Federal judges in Colombia go on strike

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP) — Judges and court workers began a series of walkout warning strikes Thursday, a day after another judge and a congressman were wounded reportedly by drug traffickers.

In Medellin, where the judge was killed, federal justices walked off the job indefinitely until they receive more protection.

It is the third time judges have gone on strike in the last three months, with each walk-out following the assassination of a federal judge. In the last eight years 222 court workers, including 43 judges, have been killed, most of them by drug traffickers.

In the latest skiing, federal Judge Mariela Espinoza was killed by submachine gun fire from two speeding cars as she arrived at her Medellin home Wednesday night with two motorcycle guards. One of the guards was killed and a bystander was wounded.

Espinoza, 43, was one of 42 federal appeals judges in Medellin, a city of 2 million people that is the cocaine capital of Colombia and is immediately known if she had handled drug trafficking cases.

In the capital of Bogota federal Rep. Luis Francisco Madero was killed with a pistol shot to the head Wednesday night by a man waiting for Madero in the shadows outside the congressman’s apartment.

Madero, a 27-year veteran in Colombia’s House of Representatives, had supported extradition of Colombians to the United States to face drug trafficking charges.

ND alums speak on careers in politics

By SANDRA WIEGAND

The key to getting a job in Washington, D.C., according to Chief of Staff Paul Unger and Administrative Assistant Kurt Pfotenhauer, is to utilize all ties with the desired position.

Unger and Pfotenhauer addressed the topic in a lecture co-sponsored by the Student Alumni Relations Association, which may offer a list of job openings and requires a prepared resume.

Knowing and meeting the right connections is extremely important, Pfotenhauer stressed.

“It’s your geography,” your hometown congressman or senator, people from your Notre Dame alumni association, he said. “Friends, lobbyists, if your father or your friends have any ties with a major corporation... which may be able to initiate some contact for you.”

He said that it is also a very good idea to work for a campaign.

In response to the frequently asked question of when to begin searching for a job in Washington, Unger said he consistently tells people, “I think the best time is right now.”

According to Unger, a degree in Political Science or Government does not do as much as many people assume, automatically open the door to a job in Washington, D.C.

Some traits that do improve chances of getting a job, he said, are good writing skills, resourcefulness and a personal recommendation in subsequent interviews, Unger said.

Other offices to contact are the Senate and House placement offices, which offer mainly administrative positions, said Pfotenhauer.

Prospective employees can fill out a form for the Republican Study Group, he said, or go through a more “democratic” process with the Democratic Study Group, which offers a list of job openings and requires a prepared resume.

South Bend, Ind. (AP) — An aide to Rep. John Hiler, R-Ind., will remain jailed without bond until his trial on federal charges alleging violation of immigration laws and witness intimidation.

U.S. Magistrate Robin Pierce revoked bail for Tyron Watford, 40, after government witnesses said Wednesday that Watford was a potential threat to witnesses in his case.

Watford had been free since posting a $2,000 bond following his August arrest. He was brought back to court after a witness complained Watford had been following her. Watford denied the allegation.

Hiler aide imprisoned without bail until trial

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP) — An aide to Rep. John Hiler, R-Ind., will remain jailed without bond until his trial on federal charges alleging violation of immigration laws and witness intimidation.

Watford was a potential threat to witnesses in his case.

Second aide imprisoned for federal court strike

A person wishing to work for a congressman or senator, said Unger, should turn first to a representative of his or her own congressional district. He should write a letter to the office of the congressman or senator, addressing it to either the administrative assistant or the chief of staff.

If a meeting with a representative of his own area does not lead to a job, the job seeker should turn next to a representative of his state or the congressional or senator with whom he has the most ties.

Finally, he should ask the representative to suggest others who might be hiring. The job seeker should not hesitate to ask permission to use this representative’s recommendation in subsequent interviews, Unger said.

Other offices to contact are the Senate and House placement offices, which offer mainly administrative positions, said Pfotenhauer.

Prospective employees can fill out a form for the Republican Study Group, he said, or go through a more “democratic” process with the Democratic Study Group, which offers a list of job openings and requires a prepared resume.

Watford was a potential threat to witnesses in his case.

The job seeker should not hesitate to ask permission to use this representative’s recommendation in subsequent interviews, Unger said.

Other offices to contact are the Senate and House placement offices, which offer mainly administrative positions, said Pfotenhauer.

Prospective employees can fill out a form for the Republican Study Group, he said, or go through a more “democratic” process with the Democratic Study Group, which offers a list of job openings and requires a prepared resume.

Watford was a potential threat to witnesses in his case.
A General Electric official acknowledged Thursday that no records exist to prove a serial number mix-up wasn't responsible for the United Airlines DC-10 crash July 19 in Sioux City, Iowa. But testimony before federal safety investigators claimed that company officials are certain that two fan disks, one intended for the scrap heap, the other approved for installation in a DC-10, were not mixed up.

Glee Club fall concert will be tonight at 8:15 p.m. in Washington Hall. Admission is free.

The Logan Center still needs Navy tickets to complete its anniversary weekend. All cadets and faculty are encouraged to attend in service dress uniform.

A Kentucky nun who received threatening letters while working as a religious educator in Guatemala disappeared Thursday from an air conditioner in a church courtyard. Members of her Roman Catholic order fear she was arrested without incident Thursday in Pretoria Central Prison on Thursday, raising the number of political prisoners to 187.64.

A 100-year-old woman from rural Fort Wayne, Ind., killed herself Thursday on the "Tonight Show" with host Johnny Carson. Nellie McNeal, a farmer all her life, told the late night king of comedy that she liked his show but "only when you're on." McNeal, who has sons 70 and 80 years old, copped her unusually long interview with Carson with a short dance to the bluesgrass tune "Rooky Top."
Flanner sets up scholarship

By REGIS COCCIA
Managing Editor

Flanner Hall took an unusual step to reach out to the community when it established an annual scholarship this fall for freshmen at St. Joseph's High School in South Bend.

The hall had a scholarship to recognize an incoming high school student," Smith said. "I think it's commendable."

St. Joseph's Principal Glenn Bettencourt said, "It's very much needed. (Finances) are one obstacle that keeps a lot of kids out of schools like St. Joseph's."

Smith, who was Rector of the Year in 1988, said he thought St. Joseph's was appropriate for the scholarship because it is close to the University and is affiliated with the religious order that founded Notre Dame and Saint Mary's.

Flanner raised money for the scholarship through donations and proceeds from a movie presentation last spring, the rector said. "Other halls give out scholarships, like Cavanaugh, but I think we're the only one giving a scholarship out to a school in the community," Smith said.

Cavanaugh Hall has the Andy Sowder Fund, a scholarship for Notre Dame freshmen, in memory of a former hall president who died in his senior year.

Bouey said St. Joseph's will select the recipient of the Flanner scholarship, based on academic merit and financial need.

ND drivers to compete in national competition

By KELLEY TUTHILL
Assistant News Editor

Notre Dame and Saint Mary's students have the opportunity to test their driving skills and compete for scholarships today at the MCC parking lot.

From 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., students can participate in the eighth annual National Collegiate Driving Championships (NCDC), according to Katy Duguid, a Dodge spokesperson.

"Safe driving skills will determine the winner of the contest, which challenges students to safely negotiate a serpentine autocross course marked with pylons," Students will arrive for accuracy, not speed, said Duguid.

Students will compete for a total of $10,000 in scholarships and the use of a Dodge Daytona Shelby for one year.

The competition, sponsored by Dodge, the performance division of Chrysler Motors, promotes safe driving habits in young drivers. NCDC is supported by the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) and the National Safety Council, said Duguid.

Any full-time undergraduate college or university student is eligible to compete in NCDC. However, employees of sponsorships and affiliates and members of sanctioning bodies are ineligible.

Duguid said the first prize in the grand finals in a $5,000 scholarship and the use of a Dodge Daytona Shelby for one year; second place is a $3,000 scholarship and the use of a Dodge Daytona Shelby for one year; the third place finisher will receive a $2,000 scholarship and the use of a Dodge Daytona Shelby for one year. Fourth through sixth-place prizes are sets of Goodyear tires.

The event is sponsored by Notre Dame Security, Bacchus, The Office of Drug and Alcohol Education and the Hall Presidents Council.

Irish Gardens...
Now has greeting cards!

Featuring:
Dale Cards
ACME greetings
Banyton Cards

different kinds of logos, and other designs by "recycled paper products"

Irish Gardens
Basement of LaFortune
Mon - Sat 12:30 - 5:30pm
(Closed home football Saturdays)
Sitting continued from page 1

"Dave and I told him that we could understand that maybe a non-traditional approach sometimes needs to be taken in order to get something done, but that by sitting in and being there for three hours he had already made a statement and that it could get to a point where he could get arrested," said Breslin.

Gonzalez was not attempting to gain publicity by staging the sit-in, he felt it was a "matter of principle," Breslin said.

"What he had done originally, by sitting in was positive and really hurt other students leaders—it could hurt hall and really make (the situation) negative," said Breslin.

"Raul made it a point that he supported our efforts in student government, but that this was something that he needed to do as an individual and as St. Ed's president. He did not say that our approach was wrong," Breslin added.

When HPC met, they essentially went through the typical letter-writing campaign,

"If he got arrested, it could really make the situation move to life by bringing a non-traditional approach in," said Breslin.

"What he had done originally was positive and what we wanted to bring to fruition. He wanted to do something beyond that since he felt that HPC wasn't going to," said Straub.

Breslin added that Tyson said, began as unpaid interns.

"He [Tyson] seemed very positive and encouraging in working with us and that's what we wanted to bring across—the fact that we felt our approach in working in a collaborative capacity with the administration has worked sometimes in the past and if you work hard enough it can be done," said Breslin.

Breslin added that Tyson mentioned is the Lyndon B. Johnson Internship offered by the House during the summer. Interested people should contact their local office. It is important to know your goals and to "do your home work" regarding the set-up of the office in which you wish to work, and the history and political philosophy of the senator or congressman, Potenzhauser said.

The position of legislative assistant, although not an entry-level position, Potenzhauser described as "the job you want to get...the real backbone of the office in many ways.

Entry-level positions which can lead to this position include legislative correspondent and receptionist, he said.

Potenzhauser stressed the importance of having thought-out answers to the question of why you wish to work for a certain senator or congressman. Experience is also important, he said.

"Opportunity doesn't knock," said Potenzhauser. "It walks by the door and you've got to mug it."

---

Editor's: meet at 4 p.m.
Photographers: meet at 5:30 p.m.

---

Haircuts $5.00!!
Fantastic Sam's
902 E. Ireland Rd.
Sun., Nov. 5
1-4 p.m.
proceeds benefit National Kidney Foundation

Happy 22nd Birthday Julie
Nov. 3, 1989
We're ALL Proud of You

Senor Kelly's
MEXICAN - IRISH CAFE

$1.00 off dinner with this coupon
Expires 11/15/89

---

United Limousine Services

---

Friday, November 3, 1989

The Observer

Attention Photographers and Editors

This Sunday in the Notre Dame Room there will be a mandatory meeting on the use and assignment of photos.

---

My how times have changed!

It's autumn. Time for Chicago to fall back to daylight savings time again. And since Chicago's times have changed, so must United Limo's local departure and arrival times.

So, clip out the new schedule below as a reminder. And the next time you need a reliable, comfortable ride to or from O'Hare, Midway or the Loop, call your favorite travel agent for reservations. Or call United Limo. We'll get you there.

Ask about our improved service to Midway and the Loop.

---
North Carolina tries to recover from wrath of Hugo

The patience of residents is being tested," Beverly acknowledged. "They're getting tired of it.

Officials have been saying all along that it could take until spring to complete the cleanup. "I've watered it down a couple times but it's still awful dry," she said. "I know these things don't happen all the time, but it's been more than a month," she added.

According to city officials, more than 2 million cubic yards of debris, or 200,000 truckloads, were left along the city's 3,000 miles of curbs. "It's enough to fill a 60-story skyscraper three or four times.

Some residents could see progress this week.

On Wednesday, soldiers from Fort Bragg, about 100 miles east, pulled in front of 84-year-old Hazeline Hinkle's small brick home. In less than 30 minutes, they removed the oak that flattened her garage.

"I really appreciate what they're doing," said Hinkle, a widow whose insurance did not cover all of the damage to her home of 52 years. "I need a new roof, my bedroom leaks and my garage is in pieces.

For the team of soldiers, it was their eighth job in less than two days. Sixty-two Fort Bragg soldiers had volunteered for the day.

There's no better feeling in the world than being appreciated," said Spec. Aaron Smith, of Columbus, Miss. "I only wish we could do more.

The United Way of the Central Carolinas is coordinating the volunteer effort to help the yards of elderly, poor and disabled residents.

The organization has received more than 2,100 requests for assistance. With the help of 60 to 70 volunteers a day, about 800 yard requests are being filled, and United Way officials are begging for more volunteers and equipment.

Recovery operations in Los Angeles resulted in widespread damage and fears of fires.

"We've got a huge volume of debris and the lack of rain has produced a substantial threat of fires.

The organization has received more than 2,100 requests for assistance. With the help of 60 to 70 volunteers a day, about 800 yard requests are being filled, and United Way officials are begging for more volunteers and equipment.

Recovery operations in Los Angeles resulted in widespread damage and fears of fires.
Getting Comfortable With a Zenith Portable
Now

Can Make for a Comfortable Future in the Real World

For More Details Contact
Notre Dame Computer Store
Office of University Computing
Math/Computer Building
239-7477
Mon. Fri. 9 - 5
Hostages reflect on tenth anniversary of Iranian crisis

NEW YORK (AP) — Leland Holland survived his hostage ordeal and now battles prostate cancer. Thomas Schaefer helps people cope with stress. Bruce Laingen keeps a yellow ribbon on his flag to remember other U.S. hostages.

Kevin Hermening treasures memories of one who was held for 444 days by an Iranian mob 10 years ago. "Whether we like it or not, we'll always be ex-hostages. It keeps us from the forest with the appreciation of one who was held for 444 days by an Iranian mob 10 years ago."

"We'll always be ex-hostages. It keeps us from the forest with the appreciation of one who was held for 444 days by an Iranian mob 10 years ago."

"We'll always be ex-hostages. It keeps us from the forest with the appreciation of one who was held for 444 days by an Iranian mob 10 years ago."

"We'll always be ex-hostages. It keeps us from the forest with the appreciation of one who was held for 444 days by an Iranian mob 10 years ago."
LOS ANGELES (AP) — The last edition of the once-powerful Los Angeles Herald Examiner hit the streets Thursday, but briefly as it fought off six bundles of 50 papers each," said Gary Pine at the sports information office at the University of Southern California.

"The last we heard, he'd sold three bundles — at $2 a copy."

At a Herald Examiner building downtown, crowds jammed a lobby to buy papers. Some like Robert Fregoso, purchased who 500 copies for the time who Fregoso picked up his papers were as brisk as 1,000

"The Herald Examiner was born in 1962 when the morning ing downtown, crowds jammed a lobby to buy papers. Some

"I've read the Herald all my life," said Fregoso, 42. "I used to

"To get the Herald all my life," said Fregoso, 42. "I used to

"Yet its circulation once kept in a safe in case

"The mortal blow was a bitter

"The demise of the Herald to everything from the "Black

"At the same time Hearst

"Scores of buyers lined up at the

"At the same time Hearst

"Thousands of dollars were

"At a Herald Examiner build­

"At the University of Southern

"I've read the Herald all my

"At a Herald Examiner build­

"At the University of Southern

"The Herald Examiner was

"To get the Herald all my life," said Fregoso, 42. "I used to

"Yet its circulation once kept in a safe in case

"The mortal blow was a bitter

"The demise of the Herald

"At the University of Southern

"The Herald Examiner was

"To get the Herald all my life," said Fregoso, 42. "I used to

"Yet its circulation once kept in a safe in case

"The mortal blow was a bitter

"The demise of the Herald

"At the University of Southern

"The Herald Examiner was

"To get the Herald all my life," said Fregoso, 42. "I used to

"Yet its circulation once kept in a safe in case

"The mortal blow was a bitter

"The demise of the Herald

"At the University of Southern

"The Herald Examiner was
Soviet miners protest working conditions

MOSCOW (AP) — A strike spread to most miners in an Arctic coal region Thursday and some miners blocked shipments in an effort to force the government to keep promises of improved living and working conditions.

Tass said eight of 13 mines in Vorkuta joined the strike at the strike leaders' request. A strike at a nearby mine spread to most mines in an attempt to decide whether to strike.

Soviet officials say a drop in coal production could force rationalization of heat and light in the long, severe Russian winter.

Miners in Vorkuta, north of the Arctic Circle, demand that the government make good on its promises and announce when the miners' statement as saying. "We do not expect any special privileges, nor are we depriving the government to keep promises and announce when the miners, who say they will appeal the decision to the Supreme Soviet legislature in Moscow.

At the Komsomolskaya mine miners continued producing coal but refused to let it be shipped from Vorkuta, the newspaper Komsomolskaya Pravda reported. The mine and the paper are named for Kom-

"We do not expect any special privileges, nor are we depriving the government to keep promises and announce when the miners, who say they will appeal the decision to the Supreme Soviet legislature in Moscow.

At the Komsomolskaya mine miners continued producing coal but refused to let it be shipped from Vorkuta, the newspaper Komsomolskaya Pravda reported. The mine and the paper are named for Komsomol, the Communist youth league.

"We do not expect any special privileges, nor are we depriving the government to keep promises and announce when the miners, who say they will appeal the decision to the Supreme Soviet legislature in Moscow.

At the Komsomolskaya mine miners continued producing coal but refused to let it be shipped from Vorkuta, the newspaper Komsomolskaya Pravda reported. The mine and the paper are named for Komsomol, the Communist youth league.

"We do not expect any special privileges, nor are we depriving the government to keep promises and announce when the miners, who say they will appeal the decision to the Supreme Soviet legislature in Moscow.

At the Komsomolskaya mine miners continued producing coal but refused to let it be shipped from Vorkuta, the newspaper Komsomolskaya Pravda reported. The mine and the paper are named for Komsomol, the Communist youth league.

"We do not expect any special privileges, nor are we depriving the government to keep promises and announce when the miners, who say they will appeal the decision to the Supreme Soviet legislature in Moscow.

At the Komsomolskaya mine miners continued producing coal but refused to let it be shipped from Vorkuta, the newspaper Komsomolskaya Pravda reported. The mine and the paper are named for Komsomol, the Communist youth league.

"We do not expect any special privileges, nor are we depriving the government to keep promises and announce when the miners, who say they will appeal the decision to the Supreme Soviet legislature in Moscow.

At the Komsomolskaya mine miners continued producing coal but refused to let it be shipped from Vorkuta, the newspaper Komsomolskaya Pravda reported. The mine and the paper are named for Komsomol, the Communist youth league.

"We do not expect any special privileges, nor are we depriving the government to keep promises and announce when the miners, who say they will appeal the decision to the Supreme Soviet legislature in Moscow.
Macintosh® turned the world around. Today, available software allows you to learn and operate any computer language or operating system from BASIC®, PASCAL®, and FORTRAN® to UNIX®, and DOS®. Mechanical Engineers, Industrial Designers, Architects, and Drafters can integrate their graphic design work, from conceptual sketching to production-quality drafting, by using software such as Claris CAD®, VersaCAD®, and AutoCAD®. The Macintosh also offers options for analysis, project management, and telecommunications. All of these, fully utilize the Macintosh® interface. And remember, a Macintosh could be yours on November 15.

Mac is what you make it.
Consumerism in Chile strips the poor of rights

By Bill Cavanaugh

Editor's note: The author graduated from Notre Dame in 1984 and is currently in his second year as a Holy Cross Associate in Chile.

One Sunday a while back I was having tea in my house with a Business English class lady, when Margy brought home three of her confirmation students from St. George's, the Holy Cross school on the other side of town. They described their bracing climb in the front door as one would do hoarding a space in the United States. We introduced each other, and Blanca concluded the introduction by saying, hospitably and sincerely, "Welcome to Chile."

The students from St. George's are Chileans, born and raised in Santiago. They are tall, varying in height, well-dressed, and have nice teeth. Blanca is also Chilean. She is four-foot-something, has dark skin and hair, is not par­

Another "advantage" of living in Barrio Alto is that one can go from home to work to play and back without ever seeing poverty. The state-controlled television certainly won't show it. Poverty doesn't get very good ratings. Poor people are well-segregated, pushed to the outskirts of Santiago, piled up in shantytowns and encamp­

There's more music in English than in Spanish on the radio. The wealthy can shop at Privi­

The poor, on the other hand, have no chance to be Chilean. They do not look like Europeans, because the Euro­

Perhaps I have a right at this point in my journey here to feel indignant on behalf of my struggling neighbors. Why don't they come to be with the people here, share their table, talk to them, learn their names and understand­

Perhaps I have a right at this point in my journey here to feel indignant on behalf of my struggling neighbors. Why don't they come to be with the people here, share their table, talk to them, learn their names and understand­

The issue begins to have a lit­

- In this environment and allowed to re-create ourselves without much knowledge about our back­

On our community. As an individ­

Dear Editor:

Although many of you may view the United Way as 30 sec­

是多么-safe community, the United Way dollars are used to

Please contact your dorm rep­

As representatives of the United Way we are asking you to join the challenge by accept­

Dear Editor:

Although many of you may view the United Way as 30 sec­

Perhaps I have a right at this point in my journey here to feel indignant on behalf of my struggling neighbors. Why don't they come to be with the people here, share their table, talk to them, learn their names and understand­

The issue begins to have a lit­

Do you live in a RENT- CONTROLLED APART­

ONE DOWNTOWN A REN T- CONTROLLED APART­

A REN T-C O N T RE LLED APART­

A R E N T- C O N T R O L L E D APART­

A REN T- C O N T R O L L E D APART­

NOTICE TO ABC COMPANY: WE HAVE TAKEN STEPS TO COMPLI­

NOTICE TO ABC COMPANY: WE HAVE TAKEN STEPS TO COMPLI­

NOTICE TO ABC COMPANY: WE HAVE TAKEN STEPS TO COMPLI­

NOTICE TO ABC COMPANY: WE HAVE TAKEN STEPS TO COMPLI­

DOONESBURY

DON'T BUY IT! GET SOMETHING THAT'S REALLY GOOD!

The best use of speed since Chuck Yeager broke the sound barrier.

George Bush Speaking of Rajibb Iqbal
MUSIC
Boathouse Blues, Theodore's, 10 p.m. - 1 a.m.
George Bedard, rockabilly artist, Center Street Blues Supper Club, 9:30 p.m.
Notre Dame Glee Club fall concert, Washington Hall, 8:15 p.m.

ART
MIXED MEDIA by Joan Michaels-Paque, opening reception in the SIS gallery, third floor of Riley Hall, 7-9 p.m.
OFF CAMPUS
Graduate student Halloween party, Grad Club, 9 p.m. - 1 a.m. Costumes are optional.

MUSIC
Dance party, Theodore's, 10 p.m. - 2 a.m.
George Bedard, rockabilly artist, Center Street Blues Supper Club, 9:30 p.m.

THEATER
"Mark Twain Tonight" Morris Civic Auditorium, 8 p.m. A College Fellow event

ART
Fiber artists, opening reception for Joan Livingstone, Lanny Bergner, Armet Couwenberg, Mary Anne Jordan and Dani Morris, Monoe Hall Art Galleries at Saint Mary's College, 5-7 p.m.

MUSIC
Notre Dame String Trio, featuring violinist Carolyn Plummer, violinist Victoria Chiang, and cellist Karen Buranans, Washington Hall, 2 p.m.
Anne Murray, Morris Civic Auditorium, 8 p.m.
Reserved seats are $20.50.
A Night at the Hollywood Bowl, Anne Murray, 5:35, 7:40 & 9:50 p.m.

NOTRE DAME
Friday
"Heir," Engineering Auditorium, 8 & 10:15 p.m.
"Women on the Verge of a Nervous Breakdown," Annenbern Auditorium, 7:30 & 9:30 p.m.

UNIVERSITY PARK EAST
"sex lies and videotape" 5:30 & 7:30 p.m.
"In Country" 9:30 p.m.
"Halloween" 5:20, 7:20 & 9:20 p.m.
"Shocker" 5:20, 7:35 & 9:50 p.m.
"Worth Winning" 5:20 & 7:10 & 9:20 p.m.
"An Innocent Man" 5:10, 7:30 & 9:30 p.m.

UNIVERSITY PARK WEST
"When Harry Met Sally" 5:35, 7:40 & 9:45 p.m.
"Look Who's Talking" 5:35, 7:40 & 9:50 p.m.
"Fist Man and Little Boy" 7 & 9:30 p.m.

MUSIC
Dance party, Theodore's, 10 p.m. - 2 a.m.
George Bedard, rockabilly artist, Center Street Blues Supper Club, 9:30 p.m.

THEATER
"Mark Twain Tonight" Morris Civic Auditorium, 8 p.m. A College Fellow event

ART
Fiber artists, opening reception for Joan Livingstone, Lanny Bergner, Armet Couwenberg, Mary Anne Jordan and Dani Morris, Monoe Hall Art Galleries at Saint Mary's College, 5-7 p.m.

MUSIC
Boathouse Blues, Theodore's, 10 p.m. - 1 a.m.
George Bedard, rockabilly artist, Center Street Blues Supper Club, 9:30 p.m.
Notre Dame Glee Club fall concert, Washington Hall, 8:15 p.m.

ART
MIXED MEDIA by Joan Michaels-Paque, opening reception in the SIS gallery, third floor of Riley Hall, 7-9 p.m.
OFF CAMPUS
Graduate student Halloween party, Grad Club, 9 p.m. - 1 a.m. Costumes are optional.

MUSIC
Dance party, Theodore's, 10 p.m. - 2 a.m.
George Bedard, rockabilly artist, Center Street Blues Supper Club, 9:30 p.m.

THEATER
"Mark Twain Tonight" Morris Civic Auditorium, 8 p.m. A College Fellow event

ART
Fiber artists, opening reception for Joan Livingstone, Lanny Bergner, Armet Couwenberg, Mary Anne Jordan and Dani Morris, Monoe Hall Art Galleries at Saint Mary's College, 5-7 p.m.

MUSIC
Boathouse Blues, Theodore's, 10 p.m. - 1 a.m.
George Bedard, rockabilly artist, Center Street Blues Supper Club, 9:30 p.m.
Notre Dame Glee Club fall concert, Washington Hall, 8:15 p.m.

ART
MIXED MEDIA by Joan Michaels-Paque, opening reception in the SIS gallery, third floor of Riley Hall, 7-9 p.m.
OFF CAMPUS
Graduate student Halloween party, Grad Club, 9 p.m. - 1 a.m. Costumes are optional.

MUSIC
Dance party, Theodore's, 10 p.m. - 2 a.m.
George Bedard, rockabilly artist, Center Street Blues Supper Club, 9:30 p.m.

THEATER
"Mark Twain Tonight" Morris Civic Auditorium, 8 p.m. A College Fellow event

ART
Fiber artists, opening reception for Joan Livingstone, Lanny Bergner, Armet Couwenberg, Mary Anne Jordan and Dani Morris, Monoe Hall Art Galleries at Saint Mary's College, 5-7 p.m.

MUSIC
Boathouse Blues, Theodore's, 10 p.m. - 1 a.m.
George Bedard, rockabilly artist, Center Street Blues Supper Club, 9:30 p.m.
Notre Dame Glee Club fall concert, Washington Hall, 8:15 p.m.

ART
MIXED MEDIA by Joan Michaels-Paque, opening reception in the SIS gallery, third floor of Riley Hall, 7-9 p.m.
OFF CAMPUS
Graduate student Halloween party, Grad Club, 9 p.m. - 1 a.m. Costumes are optional.

MUSIC
Dance party, Theodore's, 10 p.m. - 2 a.m.
George Bedard, rockabilly artist, Center Street Blues Supper Club, 9:30 p.m.

THEATER
"Mark Twain Tonight" Morris Civic Auditorium, 8 p.m. A College Fellow event

ART
Fiber artists, opening reception for Joan Livingstone, Lanny Bergner, Armet Couwenberg, Mary Anne Jordan and Dani Morris, Monoe Hall Art Galleries at Saint Mary's College, 5-7 p.m.

MUSIC
Boathouse Blues, Theodore's, 10 p.m. - 1 a.m.
George Bedard, rockabilly artist, Center Street Blues Supper Club, 9:30 p.m.
Notre Dame Glee Club fall concert, Washington Hall, 8:15 p.m.

ART
MIXED MEDIA by Joan Michaels-Paque, opening reception in the SIS gallery, third floor of Riley Hall, 7-9 p.m.
OFF CAMPUS
Graduate student Halloween party, Grad Club, 9 p.m. - 1 a.m. Costumes are optional.

MUSIC
Dance party, Theodore's, 10 p.m. - 2 a.m.
George Bedard, rockabilly artist, Center Street Blues Supper Club, 9:30 p.m.

THEATER
"Mark Twain Tonight" Morris Civic Auditorium, 8 p.m. A College Fellow event

ART
Fiber artists, opening reception for Joan Livingstone, Lanny Bergner, Armet Couwenberg, Mary Anne Jordan and Dani Morris, Monoe Hall Art Galleries at Saint Mary's College, 5-7 p.m.
The Observer
IRISH EXTRA
Notre Dame vs. Navy
Friday, November 3, 1989

The Game
The Game
Notre Dame (8-0)
Navy (2-5)
Time
Saturday, Nov. 4, 1989
12:10 p.m. EST
TV & Radio
SportsChannel America;
Ted Robinson, Paul Hornung
WYNDU-TV, South Bend;
Jack Nolan, Jeff Jeffers
Mutual Radio Network;
Tony Roberts, Tom Pagna
Tickets
The game is sold out.
AP Rankings
Notre Dame 1st
Navy unranked
Series
Notre Dame leads 52-9
Last Game
Notre Dame 22, Navy 7

ND Schedule
Aug. 31
ND 36, Virginia 13
Sept. 16
ND 27, Stanford 17
Sept. 23
ND 21, Michigan St. 19
Sept. 30
ND 40, Purdue 0
Oct. 7
ND 27, Stanford 17
Oct. 14
ND 41, Air Force 27
Oct. 21
ND 28, USC 24
Oct. 28
ND 45, Pitt 7
Nov. 4
NAVY
Nov. 11
SMU
Nov. 18
at Penn State
Nov. 25
at Miami

Navy Schedule
Sept. 16
BYU 31, Navy 10
Sept. 23
The Citadel 14, Navy 10
Sept. 30
Navy 12, North Carolina 7
Oct. 7
Air Force 35, Navy 7
Oct. 14
Pitt 31, Navy 14
Oct. 21
Navy 27, Boston College 24
Oct. 28
James Madison 24, Navy 20
Nov. 4
at Notre Dame
Nov. 11
SYRACUSE
Nov. 18
at Delaware
Dec. 9
Army

LAST WEEK
After a week full of battling perhaps their toughest opponent of the season—the media—the top-ranked Fighting Irish were just glad to be playing football again. And after a week of trying to preserve a gentleman-like image, the Irish let out all their frustrations on the seventh-ranked Pittsburgh Panthers.

...simply put, the Panthers were in the wrong place at the wrong time. The Irish put forth their finest complete game to date and trounced the Panthers 45-7 at Notre Dame Stadium in front of the usual sellout crowd of 59,075.

"Pitt is a fine football team," said Holtz, holding to form. "This is the first time we played a complete game as a complete team. I thought our football team played well and they played together. It was just one of our days. Pitt had an extra week to get ready for us, but we did have an advantage. The week we had seemed like a good month/"
Way back in 1963, the Midshipmen of Navy, quarter­backed by a man named Roger Staubach, came to Notre Dame Stadium and defeated the Irish by a score of 36-14. That Navy victory marks the last time that the Midshipmen triumphed over the Irish, with Notre Dame leading college football’s longest continuous inter­collegiate series 52-9. Football fans have since come to regard the rivalry as an easy win for the Irish. But not Notre Dame head coach Lou Holtz.

The football game against Navy is for the same amount of stakes as the other games we play," Holtz said. "The fact that Navy almost beat us last year certainly has the potential for a football player to have a lot of respect for the spirit and the tradition of Pitt. And as you're going to play them at Notre Dame, " Holtz continued. "Not surprisingly, one of the year's leading tacklers last season was an offensive lineman. Specifically, head coach Tony Dufutula and his defensive team values the significance of the defense. In one of the key plays of the Game...

Holtz has been pleased with the defense in the last six games. "I’ve always felt that any time you play an academy team you’re going to play them at their best, particularly here at Notre Dame," Holtz continued. "And as you're going to play them at Notre Dame, " Holtz said. "The fact that the Midshipmen of Navy, quarter­backing two fumbles and a lackluster performance, include­droy Domino, who has been the most reliable of the running backs this season, for tomorrow's game. Brooks also suffers from a bad ankle, and he will definitely miss the action against Navy, according to Holtz. Sophomore Rodney Culver (168 yards on 46 car­ries) and junior Ricky Watters (averaging 5.5 yards per carry) will have to pick up the slack with Johnson and Brooks out.

The Navy defense is anchored by junior outside linebacker Anthony Johnson, who has recorded 32 unassisted tackles and is tied for the team lead in sacks with three. Senior Dave Lowe, the other outside linebacker, shares the sack lead with Domino and has a total of 41.

But despite Navy’s effort last season, and despite Holtz’s usual skepticism, the Midship­men are not likely to give the Irish much trouble this year. Navy 12-5 has lost to both Air Force and Pittsburgh, two teams that the Irish solidly de­feated, while the number-one ranked Irish are coming off their most convincing win of the season, a 35-point demolition of Pitt.

The Irish enter the game as 35-point favorites, and the team will be trying to extend its winning streak to a university record 21 straight games. Navy head coach Elliot Uzelac and the rest of the Midship­men will be fighting against two streaks—the Notre Dame winning streak, and Navy's losing streak against the Irish. Holtz downplays the significance of the streaks.

"I don’t even talk about records. Let’s just go out there Saturday and play as hard as we can and hope that we’re bet­ter than Navy on Saturday in our stadium. Other than that, we don’t look at it," Holtz stated. "All we want to do is find a way to beat Navy and be 9-0 and not worry about any­thing else."

NOTRE DAME’S DEFENSE VS. NAVY’S DEFENSE

Not surprisingly, one of Holtz’s concerns going into the game against Navy is the pass­ing attack. Quarterback Tony Rice’s dreary 1-for-7 perform­ance against Pitt last Sat­urday was typical of the offense’s one-dimensional approach.

"I want to say that we can’t throw the football, I’d just like to be a little more productive when we do throw the football," Holtz said. "But we work hard on the passing game. We just don’t throw it enough during the course of the game to really fall into a rhythm.

Rice cannot shoulder all of the blame, however. The re­ceivers have not been entirely consistent either. During last week’s game, for example, two passes were dropped. Holtz has to play new life into the receiving corps by getting pro­duction out of some of the younger receivers.

"We have four young receivers that are going to be excellent football players, they just have to become more prod­uctive," Holtz said, mentioning Ray Griggs, Tony Smith, William Pollard and Adrian Jarrell.

Holtz has been pleased with the progress of the running game, particularly now that the timing and blocking have im­proved.

Rice has partially made up for the poor passing game by leading the team in rushing, and the Irish may very well call on his running services again this week because of injuries to Reggie Brooks and tri-captain Anthony Johnson.

Johnson, who has been the most reliable of the running backs, injured his ankle against Pitt and is listed as probable for tomorrow’s game. Brooks also suffers from a bad ankle, and he will definitely miss the action against Navy, according to Holtz. Sophomore Rodney Culver (168 yards on 46 car­ries) and junior Ricky Watters (averaging 5.5 yards per carry) will have to pick up the slack with Johnson and Brooks out.

The Navy defense is anchored by junior outside linebacker Anthony Johnson, who has recorded 32 unassisted tackles and is tied for the team lead in sacks with three. Senior Dave Lowe, the other outside linebacker, shares the sack lead with Domino and has a total of 41.

Bob Weissenfels, Navy’s leading tackler last year, was unable to win the game for the Mid­dies. Not surprisingly, one of the year’s leading tacklers last season was an offensive lineman. Specifically, head coach Tony Dufutula and his defensive team values the significance of the defense. In one of the key plays of the Game...

But despite Navy’s effort last season, and despite Holtz’s usual skepticism, the Midship­men are not likely to give the Irish much trouble this year. Navy 12-5 has lost to both Air Force and Pittsburgh, two teams that the Irish solidly de­feated, while the number-one ranked Irish are coming off their most convincing win of the season, a 35-point demolition of Pitt.

The Irish enter the game as 35-point favorites, and the team will be trying to extend its winning streak to a university record 21 straight games. Navy head coach Elliot Uzelac and the rest of the Midship­men will be fighting against two streaks—the Notre Dame winning streak, and Navy’s losing streak against the Irish. Holtz downplays the significance of the streaks.

"I don’t even talk about records. Let’s just go out there Saturday and play as hard as we can and hope that we’re bet­ter than Navy on Saturday in our stadium. Other than that, we don’t look at it," Holtz stated. "All we want to do is find a way to beat Navy and be 9-0 and not worry about any­thing else."

NOTRE DAME’S DEFENSE VS. NAVY’S DEFENSE

Not surprisingly, one of Holtz’s concerns going into the game against Navy is the pass­ing attack. Quarterback Tony Rice’s dreary 1-for-7 perform­ance against Pitt last Sat­urday was typical of the offense’s one-dimensional approach.

"I want to say that we can’t throw the football, I’d just like to be a little more productive when we do throw the football," Holtz said. "But we work hard on the passing game. We just don’t throw it enough during the course of the game to really fall into a rhythm.

Rice cannot shoulder all of the blame, however. The re­ceivers have not been entirely consistent either. During last week’s game, for example, two passes were dropped. Holtz has to play new life into the receiving corps by getting pro­duction out of some of the younger receivers.

"We have four young receivers that are going to be excellent football players, they just have to become more prod­uctive," Holtz said, mentioning Ray Griggs, Tony Smith, William Pollard and Adrian Jarrell.

Holtz has been pleased with the progress of the running game, particularly now that the timing and blocking have im­proved.

Rice has partially made up for the poor passing game by leading the team in rushing, and the Irish may very well call on his running services again this week because of injuries to Reggie Brooks and tri-captain Anthony Johnson.

Johnson, who has been the most reliable of the running backs, injured his ankle against Pitt and is listed as probable for tomorrow’s game. Brooks also suffers from a bad ankle, and he will definitely miss the action against Navy, according to Holtz. Sophomore Rodney Culver (168 yards on 46 car­ries) and junior Ricky Watters (averaging 5.5 yards per carry) will have to pick up the slack with Johnson and Brooks out.

The Navy defense is anchored by junior outside linebacker Anthony Johnson, who has recorded 32 unassisted tackles and is tied for the team lead in sacks with three. Senior Dave Lowe, the other outside linebacker, shares the sack lead with Domino and has a total of 41.
Not this time
Irish avoid upset in '84

By VIC LOMBARDI
Sports Writer

Friday, November 3, 1989

The goat couldn't even believe it.
A 10-point lead with just 4:02 left, a chance to erase 39 years of futility and frustration. Would the Naval Academy fulfill the golden opportunity to topple mighty Notre Dame?

"Naaaay," gasped that renowned Navy goat-mascot, Bill XXII, after watching Irish kicker John Carney boot the 25-yard field goal to give the Irish a 17-15 win and extend Notre Dame's losing streak against the Midshipmen in 22 straight games.

Notre Dame's 1984 "Miracle at the Meadowlands" was no roughing-the-kicker penalty on the play and the Irish took over at their 18 with no timeouts and a minute remaining.

Notre Dame had to do was keep Navy out of field goal range. But then the Irish downfield in a hurry. On a second-and-eight from the Navy 35, Bill Byrne hit Pinkett with a 63-yard pass that gave the Irish a 25-yard gain to the Navy 26. After a quick toss out of bounds "to himself," Lauletta took the snap and lofted a pass to a wandering Byrne in the end zone to give Navy a comfortable 17-15 lead with 4:02 left in the game.

Bill the Goat gave the Irish range, but a haunted look. But after 56 minutes of sub-par football, the Irish finished the game in dominating fashion. With the Middlehugged short flat pass that thrice, it was Beuerlein to Tim Brown touchback position, Lauletta took the snap on third-and-goal from the ND two and lofted a pass to a

Washingtonian to the end zone to give Navy a comfortable 17-15 lead with 4:02 left in the game.

Bill the Goat gave the Irish range, but a haunted look. But after 56 minutes of sub-par football, the Irish finished the game in dominating fashion. With the Middlehugged short flat pass that thrice, it was Beuerlein to Tim Brown touchback position, Lauletta took the snap on third-and-goal from the ND two and lofted a pass to a

Washingtonian to the end zone to give Navy a comfortable 17-15 lead with 4:02 left in the game.

Bill the Goat gave the Irish range, but a haunted look. But after 56 minutes of sub-par football, the Irish finished the game in dominating fashion. With the Middlehugged short flat pass that thrice, it was Beuerlein to Tim Brown touchback position, Lauletta took the snap on third-and-goal from the ND two and lofted a pass to a

Washingtonian to the end zone to give Navy a comfortable 17-15 lead with 4:02 left in the game.

Bill the Goat gave the Irish range, but a haunted look. But after 56 minutes of sub-par football, the Irish finished the game in dominating fashion. With the Middlehugged short flat pass that thrice, it was Beuerlein to Tim Brown touchback position, Lauletta took the snap on third-and-goal from the ND two and lofted a pass to a

Washingtonian to the end zone to give Navy a comfortable 17-15 lead with 4:02 left in the game.

Bill the Goat gave the Irish range, but a haunted look. But after 56 minutes of sub-par football, the Irish finished the game in dominating fashion. With the Middlehugged short flat pass that thrice, it was Beuerlein to Tim Brown touchback position, Lauletta took the snap on third-and-goal from the ND two and lofted a pass to a

Washingtonian to the end zone to give Navy a comfortable 17-15 lead with 4:02 left in the game.

Bill the Goat gave the Irish range, but a haunted look. But after 56 minutes of sub-par football, the Irish finished the game in dominating fashion. With the Middlehugged short flat pass that thrice, it was Beuerlein to Tim Brown touchback position, Lauletta took the snap on third-and-goal from the ND two and lofted a pass to a Washingtonian to the end zone to give Navy a comfortable 17-15 lead with 4:02 left in the game.

Game
Continued from page 2
last two weeks than at any previous point.
Shane Smith and Jerry Dawson, who had taken over as Navy’s two main threats in the receiving corps, each averaging over 20 yards per catch, Right end Dave Bergquist sees plenty of action, with both also playing for each reception. The receivers will probably challenge Notre Dame’s secondary, which has drawn some criticism lately.

Injuries may affect the defense for the Irish. The secondary will probably be without the services of Stan Smagala for the second straight week because of his high ankle sprain, and Greg Davis may miss time with a hand wrist. Two other injuries may cost the defense, as Ned Bolcar and Dervin McDonald are both hurt.

Notre Dame’s defense had an overall good day last day against Pitt, shutting down the Panthers after the opening drive. The defensive line was finally able to put some pressure on the opposing quarterback, forcing four turnovers by Alex Psomas. Grimme took 12 tackles for the defense as the defense confined Pitt to 119 rushing yards. The defense has been very solid against the run and should be able to handle Navy’s wishbone formation.

Freshman Craig Henrich has emerged as a sturdy passer for the Irish, posting an impressive average of 45 yards per punt.

IRISH STAT

TOTAL YARDS 3020
Total Yards 555
Yards per Play 5.4
Yards per Game 377.5
Penn State 3 over West Virginia
Michigan St. 1 over Indiana

Other words, it isn’t enough to pick
Each week, The Observer sports
Molly Mahoney

Molly Mahoney Assistant Sports Editor
47-37
Last week: 9-7
Spartans, Mountaineers, Cavaliers, Wolford, Buffaloes, Aggies, Falcons, Tide, Seminoles

Greg Guffey Associate Sports Editor
46-38
512
Last week: 58-35
Spartans, Mountaineers, Cavaliers, Wolford, Buffaloes, Aggies, Falcons, Tide, Seminoles

Steve Magarce Associate Sports Editor
43-41
560
Last week: 58-35
Spartans, Mountaineers, Wolford, Buffaloes, Aggies, Falcons, Tide, Seminoles

Heather Atkinson Sports Editor
30-25
546
Last week: 6-8
Spartans, Nittany Lions, Wolford, Buffaloes, Gators, Mustangs, Muscogee, Wolves, Hawks, Ducks, Cardinal, Bulldogs, Gamecocks, Irish

Theresa Kelly Sports Editor
19-17
583
Last week: 6-8
Spartans, Nittany Lions, Wolford, Buffaloes, Gators, Mustangs, Muscogee, Hawks, Ducks, Cardinal, Bulldogs, Gamecocks, Irish

Paul Greenwald Random Student 583
Last week: 6-8
Hooisers, Mountaineers, Wolford, Buffaloes, Gators, Tigers, Mustangs, Muscogee, Hawks, Ducks, Cardinal, Bulldogs, Gamecocks, Irish

Regia Coccia Guest Celebrity
37-47
Last week: 5-9
Hooisers, Nittany Lions, Wolford, Buffaloes, Gators, Mustangs, Muscogee, Hawks, Ducks, Cardinal, Bulldogs, Gamecocks, Irish

Friday, November 3, 1989

IRISH EXTRA

Brennan

Continued from page 1
He’s too big for a tight end and he’s not fast enough to downfield on pass plays, but he’s got great quickness for a tackler, very solid against the run.

He enjoys playing football

Heldt

Continued from page 3
I switched me rather quickly, said I’d prefer to play center rather than tackle. We have a lot of goals as a around a little,” said Heldt. “It kept me in shape and gave me the right attitude for football.”

But those days are over for Heldt, just like he’d had to put on hold his flag football ways for a while.

“Now since we might not get

As a player and as a student.

and I have a lot of goals as a

As for the future, I try to keep my sights on what’s going today and take care of the

as a player and as a student.

keep my sights on what’s going
today and take care of the

choose the winners and the

Each week, the Observer sports staff, a random student picked by the sports department and some well-known figure in the Notre Dame

community, predict the outcomes of the week’s Friday college football games.

Whoever represents the Irish at each person does against the spread. In other words, it isn’t enough to pick

the winner and give the

underdog points.

Michigan St. 1 over Indiana
Penn State 3 over West Virginia

N. Carolina St. 2 over Virginia
Michigan 30 over Purdue
Arizona 20 over Utah State
Colorado 30 over Nebraska
Texas AM 17 over Missouri State
Florida St. 22 over S.California
Notre Dame 35 over Navy

Peersless Prognosticators

Each week, the Observer sports staff, a random student picked by the

sports department and some well-

noted figure in the Notre Dame
community, predict the outcomes of the week’s Friday college football games.

Whoever represents the Irish at
each person does against the spread. In other words, it isn’t enough to pick

the winner and give the

underdog points.

Michigan St. 1 over Indiana
Penn State 3 over West Virginia

N. Carolina St. 2 over Virginia
Michigan 30 over Purdue
Arizona 20 over Utah State
Colorado 30 over Nebraska
Texas AM 17 over Missouri State
Florida St. 22 over S.California
Notre Dame 35 over Navy

Peerless Prognosticators

Each week, the Observer sports staff, a random student picked by the

sports department and some well-

noted figure in the Notre Dame
community, predict the outcomes of the week’s Friday college football games.

Whoever represents the Irish at
each person does against the spread. In other words, it isn’t enough to pick

the winner and give the

underdog points.

Michigan St. 1 over Indiana
Penn State 3 over West Virginia

N. Carolina St. 2 over Virginia
Michigan 30 over Purdue
Arizona 20 over Utah State
Colorado 30 over Nebraska
Texas AM 17 over Missouri State
Florida St. 22 over S.California
Notre Dame 35 over Navy

Peerless Prognosticators

Each week, the Observer sports staff, a random student picked by the

sports department and some well-

noted figure in the Notre Dame
community, predict the outcomes of the week’s Friday college football games.

Whoever represents the Irish at
each person does against the spread. In other words, it isn’t enough to pick

the winner and give the

underdog points.

Michigan St. 1 over Indiana
Penn State 3 over West Virginia

N. Carolina St. 2 over Virginia
Michigan 30 over Purdue
Arizona 20 over Utah State
Colorado 30 over Nebraska
Texas AM 17 over Missouri State
Florida St. 22 over S.California
Notre Dame 35 over Navy

Peerless Prognosticators

Each week, the Observer sports staff, a random student picked by the

sports department and some well-

noted figure in the Notre Dame
community, predict the outcomes of the week’s Friday college football games.

Whoever represents the Irish at
each person does against the spread. In other words, it isn’t enough to pick

the winner and give the

underdog points.

Michigan St. 1 over Indiana
Penn State 3 over West Virginia

N. Carolina St. 2 over Virginia
Michigan 30 over Purdue
Arizona 20 over Utah State
Colorado 30 over Nebraska
Texas AM 17 over Missouri State
Florida St. 22 over S.California
Notre Dame 35 over Navy

Peerless Prognosticators

Each week, the Observer sports staff, a random student picked by the

sports department and some well-

noted figure in the Notre Dame
community, predict the outcomes of the week’s Friday college football games.

Whoever represents the Irish at
each person does against the spread. In other words, it isn’t enough to pick

the winner and give the

underdog points.

Michigan St. 1 over Indiana
Penn State 3 over West Virginia

N. Carolina St. 2 over Virginia
Michigan 30 over Purdue
Arizona 20 over Utah State
Colorado 30 over Nebraska
Texas AM 17 over Missouri State
Florida St. 22 over S.California
Notre Dame 35 over Navy

Peerless Prognosticators

Each week, the Observer sports staff, a random student picked by the

sports department and some well-

noted figure in the Notre Dame
community, predict the outcomes of the week’s Friday college football games.

Whoever represents the Irish at
each person does against the spread. In other words, it isn’t enough to pick

the winner and give the

underdog points.

Michigan St. 1 over Indiana
Penn State 3 over West Virginia

N. Carolina St. 2 over Virginia
Michigan 30 over Purdue
Arizona 20 over Utah State
Colorado 30 over Nebraska
Texas AM 17 over Missouri State
Florida St. 22 over S.California
Notre Dame 35 over Navy

Peerless Prognosticators

Each week, the Observer sports staff, a random student picked by the

sports department and some well-

noted figure in the Notre Dame
community, predict the outcomes of the week’s Friday college football games.

Whoever represents the Irish at
each person does against the spread. In other words, it isn’t enough to pick

the winner and give the

underdog points.

Michigan St. 1 over Indiana
Penn State 3 over West Virginia

N. Carolina St. 2 over Virginia
Michigan 30 over Purdue
Arizona 20 over Utah State
Colorado 30 over Nebraska
Texas AM 17 over Missouri State
Florida St. 22 over S.California
Notre Dame 35 over Navy

Peerless Prognosticators

Each week, the Observer sports staff, a random student picked by the

sports department and some well-

noted figure in the Notre Dame
community, predict the outcomes of the week’s Friday college football games.
The Notre Dame Marching Band wakes up the echoes wherever they go. Before every home football game, the ND Band gets alumni and fans charged up with a performance on the Administration Building steps. The band lines up and marches to the stadium to wave their arms in the air. In fact, it is rumored that the state of Indiana passed a law which states no one is to come within one foot of a marching band while they are marching.

11:50 a.m. After the concert, the band members go to make the band members laugh, much like the tourists at Buckingham Palace, who try to make the guards smile. Although, the Notre Dame alumni are undoubtedly more successful than the London tourists.

Meanwhile, the rest of the band is expected to remain at attention. It isn’t uncommon for alumni to tell jokes or shout to make the band members laugh.

The Barleycorn offers some hearty pub fare in addition to its drinks. An extensive appetizer and sandwich selection makes up for the limited number of dinner choices. Both the Nachos Diego ($3.75) and the Woodpecker Cider may be worth the trip from South Bend. The Barleycorn Steak Burger ($4.95) is touted by the menu as the most delicious steak-burger in Chicago and is served with fries and various toppings. The “Outlaw” Chicago style chili ($2.50) and Hot Fudge specials ($2.75) for cold Domers on those winter roadtrips.

The Barleycorn also serves drinks including Lagunitas ($2.25), Red Hat and Bringler[$2.15], and the Deluxe Potato skins ($3.75). The Barleycorn offers some hearty pub fare in addition to its drinks. An extensive appetizer and sandwich selection makes up for the limited number of dinner choices. Both the Nachos Diego ($3.75) and the Deluxe Potato skins ($3.75) make delicious appetizers.

The Barleycorn Steak Burger ($4.95) is touted by the menu as the most delicious steak-burger in Chicago and is served with fries and various toppings. The “Outlaw” Chicago style chili ($2.50) topped with cheddar cheese is a favorite among the restaurant’s patrons. The “Outlaw” Chicago style chili ($2.50) topped with cheddar cheese is a favorite among the restaurant’s patrons.

The Band spends a lot of time together in practice. Games, trips, and bowl games, hence, they tend to form a cohesive unit. Each section becomes a close-knit group with their own jokes, traditions, and songs. Despite the time commitment, the band members have a good time.

John Barleycorn best for beer and burgers

JOHN BLASI
accept writer

Se Habla Beethoven’ reads the sign in front of the John Barleycorn, and upon entering the pub one does indeed hear the strains of Beethoven, Mozart, and Vivaldi in this Chicago landmark.

Established in 1890, the John Barleycorn is a fine pub located on Lincoln and Nickel in the heart of Lincoln Park. The decor is the result of the quirky combination of a Victorian English pub and a fine arts gift shop. The walls sport mosaics, paintings and other works of art while the wooden shelves support various sized model ships. Picture screens featuring slides of Picasso and Chagall paintings add to the sophisticated ambience created by the classical music.

The pub is both a bar and a restaurant with tables for diners and drinkers. It also provides a separate room for children. The chalk scoreboards and the cork dartboards are a welcome touch from the electronic games found on most South Bend dartboards. The variety of beverages alone found at the Barleycorn may be worth the trip from Notre Dame. Although, the band members have a good time.

The Barleycorn Steak Burger ($4.95) is touted by the menu as the most delicious steak-burger in Chicago and is served with fries and various toppings. The “Outlaw” Chicago style chili ($2.50) topped with cheddar cheese is a favorite among the restaurant’s patrons.

The Band spends a lot of time together in practice. Games, trips, and bowl games, hence, they tend to form a cohesive unit. Each section becomes a close-knit group with their own jokes, traditions, and songs. Despite the time commitment, the band members have a good time.

The Obarleycorn Steak Burger ($4.95) is touted by the menu as the most delicious steak-burger in Chicago and is served with fries and various toppings. The “Outlaw” Chicago style chili ($2.50) topped with cheddar cheese is a favorite among the restaurant’s patrons.

The Band spends a lot of time together in practice. Games, trips, and bowl games, hence, they tend to form a cohesive unit. Each section becomes a close-knit group with their own jokes, traditions, and songs. Despite the time commitment, the band members have a good time.

The Notre Dame Marching Band wakes up the echoes wherever they go. Before every home football game, the ND Band gets alumni and fans charged up with a performance on the Administration Building steps. The band lines up and marches to the stadium to wave their arms in unison with their thumb and forefinger in an L position while chanting “Lou.”

The Barleycorn offers some hearty pub fare in addition to its drinks. An extensive appetizer and sandwich selection makes up for the limited number of dinner choices. Both the Nachos Diego ($3.75) and the Deluxe Potato skins ($3.75) make delicious appetizers. The Barleycorn Steak Burger ($4.95) is touted by the menu as the most delicious steak-burger in Chicago and is served with fries and various toppings. The “Outlaw” Chicago style chili ($2.50) topped with cheddar cheese is a favorite among the restaurant’s patrons.

The Band spends a lot of time together in practice. Games, trips, and bowl games, hence, they tend to form a cohesive unit. Each section becomes a close-knit group with their own jokes, traditions, and songs. Despite the time commitment, the band members have a good time.

The Notre Dame Marching Band wakes up the echoes wherever they go. Before every home football game, the ND Band gets alumni and fans charged up with a performance on the Administration Building steps. The band lines up and marches to the stadium to wave their arms in unison with their thumb and forefinger in an L position while chanting “Lou.”

The Band spends a lot of time together in practice. Games, trips, and bowl games, hence, they tend to form a cohesive unit. Each section becomes a close-knit group with their own jokes, traditions, and songs. Despite the time commitment, the band members have a good time.
Problems plaguing the image of priests

The recent deaths of two very fine Holy Cross priests, started me wondering. What happens when a priest dies? Does God send his holy angels to the death bed to take back the enduring charisms, which were bestowed on a lad at his ordination, to make him an alter comes to issue them to a new nation, to make him an alter

Father Robert Griffin
Letters to a Lonely God bestowed on a lad at his ordination, to make him an alter

comes to issue them to a new nation, to make him an alter
WANTED: ATTENTION: EARN MONEY READING BOOKS $32,000/year potential. 10 cents per character prepaid. The charge is 2 cents per character per day. Including spaces. The Observer accepts classifieds every business day from 10 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. at the office.
NFL's first-half standouts include several unfamiliar faces

By DAVE GOLDBERG
AP Football Writer

Halfway through the NFL season, the grand old names aren't what they used to be.

To put it another way, who would have thought that Don Majkowski would be playing better than Dan Marino and John Elway and that Christian Okoye would be leading the league in rushing?

In any case, here's an eight-game All-Pro team (sort of):

Defense

Wide Receiver: Henry Ellard, Rams; J.T. Smith, Cardinals.

Yes, there's Jerry Rice, and Webster Slaughter of the Browns has almost 400 yards in his last two games. But the 34-year-old Smith caught six passes last week with a splint on his broken hand and has 60 for the season with Gary Hogeboom throwing to him. Look out for the Packers' Sterling Sharpe.

Tight End: Johnnie Juice Jordan, Vikings, proving that holdouts can step right in and play.

Tackle: Anthony Munoz, Bengals; Doug Riesenberg, Giants.

Offensive line positions are hereditary and Paul Gruber of the Rams or Jim Lachey of the Giants. But the Bucs or Jim Lachey of the 49ers.

Center: Jay Hilgenberg, Vikings.

Okoye is the first Nigerian to lead the league in rushing at 1,300 yards. He's still better known? Bill Maas of the Eagles.

End: Clyde Simmons, Eagles; Reggie White, Eagles.

Bruce Smith started to play well only when Frank Reich became Buffalo's quarterback. Everyone double teams White, so Simmons has 10 1/2 sacks.

Tackle: Keith Millard, Bengals.

Dan Hampton's the other guy in the equation — his value was proved when he got hurt and the Bears' defense gave up 102 points in three games.

Guard: Bill Fralic, Falcons; Mike Munchak, Oilers. See above for hereditary. Add Ron Solt of the Eagles, who came back from his steroid suspension to suddenly give Philadelphia a running game.

Center: Jay Hilgenberg, Bears; Inherited.

Quarterback: Don Majkowski, Packers.

This sounds silly in as much as Green Bay was desperately trying to trade for a quarterback and Joe Montana is still around with a 108.9 rating. But it's boring to pick Montana, it's only midseason and nobody else has thrown for 2,303 yards.

Running Back: Christian Okoye, Chiefs; Thurman Thomas, Bills.

Okoye is the first Nigerian to lead the league in rushing at midseason.

Kicker: Dan Allegra, Giants. Argue with 20 of 20 in extra points and 19 of 24 from the field. Chip Lohmiller of the Redskins and Mike Cofer of the 49ers are close.

On defense:

End: Clyde Simmons, Eagles; Reggie White, Eagles.

Bruce Smith started to play well only when Frank Reich became Buffalo's quarterback. Everyone double teams White, so Simmons has 10 1/2 sacks.

Tackle: Keith Millard, Vikings.

Dan Hampton's the other guy in the equation — his value was proved when he got hurt and the Bears' defense gave up 102 points in three games.

Cornerback: Eric Thomas, Bengals; Ricky Reynolds, Bucs.

Why not Reynolds? Mark Collins of the Giants belongs up here, too. Nobody throws on his side any more, which is the ultimate tribute.

Safety: Erik McMillian, Jets; Dennis Smith, Broncos.

Punter: Sean Landeta, Giants. Easy. Best net yardage (38.0).

Non-Varsity Athletics

November 8 Deadlines

Men's & Women's IH Basketball — Grad Basketball — Club Basketball — IH Hockey — Wallyball — Turkey Shoot — Who's Who in Hoops — Flag Football Drive for Paralysis — Call NVA for more info 239-6100

Fitness Unlimited Aerobics Center

Announces New Student Discount
$2.00 per class*

Low Impact Aerobics: Mon., Wed., Fri., Sun. 4:15pm

HI / Low Impact Aerobics: Tues. & Thurs. 7:45pm

Super Shaping (no aerobics): Tues. & Thurs. 6:45pm

Call 277-6329 for a complete schedule

Fitness Unlimited
Georgetown Center
(next to Shenanigan's)

• Shock absorbent aerobics floor

• Trained, certified instructors

• Great workouts!!

* Full time students - show school I.D.

Bring this Ad in for one FREE workout (1st time customers, please)
Pistons claim they have grown up
No more 'Bad Boys' hype from defending NBA champs

By BILL BARNARD
AIF Basketball Writer

The Detroit Pistons, saying they are more interested in being the best team in the NBA than the loudest, have a chance to prove it Friday night. The NBA champions face the defending Atlantic Division champion New York Knicks when the regular season starts with 12 games.

The Pistons, last season's 'Bad Boys' who won a club record 63 games en route to their first NBA title, are chucking that image following the departure of Rick Mahorn in the expansion draft and subsequent trade to Philadelphia.

"The Bad Boys are gone," all-star guard Isiah Thomas said. "We'll never get that special group of people together again. This is a new team, a different team.

But Thomas was fined a total $2,500 for getting into two fights during the preseason, possibly sending a message that the Piston's are not to be trifled with.

"We will not be intimidated by anyone," defensive star Dennis Rodman said. The Knocks have center Patrick Ewing and power forward Charles Oakley, who promise to lead the NBA in rebounds, to oppose the Pistons.

"Patrick is the best center in basketball," new Knocks coach Stu Jackson said. "He is going to be the focal point of what we do. We'll still take the 3-point shot, but only after going into Patrick first."

Other season openers Friday include Milwaukee at Boston, Washington at Charlotte, New Jersey at Miami, the Los Angeles Lakers at Dallas, Indiana at Atlanta, Cleveland at Chicago, Denver at Utah, Minnesota at Seattle, Golden State at Phoenix, Houston at The Los Angeles Clippers and Sacramento at Portland.

Jackson, who replaced Rick Pitino, made a concerted effort to improve his team's halfcourt offense and defense during the preseason. New York won 52 games last season by making good use of an up-tempo game offensively and defensively, but the Knocks faltered when forced to slow down.

"By and large, it's been a success," Jackson said of the preseason strategy. "We wanted to establish a philo­sophical foundation for the future. I think we got the message across that we're committed to getting better at halfcourt defense and with our passing. But we're not where we want to be."

That's not to say that the Knocks have abandoned their pressing defense and running game. They beat Detroit in all four regular-season meetings by using fullcourt pressure.

"We found out in the preseason we can still press," Jackson said, "and if we don't press for 48 minutes, it's not going to kill us."

Jackson said his favorite slogan for preseason defense dealt with passing: "What you give up, you get back."

Vinnie Johnson and the defending champion Detroit Pistons go up against the New York Knicks in the opening day of the NBA season Friday.

---

Classifieds

continued from page 15

Class

INFORMATION IS THIS FRIDAY! GET a group and go out! HURRY!

Get a real celebration, Meet The Year of Money a campus wide event! Support the Year of Money and go stag!! HURRY FRIDAY!! Get a group INFORMAL IS THIS -FRIDAY- WHO RAISES THE MOST $ ALL PARTICIPANTS GET A FREE T-SHIRT WHERE HAVE YOU BEEN? The South Bend Medical Voice!

DON FEHRS: Nov. 6 @ 6pm in Montgomery RECYCLIN' IRISH meeting Mon. 7. To Jon... and BEER! 8 To Jon our fearless leader! 4. Isn't this against du Lac? 5. It's Joe! It's Joe!! a nun is a really weird thing. 1. It was just TOO HOT!!!!!!!!

By BILL BARNARD
AIF Basketball Writer

In the Dillon Party Room
In the Spirit of Notre Dame, -SATURDAY-

WHO RAISES THE MOST $ NO HALL RESTRICTIONS NOVEMBER 8

KNUTE ROCKNE $25.00 ENTRY FEE TVS TO THE TEAM NOVEMBER 17-19 FREE T-SHIRT DEATHLINE for next day classifieds is 3 p.m. All classifieds must be prepaid. The Observer accepts classifieds every business day from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Observer, 614 Lafayette, and from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the South Bend Medical Voice!

---

The Observer accepts classifieds every business day from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Observer, 614 Lafayette, and from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the South Bend Medical Voice!
Carson is back home after trade to Detroit

Detroit (AP) — Jimmy Carson, who left the Edmonton Oilers 2 1/2 weeks ago and demanded a trade, was dealt to his hometown team Thursday in a six-player deal with the Detroit Red Wings.

Carson, 21, who grew up in suburban Grosse Pointe Woods, and Kevin McClelland came to Detroit in exchange for Petr Klima, Joe Murphy, Adam Graves and Jeff Sharples. The Red Wings also will get the Oilers’ fifth-round draft choice in 1991.

“We feel we’ve made a deal that helps our hockey club,” Red Wings general manager Jimmy Devellano said at a news conference with Carson. “Of course, any time you go out and get a young player like Jimmy, there’s a heavy price to pay and we did. But we’re satisfied we got what we needed and I’m sure Edmonton’s happy as well.”

In NHL games Thursday, the New York Rangers beat Quebec 6-1, Chicago edged Minnesota 4-3, Buffalo whipped Montreal 9-3, Boston came back to defeat Los Angeles 5-4 in overtime and Pittsburgh toppled the New York Islanders 5-2.

In Edmonton, Oilers general manager Glen Sather said three of the four newcomers would play Friday night against Calgary. Sharples is still sidelined with a shoulder injury.

“We’re a lot better team than we were yesterday,” Sather said.

Carson, who was traded to Edmonton in the blockbuster deal that sent Wayne Gretzky to the Los Angeles Kings, left the Oilers on Oct. 14 after getting one goal and two assists in four games this season. He was in the last year of his contract, had asked to be traded to an American-based team and said he would only sign with a team in the United States after his contract ran out.

“We very difficult for me to play in Edmonton in the whole Gretzky syndrome,” Carson said. “I never wanted to play in Edmonton. I had just turned 20. I had bought a house in LA and suddenly I was gone.”

“Gretzky is a legend and everyone knows how the city of Edmonton reacted to that.”

Legal struggle maybe caused Sloan to leave

GAINESVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Norm Sloan had hoped to reach a settlement that would have allowed him to coach the Florida basketball team through the 1989-90 season, but agreed to leave this week after learning he might face a federal indictment, according to published reports.

Several newspapers on Thursday quoted unnamed sources as saying the threat of indictment played a role in Sloan’s decision to retire Tuesday. He left behind a program that has been under NCAA investigation since June 30.

Meanwhile, state university system chancellor Charles Reed confirmed in an interview with the St. Petersburg Times that the tactic was one of the options considered by school officials in meetings with attorneys and Florida interim president Robert Brown. However, he declined to get specific on the nature of any indictment.

“That was speculation we don’t have to live with now,” Reed said. “It’s a legal matter, and I’m not going to comment on it. I think we are on chapter seven of a 12-chapter book. With our own investigation and the NCAA investigation, we still have a long way to go to get to the end of the road.”

At least three other newspapers, The Gainesville Sun, The Orlando Sentinel and the Sun-Sentinel in Fort Lauderdale, also reported that Sloan and his lawyers were informed of the possibility of an indictment before the coach was asked to resign. It was suggested that Sloan and assistants Monte Tow, Kenny Mc Cannery and Phil Weber resign rather than be fired after charges were filed.

The Sun-Sentinel said Sloan would have been accused of mail fraud, but K. Michael Moore, U.S. attorney for Florida’s Northern District, would not comment on whether he would have sought or is seeking an indictment against the former coach.

TOYOTA LEADERSHIP AWARD

THEIR ACHIEVEMENTS SOAR BEYOND COAL POSTS.

DONN GRIMM
UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

Toyota honors junior Donn Grimm, linebacker of the Fighting Irish, as recipient of the Toyota Leadership Award for demonstrating his outstanding leadership in the fields of academics, athletics and community service.

Donn Grimm will receive the Toyota Leadership Plaque, and University of Notre Dame will receive a $1,000 contribution to its general scholarship fund.

As a leader in his own field, Toyota recognizes the commitment that scholar athletes like Donn Grimm demonstrate in everything they do. We applaud the discipline and effort necessary to attain their goals on and off the playing field.

TOYOTA

“I love what you do for me”
Happy 21st Birthday Karen!

Mom, Dad, Kim & Sean

BUY OBSERVER CLASSIFIEDS

---

Easy Goer to race Sunday Silence
Horse of the Year honors are at stake at Breeders Cup

By JOHANNA KELLY
Sports Writer

helped the Notre Dame
the first week in September.

By JOHANNA KELLY

Dedication and expertise would eventually win that tour-

The team's following mance.

Friday, November 3, 1989 The Observer page 19

liness. The team's following performance in the Lady Grey

The Irish opened their season who will be studying abroad in

The women's golf team next one of them and you'd have the winner.

Ron McAnally, who will sell two colts in the 12-horse

HALLANDALE, Fla. (AP) —
Shug McGaughey will have two chances to win when he saddles the favored entry for the

Breeders' Cup Juvenile on Saturday, but he doesn't have the sure thing he had in the race last year.

Easy Goer was 3-10, but he finished second to It True on a muddy track at Churchill

Downs. He still was voted the champion 2-year-old.

Easy Goer can clinch Horse of the Year honors Saturday by beating Triple Crown rival

Sunday Silence and six others in the $3 million Classic at 1

Hollywood Park. He is the 6-5 early favorite.

Easy Goer worked a half mile

Thursday in 50 seconds, with the second quarter in 24.

While the trainer says he will win the 1 1/4-mile Classic, he thinks he could win the $1 million Juvenile with either

Adjudicating or Rhythm, the

Ogden Mills Phipps-owned entry that is a mild 5-2 early favorite.

Adjudicating won the seven-furlong Cowdin on Sept. 30 and the one-mile Champagne on Oct. 14 at Belmont Park.

Rhythm, who has won half of his four starts, finished sixth in the Champagne.

McAnally, however, said, "I think you could put their names in a hat, draw one of them and you'd have the winner." Ron

McAnally, who will sell two colts in the 12-horse

Juvenile at 1 1/16 miles, agrees that "the race is probably wide open.

"Trainer D. Wayne Lukas thinks he knows who the horse to beat is in the 1 1-16-mile race — his own Grand Canyon, the second pick at 4-1.

McAnally, who trains Single

Dawn, who is the third choice at 5-1, disagrees even if his colt did finish second to Grand

Canyon in the 1 1-16-mile

Norfolk on Oct. 15 at Hollywood Park.

"To me, he's not the horse to beat," McAnally said. "He was staggering in the stretch of the Norfolk.

"If he wins, I don't think the calibre of the 2-year-olds here is that exciting.

Missing from the Juvenile are the highly regarded Summer

Squall and Red Ransom. Red are recovering from injuries.

As for Single Dawn, McAnally said, "Off his last two races, I give him a shot. He's a big, long-striding colt. Hopefully,

he'll be in the clear this time."

Single Dawn, who won one of his first two starts, finished third in the one-mile Del Mar

Futurity before his runner-up finish in the Norfolk.

McAnally also will have

English-bred Bally Cove, but because of different ownership that would take him to run an entry with Single Dawn.

It will be the U.S. debut for Bally Cove, who had two wins, a second and a third in six starts in England. He was purchased by Harvey Cohen of Encino, Calif., before his last start on Oct. 5.

Another juvenile starter noted by McGaughey in Nicasie,

the 6-2 third choice who on Oct.

13 won the 1 1-16-mile

Breders Futurity at Keeneland

by seven lengths for his second victory in 1989.

Lukas has won three of the previous five Juveniles. His winners were Capote in 1986,

Success Express, 1987, and it

True in 1988.

Capote won the 2-year-old championship, but was no factor in the 1987 Kentucky

Derby. Success Express and it

True did not make it to the Derby.

Chief's Crown, who won in 1984, finished third in the

Derby, Tasso, who won in 1985, was seventh, and Eye of Fire, who won the 1986

Turf, was fifth.

Two third-place finishers in the Juvenile went on to win the Dew and the 1985 and Alysheba

Stakes in 1987.

The seven Breeders' Cup

races are worth $10 million.

The other races include the six-

furlong Sprint, the Mile on the grass, the 1 1-16-mile Juvenile

Fillies and the 1 1/16-mile

Distaff, each with a $1 million

purse, and the $2 million Turl

Derby. Spend a Buck won the 1987 Turf.

The seven Breeders' Cup

races are worth $10 million.

The other races include the six-

furlong Sprint, the Mile on the grass, the 1 1-16-mile Juvenile

Fillies and the 1 1/16-mile

Distaff, each with a $1 million

purse, and the $2 million Turl

Derby. Spend a Buck won the 1987 Turf.

The seven Breeders' Cup

races are worth $10 million.

The other races include the six-

furlong Sprint, the Mile on the grass, the 1 1-16-mile Juvenile

Fillies and the 1 1/16-mile

Distaff, each with a $1 million

purse, and the $2 million Turl

Derby. Spend a Buck won the 1987 Turf.

The seven Breeders' Cup

races are worth $10 million.

The other races include the six-

furlong Sprint, the Mile on the grass, the 1 1-16-mile Juvenile

Fillies and the 1 1/16-mile

Distaff, each with a $1 million

purse, and the $2 million Turl

Derby. Spend a Buck won the 1987 Turf.

The seven Breeders' Cup

races are worth $10 million.

The other races include the six-

furlong Sprint, the Mile on the grass, the 1 1-16-mile Juvenile

Fillies and the 1 1/16-mile

Distaff, each with a $1 million

purse, and the $2 million Turl

Derby. Spend a Buck won the 1987 Turf.

They’re making all the right moves
Irish wrestlers open season this weekend at MSU Invite

BY STEVE MEGARGEE
Associate Sports Editor

Six years after becoming the Notre Dame wrestling coach, Frank McCann finally has the program at the level where he wanted it all along.

"They are coming off a top 25 finish last season and a Soviet tour over the summer. They have a returning All-American in the lineup. They're making all the right moves," said McCann, whose team opens the season this weekend at the Michigan State Invitational.

"We’re at the stage right now where we don’t have to work the freshmen so fast. We have two time high school state champions who aren’t going to start."

"It used to be where we couldn’t wait to put the freshmen in the lineup," said McCann, whose team opens the season this weekend at the Michigan State Invitational.

"We’re at the stage right now where we don’t have to work the freshmen so fast. We have two time high school state champions who aren’t going to start."

A look at the schedule indicates just how far the Irish have come during McCann’s tenure. When he first arrived from Indiana State in 1984, a lot of Irish fans were talking about the school read like a directory of obscure religious institutions - Olivet Nazarene, Siena Heights, Valparaiso, Defiance.

This season sees the Irish playing national powers Oklahoma, Nebraska, Indiana and Iowa. Surprisingly, Iowa and Oklahoma both agreed to compete at the Irish. McCann’s team does not have the luxury of a bye in the NCAA’s, but the Irish have displayed a great work ethic in the pre-season, according to McCann.

"I come to campus in the morning, and there’s Pat doing some push-ups," said McCann. "He’s just dominating in the practice room, and his work habits have been tremendous."

"He has the potential to be a national champion. It’s not going to be easy, but he knows that, and that’s why puts in the extra work."

McCann also likes what he has seen from Radenbaugh, the only other senior in the lineup. Radenbaugh has an impressive career record of 80-25, but McCann did not feel he had been aggressive enough in past seasons.

"He had been too tentative," said McCann. "He had a good record last year, but he didn’t beat anyone he wasn’t supposed to beat. Then he wrestled nationally-ranked kids, and he kept it close, and if he was more aggressive he would have won those matches."

"He’s just dominating people right now, and he’s looking aggressive."

The remainder of Notre Dame’s starting lineup for this weekend includes 126-pound sophomore Marcus Gownes, 134-pound sophomore Tim Anderson, 158-pound junior Todd Tuzamir, 177-pound sophomore Curt Engler, 190-pound freshman Steven King and heavyweight sophomore Chuck Weaver.

Anderson, who was the winningest high school wrestler in Iowa state history at West Des Moines Dowling High, may face the most pressure. He replaces Durso, the school recordholder for career victories, with only two matches of collegiate experience.

"We’re really anxious to see what he can do," said McCann. "His high school record is second to none, but college is a different ballgame."

The Irish placed second last year’s Michigan State Invitational behind Edinboro (Pa.), which finished as one of the top 10 teams in the nation.

"Notre Dame figures to be the heavy favorite this time, as Edinboro chose not to enter the event," said McCann. "I’d like to think we’re the best team there," said McCann.

"We have the most experience coming back. Michigan State also is improved."

Michigan State and Notre Dame figure to face off as the top two contenders for first place in this weekend’s Michigan State Invitational.

Sports Briefs
Basketball tickets for students are still available at the Joyce ACC box office. Bleacher seats priced at $44 each for 11 home games will be sold until 5 p.m. today.

JACC Court Reservations for volleyball and basketball will be done according to new procedures. All reservation requests must be submitted in the NVA office by 5 p.m. Nov. 15. Contact the NVA office for more information.

Officials are needed for SMC intramural floor hockey. Games will be played on Sunday afternoons. Call Maureen at 284-5249 for more information.

Hapkido Club meets at 8:30 p.m. Tuesdays and Thursdays in 219 Rockne Memorial. Sixth-degree black belt Phil Hong will teach self-defense skills. Call x3597 for more information.

Basketball referees are needed for NVA games during the 1989-90 season. The pay is $8 per game. Go to the NVA office for more information.
Lacrosse team meets Washington College

By Pete LaFleur
Sports Writer

Notre Dame's version of "the fastest game on two feet" will be showcased in an exhibition game Friday as the Irish lacrosse team hosts Washington College at 6 p.m. at either Edward W. "Moose" Krause Stadium or Loftus Center.

It would not be a Notre Dame lacrosse game without freezing temperatures and some form of precipitation. Over the past few years, no matter what the season or where the location, the lacrosse team has had to do battle in the worst of elements.

Lacrosse, more than any other sport, doesn't have the vast difference between Division I and III. It's a fascinating and evolving game. "The biggest difference is found regionally more than divisionally," said Mike Quigley. "We've been lucky to attract good players from last spring's 7-6 team." Corrigan says "promising" freshmen will also make an impact.

The Irish defense, anchored by sophomore Mike Sullivan (13 goals, 3 assists) and senior Mike Steele, who is hoping to see action in his first full season of play after two years of nagging injuries, has been a smooth one for Corrigan.

Senior Brian McGilvra, the team's top returning scorer with 31 points (21 goals, 10 assists) will lead the Irish attack. McGilvra, ranked 11th on Notre Dame's all-time scoring list, could graduate as high as sixth all-time with a successful spring.

Joining McGilvra on the attack line are sophomore Mike Sullivan (13 goals, 3 assists) and junior Mike Steele, who is hoping to see action in his first full season of play after two years of nagging injuries.

The first midfield line consists of the same three players who played there last year. Junior Jeff Salamon and sophomore Chris Nelson join senior co-captain Mike Quigley at the only position not affected by graduation losses. Last spring, the first midfield unit spread out the scoring, with both Quigley (12, 6) and Capano (10, 4) collecting 18 points while Nelson added 17 points (10, 7).

The second midfield line is led by senior co-captain Dave Carey, who scored five goals and an assist last season from his attack spot before suffering an injury. Carey is joined at his new position by sophomore Brian Schirf (2, 1) and freshman Duane.

"Dave Carey would have started for us again this year at attack but I feel he can be a very good college midfielder," Corrigan said. "He didn't have a lot of experience playing defense, but he is making progress. He's the kind of kid who's willing to do what it takes to help the team. He provides the type of senior leadership we need.""

The Irish offense is anchored by junior Dave Barnard and senior Mike Stevens, who both started on an experienced defensive unit last year. Senior Jeff Salamon has returned from extensive rehabilitation of a knee injury to claim a starting position on the crease. Salamon was injured during a scrimmage in the fall of 1985 and played sparingly last season, seeing action in seven games.

Sophomore Tom Duane will be returning in goal for the Irish. Duane started the final seven games last season, posting a 4-3 record while establishing a .615 save percentage. Duane will be backed up by freshman Chris Parent. Juniors Eamon McNamara and Pete Gillen will come off the bench for the Irish on defense.

The return of Steele and Salamon to playing at full strength, much less starting, is particularly noteworthy. The two worked out together in their rehabilitation last year and have served as an inspiration to the team, according to Corrigan.

Happy Birthday
Kelly O'Brien 11-5-89

Have a wonderful weekend!
Love, Dad and Mom

STUDENT Government
1989-1990

Not going home for Thanksgiving?
Don't let the turkeys get you down!!

ND Alumni Association/Student Government
Thanksgiving Holiday Host Program

Thursday, Nov. 23 - Thanksgiving Day Brunch in Alumni homes within the South Bend area

Friday, Nov. 24 - Community Service Project

Saturday, Nov. 25 - Miami football extravaganza at the JACC (15-ft. screen)

Sunday, Nov. 26 - Holiday Mass at Stepan Center

Sign-ups in North and South Dining Halls on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday of this week!!
Don't miss the fun!
Irish come in as host and favorite at Notre Dame Relays

By MARY GARINO
Sports Writer

The Notre Dame Relays are unique because they consist of eleven relay events and two diving events, with no individual races.

The Irish placed second in their own meet last year, losing to Texas Christian by a score of 226-162. Notre Dame consistently swam well, but was unable to upset the Horned Frogs. Fortunately for the Irish, TCU chose to sit out of six teams for the Relays, including the Belles of Saint Mary's. This is the sixth year that the there has been a women's team competition at the Notre Dame Relays.

The Irish also collected four wins during the MCC meet, sporting a 4-0 record. Like the men's team, the women's squad finished in second place at last season's Relays, losing to Texas Christian 226-186.

Xavier, Marguerite and Butler will also be competing in the women's contest, as will UIC and North Central.

"Overall the field is stronger than it has been," Welsh said of both the men's and women's opponents. "Xavier had a good meet last year, and UIC is always solid. The Relays used to be a shootout between Notre Dame and UIC."

Welsh pointed out that Saint Mary's ended their season strongly last year, and this will be their first meet of the 1989 season. The Relays placed fourth in the Relays last year with 112 points.

The Relays will mark the last meet before both Notre Dame swim teams begin their dual meet seasons next week against Bowling Green, while the National Catholic Meet is only one month away.

There is a sense of urgency," Welsh stated. "There's not a lot of time to go. We are only one month away from the culmination of our season."

"We like the Relays because they are fun and exciting," Welsh continued. "It's a good time but at the same time it's a test and a quick look to see how we're doing. It's the last tune-up before the dual meets begin."

Notre Dame home sports schedule
November 2-5, 1989

Friday Swimming at ND Relays, 4 p.m.
Friday Lacrosse vs. Washington, 6 p.m.
Friday Volleyball at Golden Dome Classic
Iowa vs. SW Texas State, 6 p.m.
ND vs. Rhode Island
Friday Hockey vs. Holy Cross, 8:30 p.m.
Saturday Football vs. Navy, 12:10 p.m.
Saturday Volleyball at Golden Dome Classic
Consolation game, afterward
Sunday Volleyball vs. Kentucky, 2 p.m.

Eucharist at the Stepan Center
Vigil Mass, Saturday, Nov. 5, 5:00p.m.
Choir: The Voices of Faith
Sunday, Nov. 6
10:00a.m. - Presider: Rev. David Tyson, C.S.C.
11:45a.m. - Presider: Rev. E. William Beauchamp, C.S.C.
RCIA Retreat, 1-6, Fatima Retreat House

Happy Birthday
Margaret Egan!!!

We Love Ya!
Love the Oops (and Trudy)

Orbit

Our Entire Stock of CD's & Tapes
* Are on Sale!

Just Cut Out Our Coupon and Choose From 1,000's!

* 99 Tape  11.99 CD *

Grateful Dead - "Built to Last"
Trace Chapman - "Crossroads"
Neil Young - "Freedom"
Bob Dylan - "Oh Mercy"
Laurie Anderson - "Strange Angels"

Every Sunday is Notre Dame & Saint Mary's Student Discount Day!

Just show your student ID and receive 10% OFF
(Offer ends November 30)

(Excludes sale items & not valid with any other offer)

Down to Earth Prices - Out of this World Selection

---

Tim Welsh

The University of Illinois-Chicago will present the toughest challenge to a Notre Dame victory, although Notre Dame head coach Tim Welsh admits that it is difficult to predict which teams will be hot and which will be cold in a relay meet.

"We have a little trouble judging how the scarces will come out because there are eleven events. Because of the way the rules are set up, a person could enter all eleven," Welsh said. "This is not a meet that will be determined by depth."

Two other teams that will be competing on the men's side are Butler and Xavier, two of Notre Dame's victims at the MCC meet two weeks ago. Marquette, another MCC opponent, will also be participating as a club.

Wakash, Wayne State and North Central will also be competing for the Irish.

Welsh, Wayne State and North Central will also be competing for the Irish.

"We have a little trouble judging how the scarces will come out because there are eleven events. Because of the way the rules are set up, a person could enter all eleven," Welsh said. "This is not a meet that will be determined by depth."

Two other teams that will be competing on the men's side are Butler and Xavier, two of Notre Dame's victims at the MCC meet two weeks ago. Marquette, another MCC opponent, will also be participating as a club.

Wakash, Wayne State and North Central will also be competing for the Irish.

"We have a little trouble judging how the scarces will come out because there are eleven events. Because of the way the rules are set up, a person could enter all eleven," Welsh said. "This is not a meet that will be determined by depth."

Two other teams that will be competing on the men's side are Butler and Xavier, two of Notre Dame's victims at the MCC meet two weeks ago. Marquette, another MCC opponent, will also be participating as a club.

Wakash, Wayne State and North Central will also be competing for the Irish.

"We have a little trouble judging how the scarces will come out because there are eleven events. Because of the way the rules are set up, a person could enter all eleven," Welsh said. "This is not a meet that will be determined by depth."

Two other teams that will be competing on the men's side are Butler and Xavier, two of Notre Dame's victims at the MCC meet two weeks ago. Marquette, another MCC opponent, will also be participating as a club.

Wakash, Wayne State and North Central will also be competing for the Irish.

"We have a little trouble judging how the scarces will come out because there are eleven events. Because of the way the rules are set up, a person could enter all eleven," Welsh said. "This is not a meet that will be determined by depth."

Two other teams that will be competing on the men's side are Butler and Xavier, two of Notre Dame's victims at the MCC meet two weeks ago. Marquette, another MCC opponent, will also be participating as a club.

Wakash, Wayne State and North Central will also be competing for the Irish.

"We have a little trouble judging how the scarces will come out because there are eleven events. Because of the way the rules are set up, a person could enter all eleven," Welsh said. "This is not a meet that will be determined by depth."

Two other teams that will be competing on the men's side are Butler and Xavier, two of Notre Dame's victims at the MCC meet two weeks ago. Marquette, another MCC opponent, will also be participating as a club.

Wakash, Wayne State and North Central will also be competing for the Irish.

"We have a little trouble judging how the scarces will come out because there are eleven events. Because of the way the rules are set up, a person could enter all eleven," Welsh said. "This is not a meet that will be determined by depth."

Two other teams that will be competing on the men's side are Butler and Xavier, two of Notre Dame's victims at the MCC meet two weeks ago. Marquette, another MCC opponent, will also be participating as a club.

Wakash, Wayne State and North Central will also be competing for the Irish.

"We have a little trouble judging how the scarces will come out because there are eleven events. Because of the way the rules are set up, a person could enter all eleven," Welsh said. "This is not a meet that will be determined by depth."

Two other teams that will be competing on the men's side are Butler and Xavier, two of Notre Dame's victims at the MCC meet two weeks ago. Marquette, another MCC opponent, will also be participating as a club.

Wakash, Wayne State and North Central will also be competing for the Irish.

"We have a little trouble judging how the scarces will come out because there are eleven events. Because of the way the rules are set up, a person could enter all eleven," Welsh said. "This is not a meet that will be determined by depth."

Two other teams that will be competing on the men's side are Butler and Xavier, two of Notre Dame's victims at the MCC meet two weeks ago. Marquette, another MCC opponent, will also be participating as a club.

Wakash, Wayne State and North Central will also be competing for the Irish.

"We have a little trouble judging how the scarces will come out because there are eleven events. Because of the way the rules are set up, a person could enter all eleven," Welsh said. "This is not a meet that will be determined by depth."

Two other teams that will be competing on the men's side are Butler and Xavier, two of Notre Dame's victims at the MCC meet two weeks ago. Marquette, another MCC opponent, will also be participating as a club.

Wakash, Wayne State and North Central will also be competing for the Irish.

"We have a little trouble judging how the scarces will come out because there are eleven events. Because of the way the rules are set up, a person could enter all eleven," Welsh said. "This is not a meet that will be determined by depth."

Two other teams that will be competing on the men's side are Butler and Xavier, two of Notre Dame's victims at the MCC meet two weeks ago. Marquette, another MCC opponent, will also be participating as a club.

Wakash, Wayne State and North Central will also be competing for the Irish.

"We have a little trouble judging how the scarces will come out because there are eleven events. Because of the way the rules are set up, a person could enter all eleven," Welsh said. "This is not a meet that will be determined by depth."

Two other teams that will be competing on the men's side are Butler and Xavier, two of Notre Dame's victims at the MCC meet two weeks ago. Marquette, another MCC opponent, will also be participating as a club.

Wakash, Wayne State and North Central will also be competing for the Irish.

"We have a little trouble judging how the scarces will come out because there are eleven events. Because of the way the rules are set up, a person could enter all eleven," Welsh said. "This is not a meet that will be determined by depth."

Two other teams that will be competing on the men's side are Butler and Xavier, two of Notre Dame's victims at the MCC meet two weeks ago. Marquette, another MCC opponent, will also be participating as a club.

Wakash, Wayne State and North Central will also be competing for the Irish.

"We have a little trouble judging how the scarces will come out because there are eleven events. Because of the way the rules are set up, a person could enter all eleven," Welsh said. "This is not a meet that will be determined by depth."

Two other teams that will be competing on the men's side are Butler and Xavier, two of Notre Dame's victims at the MCC meet two weeks ago. Marquette, another MCC opponent, will also be participating as a club.

Wakash, Wayne State and North Central will also be competing for the Irish.

"We have a little trouble judging how the scarces will come out because there are eleven events. Because of the way the rules are set up, a person could enter all eleven," Welsh said. "This is not a meet that will be determined by depth."

Two other teams that will be competing on the men's side are Butler and Xavier, two of Notre Dame's victims at the MCC meet two weeks ago. Marquette, another MCC opponent, will also be participating as a club.

Wakash, Wayne State and North Central will also be competing for the Irish.

"We have a little trouble judging how the scarces will come out because there are eleven events. Because of the way the rules are set up, a person could enter all eleven," Welsh said. "This is not a meet that will be determined by depth."

Two other teams that will be competing on the men's side are Butler and Xavier, two of Notre Dame's victims at the MCC meet two weeks ago. Marquette, another MCC opponent, will also be participating as a club.
Lecture Circuit

Friday
3:30 p.m. Philosophy colloquium, "What Am I To Believe?," by Richard Foley, Room 122 Hayes-Healy.
4:30 p.m. Mathematics lecture, "Manifolds of Positive Scalar Curvature," by Prof. Stephan Stolz, Room 226 Math Building.

Campus

Friday
4 p.m. Men’s and women’s swimming, Rolfs Aquatic Center.
7:30 & 9:30 p.m. Film, "Women on the Verge of a Nervous Breakdown," Annenberg Auditorium.
8:30 p.m. Hockey vs. Holy Cross College, JACC.
3:30 p.m. Philosophy colloquium, "What Am I To Believe?," by Richard Foley, Room 122 Hayes-Healy.

Saturday
9:30 a.m. Alcoholics Anonymous and Al-Anon will hold a closed meeting in the Center for Social Concerns.

Menus

Notre Dame
Salisbury Steak
Burrito
Vegetable Calzone
Reuben Sandwich
Burrito

Saint Mary’s
Meatloaf
Cheese or Deluxe Pizza
Baked Lentil Supreme
Deli Bar

---

Calvin and Hobbes

"I wouldn't do that, mister... Old Zeek's liable to fire that sucker up."

---

Crossword

---

Calvin and Hobbes

---

Menus

---

Lecture Circuit

---

Campus

---

Menus

---

Calvin and Hobbes

---

Crossword

---

Calvin and Hobbes

---

Menus

---

Calvin and Hobbes

---

Menus

---
ND hockey set to face Holy Cross
Black quick to provide scoring punch in freshman year

By KEN TYSIAC
Sports Writer

The Notre Dame hockey team knew right from the beginning of practice that the play of their freshman newcomers would be crucial in improving on last year's disappointing 10-26-1 record.

Much to the team's delight, right wing Sterling Black didn't disappoint.

Black scored one goal in each of last weekend's two games against Rochester Institute of Technology, a perennial Division II powerhouse. The Irish split those two games, winning the first Thursday in a 6-5 overtime thriller, but dropping the second 7-3 Friday night.

As the Irish prepare to face Holy Cross for two games this weekend, (at 8:30 p.m. Friday and 7:30 p.m. Saturday), Notre Dame coach Ric Schafer hopes that Black can continue to knock the puck into the net.

"Sterling's greatest asset is good hockey savvy," says Schafer, "He's a very heady hockey player. He's been given the opportunity to score for us this year, and already he's been successful."

Black is just glad to have a chance to play for Notre Dame.

"I've had a pretty good opportunity to jump right in and play here. I've been placed with some good linemates (center Pat Arendt and left wing Bruce Guay). I chose Notre Dame because I was impressed with the school when I visited and it seemed like I'd have a good chance to step right in and play Division I hockey."

Black had the patience to wait for a year after graduating from high school before joining Notre Dame's hockey team. Although Schafer recruited him right out of high school, Black elected to attend prep school for a year in order to prepare himself for college.

We could have used Sterling a year ago," says Schafer. "But he's an even better player now. When he gets on the ice, you can tell that he spent a lot of time learning how to play more.

The Irish face Kentucky this weekend at the Orange Bowl. The question remains: who will they play in the early rounds of the tournament? The Irish accept Orange Bowl bids, and then Oklahoma will face host school Saint Louis in second-round action Friday.

It's "Name that Bowl" time again. Meanwhile, Irish head coach Art Lambert says the Irish will create a prestigious tournament for the school, "Our goal was to create a tournament is great for the conference. The Rams, along with Penn State and Pittsburgh, are among the top teams in the East.

Notre Dame will open up against Rhode Island (15-7) who is atop the Atlantic-10 conference. The Rams are one of the top teams in the East along with Penn State and Pittsburgh. The match is expected to be a very good one for the improving Irish.

"We are looking to improve even more," said an upbeat Lambert. "Right now, we can leave the plateau we are on and move up the scale toward higher expectations.".

Iowa, 16-5, is in second place in the powerful Big Ten. Karl Hamele leads the Hawkeyes with 348 kills, and Janet Moylan has 825 assists. Notre Dame and Iowa split their last two matches last weekend.

Southwest Texas State, 8-19, is led by Molly Morrow with 202 kills and 66 total blocks. "If we do what we know we can do, the results will come by themselves," says Lambert.

The first thing we must do is worry about Rhode Island and then take things from there.

The Observer/Pat Kusek

Irish volleyball hosting Golden Dome Classic

By GREG SCHECKENBACH
Sports Writer

Looking to push its record back above the .500 mark, the Notre Dame volleyball team participates in its own Golden Dome Volleyball Classic and plays host to national power Kentucky this weekend at the Joyce AC.

In the second annual Golden Dome Classic, the Irish, 10-12, face Rhode Island in Friday night's second match, following a 6 p.m. match between Southwest Texas State and Iowa. The losers of those two matches play a consolation game at 6 p.m. Saturday with Friday's winners playing for the championship after that.

"This type of intersectional tournament is great for the school," said Irish coach Art Lambert. "Our goal was to create a prestigious tournament here with many of the nation's top teams.

After the tournament, Notre Dame will face Kentucky at 2 p.m. on Saturday. The Rams, along with Rhode Island, 15-7, is currently atop the Atlantic 10 Conference. The Rams, along with Penn State and Pittsburgh, are among the top teams in the East.

Notre Dame will open up against Rhode Island (15-7) who is atop the Atlantic-10 conference. The Rams are one of the top teams in the East along with Penn State and Pittsburgh. The match is expected to be a very good one for the improving Irish.

"We are looking to improve even more," said an upbeat Lambert. "Right now, we can leave the plateau we are on and move up the scale toward higher expectations."

Iowa, 16-5, is in second place in the powerful Big Ten. Karl Hamele leads the Hawkeyes with 348 kills, and Janet Moylan has 825 assists. Notre Dame and Iowa split their last two matches last weekend.

Southwest Texas State, 8-19, is led by Molly Morrow with 202 kills and 66 total blocks. "If we do what we know we can do, the results will come by themselves," says Lambert.

The first thing we must do is worry about Rhode Island and then take things from there."

The Observer/Pat Kusek

Shorter season, later bid date would aid bowl selectors

Notre Dame vs. Colorado in the Orange Bowl. The Irish play Alabama in the Sugar Bowl. Notre Dame vs. TBA in a return trip to the Fiesta Bowl.

The same type of scenario arises if Notre Dame loses to Miami after bowl decisions have been made.

Sounds like an excellent argument for a) a later bid date, b) conditional bids, or c) a post-bowl national championship.

Bid finalization could be put off a week or two. It is in college football's best interest to wait until season finales—often the biggest games of the year—have been played. The games that decide the conference championship, and games like Pitt-Penn State, are often more telling than the early-season success of a team.

The argument for conditional bids is a weak one. Okay, so Notre Dame can go to the Orange Bowl if it beats Miami. If not, the Dirty Bowl has an opening. Sorry, everybody else is already set. Even if two bowls work out a trade, someone always ends up with plane reservations to the wrong bowl.

How about a national championship game? Get rid of the mythical in college football. Suppose Notre Dame stays undefeated and beats Nebraska in the Orange Bowl, and the undefeated Crimson Tide defeats Miami in the Sugar Bowl, or maybe Michigan clobbers USC in the Rose Bowl. Who's No. 1?

The same type of scenario arises if Notre Dame loses to Miami after bowl decisions have been made.

Sounds like an excellent argument for a) a later bid date, b) conditional bids, or c) a post-bowl national championship.

Bid finalization could be put off a week or two. It is in college football's best interest to wait until season finales—often the biggest games of the year—have been played. The games that decide the conference championship, and games like Pitt-Penn State, are often more telling than the early-season success of a team.

The argument for conditional bids is a weak one. Okay, so Notre Dame can go to the Orange Bowl if it beats Miami. If not, the Dirty Bowl has an opening. Sorry, everybody else is already set. Even if two bowls work out a trade, someone always ends up with plane reservations to the wrong bowl.

How about a national championship game? Get rid of the mythical in college football. Suppose Notre Dame stays undefeated and beats Nebraska in the Orange Bowl, and the undefeated Crimson Tide defeats Miami in the Sugar Bowl, or maybe Michigan clobbers USC in the Rose Bowl. Who's No. 1?

The same type of scenario arises if Notre Dame loses to Miami after bowl decisions have been made.

Sounds like an excellent argument for a) a later bid date, b) conditional bids, or c) a post-bowl national championship.

Bid finalization could be put off a week or two. It is in college football's best interest to wait until season finales—often the biggest games of the year—have been played. The games that decide the conference championship, and games like Pitt-Penn State, are often more telling than the early-season success of a team.

The argument for conditional bids is a weak one. Okay, so Notre Dame can go to the Orange Bowl if it beats Miami. If not, the Dirty Bowl has an opening. Sorry, everybody else is already set. Even if two bowls work out a trade, someone always ends up with plane reservations to the wrong bowl.

How about a national championship game? Get rid of the mythical in college football. Suppose Notre Dame stays undefeated and beats Nebraska in the Orange Bowl, and the undefeated Crimson Tide defeats Miami in the Sugar Bowl, or maybe Michigan clobbers USC in the Rose Bowl. Who's No. 1?

The same type of scenario arises if Notre Dame loses to Miami after bowl decisions have been made.

Sounds like an excellent argument for a) a later bid date, b) conditional bids, or c) a post-bowl national championship.

Bid finalization could be put off a week or two. It is in college football's best interest to wait until season finales—often the biggest games of the year—have been played. The games that decide the conference championship, and games like Pitt-Penn State, are often more telling than the early-season success of a team.

The argument for conditional bids is a weak one. Okay, so Notre Dame can go to the Orange Bowl if it beats Miami. If not, the Dirty Bowl has an opening. Sorry, everybody else is already set. Even if two bowls work out a trade, someone always ends up with plane reservations to the wrong bowl.

How about a national championship game? Get rid of the mythical in college football. Suppose Notre Dame stays undefeated and beats Nebraska in the Orange Bowl, and the undefeated Crimson Tide defeats Miami in the Sugar Bowl, or maybe Michigan clobbers USC in the Rose Bowl. Who's No. 1?

The same type of scenario arises if Notre Dame loses to Miami after bowl decisions have been made.

Sounds like an excellent argument for a) a later bid date, b) conditional bids, or c) a post-bowl national championship.

Bid finalization could be put off a week or two. It is in college football's best interest to wait until season finales—often the biggest games of the year—have been played. The games that decide the conference championship, and games like Pitt-Penn State, are often more telling than the early-season success of a team.

The argument for conditional bids is a weak one. Okay, so Notre Dame can go to the Orange Bowl if it beats Miami. If not, the Dirty Bowl has an opening. Sorry, everybody else is already set. Even if two bowls work out a trade, someone always ends up with plane reservations to the wrong bowl.

How about a national championship game? Get rid of the mythical in college football. Suppose Notre Dame stays undefeated and beats Nebraska in the Orange Bowl, and the undefeated Crimson Tide defeats Miami in the Sugar Bowl, or maybe Michigan clobbers USC in the Rose Bowl. Who's No. 1?