Arrest made in fake bomb case

Associated Press

HAMTRAMCK, Mich. A man carrying what police thought was a bomb was ar- rested shortly before a cam- paign appearance Monday by GOP vice presidential can- didate Dan Quayle, police said. The device, which looked like several sticks of dynamite wrapped in duct tape, turned out to be fake.

"It was made up to look like a bomb. It would have fooled me and anybody else," said Jim Huse, special agent in charge of the Secret Service field office in Detroit.

The Secret Service said that shortly before Quayle's arri­ val, a man was arrested near the parade reviewing stand when he was seen carrying what appeared to be a bomb containing sticks of dynamite. The device turned out to be a fake.

The 38-year-old Hamtramck man was arrested on charges of interfering with a Secret Ser­ vice agent and was held at the service's office pending ar­ raignment later Monday. Former by Jim Huse, special agent in charge of the Secret Service field office in Detroit.

Huse said he did not know why the man had the device.

"We hesitate to speculate un­ til an investigation is com­ plete," Huse said.

Another man was taken into custody but was released after police determined he knew nothing of the incident, Huse said.

The suspect was seen at the South of the Border Bar & Grill near the parade reviewing stand by someone who saw what looked like a bomb and reported it to police.

The bomb squad of the Detroit Police Department removed the device, contained in a paper bag, and determined it was a fake, Huse said.

The incident forced Quayle to be delayed at Detroit City Air­ port, and to miss a scheduled walk in Hamtramck's Polish Day Parade, Huse said.

---

To skip or not to skip

Senior Pangborn resident Liam Canny appears to debate the merits of going to class or playing golf as he looks wistfully at the Burke Memorial Golf Course.

---

Student returns to campus after accident

By REGIS COCCIA

Senior Staff Reporter

Lisa Mackett, the student who was hit by a car near the JACC last Wednesday, is out of the hospital and eager to get back to her responsibilities on campus.

The Knott Hall sophomore was released from St. Joseph Medical Center on Sunday and attended classes yesterday.

"I'm doing great, slowly but surely learning the hell of hand­ icapped people on this campus," Mackett said.

"Physically, I'll be in a cast for 10 weeks. Outside of that, I am happy as a lark. I feel so good to be back on campus," Mackett, 19, sustained a brok­ en right leg and cuts to her face and left hand and is now staying in the University Health Center. She had been in the hospital since the accident on Wednesday.

"Everybody in Knott Hall was so super. This was the worst time for me to throw this on them. Everybody still found time to come see me," said Mackett, a government major. Many of Mackett's friends assumed her duties in her ab­ sence, she said. Mackett serves as campus entertainment com­ missioner for the Student Union Board and is active in both the Center for Social Con­ cerns and her dorm. She said she was very grateful to those who helped cover for her.

Yesterday Mackett met the driver of the car that hit her.

---

SMC Board opens student input table

By JOANNA GRILLO

News Staff

The Student Government In­ put Table was granted top bil­ ling at the weekly meeting of the Saint Mary's Program­ ming Board.

The Input Table will be lo­ cated in the Haggar College Center lobby Friday Sept. 9, from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. "Stu­ dent Government representa­ tives will be on hand to receive any questions and concerns that students may have," said Lisa Hill, Vice President for Student Affairs.

Hill added that this is a great opportunity to make Student Government more visible to the students. The Input Table gives Student Government the chance to kick off their sugges­ tion box as well. The suggestion box will be placed on the Input Table so that students may familiarize themselves with it, added Hill.

Also of primary importance at this week's meeting were reminders to students about campus events this week. These events include SAB's First Club Tuesday, which takes place tonight from 8:30 until 11 p.m. in the Haggar Parlor and features professional singer and guitar­ ist Mike Rayburn. Students are also reminded that SAB is sponsoring a Wel­ come to America picnic for all foreign Saint Mary's and Notre Dame students Wednesday Sept. 7 from 4:30 until 6 p.m. on the Haggar Terrace. Amer­ ican is the featured cuisine, in­ cluding such delicacies as hot...
IN BRIEF

A car hit senior Greg Rodrigues early Saturday morning, fracturing three bones in his lower back. Rodrigues was hit while crossing Eddy Street with some friends. They were headed to cross South Bend Street. They were going from Bridget McGuire's Filling Station to meet up at The Commons, a bar adjacent to Bridget's. Conflated to bed in the infirmary, the Alumni Hall senior said he gets frequent back spasms. "I feel fine as long as I don't try to move," he said. -The Observer

Mrs. Elizabeth Abeys-Price, a graduate student in psychology at Notre Dame has received a doctoral fellowship from the Ford Foundation's Doctoral Fellowship Program for the Minorities. Mrs. Price, a native of Espahola, New Mexico, graduated from Notre Dame in 1986. Her research is in the area of adolescent development. The Ford Foundation Doctoral Fellowship Program for Minorities is intended to increase the presence of minorities on the nation's college and university faculties -The Observer

The University of Notre Dame will celebrate the 25th anniversary of the closing of the Second Vatican Council by holding a major international academic conference during the fall semester of 1990. Professor Timothy O'Meara, University Provost, has appointed a seven-member faculty committee to plan the conference. Other members are Frederick Crossen, John Cavanugh, professor in Humanities for the Professional Program in Public Service; Rev. Thomas O'Meara, O.P.; William Warren, professor of theology; Patricia McBrein, Crowley-O'Brien-Walter Professor of Theology and chairman of the Department of Theology, will chair the committee. -The Observer

Saturday, September 6, 1988

Student ticket problems stem from poor planning

Problems and controversy have clouded the recent distribution of football tickets to students. The football season is one of the biggest social events of the year, yet there will be many students that will not sit with the rest of the student body because of a lack of proper planning in ticket distribution. Unfortunately, there are some students that are confusing the issue, and are questioning why Saint Mary's students should get tickets with the Notre Dame Student Body.

First and foremost, it is inexusable that the Athletic Department failed to allocate enough tickets for the student body. They should overestimate student demand for tickets with a comfortable margin, and sell any extras after the students have bought theirs. Although, the ticket office had planned on an increase of 200 season tickets over last year, the simple fact that Kennedy and Siegfried Halls both house over 200 additional students explain why they fell short.

What's even more appalling is the recent attitude expressed by many Notre Dame students regarding Saint Mary's students getting tickets alongside Notre Dame students. Recently, I've heard remarks like, "Why should Saint Mary's students get tickets alongside Notre Dame students?" Now that Notre Dame students get their tickets first.

It is not Saint Mary's fault that some students did not get tickets in the student section. The Athletic Department simply did not allot enough tickets, and they deserve the credit for this fiasco. It surprises me how quickly some Notre Dame students point the finger to our sister school because they didn't get tickets.

Some argue that they don't go here, and we do, therefore we deserve tickets more than they do. They think Saint Mary's should buy their tickets after Notre Dame students. But Saint Mary's students are a part of the Notre Dame family and as such have as much a right to tickets as any Notre Dame student.

Notre Dame accepted Saint Mary's College as a sister school many years ago, and as a result must now accept her as an integral part of the Notre Dame community for better or for worse.

Even though we have separate schools and administrations, all major decisions affecting either campus are shared with the other. The students of Notre Dame and Saint Mary's share social, academic, and religious life, together. Socially, half formal and parties generally consist of both Notre Dame and Saint Mary's women. Academically, Saint Mary's students attend some Notre Dame classes, and Notre Dame students attend Saint Mary's classes. We share a religious conviction, and hall masses are regularly attended by students of both schools. With all that Notre Dame and Saint Mary's share, it would be a crime for Saint Mary's students not to be able to sit with their friends at Notre Dame, and be forced to sit in a separate section. We should not attempt to alienate Saint Mary's from the Notre Dame community, more specifically from the Notre Dame student body. Making Saint Mary's students buy their tickets after the Notre Dame students would degrade the Saint Mary's students further and limit the social atmosphere on campus. Notre Dame and Saint Mary's College have long-standing traditions and commitments to each other.

Although if you are one of the unlucky ones who did not get student section tickets, I feel bad for you because you will not experience Notre Dame football in quite the same way. You have every right to be angry. However, don't blame Saint Mary's students for being a part of the Notre Dame community, when the Athletic Department was at fault.

INSIDE COLUMN

Student ticket problems stem from poor planning

Problems and controversy have clouded the recent distribution of football tickets to students. The football season is one of the biggest social events of the year, yet there will be many students that will not sit with the rest of the student body because of a lack of proper planning in ticket distribution. Unfortunately, there are some students that are confusing the issue, and are questioning why Saint Mary's students should get tickets with the Notre Dame Student Body.

First and foremost, it is inexusable that the Athletic Department failed to allocate enough tickets for the student body. They should overestimate student demand for tickets with a comfortable margin, and sell any extras after the students have bought theirs. Although, the ticket office had planned on an increase of 200 season tickets over last year, the simple fact that Kennedy and Siegfried Halls both house over 200 additional students explain why they fell short.

What's even more appalling is the recent attitude expressed by many Notre Dame students regarding Saint Mary's students getting tickets alongside Notre Dame students. Recently, I've heard remarks like, "Why should Saint Mary's students get tickets alongside Notre Dame students?" Now that Notre Dame students get their tickets first.

It is not Saint Mary's fault that some students did not get tickets in the student section. The Athletic Department simply did not allot enough tickets, and they deserve the credit for this fiasco. It surprises me how quickly some Notre Dame students point the finger to our sister school because they didn't get tickets.

Some argue that they don't go here, and we do, therefore we deserve tickets more than they do. They think Saint Mary's should buy their tickets after Notre Dame students. But Saint Mary's students are a part of the Notre Dame family and as such have as much a right to tickets as any Notre Dame student.

Notre Dame accepted Saint Mary's College as a sister school many years ago, and as a result must now accept her as an integral part of the Notre Dame community for better or for worse.

Even though we have separate schools and administrations, all major decisions affecting either campus are shared with the other. The students of Notre Dame and Saint Mary's share social, academic, and religious life, together. Socially, half formal and parties generally consist of both Notre Dame and Saint Mary's women. Academically, Saint Mary's students attend some Notre Dame classes, and Notre Dame students attend Saint Mary's classes. We share a religious conviction, and hall masses are regularly attended by students of both schools. With all that Notre Dame and Saint Mary's share, it would be a crime for Saint Mary's students not to be able to sit with their friends at Notre Dame, and be forced to sit in a separate section. We should not attempt to alienate Saint Mary's from the Notre Dame community, more specifically from the Notre Dame student body. Making Saint Mary's students buy their tickets after the Notre Dame students would degrade the Saint Mary's students further and limit the social atmosphere on campus. Notre Dame and Saint Mary's College have long-standing traditions and commitments to each other.

Although if you are one of the unlucky ones who did not get student section tickets, I feel bad for you because you will not experience Notre Dame football in quite the same way. You have every right to be angry. However, don't blame Saint Mary's students for being a part of the Notre Dame community, when the Athletic Department was at fault.
Gadhafi disputes allegations

Associated Press

TRIPOLI, Libya - Libyan leader Muammar Gadhafi on Monday challenged the United States to prove accusations he backs terrorism, and said he would like to visit the United States "if things were different" and that Libya remains a close friend of the Soviet Union despite improved U.S.-Soviet relations.

Gadhafi said Americans who believe President Reagan's charge that he sponsors terrorism are "very simple people, ignorant people."

"I challenge everyone in the world to give evidence" that Libya backs terrorism, he said.

Reagan accused Gadhafi of sponsoring the December 1985 attack that left 20 people dead at airports in Rome and Vienna.

The Associated Press

U.S. warplanes bombed Libya in April 1986 in an attack that killed 37 people, including Gadhafi's 15-month-old adopted daughter. The raid was intended to punish Libya for its role in the April 5 bombing of a West German nightclub in which two Americans and a Turkish woman were killed.

A July 11 terrorist attack that killed nine people on a Greek cruise ship was linked to Abu Nidal, who is believed to travel frequently to Libya.

ATTENTION STUDENTS:

THEY'RE HERE! WAVE YOUR N.D. HANKIES AND SUPPORT THE IRISH OVER MICHIGAN!!

HANKIES AVAILABLE for $3/each W-F at the Dining Halls, Lunch & Dinner, at the Class Offices, SATURDAY around the STADIUM, & at the Senior Concession Stand at Alumni Hall

GO IRISH! BEAT MICHIGAN
University Food Services and Student Government present a 24-hour student lounge.

Grand opening Tuesday, September 6. Located in the Oak Room, South Dining Hall. Open seven days, 24 hours a day. Serving food at all times.
Reagan sets plans for rest of his term

Associated Press

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. - President Reagan is planning dual fall campaigns: an overt political one on behalf of George Bush and the other an effort to wring a wish list of items from an election-minded Congress.

"I'm sure the president's philosophy right now is very much -'so little time and so much to do,'" said Kenneth Duberstein, Reagan's chief of staff.

But Reagan's mix of lambasting Democrats on the political stump and then seeking cooperation from them on Capitol Hill is not one that necessarily has produced legislatively successes in the past.

"If lame duck means he's in his last year in office, then he's a lame duck, but if it means he can't get anything done, it doesn't fill," contended White House spokesman Jay Cooper, in Santa Barbara with the Reagan entourage.

Cooper said that among other things, Reagan intends to push for Senate passage of the U.S.-Canadian Free Trade Agreement and designation of a Cabinet-level Department of Veterans Affairs.

With some fanfare, the president also will sign the new housing bill - seen as an election-year boost for both parties.

The president also will look for the near-certain approval of his two Cabinet nominees, Nicholas Brady as Treasury Secretary and Lauro Cavazos to head the Department of Education.

Senate continued from page 1

Michigan State game, only 300 are made available to the student body through a lottery. Apparently the remainder are sold to alumni and other school supporters. The Senate promised to look into the matter.

A representative of the Graduate Student Union explained the purpose of the new branch of government, saying that its main purpose was to integrate graduate students letter of thanks to the campus which appears in The Observer today.

"I am very pleased with the reaction and with the support of the Notre Dame family," said Father Andre Leveille, director of Campus Ministry.

Leveille, the University chaplain, visited Mackett in the hospital every day. He said Mackett's parents were "very grateful for the support, the love and the caring they saw from the people at Notre Dame."

Mackett was crossing Juniper Road near the Joyce Athletic and Convocation Center when she was hit. She had been waiting in line for football tickets for six hours and went to buy some ice cream from a truck across the road.

Board continued from page 1

Mackett finally got her football tickets, along with a card from Head Coach Lou Holtz.

The recuperating sophomore's immediate plans include catching up on schoolwork and learning how to use crutches. "I think I'm going to start helping the handicapped," she said.

Mackett went to the hospital daily, Mackett said she had at least 50 visitors. "A lot of people told me they came to see me Sunday, but I was already discharged from the hospital," she said. While still in her hospital bed, Mackett wrote a letter of thanks to the campus which appears in The Observer today.

"I had already gotten across one lane. I saw him the second before he hit me," Mackett said. "I did a total flip and landed about 70 feet behind on the pavement. I seriously thought I was going to die."

She remained conscious while others rushed to help her. Frank Timons, a friend of Mackett's who was standing behind her in line, rode in the ambulance with her. Mackett finally got her football tickets, along with a card from Head Coach Lou Holtz.

Board continued from page 1

Another event scheduled for the evening of Wednesday-Sept. 17 is a joint Student Government dinner with Notre Dame representatives. According to Hill, this is a great way for Saint Mary's Student Government reps to meet with representa-atives who hold the same position at Notre Dame. Julie Pat- rish, Saint Mary's President for Student Affairs, added, "This is the beginning of something good."

Tour du Lac

These tandem bicyclists take advantage of yesterday's cooler weather to get in shape before cooler weather forces them inside for their workouts.

NOTRE DAME vs. MICHIGAN STATE - SEPT. 17th

TICKET LOTTERY PROCEDURE

Undergraduate students wishing to purchase tickets for this away football game will need to be aware of the following:

Lottery tickets can be picked up Wednesday & Thursday, Sept. 7-8 in Room 002 in the basement of LaFortune Student Center between 1pm and 5pm. Each student can pick up 1 (one) lottery ticket per I.D., one I.D. per student.

On Friday, Sept. 9th, the winning numbers will be published in The Observer. Students holding winning tickets are eligible to buy 2 game tickets. These will be on sale Monday-Tuesday, Sept. 12-13 in Room 002 of LaFortune Student Center between 1pm-5pm. Tickets not purchased by 5pm on Tuesday will be considered forfeited and new numbers will be drawn.

Bus transportation will be provided for a nominal cost- tickets for this can be purchased at time of game ticket purchase.

Sponsored by the Senior Class, Junior Class, Sophomore Class, and Student Union Board
the selling remains of the abandoned Marble Hill nuclear facility. It is not the sale of the power plant;

"the sale of material originally was scheduled to come in 1981," said David Mathias, associate director for utility marketing.

Plainfield, Ind., Public Service Co. of Indiana and the Appalachian Power Co. of Ohio River near Madison. "We expected to bring their utility to the brink of financial disaster and it sought to recover it's own costs by increasing rates. However, consumer groups protested, citing a law that prohibits passing on the cost of power projects until they come on line, and the utility was required to make refunds. It made the resulting rate hikes equivalent to half dividends to stockholders."

The most popular items have been office furniture and equipment. An auction in 1983 recovered $1.4 million from the utility had invested $1.4 million in equipment. An auction was halted in late 1984 after the utility had invested $1.4 million in equipment. An auction was halted in late 1984 after the utility had invested $1.4 million in equipment. An auction was halted in late 1984 after the utility had invested $1.4 million in equipment. An auction was halted in late 1984 after the utility had invested $1.4 million in equipment. An auction was halted in late 1984 after the utility had invested $1.4 million in equipment.
People carrying Dukakis-Bentsen signs stood at the back of the crowd when Bush spoke and chanted, "Where was George?"

About 30 members of a group called the AIDS coalition to Unleash Power, heckled Quayle four more and said they were protesting his vote against a $30 million appropriation to provide the drug AZT to AIDS victims.

"My friends, I ask you, can we afford four more years of that?"

"High paying jobs being replaced by low paying jobs, average weekly wages down over the past eight years, benefits down over the past eight years," he went on. "My friends, I ask you, can we afford four more years of that?"

Campaigning in California, Bush said Dukakis opposes the MX and Midgetman missiles, the Star Wars missile defense program and two new aircraft carrier task forces.

"I wouldn't be surprised if he thinks that a naval exercise is something you find in Jane Fonda's workout book," said the vice president, in a reference to the actress who was leading activist against the Vietnam war.

In his speech on the San Diego waterfront before a backdrop of 400 aircraft carriers anchored in the harbor, Bush said his opponent follows the standard litany of the liberal left."

Shake it up baby

W Haereti, a New Zealand Maori warrior, emphasizes his point as he issues a challenge aboard the New Zealand yacht competing in the America's Cup. Observing Haereti are (left to right) Maori elder Pataki Te Rei, Michael Fay, the head of the New Zealand America's Cup challenge, and boat skipper David Barnes.

Floods inundate Bangladesh

Associated Press

BAILTALI, Bangladesh - Among the millions of homeless in flooded Bangladesh, barefoot women clambered from boats Monday onto the only strip of this village still above water and surrounded army officers who dilled out food.

They pushed each other in the light rain to get at the giant cooking pots. They stuffed flat-fuls of cooked rice and lentils into their own pots and bowls, or into the folds of their mud-stained saris.

Floods have submerged three-fourths of the nation and claimed at least 406 lives this summer, according to official figures. Daily tallies in Dhaka newspapers put the death toll at 1,015.

More than 92,000 people are known to suffer from diarrhoea and 5,715 more from dysentery, the Health Ministry said.

Taslimur Rahman, joint secretary of the ministry, told reporters in the capital of Dhaka that people get the diseases by drinking impure water, often the very flood water that maroons them.

 Officials say water purification tablets are being distributed but residents of Bailtal, a village of 2,000 people 55 miles southwest of Dhaka, said they had not seen any.

Floods and the economy are of growing concern to the government, which is racing to feed a quarter of the population and provide medical aid to others in the nation's worst flood since 1978.

Associated Press

The Associated Press Tuesday, September 6, 1988 The Observer page 7

More name calling heard on holiday

Associated Press

Presidential rivals George Bush and Michael Dukakis campaigned on opposite sides of the country on Labor Day, with Bush linking his Democratic opponent to "the liberal left," and Dukakis asking, "Can we afford four more years?" of Republican economic policies.

Vice presidential nominees Lloyd Bentsen and Dan Quayle also were on the trail Monday for the symbolic kickoff of the fall campaign, using the opportunity to find fault with the heads of the opposition tickets.

With little more than two months remaining before Election Day, the rival candidates tested campaign themes at rallies in key states.

Republican nominee Bush was in California where he said the campaign is "foremost about jobs and peace. It's about protecting the gains we've made in jobs and peace and it's about how to make new breakthroughs in both areas."

Dukakis told a holiday rally in Detroit, "the time has come to bring prosperity home to every home in every neighborhood in America." He said the time has come to stop ignoring foreign competition and start beating it.

The Massachusetts governor cited Census Bureau statistics he said showed that "the rich have become richer, the poor have gotten poorer" during the Reagan presidency.

"The standard of living we have in America is something we should be proud of. Foreign powers and our own political climate have derailed the progress."

"The time has come to bring prosperity to every home in every neighborhood in America."

Associated Press

The TI-74 BASICALC™ is a BASIC calculator that's doing your coursework a basic snap.

The TI-74 BASICALC is a BASIC language programmable calculator from Texas Instruments. The mathematics and numerics cartridges are two of five optional application software available.

Your Basic Problem:

Your Basic Solution:

The TI-74 BASICALLC:

- Linear Algebra with Applications
- Decision Analysis
- Elements of Econometrics
- Fluid Mechanics
- Probability and Statistics for Engineers
- COLLEGE PHYSICS
- Advanced Engineering Mathematics
- Mechanics

Your BASICALLC specs:

- 5K RAM expandable to 16K RAM.
- 113 BASIC keyboard set.
- Optional software cartridges for chemical, mechanical, electrical, statistics and finance.
- Optional OASIL language cartridge.
- Optional printer and cassette interface.

Stop by your bookstore and see both sides of the TI-74 BASICALLC for yourself. Either way, it'll blow you away.

The TI-74 BASICALC™ is a BASIC calculator that's doing your coursework a basic snap.

- Linear Algebra with Applications
- Decision Analysis
- Elements of Econometrics
- Fluid Mechanics
- Probability and Statistics for Engineers
- COLLEGE PHYSICS
- Advanced Engineering Mathematics
- Mechanics

Your BASICALLC specs:

- 5K RAM expandable to 16K RAM.
- 113 BASIC keyboard set.
- Optional software cartridges for chemical, mechanical, electrical, statistics and finance.
- Optional OASIL language cartridge.
- Optional printer and cassette interface.

Stop by your bookstore and see both sides of the TI-74 BASICALLC for yourself. Either way, it'll blow you away.

Texas Instruments

Trademarks of Texas Instruments Incorporated ©1988 TI.
A post-accident perspective on life

The Observer retains the right to edit all commentaries submitted to the Viewpoint department. Please note the briefest the piece, the greater its chances of reaching print.

Doonesbury

P.O. Box Q, Notre Dame, IN 46556 (219)239-5303

Editor-in-Chief  Chris Murphy
Managing Editor  Regis Echeverry
News Editor  Alex Zavel
Visual Editor  Mark Staubinger
Sports Editor  Marty Stricker
Online Editor  Beth Hiew
Saint Mary's Editor  Sandy Carnes
Photo Editor  Michael Nolan

Founded November 3, 1966

Lisa Mackett is a sophomore enrolled in the College of Arts and Letters.

P.O. Box Q

Dear Editor:

While one can hardly doubt the good intentions, Mr. Garvey expresses his article of Sept. 2 about military science and the Catholic faith, his conclusion, "Military science will always be profoundly at odds with (the Faith)," seems a dangerous reluctance to face the realities of horror which thousands of Americans have had to endure during our brief history. Nor, it would seem, of course, would deny that military science concerns itself more with how to kill people, yet we should note that killing is one of several means of effecting the end of peace, even accomplished by racists. I agree that Jackson is a great speaker, but this wouldn't have been enough if he were white. The voters would have realized that the man has never held an elected position and thus would not know how to handle a large government. They would laugh at him and vote for somebody else. If Jackson were white, he would not have been a major factor in the primary race, he would have been just an "also ran."

Brian Amer
Stanford Hall
Sept. 1, 1988

Military necessary to restore peace

Dear Editor:

While one can hardly doubt the good intentions, Mr. Garvey expresses his article of Sept. 2 about military science and the Catholic faith, his conclusion, "Military science will always be profoundly at odds with (the Faith)," seems a dangerous reluctance to face the realities of horror which thousands of Americans have had to endure during our brief history. Nor, it would seem, of course, would deny that military science concerns itself more with how to kill people, yet we should note that killing is one of several means of effecting the end of peace, even accomplished by racists. I agree that Jackson is a great speaker, but this wouldn't have been enough if he were white. The voters would have realized that the man has never held an elected position and thus would not know how to handle a large government. They would laugh at him and vote for somebody else. If Jackson were white, he would not have been a major factor in the primary race, he would have been just an "also ran."

Brian Amer
Stanford Hall
Sept. 1, 1988

Dear Editor:

I am writing in response to the Viewpoint article of Tom Varnum in the Aug. 29 issue of The Observer. In his column, Mr. Varnum stated that the reason Jesse Jackson lost the Democratic nomination was because he is black. Mr. Varnum then went on to interpret that America is basically a bad place because of this. He said that if Jackson were white, he would currently be the Democratic presidential nominee. I disagree. If Jackson were white, he would have been the first candidate to drop out of the race. He would not have finished second; he would have finished last.

The only reason anybody paid any attention to Jackson was because he is black. Blacks voted for him because he's black and those whites who did support him did so because it made them feel liberated. In the Democratic debate, none of the other candidates could attack him because if they did they would have been accused of being racist. I agree that Jackson is a great speaker, but this wouldn't have been enough if he were white. The voters would have realized that the man has never held an elected position and thus would not know how to handle a large government. They would laugh at him and vote for somebody else. If Jackson were white, he would not have been a major factor in the primary race, he would have been just an "also ran."

Dear Editor:

I am writing in response to the Viewpoint article of Tom Varnum in the Aug. 29 issue of The Observer. In his column, Mr. Varnum stated that the reason Jesse Jackson lost the Democratic nomination was because he is black. Mr. Varnum then went on to interpret that America is basically a bad place because of this. He said that if Jackson were white, he would currently be the Democratic presidential nominee. I disagree. If Jackson were white, he would have been the first candidate to drop out of the race. He would not have finished second; he would have finished last.

The only reason anybody paid any attention to Jackson was because he is black. Blacks voted for him because he's black and those whites who did support him did so because it made them feel liberated. In the Democratic debate, none of the other candidates could attack him because if they did they would have been accused of being racist. I agree that Jackson is a great speaker, but this wouldn't have been enough if he were white. The voters would have realized that the man has never held an elected position and thus would not know how to handle a large government. They would laugh at him and vote for somebody else. If Jackson were white, he would not have been a major factor in the primary race, he would have been just an "also ran."
Breen-Phillips has that extra something

AMY WEBER
accent writer

Happy Birthday to Breen-Phillips Hall. The south west corner of the North Quad turns 50 this year. Although not the newest dorm on campus, its traditions run deep and its spirit is mature.

Junior Karen Croteau is not alone when she says that the spirit is the number one quality of the dorm. "There is definitely a lot of spirit. Everyone participates in a lot of the hall activities, and we always have really good attendance. Nobody holds anything back."

Thirty-year rector Judy Hutchinson agrees. "The spirit is amazing. So many people participate in hall activities - the finest qualities of BP is the way the residents cheer the other residents on."

That caring attitude is another highly-touted attribute of Breen-Phillips. The homey atmosphere of the hall provides residents with a more than suitable home away from home. Freshman Deandra Villarreal was pleasantly surprised with the attention given her upon arrival. "I didn't know anything about BP before I got here. But everybody was so nice and ready to help me out," she said. "It really made me feel at home, and that helped. I feel so comfortable here, I have a 'Second Home.'"

Many freshmen enter the dorm not knowing what to expect or a place whose reputation precedes itself. But Breen-Phillips' reputation is changing. Recent dorm achievements are changing the face of the once all-freshman hall. It is interesting to note that BP used to house the athletic offices on its first floor. Considering the athletic powerhouse that BP has since become, it boasts the trophy case by the 1987 inter-ball hall football championship, a title hard earned and well deserved. Basketball, soccer, and tennis squads also boost the BP image.

Long-standing traditions keep getting better at Breen-Phillips. The attitude towards BP's repaying Spring Week is quickly becoming a major event. It has included a room game (similar to "The Newlywed Game"), pot parties, ice skating, BP clothing day, and basketball, soccer, and tennis tournaments.

LAURA LINDER
accent writer

The event of the year has enveloped the Notre Dame campus, literally because it spans the entire 1987-88 academic year and because of the impact it will have on the Notre Dame community as a whole.

What is this great event? It is the arrival of prominent minority artists, intellectuals, businesspeople, and clerics to Notre Dame. It is the Year of Cultural Diversity.

The Year of Cultural Diversity is the product of a special report from the Committee on Minority Students appointed in November 1986 by Provost Timothy O'Meara. The committee's mandate was to "advise on strategies for enhancing all aspects of the presence of minority undergraduate and graduate students at the University."

The Committee's report was submitted to University President Father Edward Malloy in June of 1987. As a response to their recommenda-
A new sportswriters meeting will take place immediately following The Observer or­ientation meeting that begins at 9 p.m. in Montgomery Auditorium of the LaFortune Student Center. Anyone interested in writing sports for The Observer who is unable to attend and who did not attend this past Monday's meeting should contact Marty Strasen at 283-1411 or 289-5803. -The Observer irish football players Mark Green and Tom Downey will be the guest directors of the Winier premiere of WFV1's AM 640 "Speaking of Sports" television program. Listeners can join host Greg Guffy and WFV1 sports director Jamie Rappe by calling 239-6400 with their questions or comments. Prizes may be awarded throughout the show. -The Observer

The WVU sports staff will hold a meeting at 9 p.m. tonight in the WVU studios on the second floor of LaFortune. Old and new煙bers should attend. Call Jakey at x2260 or Greg at x3160 for more information. -The Observer

Irish outdoors (formerly "Alpine Club") is having a general information meeting Wed­nesday at 7 p.m. in the Sorin Room at the first floor of LaFortune. Anyone interested in canoe­king, backpacking or cross country skiing is en­couraged to attend. Questions should be directed to Shawn Foley at 271-0786. -The Observer

The ND track team will have a mandatory meeting Wednesday at 4 p.m. for all events in the indoor and outdoor season. The meeting will be held at the Loftus Center auditorium. -The Observer

The Observer Notre Dame office, located on the third floor of LaFortune Student Center, accepts classified advertising from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m., Monday through Friday. The Observer Saint Mary's office, located on the fourth floor of Haggerty College Center, accepts classifieds from 12:30 p.m. until 3 p.m., Monday through Friday. Deadline for next-day classifieds is 3 p.m. All classifieds must be prepaid, either in person or by mail. The charge is 10 cents per character per day.

The Observer
Lennon key to Irish success

By COLLEEN HENNESSY
Sports Writer

It is only the second week of her college career, and already Molly Lennon has made a place for herself in the complex and competitive world of Notre Dame athletics as a member of the women's soccer team. Perhaps this involvement can be explained by her extensive background in the subject.

"I grew up at Notre Dame, not in South Bend," explains Lennon, an area native. She is the youngest of five children, and the fourth to play major college athletics. In addition, her father, Notre Dame Alumni Association Director Charles Lennon, has been involved in Irish baseball and basketball in the past as an assistant coach. Thus, the tradition has been instilled in her since youth.

"In the back of my mind I always dreamed about coming to Notre Dame and being a part of it, as an athlete, and as a student," Lennon said.

Lennon's interest in soccer is a rather recent one. Already proficient in basketball and softball at Adams High School in South Bend, she had only had time for pick-up games of soccer as a freshman and sophomore.

When the high school team went varsity in her junior year, she was advised to join and did so, at the expense of volleyball. She has reinforced her experience with two years of playing for an under-19 travelling team, known as the Junior Irish. The team plays in the summer on a state, regional and national level.

As a freshman varsity athlete, free-time is not something that Lennon will have to deal with extensively. She does, however, harbor non-athletic interests. In high school, she was involved in both the school newspaper and literary magazine. Her experience has also included stints in student government, as class treasurer for two years and as class vice-president for two years.

She would like to continue her involvement at Notre Dame outside the athletic community by joining such groups as The Big Brothers/Big Sisters of South Bend and by continuing her activity with the Special Olympics, but she's "still trying to adapt and adjust to the college schedule."

One person who has confidence in Lennon's ability to persevere is Irish head coach Dennis Grace.

"Molly is a survivor," he said. "She will succeed at whatever she wants to do. Fortunately for Notre Dame women's soccer, what she wants to succeed at is soccer."

Lennon's personal goals reflect a parallel between team and player.

"It's always been hard for me because I haven't been playing as long," she said. "So I just want to work on becoming a more skilled player, to play the best I can and learn as much as I can this year, because it's going to get tougher."

Anonymous

"If we beat Michigan, our season usually goes pretty well," club president Jim Lammers said. "Last year we beat Michigan and had a good season. If we win that, our outlook on the season will be pretty good. Michigan practices year round, and they have good coaches and leadership."

More than 70 athletes came out for this year's squad, a good number considering the competition with Interhall sports and other student activities. A factor in the turnout could be the success of the Irish during the past two years.

"It'll be interesting," Lammer said. "We lost a lot of players, a lot of seniors who went varsity in their junior year, and posted a 9-1 ledger for the fall season. The two rivals during the fall semester.

The biggest event of the year for the rugby team will be the Indiana Union Tourney. It'll be interesting," Lammer said. "We lost a lot of players, a lot of seniors who went varsity in their junior year, and posted a 9-1 ledger for the fall season. The two rivals during the fall semester.

"The Nucleus of a Public Health Strategy to Combat AIDS"

12:00 NOON
THURSDAY, SEPT. 8
ROOM 220 LAW SCHOOL COURTROOM

NY Giants beat Super Bowl champs, Redskins

Associated Press
EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. - Tom Flynn returned a blocked punt 27 yards for one score and Jim Burt returned a fumble 39 yards for another as the New York Giants rallied from a 13-0 deficit to beat the Washington Redskins 27-20 Monday night.

Despite an offense that could generate almost no yardage on the ground and a defense missing the suspended Lawrence Taylor and the injured Leonard Marshall, the Super Bowl winners managed to beat last year's NFC champion with two offbeat plays.

ND rugby squad ready for opener

For the Notre Dame Rugby Club, the first match of the season is also considered the most important.

Last year, the Irish defeated Michigan in the opener and posted a 9-1 ledger for the fall season. The two rivals meet again Saturday at noon behind Stadium to kick off the fall campaign.

Greg Guffey
Assistant Sports Editor

Lennon, who is very happy with the progress the team has made so far, is most impressed with the spirit of the players, a spirit that Coach Grace has emphasized and instilled.

"He initiated it, but it's like an epidemic, it just caught on and spread," she said.

Although she has played in the midfield and as a stopper in the past, Lennon started out the Irish season against Indiana University. South Bend at sweeper, a position which she describes as having to do with communication and responsibility.

"My asset is my aggressiveness," said Lennon, echoing the words of Coach Grace.

Grace sees her as being a player who, despite her freshman status, has already become a team leader.

"Molly has a lot of potential as a soccer player. She hasn't played as many years as some of the others, but she has the attributes that make a success with ability, drive, determination and enthusiasm. She's a coach's dream."

And Molly Lennon, starting the third week of her already promising Notre Dame career, certainly has a lot to look forward to as well.

Lennon, who is very happy with the progress the team has made so far, is most impressed with the spirit of the players, a spirit that Coach Grace has emphasized and instilled.

"He initiated it, but its like an epidemic, it just caught on and spread," she said.

Although she has played in the midfield and as a stopper in the past, Lennon started out the Irish season against Indiana University. South Bend at sweeper, a position which she describes as having to do with communication and responsibility.

"My asset is my aggressiveness," said Lennon, echoing the words of Coach Grace.

Grace sees her as being a player who, despite her freshman status, has already become a team leader.

"Molly has a lot of potential as a soccer player. She hasn't played as many years as some of the others, but she has the attributes that make a success with ability, drive, determination and enthusiasm. She's a coach's dream."

And Molly Lennon, starting the third week of her already promising Notre Dame career, certainly has a lot to look forward to as well.
Hurricanes assume top spot

Associated Press

The Miami Hurricanes, college football's defending national champions, have regained the No. 1 ranking just a week after previous No. 1 Nebraska was defeated by No. 6 Ohio State.

Miami coach Jimmy Johnson isn't getting caught up in the No. 1 hype at this point. "It's really too early in the season for a coach to be concerned about the rankings," Johnson said Monday. "I wouldn't even address it if one way or another.

"We have a very young team and a lot of difficult games to play. Our only concern right now is going up and playing Michigan (on Sept. 17) in a place that's very difficult to play in. All we've done is win one game."

Clemson, a 40-7 winner over Virginia Tech, climbed from fourth to third with three first-place votes and 1,903 points. Oklahoma, which opened this season at North Carolina, slipped from third to fourth with two first-place votes and 969 points.

UCLA held onto the No. 2 spot, with three first-place votes and 1,003 points. The Bruins received two first-place votes and 941 points. The other first-place vote went to Southern Cal, which defeated Boston College 34-7 and rose from eighth to sixth with 778 points.

Auburn, which gets under way this week against Kentucky, remained seventh with 768 points while Georgia jumped from 12th to eighth with 761 points after beating Tennessee 28-17.

Michigan moved up from 16th place to ninth with 639 points. The Wolverines open this week at Notre Dame. Florida State rounds out the Top Ten with 600 points.

Line

Continued from page 16

tight end position he held last year. Junior Dean Brown (6-3, 225) looks to have won the other tackle job.

Snappping the ball is sophomore Mike Heldt (6-4, 258), who boasts only 15 minutes of playing time in 1987.

"We're young, but we've got to be (ready)," offensive line coach Tony Velovich said. "We work to improve steadily, and I think we've done that over the course of the fall. You're never pleased. You always have room for higher goals. But I think we've gotten much better fundamentally.

Competition for starting roles has helped to push the linemen along, Velovich said. Junior Ted Healy and sophomore Brian Shannon look to get some time at guard while sophomore Tim Ryan is a good blocker at back up center. Senior Marty Lippincott and freshman Justin Hall are among the tackles who have looked good while battling for playing time.

Grunhard said the recent improvement has a lot to do with the players getting used to lining up with one another.

Notre Dame Knights of Columbus

ND's Only Fraternity invites you to an OPEN HOUSE with interviews and refreshments on

FINAL DAY 7-10 pm

We're right next door to the bookstore!
Top seeds advance at U.S. Open

Associated Press

NEW YORK - Steffi Graf and Martina Navratilova, moving a step closer to a championship showdown, overcame shaky starts to steamroll into the U.S. open quarterfinals Monday.

Graf, losing more games than she had in her three previous matches, beat American Patty Fendick 6-4, 6-2 to move within three victories of the first tennis Grand Slam since 1970.

Navratilova, who took a nap just before the match, appeared to be sleepwalking as she lost the first four games to Elina Reinic of South Africa. But the two-time defending champion woke in time to win 10 straight games en route to a 6-4, 6-4 victory.

In men's play, top-seeded Ivan Lendl, No. 4 Andre Agassi and No. 6 Jimmy Connors breezed into the fourth round.

Aaron Krickstein upset the Wimbledon champion and third seed Stefan Edberg 5-7, 7-4, 7-6 (7-2), 9-7, in three hours, 50 minute match.

Second-seeded Mats Wilander advanced to the quarterfinals with a 6-3, 6-2, 6-4 victory over Mark Woodforde, the Australian who upset John McEnroe in the second round.

Lendl stretched his Open winning streak to 38 matches with a 6-1, 6-4, 6-3 victory over American Scott Davis; Connors eliminated Pieter Aldrich of South Africa 6-3, 6-2, 6-4, and Agassi beat Johan Kriek 6-3, 6-1, 6-4.

Two men's seeds, No. 12 Guillermo Perez-Roldan and No. 10 Anders Jarryd, were ousted from the tournament. Perez Roldan was beaten by Jorge Lazo of Mexico 6-4, 6-4, 5-7, 7-6 (7-2) and Jarryd fell to Jakob Hlasek of Switzerland 6-2, 6-4, 6-2.

The No. 7 women's seed, Helena Sukova, was beaten by No. 14 Katerina Maleeva 6-1, 6-3. Joining Maleeva in the quarterfinals were fifth-seeded Gabriela Sabatini and No. 11 Zina Garrison.

"I couldn't tell which way the wind was blowing," said Navratilova, who is seeded second behind Graf. "I blew, then it stopped for a while, then it blew again. I hit some lobs that went a foot long. I just couldn't judge the wind."

Navratilova literally had a hard time waking up for the match.

"I probably shouldn't tell you this, but I took a nap before the match and I wasn't quite awake at the beginning," she said.

Dillon men win biathlon

Special to The Observer

DillonHall's Brian Rini, who won last year's biathlon with roommate Dave Steigerwald, paired with fellow Dillonite Sean Barry this year to take first place in Saturday morning's biathlon.

Rini swam half a mile in St. Joe's Lake, and Barry ran a two-mile distance around St. Joe's Lake and St. Mary's Lake in a total of 21:50 to finish first in the biathlon event sponsored by NVA (Non-Varsity Athletics).

"There was a lot more competition in the swimming part," said Rini. "A lot of people on the varsity swim team competed, so there were a lot more people on that level."

Dave Ledrick placed second with a time of 22:00. The senior from Morrissey was the first finisher among the individuals who did both the swimming and the running.

Amy Tri was the first woman to finish with a time of 24:24, placing ninth overall. The second woman finisher was Christie Moston with a time of 25:09.

The biathlon had a 59-person field, up six from last year's total.

"It was a very good turnout," said Matt Amyx, a graduate assistant with NVA. "It ended up being a great day for a race, and the rain held off."

{

How to start your law career before you start law school.

Start with the Kaplan LSAT prep course. After taking Kaplan, thousands of LSAT students score over 40. That's the top 10% nation-wide! And candidates who score over 40 on the LSAT enjoy the best chance of being accepted to the law school of their choice and going on to practice with top law firms or corporations.

So call any of our 125 centers for information and class starting dates. The Kaplan LSAT prep course could be the one pre-law course that determines the course of your law career.

Study with Kaplan. Train to succeed.

KAPLAN LSAT

Phone 219/277-4135
The Cleveland Indians 7-2.

inning Monday and rallied past scored six times in the eighth P helps hit a three-run home run and Ken Twins beat the Seattle inning as the Minnesota ball for 8-2-3 innings and John year, defeated California 6-5 Sunday in Anaheim.

Blue Jays 5, Tigers 4

Ernie Whitt homered off the 19th inning to give the Toronto Blue Jays a 5-4 victory over Detroit Monday night and knocked the Tigers out of first place in the American League East.

The fifth-place Blue Jays have won five straight and are 6½ games in back of the Red Sox. Todd Stottlemyre, 4-4, pitched three innings of perfect relief for the victory and Duane Ward got his 12th save.

Twins 2, Mariners 0

Frank Viola pitched five-hit ball for 8 2-3 innings and John Mosey's RBI single broke a scoreless tie in the eighth inning Monday as the Minnesota Twins beat the Seattle Mariners 2-0.

Yankees 7, Indians 2

Don Mattingly singled home the go-ahead run and Ken Phelps hit a three-run homer as the New York Yankees scored six times in the eighth inning Monday and rallied past the Cleveland Indians 7-2.

Mets 7, Pirates 5

Mookie Wilson hit a three-run homer in the eighth inning following Lee Mazzilli's tie-breaking sacrifice fly and the New York Mets beat the Pittsburgh Pirates 7-5 Monday, stretching their National League East lead to a season-high 10 games.

Dave Cone, 15-3, pitched seven innings for his sixth victory in seven decisions and Darryl Strawberry hit a solo home run as Mets won for the ninth time in 11 games.

Astros 3, Reds 0

Bob Forsch allowed five hits in eight innings and hit a three-run double in his debut with Houston as the Astros defeated Cincinnati 3-2 Monday night, snapping the Reds' five-game winning streak.

The 38-year-old Forsch, 10-4, was acquired from St. Louis on Aug. 31 for utilityman Deney Walling. Forsch struck out five and walked one.

Dodgers 3, Braves 0

Orel Hershiser pitched a four-hitter and won his 19th game as the Los Angeles Dodgers beat the Atlanta Braves 3-0 Monday night to snap a three-game losing streak.

Hershiser, 19-8, struck out eight and walked one on route to his fourth shutout and fourth straight complete game. CUBS 14-3, PHILLIES 3-4

Ricky Jordan's sixth hit of the day, a two-run homer in the seventh inning, gave the Philadelphia Phillies a 4-3 victory over the Chicago Cubs and a doubleheader split Monday.

Tigers battling late-season slump

Associated Press

DETROIT-The cracks in the Detroit Tigers' already thin armor began to show in August. Now those cracks have become gaps that even a managerial magician like Sparky Anderson may be unable to repair.

The Tigers, who clung to the American League East lead while losing 11 of their last 13 games, finally were caught Sunday by the Boston Red Sox.

The two entered play Monday tied for the division lead.

"We just have too many injuries right now," Anderson said. "I'd like to go with a set lineup the rest of the way, but I can't. But there's no use crying about it. I'm sure they're ain't gonna worry about it in New York or Boston."

Second baseman Lou Whitaker was the latest to go down literally. Whitaker tore cartilage in his right knee while dancing and doing the splits at an anniversary party he attended with his wife after the Tigers loss Saturday night to the Milwaukee Brewers. He's out 10 days to two weeks.

The Tigers as a team are hitting .255, third to last in the 14-team American League.

"I still think we've got a good team on the field, but nobody's hitting, and the pitchers are just kind of suffocating. They know if they fall behind, it's going to be a long game," third baseman Tom Brookens said.

The pitching staff, which was most responsible for getting the Tigers to first place and keeping them there, has fallen on hard times.

Second-year starter Jeff Robinson, 13-5 with a 2.98 ERA hasn't started since being bothered by two inflamed fingers on his pitching hand; Frank Tanana, 14-9 with a 4.25 ERA; and Eric King, 3-1, 3.60 ERA since being called up from Toledo, each missed a turn with a stiff shoulder.

General Manager Bill Lajoie finally landed some help in an 11th-hour trade last week with Baltimore that brought Fred Lynn, 18 home runs, 38 RBI, to Detroit. But Lynn hits from the left side and what the Tigers lose when Lynn leaves for utility man Kirk Gibson when to the Los Angeles Dodgers was right-handed power.

The deal lost some of its luster because the charted jet bringing Lynn from the West Coast where the Orioles were playing, radious Chicago, where the Tigers last had played, 10 minutes after the midnight Sept. 1 trading deadline. That made Lynn ineligible for the playoffs.

"It certainly would be nice to be a part of that," Lynn said. "But right now, the important thing is getting there, not who plays in it."
CAMPUS

7:00 p.m. Career and Placement Services presents "Engineering Placement Night," for Engineering seniors in the Hesburgh Library Auditorium.

7:00 p.m. ND Communication and Theatre Film "The Big Parade," directed by King Vidor, Annenberg Auditorium.

9:15 p.m. ND Communication and Theatre Film "A Fool There Was," directed by Frank Powell, Annenberg Auditorium.

DINNER MENUS

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Notre Dame</th>
<th>Saint Mary's</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>BBQ Spareribs</td>
<td>Roast Beef</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Burrito Bar</td>
<td>Shrimp Vegetable Oriental</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Spinach Queso</td>
<td>Mushroom Omelette</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Steak Fries</td>
<td>Deli Bar</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

COMICS

Bloom County

Berke Breathed

The Far Side

Gary Larson

Calvin and Hobbes

Bill Watterson

Headhunter hufuhrming

CHECK OUT WHAT'S HAPPENING THIS WEEK:

FRIDAY, SEPT. 9
AFTER THE PEP RALLY
COME SEE

REGENCY
A dynamic, 5-man a capella group

MOVIES THIS WEEK
THURS - Diamonds Are Forever
FRI - Everything You Always Wanted to Know

ALL TIMES: 8 pm & 10:15 pm
ADMISSION $2
CUSHING AUDITORIUM

SPONSORED BY STUDENT UNION BOARD

NEW YORK TIMES CROSSWORD
Irish offensive line showing progress

By MARTY STRASEN
Sports Editor

Lou Holtz is still quipping one-liners about his offensive line, but his tone is changing. And that’s a good sign. It means the Irish offensive line is making some progress.

“Up front, we’re just not very good,” Holtz said more than a week ago, after the team’s second fall scrimmage. “It takes a great deal of courage to line up in our backfield. Because you know you’re going to get stuck by four people.”

That was the serious, concerned tone.

Then Holtz livened up last week’s press conference with another quip about the woes of his inexperienced offensive front, which lost all five regular starters from last year.

“Our tailbacks need the same traits as kamikaze pilots, because they know they’re going to get blown up,” said Holtz with a trace of a smile, adding that the line was progressing but was not nearly where it needed to be at that point.

After Monday’s practice, Holtz’ tone took another turn. “Maybe not kamikaze pilots,” Holtz remarked when reminded of his earlier comparison. “Evel Knievel would be a better word for it. Every play is a death-defying stunt.”

This time Holtz was laughing.

And while the line is not quite in hysteric over the thought of Michigan’s big defense, there is cause for optimism on the Irish front.

“We’ve come a long way on the offensive line,” Holtz added Monday, after the Knievel comparison and in a more serious tone. “That’s a tribute to our players and coaches.”

Junior guard Tim Grunhard (6-3, 379 pounds) is the most experienced lineman, having started four games last year when the Irish had some injury problems. The starting right guard is sophomore Winston Sandri (6-4, 253), who did not play a down last year.

Senior tri-captain Andy Heck (6-7, 250) starts at one tackle, after moving from the No. 1 left to prepare for Saturday’s season opener against Michigan.

ND takes seventh in opener

By BARBARA MORAN
Sports Writer

The Notre Dame women’s golf team opened its first season at the varsity level with a seventh place finish in the Irish Invitational Tournament last weekend.

The event featured several strong varsity teams, including champions Western Kentucky at 654 strokes and second place Purdue at 659. Rounding out the top four were Illinois State with 664 and Michigan with a 666 total.

Roberta Bryar paced the Irish with rounds of 83 and 87, Chris Lazar carded an 85 and 90, Kerry Wagner a 92 and 87, Liz Pochen two 90s and Heidi Hanson an 88 and 95.

Although his team did not finish as strongly as he had hoped, Notre Dame coach Tom Homan remained optimistic.

“We competed against some tough varsity teams who have been playing on the varsity level for some time now,” the first-year coach said. “I know the girls are more capable than what they showed in this two-day tournament. I’ve not lost confidence in their ability to play very good golf. I know that they will be truly competitive as they gain more experience.”

Steph Ristau of Purdue won the individual title with rounds of 76 and 81.

The women’s golf team was one of three club squads promoted to the varsity status last year. The women’s soccer team has already started its varsity campaign, while the women’s softball squad will enter the varsity level later this year.

Notre Dame’s offensive line has made great strides in the past week after perceived early fall practice. The Irish have only a few days left to prepare for Saturday’s season opener at Purdue.

The Irish soccer team won the Metropolitan Life over Lafayette. Randy Morris became the all-time assist leader for Notre Dame in the victory.