Student report examined by the Board of Trustees

By MICHELLE DALL
Senior Staff Reporter

Student government representatives presented a series of reports concerning campus life to the Notre Dame Board of Trustees at a meeting last Thursday.

The reports addressed four issues, including coresidentiality, social life, transporta­tion and parking.

According to a survey conducted by the social life committee, only 54 percent of the freshmen, 21 percent of the sophomores and 29 percent of the juniors surveyed find the social life at Notre Dame “adequate.”

Social committee member Kerry Sieger said she blames the lack of student involvement at campus activities on three factors, including publicity, consistency and “rut behavior.”

“Basically, there’s not enough emphasis on publicity, and there’s not enough consistency in the activities that are planned,” Sieger said. “At some schools they set aside weekly or monthly events like mixers, campus-wide competitions, theme weeks, concerts and date nights.

The committee also planned to promote faculty-student interaction by expanding support for the College Fellow Program and “encouraging attendance at intellectual and cultural events as part of course requirements.”

Budget allocations were a primary area of concern as well. The committee suggested the “multi-sponsorship of campus activities,” which would encourage several campus organizations to “pool their financial resources.”

The committee also proposed converting the LaFortune Student Center into a 24-hour center and making Theodore’s a “coffeehouse,” which would be open to students both day and night during the week and on weekends.

As a long-run objective, the committee broached the idea of establishing a commercial complex on the University property surrounding campus. This complex would include several social alternatives, such as restaurants, shops, movie theaters and night clubs.

The Board’s response to the coresidentiality report was “especially positive,” according to Student Body Vice President Mike Paese. Paese said, “This was the first time coresidentiality was a discussible option, and we were able to talk about the issue as a community.”

Student Body President Tom Doyle agreed, “The Trustees were very receptive to the coresidentiality report. I think the committee really took a responsible approach to the issue.”

Trustee member and Notre Dame Associate History Professor Fr. Thomas Blantz said he felt the report “raised several important issues, although many issues remain unresolved.”

According to Blantz, one major issue that must be considered is the effect coresidentiality would have on the present stay-hall system. While Blantz said coresidentiality would have “very important consequences,” he also said “nothing should be done without the approval of the Board of Trustees.”

Here, there aren’t many activities that take place on a regular basis.”

To combat such social problems, the committee recommended “sponsoring more activities conducive to healthy interaction among students,” such as mixers, campus-wide competitions, theme weeks, concerts and date nights.

The committee also planned to promote faculty-student interaction by expanding support for the College Fellow Program and “encouraging attendance at intellectual and cultural events as part of course requirements.”

Budget allocations were a primary area of concern as well. The committee suggested the “multi-sponsorship of campus activities,” which would encourage several campus organizations to “pool their financial resources.”

The committee also proposed converting the LaFortune Student Center into a 24-hour center and making Theodore’s a “coffeehouse,” which would be open to students both day and night during the week and on weekends.

As a long-run objective, the committee broached the idea of establishing a commercial complex on the University property surrounding campus. This complex would include several social alternatives, such as restaurants, shops, movie theaters and night clubs.

The Board’s response to the coresidentiality report was “especially positive,” according to Student Body Vice President Mike Paese. Paese said, “This was the first time coresidentiality was a discussible option, and we were able to talk about the issue as a community.”

Student Body President Tom Doyle agreed, “The Trustees were very receptive to the coresidentiality report. I think the committee really took a responsible approach to the issue.”

Trustee member and Notre Dame Associate History Professor Fr. Thomas Blantz said he felt the report “raised several important issues, although many issues remain unresolved.”

According to Blantz, one major issue that must be considered is the effect coresidentiality would have on the present stay-hall system. While Blantz said coresidentiality would have “very important consequences,” he also said “nothing should be done without the approval of the Board of Trustees.”

European nations start scaling back military operations in Persian Gulf

Three youths are apprehended for car thefts on campus

By CHRISTINE WALSH
Staff Reporter

Notre Dame Security, with help from the South Bend police department, has apprehended three youths, and implicated a fourth in connection with a recent wave of car break-ins on campus.

According to Phil Johnson, assistant director of Security, a total of 38 break-ins occurred, eight on the weekend of Oct. 22 and 23, and another 18 on the weekend of October 29 and 30.

The youths targeted cars in D-2 and other campus lots, Johnson said. Items stolen included car stereos and other dashboard components, as well as some auto parts, according to Johnson.

Security has recovered some of the property stolen from students’ vehicles, and is in the process of identifying the owners.

Johnson said, “Not all of the recovered property has been identified because many of the owners did not keep records of serial numbers.”

It also appears that some of the items recovered “may have been stolen from other people” in the South Bend area, said Johnson.

In another unrelated incident, two adult males were stopped by Notre Dame Security officials on Old Juniper Road near Edison at approximately 6 a.m. Saturday, Nov. 12, on suspicion of bicycle theft.

The suspects allegedly took a ten-speed bike, a calculator, two wall signs, and a name plate from O’Shaughnessy Hall.

Later the same morning, security officers recovered another bike near the site where the men were initially confronted.

The case will go to the prosecutor.

European nations start scaling back military operations in Persian Gulf

Associated Press

MANAMA, Bahrain—Gambling that peace will prevail despite a deadlock in Iraq-Iran peace talks, the United States’ European allies are stepping up the postwar dismantling of their military forces in the Persian Gulf.

In recent days the mine sweeper Crocus, the last of three Belgian warships deployed to the gulf a year ago, sailed for home. The last five Italian warships and one from the Netherlands are preparing to leave by Dec. 31.

Officials said those moves, like an earlier cutback in France’s regional fleet from 11 to seven ships, came because the Iran-Iraq cease-fire, three months old Sunday, had brought stability to the gulf.

The European actions could add pressure on President elect George Bush to step up an American pullout, according to U.S. diplomats and military officials, speaking on condition of anonymity.

The United States has withdrawn one ship and scaled back convoys and other operations.
IN BRIEF

Christina Onassis died Saturday of an apparent heart attack. Several dozen of friends attended a private Greek Orthodox Mass for her Sunday in Buenos Aires. There was no word whether results of an autopsy performed on the 37-year-old daughter of Greek shipping tycoon Aristotle Onassis would be made public. In Picardie, France, a spokesman for the family's Springfield Shipping company said Miss Onassis will be buried on her family's island, Skorpios, off near Corfu, Greece, by the end of the week. The spokesman said the Onasis fortune had been left to the daughter born in 1965 to Miss Onassis and her fourth husband, Thierry Roussel. - Associated Press

OF INTEREST

Get a measles vaccination if you've never had one and you plan on attending the USC football game, according to University Health Services. Measles vaccinations will be given at the University Health Center today Tuesday and Wednesday. A vaccination is unnecessary if you have had a measles vaccination, or if you have a documented case of measles or you are allergic to eggs. If you are unsure of your vaccination status, the vaccination will not harm you. If you received a flu shot during the week of Oct. 31, wait one month before taking a measles vaccination. - The Observer

Adult Children of Alcoholics will meet today at 7 p.m. upstairs in the Center for Social Concerns. All are welcome. The Observer

Male/Female Models Wanted for SMC Fashion Show. There will be an important information meeting Monday, Nov. 30, at 8 a.m. in the Regina North basement. Call Libby at 284-4009 for more information. - The Observer

A Prayer Service for those who grieve a loss of a loved one through death, illness, separation or divorce will be held today in Holy Cross Chapel, Saint Mary's College, at 8:30 p.m. It is sponsored by Saint Mary's Campus Ministry - The Observer

Monday Night Football will be shown tonight at Theodore's at 9 p.m. The Student Alumni Relations Group invites students from the San Francisco Bay and Washington, D.C. area to tonight's game between the 49'ers and Redskins. Come and enjoy the game with friends from your region. Refreshments will be provided. - The Observer

Ballroom Dance Club will hold officer elections today at 7 p.m. in Stepan Center. All members are asked to attend. - The Observer

Amnesty International's Christmas Card design contest ends today. The best 3 designs will receive $10 and an Amnesty International T-shirt. For more information, stop by the Center for Social Concerns or call John Farley at 283-1562. - The Observer

A Special Liturgy will be held at 7 p.m. in Sacred Heart Church tonight for the Feast of the Presentation of Mary. Liturgical music will be provided by the Notre Dame Chorale. - The Observer

Observer Of Interests and other public service announcements may be submitted at The Observer main office on the third floor of LaFortune Student Center until 1 p.m. prior to the date of publication. Of Interest announces free, campus-wide events of general interest. Lecture announcements on-campus and local lectures. Campus announces other events of general interest, free or paid. The Observer reserves the right to edit all submissions and determine if and when announcements will be published. - The Observer

Observer Of Interests and other public service announcements may be submitted at The Observer main office on the third floor of LaFortune Student Center until 1 p.m. prior to the date of publication. Of Interest announces free, campus-wide events of general interest. Lecture announcements on-campus and local lectures. Campus announces other events of general interest, free or paid. The Observer reserves the right to edit all submissions and determine if and when announcements will be published. - The Observer

FOR THE RECORD

1. YOU SHOULD receive a vaccination if:
A. You have never had a measles vaccination and
B. You have had a documented case of measles
C. You are allergic to eggs

2. YOU NEED NOT receive a vaccination if:
A. You have been vaccinated with measles vaccine after 15 months of age
B. You have had a documented case of measles
C. You are allergic to eggs

3. If you are unsure of your vaccination status, it will not harm you to receive a vaccination

4. If you received a flu shot during the week of October 31st, you should wait one month before taking a measles vaccination.
The taste test

An unidentified student samples some of the ethnic dishes available during the Senior Block Party. See story at right.

Troops raid Palestinian settlements in West Bank, kill

The Observer page 3

The army confirmed that there was "activity" in Madama but said it had no reports of injuries. Three Israelis suffered injuries when buses they were riding in were pelted with rocks in the West Bank.

In Lebanon, an Israeli soldier was killed and four others injured when their armored personnel carrier overturned Sunday in southern Lebanon, the army said. "It was a road accident," said an army spokesman, who declined to elaborate.

Israel radio said the accident occurred north of the Lebanese city of Nagoura, two miles north of the Israeli border in south Lebanon. The zone is patrolled by about 1,000 Israeli troops and the 2,000-member South Lebanon Army.

Meanwhile, underground PLO leaders distributed leaflets praising the declaration of an independent Palestinian state last week in the West Bank and Gaza Strip.

The leaflet said the Palestinian Liberation Organization had seized a historic opportunity to single-sex dorms to coeducational housing begin with four dormitories. Among those considered for conversion are local government will work in conjunction with Associate Vice President of Residence Life John Goldrick, a member of the Committee on Parking, Life John Goldrick, a member of the Transportation Committee and the Trustees was very pleased with the Trustees' report, and commented, "I think the Board was really sensitive to the report, and commented, "I think it (the report) really opened a lot of eyes. This is the first time we've really had a quality report."

Karen Flaherty, chairman of the parking committee, said the parking issue was addressed primarily because, "there seemed to be some dissatisfaction at all in regard to the current parking situation." The committee proposed several immediate and long-term measures which would enhance the present parking system, such as improving the conditions of the lots, increasing the number of available parking spaces and adding security measures to deter crime in the lots.

According to Flaherty, student government will work in conjunction with the University's transportation committee to implement some of the suggested proposals.

According to Blantz, "The meeting between student government and the Trustees was very worthwhile, because it educated the Trustees in regard to students' concerns."

Doyle commented, "The people who worked on the reports really did a fantastic job; they definitely turned out a quality report."
So You Can Own A Macintosh®!

Before you go home this Thanksgiving, head over to your campus resale center for a Student Loan-To-Own application. Break the news to your parents about the student deal of a lifetime! It’s an opportunity for you to get an Apple Macintosh — the computer you really want for only $30.00 a month.

With your parents’ signature, you can own a Macintosh computer. Apple’s Student Loan-To-Own Program makes buying a Macintosh as easy as using one. Simply pick up a loan application at the address listed below, or Call 800-831-LOAN to receive one in the mail. Your parents only need to fill out the application, sign it and send it. If they qualify, they’ll receive a check in just a few weeks for you to purchase your Macintosh.

The big break is you don’t have to prove financial hardship or offer collateral. Best of all, the loan payments can be spread over as many as 10 years. Isn’t this just the break you’ve been looking for?

© 1988 Apple Computer, Inc. Apple, the Apple logo, and Macintosh are registered trademarks of Apple Computer, Inc.

Introducing Apple’s Student Loan-To-Own Program

CONTACT:
Office of University Computing
Computer Center / Math Building
8 am - 5 pm
Student learns about thanks and giving

A few weeks ago, when the rest of you were watching the Irish destroy Pitt, I unexpectedly went to Chicago to visit my friend, David. We spent the day shopping and visiting the Art Institute, and in the evening, topped it off with stuffed pizza from Giordano’s. Dinner was delicious but, as every patron knows, too filling to finish; consequently, we wrapped two of the remaining pieces for David’s roommate, and one for me, and went on our way.

Christine McCann

Since it was only seven o’clock and I didn’t have to meet my ride until eight, we walked to the Wabash Avenue stop to watch the outdoor street performers. We were talking and laughing, paying little attention to anyone but ourselves, when we came upon a man who looked to be about ten years older than he really was. He had a toothless grin and an answer that was almost dignified exchanges I have ever witnessed. He said, “Sir, would you like some pizza?” And the guy smiled happily.

...my eyes filled up because I suddenly realized just how insignificant my little troubles are.

...toothless grin and answered almost philosophically, “Yeah. thanks. I like pizza.”

I walked away and felt very good—not because I bought a pizza but because the entire encounter made me realize how good life is. Even in the midst of glaring poverty and oppression, there is a sense of human dignity and spirit in this world which is almost unbreakable. Some might say that there is a lack of dignity in digging through cast-offs, but I’d disagree. Having the ability to share a meal with a simple “thank you” shows perhaps the greatest courage of all.

Hell Week is coming up for a lot of us, and with exams and papers coming due, I’m not surprised. Nevertheless, I’ll take time out tonight to walk to the Grotto, kneel down, and pray. I won’t be long; complicated prayers or stay there for hours; instead, I’ll simply whisper, “Thank you, God, for life!”, and I’ll always chewing, trying to get the last bit of food out of that piece of bread. I hope you’ll think of me in your prayers tonight, and I’ll think of you in mine. It’s a good time of year to reflect on all the good in the world, and to give thanks for it. Each day is a gift, and we should cherish it.

Christine McCann is a sophomore English and history major.

Garry Trudeau

Monday, November 21, 1988

“Viewpoint

University must challenge racism

In light of the recent student-performance “blackface” at the Sorin Hall Talent Show (Sorin Hall residence of University President Ed- ward A. Malloy), many students once again engage in their yearly examina- tion of race relations at this University. Once again, these students who dare to look at what’s really happening in terms of racism (blatant or subtle) must come to the same conclusion: racism and racial ignorance is still alive and well on the nation’s premier Cath- olic university.

Lionel Coleman

guest column

This very sad tradition at Notre Dame continues unhindered, and the University has once again failed to take any real steps to measure racist, ra- cial ignorance, and other social inju- ries—which continued investment in the companies dealing in any way with South Africa and sexism.) The fact that the University’s leadership in this matter matters is an indication that the University must act on its own behalf.

We expect such a statement from the nation’s premier Catholic university, and we have the right to challenge the “powers that be” when they misrepresent members of the Notre Dame community. Notre Dame is seen worldwide as a first-rate Catholic university, as well as other so-called “minority” communities, simply deserves better.

The student body, and especially the African-American student community, has serious questions about the University’s leadership and its sincerity in dealing with the aforementioned issues. The student body desires a Presiden- tial Statement. The African-American community, as well as other so-called “minority” communities, simply deserves better.

We cannot know that the University’s leadership without seeing any constructive recommen- dations. The NDSMC NAACP proposes the following:

First, the establishment of a Univer- sity Study on the Racial and Sexual At- titudes of members of the Board of Trustees, administration, faculty, and student body.

Second, the establishment of a task force on race and sexism based on a proposed Office of Race and Gender Awareness located in the LaFortune Student Center.

Third, a presidential directive to each dormitory and the Office of Student Af- fairs, and student government to dis- cuss racial, ethnic, and gender sensi- tivities.

Fourth, a presidential visit to each of the Office of Student Affairs events, and student government to inves- tigate what efforts have been taken to eliminate this kind of behavior that allows racism and sexism to grow unchecked.

Fifth, a presidential directive to each dormitory to establish a racegender awareness committee.

Sixth, a presidential statement to each college dean and department head the following: that students need to sup- port minority student awareness func- tions and; emphasizing to these in- dividuals the implications of not doing so.

Seventh, a presidential statement to the Vice President of Student Affairs that each college dean and department head must deal with the issue of race and editing senseless and tasteless ac- tions taken on the part of members of the student body and establishing cor- rective measures when such actions are taken.

Eighth, a presidential directive that each racial and sexual offense will be handled under the proposed Office of Race and Gender Awareness and that a report be given to a proposed Race and Gender Awareness Board and the Office of Student Affairs. The Office of Student Affairs will take corrective measures and the Race and Gender Awareness Board, out of the proposed Office of Race and Gender Awareness, will issue a report to the Board of Trus- tees, which will, hopefully, look at cor- recting the problem at the institutional level.

Ninth, a presidential commitment to be more accessible to minority student organizations through periodic visits to their meetings and functions if properly notified.

Tenth, a presidential statement to the whole Notre Dame community and the nation concerning the need for campus racial and gender sensitivity and ac- tions to cure the sickness of racism, sexism.

If the University can study and take actions to cure the sickness of all its social ills, such as racism, sexism, and drug awareness, why cannot the University take similar actions dealing with the unfortunate attitudes of members of the Board of Trustees, and other racial and social injustices? Many students and in many ways, this is the best of times and the worst of times. Minority student enrollment is slowly increasing. Through such unfortunate yearly events as the “blackface” skit in the Sorin Hall Talent Show, many students find themselves shut out from the Notre Dame community. To be a true part of the Notre Dame family, we must constantly battle rac- ism and sexism.

Notre Dame student must take many tests. Now the University’s lead- ership, from the Board of Trustees and its president to its newly hired instruc- tors and teaching assistants, must take a test. This is a test of the moral and ethical fortitude of the University’s leadership concerning racial, sexual, and other social injustices. Since Notre Dame and its leadership are nationally recognized and emulated, this test accurately serves as a litmus test of the advancements in terms of race and gender re- lations. The students will monitor this test; there will be no curving of grades and, as always, the Honor Code is in effect. Many students wish you good luck on your test.

Lionel M. Coleman is president of the Notre Dame/Saint Mary’s NAACP.

Quote of the Day

“The most certain test by which we judge whether a country is in a state of security is the amount of security enjoyed by minorities.”

John E.E. Dalberg (1834-1902)
Mischief brings fame to computer guru

Joseph Morris, guest columnist

Mr. Morris petit is famous now. The TV networks spread his name across the nation overnight. For days the newspapers around the country reported the headlines for his legendary deeds. Throngers of journalists chase him down the streets and dig out his another face in which he never sits alone. All of a sudden, the Morris petit out famed the Morris grand, his father, the famous computer expert whose fame out famed the Morris grand, his father, the famous computer expert whose fame promote the improvement of graduate housing (on-campus) as soon as possible. The GSU has committed to graduate housing during a forum in St. Edward's Hall by saying: "We are exploring now ways to finance the construction of graduate housing (on-campus) as soon as possible. The GSU has committed to its commitment to graduate housing and thereby eased Americans' hero-crave.

Mr. Morris petit did it less than perfectly, proving that a hero does not have to wear a coat of armor. Herr Bautz, der Deutch Jung, did it nearly perfectly. A year ago, he did what Goring had not done: he introduced miles of Soviet air defense and landing his little plane right at the center of Stalingrad, amongst those thrown-headed spires of Eastern Orthodox churches and the hammer-and-sickle patterned red flags, a prankster dragon flying a strange, media-blooming with odd flowers. With a grin on his face, he got down from the plane and made his way to the cheering crowd. The journalists as well as KGBs, always present under Moscow's dull sky, flooded to him as he gave his signatures to his instantly converted fans. They still remember his unconcealable grin.

Mr. Rust's surprise visit to Moscow was no less surprising than Hitler's Blitzkrieg. No bomb was necessary. The news was explosive enough. It shocked the general of the Red Army's air force full of his office. The newspapers around the country have given him a hero, he is scared. Right, he am used everby everybody else but everybody-but badly enough-except Morris petit himself. He is scared. Indeed, everybody is amused, but hasn't the guts to enjoy it. Alas! With a little more courage, he could not only have out-famed his father's fame, and thereby eased Americans' hero-crave.

Mr. Morris petit is not only preposterous, it is also false. If I had been a smart enough kid, I would have released very mean comments. I was apparently neither, so I end up writing this column on mischief which wins me neither fame nor luck.

The Observer retains the right to edit all commentaries submitted to the Viewpoint department. Please note the breiter the piece, the greater its chances of reaching print.

The Observer is the independent published newspaper by the students of the University of Notre Dame du Lac and Saint Mary's College. It does not necessarily reflect the policies of the administration of either institution. The views expressed in the articles are those of the writers and do not necessarily reflect the policies of either institution. The contents of the newspaper are not necessarily the opinions of all the members of the community.

The Observer is the independent published newspaper by the students of the University of Notre Dame du Lac and Saint Mary's College. It does not necessarily reflect the policies of the administration of either institution. The views expressed in the articles are those of the writers and do not necessarily reflect the policies of either institution. The contents of the newspaper are not necessarily the opinions of all the members of the community.

The Observer is the independent published newspaper by the students of the University of Notre Dame du Lac and Saint Mary's College. It does not necessarily reflect the policies of the administration of either institution. The views expressed in the articles are those of the writers and do not necessarily reflect the policies of either institution. The contents of the newspaper are not necessarily the opinions of all the members of the community.
Golden Throats scream comedy, not talent

MATTHEW SPATZ
accent writer

Beam me up, Scotty! These were my first words upon hearing the notes usher from the throat of Leonard Nimoy. The green-blooded Vulcan moonlights from his post on the U.S.S. Enterprise to sing the praises of CCR's "Proud Mary". He grooves with any of the best white singers, right down to the toinin' and boomin'.

This album, called Golden Throats, is a recent release by the Rhino record company. It boasts "14 unbellevable performances by the most beloved personalities of our time." Some of your favorite T.V. legends are here to sing for you: Eddie Albert (Oliver from "Green Acres"), Sebastian Cabot (Mr. French from "Family Affair"), Jack Webb (Sgt. Friday of "Dragnet"), Jim Nabors (Gomer Pyle) and, of course, William 'Captain Kirk' Shatner, to name a few.

These guys ameliorate some of the classic rock tunes of our time including: "House of the Rising Sun", "White Room", "I Can See for Miles", and (braces yoselves) "Lucy in the Sky With Diamonds". But the legendary Bob Dylan sustains the greatest abuse as "Blowing in the Wind", "It Ain't Me, Babe", and "Like a Rolling Stone" meet with the likes of Eddie Albert and Sebastian Cabot. Mr. French even has his string quartet behind him as he recites the famous lines.

The most slanderous Dylan song comes, however, when William Shatner photon torpedoes the heck out of "Mr. Tambourine Man". It sounds like he is screaming to his arch foe Kahn when he yells his final "Mr. Tambourine Maaaanaaann!" The entire fiasco makes me wonder if copyright laws offer any protection, not only for the artist, but also to the listening public as a whole.

Without a doubt, the greatest auditory assault occurs when Mae West squeals out the lines "Twist and Shout". I had always been led to believe that her voice was one of the most alluring in feminine history. When she attempts to sing, however, listeners should be advised to turn tail and run (or at least fast-forward). I could not even listen to the song in its entirety. I was reluctant at first even to attempt a written review of this already classic album because you really must listen to it to appreciate just how pathetic it is.

But I suppose the simple sight of "House of the Rising Sun" by Andy Griffith is enough to turn even the strongest of stomachs. I guess the scariest thing is that most of these artists are sincere. This is an anthology, extracting from such masterpieces as "Sebastian Cabot, Actor...Bob Dylan, Poet", the foot-stompin' classic. "Andy Griffith Shouts the Blues and Old Timey Songs", Shatner's introspective "The Transformed Man", and two of Five Ninety releases "The Way I Feel" and "The New World of Leonard Nimoy". I doubt many bought these albums and, judging from this collection, they aren't worth the vinyl they were pressed on.

Whether you are a fan of the music or the 'musicians', this album is a must-buy. I won't take the blame for any damage on your ears, but I can't see how you could go wrong with Mr. French's "Like a Rolling Stone" blasting at your next party. Trust me, it's like nothing you've ever heard.

Y ou're a turkey if...

* You sincerely think Elvis is still alive.
* You introduce yourself to your SYR date by saying: "Hi honey - I think you should know - I can belch louder than anyone in the history of the known universe. Are you ready for my SYR date by saying "Hi beep on answering machines.
* You can't sleep nights worrying about which brand of battery actually lasts the longest.
* Your idea of a good SYR theme is "Veloceta through the years: A history of preconceived crap."
* You don't have at least two items of official ND clothing.
* Integrating across n-th dimensional space is your idea of a fun party game.
* You actually meet people on "teen chat party" lines.
* You hang up before the beep on answering machines.
* You're excited about the possibility of being kicked out of your dorm to make room for an incoming freshman.
* You invented the checkmark system.
* On Winfrey's loss of 60 pounds excites you in any way.
* You sincerely liked either Bush or Dukakis.
* You actually memorize the zip code on your fake id before going to the bars.
* You like the smell of et-hand.
* You love Top 40.
* You didn't know that Tiffany's versions of "I Think We're Alone Now" and "I Saw Him Standing There" were remakes.
* You call Raghib Ismail "Rocket" only because you can't pronounce his real name.
* You worry about copyrights when you xerox a magazine.
* You actually give people hamburger coupons as presents.
* Your best pick-up line is "Hey, how 'bout that football team?"
* You've never skipped your 8:00 a.m. class, or for that matter, 8:00 11:00.
* You don't know all the words to the Notre Dame Victory March.
* You still think that Gary Hart and Donna Rice were "Just friends."
* You skip football games to study.
* You have bought all the books required for your classes.
* You do all the reserve readings that is assigned.
* You study more than you sleep.
* You take things like this seriously. Happy Thanksgiving.

Calvin and Hobbes

"Hey, how 'bout that football team?"

"You call Raghib Ismail "Rocket" only because you can't pronounce his real name.
"You worry about copyrights when you xerox a magazine.
"You actually give people hamburger coupons as presents.
"Your best pick-up line is "Hey, how 'bout that football team?"
"You've never skipped your 8:00 a.m. class, or for that matter, 8:00 11:00.
"You don't know all the words to the Notre Dame Victory March.
"You still think that Gary Hart and Donna Rice were "Just friends."
"You skip football games to study.
"You have bought all the books required for your classes.
"You do all the reserve readings that is assigned.
"You study more than you sleep.
"You take things like this seriously. Happy Thanksgiving.

Bill Watterson

Y ou're a turkey if...
Jerry Durso was named the outstanding wrestler of this weekend's St. Louis Open. Durso placed first in the 158-pound Flight Two for Notre Dame wrestlers placed in the individual draw tournament that had no team scoring. Pat Boyd finished second at 141 pounds, and Andy Radkenbaum was fourth at 111. The Observer.

The self-paced swim program will have its next meeting Monday, Nov. 28 at 7 p.m. in the Rolf Aquatic classroom. A video presentation will be given, and workshops will be included. The Observer.

Irish hockey destroyed by Lake Forest
By FRANK PASTOR
Sports Writer
The 1980-89 Notre Dame hockey schedule features some of the finest teams in the country. Lake Forest is not one of them, but don't tell that to the Forresters.
Following a loss to Notre Dame (3-2) five times last season, the Forresters returned to the Joyce AC Fieldhouse with a vengeance Friday night, tromping the Irish 5-2 en route to a sweep of the home-and-home series. Lake Forest completed its feat with a 5-2 victory over their home ice with an 8-4 victory Friday night.
Lake Forest exploded for four goals in the third period of Friday night's game, including three within just 11 seconds. A series of defensive mistakes by the Irish sparked the Forrester attack. "It's not that the players don't want to win," said Irish coach Ric Schaefer, "we just keep making costly mistakes. We're not quick enough to recover for those mistakes." Following a scoreless first period, forward Dennis Morris took a pass from Jeff Sather and slid the puck behind Irish goaltender Lance Madore. Lake Forest a 1-0 advantage in the second. The Irish applied consistent pressure against the Forresters, but failed to cash in on a number of scoring opportunities. Right wing Andy Slaggett broke away down the left side of the ice in the first period, but his shot from the left face circle banked off the left crossbar. Left wing Matt Hanerl also had a chance to put the Irish on board early, but his chance from the crease sailed just wide left of an open net.
Notre Dame bounced back in the game two minutes and 30 seconds into the third stanza when they skated out from behind the net and centered the puck on the blade of right wing Rob Bankoske, who slammed it home for the lone Irish score of the game. The Forresters put the Irish in a 4-1 hole two minutes later, scoring amid a flurry of traffic in the Irish net. Forward Dan Slavin was credited for an assist on the play. Slavin, Sather and forward Glenn Whalen closed out the game.
"There are gladiators in Alaska that move faster than any of some of our solemn Schaefer after the game. "We need an infusion of talented hockey players," Lakes Forest catapulted to a 5-1 lead in the first period Saturday night on its way to an 8-4 victory over Notre Victory. Once again, defensive breakdowns and a failure to convert scoring chances derailed the Irish. "We had quite a few scoring opportunities," said Schaefer. "We outplayed them, but we just didn't convert."
The AFC east race is over, sooner than it has ever been.

The Bills clinched the division crown.

Bills owner Ralph C. Wilson Jr.: "It feels great because I remember when they were struggling.

The AFC east race is over, sooner than it has ever been.

The Bills clinched the division crown.

Eagles 23, Giants 17

Burroughs at the Jets' 32. The New York's Roger Vick, who was in the league, clinched earlier this season as a success.

Eagles 23, Giants 17

Dillon continued from page 16

Schneider’s field goal on first down

"Our defense played great again and kept us in the game," said Dillon captain Paul Drey.

Chargers 38, Rams 24

Mark Malone took over after Mark Vlasie suffered torn knee ligaments and guided San Diego to a pair of fourth-quarter touchdowns by Barry Reardon on 1-yard runs.

Chargers 38, Rams 24

Lewis continued from page 16

Adamson: really strong, but the weather conditions made it tough.

"We knew we’d be in a good position if we scored first," said Mouch. "I just want to give the line credit. They

Dillon continued from page 16

Schneider’s field goal on first down

"Our defense played great again and kept us in the game," said Dillon captain Paul Drey.

Chargers 38, Rams 24

Mark Malone took over after Mark Vlasie suffered torn knee ligaments and guided San Diego to a pair of fourth-quarter touchdowns by Barry Reardon on 1-yard runs.

Chargers 38, Rams 24

Lewis continued from page 16

Adamson: really strong, but the weather conditions made it tough.

"We knew we’d be in a good position if we scored first," said Mouch. "I just want to give the line credit. They

HAPPY BIRTHDAY RACHEL

Love, the Flanagang

HAPPY THANKSGIVING from our house to yours

Love, Mom and Dad G.
IU beats Stanford; Duke wins in first week of college hoop

Associated Press

Senior center Todd Jadlow made 17 of 19 free throws as Indiana defeated second-ranked Michigan State 84-71 Sunday afternoon. Michigan State had its 31-game winning streak snapped.

IU's only loss this season was to Notre Dame, 31-30, when the Hurricanes fumbled the ball on the winning Irish 1-yard line. The third-ranked 'Canes now are 8-1 with regular-season games still to go against Cotton Bowl-bound Arkansas and Freedom Bowl-bound Brigham Young.

On Saturday, Miami accepted an invitation to meet Kansas State in the All-America Bowl, Dec. 29 at Shreveport, La.

"Canes now are 8-1 with $2.75 million against Syracuse's reserves. Davis led Wyoming with 19 points.

Duke 80, Kentucky 55

Danny Ferry scored 22 points Saturday and No. 1 Duke used a 16- and 13-point scoring burst to pull away from outmanned Kentucky 80-55 in the 10th Tipoff Classic.

"HELP FIGHT BIRTH DEFECTS"

Billy Owens three minutes into the game.

Royan Davis was credited with the point after a goal-denning call and Kenny Smith sank 3-pointer to pull Washington to within 14-16 remain-

Wyoming never got closer. The Orangemen substituted freely in the second period but still managed to increase their lead to 39 points late in the game. Wyoming, 1-1, scored the final 13 points of the game.

Other postseason contests and matchups are:

California Bowl, Dec. 10 at Fresno, Calif. western Michigan vs. Fresno St.

Independence Bowl, Dec. 23 at Shreveport, La.: southern Mississippi vs. Texas-El Paso.

Aloha Bowl, Dec. 25 at Honolulu, Wash. St. vs. Houston.

Liberty Bowl, Dec. 28 at Memphis, Tenn.: Indiana vs. South Carolina.

All America Bowl, Dec. 29 at Birmingham, Ala.: Florida vs. Illinois.

Freedom Bowl, Dec. 30 at San Diego, wyoming vs. Oklahoma State.

Cotton Bowl, Jan. 1 at Dallas, Texas: Lafayette vs. Texas A&M.

Holiday Bowl, Jan. 2nd at 7:00 PM • ESPN

Hormel: Jan. 2nd at 8:00 PM • MBC

Flower Bowl, Jan. 3rd at 11:00 AM • ABC

South Carolina

Bowl, Jan. 1 at Jack-

Associated Press

With all the talk and attention focused on Notre Dame and Southern California, the University of Miami, Fla., still enterains notions of winning its second straight national cham-
ionship.

Michigan's only loss of the season was to Notre Dame, 31-30, when the Hurricanes fumbled the ball on the winning Irish 1-yard line. The third-ranked 'Canes now are 8-1 with regular-season games still to go against Cotton Bowl-bound Arkansas and Freedom Bowl-bound Brigham Young.

On Saturday, Miami accepted an invitation to meet Kansas State in the All-America Bowl, Dec. 29 at Shreveport, La.

"Canes now are 8-1 with $2.75 million against Syracuse's reserves. Davis led Wyoming with 19 points.

Duke 80, Kentucky 55

Danny Ferry scored 22 points Saturday and No. 1 Duke used a 16- and 13-point scoring burst to pull away from out-
manned Kentucky 80-55 in the 10th Tipoff Classic.

"HELP FIGHT BIRTH DEFECTS"

Billy Owens three minutes into the game.

Royan Davis was credited with the point after a goal-denning call and Kenny Smith sank 3-pointer to pull Washington to within 14-16 remain-

Wyoming never got closer. The Orangemen substituted freely in the second period but still managed to increase their lead to 39 points late in the game. Wyoming, 1-1, scored the final 13 points of the game.

Other postseason contests and matchups are:

California Bowl, Dec. 10 at Fresno, Calif. western Michigan vs. Fresno St.

Independence Bowl, Dec. 23 at Shreveport, La.: southern Mississippi vs. Texas-El Paso.

Aloha Bowl, Dec. 25 at Honolulu, Wash. St. vs. Houston.

Liberty Bowl, Dec. 28 at Memphis, Tenn.: Indiana vs. South Carolina.

All America Bowl, Dec. 29 at Birmingham, Ala.: Florida vs. Illinois.

Freedom Bowl, Dec. 30 at San Diego, wyoming vs. Oklahoma State.

Cotton Bowl, Jan. 1 at Dallas, Texas: Lafayette vs. Texas A&M.

Holiday Bowl, Jan. 2nd at 7:00 PM • ESPN

Hormel: Jan. 2nd at 8:00 PM • MBC

Flower Bowl, Jan. 3rd at 11:00 AM • ABC

South Carolina

Bowl, Jan. 1 at Jack-

Associated Press

With all the talk and attention focused on Notre Dame and Southern California, the University of Miami, Fla., still enterains notions of winning its second straight national cham-
ionship.

Michigan's only loss of the season was to Notre Dame, 31-30, when the Hurricanes fumbled the ball on the winning Irish 1-yard line. The third-ranked 'Canes now are 8-1 with regular-season games still to go against Cotton Bowl-bound Arkansas and Freedom Bowl-bound Brigham Young.

On Saturday, Miami accepted an invitation to meet Kansas State in the All-America Bowl, Dec. 29 at Shreveport, La.

"Canes now are 8-1 with $2.75 million against Syracuse's reserves. Davis led Wyoming with 19 points.

Duke 80, Kentucky 55

Danny Ferry scored 22 points Saturday and No. 1 Duke used a 16- and 13-point scoring burst to pull away from out-
manned Kentucky 80-55 in the 10th Tipoff Classic.

"HELP FIGHT BIRTH DEFECTS"

Billy Owens three minutes into the game.

Royan Davis was credited with the point after a goal-denning call and Kenny Smith sank 3-pointer to pull Washington to within 14-16 remain-

Wyoming never got closer. The Orangemen substituted freely in the second period but still managed to increase their lead to 39 points late in the game. Wyoming, 1-1, scored the final 13 points of the game.

Other postseason contests and matchups are:

California Bowl, Dec. 10 at Fresno, Calif. western Michigan vs. Fresno St.

Independence Bowl, Dec. 23 at Shreveport, La.: southern Mississippi vs. Texas-El Paso.

Aloha Bowl, Dec. 25 at Honolulu, Wash. St. vs. Houston.

Liberty Bowl, Dec. 28 at Memphis, Tenn.: Indiana vs. South Carolina.

All America Bowl, Dec. 29 at Birmingham, Ala.: Florida vs. Illinois.

Freedom Bowl, Dec. 30 at San Diego, wyoming vs. Oklahoma State.

Cotton Bowl, Jan. 1 at Dallas, Texas: Lafayette vs. Texas A&M.

Holiday Bowl, Jan. 2nd at 7:00 PM • ESPN

Hormel: Jan. 2nd at 8:00 PM • MBC

Flower Bowl, Jan. 3rd at 11:00 AM • ABC

South Carolina

Bowl, Jan. 1 at Jack-
ND escapes with close win over Zadar; Ellis hurt

By STEVE MEGARGEE
Assistant Sports Editor

It almost was a case of bad news getting worse Friday night at the Joyce ACC. The Notre Dame basketball team was taken to the final seconds before winning an exhibition game 81-78 over Zadar of Yugoslavia, a team the Irish had defeated 139-81 a year ago.

"You've got to get burned this way and hopefully it wakes you up," said Irish coach Digger Phelps. "Our intensity and level of concentration will be much more improved in the next couple of weeks.

Things got even scarier for the Irish after the game. While Zadar's Fredrag Saric was missing a potential game-tying three-point shot in the final seconds, Irish freshman LaPhonso Ellis was lying in pain on the court. The 6-9 forward, who led all players with 15 rebounds, needed to be helped off the court.

Ellis later was found out to have a bruised calf and will not miss any action.

Zadar's Petar Popovic, who shot 9-of-14 from three-point range, led all scorers with 29 points. Jamere Jackson led the Irish with 21 points, while Saric added 28 for Zadar.

Despite shooting just 43 percent and being outrebounded 23-16, the Irish led by as many as nine points during the first period. Zadar kept chipping away behind the three-point bombs of the 29-year-old Popovic, who scored 18 points (all on three-pointers) during the half.

Zadar's Darko Publico followed the lead of Popovic at the buzzer, nailing a three-pointer from behind halfcourt to tie the 36-36 at the half.

For the game, Zadar shot 13-of-31 from three-point range and 17-of-40 on two-point shots.

"It's a situation where you're used to going back from transition and working from the inside out," said Jackson. "You've got guys on the three-point lane, so you have to stop at the three-point lane and pick up the shooters. That's what the coaches told us to do, but we weren't concentrating enough."

Zadar led for the first few minutes of the second half, but Saric tipped in Joe Fredrick's missed shot with 17:11 left to give the Irish a 42-41 lead they never relinquished.

Notre Dame again built its lead up to nine points, leading 68-59 with 7:23 left in the game. But that's when Petrovic started the second act of his air show.

Petrovic hit a trio of three-point shots in the next five minutes to help cut Notre Dame's lead to 76-73 with 2:16 to play.

Notre Dame's lead was down to one when Saric hit a three-point shot with 15 seconds left. But Fredrick made both ends of a one-and-one and 12 seconds left for the final points of the game.

Fredrick, who scored only five points and played just 10 minutes after picking up three fouls in the first half, came off the bench to score 12 points in the game. He's got good hands, and he's so tall that he can get them way up there.

"I don't know if I ever got this team to believe in itself," said Paterno. "I thought I'd be kind of tired at the end of the game, but I felt pretty good at the end."}

The Observer / Eric Bailey

---

Irish continued from page 16

a 67 yard touchdown bomb to Ismail that gave Notre Dame a 21-3 lead in the third quarter. From there, the Irish defense took charge. When Notre Dame's offense was having trouble moving the ball, the defense made sure the Lions did not take advantage of the opportunities.

The whole defense played awfully well," Notre Dame head coach Lou Holtz said. "It seems every week a different player stands out."

This week Alm was the star. The junior tackle became Notre Dame's interception leader when he snared his third pass of the season in the first quarter. Freshman defensive end Arnold Ale batted a Lance Longner pass out of the air and into Alm's hands on the play.

The 6-7 junior also recorded two tackles for losses and knocked down a pass at the line later in the game.

"This is the first time I've ever heard of a team's leading interceptor being a defensive lineman," said Irish inside linebacker Wes Prichett, who led the team with nine tackles. "That really says something.

Extra Points: Holtz again expressed concern with the Irish kicking game. Reggie Ho missed his only field-goal attempt, a 45-yard field goal, with a lot of class. They're tough, aggressive, alert. You can just sense that they're good football players. Some of our guys are going to come around like that."

---

Juniors

The Junior Dogbook is now accepting single shot portraits from anyone who did not get their picture taken at the previously scheduled times. In addition, the group snapshots & favorite quotes may also be submitted. Put your picture or quote in an envelope along with 50 cents and slide it under the door of the class office by Tuesday, 11/22. This is the opportunity for you & your friends to remember fun times forever, but remember the dog book cannot guarantee that all submitted pictures will be used so make sure you come up with an especially good photo.

He's got good hands, and he's so tall that he can get them way up there.

Notre Dame has not lost a game over the last two seasons, while Penn State suffered its first losing season in 50 years.

"I don't know if I ever got this team to believe in itself," said Paterno. "I think we were a lot better than our record indicates.

"But I'll be optimistic as soon as I see leadership and character," Paterno continued. "Guys like (Frank) Stam, Prichett and (Mike) Stonebreaker—they play with a lot of class. They're tough, aggressive, alert. You can just sense that they're good football players. Some of our guys are going to come around like that."

---

Extra Points: Holtz again expressed concern with the Irish kicking game. Reggie Ho missed his only field-goal attempt, a 45-yard field goal, with a lot of class. They're tough, aggressive, alert. You can just sense that they're good football players. Some of our guys are going to come around like that."

---

UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME
CPA REVIEW PROGRAM IN PREPARATION FOR THE MAY, 1989 CPA EXAMINATION INFORMATION MEETING THURSDAY DECEMBER 1, 1988 7:00 P.M. ROOM 122 HAYES-HEALY CENTER NOTRE DAME CAMPUS
Irish set sights on NCAA's

By MOLLY MAHONEY
Sports Writer

Leaving Kalamazoo, Mich., Saturday night, the Notre Dame women's volleyball team saw an unusual sight on the horizon.

"No, it wasn't Elvis incarnate. It was an NCAA bid, which is finally in sight as the Irish finished the eleventh week of their season by winning the Western Michigan Invitational.

The Irish, now 18-9, improved their chances of earning a spot in the NCAA tournament by defeating Miami (Ohio) Friday night in three games, 15-11, 15-8, 15-4, and winning the championship match over host Western Michigan in four games, 15-13, 4-15, 15-2 and 15-3.

"I thought it was great," said Irish head coach Art Lambert. "Right now the girls are playing under a lot of pressure because every match is like a must-win situation. But the girls are responding and playing well and I think they can only get better."

Freshman setter Julie Bremner and senior Mary Kay Waller also proved she could handle the Western Michigan Invitational. As the team's two matches.

"I thought it was great," said Lambert, "but we came back strong in the second game and they didn't pass very well in the second game and when you don't pass, you can't hit.

Waller played well on and off the net, as she tallied a team-high 13 kills six total blocks as well as seven digs. Senior Maureen Shea also played a well-rounded match, recording 12 kills for a team-high 13 kills six total blocks as well as seven digs.

Senior Maureen Shea also played a well-rounded match, recording 12 kills for a team-high 400 hitting percentage and a match-high 12 digs. Waller contributed to the Irish's second game and proving we can do it."

Fiesta

continued from page 16

Holz passed the offer on to University Executive Vice-President Rev. William E. Beauchamp and Athletic Director Richard Rosenthal, who left the final say with the team's two members, Bill Shover was pleased with the response.

"I started handing out these (Fiesta Bowl insignia) stickers, and they were just grabbing for them. I'd put three of them in one of those huge paws, and they'd just disappear. I had to give them about 30 before I could see them.

The Mountaineers also received their bid Saturday. West Virginia, now 11-6 after beating Syracuse 31-9, is currently ranked fourth in the nation.

Although the Fiesta Bowl has been the leading contender for the Notre Dame game since mid-season, the bids could not officially be extended until Saturday.

"We struggled a bit in the championship Friday by stifling the Redskins offense and counteracting with some of their own. Waller and Bennett murdered the Miami defense, combining for 27 of the team's 43 kills and both did so with precision.

Waller helped her chances of earning All-American status this year by recording a .500 hitting percentage while Bennett hit .455 for the match.

Defensively, Waller also gave the Redskins fits, as she registered 13 total blocks for the Irish and repeatedly greeted them with an impenetrable wall at the net.

The weekend's victory brings the Irish a step closer to an NCAA bid as the team approaches the final week of regular season play.

The Irish came into the week ranked 16th-the team's highest ranking ever-and must now prepare to face Texas, which is currently ranked 5th in the nation with a 24-5 record, and 13th-ranked San Diego State who is 21-10, in next weekend's Whataburger Invitational.

"We just keep playing better and better," said Lambert. "There's no ceiling to how well we can play. We know what we're supposed to do and now it's just a matter of going out and proving we can do it."

Knights of the Castle

Men's Hairstyling

student $8.50 complete style

M I N U T E S A W A Y F R O M C A M P U S

272-0312 277-1691

DISCOUNTS FOR ALL STUDENTS

Ironwood & St.Road (behind Subway Sandwiches)

Fiesta

continued from page 16

Holz passed the offer on to University Executive Vice-President Rev. William E. Beauchamp and Athletic Director Richard Rosenthal, who left the final say with the players. Fiesta Bowl committee member Bill Shover was pleased with the response.

"They started screaming," Shover said. "I started handing out these (Fiesta Bowl insignia) stickers, and they were just grabbing for them. I'd put three of them in one of those huge paws, and they'd just disappear. I had to give them about 30 before I could see them.

The Mountaineers also received their bid Saturday. West Virginia, now 11-6 after beating Syracuse 31-9, is currently ranked fourth in the nation. Although the Fiesta Bowl has been the leading contender for the Notre Dame game since mid-season, the bids could not officially be extended until Saturday.

"We struggled a bit in the championship Friday by stifling the Redskins offense and counteracting with some of their own. Waller and Bennett murdered the Miami defense, combining for 27 of the team's 43 kills and both did so with precision.

Waller helped her chances of earning All-American status this year by recording a .500 hitting percentage while Bennett hit .455 for the match. Defensively, Waller also gave the Redskins fits, as she registered 13 total blocks for the Irish and repeatedly greeted them with an impenetrable wall at the net.

The weekend's victory brings the Irish a step closer to an NCAA bid as the team approaches the final week of regular season play.

The Irish came into the week ranked 16th—the team's highest ranking ever—and must now prepare to face Texas, which is currently ranked 5th in the nation with a 24-5 record, and 13th-ranked San Diego State who is 21-10, in next weekend's Whataburger Invitational.

"We just keep playing better and better," said Lambert. "There's no ceiling to how well we can play. We know what we're supposed to do and now it's just a matter of going out and proving we can do it."

Knights of the Castle

Men's Hairstyling

student $8.50 complete style

M I N U T E S A W A Y F R O M C A M P U S

272-0312 277-1691

DISCOUNTS FOR ALL STUDENTS

Ironwood & St.Road (behind Subway Sandwiches)
Nittany Lions know Irish, Mountaineers very well

But having lost to both, they won't pick a favorite

By THERESA KELLY
Assistant Sports Editor

With the bowl bid official and the Notre Dame-West Virginia matchup set, it takes an expert to analyze the teams on their performances and predict how they'll play in the Fiesta Bowl.

"The Nittany Lions, who lost to the Irish Saturday 21-3, also met a similar fate at the hands of the Mountaineers on Oct. 29, 51-30. If anyone is an expert on the Irish and the Mountaineers, Penn State head coach Joe Paterno and his players fit the bill.

"Notre Dame is a fine football team," Paterno said Saturday after his team's loss. "It's hard to beat a team with that kind of enthusiasm. I wish Notre Dame the best."

"Notre Dame plays hard, they play smart. The are aggressive defensively and skilled ofensively. They will be tough to beat," Paterno gave the credit to the Notre Dame mystique.

"They're well-coached, they're organized, they play with a lot of enthusiasm," Paterno said. "It takes an expert to college football, but it's not a mystique. I didn't see any ghosts making any tackles out there.

"But having lost to both, Paterno and his players did not want to compare the Irish and West Virginia directly. Nittany Lion tackle Greg Brown did have something to say.

"I give West Virginia the edge on offense," Brown said, "but not by much. I thought we did a better job on defense today, but Notre Dame still got the big plays and scored what they needed. No matter how many people try to match them up, though, it's going to be a great game."

"I will not do that," Paterno said when asked to compare the Irish and West Virginia earlier this season, has words of praise for both of the Fiesta Bowl foes. See story at night.

Penn State head coach Joe Paterno fit the bill.

"I've played them for three years. They've always been scrapping, always fighting, they don't give up, it's made them a tough team. This year, they are more confident. That's the difference. They got some big wins early. That can give you confidence, and that can win for you when it gets tough later."

"You won't see many defenses as tough as ND and West Virginia," said Lion quarterback Lance Lonergan. "Notre Dame is different. They never quit, they just keep coming at you, no matter what. The players are good physically and mentally. There's no question how tough they were on us. Not only that, but they were taller than I thought."

"The thing about Notre Dame, "Lonergan continued, "is that they know how to stop you. We felt good out there today. We thought all we had to do was make one big play and it would put us back in it. But the thing is, Notre Dame doesn't let you back in it. They don't let you get the big plays. We got some shots at West Virginia, but if a team keeps you down like that, they've always got an advantage."

"I see a difference in Notre Dame this year," Johnson said.

"Faculty and staff are next.

"Tix continued from page 16

"All student tickets will be distributed on a will call basis. I can't emphasize enough that someone cannot pick up your tickets for you in Phoenix. Students must bring their own ID and pick up their ticket in person.

"The Fiesta Bowl has allotted 10,300 tickets for the game to Notre Dame, but Athletic Director Dick Rosenthal has requested an increase to 15,000.

"Students are our top priority in selling these tickets," asserted Cunningham. "Faculty and staff are next. Every member of the faculty and staff which bought season tickets will receive an application for two tickets. Our next priority are contributing alums."

"I've been playing them for three years. They've always been scrapping, always fighting, they don't give up, it's made them a tough team. This year, they are more confident. That's the difference. They got some big wins early. That can give you confidence, and that can win for you when it gets tough later."

"You won't see many defenses as tough as ND and West Virginia," said Lion quarterback Lance Lonergan. "Notre Dame is different. They never quit, they just keep coming at you, no matter what. The players are good physically and mentally. There's no question how tough they were on us. Not only that, but they were taller than I thought."

Lonergan had several passes broken up and two intercepted by the taller Irish defensive players.

"The thing about Notre Dame, "Lonergan continued, "is that they know how to stop you. We felt good out there today. We thought all we had to do was make one big play and it would put us back in it. But the thing is, Notre Dame doesn't let you back in it. They don't let you get the big plays. We got some shots at West Virginia, but if a team keeps you down like that, they've always got an advantage."

"I see a difference in Notre Dame this year," Johnson said.

"I give West Virginia the

"The thing about Notre Dame, "Lonergan continued, "is that they know how to stop you. We felt good out there today. We thought all we had to do was make one big play and it would put us back in it. But the thing is, Notre Dame doesn't let you back in it. They don't let you get the big plays. We got some shots at West Virginia, but if a team keeps you down like that, they've always got an advantage."

"I see a difference in Notre Dame this year," Johnson said.

"Faculty and staff are next. Every member of the faculty and staff which bought season tickets will receive an application for two tickets. Our next priority are contributing alums."

"We've played them for three years. They've always been scrapping, always fighting, they don't give up, it's made them a tough team. This year, they are more confident. That's the difference. They got some big wins early. That can give you confidence, and that can win for you when it gets tough later."
Irish, USC meet in 60th playing of ‘The Game’
Top ranking at stake in battle of unbeaten

By MARTY STRASEN
Sports Editor

Early Americans traveled west and expanded the nation. Over Thanksgiving break, Notre Dame is heading west in an attempt to expand its claim as one of the top teams in college football. The Trojans, nicknamed the ‘Bruins’ by the locals, are Southern California’s top team and are in a battle with arch-rival USC to seal Rose Bowl berth.

USC tailback Mark Green, a native of Riverside, Calif. "Being Trojan top Bruins to seal Rose Bowl berth

They call it ‘The Game,’ and this year it is. "They’re going to be ready for Notre Dame,” said Irish head coach Lou Holtz of the second-ranked Trojans after Notre Dame’s 21-3 drubbing of Penn State on Saturday.

USC beat UCLA 31-22 to win the Pac-10 title and secure a spot in the Rose Bowl against Michigan on Jan. 2. Notre Dame will face West Virginia in the Fiesta Bowl.

But Saturday’s 60th meeting between the Irish and Trojans will decide which of two teams will control its own fate on bowl day.

“We’re looking forward to playing USC and proving we are the best team in the country,” said an Irish player. "It’s going to be a great challenge on defense to be able to contain him,” Pritchett continued. “He can do a lot of things when he breaks containment.”

Peele completes 63 percent of his passes and averages 240 yards per game through the air. He has thrown for 18 touchdowns and been intercepted only eight times.

USC’s rushing game is similar to Notre Dame’s in that a number of backs share the load. Sophomore tailbacks Scott Leakwood and Rocky Ertvin, junior tailback Aaron Emanuel (113 yards and two touchdowns against UCLA) and junior fullback Leroy Holt each have rushed for more than 300 yards for the nation’s seventh-ranked team in total offense heading into the victory over UCLA.

The sixth-ranked Bruins, who completed their regular season with a 9-2 record and went 6-2 in the Pac-10, meet 10th-ranked Arkansas in the Cotton Bowl on Jan. 2. Peele, a senior considered to be one of the top contenders for the Heisman Trophy, played the entire game at quarterback for the Trojans despite his questionable status entering the game.

He completed 16 of 38 passes without being intercepted and was sacked only twice.

TROJANS TO WATCH

Larry Smith (Coach)

USC’s head coach has guided the Trojans to the Rose Bowl in each of his first two years at the helm. Smith was named Pac-10 Coach of the Year for his efforts in 1987.

Erik Aifallohler (SE)

The senior was not well-known until his dramatic, juggling reception won last year’s USC-UCLA game 17-13. This year he leads the Trojans in receptions and is an All-America candidate.

Mark Carrier (S)

The Jim Thorpe Award finalist and All-America candidate has established himself as one of the nation’s top defensive backs in college football and ranks second on the team in tackles.

John Jackson (FL)

The fleet-footed junior is a constant big-play threat and ranks second on the team in interceptions. He started only three games last year but led the team with 7 TD catches.

Rodney Peete (QB)

Peele is one of the favorites in the Heisman race and could become the first Trojan to win it. The electrifying senior is known for his strong arm and his scrambling ability.
NEW YORK TIMES CROSSWORD

ANSWER TO PREVIOUS PUZZLE

ACROSS
1 Narrow (10) 25 Walks proudly
2 Nest (7) 26 Belling's expectation
3 Holy hide (10) 27 Like a villain
4 Pretend (11) 28 Not sharp
5 Vestment (8) 29 Juan's buddy
6 Like a pintace (15) 30 Move capriciously
7 Earth tone (14) 32 Shakespearian explanation
8 Concerns (11) 33 Certain Latin lands
9 July 4 (11) 35 Chopper
10 Notemaker (10) 36 Sixteen ___
11 Be (11) 37 Noted lexicographer
12 Become away (15) 38 Large antelope
13 Borroscitos (14) 39 Chopper
14 Frank Baum's ___ (9) 40 Sixteen ___

DINER MENUS
Notre Dame
Gyro
BBQ Chicken
Fettucini Alfredo
Bloom County

Berkeley Breathed

Berkeley Breathed

The Far Side

Buzz McFlatop

The Far Side

Calvin and Hobbes

The Far Side

COMICS

Bloom County

Berkeley Breathed

The Far Side

Buzz McFlatop

The Far Side

Calvin and Hobbes

The Far Side

Monday, November 21, 1988
The Observer
page 15

CAMPUS
11:30 a.m. Economics Workshop with Margarita Rose, graduate student in Economics, Room 131 Dees Faculty Hall.

4:00 p.m. Kellogg Institute and CSC Lecture "The 1989 Plebiscite: Chile's Struggles to Retrieve Democracy," by Rev. Scalise, University of California, Berkeley, Center for Social Concerns.

7:00 p.m. SMC Student Activities Lecture "John F. Kennedy's Assassination," by Jack Gordon, Carroll Auditorium.

7:00 p.m. ND Communication and Theatre Film "The Terrible Ninth," directed by John Ford, Annenberg Auditorium.

9:00 p.m. ND Communication and Theatre Film "Gilda," directed by Charles Vidor, Annenberg Auditorium.

CAMPUS

NEW YORK TIMES CROSSWORD

ACROSS
1 Neretus (10) 25 Walks proudly
2 Nest (7) 26 Belling's expectation
3 Holy hide (10) 27 Like a villain
4 Pretend (11) 28 Not sharp
5 Vestment (8) 29 Juan's buddy
6 Like a pintace (15) 30 Move capriciously
7 Earth tone (14) 32 Shakespearian explanation
8 Concerns (11) 33 Certain Latin lands
9 July 4 (11) 35 Chopper
10 Notemaker (10) 36 Sixteen ___
11 Be (11) 37 Noted lexicographer
12 Become away (15) 39 Chopper
13 Borroscitos (14) 39 Chopper
14 Frank Baum's ___ (9) 40 Sixteen ___

ANSWER TO PREVIOUS PUZZLE

ACROSS
1 Narrow (10) 25 Walks proudly
2 Nest (7) 26 Belling's expectation
3 Holy hide (10) 27 Like a villain
4 Pretend (11) 28 Not sharp
5 Vestment (8) 29 Juan's buddy
6 Like a pintace (15) 30 Move capriciously
7 Earth tone (14) 32 Shakespearian explanation
8 Concerns (11) 33 Certain Latin lands
9 July 4 (11) 35 Chopper
10 Notemaker (10) 36 Sixteen ___
11 Be (11) 37 Noted lexicographer
12 Become away (15) 39 Chopper
13 Borroscitos (14) 39 Chopper
14 Frank Baum's ___ (9) 40 Sixteen ___
ND gets revenge, victory and a Fiesta Bowl bid

By MARTY STRASEN
Sports Editor

Revenge might be sweet, but nobody said it had to be fair.
Saturday wasn’t, as top-ranked and Fiesta Bowl-bound Notre Dame took out the frustration of three straight losses to strong Penn State teams on a rare weak one. The Irish totaled 502 yards and powered to a 21-3 victory at Notre Dame Stadium in their last home game of the year.
The win was the first over Penn State for Notre Dame’s seniors and sent Nittany Lions coach Joe Paterno home with his first losing season (5-6) in 23 years at the helm.
Notre Dame brings its 10-0 record and No. 1 ranking to the Los Angeles Coliseum on Saturday for The Game—a battle with second-ranked USC (10-0) that will determine the nation’s top spot going into the bowl games. The Trojans clinched a Rose Bowl berth by stopping UCLA 31-22.
"I just feel great for the seniors and the things we’ve done,” said Irish senior tailback Mark Green, who scored on a 22-yard run in the second quarter. "It’s great to go out on a 22-yard run in the second quarter. "It was a coach’s decision,” said B.P. machine 87 yards on 12 plays and took a 7-0 lead when Rice rolled out to the left, pomp­tomarked to a wide-open Rod West in the end zone to get a Penn State defender off his feet and scored from two yards out.
The Irish took a 14-0 lead in the second quarter when Green broke through a hole at the line of scrimmage, headed for the right sideline and somehow managed to stay inbounds on his 23-yard score. Freshman split end Raghib Ismail threw a clinching downfield block on the play.
"I looked up and saw three of their guys go down,” Green said. "I saw three of our blockers on three of their blockers, and it was kind of like the domino effect.”
Rice led all rushers with 84 yards and 10 rushes.

By BRIAN O’GARA
Sports Writer

Notre Dame students will be able to get a ticket to attend the 1989 Fiesta Bowl in Tempe, Ariz.
Fiesta Bowl tickets will go on sale to Notre Dame seniors beginning on Tuesday, November 29, at Gate 10 of the Joyce ACC beginning at 1:30 PM.
Notre Dame juniors will be able to purchase tickets on Wednesday, November 30; Notre Dame sophomores, graduate students and law students may purchase tickets on Thursday, December 1; and tickets for Notre Dame freshmen and all Saint Mary’s students will be sold on Friday, December 2.
"Notre Dame students are our number-one priority, without question,” said Notre Dame ticket manager Bubba Cunningham. "Every student who wants tickets will be able to get one will be able to, assuming there will be 4,000 students who want to make the trip to Phoenix.”
While students may purchase the $33 tickets for themselves, the process will eliminate the purchasing of tickets for non-student use.

Students top priority for tix

Inside Sports

Volleyball wins Invitational ............page 12
Basketball beats Zadar .......................page 11
Lake Forest sweeps ND hockey ........page 8

Interhall teams battle for supremacy in the muck

Lewis beats Blitz to take title

By VIC LOMBARDI
Sports Writer

"It was a Cinderella story,” said Lewis coach Steve Treppicione after his team defeated Breen-Phillips 8-6 for the women’s Interhall Football crown in a cold and muddy Notre Dame Stadium yesterday.
The Lewis victory was preserved after a 25-yard Breen-Phillips field goal attempt fell short with 2:20 remaining.
"We’re still stumped,” said Lewis captain Christine Wallmeyer after her team dove into a puddle of mud in ecstatic celebration. "We came out of nowhere and won it all.”
Breen-Phillips drove 69 yards and consumed 16 minutes of the clock before opting to kick the field goal on fourth and five from the nine yard line.
"It was a coach’s decision,” said B.P. captain Karen Marsh. "She’s (Amy

Defense keys 3-0 Dillon victory

By DAVE MAHONAN
Sports Writer

On a field that was nothing short of unplayable, Dillon kicker Kohl Schmidt nailed a 3-yard field goal in overtime to bring the Big Red a 3-0 victory, its second consecutive Interhall championship, over Stanford.
Both teams, playing in a rematch of last year’s final, were forced to change game plans due to the horrendous conditions in Notre Dame Stadium.
"We couldn’t run during regulation, so we tried to pass in overtime,” said Stanford’s Steve Wightkin.
After winning the coin toss at the end of regulation, Dillon opted to start on defense, putting the pressure on the Stu­offense. Beginning on the ten-yard line, each team had four downs to attempt to score. On Stanford’s third attempt at the ten, Dillon intercepted, setting up...