Healy, Lawrence answer questions on recall, senate

By MARK PANKOWSKI

Student Body President Bill Healy, facing a possible recall election and approximately 50 students last night, said although some perceive his working with University administration as "conspiring," it is the most effective way to achieve results.

"I can say to the administration, 'You're jerks, you're jerks, you're jerks. But what would that accomplish?" Healy said.

"I have met with the past student body president twice last year."

"I have access to (Hesburgh)," Healy said. I can call him later at night and tell him what the student body is thinking.

Healy, who along with Vice President Duane Lawrence answered questions for two hours at the open forum, defended his letter run as a full page ad in The Observer Oct. 18.

"It was not a defense of myself, " Healy said. "It was not a defense of a body, " he maintained.

The letter was not in response to the petition being sought for a seeking a recall election, Healy said. The issues addressed in the letter were concerns that students were bringing to us, " he said.

Healy and Lawrence also answered students' questions on what action student government is taking on the issue of parietal violations.

"I think the punishments are ridiculous," Healy said, referring to two students suspended from the University this semester for a parietal violation.

"If you don't care about life at its earliest stages, if you don't care about people, you should not be in government," he said. "People are humans, not doctors, for they do not heal anyone."

"If you don't try it, it won't happen," he said. "The Lord wants us to do it because he can't do it without us. That is not how he works for he won't force the human will."

A major obstacle that the pro-life movement must overcome is the 1973 Supreme Court decision in the Roe vs. Wade case, according to Scheidler. Russell said this is the "most recent in a long string of decisions that have been made by this court."

"Some laws must be disobeyed. You are morally bound to disobey such laws," he said. "They are not in the interest of the student body and paid for with student government money for an advertisement explaining his actions as president.

The resolution was rejected by Senator K.C. Culum that asked Student Body President Bill Healy to apologize to students for using student government money for an advertisement explaining his actions as president.

The resolution was rejected by Senator K.C. Culum that asked the Hall President's Council to reconsider a resolution they passed that put the question of student government money for an advertisement explaining his actions as president.

The resolution was rejected by Senator K.C. Culum that asked the Hall President's Council to reconsider a resolution they passed that put the question of student government money for an advertisement explaining his actions as president.

The resolution was rejected by Senator K.C. Culum that asked the Hall President's Council to reconsider a resolution they passed that put the question of student government money for an advertisement explaining his actions as president.

The resolution was rejected by Senator K.C. Culum that asked the Hall President's Council to reconsider a resolution they passed that put the question of student government money for an advertisement explaining his actions as president.

The resolution was rejected by Senator K.C. Culum that asked the Hall President's Council to reconsider a resolution they passed that put the question of student government money for an advertisement explaining his actions as president.

The resolution was rejected by Senator K.C. Culum that asked the Hall President's Council to reconsider a resolution they passed that put the question of student government money for an advertisement explaining his actions as president.

The issue Healy and Lawrence are seeking a recall election, Healy said. The issues addressed in the letter were concerns that students were bringing to us, " he said.

Healy and Lawrence also answered students' questions on what action student government is taking on the issue of parietal violations.

"I think the punishments are ridiculous," Healy said, referring to two students suspended from the University this semester for a parietal violation.

"If you don't care about life at its earliest stages, if you don't care about people, you should not be in government," he said. "People are humans, not doctors, for they do not heal anyone."

"If you don't try it, it won't happen," he said. "The Lord wants us to do it because he can't do it without us. That is not how he works for he won't force the human will."

A major obstacle that the pro-life movement must overcome is the 1973 Supreme Court decision in the Roe vs. Wade case, according to Scheidler. Russell said this is the "most recent in a long string of decisions that have been made by this court."

"Some laws must be disobeyed. You are morally bound to disobey such laws," he said. "They are not in the interest of the student body and paid for with student government money for an advertisement explaining his actions as president.

The resolution was rejected by Senator K.C. Culum that asked Student Body President Bill Healy to apologize to students for using student government money for an advertisement explaining his actions as president.

The resolution was rejected by Senator K.C. Culum that asked the Hall President's Council to reconsider a resolution they passed that put the question of student government money for an advertisement explaining his actions as president.

The resolution was rejected by Senator K.C. Culum that asked the Hall President's Council to reconsider a resolution they passed that put the question of student government money for an advertisement explaining his actions as president.

The resolution was rejected by Senator K.C. Culum that asked the Hall President's Council to reconsider a resolution they passed that put the question of student government money for an advertisement explaining his actions as president.

The resolution was rejected by Senator K.C. Culum that asked the Hall President's Council to reconsider a resolution they passed that put the question of student government money for an advertisement explaining his actions as president.

The resolution was rejected by Senator K.C. Culum that asked the Hall President's Council to reconsider a resolution they passed that put the question of student government money for an advertisement explaining his actions as president.

The resolution was rejected by Senator K.C. Culum that asked the Hall President's Council to reconsider a resolution they passed that put the question of student government money for an advertisement explaining his actions as president.

The resolution was rejected by Senator K.C. Culum that asked the Hall President's Council to reconsider a resolution they passed that put the question of student government money for an advertisement explaining his actions as president.

The resolution was rejected by Senator K.C. Culum that asked the Hall President's Council to reconsider a resolution they passed that put the question of student government money for an advertisement explaining his actions as president.
Alcohol awareness must increase

The Hibernian Lecture sponsored by the Charles and Margaret Caniwa Center for the Study of American Catholicism will be held tomorrow afternoon in the lounge of the Memorial Library. Professor Lawrence McCall of the department of history, Loyola University will speak on "Fictional Images of Irish Alcoholism" will be held tomorrow afternoon in the lounge of the and Margaret Hall Cushwa Center for the Study of American Catholicism and open to the public. From 1 to 4 p.m. tomorrow in the Little Theater. Both events are free and open to the public. - The Observer

Mary Healy
Accent Editor

"The alcohol policy was done with good intentions but I don't think it's achieving the purpose it set out to achieve," said Healy. "It's not doing enough."

Recently Mark submitted a proposal to the Hall Presidents' Council asking that it support his idea to offer a course at Notre Dame on addictions, a course he believes is a crucial step toward alcohol awareness. He is planning petition to be circulated in the dorms. Even student government has taken action by creating the position of Alcohol Commissioner. This year's commissioner, Fidi Parasso, is organizing an alcohol awareness week scheduled for February. Events will include lectures, discussions and films on alcohol awareness and rehabilitation, drunk driving and the physiological effects of drinking. A lecture will be given at Senior Bar and students at various levels of intoxica- tion will be given sample breathalyzer tests.

At Saint Mary's, a student survey on alcohol use was taken last year and its results will be announced Monday. Next week is Alcohol Awareness Week at the Col- lege Events will include talks on the history of drinking at Saint Mary's, the personal story of recovering alcoholic, and the benefits of endorphins or "natural highs."

Alcohol awareness meetings are being held on both campuses. At the meetings, a recovered alcoholic relates his or her personal story, followed by an open discussion.

An open AA meeting (for anyone interested in learning more about alcoholism) was held at Dillion Hall last month and attended by at least 15 students. Another, geared to women, will be held Monday at 7 p.m. in Breen Phillips.

Witches may want to don longhorns and raincoats when they hop on their broomsticks tonight. A 60 percent chance of rain tonight and tomorrow. Low tonight in the mid to upper 40s. High tomorrow in the upper 50s to low 60s. - AP

Mary Ellen Harp, Adjunct Professor

Alcohol awareness must increase

"Heading to Senior Bar tonight?"
"Yeah, and after that there's a party at Campus View."
"I'm going to get ripped this weekend!"
"I'll get poisoned instead to make a beer run."

Everyone at Notre Dame and Saint Mary's has heard sentences like these before. Most have spoken them in one version or another. What clearer signals are there than another weekend is about to begin?

To most students, such words are harmless descriptions of a night's activities, and at times, the products of a week full of stress.

But to others, these words take on a different meaning. They become not an occasional indulgence, but a mode of existence that another weekend is about to begin?

To most students, such words are harmless descriptions of a night's activities, and at times, the products of a week full of stress.

But to others, these words take on a different meaning. They become not an occasional indulgence, but a mode of existence that another weekend is about to begin?

To most students, such words are harmless descriptions of a night's activities, and at times, the products of a week full of stress.

But to others, these words take on a different meaning. They become not an occasional indulgence, but a mode of existence that another weekend is about to begin?
Principle is Important

Parietals are a positive influence on the residentiality of Notre Dame and distinguish it from other universities. Unfortunately, the severe penalty inflicted upon students who violate this rule also distinguishes Notre Dame.

The punishment of suspension or dismissal regardless of circumstances contradicts the Catholic nature of the University. Removing a student from Notre Dame when there is no moral issue in question is detrimental to both the students and our community. When the punishment is so unforgiving that it denies the Notre Dame and Christian ideals of compassion for one’s fellow man in a time of real need, something is wrong with the principle.

This has been the case recently and will continue to blemish the character of the school unless you, the parents, students and faculty of the University, Please take action against this unjust penalty, take the time to write Vice President of Student Affairs Father David Tyson to show your displeasure with this punishment. Don’t allow the opportunity to pass • act now.

Vice President of Student Affairs
Father David Tyson
c/o OBUD
LaFortune Center
Notre Dame, IN 46556

but What About the People?

Abortion
continued from page 1
up to $100,000 trying to pay for their education. It is a need to pay off such debts that drives some medical students into the abortion industry, said Scheidler. In this industry, “abortionists can make as much as $250,000 in their first year and can pay off these debts quickly.”

Scheidler does see the near future with a genuine sense of optimism. Citing the increasing number of closed abortion clinics, fearful, embarrassed doctors, and effective picketing measures, Scheidler declared, “I think we are going to win this thing. We are going to whittle away at that law which even Justice Sandra Day O’Connor has said is ‘on a collision course with itself.’

South Africans elect party stressing reform

Associated Press

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa - The National Party, putting its race reform measures on the line with white voters in five special parliamentary elections, handily won one race yesterday, narrowly defeated an ultra-rightist in another and lost a third, unofficial returns showed.

Results were not in from two conservative farming communities. The elections were viewed as a gauge of white feeling toward the government’s limited moves away from apartheid after 14 months of black riots and a deepening economic crisis.

Meanwhile, police said at least seven blacks were killed yesterday and late Tuesday in violence believed linked to unrest against apartheid, South Africa’s system of enforced racial separation.

In Sandburg, south of Johannesburg, an ultra-right candidate, Louis Stoffberg of the Reformed National Party, defeated the National Party candidate by 567 votes out of nearly 10,000 cast.

Stoffberg’s victory was the first parliamentary seat won by his party since it broke from the National Party 16 years ago when the Nationalists suggested allowing racial integration on the country’s athletic fields.

One National Party victory came in Port Natal, near Durban, where Home Minister Stoffel Botha won easily, as expected.

The second win was in Springs, a depressed blue-collar town east of Johannesburg that was until now solidly Nationalist.

The government’s candidate, former journalist P.W. Coetzee defeated the Conservative Party candidate by only 749 votes out of nearly 10,000 cast.

Results were not in from Bethlehem and Vryburg, both farm communities. The balloting was to fill midterm vacancies in the whites-only chamber, which has final say in the three-chamber Parliament. Blacks have no vote and no chamber.

Senate
continued from page 1

virement explaining what Healy’s administration has accomplished that appeared in last week’s Observer.

The resolution demanded that Healy refund the money and make a formal apology to the senate and student body.

The resolution was defeated 11-4. “I do question was it serving student government or Bill Healy the student. Most students said that it’s serving Bill Healy,” Colm said.

But Judicial Council Coordinator Karen Ingwerson disagreed with this view. “I think the letter told students what student government is doing,” Ingwerson said.

Senator Chris Abood said he thought Healy had every right to spend the money and that the senate could not force him to refund it.

In other business, the senate unanimously passed a resolution sponsored by Culum requesting the administration to clarify its rules regarding where and when a student can be punished.

The resolution also expressed the senate’s dissatisfaction with the administration’s treatment of Dillon Hall residents who sponsored a tailgate in Ann Arbor, Mich. “You read du Lac it’s very vague,” said Culum. “We want parameters made as to when we will be made accountable.”

“I’m not saying whether or not Dillon Hall should have been punished, I’m not questioning the right of the administration to punish. I want some parameters defined,” Culum added.

Clip and Post "paid for by the Hall Presidents’ Council"
Soviet journalists to conduct Reagan interview today

Associated Press

WASHINGTON - President Reagan, in a pre-summit gesture to the Soviet Union, will be questioned today by four journalists from Moscow in the first interview granted by an American president to the Soviet press in nearly a quarter of a century.

The session, at 2 p.m. EST in the Oval Office, is "a unique and historic opportunity for the president to communicate directly with the people of the Soviet Union," said White House spokesman Larry Speakes. "We hope it is a sign of a new and more open interaction policy on the part of the Soviet Union."

No restrictions have been imposed on the Soviets' questions, although they are likely to focus on Reagan's summit Nov. 19-20 with Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev in Geneva and superpower relations, Speakes said. He said the United States has not asked to review in advance what will be published.

"They will report it as they wish to report it," he said. Likewise, he said there was no requirement for the Soviets to publish the full text of the questions and answers.

"We think a sufficient amount of the interview will be conveyed," Speakes said. "We have no reservations about the matter."

The material probably will be published first on Sunday in the Soviet government newspaper Izvestia, followed by the release of a complete transcript by the White House.

In other developments related to the summit:

"It was announced that Reagan will address a joint session of Congress at 9 p.m. EST on Nov. 21, immediately upon his return from Geneva. On his way back to Washington, Reagan will stop off for two hours in Brussels to report to allied leaders at NATO headquarters on the summit.

"Reagan said he was "personally hopeful" and "serving" to present a counteroffensive before the summit — to the recent arms proposal from Moscow, which calls for a 50 percent reduction in strategic nuclear weapons. In an interview with Britain's BBC radio, Reagan said the Soviet proposal contains both "seeds to nurture" as well as "some thing that we believe are so disadvantageous to us that they should be negotiated and some made more.

"Reagan, asked by the BBC, what he hoped to accomplish in the summit, said, "I think that the most that we could get out is if we could eliminate some of the paranoia, if we could reduce the hostility, the suspicion that keeps out two countries particularly . . . at odds with each other."

Speakes said the journalists would have about a half hour with Reagan. Their questions will be posed to Reagan in Russian, and translated into English by an interpreter. Reagan's replies will not be translated into Russian on the spot because of the journalists' fluency in English, Speakes said.

The White House will provide the Soviets with a Russian-language translation of the interview, Speakes said.

"We will certainly be able to read their reply to see if it is published in its entirety and see if the translation agrees with their translation," Speakes added.

He said the Soviets have not replied yet to a longstanding U.S. proposal for Reagan to appear on Soviet television.

Shooting in mall kills 2

Associated Press

SPRINGFIELD, Pa. - A woman in army fatigues and black boots opened fire with a semiautomatic rifle in a crowded shopping mall yesterday, taking a man and a 4-year-old boy, and wounding eight others before she was subdued by a passerby, police said.

The 26-year-old woman was taken into custody by following the 5 p.m. rampage at the Springfield Mall in Delaware County, said Springfield Township Police Chief George Hill. Police then closed the shopping center.

Police had dealt with the woman before because of "emotional problems," said John McKenna of the Delaware County district attorney's office. Neither he nor Hill would identify her.

The woman got out of her car at an entrance to the mall and began shooting the 22-caliber rifle at a woman using an automatic bank machine, but missed her, Hill said.

"Then she began firing at everybody and anybody who got in her path," he said.

A 4-year-old boy near the mall entrance was shot fatally, Hill said.

She then moved inside the mall, turning and firing as she worked her way through the crowded main walkway, firing more than 15 shots in less than five minutes, Hill said.

The woman went on a random shooting rampage until she was wrestled to the ground by a college student outside a shoe store, he said.

Jack Lauter, 24, of Medina, "grabbed her from behind, wrestled her to the ground and kicked the rifle away," Hill said.

She still had several rounds in the rifle when the student jumped her, he said.

It was not known immediately where the 40-year-old man was slain.

The victims, who ranged in age from 2 to 67, were taken to six hospitals.

THE POPS ARE BACK!

Live! in Concert

Saturday, November 2, 1985
8:00 PM
Washington Hall
University of Notre Dame

GRAMMY NOMINEES FOR "HELTER SKELTER"
TICKETS $4/$2 WITH STUDENT ID.
ON SALE AT:
Rock Du Lac
[main fortune record store]
Record Connection and Nightwinds
sponsored by AROUND THE CORNER...
Democrats criticize Reagan's SS cuts

Associated Press

WASHINGTON — Congressional Democrats charged yesterday that President Reagan's attempt to cut 17,000 positions from Social Security's staff by 1990 is a back-door effort to erode service and undermine support for the program.

Several senators and representatives held a news conference to release copies of internal Social Security documents discussing possible cutbacks in service.

"It's all a very clever game to build up public antipathy and resentment of the program," said Sen. Paul Sarbanes of Maryland, where officials are worried acutely about a potential loss of thousands of jobs at the Social Security Administration headquarters in Baltimore.

The Reagan administration has acknowledged previously it wants to eliminate 17,000 of Social Security's 79,600 jobs by 1990 through attrition. But spokesman James Brown said yesterday, "There is absolutely no list of offices to be closed or combined." No position will be eliminated "if it would reduce the level of service we give to the public," he said.

Twenty-four members of the House, including two Republicans, Virginia Smith of Nebraska and Clarence Miller of Ohio, signed a letter urging colleagues to accept a Senate appropriations rider that would bar Social Security from cutting 1,000 jobs or closing offices in fiscal 1986.

Sen. Lawton Chiles, D-Fla., the author with Sarbanes of that prohibition, said lines at the nation's 1,300 Social Security offices already are "too long" and any plan for further cutbacks is "reprehensible."

Social Security has already reduced its staff by the equivalent of 7,000 full-time workers in the past four years.

An Aug. 29, 1985, memo by Louis Enoff, deputy Social Security commissioner for programs and policy, said clerks spend the largest amount of time helping people piece together all the information needed to get a retirement benefit.
Night Lights

Gleaming in the night, the space shuttle Challenger sits on launch pad 39A, ready for its seven-day mission.

Security tight for Ghandi's anniversary

Associated Press

NEW DELHI, India

Sharpshooters in trees will help guard Prime Minister Rajiv Gandhi when he addresses a rally expected to number a million people today, the anniversary of his mother's assassination.

Angry Sikh militants in Punjab called a counter rally to glorify her slain Sikh assassin as a martyr.

Elaborate security plans, including helicopters, were laid out yesterday for the New Delhi rally honoring Indira Gandhi, Rajiv's mother and predecessor.

"Security is so tight that even birds will not reach him (Gandhi)," the Statesman newspaper reported.

Throughout the capital, more than 35,000 police and security troops were posted to prevent Sikh terrorist attacks on the first anniversary of the day when Gandhi's own security guards shot her on the garden path of her residential compound.

Speakers at the rally will include Mother Teresa of Calcutta, winner of the 1979 Nobel Peace Prize for working with slum dwellers.

One Sikh guard, Satwant Singh, is on trial for murder in Mrs. Gandhi's death. Two other Sikhs are charged with conspiracy. The government says a second Sikh gunman, Beant Singh, was killed at the scene by police.

The government says the prime minister was killed to avenge her ordering the army attack on the Golden Temple in Amritsar in June 1984 to root out Sikh terrorists.

More than 1,200 people died during the attack.

In Sikh-dominated Punjab, security forces were bolstered as militants put up hundreds of posters of Beant Singh and other slain extremists and set a rally for today in the Golden Temple, the holiest shrine of the Sikh religion.

Activities demanding a separate Sikh nation called for a "Beant Singh Martyr's Day Rally," hailing him as "the man who saved the falling turban of the Sikhs...the Sikh nation's leading warrior."

India has 13 million Sikhs, who make up 2 percent of its 750 million population. Most Sikhs want greater autonomy for their state.
Viewpoint

Board stepping toward increased effectiveness

Twice a year a group of 50 people visits Notre Dame. This is the University's Board of Trustees, the school's ultimate governing body. Until now students have had only a muffled voice on this board.

Soon the student voice will be amplified. Two of the board's four committees—the university relations and academic and faculty affairs committees—are considering admitting student members. Because the committee is the backbone of the board, student committee members would allow the student body to participate meaningfully in governing the University. From their role on these two committees, students would have potential for substantial input to the board.

Anthony Early, chairman of the student affairs committee, said students already occupy seats on his committee. But these "student committee members," to this date, have been permitted to attend only select meetings of their committee.

It is doubtful a student will occupy a seat on the investment committee in the near future. Last week Robert Wilzmouth, chairman of this committee, said such a position would provide more of a learning experience for the student member than a source of positive input to the board. By hiding behind such an excuse, Wilzmouth is denying the intelligence of Notre Dame students and ignoring the other merits of a student committee member.

The ad hoc committee on South African investments demonstrates that students are knowledgeable on investment issues and are able to deal with them responsibly. On controversial issues such as tuition increases and University investments in South Africa, the trustees are often viewed as villains. The presence of a student on the investment committee would help defuse such an attitude and underline the lines of communication between the students and what they view as the powers that be.

To be an effective body as possible the board needs to seek out all perspectives of Notre Dame. Because students are the main focus of the University, their viewpoint must not be overlooked or stifled.

Establishing student committee members with full board privileges and responsibilities would be a giant step toward effective and proper student participation in governing their university. But if students are permitted to serve on the board's individual committees, why not on the full board?

The trustees argued that a student trustee with full voting rights and privileges would not be as effective as student committee members. Many have said that most of the board's decisions are determined by consensus, not by actual votes, and that most of the actual work of the board is done within the committees.

Given such an organizational structure, a student on the board would not hinder its work. On the contrary, the establishment of a student trustee would symbolize the fact that we are seeking the value and necessity of students in attaining a complete view of the University.

In looking at the results of last week's trustee meeting it is obvious the board wants student participation in the governing process. Student committee members would be a first step toward unzmuzzling the student voice on the board. The final step must provide a voice in which a student speaks clearly as a full trustee.

---

Filial appreciation, love develop from maturity

In December of 1967 I lost my position as only son. At the time I did not know what my future would entail, but although I doubt that I fully understand the position now, it is clear what it means to have a brother.

The 18 years since that December day have been filled with many things inherent in the family situation: name-calling, tattle-tailing, fighting and competing.

John A. Mennell

---

Quote of the day

"At last, small witches, goblins, bags, and pirates armed with paper bags, Their costumes hinged on safety gates. Go haunt a night of pumpkin grins."

John Updike

---

The Observer
America should assist blacks in South Africa

Editorial

Those who call for the withdrawal of American companies from South Africa are right on target; but they focus too narrowly on one aspect of a much larger problem. Not only should the United States end its political and economic collusion with the white government, but it should also offer assistance, at least moral if not material, to the African National Congress and other political factions which struggle to throw off the chains of oppression within that country.

The day has long since passed when South African blacks can achieve their freedom by non-violent means alone. The white government has proved itself intransigent to the point of fanaticism, and the aid which we should withdraw will never be able to carry over into the battle. As Arthur Schlesinger, Jr. once remarked, "A closed society in the defense of evil institutions creates moral differences far too profound to be solved by compromise. The unhappy fact is that man occasionally works himself up into a frenzy, and the log jam must be burst by violence."

The question regarding South Africa is not whether our interests or those of our own interests from the log jam. Surely our national security (not to mention the demands of conscience) suggest that we should withdraw the wealth of American support from that opposed to evil. If not, then the West will lose a friend that we choose to bring it tumbling down.

David K. Seld

Assessment of problem leaves much desired

Editorial

It would be difficult for me to convey effectively the rage I felt after reading the Viewpoint letter of October 29. It would be impossible for me to express all of the points that I think need to be addressed. But it is interesting to note that it is no secret that the chairmen of the Hall of the Senate's Council of Student Senate are making the right comments. The Observer will be a free nation soon.

Kevin Howard answers attack on his position

October 29, 1985

"How would things look if Rome (without counting to be Rome) were a democracy instead of a republic?"

Kevin Howard answers

The Observer is the independent newspaper published by the students of the University of Notre Dame. We strive to provide fair and balanced coverage of all events and issues. Our goal is to hold those in power accountable and to provide a platform for students to share their voices. We encourage debate and respectful discussion. Your comments are appreciated.
The ice this fiend swipes can really be finger licking good

MARY BERGER

The clattering "Tink, tink, tink, tick, tick, tick, tink, tink" as a box of fudgeicles is slid not-too-discreetly under a sweater full another attempt to steal something tasty from the cafeteria. An alert University Food Services worker is poised at the door ready to disarm the culprit, as the student spectators become more aware of each move the opponents make. The Fudgesicle Fiend slides the plain, brown box on to a chair as she spots what is awaiting her and while still appearing to concentrate on the paperwork in her hands. After consulting her accomplice, the Fudgesicle Fiend stands and chases a bit more, appearing to the worker to be in a deep conversa-

"Did they get away with it?" "I wonder if she caught them?" "She should have left the keys!" Curiosity fills the air as the students try to settle down to their reubens, leftover ravioli, and legal fudgeicles. Then... she emerges. Victorious and with the evidence in her own hot little hands, the pride of University Food Services returns to the dining room amid roars, cheers, and extensive hand clapping. It seems a standing ovation is appropriate for the moment but our heroine is back to her job at the bat of an eye. She returns to the checking area and is then seen recounting her colorful tale to her co-workers, a huge grin on her face.

Another great day at the North Dining Hall for our unwavering worker. But, another battle attempt for the Fudgesicle Fiend and her cohorts. With heads hanging, the Fudgesicle Fiend and her companions return to their rooms, plotting all the way how to palm those popsicles tomorrow.
Russia

continued from page 9

how hard the government tries to stamp out religion and people's belief in God, they still believe in Him. It was a sign of hope for me."

INTOURIST did give the students an opportunity to meet Russian students, but only high school students who firmly believed in the Communist party's doctrine. When

Sheeran's group asked to visit Moscow University, the tour guide
brushed them off saying, "Nothing
where he could find other dissidents. Sheeran wanted to help him, but he did not want to take the chance that the man was really a KGB agent, so he did not even answer him.

All of the students who visited the Soviet Union thought it was an educational experience. Kueber
summed it up: "Russia is a fascinating land, and there's much Americans should make an effort to study Russia, their land, their culture, and their language."

Read aloud the Gospel according to Matthew, recounting how an angel told Joseph not to be afraid
to Matthew, recounting how an angel told Joseph not to be afraid
to Matthew, recounting how an angel told Joseph not to be afraid
to Matthew, recounting how an
angel told Joseph not to be afraid

The council of Ministers' building is the main Soviet house of government.

The guy second next to God was driving by us

KATHY SCARBECK
features writer

The loud, staccato knocks
of the alarm clock as it rolled over and hit the snooze button on the alarm clock as it obnoxiously signalled the rude hour of 3:30 a.m. With a tremendous amount of effort, and more than a little help from their roommates, the members of the University of Notre Dame Inbound Program slowly arose from the haven of their beds to get ready for church. This would interest you there.

be no ordinary Mass, however,
as the location was the tiny European country of Liechtenstein. The celebrant was Prince 8, the Church's designated bera.

Perhaps the most educational aspect of the visit was experiencing first hand, a society without basic human rights. Traveling students were well aware of the fact that they could easily get into trouble
for as little as saying something wrong.

A man approached Sheeran's group in Moscow and said he was a dissident and wanted to know

The itinerary includes visits to Leningrad, Moscow, and Tbilisi,
the capital of the Georgian republic.
This last stop is meant to show the diversity of the Soviet Union, since Tbilisi has a different climate, heritage, people and history than the other two cities.

There would also be an opportunity to sightsee in Helsinki.

The deadline for sign-up was Monday, however students still can sign up if they pay a late fee. Also any student wishing to sign up should already have a passport.

The total price for the trip, late fees included, is about $1500, but if enough students sign up, this price could drop to as low as $1325.

These prices include round trip transportation from New York to South Bend (arriving on the night before registration) and board, guide costs and visa ex-

Our Lady of Smolensk is no longer a functioning Orthodox church.

All aboard for Russia

HANNAH HACKER
features writer

In Moscow, the tour guide
brushed them off saying, "Nothing
would interest you there.

Perhaps the most educational
aspect of the visit was experiencing first hand, a society without basic
human rights. Traveling students were well aware of the fact that they could easily get into trouble
for as little as saying something
wrong.

A man approached Sheeran's
group in Moscow and said he was a dissident and wanted to know

where he could find other dissidents. Sheeran wanted to help him,
but he did not want to take the
chance that the man was really a KGB agent, so he did not even
answer him.

All of the students who visited
the Soviet Union thought it was an educational experience. Kueber
summed it up: "Russia is a fascinating land, and there's much
Americans should make an effort to study Russia, their land, their
culture, and their language."

The Observer/Ed Sheeran

The Observer/Ed Sheeran

A snow covered church in Kiev adorned in gold

The Observer/Ed Sheeran

Our Lady of Smolensk is no longer a functioning Orthodox church.

All aboard for Russia

HANNAH HACKER
features writer

In Moscow, the tour guide
brushed them off saying, "Nothing
would interest you there.

Perhaps the most educational
aspect of the visit was experiencing first hand, a society without basic
human rights. Traveling students were well aware of the fact that they could easily get into trouble
for as little as saying something
wrong.

A man approached Sheeran's
group in Moscow and said he was a dissident and wanted to know

where he could find other dissidents. Sheeran wanted to help him,
but he did not want to take the
chance that the man was really a KGB agent, so he did not even
answer him.

All of the students who visited
the Soviet Union thought it was an educational experience. Kueber
summed it up: "Russia is a fascinating land, and there's much
Americans should make an effort to study Russia, their land, their
culture, and their language."

The Observer/Ed Sheeran

A snow covered church in Kiev adorned in gold

The Observer/Ed Sheeran

Our Lady of Smolensk is no longer a functioning Orthodox church.

All aboard for Russia

HANNAH HACKER
features writer

In Moscow, the tour guide
brushed them off saying, "Nothing
would interest you there.

Perhaps the most educational
aspect of the visit was experiencing first hand, a society without basic
human rights. Traveling students were well aware of the fact that they could easily get into trouble
for as little as saying something
wrong.

A man approached Sheeran's
group in Moscow and said he was a dissident and wanted to know

where he could find other dissidents. Sheeran wanted to help him,
but he did not want to take the
chance that the man was really a KGB agent, so he did not even
answer him.

All of the students who visited
the Soviet Union thought it was an educational experience. Kueber
summed it up: "Russia is a fascinating land, and there's much
Americans should make an effort to study Russia, their land, their
culture, and their language."

The Observer/Ed Sheeran
Sports Briefs

A pep rally will be held tomorrow at 7 p.m. in Stephan Center. Guest speakers will include members of the 1945 football team and Inside Linemate Coach George Kelly. - The Observer

WFVI sports will air coverage of both hockey and football this weekend. Pete Pratona and Vic Galgatii will co-host Saturday's Notre Dame Navy game, beginning at 2:50 p.m. Joe Malvezzi will cover Valpo hockey and anchor coverage of the Irish hockey team beginning at 7:20 Friday night and 8:20 Saturday night. - The Observer

The Saint Mary's soccer team lost to Hope College yesterday 2-0. This is Saint Mary's first shutout of the season under Coach Schetler scored for the Belles. The Belles play their final game of the season Saturday at noon against Loyola (Chi.). - The Observer

SCM acrobatic classes will be held beginning Monday and running through to the end of the semester. Classes will meet Friday 9:30-10:30, Monday and Wednesday, and from 5-6 p.m. Tuesday and Thursday. The entry fee of $5 will be accepted at the Angela Athletic Facility. - The Observer

Classifieds

NOTICES

Lost: I really wouldn't have noticed my lost gavel if I hadn't been hunting for it today. Happy Birthday to anyone (please call 300-1204)

Found: Woman's white satiny one-piece bathing suit. Please call Larry at 239-6080.

Lost: Alost last week at Xavier Center Friday night after co-op. If you have it, return to 239-6588.

Lost: My sunglasses (brown tortoise shell case and gold frame. They are black, round, and sport a small circular metal emblem on the left side.

Lost: Navy's G.A. watch. Please call Char at 277-6088.

Lost: Tony is someone who would really appreciate finding his Navy wallet. This happened to get it, don't hesitate to let him know.

PERSONALS

WANTED

WANTED: A used 1983 Monarch sewing machine, in working condition, for $50.00 or best offer. Call Nancy at 429-4068.

WANTED: A K-Glasper portable Jigsaw. If you have one, call Steve at 201-3010.

WANTED: I'm looking for a used Travel Agency brochure. Can you help me? Please contact Escobar at 500-3709.

TIPS

TIP: I used to die of Homesickness. I don't anymore. I've found a way to cope with it. I make sure I stay busy at school and spend as much time as possible with my friends and family. It helps.

NOTICE

The Observer Notes office, located on the third floor of Laboratory Academic Center, will be open from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday through Friday. The Observer Saint Mary's office, located on the third floor of Hagger College Center, accepts classifieds 1:30 p.m. to 4 p.m. Mon. through Thurs. Deadline 12 p.m. - Classifieds staff will not be available 2-3 p.m. All classifieds must be posted either in person, by mail or via in-classcornet. Char-acter limit is 100.

The Observer
Paxson signs offer sheet with Bulls

San Antonio Spurs guard John Paxson has signed a free-agent offer sheet with the Chicago Bulls, according to officials of the National Basketball Association team.

The Spurs have 15 days to match Chicago's offer. Bull's spokesman Tim Hallam said Tuesday, adding that the terms of the offer were not available.

If Paxson signs a Bulls contract, Chicago would have to make room for him on its 12-man roster.

The Observer/File Photo

Former Notre Dame and current San Antonio Spurs guard John Paxson signed a free-agent offer sheet with the Chicago Bulls yesterday. Details appear at right.

Show ND or SMC student or staff ID and get a 10% discount

18081 State Road 23
Near Ironwood
South Bend, Indiana 46637
ARMDIA KOBEB
(219) 277-2870

BLESSED SACRAMENT FATHERS AND BROTHERS (S.S.S)

Religious communities are not for the few and not for the many. As we look around, we see people who resemble us in many ways—physical features, shared feelings and human experiences, common goals, and yet who are very different from us in their individuality, life or any defined person by their differences rather than to that which distinguishes us from others.

In the Catholic Church there are hundreds of religious communities, or orders. Some of these orders are ancient and others have come out of a current tradition—whether Pope John Paul II refers to the "consecrated life" and that which much in common the many, community living, and a share in the Church's mission of spreading the Kingdom of God.

But each religious community has something which makes it one or different from the others, too. This characteristic gift of the Holy Spirit is each community's unique ideal or spirit which, when added to the whole, manifest the richness of the mystery of salvation in Jesus Christ. It is, indeed, like a single piece of colored stone in a mosaic, to form part of the bigger picture of Jesus Christ today.

The Congregation of the Blessed Sacrament (or the Blessed Sacrament Fathers and Brothers) is a relatively new and small community among the Church's religious communities. Founded in the year 1856 by Saint Peter Julian Eymard, popularly known as "the Apostle of the Eucharist," to promote awareness and supervision for the eucharistic Presence of the risen Lord. From its humble beginnings in Paris, France, the Congregation today numbers 128 members in approximately 35 nations worldwide. God has blessed the work of the Congregation enormously in its first century-and-a-quarter of life and labor in behalf of the Kingdom.

What distinguishes the Blessed Sacrament Fathers and Brothers is their devotion to the Eucharist. The Eucharist is the presence of Jesus Christ in a most real way, a pledge of the love of God for all mankind. The Congregation of the Blessed Sacrament has accepted a special charge from the Congregation of the Priests and Brothers of the Congregation has been given a special charge from the Church to be contemporary spokesmen for the Eucharist and of eucharistic living. The Year of the Eucharist is a new phase of the Eucharistic Movement. The Congregation of the Blessed Sacrament seeks to show all of us how fulfilling and demanding life lived in the light of the Eucharist can be!

Living the Eucharistic Mystery in its fullness means developing every possible dimension of the Eucharist. Eucharist belongs to the entire Church, but certain, the Priests and Brothers of the Congregation has nine local communities through the United States. Since coming to New York City in 1900, the Blessed Sacrament Fathers and Brothers seek to show all of us how fulfilling and demanding life lived in the light of the Eucharist can be!

The Congregation of the Blessed Sacrament has nine local communities throughout the United States. Since coming to New York City in 1900, the Blessed Sacrament Fathers and Brothers have expanded their witness and ministry to Chicago, Cleveland, St. Louis, St. Louis Lake City, and other cities and towns.

The fire of eucharistic zeal still burns in the hearts of those who have followed in the footsteps of Saint Peter Julian Eymard. New generations of apostles of the Eucharist continue to work and inspire, so that all Christians might be more genuinely men and women of the Eucharist.

EUCHARIST IS OUR LIFE

1718 S. Michigan Avenue
Chicago, Illinois 60616
(312) 442-7526

©1985 Pizza Hut, Inc.

"Relatively speaking, Pizza Hut Special Delivery does a number on me." Einstein

GREAT MINDS THINK ALIKE. CALL 232-2499.
LEXINGTON, Ky. - The University of Kentucky has advised the NCAA that it would cooperate with any investigation into reports that basketball players accepted cash and other gifts from boosters, an official said.

"We've been advised we would receive any assistance that we deem appropriate from the institution," said David Berst, the National Collegiate Athletic Association's enforcement director.

Berst said UK invited the NCAA "to participate in the collection of information" about the alleged violations. He declined to say whether an actual investigation by the NCAA had begun.

Berst said that, in general, investigations involving former players can take longer than those involving current ones unless the school involved asks for an immediate inquiry.

The Lexington Herald-Leader reported Sunday that 26 former Wildcats said they had accepted money from boosters. The players also said they sold their free season tickets for $1,000 or more each and received excessive payments for speaking engagements. All violate NCAA rules.

UK already had announced that it had begun an internal investigation of the reports and had notified the NCAA and the Southeastern Conference.

Brenton Jones, a member of UK's board of trustees, said he did not know whether the university had invited the NCAA in. However, he said a "call for the investigation is appropriate."

But, he said, "I wouldn't imagine that an independent investigation would come up with any different results than what appeared in the Herald-Leader."

"I'm just very saddened. Unfortunately, it seems to be a sign of the times, not just at UK but for all other colleges," he said. "I hope this kind of expose will help force the issue of improper payments in collegiate athletics."

---

Even Before Finals, You Could Finally Get The American Express Card.

If you've been wanting the American Express® Card for some time, this is some time to apply.

Because if you're a senior, all you need is to accept a $10,000 career-oriented job. That's it. No strings. No gimmicks.

(And even if you don't have a job right now, don't worry. This offer is still good for 12 months after you graduate.) Why is American Express making the Card a little easier for seniors to get?

Well, to put it simply, we believe in your future. And this is a good time to show it—for we can help in a lot of ways as you graduate.

The Card can help you be ready for business. It's a must for travel to meetings and entertaining. And to entertain yourself, you can use it to buy a new wardrobe for work or a new stereo.

The Card can also help you establish your credit history, which can help in your future.

So call 1-800-THE-CARD and ask to have a Special Student Application sent to you. Or look for one on campus.

The American Express® Card. Don't leave school without it.™
Field Hockey team routs Valpo, 9-1

By KENT R. WELDON
Sports Writer

The Notre Dame field hockey team made its last match of the season as exciting one, as a relentless Irish offense posted a 9-1 victory over Valparaiso yesterday. This victory topped the team's final regular season record to 10-6-2. This victory did not come as a surprise to Irish Head Coach Jill Lindenfeld since the Irish downed Valparaiso 9-1 in an early season scrimmage in which the Irish were without two starters. "They were all good goals, but we just weren't challenged today," Lindenfeld said. The Irish coach was right, as the best defense proved to be a strong offense. Notre Dame's goals only had to make three saves on the day as the Irish offense peppered the Valparaiso goalie with 35 shots on goal. Corinne DiGiacomo started the rally with a goal just two minutes into the game, and then she followed with the next three Irish goals making it a four goal outing. Melissa Sommier picked up the next three goals after assisting DiGiacomo on an earlier score. Meg McGlinn finished the scoring with two goals, while Molly McCabe had three assists. "Corinne and Melissa had great games for us today," Lindenfeld noted. The Irish coach said that she was happy to see her nonstarters all get a chance to play. "It was hard for the substitutes since they aren't used to playing together, but they did a good job," commented Lindenfeld. The second team fared as well as the starters, posting three of the Irish goals, but they also allowed a late second half goal which kept Valparaiso happy and Notre Dame from a shutout. Lindenfeld noted that second teamers Caroline Bereszy, Christine Swid and Joanne Marshall all played well. "Caroline will be a strong player and starter for us next year," Lindenfeld said. Although the Irish have finished their regular season schedule, they are not done as they will travel to the Midwest Regional Tournament Nov. 10-11. There the Irish will face some tough squads in Eastern Kentucky, Louisville, Southern Illinois and Southwest Missouri.

Happy Birthday, Maureen

Happy Birthday, Maureen

Observer News needs your help

The Observer news department is now accepting applications for the position of Assistant News Editor. Applicants should submit a brief resume and application to Dan McCullough or Frank Lipo by 5 p.m. Friday. This is a paid position requiring one month and is available through campus mail at no expense. To be placed on the mailing list call the NVA at 239-5100. - The Observer

NVA table tennis tournament registrations must be submitted to the NVA office in the ACC by Wednesday. The tournament is open to students, staff, and faculty, and will be single elimination. For more information call the NVA office. - The Observer

NVA squash tournament registrations must be submitted to the NVA office in the ACC by Wednesday. The tournament is open to students and faculty. For more information call the NVA office. - The Observer

An NVA team turkey shoot will be held Nov. 16-19 from 4:30 - 6:00 p.m. at the stadium side range by Gate 14. Three teams must be comprised of two men and two women, and reservations must be made by Nov. 14. To reserve a time or to get more information call the NVA office. - The Observer

NVA Century Club is a program to promote individual exercise and fitness. Applicants select an exercise and pledge a personal fitness goal. When the applicant reaches his/her goal, a free Club-T-shirt will be given out. To fill out a pledge card or to get more information call the NVA office. - The Observer

NVA fitness focus newsletter is published monthly and is available through campus mail at no expense. To be placed on the mailing list call the NVA at 239-5100. - The Observer

Irish

continued from page 16

with some of the regulars to keep the chance of a sweep from slipping away. Scoring 13 of the next 14 points, freshman Mary Kay Walter came to life to key the rally with two kills, two blocks and an ace. While Lambert wasn't totally happy with the play of his bench, he did see some play to his liking. "After winning the first two games, I wanted to give everybody a chance to play," said Lambert. "We had our mental lapses, but I was happy to see us come back. I especially thought Rochelle Holder played well, considering it was the first time she has played this season. Everybody will need to be ready for the next match with DePaul. The Blue Demons sit atop the North Star Conference with a 6-0 record, while Notre Dame is next at 5-1, so the match will be important in regards for the upcoming conference match.

The ACC. The match with Indiana scheduled for next Tuesday at the ACC will not be held. The match was cancelled prior to the season.
The Daily Crossword

ACROSS
1. Build a train
2. Indian tongue
5. Join
6. Chip in
13. Rug type
14. A.W.
15. Blunder
17. Trick-or-treat
20. Family
21. A.B.C.
22. Trick-or-treat
25. Plus entries
29. Different
31. Prepared
32. Pup
34. Apple
36. Watchdog org.
38. 39. "King Kong"

DOWN
4. Beauty
5. Sound of
6. Commands
7. Indian tongue
8. Table scrap
9. Adhesive
11. Diamond
22. Break
23. Moldings
24. Rhythm
26. Began
27. Baseline
28. Smith
29. Beauty
30. Beg
31. Indian tongue
32. Beauty
33. Indian tongue
34. Indian tongue
35. Indian tongue
36. Indian tongue
37. Indian tongue
38. Indian tongue
39. Indian tongue
40. Indian tongue
41. Indian tongue
42. Indian tongue
43. Indian tongue
44. Indian tongue
45. Indian tongue
46. Indian tongue
47. Indian tongue
48. Indian tongue
49. Indian tongue
50. Indian tongue
51. Indian tongue
52. Indian tongue
53. Indian tongue
54. Indian tongue
55. Indian tongue
56. Indian tongue
57. Indian tongue
58. Indian tongue
59. Indian tongue
60. Indian tongue
61. Indian tongue
62. Indian tongue
63. Indian tongue
64. Indian tongue
65. Indian tongue
66. Indian tongue
67. Indian tongue
68. Indian tongue
69. Indian tongue
70. Indian tongue
71. Indian tongue
72. Indian tongue
73. Indian tongue
74. Indian tongue
75. Indian tongue
76. Indian tongue
77. Indian tongue
78. Indian tongue
79. Indian tongue
80. Indian tongue
81. Indian tongue
82. Indian tongue
83. Indian tongue
84. Indian tongue
85. Indian tongue
86. Indian tongue
87. Indian tongue
88. Indian tongue
89. Indian tongue
90. Indian tongue
91. Indian tongue
92. Indian tongue
93. Indian tongue
94. Indian tongue
95. Indian tongue
96. Indian tongue
97. Indian tongue
98. Indian tongue
99. Indian tongue
100. Indian tongue

Wednesday's Solution

ACROSS
1. Build a train
2. Indian tongue
5. Join
6. Chip
7. Indian tongue
8. Table scrap
22. Break
23. Moldings
25. Plus entries
29. Different
31. Prepared
32. Pup
36. Watchdog org.
38. "King Kong"

DOWN
4. Beauty
5. Sound of
6. Commands
7. Indian tongue
8. Table scrap
9. Adhesive
11. Diamond
22. Break
23. Moldings
25. Plus entries
29. Different
31. Prepared
32. Pup
36. Watchdog org.
38. "King Kong"

TV Tonight

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Show</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>6:00 P.M.</td>
<td>16  NewsCenter 16</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6:00 P.M.</td>
<td>16  NBC Nightly News</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6:00 P.M.</td>
<td>16  CBS Evening News</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7:00 P.M.</td>
<td>16  MASH</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7:00 P.M.</td>
<td>16  WKRP in Cincinnati</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7:30 P.M.</td>
<td>16  Barney Miller</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>8:00 P.M.</td>
<td>16  Bill Cosby Show</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>8:00 P.M.</td>
<td>16  Magnum P.I</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>8:00 P.M.</td>
<td>16  The Fall Guy</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>8:00 P.M.</td>
<td>16  54 Front</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>8:30 P.M.</td>
<td>16  Family Ties</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>9:00 P.M.</td>
<td>16  Light For Living</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>9:00 P.M.</td>
<td>16  90's</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>9:30 P.M.</td>
<td>16  Family Ties</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Campus

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Show</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>7:00 P.M.</td>
<td>16  Halloween Manicure Party</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Dinner Menus

Notre Dame
Broiled Sirloin Steak
Broiled Hamburger Steak
Vegetable Crepes Marinara

Saint Mary's
Veal Parmesan
Sweet and Sour Fish
Cheese and Broccoli Potato
Beef Stew
Sports

By PETE SKIKO
Sports Writer

Wednesday’s Notre Dame men’s soccer team started out on a very familiar note for the Irish - a loss. Mickey Carri’s individual goal 15 minutes into the first half put Valparaiso on top, but the Irish battled back to score six unanswered goals to put the game away, winning by a score of 6-3.

“Told we started slowly again, and I was disappointed that we gave up the restart goal,” said second-year head coach Dennis Grace. “But we came back and played smart soccer.”

Joe Sternberg opened the Irish scoring at the 16:53 mark of the first half. He scored after Notre Dame was awarded a penalty kick for a Valparaiso tripping violation inside the penalty box. Sternberg scored two goals and had an assist on the day, raising his team-leading goal total to nine.

“Since the season’s halfway mark, it’s really come into his own,” commented Grace. “Once (Chris) Telk went down with an injury, we had to put Joe back into midfield, and he’s made me look like a great coach because that’s where he was born to play.”

Pat Szanto opened the second-half scoring, as senior Matt Lemberg, deftly faking a defender and firing into the corner of the goal. That put the Irish on top, 2-1.

At this point, Notre Dame began to dominate the game, as the majority of the play took place in Valparaiso’s end. Junior forward Bill Gross tallied on a nice feed from sophomore Steve Lawoney, who received the ball in the second half, and then Sternberg followed with his second goal. The Valparaiso goalie committed himself by going after a loose ball, but Sternberg beat him to it, flicked it past him and steered it in.

Sophomore Bruce McCourt pushed the lead to 5-1 with 21 minutes left, taking a pass from Randy Morris and blasting it past a diving goalie.

Notre Dame volleyball team beats St. Francis in three straight games

By CHUCK FREEBY
Sports Writer

It was an inconsistent, uninspiring and certainly not an artistic performance by the Notre Dame volleyball squad Wednesday night at the ACC. The Irish struggled to a three-game sweep over St. Francis (18), 15-12, 15-12, 15-12.

The victory, Notre Dame’s second in a row, raised the Irish to 9-15 for the year. Nevertheless, Grace expressed his belief that there was no need for anyone to worry about the ticket office running out of student tickets at that time. Approximately 2,000 total tickets had been sold the first two days to the junior and senior classes, including all 1,575 lower arena seats.

According to Vogler, yesterday’s sale to sophomores, law and graduate students was about 1,400, consuming the bleacher seats in sections 115 and 116 behind the basket on the east end of the ACC. Freshmen are scheduled to pick up their tickets today from 1:30-6 p.m. at Gate 3 of the ACC, and there is some chance that the ticket supply could run out before everyone gets an opportunity to buy one.

On Tuesday, Notre Dame Ticket Manager Mike Bobinski had expressed his belief that there was no need for anyone to worry about the ticket office running out of student tickets at that time. Approximately 2,000 total tickets had been sold the first two days to the junior and senior classes, including all 1,575 lower arena seats.

According to Vogler, yesterday’s sale to sophomores, law and graduate students was about 1,400, consuming the bleacher seats in sections 115 and 116 behind the basket on the east end of the ACC.

Cost of the bleacher seats is $59.

Irish defense won’t rest this week against Navy

When Notre Dame takes on Navy in a nationally-televized contest Saturday afternoon, the spotlight will be on the matchup between two of the nation’s top tailbacks, Allen Pinkert of the Irish and Napoleon McCallum of the Midshipmen. But don’t be surprised if it’s Notre Dame’s defense that steals the show.

This is a unit that has slowly but surely gotten itself together over the past several weeks, after hitting its low point in a 55-7 loss to Purdue a month ago. It’s a unit that features a solid corps of linebackers that is playing up to expectations, and a group of defensive linemen that are performing above and beyond the call of duty.

The latter group has been particularly impressive of late, if only for its ability to cope with adversity. When left tackle Greg Dingens went down with a leg injury against Army two weeks ago, he joined right tackle Doug Dingens and noseguard Mike Griffin on the sidelines. Of those three, only Keine has a good chance of making it back this season, but that won’t be for at least two more weeks.

But even with three of its top performers out of action, the Irish defense has continued to keep things moving along. The Irish defense has given up just one rushing touchdown in the last 15 quarters, and a lot of the credit goes to a core of experienced linemen, as well as a new defensive formation that has made things easier on the linemen that are still healthy.

The reserves that have held the line together lately are senior noseguard Mike Kiemann and sophomore tackle Jeff Kiez. Kienan saw his playing time reduced when first and second Stringers were moved from right tackle to noseguard in the beginning of the season, but since then the injury situation has pressed him back into duty. When Keine went down, Larry Burke

Football Notebook

Dingens was moved from left to right tackle to do so that Trojans could move back to the left side where he is considered more comfortable. That move made Kiemann the starter at noseguard again.

Konz, meanwhile, has stepped in for Dingens at right tackle and is making rapid progress. In his last two games he has recorded 15 tackles. The injury problems have likewise made more playing time for sophomores Matt Dingens and Bob Martz, and both appear to be coming along well.

But that still adds up to only five down linemen with any sort of game experience, and that’s not enough to run a 3-4 defense week in and week out. This is why the Irish defense has to be strong and deep. The Irish defense formation is a 3-4, defensive alignment (at 2-5, if you prefer) that includes two outside linebackers at the defensive end spots. The alignment uses Dorsev and Kunz as the down linemen, and makes good use of Notre Dame’s abundance of experienced linebackers.

One of those linebackers, senior captain Tony Furjanic, has paced the defense with 87 tackles this season. He was named Midwest Player of the Week on defense by the Associated Press for his efforts in the Notre Dame’s 57-3 win over USC last Saturday, as the Irish held an opponent without a touchdown for the first time since a 40-20 rout of Army in 1983. Furjanic recorded 10 solos and 15 total tackles as Notre Dame’s defense shut down an offense that had rolled up 93 points in its two previous games.

Furjanic’s inside help has come mainly from Mike Kozakiewicz and Ron Weisnerhofer, while the new alignment has enabled outside linebackers Mike Larkin, Rich DiBerardino, Robert Banks and Cedric Figaro to get more playing time. The results against USC speak for themselves, particularly in the area of rushing defense, where the Trojans were held to 102 net yards on 34 attempts.

Troy quarterback Sean Salisbury managed to have a solid game Saturday, connecting on 21 of 34 passes for 192 yards, but the Irish defensive did the job when it had to. The defensive backs gave up the pass short but didn’t allow receivers to get the gain for the long gain, which is a big reason why USC managed just three points Saturday.

EXTRA POINTS - Starting quarterback Steve Beuerlein will definitely be available for the Navy game. Beuerlein injured his throwing arm last week against USC, but had full rotation of the arm on Tuesday and began practicing on Wednesday. The injury occurred on Beuerlein’s six-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter. The medical report is not as favorable for back-up strong safety Randy Wells. The sophomore pulled an abdominal muscle against USC and will miss the Navy game. The game will be carried by ABC, with air time slated for 3:30 p.m. Musso will once again be on hand to provide the portable lighting.