Malloy proposes 3-step program for justice

By MATTHEW R. GALLAGHER
News Staff

University President-elect Father Edward "Monk" Malloy presented his "three-step" program for justice in a panel discussion in Washington Hall Tuesday night entitled "Education for Justice: Is It Possible?"

The discussion was sponsored by the Committee for Dialogue on Education, in conjunction with the annual Collegiate Jazz Festival, which is this Friday and Saturday at Stepan Center.

Tampa's mayor urges calm during racial unrest

Associated Press

TAMPA - Mayor Bernard Miller, 35, was the fourth since November of a black man in which white police officers were involved.

"The people are upset. They are talking about Miller and about the last four killings," said Bob Gilder, former head of the local NAACP chapter.

"It's happening too often to be passed off as an isolated incident or an accident," said Mayor Sandy Freeman, urged black and white community leaders to offer solutions. "I've said all along there's no quick fix to this problem. It is something that has taken years to develop and is going to take time to correct," she said through spokesman John Dunn.

Her call for calm followed scattered disturbances Monday night involving milling bands of 25 to 100 mostly young blacks who hurled rocks and bottles, broke windows in several cars and looted a store, police said.

One minor injury was reported, and five people ranging in age from 11 to 43 were arrested on charges of disorderly conduct, burglary or inciting to riot.

Associated Press

WASHINGTON - President Reagan promised quick action Tuesday to prevent "further damage to our national security" from a sex-and-spy scandal in Moscow and suggested that the unfinished $191 million U.S. embassy there will be torn down if it cannot be protected from eavesdropping.

He declared that the Soviets will not be allowed to move into their new embassy on a Washington hilltop until Americans occupy a new embassy in Moscow.

The new U.S. facility under construction in Moscow is due for completion in 1989, but there are reports it already is riddled with bugging devices.

"The United States will not occupy our new embassy building in Moscow unless and until I can be assured that it is safe to move into a secure embassy environment," Reagan said in a brief appearance in the White House press briefing room.

Two Marines who served as guards at the existing embassy have been charged with espionage, and the Marine Corps has recommended that at least six others not be permitted to rehire.

"And I must say we did run into some embassy problems and opposition because it isn't exactly a place where you can just go out and hire Americans to go and take jobs like that in the Soviet Union," he said.

The president said he would not permit the rehiring of Soviet workers at the embassy.

Decision of ABC goes against Corby's

By MARILYN BENCHIK

Champaign, Ill.

Corby Tavern was dealt another blow Tuesday in its struggles to reopen.

Upholding the earlier decision of the St. Joseph's County Alcoholic Beverage Commission, the Indiana ABC voted 4-0 to deny renewal of the tavern's liquor license, said Doug Hannoy, ABC administrative assistant.

The decision means "the tavern won't be able to open at its former location," Hannoy said.

The present owner of the tavern, CTI Inc., needed to sell the tavern's property and assets to Thomas and Robert Przybylinski if the license had been renewed.

Reagan promises Moscow embassy will be protected
Dirty laundry won't be the same without 'Bundle of the week' Norm

A few weeks ago Notre Dame lost an institution. Norm, Bundle-of-the-week, resigned as director of Saint Michael's laundry and dry cleaning, leaving a large hole in fabric of many male student lives.

Granted, his resignation hasn't caused the stir that Father Hesburgh's will; Ronald Reagan hasn't written to him. The Observer won't run a special "Muller Years" issue, and the Marvelli Library probably won't be named after him.

But Norm will be missed just the same. I know. I miss him every day.

For those who have not heard of Norm, he first arrived at Notre Dame in 1975 as Comrade of the U.S. Air Force ROTC detachment, and after retiring in 1978 became the assistant director of Saint Michael's. He took over as director in 1982 and served the laundry until he resigned in March.

I never met Norm, but like many I felt that he was a friend. Unfortunately, his relationship with the student body was limited only to men who took advantage of the laundry service.

When students went to collect their newly-washed clothes at Door 3, they would usually stop and read the large bulletin board which hangs next to an old-fashioned wringer. Sometimes you have to stand in line to read it.

The board was divided into four sections: a smattering of the latest news in the laundry industry, Norm's computerized sports predictions, the winner of the Bundle-of-the-week, and Norm's question-and-answer column.

During exam and vacation periods, the Bundle of the week, and Norm's predictions weren't anything to make Jimmy the Greek look over his shoulder. But the board assured me that even if my underwear was returned two sizes smaller, somebody cared.

The board revealed a man who put a lot of thought into his work and took pride in it. Norm was the answer to every student who complained that admistors here don't care about us.

I have heard a rumour that the laundry is still running a "Bundle of the week" contest. That's not enough to win me back, however. A Bundle of the week without Norm is like pants without a zipper.

Mooreover, it's a sham. No, it's worse than a sham. It's sacrilege and I want no part of it.

I do my own laundry now. It's a boring task and eats up all of the change I earn at the laundry chute. I won't go to Door 3 to pick up the laundry. The place has too many memories.

I have heard a rumor that the laundry is still running a "Bundle of the week" contest. That's not enough to win me back. It's like pants without a zipper.

Sobering advice can save a life

A PASSOVER MEAL

FRL, APRIL 10 6:30 pm

CFB Campus House, 19525 Pende

This will be a unique Jewish Passover, conducted by Tom and Deb Lowenhar, who will give a fascinating explanation of how Christ is represented in this tradition. No charge, but space is limited. Call 277-8471 for reservations. Rides provided. Sponsored by Campus Bible Fellowship.

Pick applications in Student Activities Office, 301 LaFortune.

Applications are due Wednesday, April 15 at 4:00 pm.
Focus of HPC meeting on role of co-chairmen

By REGIS COCCIA
Assistant News Editor

Discussion at Tuesday Night’s Hall Presidents’ Council Banquet was limited to the question of what role newly-elected HPC Co-Chairmen Bob Daley and Tim Salmon will fill in the Council.

The banquet at Tippecanoe Place featured a send-off of current HPC Co-Chairmen Joanie Cahill and Sheila O’Connor as well as speeches from the new co-chairmen.

Salmon, current Holy Cross Hall president, said he and Daley, current Fisher Hall president, would like to maintain the credibility and social atmosphere of the HPC.

Two mock tickets running against Daley and Salmon were formed by Pasquerilla Hall West Co-Presidents Jeanne Gorenz and Colleen Kretz, Pasquerilla Hall East President Patty Swope and Stanford Hall President Jim Wimbiscus.

“We also want to say that the four of us just did this because Tim (Salmon) and Bob (Daley) had nobody to run against,” Wimbiscus said.

DIANNA
The Drunken One
Turns 21
Today

Happy Birthday

Fair weather friends

Scenes like this one were familiar Tuesday as students across campus made the most of the sunshine. These students abandoned their books momentarily as they relaxed by the Fieldhouse Mall. Warm temperatures and sunny skies will likely provoke more such lounging today.

Switek, Heller speak in ‘Last’ talks

By SHANON MCGOWAN
Staff Reporter

Hindsight was the topic of speeches by Mike Switek and Jeanne Heller, former student body presidents at Notre Dame and Saint Mary’s, who spoke Tuesday night at Saint Mary’s Last Lecture Series at Hagggar College Center.

Both speakers reminisced about their college years and offered advice to other students as they gave their last formal presentations before graduation.

Switek, who spoke first, talked about those activities which have become so routine to him since freshman year, saying that he never regretted his participation.

“College can be great and a really good experience, but it’s up to you to make it special. It has to come from within,” he said.

Switek stressed the importance of leaving something of oneself behind as well as taking advantage of opportunities that lay ahead. He cautioned his audience not to waste time and advised trying everything because “four years pass all too quickly.”

Jeanne Heller also reflected back on her past four years. Saying she had a rebellious childhood, Heller explained that she learned more about herself with each year spent at Saint Mary’s. She said she learned her limitations and how to set her expectations without overextending herself.

“The best phrase I’ve learned since I’ve been here is: ‘What difference is it going to make in five years?’” Heller said.

ATTENTION: NOTRE DAME AND SAINT MARY’S GRADUATES

GEAR KUP

FOR OUR SPECIAL CAR SALE!

• Eighteen local auto dealers with over 300 new and used cars and trucks
• Notre Dame ACC
• No admission charge
• Wed., April 8, 5:00 PM - 8:00 PM
• Thurs., April 9, 10:00 AM - 8:00 PM
• Fri., April 10, 10:00 AM - 5:00 PM
• All makes and models to choose from
• Special rates... 8.24% variable and 9.24% fixed APR.
• On the spot financing available from the 1st Source Bank Loan Specialists

ATTENTION ALL GRADUATING STUDENTS

Measurements will be taken for Caps and Gowns

Wednesday April 8, 1987

Between 9:00-4:30 at the

NOTRE DAME BOOKSTORE
Courts, if they so wish," he take it to the South Bend judicial remedies. They can The Observer Wednesday April 8, 1987 - page 4 hearing " as a protest to the Embassy incidents at Notre Dame. Michael Marlene de Groot depicted social justice. to inspire student interest in so­ cate with the student body and use the media, especially embasity continued from page 1 even if the Kremlin revokes an order banning their employ­ Reagan rejected a sugges­ tion by former Secretary of the Soviet Union for quite some time and, believe me, it doesn't surprise me a bit."

Embassy continued from page 1 and that we train people to be officers to be in possession of mari­ ste parking lot.

Corby's continued from page 1 During a February meeting the state ABC collected evidence concerning the ques­ tion of upholding the denial for to security that he was solicit­ ng the sale of magazines. 12:45 p.m. An employee of North Dining Hall told that on a tennis rack, books and $20.00 were taken from a locked locker. Later that day the rent and boots were recovered; the $20.00, however, was still missing.

5:30 p.m. — A Panasonic answering ma­ chine was taken from an unoffi­ ce in LaFayette. The value of the ma­ chine is $75.00.

5:30 p.m. — A student reported that a man was indirectly expecting himself on Buil Road in the wooded area. The man is described as a white male, 5'11'', blond hair, medium build and approximately 30 years old.

9:00 p.m. — A Keenan Hall resident re­ ported that his Rally Sport men's 10­ speed bike was taken from the Keenan Center lot. The bike had been secured with a cable and combination lock.

9:00 p.m. — It was reported to Security that a vehicle was damaged after hitti­ ning another vehicle as it was being backed out of a parking space in the Stephon Center lot. There were no in­ juries and the damage is approxi­ mately $150.00.

9:30 p.m. — A student from Fisher Hall reported that his book was taken from the South Dining Hall book rack. The book contained a tennis racket, a rash of tennis balls and three textbooks. The total value is listed at $725.00.

Tuesday 10:45 a.m. — A Planner Hall resident re­ ported that his checkout had been re­ placed on Friday, April 3. Value of the checkbook is $5.96.

11:30 a.m. — A Cavanaugh Hall resident was ticketed after he was seen by se­ curity entering campus illegally.

1:06 p.m. — A Mercantile resident re­ ported that a textbook, valued at $20.00, was taken from a cabinet in the lab of the biochemistry.

1:30 p.m. — It was reported to Security that two computed disks and manuals were taken from the Freshman Learn­ ing Resource Center. Value is esti­ mated at $140.00.

1:30 p.m. — A Carroll Hall resident re­ ported that a textbook and notebook were taken from the South Dining Hall bookrack. Total value is $35.00.

2:30 p.m. — An off-campus student re­ ported that his jean jacket, keys and sunglasses were taken from the Law library on Monday, April 6. The value is approximately $71.00.

Wednesday Well Drinks $7.50

Wednesday, Molson, Molson Light $1

Soviets: Warfare tests in U.S. created AIDS Associated Press WASHINGTON The U.S. government says the Soviet Union is engaging in a cam­ paign intended to plant the idea that AIDS was created in a biological warfare experiment at Fort Detrick in Maryland. The Pentagon believes the Soviets have succeeded in keeping their allegations alive because Fort Detrick — until 1969 — was the Army's biological warfare development center and today is the site for some AIDS-related research.

"The fact that these charges are patently untrue," says Fred Hoffman, a spokesman for the Pentagon. "The tech­ nique used has been to plant the story in friendly newspapers outside the Soviet Union, and then to quote those newspapers as authoritative in the Soviet news organs.

What's really troublesome is that this stuff tends to be believed in Third World countries."
Reagan no longer capable of leading country

Gore Vidal once recounted an incident from the twilight years of Paul von Hindenburg, the last president of Germany before Hitler came to power. Hindenburg, long after he had lapsed into senility, retained his title as leader of the German state. The man around him had long since seized the reins of power, and the doddering old statesman merely ratified their decisions with his signature. Hindenburg died in 1934, but the memory of his time as president haunts the history of the nation.

Ronald Reagan has not yet lost the ability to distinguish between work and leisure, but he has lost that ability to govern the nation. The clues are at once sad and hilarious (comedian Johnny Carson on Garry Trudeau: "He has a field day making light of the president's memory lapses"). But the results for the country are little short of terrifying. American foreign policy, for instance, is confused and without direction. The members of the Reagan Cabinet now war openly over how to respond to the Soviet Union's aggressive thrusts. The United States should negotiate arms control with the Soviets. The United States should not. The United States should allow him to govern the country effectively. The president's memory lapses, but the United States should not.

The Administration's political talisman is not simply a problem of isolated blunders or even of the irrational anxieties of the Reaganian age. Scandal has plagued the American political system for generations. One cannot be President for six years and not lose the personal attributes that define success to the Reagan agenda. But Bush emerged from the Oval Office with no obvious links to Watergate. But Bush emerged from the Oval Office with no obvious links to Watergate. But Bush emerged from the Oval Office with no obvious links to Watergate.

Reagan should take the statesmanlike option and retire now, before he leads us into more defeats and disasters (or one day gets ink on his sandwich). Dozens of letter writers have expressed the same sentiments. The president's memory lapses, of course, but the United States should not. The United States should not.

Reagan's resignation would not only restore the Constitution and the government to the people, it would also revive the possibility of Republican success at the polls in 1988. Handing over the reins of power to a successor who would allow him next year to run on a Presidential record of accomplishment would hold hostage to Reagan's recent failures.

P.O.Box Q

Traditional fun lost in tourney censorship

Dear Editor: Our Bookstore Basketball team's name was recently censored. The "Violated Donuts" are now team 397. What a vacated donut? Well, it is an inside joke within Flanner 3A. Believe it or not, the name has nothing to do with breakfast pastry molestation.

Let us be serious, or at least consistent. Some "terrifying" names were accepted recently, namely as "Violated Donuts" and "Vagabond, Crazy Bastards From Your Mother's Worst Nightmare" were rejected by the censors because of their explicit nature and subject. The censors read all the names, I seriously doubt it.

At least half of the fun of Bookstore basketball is thinking up a clever name. Why can't 18-22 year old students play word games that create innuendo? Are we too naive to understand adult humor? I believe that we are fully capable of understanding adult humor without being offended, and the censorship of Bookstore names causes more problems than it tries to avoid.

Donovan's rise has tarnished the United States' image. Did the censors read all the words? I believe that we are fully capable of understanding adult humor without being offended, and the censorship of Bookstore names causes more problems than it tries to avoid.

P.O.Box Q, Notre Dame, IN, 46556

Quote of the day

"Of all the heavenly gifts that mortal men command, what trusty treasure in the world can counterbalance a friendship?" - Nicholas Grimard

Sethon's Hall, P.O.Box Q, Notre Dame, IN, 46556

The Observer

Wednesday April 8, 1987 - page 5

The Observer is the independent newspaper published by the students of the University of Notre Dame. The paper does not necessarily reflect the policies of the administration of either institution. The news is reported as accurately and objectively as possible. Unsolicited editorials represent the opinion of the majority of the Editorial Board. Comments, letters and the Inside Column present the views of their authors. Column space is available to all members of the community and the free expression of varying opinions on campus, through letters, is encouraged.
Yer a cool dude, Charlie Brown

Behind the screen door

Kevin Walsh

"I'd be happy to see Snoopy forced into the wild, then hunted down and killed."

"be cool." I'm pretty sure he'd succumb to the lure of trendiness. He'd grow out his 'skip' and try to look like a member of Duran Duran. Once he realized he wouldn't cut it, he'd probably get it frosted and use mousse to make it stand on end. He'd look dumber, and eventually, one of the muckrakers would notice. In his little universe he'd say something like "Mwah-mwuh-mwah" and start thinking about George Washington. He'd translate loosely as "What happened to your fat head?"

Next he'd make the move for a flat top and he'd walk around looking like Max Headroom. Despite the fact that his yellow shirt is pretty cool, he'd probably have to go for a new wardrobe too. A few skinny ties. A Miami Vice jacket. Maybe in pastel blue. Being a college student, he'd also have to go for a few college essentials like a week's worth of sweatshirts, a cut-off pair of sweatpants, a t-shirt with a few funny stains on it—all of them, of course, ill-fitting. But I can't see him sporting a black concert T-shirt. Charlie Brown could never make it as one of those in-crowd jock types... thank God.

Charlie Brown's love-life would be the same as every other college student's. The little red-headed girl would probably date a seven-foot, Neanderthal football player and only talk to Chuck to say things like "Pass the salt" or "Excuse me." He'd fly his heart in the wind occasionally, try to keep his cool, but repeatedly tangled in the tree of heartache. He'd try to kick the Football of Love just to find it snatched cruelly from beneath his foot by some femme fatale or other. He'd end up like many of us at the end of every weekend, on his back, stars and swirls swimming around his head, trying to figure out exactly where things took a turn for the wrong.

Of course, the Snoopy character presents a big problem. No Dogs Allowed On Campus. Sorry, we're going to have to let Snoopy go. This wouldn't bother me a bit, of course. First off, he's too damn cute. I also find him pretty annoying in his omniscience, like the Statue of Liberty this summer or Garfield. Actually, I'd be happy to see Snoopy forced into the wild, then hunted down and killed. I guess Woodstock can stay, at least until the new and interesting people move in.

Where to begin? I think anyone who has visited Russia will find it difficult to tell you "how they liked it" or "what they thought." One must search for the words to describe a culture which is so very much alike but, also, so very different from the west. How can one emphasize the dilapidated cardboard-box buildings like every street and are on every corner in Moscow? Can what is felt in the heart and questioned in the mind while viewing Soviet life ever be put into words so that the reader can feel and understand the sameness, the drabness, the simplicity as well? I am going to do my best to paint an accurate, insightful picture of my four days in Moscow because it is important for us, as Americans and fellow human beings, to try and understand what life is like on the other side, whether that be the other side of the Iron Curtain, the other side of town, or the other side of the fence.

Anticipation of our voyage, preparations, and the trip itself were filled with a sense of adventure. We left Angers on the 3:00 a.m. train. Our slipp­ing off into the night only served to heighten our heartbeats. Upon arrival in the capital city of Moscow, passport control and customs were simple hurdles to be crossed. Will they confiscate my Cosmopolitan magazine? Did anyone's passport get stamped?

Once on the bus, exhaustion set in. Between head­bobs, I was indeed struck by the emptiness and vastness of the snow-covered land, as well as the drabness and seemingly bad condition of meager homes clustered throughout the countryside.

I woke up when we arrived in town, and my eyes were opened in more than one way. I saw the people lined up outside of stores and shopping within. Wool coats and fur hats flared about as far as the eye could see. The sidewalks, stairways of metro stations were shutter­men of a two-part series. The other side of town, or the other side of the fence.

Anticipation of our voyage, preparations, and the trip itself were filled with a sense of adventure. We left Angers on the 3:00 a.m. train. Our slipp­ing off into the night only served to heighten our heartbeats. Upon arrival in the capital city of Moscow, passport control and customs were simple hurdles to be crossed. Will they confiscate my Cosmopolitan magazine? Did anyone's passport get stamped?

Once on the bus, exhaustion set in. Between head­bobs, I was indeed struck by the emptiness and vastness of the snow-covered land, as well as the drabness and seemingly bad condition of meager homes clustered throughout the countryside.

I woke up when we arrived in town, and my eyes were opened in more than one way. I saw the people lined up outside of stores and shopping within. Wool coats and fur hats flared about as far as the eye could see. The sidewalks, stairways of metro stations were shutter­men of a two-part series. The other side of town, or the other side of the fence.

Anticipation of our voyage, preparations, and the trip itself were filled with a sense of adventure. We left Angers on the 3:00 a.m. train. Our slipp­ing off into the night only served to heighten our heartbeats. Upon arrival in the capital city of Moscow, passport control and customs were simple hurdles to be crossed. Will they confiscate my Cosmopolitan magazine? Did anyone's passport get stamped?

Once on the bus, exhaustion set in. Between head­bobs, I was indeed struck by the emptiness and vastness of the snow-covered land, as well as the drabness and seemingly bad condition of meager homes clustered throughout the countryside.

I woke up when we arrived in town, and my eyes were opened in more than one way. I saw the people lined up outside of stores and shopping within. Wool coats and fur hats flared about as far as the eye could see. The sidewalks, stairways of metro stations were shutter­men of a two-part series. The other side of town, or the other side of the fence.

Anticipation of our voyage, preparations, and the trip itself were filled with a sense of adventure. We left Angers on the 3:00 a.m. train. Our slipp­ing off into the night only served to heighten our heartbeats. Upon arrival in the capital city of Moscow, passport control and customs were simple hurdles to be crossed. Will they confiscate my Cosmopolitan magazine? Did anyone's passport get stamped?

Once on the bus, exhaustion set in. Between head­bobs, I was indeed struck by the emptiness and vastness of the snow-covered land, as well as the drabness and seemingly bad condition of meager homes clustered throughout the countryside.

I woke up when we arrived in town, and my eyes were opened in more than one way. I saw the people lined up outside of stores and shopping within. Wool coats and fur hats flared about as far as the eye could see. The sidewalks, stairways of metro stations were shutter­men of a two-part series. The other side of town, or the other side of the fence.

Anticipation of our voyage, preparations, and the trip itself were filled with a sense of adventure. We left Angers on the 3:00 a.m. train. Our slipp­ing off into the night only served to heighten our heartbeats. Upon arrival in the capital city of Moscow, passport control and customs were simple hurdles to be crossed. Will they confiscate my Cosmopolitan magazine? Did anyone's passport get stamped?
Sports Briefs

Dancin' Irish tryouts will be held beginning Sunday, April 12, from 3 p.m. to 6 p.m., in the first clinic at Rockne Memorial's third floor gym. First cuts will be Monday, April 13, from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. at the ACC. All Notre Dame and Saint Mary's women are invited to participate. The Observer

Irish spring runs will be held Sunday, April 13, from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. at the ACC. The cost is $4 if preregistered, $5 the day of the race. There will be trophies, door prizes, refreshments, and music at the party, and those who wear green will receive a dollar. The races will be three and six miles long. The Observer

Women's Bookstore Basketball schedules can be picked up tomorrow and Friday before 3 p.m. in the Administration office, second floor LaForte. The Observer

The ND Golf Blue Team, its second squad placed second in the nine-team Southwest Michigan Junior College Tournament at Hampshire Country Club. From New Castle, Indiana, placed the Irish with a score of 71 followed by Tom Ryan's 78. Mike Culver and Bobby Klonska scored 86s and George Molinski added an 81 score. The Observer

Notre Dame track coach Joe Pine has been selected as an assistant coach for a United States all star track and field squad that will compete in England this July. The U.S. team is sponsored by TAC (The Athletic Congress) and will be chosen at the TAC national meet in June. The Observer

Sports Briefs are accepted through Friday at The Observer office, on the third floor of LaForte Student Center on the day prior to publication. The Observer
Texas at Baltimore
Grace over Silver Thunder
Holy Cross over Cavanaugh
Howard over Gerlacher
Morrissey over Keenan Z

Minnesota 5, Oakland 4 (10 innings)
California 7, San Diego 2
Pasquerilla East over Badin
Pasquerilla West 1, Pasquerilla East 0

Tuesday's Results
New York 3, Pennsylvania 1
St. Louis 9, Chicago 3
Alabama 4, Pennsylvania 1
San Francisco 2, Chicago 1

Wednesday's Results
New York 3, Pennsylvania 1
St. Louis 9, Chicago 3
Alabama 4, Pennsylvania 1
San Francisco 2, Chicago 1

Today's Games
Montreal vs. Cincinnati
Los Angeles vs. Houston
San Diego vs. San Francisco

Upcoming Games:

American League
- Detroit at Oakland
- Chicago at Toronto
- Boston at Kansas City
- California at Oakland

National League
- Philadelphia at St. Louis
- St. Louis at Milwaukee
- Milwaukee at Chicago
- Milwaukee at St. Louis

Sports Calendar
- Baseball at Illinois-Chicago
- Lacrosse vs. KEYCY
- Women's tennis at Toledo
- Track at Northwestern Invitational
- Track at Staniford Invitational

College Baseball
- Stanford 1 over Fisher
- Dillon over Alumni
- Stanford 2 over Carroll A

College Lacrosse
- Holy Cross over Keenan B, forfeit
- Pasquerilla West 1, Pasquerilla East 0

Interhall Lacrosse
- Interhall Lacrosse
- Interhall Baseball

Interhall Baseball
- Stanford 1 over Fisher
- Dillon over Alumni
- Stanford 2 over Carroll A

Poker
- Metro Poker Games
- Tuesday's Poker Games

Baseball America Top 25
- The top 25 college baseball teams as determined by the Baseball America magazine will receive through games of Sunday and last week's base line results (base line results are in a column).

Women's Tennis
- Women's tennis at Eastern Michigan
- Men's tennis at Western Michigan
- Baseball at Valparaiso
- Women's tennis at Toledo
- Lacrosse vs. KENYON
- Baseball at Tulane (2)
- Women's tennis at Toledo
- Lacrosse vs. KENYON
- Baseball at Tulane (2)

NHL
- New York Rangers at Philadelphia
- Los Angeles at Edmonton
- Montreal at Chicago
- Toronto at St. Louis
- Chicago at Detroit

NBA
- Orlando at Portland
- Sacramento at Los Angeles
- Milwaukee at Boston
- Charlotte at Chicago
- Atlanta at Sacramento

Irish Golf
- Irish Golf

Sports Lists
- Most Masters' Tournament Finishes In The Top Ten

Baseball Career
- World Cup Marathon

Basketball
- World Cup Marathon

T A C
- World Cup Marathon

Scroh Calendar
- Top 10 Finishes
- Titles

The St. Mary's Department of English

The Distinguished Poet
- Richard Tillinghast

Reading from his works
- April 9 at 4:30 pm
- Cushwa-Leighton Library
- Top Floor (2M)
- South Lounge

Saint Mary’s College Department of Communications & Theatre
- presents a studio production of

- "...hot ice and wondrous strange snow."
- a Shakespearean Anthology

- devised & directed by Roberta N. Rude

- April 8,9,10,13 - 12:15 pm
- Haggard Center Terrace
- Rain site Haggard Parlor
- April 12 - 7:00 pm
- Haggard Parlor

- Free Admission, for more info 284-6440

---

Sports Wednesday

American League East Division
- Baltimore
- Milwaukee
- New York
- Boston
- Detroit

National League East Division
- Philadelphia
- Washington
- Atlanta
- Chicago
- Houston

American League West Division
- California
- Chicago
- Cleveland
- Detroit
- San Diego

National League West Division
- Colorado
- San Francisco
- Los Angeles
- Cincinnati
- Seattle

Interhall Soccer
- Division I
- ISO over Stainton
- Pangborn 1, Holy Cross 0 B
- Dillon Red over Law School
- Grace over St. B

Interhall Soccer
- Division II
- Flanner 3, Grace 2-1
- Howard over Goshen
- Morrissey over Keenan Z
- Holy Cross A over Cavanaugh

Interhall Soccer
- Division III
- Women's Division
- Pasquerilla West 1, Pasquerilla East 0
- Pasquerilla East over Badin

---

Carroll Stanton
- Happy Smart's sister

---

The Observer
As the first round comes to a close

Irish continued from page 12

final two innings, but came up three runs short in a 13-10 final score. Senior Sandburg got the win, while Paul Mauk took the loss for the Irish. The game lasted over three hours, and included three home runs, five wild pitches, two passed balls, 13 walks, nine different pitchers, and 25 runs.

Still, Notre Dame seemed to be turning the tables on the Spartans in the first game. The Irish staged their eight-run charge in the ninth inning, as 100 more players seek to reach the second round and the much-vaunted Final 32 teams in Bookstore Basketball XVI.

Bookstore continued from page 12

nuts' cartoon fame, shot a 3-par 3 for 38 for Team No. 164 in what must have been a humiliating 21-12 loss to Mr. Cheevers's Breakfast Club.

The final twenty games of the first round take place tomorrow, as 100 more players seek to reach the second round and the much-vaunted Final 32 teams in Bookstore Basketball XVI.

Colts quiet on NFL top pick

Associated Press

NEW YORK - Coach Ron Meyer of the Indianapolis Colts has declined comment on what he and his team will do with their controlling spot in the NFL draft later this month.

God does not see as we see - for we look at appearances, but the Lord looks into the heart.

Personal reflections by:
BISHOP THOMAS J. GUMBLETON
Auxiliary Bishop of Detroit
President, Pax Christi, USA
TONIGHT 7:00 pm Sacred Heart Church
A part of Peace With Justice Week and the Lenten Reflection Series.

THE BEST IN JAZZ
DON'T MISS IT
APRIL 10-11, 1987

One Hour MotoPhoto
272-8243

FREE EXTRA SET OF PRINTS
With this coupon, receive a FREE Extra Set of Prints, when presenting one roll of color print film (C-41 process only) for processing and printing at One Hour Moto Photo. Offer limited to one roll per coupon per customer. Not valid with any other promotion. Expires: June 30, 1987.

FREE EXTRA SET OF PRINTS
With this coupon, receive a FREE Extra Set of Prints, when presenting one roll of color print film (C-41 process only) for processing and printing at One Hour Moto Photo. Offer limited to one roll per coupon per customer. Not valid with any other promotion. Expires: June 30, 1987.

Graduation Special FREE
24 Wallet Size Portraits
With this coupon receive 24 wallet size portraits when purchasing any regularly priced portrait package at ONE HOUR MOTO PHOTO. One coupon per custom­

*University of Notre Dame

The Observer Wednesday April 8, 1987 - page 9
Defensive line searches for depth, finds spirit

BY TERRY LYNCH
Sports Writer

With the graduation of defensive standout Robert Banks and Wally Kleine, one would think that the Notre Dame football team's defensive line was about as deep as Saint Mary's Lake.

Spring Football '87

Add to that the fact that Mike Griffin, the only returning veteran on the line, is working out alone after being sidelined by back surgery in January, and the depth starts looking as deep as your average swamp.

But in spite of these glaring weaknesses, the spirit and intensity on the line remain high in the early spring practices.

"Mike's out along with (freshman) Jeff Aim, but we look at their return as a bonus thing," said Defensive Line Coach Joe Yonto. "We've had good competition so far this spring, and the goal for me is to find the best three out there."

At left tackle, Yonto has junior Jeff Kunz at the top spot, with coming back in the fall," said Yonto. "But even with the numbers we have, there's a lot of good talent."

"It would be nice for Grif to come back, though. He's the type of player that gets in there and is just a fireplug-you can't move him."

Yonto was pleased with the effort of his players during last Saturday's scrimmage, but faces problems with missed tackles and "the basic fundamentals-shooting gaps, releasing, using the pads-that kind of stuff."

"I can't fault the way they've tried," said Yonto. "But the object of the spring drills is to get the teaching through and the basics down. We'll put in the frills and gimmicks in the fall, but we've got to have a foundation to do that well."

Griffin, meanwhile, has been working out alongside the team during the spring, but has not suited up for practices. He has spent his time going through conditioning drills, while his teammates go through the contact drills.

"I don't see any problems with coming back in the fall," said Griffin. "But until then, I've just been doing what the trainers have told me."

Gorman, who has benefited most by Griffin's absence, agrees with Yonto's assessment of the line.

"There are actually a lot of reserves out here, and a lot of hard hitting," said Gorman. "Spirits are high on the team, and I'm really happy to be where I am right now."

Even Dingens, who has been suiting up for the practices. He is doing what the trainers have told me."

"I've been surprised at the depth, really," he said. "Of course, early in the season it's the offense that has the problems with the numbers. But even with the numbers we have, there's a lot of good talent."

Sugar Ray Leonard leaps for joy after winning the World Middleweight Title in his split-decision victory over Marvelous Marvin Hagler on Monday night. Leonard, fighting for the first time in three years, handed Hagler his first loss in 38 fights dating back to 1974.

Did Sugar really win?

Associated Press

LAS VEGAS, Nev. Sugar Ray Leonard was back on top of the boxing world Tuesday, while Marvin Hagler was emotionally down. And Jojo Guerra was in the middle of a controversy.

Guerra scored the 15-round draw in the World Boxing Council middleweight championship.

"I thought Leonard outsmarted him, outfought him and was way ahead of him," Guerra said Thursday.

Judge Dave Moretti favored Leonard 115-113, while Lou Filippone scored 115-113 for Hagler.

The Peter Thorpe Band performs History of the Blues 101 Friday 4-6 Fieldhouse Mall Rain? Huddle sponsored by SAB

The Daily Crossword

ACROSS
1 Having skill 5 Line 9 Italian title 13 Rectified 14 Perfumed 15 Theatrical sunlight 16 Peak 17 Shore of slim 18 Genus of whistling swan 19 Bashful singers 22 Opening 23 Mop 24 Objection 27 By way of abbreviation 32 Winged 33 Gap 34 New Deal org. 35 Fourth dimension 36 Fiat, racer 37 European 38 Exclamation

1-20 Down
1 A part of EAP 2 A part of Yale 3 Nexus 4 Nigeria 5 Indian 6 Vietnam city 7 Bengal 8 Bengal 9 Bengal 10 Bengal 11 Bengal

Yesterday's Puzzle Solved

4/8/87 Tribune Media Services, Inc. All Rights Reserved.

BUY OBSERVER CLASSIFIEDS

The Peter Thorpe Band presents “Green Berets” The Ultimate War Movie Today and Thursday 7:00, 9:30, 12:00 $1 Engineering Aud.
Erin Bartholomy led the girls with an 8-of-11 shooting performance. The junior also delighted the sizable crowd with a twisting two-fisted jam midway through the second half.

In the final game involving an all-girl squad, 3 Really Cool Guys squeaked by 5 Girls Who Have Imagined Foosball Four Never Touched a Basketball, 21-16. The Guys, featuring varsity football players Terry Andrysiasik, Andy Heck, and Steve Belles, were lulled to sleep by a girl's slow pace early on, and actually trailed at the half, 11-10. Then, amidst screams of "Oooh, I broke a nail!" and "Tickle 'em, girls", the game suddenly turned into a dunkfest for the guys, as bows from the crowd rained down on them with every slam. Andrysiasik led all scorers with eight points.

In other games yesterday, Willie and the Wanna Bees looked extremely impressive in stinging Team No. 234 by a score of 21-2. The winners shot 21-of-33 for the game, and unlikely Wanna Bee hero Mike Palm went 5-of-6 with eight points. "Heck, I just follow up behind the guards and get garbage baskets," said Palm.

Bob Van Kirk also went 7-of-11 from the field in a game which sets up an interesting confrontation with Ed Smer­ciak; the Last Hurrah at Stelan Courts, and bowed out 21-6 in one of those games which was closer than the score indicated. Smerciak shot 21-of­36 in the contest.

In one of the games that was definitely not as close as the score indicated, the all-girl Team No. 660, after spooling out (?) to an 11-6 lead over Dead Girls Don't Say No (easily this reporter's favorite team), the Last Hurrah at Step­an Courts, and bowed out 21-6 in one of those games which was closer than the score indicated. Smerciak shot 21-of­36 in the contest.

In one of the games that was definitely not as close as the score indicated, the all-girl Team No. 660, after a five point lead over Dead Girls Don't Say No (easily this reporter's favorite team), the Last Hurrah at Step­an Courts, and bowed out 21-6 in one of those games which was closer than the score indicated. Smerciak shot 21-of­36 in the contest.

In one of the games that was definitely not as close as the score indicated, the all-girl Team No. 660, after a five point lead over Dead Girls Don't Say No (easily this reporter's favorite team), the Last Hurrah at Step­an Courts, and bowed out 21-6 in one of those games which was closer than the score indicated. Smerciak shot 21-of­36 in the contest.

In one of the games that was definitely not as close as the score indicated, the all-girl Team No. 660, after a five point lead over Dead Girls Don't Say No (easily this reporter's favorite team), the Last Hurrah at Step­an Courts, and bowed out 21-6 in one of those games which was closer than the score indicated. Smerciak shot 21-of­36 in the contest.