in the Church, in the world, with nature and with God, is met with God's gifts of mercy and forgiveness, and that the celebration of Penance is a celebration of the lasting love and the beginning of the renewed life in Christ. Penance is nothing more and nothing less than recommitting ourselves to the life and responsibilities of our baptismal commitment.

The renewal of Penance, then, will depend less on mediating about the confessions of the masses, and more on mediating about the Gospel of Christ which points us in the ways of justice and peace with our sisters and brothers, and thus with our God. Robert Kennedy Notre Dame graduate student

P.O.Box Q

Doonesbury

P.O.Box Q, Notre Dame, IN 46556 (219) 239-5303

The Observer

The Observer is the independent newspaper published by the students of the University of Notre Dame in the LaC and Saint Mary's College. It does not necessarily reflect the policies of the administration or the students of either institution. The Observer is not responsible for the actions or behavior of its writers. Unsolicited manuscripts are not treated as representing the opinion of the editorial board. Character lines, letters and the inside column present the views of their authors. Column space is available to all members of the community and the free expression of varying opinions on campus, through letters, is encouraged.

The latest movement in Washington has set its sights on rating rock music lyrics. I do not think this is right and I felt compelled to urge all open-minded persons to seriously consider the implications of this new movement to "control" rock lyrics.

Tim Adams
Century Center shows South Bend not a cultural void, as some think

Marilyn Benchik
features writer

The Century Center was also built to rejuvenate the core of South Bend, a city which needed to attract more conventions. The city has a historic Studebaker collection that was in "virtual mothballs," said Hedman. There was also the need to attract visual arts to the area. The Notre Dame and Saint Mary's community often deals with the Century Center for both social and cultural events. In the spring of 1984, the combined Notre Dame/Saint Mary's production of "Under Milkwood" first ran in Saint Mary's. Audience gave the students the unique experience of performing for the general public away from their academic community. The event was, however, a financial failure because, according to Hedman, it was a more serious production than the public demanded. Still, the center had also the opportunity of performing on Bendix Theatre's Thrust Stage, which provided them with a change from the usual setting.

Future events planned at Century Center include a joint cultural event between Notre Dame/Saint Mary's and Century Center which will be the production of "Under Milkwood." When it opened on Nov. 1, 1977, the novel center had five separate buildings under one roof. These sections include the Convention Room, the Industrial Museum, the Bendix Theatre, the art gallery, and the Great Hall.

"What was really needed was to have five separate buildings in one building in order to keep the different areas of culture in one area," said Brian Hedman, the Century Center's executive director.

The center has acted as a catalyst for many other architectural developments in downtown South Bend as well, according to director Hedman. Examples include the First Source Bank/Marriott Hotel building and the East Race Rapids.

When it opened on Nov. 1, 1977, the novel center had five separate buildings under one roof. These sections include the Convention Room, the Industrial Museum, the Bendix Theatre, the art gallery, and the Great Hall.

"What was really needed was to have five separate buildings in one building in order to keep the different areas of culture in one area," said Brian Hedman, the Century Center's executive director.

The center has acted as a catalyst for many other architectural developments in downtown South Bend as well, according to director Hedman. Examples include the First Source Bank/Marriott Hotel building and the East Race Rapids.

When it opened on Nov. 1, 1977, the novel center had five separate buildings under one roof. These sections include the Convention Room, the Industrial Museum, the Bendix Theatre, the art gallery, and the Great Hall.

"What was really needed was to have five separate buildings in one building in order to keep the different areas of culture in one area," said Brian Hedman, the Century Center's executive director. The center has acted as a catalyst for many other architectural developments in downtown South Bend as well, according to director Hedman. Examples include the First Source Bank/Marriott Hotel building and the East Race Rapids.

The club was started by graduate student Pushar Varma. Varma, who specializes in genetics, is attending Notre Dame on fellowship from his home university.

The club was started by graduate student Pushar Varma. Varma, who specializes in genetics, is attending Notre Dame on fellowship from his home university.

The club was founded in 1966 to help the Indian students at Notre Dame adjust to life in American society, a life that is as widely different from theirs as our Oreo cookies are from the Indian delicacy, gulab jamun.

This year's club is actively involved in sharing the unique Indian experience with Americans. Thory of the approximately 80 members of the club are not native Indians. The club hopes to attract as many non-Indians as possible so that it has the opportunity to show the Indian culture to those who otherwise would have no exposure to it. The club hopes to attract as many non-Indians as possible so that it has the opportunity to show the Indian culture to those who otherwise would have no exposure to it. The club holds meetings to discuss future activities. Those interested should contact Varma for further information.

Kevin Kennedy
features writer

S acted cows, rajahs and white elephants may be light years away from life on campus, but they aren't as distant for everyone, especially for the members of the Notre Dame India Association.

The club provides the needed opportunity for Indian and non-Indian alike to experience this exotic culture.

The club was founded in 1966 to help the Indian students at Notre Dame adjust to life in American society, a life that is as widely different from theirs as our Oreo cookies are from the Indian delicacy, gulab jamun.

This year's club is actively involved in sharing the unique Indian experience with Americans. Thory of the approximately 80 members of the club are not native Indians. The club hopes to attract as many non-Indians as possible so that it has the opportunity to show the Indian culture to those who otherwise would have no exposure to it. The club holds meetings to discuss future activities. Those interested should contact Varma for further information.

Kevin Kennedy
features writer

S acted cows, rajahs and white elephants may be light years away from life on campus, but they aren't as distant for everyone, especially for the members of the Notre Dame India Association.

The club provides the needed opportunity for Indian and non-Indian alike to experience this exotic culture.

The club was founded in 1966 to help the Indian students at Notre Dame adjust to life in American society, a life that is as widely different from theirs as our Oreo cookies are from the Indian delicacy, gulab jamun.

This year's club is actively involved in sharing the unique Indian experience with Americans. Thory of the approximately 80 members of the club are not native Indians. The club hopes to attract as many non-Indians as possible so that it has the opportunity to show the Indian culture to those who otherwise would have no exposure to it. The club holds meetings to discuss future activities. Those interested should contact Varma for further information.

Kevin Kennedy
features writer

S acted cows, rajahs and white elephants may be light years away from life on campus, but they aren't as distant for everyone, especially for the members of the Notre Dame India Association.

The club provides the needed opportunity for Indian and non-Indian alike to experience this exotic culture.

The club was founded in 1966 to help the Indian students at Notre Dame adjust to life in American society, a life that is as widely different from theirs as our Oreo cookies are from the Indian delicacy, gulab jamun.

This year's club is actively involved in sharing the unique Indian experience with Americans. Thory of the approximately 80 members of the club are not native Indians. The club hopes to attract as many non-Indians as possible so that it has the opportunity to show the Indian culture to those who otherwise would have no exposure to it. The club holds meetings to discuss future activities. Those interested should contact Varma for further information.

Kevin Kennedy
features writer

S acted cows, rajahs and white elephants may be light years away from life on campus, but they aren't as distant for everyone, especially for the members of the Notre Dame India Association.

The club provides the needed opportunity for Indian and non-Indian alike to experience this exotic culture.

The club was founded in 1966 to help the Indian students at Notre Dame adjust to life in American society, a life that is as widely different from theirs as our Oreo cookies are from the Indian delicacy, gulab jamun.

This year's club is actively involved in sharing the unique Indian experience with Americans. Thory of the approximately 80 members of the club are not native Indians. The club hopes to attract as many non-Indians as possible so that it has the opportunity to show the Indian culture to those who otherwise would have no exposure to it. The club holds meetings to discuss future activities. Those interested should contact Varma for further information.
Body fat measurements will be provided by NVA student Monday from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. at the NVA in 190. The testing is free for all students, faculty and staff. - The Observer

Top Twenty

- 20. October 3rd - Richard Bach, One Hundred Years of Solitude
- 19. October 3rd - Richard Bach, The Alchemist
- 18. October 1st - Richard Bach, The One Hundred Year Old Man Who Climbed Out the Window and Vanished
- 17. October 1st - Richard Bach, The Little Prince
- 16. October 1st - Richard Bach, The Man Who Knew Too Much
- 15. October 1st - Richard Bach, The One Hundred Year Old Man Who Climbed Out the Window and Vanished
- 14. October 1st - Richard Bach, The Little Prince
- 13. October 1st - Richard Bach, The One Hundred Year Old Man Who Climbed Out the Window and Vanished
- 12. October 1st - Richard Bach, The Little Prince
- 11. October 1st - Richard Bach, The One Hundred Year Old Man Who Climbed Out the Window and Vanished
- 10. October 1st - Richard Bach, The Little Prince
- 9. October 1st - Richard Bach, The One Hundred Year Old Man Who Climbed Out the Window and Vanished
- 8. October 1st - Richard Bach, The Little Prince
- 7. October 1st - Richard Bach, The One Hundred Year Old Man Who Climbed Out the Window and Vanished
- 6. October 1st - Richard Bach, The Little Prince
- 5. October 1st - Richard Bach, The One Hundred Year Old Man Who Climbed Out the Window and Vanished
- 4. October 1st - Richard Bach, The Little Prince
- 3. October 1st - Richard Bach, The One Hundred Year Old Man Who Climbed Out the Window and Vanished
- 2. October 1st - Richard Bach, The Little Prince
- 1. October 1st - Richard Bach, The One Hundred Year Old Man Who Climbed Out the Window and Vanished
Baseball
continued from page 12

Angels 4, Royals 2

KANSAS CITY - Mike Witt and Donnie Moore combined on a six-hitter as the California Angels regained their one-game lead over the Seattle Mariners in the American League West with a 4-2 victory last night over the Royals.

Witt, 14-9, worked 72 3 innings before Moore came on to get his 30th save. Witt gave up six hits, walked one and struck out five.

The Angels scored three runs in the fifth and chased Kansas City left-hander Charlie Leibrandt, 17-9, who had won four of his previous five decisions.

Yankees 6, Brewers 1

NEW YORK - Joe Niekro teamed up with Dave Righetti on a five-hitter last night to give the New York Yankees their sixth straight victory, a 6-1 triumph over the Milwaukee Brewers.

It was the 40-year-old Niekro's second straight victory against one loss since joining the Yankees Sept. 15. He allowed three hits and one run in seven innings before giving way to Righetti, who picked up his 28th save.

The victory, coupled with Toronto's loss to Detroit, kept the Yankees in the top spot in the American League East race.

Jamie Cacanower, 5-8, took the loss.

Tigers 6, Blue Jays 1

DETROIT - Darrell Evans hit two home runs to regain the American League lead as the Detroit Tigers beat Toronto 6-1 last night, slowing down the Blue Jays' championship express.

The Blue Jays, whose magic number for winning the American League East was three, started play with a five-game lead over the second-place New York Yankees. The Blue Jays host the Yankees in a season-ending three-game series this weekend.

Frank Tanana, 11-14, scattered nine hits, struck out seven and walked one in notching his third complete game.

Evans' first homer, a solo shot in the first inning, was his 58th of the season.

SILKSCREENING & SPORTING GOODS

Silk screening & Sporting Goods

277-7784

Champs proudly announces our... Grand Opening Celebration!!

Look for the big balloon and find big grand opening savings

* Stop in and get a FREE Champs T-shirt plus other give-aways

* Register to win: 2 $15,000 gift certificates total, 2 new gym bags many other prizes (no purchase necessary to enter)

10% OFF WITH ND OR SMCILD.

Edenbridge & BR 23 "Across from King's Calling"
Mon-Fri, 10-9, Sat, 1-5

St. Louis Cardinals left-hander John Tudor took to the bill seeking his 20th win of the year last night against the Mets. Tudor pitched 10 innings of shutout ball, but got no decision as the Mets won, 1-0, on Darryl Strawberry's 11th-inning homer.

Detroit third and rode home on Evans 39th homer of the year.

Red Sox 10, Orioles 3

Baltimore - Bill Buckner, who drove in two runs, and Dwight Evans hit three-run homers last night to lead the Boston Red Sox to a 10-3 victory over the Baltimore Orioles.

Buckner, who also hit two run-scoring singles, had the Red Sox a 3-1 lead with his 14th homer in the fifth inning. Buckner paced Boston's 13-bat hit against four hits. He now has 104 RBI and a career-high 43 doubles.

Evans' 28th homer of the season tied Boston's five-run sixth. Buckner and Tony Armas had RBI doubles in the inning.

Both home runs came off Baltimore starter Dennis Martinez, 13-10, who pitched 52 3 innings. Bruce Hurst, 11-12, gave up eight hits, walked three and struck out five in eight innings.

Indians 9, Mariners 3

CLEVELAND - Andre Thornton snapped a six-game losing streak with a two-run homer, and Don Schulze ended a one-game losing season with seven scoreless innings of three-hit pitching, as the Cleveland Indians defeated the Seattle Mariners 9-3 last night.

Thornton gave the Indians a 4-2 lead in the sixth by hitting his 21st home run after Julio Franco's leadoff double off Frank White, 5-10.

Schulze, 4-9, had been winless after posting victories in his first three decisions. He struck out five, walked two and allowed only one hit after the fourth. Jerry Reesig got his eighth save.

White Sox 12, Twins 6

MINNEAPOLIS - A pair of two-run homers by Ron Kittle and a three-run blow by Harold Baines powered a 15-hit attack last night to lead the Chicago White Sox to a 12-6 thrashing of the Minnesota Twins.

Floyd Bannister, 9-14, allowed six hits and five runs over 6 1 innings to earn the victory before reliever Dave Bonacek came on to finish.

Kittle's 23rd homer, coming after a leadoff walk to Carlton Fisk in the fifth, gave Chicago a 5-2 lead and sparked a seven-run outburst. Kittle added a homer in the seventh to cap a three-run Chicago inning.

The loss went to Mike Smithson, 14-4.

Rangers 4, As 2

ARLINGTON, Texas - Jose Guzman pitched eight strong innings and Don Slaught had three hits and drove in two runs in two runs last night to lead the Texas Rangers to a 4-2 victory over the Oakland A's.

Guzman, 3-2, gave up seven hits, walked four and struck out a career-high six batters. He left in the ninth inning with a 1-0 lead, after posting victories in his first two starts.

Don Slaught had three hits, including the game-tying, three-run homer against Don Haskins, 10-14, who took the loss.

Cubs 4, Pirates 3

CHICAGO - Leon Durham's tie-breaking home run in the second inning and Johnny Davis' two-run shot in the fourth powered Reggie Patterson and the Chicago Cubs to a 4-3 victory yesterday over the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Patterson, 20, scattered eight hits, allowed two runs, walked three batters and struck out two in 6 2 3 innings. Jay Bullarder surrendered Mike Brown's leadoff homer in the eighth, then Lee Smith took over and earned his 35th save. Rick Renchel, who had won four in a row, gave up three hits, walked one and struck out six in seven innings and fell to 14-8.

Reds 7, Giants 6

SAN FRANCISCO - Eric Davis looped a two-run single to center field in the eighth inning to put Cincinnati ahead as the Reds beat the San Francisco Giants 7-6 yesterday to remain mathematically alive in the National League West pennant race.

The first-place Los Angeles Dodgers, who lead the Reds by five games, had an opportunity to clinch at least a tie for the division title by beating San Diego last night.

Davis had three hits, including the game-winning, two-out, bases-loaded single in the eighth, as the Reds loaded the bases in the eighth on Dave Concepcion's single, a walk to Bo Diaz and a bunt single by Ron Orezer.

Tom Hume, 3-4, was the winning pitcher and John Franco earned his 11th save.
By MARTY STRASEN
Sports Writer

As far as raw talent is concerned, Notre Dame fullback Tom Monahan is not among the nation's best. But weaknesses in the ability category is not about to stop this senior from succeeding.

"I'm a winner," he says.

"Judging Tom on his ability alone, you might not expect him to play college football," says Irish assistant head coach Mal Moore, "but that's before you take a look at how hard he works and his dedication to the game."

During his senior year at Arcola High School in Arcola, Ill, Monahan did not appear destined to play football in blue and gold for Notre Dame. Although he rushed for better than 1,300 yards and earned all-league status, he was not recruited by the Irish.

"I was looked at by a few Division II schools," Monahan says, "but the offers stopped coming when I told them I was going to Notre Dame. I wanted to walk on. I wanted to see if I could play big-time college football."

The choice was a natural one for the 5-10, 210-pounder. His father Tim is a former Irish football player, and his uncle Jim was captain of the basketball team in 1967. Playing football for Notre Dame was something he wanted to do, and that's exactly what he did.

"I was invited to join the prep team as soon as practice started," he says. "They already had looked at some films of me and had decided to keep me around. (The prep team) wasn't too bad. I hoped to get my chance to move up when (Mark) Brooks and (Chris) Smith left. I knew I couldn't beat them out." Monahan was given his chance earlier, however, carrying the ball twice for 17 yards in Notre Dame's 55-14 thrashing of Colorado last season. With the graduation of Brooks and Smith last spring, Monahan is behind only sophomore Frank Stamps on the depth chart this fall. Moore can only praise the efforts of his fullback.

"I'm convinced that this team has always risen to the occasion," Grace said. "The difference in the score came from Northwestern's forward Dennis Grace scoring his players are up to the challenge.

"I'm convinced that this team has always risen to the occasion," Grace said. "They've risen to the challenge time and the obstacles in front of them, and I've been extremely disappointed if they don't do the same thing against Bowling Green."

"I'm disappointed if they don't do the same thing against Bowling Green."

Grace was having trouble getting Sunday's loss out of his mind on Monday, though.

"Everything was going their way, but we just beat them with a great effort," he said.

The Irish fans can look forward to watching more hardnosed football from Monahan for the remainder of this season, and probably in 1986 as well. He has one year of eligibility remaining, and plans to make the most of it. "They've asked me to come back next year," he explains. "Right now, I plan to stay here as long as they want me."

"They've asked me to come back next year," he explains. "Right now, I plan to stay here as long as they want me."

Moore realizes the value of Monahan perhaps better than anyone.

"He's not gifted with natural ability," Moore says, "but he's up there with the best of them.

"He's not gifted with natural ability," Moore says, "but he's up there with the best of them.

You have to tip your hat to him."

"He's not gifted with natural ability," Moore says, "but he's up there with the best of them. You have to tip your hat to him."

Consider it done.

Irish backfield Tom Monahan leads the blocking on this play against Purdue. Marty Strasen features the hard-working Monahan in his story above.

Senior walk-on

Hard work pays off for Monahan

By PHIL WOLF
Assistant Sports Editor

The Notre Dame soccer team will play host to Bowling Green on Alumni Field this afternoon at 4 in an attempt to continue the rescue of its 2-5-2 season. The 2-5-2 Falcons are coming off the tie last weekend with national powerhouse Akron, so they are expected to be flying high.

"The thing to do is not to dwell on the loss at this point," Grace said.

Grace was having trouble getting Sunday's loss out of his mind on Monday, though.

"It seems like every time we make a mistake, we pay big dividends, we pay a big price," Grace said, as he has many times this season. "But when the other teams make mistakes, we don't capitalize."

The Irish were able to capitalize on their own good play Saturday, when they beat Wisconsin-Green Bay, 3-2, in overtime. Notre Dame got goals from Martin Leo, Bill Gross and Martin Mangialardi to notch the victory. Tom Gerlach and Joe Sternberg contributed one assist each.

Approximately 1,600 spectators were in attendance at the homecoming game for the Phoenix. The Irish also went up against a referee whom Grace said was biased to the home team, and several Notre Dame players still were recovering from the flu which swept through the team last week. In short, the Irish faced "a tremendous battle," as the visiting coach called it.

Grace said the adverse conditions that the Irish had faced previously this season turned them up for that battle, however.

"We fought like heck. We did the things we had to do," he said. "We played a great second half, we really put it to them, and we beat a heck of a team at their homecoming. Everything was in their favor. Everything was going their way, but we just beat them with a great effort."

Another great effort will be required today against Bowling Green.

How you live may save your life.

Please make donations at the University Health Center.

Questions? Call Kate Crowley or Patty Cunen at 284-5174.

Kevin Hurley

Blood drive

The blood drive will be open on:

October 1 & 2
10:00 AM - 12:00 PM
12:30 PM - 3:30 PM

October 8 & 9
12:30 PM - 3:30 PM

October 15 & 16
12:30 PM - 3:30 PM

October 29 & 30
12:30 PM - 3:30 PM

Please make donations at the University Health Center.

Today

Bloom County

Welcome to Passageway National Park Area 2 (End of Week) Still available at 12:00 PM.

“LADY, WE CAN’T PARK HERE" Tween the trees. Go "NANO;n we see the sign. And get no little one to stop "PARKING" on the road. Makes dam Saturay!!

Zeto

Our paper, where were you at the night of October 1st?

In my room when my popcorn popped set off the alarm all night!

Berke Breathed

As I was saying, I thought you never heard of the Maintained balance of today.

Kevin Walsh

Still busy, aren’t I? I have two things on Monday, September 23, 1985.

ILOCK GUNS, I’M NOT SET THE GROGO ON Fire.

The Far Side

Gary Larson

“And now here comes Zulu. If this isn’t weird—middle of the night, and for some reason we’re all restless.”

Campus

1:20 P.M. - 4:00 P.M. - Arts and Letters Career Day, CLE - Lower Level Dining Area, Sponsored by Career and Placement Services. All students invited to attend.

2:15 P.M. - Workshop, Economics Department Labor Workshop, James Stewart, Pennsylvania State University, 135 Decla Hall, Sponsored by Economics Department.

4:00 P.M. - Soccer, Notre Dame vs. Bowling Green, Alumni Field.

7:00 P.M. - Presentation/Reception, Amoco Production Company, Senior Alumni Club, Sponsored by Career and Placement Services, For scheduled Accountancy Seniors.

Dinner Menus

10:00 P.M. - 12:00 A.M. - 6:00 P.M. - 8:00 P.M. - 10:00 P.M.

TV Tonight

6:00 P.M. - 22 Eyewitness News

7:00 P.M. - 22 Three’s Company

8:00 P.M. - 22 Dynasty

9:00 P.M. - 22 Renewed Mind

10:00 P.M. - 22 Eye, Eye News

11:00 P.M. - 22 ABC News Nightline

1:00 A.M. - 22 Botswana

2:00 A.M. - 22 Independent Network News

The SAB Presents

Wednesday, October 2, 1985 — page 11
The mighty Farley flag football team returned to its championship form last week by picking up two big wins while ousting its opponents 42-0.

At the midpoint of this season, there are only two undefeated teams remaining. One is the defending champ, Farley, and the other is last year’s runner-up, Pasquerilla West.

There were three games last Thursday. Farley, after a last second 14-12 win over Lyons, continued its winning ways by trouncing Lewis, 26-0.

Pasquerilla West opened up a potent offense to defeat its counterpart, Pasquerilla West, 31-15.

In the other game Thursday, the dark horse of this year’s flag football field, Lyons, downed the always gritty Breen Phillips, 14-6.

Last season, we did not have a single senior so we did not lose anyone. We have a great freshman crop that adds talent to our team while adding to the already squad to stay fresh,” commented Lyons’ coach Jeanne Luther.

Lyons then defeated Badin 6-2 last night to up its record to 2-1. Lyons’ only defeat occurred at the hands of Pasquerilla West last week. With their 28th home run, which came against New York Mets starter John Tudor, who leads the majors with 10 shutouts, blanked the Mets for 10 innings on six hits.

‘The victory leaves Farley at 5-0 while lowering BPs’ ledger to 1-2. Despite the slow start, Schwartz is still optimistic. “We’ll bounce back and see them again in the playoffs,” Pasquerilla East upped their season record to 4-0 last night by defeating Walsh, 14-0. Just how good Farley is in a game that is still under process.

In today’s action, Pasquerilla West rebounded from its defeat to blank Walsh, 22-0. Meanwhile in a close affair, Pasquerilla East defeated the struggling Lewis Chickens 8-6.

The other game Sunday continued its Interhall flag football dominance by defeating rival Breen Phillips, 14-0.

“Tudor’s offensive pressure was too much for us. We didn’t contain Farley. We’re going to have to square off against PW in a 7 p.m. game Wednesday, but the light will be big enough Sunday,” Pasquerilla West baseball coach Brian Harper.

Orosco ended the game by retiring pinch-hitter Ivan DeJesus on a fly ball to Wilson.

A crowd of 44,025, the largest at Busch Stadium since a June 30 game against New York, watched the game in awe.

The Mets had scored mounting chances once and again in the ninth, and both times Tudor was equal to the challenge.

The Belles’ next game is against Wheaton College Saturday at 1 p.m. on Angela Field.

“I’m hoping we can play with the same determined defense and keep working the ball at midfield,” Aker said.

The mighty Farley flag football team returned to its championship form last week by picking up two big wins while ousting its opponents 42-0.

At the midpoint of this season, there are only two undefeated teams remaining. One is the defending champ, Farley, and the other is last year’s runner-up, Pasquerilla West.

There were three games last Thursday. Farley, after a last second 14-12 win over Lyons, continued its winning ways by trouncing Lewis, 26-0.

Pasquerilla West opened up a potent offense to defeat its counterpart, Pasquerilla West, 31-15.

In the other game Thursday, the dark horse of this year’s flag football field, Lyons, downed the always gritty Breen Phillips, 14-6.

Last season, we did not have a single senior so we did not lose anyone. We have a great freshman crop that adds talent to our team while adding to the already squad to stay fresh,” commented Lyons’ coach Jeanne Luther.

Lyons then defeated Badin 6-2 last night to up its record to 2-1. Lyons’ only defeat occurred at the hands of Pasquerilla West last week. With their 28th home run, which came against New York Mets starter John Tudor, who leads the majors with 10 shutouts, blanked the Mets for 10 innings on six hits.

‘The victory leaves Farley at 5-0 while lowering BPs’ ledger to 1-2. Despite the slow start, Schwartz is still optimistic. “We’ll bounce back and see them again in the playoffs,” Pasquerilla East upped their season record to 4-0 last night by defeating Walsh, 14-0. Just how good Farley is in a game that is still under process.

In today’s action, Pasquerilla West rebounded from its defeat to blank Walsh, 22-0. Meanwhile in a close affair, Pasquerilla East defeated the struggling Lewis Chickens 8-6.

The other game Sunday continued its Interhall flag football dominance by defeating rival Breen Phillips, 14-0.

“Tudor’s offensive pressure was too much for us. We didn’t contain Farley. We’re going to have to square off against PW in a 7 p.m. game Wednesday, but the light will be big enough Sunday,” Pasquerilla West baseball coach Brian Harper.

Orosco ended the game by retiring pinch-hitter Ivan DeJesus on a fly ball to Wilson.

A crowd of 44,025, the largest at Busch Stadium since a June 30 game against New York, watched the game in awe.

The Mets had scored mounting chances once and again in the ninth, and both times Tudor was equal to the challenge.

The Belles’ next game is against Wheaton College Saturday at 1 p.m. on Angela Field.

“I’m hoping we can play with the same determined defense and keep working the ball at midfield,” Aker said.