East German government resigns under fire

The 44-member cabinet, called the Council of Ministers, resigned jointly, said government spokesman Wolfgang Meyer. The council, led by 75-year-old Premier Willi Stoph, implements policy made by the Communist Party Politburo. Stoph and several other ministers are Politburo members. "We appeal to the citizens who intend to leave our republic to reconsider their step once more," the council said in a statement. "Our socialist fatherland needs everyone."

More than 28,000 East Germans have fled to West Germany through neighboring Czechoslovakia since Saturday — they arrived Tuesday at the rate of 120 an hour. About 175,000, more than 1 percent of the population, have left the country this year by legal or illegal means.

The Council of Ministers will remain in office until Parlia­ment elects a new one, Meyer said, but did not say when that would occur. The party Central Committee was to meet Wednesday to consider further changes.

 "This move clearly reflects the mounting pressure for real democracy and freedom," Brit­tain's Foreign Office said. "The government did not have popu­lar support. They have recog­nized this by resigning."

Roman Papadist, deputy White House deputy press sec­retary, said in Washington: "If it leads to a process of reform, it can be a positive develop­ment."

Several Communist Party of­ficials and three small parties allied with the Communists urged the resignation of the Politburo itself, which met on Tuesday.

Leaders "should resign with­out any delay" to make way for a new Politburo and govern­ment to carry out reforms, said the newspaper Junge Welt, or­gan of the Communist youth organization.

Egon Krenz, who replaced his mentor Erich Honecker, 77, as party leader last month, has said five elderly Politburo members closely associated with Honecker will be replaced.

Return of the measles?
Kevin Kim gets a flu shot as Mike Gaunt gets ready behind him Tuesday in LaFortune. The shots will continue today and Thursday from 8 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. in LaFortune's Dooley Room and in the concourse of the Library.

The AIDS Question
A random survey of 151 Notre Dame Students

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Do you think you have a right to know if your roommate has AIDS?</th>
<th>0%</th>
<th>10%</th>
<th>20%</th>
<th>30%</th>
<th>40%</th>
<th>50%</th>
<th>60%</th>
<th>70%</th>
<th>80%</th>
<th>90%</th>
<th>100%</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>YES</td>
<td>83%</td>
<td>36%</td>
<td>3%</td>
<td>3%</td>
<td>0%</td>
<td>0%</td>
<td>0%</td>
<td>0%</td>
<td>0%</td>
<td>0%</td>
<td>0%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>NO</td>
<td>16%</td>
<td>3%</td>
<td>3%</td>
<td>0%</td>
<td>0%</td>
<td>0%</td>
<td>0%</td>
<td>0%</td>
<td>0%</td>
<td>0%</td>
<td>0%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>UNDECIDED</td>
<td>7%</td>
<td>0%</td>
<td>0%</td>
<td>0%</td>
<td>0%</td>
<td>0%</td>
<td>0%</td>
<td>0%</td>
<td>0%</td>
<td>0%</td>
<td>0%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

When asked if they knew that the University had AIDS guidelines, 76 percent said yes, 24 percent were undecided. When asked if they were concerned about AIDS at the University, 82 percent of those surveyed said they had received or heard of any AIDS education on campus and 2 percent were undecided.

In the survey, 82 percent of those surveyed said they had not received or heard of any AIDS education on campus and 2 percent were undecided.

In response to the question, "Do you think you have a right to know if your roommate has AIDS?" 83 percent of those surveyed said yes, 14 percent said no and 3 percent were undecided. Of those surveyed 36 percent said they would live with some­one who has AIDS, 43 percent said they would not and 21 per­cent were undecided.

Student and rectors see need for more education about AIDS

By FLORENTINE HOEKER and KELLEY TUTHILL
Assistant News Editors

A survey of 151 Notre Dame students showed that Aquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome (AIDS) education efforts may not have been successful: only 16 percent surveyed said they had received or heard of any AIDS education at the Univer­sity.

In the survey, 82 percent of those surveyed said that they had not received or heard of any AIDS education on campus and 2 percent were undecided.

In response to the question, "Do you think you have a right to know if your roommate has AIDS?" 83 percent of those surveyed said yes, 14 percent said no and 3 percent were undecided. Of those surveyed 36 percent said they would live with some­one who has AIDS, 43 percent said they would not and 21 per­cent were undecided.

The Observer / Laura Stanton

Dinkins, Wilder win in NYC, Va.
Associated Press

Democratic David Dinkins won the election Tuesday as New York City's first black mayor. L. Douglas Wilder of Virginia clung to a slender lead over Republican J. Marshall Coleman, who proclaimed victory in his bid to become the nation's first elected black governor.

Democratic Rep. James Florio won the New Jersey governorship handily on his third try in another featured contest of off-year elections envied abroad for its rare and abnormally high voter turnout.

Nelson Rockefeller, a New York state governor, said he would not run for the unexpired term of the late Rep. Mickey Leland.

The AIDS Question
A random survey of 151 Notre Dame Students

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Do you think you have a right to know if your roommate has AIDS?</th>
<th>0%</th>
<th>10%</th>
<th>20%</th>
<th>30%</th>
<th>40%</th>
<th>50%</th>
<th>60%</th>
<th>70%</th>
<th>80%</th>
<th>90%</th>
<th>100%</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>YES</td>
<td>83%</td>
<td>36%</td>
<td>3%</td>
<td>3%</td>
<td>0%</td>
<td>0%</td>
<td>0%</td>
<td>0%</td>
<td>0%</td>
<td>0%</td>
<td>0%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>NO</td>
<td>16%</td>
<td>3%</td>
<td>3%</td>
<td>0%</td>
<td>0%</td>
<td>0%</td>
<td>0%</td>
<td>0%</td>
<td>0%</td>
<td>0%</td>
<td>0%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>UNDECIDED</td>
<td>7%</td>
<td>0%</td>
<td>0%</td>
<td>0%</td>
<td>0%</td>
<td>0%</td>
<td>0%</td>
<td>0%</td>
<td>0%</td>
<td>0%</td>
<td>0%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The Observer / Laura Stanton

Students and rectors see need for more education about AIDS

By FLORENTINE HOEKER and KELLEY TUTHILL
Assistant News Editors

A survey of 151 Notre Dame students showed that Aquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome (AIDS) education efforts may not have been successful: only 16 percent surveyed said they had received or heard of any AIDS education at the Univer­sity.

In the survey, 82 percent of those surveyed said that they had not received or heard of any AIDS education on campus and 2 percent were undecided.

In response to the question, "Do you think you have a right to know if your roommate has AIDS?" 83 percent of those surveyed said yes, 14 percent said no and 3 percent were undecided. Of those surveyed 36 percent said they would live with some­one who has AIDS, 43 percent said they would not and 21 per­cent were undecided.

The Observer / Laura Stanton

Dinkins, Wilder win in NYC, Va.
Associated Press

Democratic David Dinkins won the election Tuesday as New York City's first black mayor. L. Douglas Wilder of Virginia clung to a slender lead over Republican J. Marshall Coleman, who proclaimed victory in his bid to become the nation's first elected black governor.

Democratic Rep. James Florio won the New Jersey governorship handily on his third try in another featured contest of off-year elections envied abroad for its rare and abnormally high voter turnout.

Nelson Rockefeller, a New York state governor, said he would not run for the unexpired term of the late Rep. Mickey Leland.

Song is clever, but meaning is hard to grasp

Regina Cowgill
Managing Editor

The song, off his latest album, "Storm Front," is simply a clever list of people and events from the last 40 years, set to a catchy, fast-paced rhythm. The use of a list of words to describe a period of history in a novel idea, reminiscent of Don McLean's "American Pie," a ballad about music after Buddy Holly's death.

"We Didn't Start the Fire" is a commentary on history since 1949, but it's not altogether clear what Joel means by "We didn't start the fire.

One could guess that the "fire" represents war, but not all the people he mentions were involved in war. James Dean and Princess Diana are two examples.

It is more likely that Joel is talking about life in the world. Billy Joel's "We Didn't Start the Fire" is such a thought-provoking song. Billy Joel along that says something about life in the world. Billy Joel's "We Didn't Start the Fire" is such a thought-provoking song.

Kitty Dukakis, wife of Massachusetts Gov. Michael Dukakis, was in a hospital intensive care unit Tuesday as doctors tried to diagnose her illness. The governor's spokeswoman said initial tests were inconclusive, but indicated the ailment was not drug or alcohol-related. Mrs. Dukakis was taken by ambulance Monday night to Brigham and Women's Hospital after several days of flu-like symptoms, Ms. Lubber said.

Illinois' two U.S. senators are on opposite sides of a dispute over whether a university mascot — a headdressed-bedecked American Indian chief — should be discarded as offensive. Chief Illiniwek has been a symbol of the University of Illinois since 1926. A prelaw student at the school began a fight last month to dump the chief, saying it was an insult to American Indians. Other schools have changed Indian mascots, including Stanford University.

A jury acquitted former child television star Todd Bridges on Tuesday of attempted murder and attempted voluntary manslaughter charges in the shooting of a man at a "crack" house. However, the Los Angeles Superior Court jurors said they were deadlocked on an assault charge, and resumed deliberations. The former "Diff'rent Strokes" star (Willis) was accused of shooting eight bullets into the head of Kenneth Clay and slashing his throat during a Feb. 2 scuffle.

The bodies of three members of a leftist party were found Tuesday in western El Salvador, a party spokesman said. He accused the military and demanded that those responsible be handed over for fair prosecution. Senator Julio Flores of the Social Christian Popular Movement said that because of recent attacks, "our leaders have ordered all party installations closed. The authorities are threatening us, they do not let us operate.

A Lafayette commodities broker, Steven Whaley, appeared in court Tuesday on federal charges alleging he bilked the president of an Indiana farm seed company of $3 million. The charges allege Whaley promised to place orders, but never did, according to a federal indictment.

Mr. and Mrs. Dukakis have a crowd of 1,300 invited people waiting in three rooms in their home, according to Press Secretary Elizabeth Dukakis. The party will be followed by a "nonstop" social event, she said.

Four sons of a Dayton woman have recounted their allegations that she raped them. The boys, aged 8 through 12, finally decided that she had molested them after reading about sexual acts by watching X-rated videotapes, embellished upon what they had seen, and accused their mother. Bazarath was arrested Oct. 17 and six days later was indicted along with her former boyfriend, Richard Tyree on four counts of rape by force. The charges were dropped a week after the indictment when Ms. Bazarath passed a lie-detector test.

On November 6:
- In 1793: The United States announced that it had no more worries about the French Revolutionary War.
- In 1933: Adolf Hitler launched his first attempt at seizing power in Germany with a failed coup in Munich that came to be known as the Beer-Hall Putsch.
- In 1955: During the Korean War, the first jet-plane battle took place as U.S. Air Force Lt. Robert J. Brown III downed a North Korean MiG-15.

Men's Lies show high temperatures.
Panel discusses campus media

By BRADLEY GALKO
News Writer

Control over the campus media in one form or another by the administration was the topic of discussion at a media panel discussion sponsored by SUB Tuesday night.

"They (administrators) won't tell you anything and they don't have to tell you anything," said Matthew Gallagher, executive news editor of the Observer. "There's no freedom of information act.

"(The Department of) Public Relations and Information make sure isn't going to tell you anything that they don't want you to get out," added Mike Wieber, managing editor of Scholastic.

"We're not in a privileged position for information," agreed Laniere Emery, co-editor of Common Sense. "It is problematic," she added, "we can't write investigative journalism on this campus."

I think the University is almost afraid that we will get something on them," said Wieber.

"It's not difficult (to get information), it's impossible," said Gallagher. "because we have no leverage against the University."

"If something (negative) is written of the University, I have no problems with printing that," said Dave Bruner, viewpoint editor for the Observer, "as long as it's well substantiated."

"If we print something unsubstantiated, they (the University) are going to threaten (the Observer)," added Gallagher.

Kathleen Graham, co-editor of Common Sense, also said that they had "no restrictions" on articles critical of the University, "as long as it is well reasoned."

Another criticism of the University's control over the media came from the editor of Notre Dame's newest magazine, Dialogue. Matt Schapp called the University's control over the types of advertisements that publications may print "totally preposterous.

He recommended a collaborative disregard of such regulations by all the members of the panel as a type of civil disobedience of the University.

Other problems discussed by the panel included the competition between publications distributed on campus. "There is a sense of competition," said Gallagher. "I don't know if it's all bad." He cited competition for personnel as the greatest conflict.

"We face staffing problems," added Wieber, "in that we don't get trained people... There are just not enough classes on this campus (that teach journalism)."

"There is also a competition for ideas," added Bruner.

The discussion sprang from the Student Government Board of Trustees Report.

Man scares joggers at lake

By KELLEY TUTHILL
Assistant News Editor

A man jumped out at three women who were running around St. Joseph's Lake Monday morning.

According to Chuck Hurley, assistant director of Security, the incident occurred at 6:15 p.m. as three Siegfried Hall residents were jogging west around the lake towards Moreau Seminary.

The women reported to Security that as they were jogging near the boat house a man "appeared out of nowhere" and growled at them, said Hurley.

The women ran west around the lake and returned to Siegfried Hall before reporting the incident to Security, he said. Hurley said 15 or 20 minutes had elapsed before the women reported the incident.

According to Hurley, Security officers walked around the lakes looking for the suspect.

The victims also rode in Security officers' patrol car to look for the man. Security did not locate him.

The women described the man as a white male, five feet, nine inches tall and 180 pounds. He had curly, unkempt hair, a chubby face with no facial hair and brown eyes.

The women said the man appeared to be mentally handicapped or drugged, said Hurley.

The man was wearing a blue hooded sweatshirt, a denim jacket, blue jeans and white tennis shoes, said Hurley.

Officer inspection

The Observer/John Culver

Battalion Commander Laura Scotty looks over Pat McClanahan during the Naval ROTC Battalion Commander's Inspection at the Joyce Athletic and Convocation Center on Tuesday.
Bush recalls election; gives self high grades

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Bush gave himself high grades Tuesday in the anniversary of his election, vowed to "reform and change" and said he had hoped the release of the Iranian funds would get "underbrush cleared out."

Separately, the State Department said that release of the money was not linked with any hostage. In addition, Bush said he had heard the voice of the liberation of South African rule. Some lines were more than a mile long.

Namibians vote for independence

WINDEHOEK, Namibia (AP) — People waited in 95-degree heat for hours Tuesday to vote in an election that will open the way to independence after seven years of South African rule. Some were injured in the explosion of a grenade.

No serious political violence was reported on the first of five days of U.N.-supervised voting, which favors the revolutionary movement. Namibia's 701,488 registered voters waited in 95-degree heat for hours Tuesday to vote in an election that will open the way to independence after seven years of South African rule. Some voters waited more than four hours at polling stations.

The main election issue was the left-leaning South African government of Namibia's 701,488 registered voters. Some voters waited more than four hours at polling stations.

The main election issue was the left-leaning South African government of Namibia's 701,488 registered voters. Some voters waited more than four hours at polling stations.

Katutura, the main black neighborhood on the edge of Windhoek, the territorial capital.

One line of voters in Katutura stretched for about 1.2 miles when polls opened, and longer lines were reported elsewhere. Some voters waited more than four hours in temperatures that reached 95 degrees Fahrenheit.

The behavior of the voting public has been an example to the rest of the world," said Gerhard Rous, spokesman for the territorial government installed by South Africa.

"Today we are finally burying apartheid colonialism," SWAPO leader Sam Nujoma said in Katutura.

ATTENTION STUDENTS!! ATTENTION STUDENTS!!

NOTRE DAME'S DEVELOPMENT PHONE CENTER
NOW HIRING FOR THE 1990 SPRING SEMESTER

20-30 Student Positions Available
$4.70 Per Hour
Flexible evening hours: 6:45-10:45
All interested are invited to an informal Open House/Information Session at the Development Phone Center (southeast corner of Barden Hall) Monday November 13 or Tuesday November 14 From 4:00pm - 5:00pm

PLEASE JOIN US
For more information, call
Carol McClell 239-7936
or
Mike Brach 239-7241

STUDENT ACTIVITIES BOARD:

Attention Augusta Women- tomorrow night, Thursday, at Center Street Blues Cafe- starts at 9:00 p.m. - special discounts available

Freshmen: tonight in Haggar Gameroom- China Beach Study Break from 10-11

Get your ideas for "Neighboring Talents" going!!
Dinkins elected first black mayor of New York City

NEW YORK (AP) — David Dinkins won election Tuesday as the first black mayor of the nation's most populous city, propelled by a multiracial coalition drawn to his message of social healing.

Dinkins, the Manhattan borough president, defeated Republican Rudolph Giuliani with a multiracial coalition that embraced his message of social healing.

"For a Republican, Rudy did a tremendous showing," said his campaign manager, Peter Powers.

Giuliani, 45, a former federal prosecutor making his first run for elective office, sharply criticized Dinkins throughout the five-day campaign, calling him a clubhouse politician with questionable ethical standards.

Dinkins won election Tuesday night in his bid to become the nation's first elected black governor.

With all but two of 1,967 precincts in, Wilder had 886,475 votes, or 50 percent, to Coleman's 851,484 votes, also 50 percent.

"The people of Virginia have spoken," Wilder told a crowd of jubilant supporters. "Whatever it takes, that's what I want to win by."

"I want to win by." He said that if the final vote total showed Wilder still ahead, "I will congratulate him, but we do not yet know what the outcome will be."

"For a Republican, Rudy did a tremendous showing," said his campaign manager, Peter Powers.

"I would start work right away on the No. 1 economic issue facing our state — the unfair tax that is car insurance," Florio said in a victory speech.

"Your vote today tells me you are tired of excuses. You want results," he told supporters in East Brunswick. "Our campaign, a top GOP fund-raiser. "Tonight we have fallen short of our goals. Sometimes you just can't grab the golden ring the first time around," Courier told his backers. "Friends, we will be back, and our party will be back."

"Leading Republicans tried to view the overwhelming vote against Courier as optimistically as possible."

"This is not the demise of the Republican party," said Joseph Sullivan, a top GOP fund- raiser. "We are not the same name lead him Florio had prior to the election."

Former Attorney General Cathleen Curran, who lost to Courier in the primary, said many Republicans blamed the general election loss on the divisive, five-way GOP primary.

"We had a better message, but we never got a chance to deliver it," Edwards said.

Wilder claims victory in Va. race

L. Douglas Wilder is shown before winning a close race in Virginia to become the nation's first elected black governor.

"I would start work right away on the No. 1 economic issue facing our state — the unfair tax that is car insurance," Florio said in a victory speech.

"Your vote today tells me you are tired of excuses. You want results," he told supporters in East Brunswick. "Our campaign, a top GOP fund-raiser. "Tonight we have fallen short of our goals. Sometimes you just can't grab the golden ring the first time around," Courier told his backers. "Friends, we will be back, and our party will be back."

"Leading Republicans tried to view the overwhelming vote against Courier as optimistically as possible."

"This is not the demise of the Republican party," said Joseph Sullivan, a top GOP fund- raiser. "We are not the same name lead him Florio had prior to the election."

"Leading Republicans tried to view the overwhelming vote against Courier as optimistically as possible."

"This is not the demise of the Republican party," said Joseph Sullivan, a top GOP fund- raiser. "We are not the same name lead him Florio had prior to the election."

"We had a better message, but we never got a chance to deliver it," Edwards said.

Florio wins overwhelmingly in NJ gubernatorial election

NEWARK, N.J. (AP) — Democratic Rep. James Florio, who lost the closest governor's race in New Jersey history eight years ago, breezed to a landslide victory Tuesday against Republican Rep. James Courrier. With 4,938 of 5,845 precincts reporting, or 84 percent, Florio garnered 1,152,652 votes, or 63 percent; Courier received 680,007 or 37 percent.

"I will start work right away on the No. 1 economic issue facing our state — the unfair tax that is car insurance," Florio said in a victory speech.

"Your vote today tells me you are tired of excuses. You want results," he told supporters in East Brunswick. "Our campaign, a top GOP fund-raiser. "Tonight we have fallen short of our goals. Sometimes you just can't grab the golden ring the first time around," Courier told his backers. "Friends, we will be back, and our party will be back."

"Leading Republicans tried to view the overwhelming vote against Courier as optimistically as possible."

"This is not the demise of the Republican party," said Joseph Sullivan, a top GOP fund- raiser. "We are not the same name lead him Florio had prior to the election."

"Leading Republicans tried to view the overwhelming vote against Courier as optimistically as possible."

"This is not the demise of the Republican party," said Joseph Sullivan, a top GOP fund- raiser. "We are not the same name lead him Florio had prior to the election."

"We had a better message, but we never got a chance to deliver it," Edwards said.

DONATE YOUR BODY TO HELP FIND A CURE.

FLAG FOOTBALL DRIVE TO CURE PARALYSIS

THURSDAY

COMEDY NIGHT

Irish Accent 9:30-11:00

FRIDAY

CAMPUS BAND

Boathouse Blues 10:00-1:00

SATURDAY

DANCE PARTY

10:00-2:00

WIN A VCR!

or dinner gift certificates at:

Tippeneaceo Place, The Olive Garden, Edwardo's Natural Pizza, Bruno's, Barnaby's Pizza and Parisi's

When: Wednesday, Nov. 15 at 10:00 p.m.

Where: The Alumni/ Senior Club

(Not need be present to win)

Why: To support Senior Formal

How: Just buy $1affle tickets at:

* N.D. Senior Office
* LaFortune Info. Desk
* Haggar College Center
* The Alumni/ Senior Club

Friday night for a chance to win a VCR, dinner gift certificates, or dinner gift certificates at:

Tippeneaceo Place, The Olive Garden, Edwardo's Natural Pizza, Bruno's, Barnaby's Pizza and Parisi's

When: Wednesday, Nov. 15 at 10:00 p.m.

Where: The Alumni/ Senior Club

(Not need be present to win)

Why: To support Senior Formal

How: Just buy $1affle tickets at:

* N.D. Senior Office
* LaFortune Info. Desk
* Haggar College Center
* The Alumni/ Senior Club

This is not the demise of the Republican party," said Joseph Sullivan, a top GOP fund- raiser. "We are not the same name lead him Florio had prior to the election."

"Leading Republicans tried to view the overwhelming vote against Courier as optimistically as possible."

"This is not the demise of the Republican party," said Joseph Sullivan, a top GOP fund- raiser. "We are not the same name lead him Florio had prior to the election."

"We had a better message, but we never got a chance to deliver it," Edwards said.

Don't miss your chance to win a VCR, dinner gift certificates, or dinner gift certificates at:

Tippeneaceo Place, The Olive Garden, Edwardo's Natural Pizza, Bruno's, Barnaby's Pizza and Parisi's

When: Wednesday, Nov. 15 at 10:00 p.m.

Where: The Alumni/ Senior Club

(Not need be present to win)

Why: To support Senior Formal

How: Just buy $1affle tickets at:

* N.D. Senior Office
* LaFortune Info. Desk
* Haggar College Center
* The Alumni/ Senior Club
AIDS continued from page 1

Tishler said that condoms should be available because health should come before a moral issue. "People should be able to make their own moral decisions," she said.

But he said that there should be an AIDS support group in counseling so that people could share their experiences.

He said that many people at Notre Dame have a "I'm not in a high risk group, I don't have to worry about it (AIDS)" attitude. Benn said that the expression "silence equals death" is how he responds to that attitude.

Senior James Lee, a representative from Gays and Lesbians at NDNSM (GLND/SMC), said that the University could educate the community through the mail and that it would be better to get the information to the students in a more secure manner than to try to target everyone, not just gay men.

According to Lee, the University ought to target the general population for this disease. Said Lee, "Michael Leger, a graduate student and a representative from GLND/SMC.

The group receives information about AIDS in the mail from outside groups such as state health organizations, but has said that they do not receive information from University Health Services.

Leger said that he did not know about the University's AIDS guidelines. "The failure to reveal the document is part of the conspiracy of silence that has lasted for the past eight years."

In regards to the AIDS guidelines, Leger said he is not sure if it is anyone's best interest to inform Health Services of their HIV status. The guidelines state that students should inform Health Services if they test positively for the virus.

According to Leger, GLND/SMC have two "rap sessions" a year on the topic of AIDS. He said last year a Notre Dame alumnus who is afflicted with AIDS has lasted for the past eight years.

Leger and Lee both agreed that the University tries to "skirt sexual issues." "We have to talk about AIDS and we have to talk about condoms," said Leger.

Father Gerald Lardner, rector of Grace Hall, said that he generally agrees with the AIDS guidelines, but especially concurs with the guidelines' insistence on the AIDS individual's right to confidentiality.

"The student's supposed 'right to know' is distracted by the student's 'right to privacy.'" Lardner said. "Whether a roommate should know in the event of an AIDS case is a medical question, up to doctors, and should be dealt with on an individual basis."

"A student's right to privacy should come first," he said.

Lardner said that he tried to remain aware of AIDS education on campus, and tries to see that his resident assistants (RAs) in Grace are informed of important issues which affect students.

He suggested that students might pick up information on AIDS if it were within easier grasp, like at the clerk's desk in individual dorms.

Sister Maureen Minihan, rector of Siegfried Hall, said that her primary concern would be for the individual and their well-being.

She said based on the most recent knowledge about AIDS, she sees no reason why a student could not continue to reside in the dorm. "I would walk with the person each step of the way," said Minihan.

Minihan said that she is aware of the most up-to-date information on AIDS from outside reading. She said that she is confident in her staff's ability to deal with such a situation.

Education of students could take place in the dorm in the form of floor meetings, said Minihan.

If someone in the dorm contracted AIDS, Minihan said that she would work through Health Services to guarantee the best care for the individual.

She said that the confidentiality of the student must be protected.

She said that she would also meet with the Office of Student Affairs and Residence Life to assure the best services for the student. "I am confident that Student Affairs and Residence Life would support the student in whatever way possible," Minihan said that she would also refer the student to counseling.

"I would consider what Jesus would do in this situation," said Minihan. She said that people have to look away from the shame and guilt that surrounds the virus and give the individual as much support as possible.

Senior Cathy Glenn, an RA in Siegfried, said, "I wouldn't feel uncomfortable living with a person with AIDS."

see EDUCATION page 7

Resign continued from page 1

by the end of the week. Two other Politburo members lost their jobs when Krenz took over Oct. 18. The Politburo, which normally has 21 members, also discussed an "action program" Krenz has said would contain sweeping political and economic reforms.

Gunter Krusche, a senior Lutheran Church leader in East Berlin, called for immediate "secret and free elections" for a new government.

About 5,000 people marched in East Berlin on Tuesday to demand free elections and challenge the Communist monopoly on power. Police did not interfere with the protesters, who shouted: "All power to the people!"

AID, the official news agency, said 20,000 people rallied in Wismar, on the Baltic coast, 35,000-40,000 in Nordhausen, near Erfurt; and 20,000 in Meiningen.

Guntram Erdmann of New Forum, the largest opposition group, told the Wismar crowd his organization seeks "peaceful transformation to a democratic state."

On Monday, 750,000 demonstrators marched, about 500,000 in Leipzig alone. East German leaders have been promising democratic reforms and free travel in hopes of halting unrest, but the draft law appeared to satisfy no one.

The travel recommendations eliminating the need for exit visas, separating travel regulations from emigration rules, clarifying the access to foreign currency for trips abroad, reconsidering the 30-day limit and changing grounds on which passports can be refused. It also recommended an emergency Parliament session to find ways of persuading citizens to remain at home. The latest tide of emigration began early Saturday when departures were permitted through Czechoslovakia, the only country to which East Germans can travel freely.

Several hundred thousand people thronged in the streets of downtown Leipzig Monday night in the biggest demonstration for free elections and democratic reforms in this southern East German industrial city to date.

The Heat is On: Environmental Crisis

The Observer Wednesday, November 8, 1989

Call to Peacemaking Week

November 5-10

The Heat is On: Environmental Crisis
Wed. Nov. 8-7 p.m. Theodore's with Howard Ris, Union of Concerned Scientists

Environmental Action Club, Recycling Irish Institute for International Peace Studies

Reflections and Information:
Mexico Summer Service Trip
Thurs. Nov. 9-6:30 p.m. CSC

CILA

Take Back The Night
for an end to violence against women
Thurs. Nov. 9-7 p.m.
Information and registration at CSC

Women United for Justice and Peace

The Observer Wednesday, November 8, 1989
ND receives $422,818 in grants for research

Special to the Observer

The University of Notre Dame has received $422,818 in grants during October for the support of research and various programs. Research funds totaled $422,818, including:

$185,000 from the U.S. Navy for research on the theory of superlattices by John Dow, Freirem (untenured)

$65,000 from the Upjohn Co. for unrestricted research by Jacob Semenovski, adjunct professor of chemistry, and Thomas Feilman, Grace-Bryce professor of chemistry.

$74,000 from Data Trek Corp. for high speed modem research by Ruey-wen Liu, Freirem professor of electrical and computer engineering.

Supercomputing time from the National Center for Supercomputing for research on the spreading of fire and smoke in spaces by Kwang John Dow, Freirem (untenured)

Tzu Yang, Hank professor of Supercomputing for research on the spreading of fire and smoke in spaces by Kwang John Dow, Freirem (untenured)

$24,000 from Data Trek Corp. for high speed modem research by Ruey-wen Liu, Freirem professor of electrical and computer engineering.

Education

She said that she does not feel that sex education is important in high school, because she said that sex education is too sensitive to be dealt with by AIDS.

She explained that in addition to the "pre-service session" for AIDS, she said that education in the dorms would be provided by putting up informational posters that explained what the disease was and how it is contracted.

Senior Gerald Fitzgerald, an RA in Sorin Hall, said that the University should be ready to help students who are infected with AIDS as well as any other social issue. "We can't deny that the problem exists," he said.

He said if faced with AIDS in the dorms he would first go to Father Stephen Newton, rector of Sorin, and then he would take the student to community and believe that the student would want to help themselves from a disease that can kill them," she said.

In general, she said that sex education students are more concerned about pregnancy than AIDS. If it were not for the student, she said that education in the dorms would be provided by putting up informational posters that explained what the disease was and how it is contracted.

Senior Kathy Ryan, an RA in Siegfried, said that if she was faced with AIDS in the dorms she would first go to Father Stephen Newton, rector of Sorin, and then she would take the student to community and believe that the student would want to help themselves from a disease that can kill them," she said.

She added that sex education students are more concerned about pregnancy than AIDS. If it were not for the student, she said that education in the dorms would be provided by putting up informational posters that explained what the disease was and how it is contracted.

Senior Kathy Ryan, an RA in Siegfried, said that if she was faced with AIDS in the dorms she would first go to Father Stephen Newton, rector of Sorin, and then she would take the student to community and believe that the student would want to help themselves from a disease that can kill them," she said.

She added that sex education students are more concerned about pregnancy than AIDS. If it were not for the student, she said that education in the dorms would be provided by putting up informational posters that explained what the disease was and how it is contracted.
"As an analyst at Merrill Lynch, I’ve been given excellent training, a lot of responsibility and I’m always exposed to new challenges."

Jim Karrels, Notre Dame, 1989
Technology/Emerging Growth

Merrill Lynch Capital Markets invites Notre Dame seniors to attend an informal meeting and reception to discuss opportunities in our Corporate Finance Analyst Program

Thursday, November 9, 1989
La Fortune Student Center
Notre Dame Room
8 p.m.–10 p.m.

Merrill Lynch
A tradition of trust.
Dear Editor:

I am writing in response to Kurt Mills' article "Academic Diversity" in The Observer, Oct. 31. Mills argues that the University's support of various ROTC programs is in violation of the diversity of the student body. Learning as much from each other as from the professors in the science buildings is filled with classes on "sapping villages and committing genocide against the people of the Soviet Union." Mills is wrong. Mr. Mills is on a class and he might be surprised to learn that the ROTC curriculum addresses Military Science, History, and professional specialities such as Navigation. The business of the U.S. military is to protect this nation, its people, property and ideals. The armed services count on outstanding young officers who serve their country and who are dedicated to our military. The ROTC programs to produce young pilots who may even serve in the military as a career. There is a heightened sense of readiness so that we do not have to fight ROTC is not about killing and violence as much as it is about training and discipline.

I agree with Mr. Mills' statement that "education should be about expanding horizons and finding out new things." Notre Dame has wisely chosen to adopt that concept by accepting ROTC into its curriculum and presenting it as a career opportunity to those students interested, assuring Peace Studies majors a peaceful study environment.

William Mountford
Off-Campus
Nov. 1, 1989

In failing to play hypocrite, Tartuffe succeeded "brilliantly"

Dear Editor,

I am writing in response to your review of Tartuffe. Your reviewer had one reservation about the "nearly perfect performance," namely, "the characterization of the main character of Tartuffe himself." She writes "it seems ludicrous to believe that anyone could be induced by this Tartuffe." I want to thank the reviewer for preparing me to pay closer attention to this anomaly than I might otherwise have done. I left Washington Hall and was well on my way home before I occurred to me that this "flaw" may well have been a master stroke.

A hypocrite has a many-layered persona. If Tartuffe, portrayed by Gerald Welsh, is a hypocrite, he should be piercing and sick with guilt on the inside. Without at least a veneer of pitifulness, he cannot be a hypocrite. Welsh's Tartuffe, however, lacked that veneer. He was pure slime.

But was Welsh really trying to play a hypocrite? Was he trying to play a person at all? Or was he playing a personification? I suspect, on reflection, that it was the latter. If so, it was a brilliant performance. Welsh's Tartuffe flashed around the stage sprite, like a devil from the underworld, a vice given flesh—but and so much flesh as ever to become a person and cease being a personification. He is the sort of creature Lucifer calls up in Marlowe's "Doctor Faustus," another marcher in the parade of the Seven Deadly Sins. Not simply a nasty houseguest, he is a projection of a moral defect residing in all of us. Anyone who has read or seen Molière's play is bound to have wondered at Orgon's being duped so thoroughly by a sconderlu he picks up off the street. The implausibility makes one suspect a serious flaw in the play. Welsh's Tartuffe, however, suggests that the perception of implausibility is a flaw in the playwright and not in the play. That Orgon should fail to see through a hypocrical sconderlu is implausible; but that he should fail to recognize Hypocrisy in his own household, academic or otherwise—not even when it is paraded in full view before us on a stage.

Patti Sayre
Philosophy Department
Saint Mary's College
Oct. 16, 1989

ROT C ensures academic diversity

Dear Editor,

I am writing in response to Kurt Mills' article "Academic Diversity" in The Observer, Oct. 31. Mills argues that the University's support of various ROTC programs is in violation of the diversity of the student body. Learning as much from each other as from the professors in the science buildings is filled with classes on "sapping villages and committing genocide against the people of the Soviet Union." Mills is wrong. Mr. Mills is on a class and he might be surprised to learn that the ROTC curriculum addresses Military Science, History, and professional specialities such as Navigation. The business of the U.S. military is to protect this nation, its people, property and ideals. The armed services count on outstanding young officers who serve their country and who are dedicated to our military. The ROTC programs to produce young pilots who may even serve in the military as a career. There is a heightened sense of readiness so that we do not have to fight ROTC is not about killing and violence as much as it is about training and discipline.

I agree with Mr. Mills' statement that "education should be about expanding horizons and finding out new things." Notre Dame has wisely chosen to adopt that concept by accepting ROTC into its curriculum and presenting it as a career opportunity to those students interested, assuring Peace Studies majors a peaceful study environment.

William Mountford
Off-Campus
Nov. 1, 1989
Chicago's comedy troupe visits Notre Dame

From this auspicious beginning through to the present time, this small group of funny people has made a large impact on the world of comedy.

Second City and Irish Accent

Comedy the old-fashioned way

John Fisher, accent writer think funny. Think John Belushi, Bill Murray, Gilda Radner, John Candy, Martin Short, Shelly Long, Dan Ackroyd, and Joan Rivers. Think the Second City Comedy Troupe.

The Chicago-based improvisational group brings its performance and its long-standing comedy tradition with it when it makes its stop on the Notre Dame campus on Thursday, November 9. The collection of fresh young comedy talent is one of three traveling versions of the show, in addition to the groups that populate the stage in Old Town Chicago and Toronto nightclubs.

Having taken its name from a derogatory comment about Chicago made by A. J. Liebling in The New Yorker, Second City was started in 1959, the show has remained basically the same. A sparse set, consisting of just a few chairs and a plain backdrop, take the emphasis off the scenery and puts it where it belongs: on the performers.

The cast of the traveling show is composed of new prospects called from the many aspiring comedians who audition. Those who make it are sent on the road to give them experience and to sharpen their improvisational and comedic skills. The road standouts each year become part of the the permanent show in Chicago or its more recent counterpart, Toronto.

The first part of the typical performance consists of Saturday Night Live-style sketches. (This designation is really backwards, however; SNL pieces are actually done in the Second City style.) This part of the performance saturates the history of Second City by performing long-standing, traditional, skin, while still remaining topirical with fresh material.

The newer sketches are obtained in the second portion of the show, in which the cast asks for ideas from the audience. From these ideas comes the improvisation which has always been the lifeblood of Second City. The cream of this improvisational activity is then added to the show proper the next time around.

The audience can also expect some references to Notre Dame and campus life to be worked into the material. Local references and jokes are a traditional part of a Second City traveling show.

The group has been hailed by critics as the smartest and funniest comedy troupe in America can be caught in Washington Hall this Thursday, November 9 at 8 p.m. Tickets are available at the Lafontaine Information Desk from 12 to 5 p.m. and are $5 for students and $7 for non-students.

Accent

Notre Dame's own slapstick comedy

Steve Brown, accent writer

To morrow night at 9:30 p.m., Theodore's has the pleasure of hosting one of the finest comedy acting troupes in northwest Indiana: Notre Dame's own Irish Accent club.

Contrary to popular belief, Irish Accent isn't a conglomerate of guys with brogues—speaking Gaelic is not a prerequisite for becoming a member. Another misconception about the club is that it is strictly a comedic organization. Actually, Irish Accent presents various forms of entertainment, ranging from one-act plays to melodramas. Comedy, however, is the group's forte and it is the reason that the organization has been so well received since its creation.

Irish Accent was started in January of last year by present sophomores Doug Herberle and Tim Farish. They held auditions and decided on forming a standing troupe of 14 members (seven guys and seven girls). In their opening season, the group presented three one-act plays, which for the most part, according to Herberle, were "comedies with serious under tones." Each performance was followed by improvisational humor, with various members of the club doing off-the-cuff sketches. This tended to give them the reputation of being a comedy group, but no one was complaining. With each successive show Irish Accent grew in popularity; each performance received a better reception than the one before.

The group established itself so well in its fledging year that this year both Theodore's and the S.U.B. contacted them to perform. This Thursday at Theodore's, the group will be presenting improvisation and skit-comedy in the Saturday Night Live tradition. But, later this year, the club will attempt to shatter its strictly comedic stereotype by presenting a catered (that means real food) dinner-theater-type melodrama in one of the dining halls, a first at Notre Dame.

According to President Doug Herberle, this ground-breaking attitude is what makes Irish Accent unique and popular. He says that because no other organization at Notre Dame has ever attempted this sort of comedy "acting, people appreciate it as something new and exciting." In fact, the group is so unique that it has received invitations from a number of area universities, and will probably begin local touring within the next few years.

In addition to being new and exciting, Irish Accent also showcases some good old-fashioned slapstick comedy. One of their more famous skits is called "The History of..." Members of the audience select a subject that they want to know the history of—say, for example, Notre Dame's infamous "meatless cheeseburgers." Then, four members of the troupe intermittently try to expound upon the origins of the topic. The results are different every time, and can be side-splitting. If this sounds like it would be funny, imagine how hilarious it would be in person. Check out Irish Accent, ND's rising sons of comedic acting, this Thursday night at Theodore's. The show starts at 9:30 p.m. and usually runs for about an hour and a half. It could just be one of the funniest "hour and a halves" of your life!
LOST: Weekend of Pitt game - ring with inscription JKB to JMR (LOFTUS). Saturday morning. All fields. Free info. Write IJC, PO BOX 52-Corona Del Mar CA 92625.

LOST: Ladies CORVAIR BIKE. Any info—no questions asked!—please call 287-4082.

LOST: Mickey mouse key chain - identify at #4828!

LOST: Weekend of Pitt game - ring with inscription JKB to JMR (LOFTUS). Saturday morning. All fields. Free info. Write IJC, PO BOX 52-Corona Del Mar CA 92625.

Lost: Weekend of Pitt game - ring with inscription JKB to JMR (LOFTUS). Saturday morning. All fields. Free info. Write IJC, PO BOX 52-Corona Del Mar CA 92625.
WE'VE MADE BUYING A COMPUTER A LITTLE MORE DOWN TO EARTH

Not only is it simple to use a Macintosh computer, it is easy to own one, too. As a student at Notre Dame, you can own a computer right now thanks to The Macintosh Financing Program for Higher Education.

The program provides special low-interest loans designed exclusively for parents of full-time graduate or undergraduate students and for eligible self-supporting students. Mac is what you make it and by choosing the Macintosh Financing Program for Higher Education, you could make it yours.

Two repayment options are offered - the Standard Payment Plan and the Deferred Payment Plan. As a student, you could have a Mac for $30 a month for up to four years.

For further information, visit the Notre Dame Computer Store open Monday through Friday, 9:00-5:00. #239-7477 however!

The Macintosh Financing Program for Higher Education isn't the only way you can own a Mac. On November 15, any student or faculty member will be eligible to win a Macintosh SE. You just have to visit Theodore's on the 15th and enter the Macintosh Raffle and you could leave with a brand new Mac. In addition to the food and drink, representatives from Macintosh software companies will be present for your learning pleasure. Whether it is Arts & Letters, Business, Science, Architecture, Engineering, or personal use, Mac is what you make it.

Raffle tickets are being mailed to you and may also be obtained at the dining halls this week. Join us on November 15 at 7:00 p.m. and remember to bring your raffle ticket.

Mac is what you make it

© 1989 Apple Computer, Inc. Apple, the Apple logo, and Macintosh are registered trademarks of Apple Computer, Inc.
Miami facing do-or-die road test

CORAL GABLES, Fla. (AP) — The Miami Hurricanes hope to climb back into contention for the national championship Saturday with a victory at Pittsburgh.

"The significance of this game for us in 1989 is unbelievable," Coach Dennis Erickson said Tuesday. "It's a big game, probably bigger than a lot of people think. My stomach bothers me a little more this week."

Miami and Pitt both suffered their only defeat Oct. 28. No. 4 Pittsburgh (5-1-1) was beaten by top-ranked Notre Dame 45-7, while No. 7 Miami (7-1) lost at Florida State 24-10.

Volley

continued from page 20

on the collegiate level for the first time.

"I've been impressed with the play of both of them. But when you have young players like sophomores Chris Choquette and Jennifer Slosar still coming into their own, you hope that a lot of people think. My stomach bothers me a little more this week."

After playing at Pitt, the Hurricanes finish their season at home against San Diego State and Notre Dame. Victories in all three games probably would boost Miami back into the top five going into the bowl games.

Craig Erickson likely will carry much of the load, but the team's only seniors—Cunningham and setter Taryn Collins—continue to deliver steady performances.

Both were brought home all-tournament honors in the Golden Dome Classic as Cunningham contributed 15 kills, 14 total blocks and 27 digs and Collins recorded 93 assists, 19 digs, five kills and three service aces for the tournament.

Lambert will be looking for a team effort to tally this season's second win over the 9-17 Wildcats.

Northwestern, led by Shelley Brzozowski's 342 kills and 311 digs, will try to neutralize Notre Dame's hopes of improving its 11-14 record.

Stacey Kammes, who has 286 kills thus far in the season, will team with setter Caret Nostrant in the Wildcat offensive attack.

"We just have to keep hammering away and playing the way we are capable of playing," Lambert said. "I know the team is tired of losing."

"They guys with the Heisman buildup at one time or another have disapstart at quarterback Saturday for the first time since suffering a broken knuckle on his passing hand in a game Sept. 30. Erickson came off the bench in Saturday's 40-10 victory over East Carolina and passed for 173 yards in two quarters.

"Craig will work with the first group most of the time" in practice this week, Coach Erickson said. "Unless he doesn't perform physically the way he's capable, he'll be the starter."

Freshman Gino Torretta started Miami's past four games, including the loss to Florida State.

IRISH ACCENT

-Notre Dame's Comedy Improv Group-

THURSDAY 9:30

Not going home for Thanksgiving?
Don't let the turkeys get you down!!

ND Alumni Association/Student Government
Thanksgiving Holiday Host Program

Thursday, Nov. 23 - Thanksgiving Day Brunch in Alumni homes within the South Bend area

Friday, Nov. 24 - Community Service Project

Saturday, Nov. 25 - Miami football extravaganza at the IACC (15-ft. screen)

Sunday, Nov. 26 - Holiday Mass at Stepan Center

Sign-ups in North and South Dining Halls on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday of this week!! Don't miss the fun!
NEW YORK (AP) — For Gregg Olson, it was just too bad his last game wasn't as good as his first 63.

Olson was the relief pitcher who led Baltimore to the one of the greatest turnarounds in baseball history, was voted American League Rookie of the Year on Tuesday.

Still, the memories linger from the last Friday night of the season. The Orioles went into Toronto for a three-game series trailing the Blue Jays by 9 1/2 games.

"It was one of those things," Olson said. "Who's to say if I didn't blow away and allowed the tying run to score with two outs.

"It was one of those things," Olson said. "Who's to say if I had made the pitch he wouldn't have hit it?"

The Blue Jays went on to win the 11th inning, then won the next day to take the title.

Baltimore finished with an 87-75 record, 33 more victories than it had in 1988. It matched the second-greatest improvement in history behind the 1903 New York Giants.

"We had such a great season," Olson said. "We didn't think those two games...

...It was like we choked up and gave away those games, Olson said. "We fought until the end."

Olson got 26 first-place votes for 136 points. Kansas City Royals pitcher Tom Gordon (17-9, 3.64 ERA) got one first, two second, and every one-yard gain, showing only the drives, interceptions, large gains, etc. kickoff, punts, and insignificant drives are omitted for the sake of brevity. By doing so, however, the program loses any hopes of showing the real American football to the foreign audience; the show is almost reduced to a demonstration of acrobatics in the NFL.

It also seemed as if the producers of the show went out of their way to enforce the American stereotype; the introduction sequence of the show consists of loud, powerful music punctuated by a ridiculous ambulance siren at the end. Also, even though most of the action is cut out, the producers found plenty of time to devote to injured linemen sprawled on the field, harrowing painful expressions on their faces.

The problem that the producers are faced with gets back to the age-old dilemma in communications of giving the public what it "wants" rather than what it "needs." If the program included every punt, every time-out, and every one-yard gain, showing only the spectacular passes, catches and tackles doesn't teach a fan much about the game itself, which really limits the depth the coverage can take. It's a catch-22, and for all the American complaints regarding the poor quality of NFL coverage by British TV, one need only look to the reciprocation of American media covering British sports, which is almost nil. At least the British are trying.

A view of the NFL from London

LONDON

Surrounded by all that is different and foreign on another continent, sometimes a reminder of American culture is refreshing.

One ritual which several students enjoy on any given night is to gather around the TV to watch American football. This program will necessarily associate American football with Mick Luckhurst. This seems hardly appropriate; its rather like associating Ronald Reagan with Notre Dame, or Nancy Reagan with astronomy.

In addition, the program is annoyingly confusing. The British would-be American football fan must be helplessly bewildered by the complete disregard for continuity in the editing. Rather than show the whole game, the editors show only the highlights: scoring drives, interceptions, large gains, etc. Kickoffs, punts, and insignificant drives are omitted for the sake of brevity. By doing so, however, the program loses any hopes of showing the real American football to the foreign audience; the show is almost reduced to a demonstration of acrobatics in the NFL.

It also seemed as if the producers of the show went out of their way to enforce the American stereotype; the introduction sequence of the show consists of loud, powerful music punctuated by a ridiculous ambulance siren at the end. Also, even though most of the action is cut out, the producers found plenty of time to devote to injured linemen sprawled on the field, harrowing painful expressions on their faces.

The problem that the producers are faced with gets back to the age-old dilemma in communications of giving the public what it "wants" rather than what it "needs." If the program included every punt, every time-out, and every one-yard gain, showing only the spectacular passes, catches and tackles doesn't teach a fan much about the game itself, which really limits the depth the coverage can take. It's a catch-22, and for all the American complaints regarding the poor quality of NFL coverage by British TV, one need only look to the reciprocation of American media covering British sports, which is almost nil. At least the British are trying.

A VCR and trophy go to the “Greekest” dorms!
Fresno State mentor gives credit to players

FRESNO, Calif. (AP) — Jim Sweeney's Irish ancestry won't let him completely discount an influence from leprechauns in keeping his 24th-ranked Fresno State team undefeated, but he prefers to credit the skills of his players for their success.

The Bulldogs rolled up eight easy victories over largely untested opponents to reach the Top 25, then nearly fell from the undefeated and untied ranks Saturday.

After San Jose State scored in the closing minutes, cutting Fresno's lead to 31-30, the snap from center for the extra point that would have tied the score dribbled along the turf, and the holder frantically threw a pass that a Bulldogs' defender knocked down.

Sweeney, who called the bad snap "the biggest break in my coaching career," felt his team's reputation for blocking kicks may have made the center nervous.

"It was more than just the leprechauns," Sweeney said. "We were a very fortunate team to be able to be the victims of that mistake."

The unbeaten Bulldogs, the Big West Conference title and their second straight appearance in the California Bowl, held annually at their stadium.

Sweeney isn't worried that the players will have a letdown after Saturday's emotional ending or will start looking ahead to the Dec. 9 bowl in-

1) The victory gave the Bulldogs their first regular-season record from last season and beat the club that shared the West's second-longest, behind Notre Dame's 21, and the Bulldogs are among only four Division I teams unbeaten this season. In addition to Notre Dame, the others are Colorado and Alabama.

Sweeney describes his players as "extremely confident" with excellent team speed.

"They don't stay blocked, and they swarm on defense," he said. "They use the element of desire about as well as it's ever been used here."

Some of the key performers will return next season — tail¬

back Aaron Graver, the nation's 10th-leading rusher with 1,061 yards, quarterback Mark Barsotti, who has thrown for 1,489 yards and 14 touch¬ downs, and linebacker Ron Cox, who has 83 tackles, 22 1/2 sacks and is one of five finalists for the Butkus Award honoring college football's best linebacker.

"We worked hard this season to be in the top five," Cox said.

Playoff continued from page 20

Fullback Mark Ross, whose slashing rushing performance hasn't been stopped in forever, kept the Maroons defense off balance all afternoon, accounted for the next Alumni score, smashing into the end zone for a touchdown to increase the margin.

The final score of the day came when Alumni quarterback Jim Passinault hit tight end Darryl LeBeau returned an interception 65 yards for a touchdown.

The battle was one of the best the season, with both teams close to 50 percent in yardage for the day.

The Bulldogs' perfect record this year follows a 10-2 mark in 1988, climaxied by a 35-30 California Bowl victory over Western Michigan.

"I'm working on a strong performance in the final two minutes of an opening-night loss to the New York Nets, the Magic mastered a lead for the final 7:06 against the New York Knicks on Monday for their first regular-season victory."

We're going to enjoy this, but we're not going to get too high a head about ourselves," veteran center Dave Corzine said. "This is just the second game of the year."

But in beating the Knicks 118-110, Orlando did clear a big hurdle before playing its first road game at Cleveland Wednesday night and begin¬ ning a stretch of six games in nine days Friday against the Detroit Pistons.

"For maybe the first time this season (excluding preseason), we played our game for 48 min¬ utes and we got contributions from all 12 guys," Coach Matt Guokas said. "When that happens, we're going to win."

Reggie Theus led Orlando with 24 points and the Magic scored its last 10 points on perfect free-throw shooting in the final 93 seconds to hold off the defending Atlantic Division champions.

The Magic outshot New York from the field, 50.5 percent to 43.8 percent, and outrebounded the Knicks for a 54-40 advantage in rebound¬ ing.

The victory gave the Magic (1-1) the quickest start among the four expansion franchises awarded in April 1987. Charlotte won in its third game, while Miami lost its NBA record 17 in a row at the start of last season.

The Observer Wednesday, November 8, 1989

Magic still celebrating first victory

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) — Orlando lost to the team with the NBA's fifth-worst record from last season and beat the club that shared the West's second-longest, behind Notre Dame's 21, and the Bulldogs are among only four Division I teams unbeaten this season. In addition to Notre Dame, the others are Colorado and Alabama.

Sweeney describes his players as "extremely confident" with excellent team speed.

"They don't stay blocked, and they swarm on defense," he said. "They use the element of desire about as well as it's ever been used here."

Some of the key performers will return next season — tail¬

back Aaron Graver, the nation's 10th-leading rusher with 1,061 yards, quarterback Mark Barsotti, who has thrown for 1,489 yards and 14 touch¬ downs, and linebacker Ron Cox, who has 83 tackles, 22 1/2 sacks and is one of five finalists for the Butkus Award honoring college football's best linebacker.

"We worked hard this season to be in the top five," Cox said.

Playoff continued from page 20

Fullback Mark Ross, whose slashing rushing performance has kept the Maroons defense off balance all afternoon, accounted for the next Alumni score, smashing into the end zone for a touchdown to increase the margin.

The final score of the day came when Alumni quarterback Jim Passinault hit tight end Darryl LeBeau returned an interception 65 yards for a touchdown.

The battle was one of the best the season, with both teams close to 50 percent in yardage for the day.

The Bulldogs' perfect record this year follows a 10-2 mark in 1988, climaxied by a 35-30 California Bowl victory over Western Michigan.

"I'm working on a strong performance in the final two minutes of an opening-night loss to the New York Nets, the Magic mastered a lead for the final 7:06 against the New York Knicks on Monday for their first regular-season victory."

We're going to enjoy this, but we're not going to get too high a head about ourselves," veteran center Dave Corzine said. "This is just the second game of the year."

But in beating the Knicks 118-110, Orlando did clear a big hurdle before playing its first road game at Cleveland Wednesday night and begin¬ ning a stretch of six games in nine days Friday against the Detroit Pistons.

"For maybe the first time this season (excluding preseason), we played our game for 48 min¬utes and we got contributions from all 12 guys," Coach Matt Guokas said. "When that happens, we're going to win."

Reggie Theus led Orlando with 24 points and the Magic scored its last 10 points on perfect free-throw shooting in the final 93 seconds to hold off the defending Atlantic Division champions.

The Magic outshot New York from the field, 50.5 percent to 43.8 percent, and outrebounded the Knicks for a 54-40 advantage in rebound¬

ing.

The victory gave the Magic (1-1) the quickest start among the four expansion franchises awarded in April 1987. Charlotte won in its third game, while Miami lost its NBA record 17 in a row at the start of last season.
Illinois, Michigan prepare for Saturday's Big Ten showdown

CHAMPAIGN, III. (AP) — They have identical overall records, identical conference records and identical goals: the Rose Bowl.

After Saturday, someone will have an edge.

No. 3 Michigan and No. 8 Illinois — Big Ten mortal enemies — meet this weekend in a game that likely will decide the conference championship.

Both teams are 7-1, 5-0 in the Big Ten.

And both coaches sum up the game's importance pretty much the same way.

Illinois' John Mackovic said the winner will have the "inside track" to be the league's representative at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif.

Michigan's Bo Schembechler says: "If we can win this game, we have a great shot at the championship. It's going to be a very big game."

Kirkoff will be 2:30 p.m. CST, and a sellout crowd of more than 73,000 is expected.

"I'd expect a hard-hitting game. ... A lot of rock 'em, sock 'em football," Mackovic said.

Schembechler says each offensive unit is too good for the other to "shut them down cold."

"They're not ranked No. 3 in the nation by mistake," Mackovic said of his opponent, the defending Big Ten champion.

Illinois, which relies more on defense than Michigan, beat Iowa 31-7 last weekend; Michigan defeated Purdue 42-27.

Illinois quarterback Jeff George has completed 161 of 262 passes for 1,673 yards and 11 touchdowns. He has been intercepted nine times. George's top receiver is Mike Bellamy, who has 58 catches for 537 yards and four TDs.

Bellamy has some ideas of his own about this weekend.

"We're prepared to go to the Rose Bowl and Michigan is just another step in that direction," he said.

Michigan quarterback Michael Taylor has completed 35 of 52 passes for 512 yards and six touchdowns, while being intercepted once.

Tony Boles leads the Wolverines' strong ground attack, while the Illini offense mixes the run effectively with the pass.

Howard Griffith leads the Illinois rushing attack with 550 yards and four touchdowns. Leroy Hoard has 102 carries for 455 yards and four TDs.

Mackovic said it will be important for the Illinois defense to limit the Michigan rushing attack, while the Illini offense mixes the run effectively with the pass.

The teams were in a similar position last season, but Michigan shocked Illinois 38-9 at Ann Arbor. That has no bearing on this game, Mackovic said.

"We're light years ahead of last year," he said. "We've worked hard to get into this position."

TEMPE, Ariz. (AP) — Fiesta Bowl officials say they will consider challenging the agreement between the Big Ten and Pac-10 conferences by offering an invitation to Michigan if the third-ranked Wolverines lose to No. 9 Illinois on Saturday.

The winner likely will win the Big Ten title and face the Pac-10 champion in the Rose Bowl on Jan. 1 in Pasadena, Calif.

Don Meyers, the chairman of the Fiesta's selection committee, said Monday that his bowl may challenge the policy that prohibits Big Ten and Pac-10 teams from playing in the Fiesta Bowl.

When the Rose Bowl switched television contracts from NBC to ABC last year and the Fiesta Bowl moved its starting time on NBC to compete with the Rose, both conferences agreed that its teams would avoid a conflict and not accept a Fiesta Bowl invitation.

But Meyers told The Arizona Republic that the Fiesta Bowl is prepared to go after the Wolverine, if the Wolverines would accept a bid.

"We're prepared to go to the Rose Bowl and Michigan is just another step in that direction," he said.

"Wolverines' strong ground game with 121 carries for 707 yards and eight touchdowns. Leroy Hoard has 102 carries for 455 yards and four TDs."

"Wolverines' strong ground game with 121 carries for 707 yards and eight touchdowns. Leroy Hoard has 102 carries for 455 yards and four TDs."

Mackovic said it will be important for the Illinois defense to limit the Michigan rushing attack, while the Illini offense mixes the run effectively with the pass.

Howard Griffith leads the Illinois rushing attack with 550 yards and four touchdowns. He has been getting help from freshman backs Wagner Lester and Steve Feagin.

The teams were in a similar position last season, but Michigan shocked Illinois 38-9 at Ann Arbor.

That has no bearing on this game, Mackovic said.

"We're light years ahead of last year," he said. "We've worked hard to get into this position."

CAMPUS VIEW APARTMENTS

We have started to take applications for next year.

Furnished apartments — indoor swimming pool — — jacuzzi — tennis, volleyball & basketball courts — 24-hour laundry — shuttle bus — — professional management

Apartments available for your selection.
Jordan paces Bulls past Pistons

By Happy Birthday, David Holsinger

Cubs Fan, Steds Man

Love, Mom & Dad & Your sisters

PARENTS WEEKEND
FAMILY BUFFET

Wednesday, November 8, 1989
"It's true, Barbara . . . You're the first woman I've ever brought here."
ND volleyball squad to snap losing streak against Wildcats

By MOLLY MAHONEY
Assistant Sports Editor

"The hardest thing to do is beat a team you've already beaten," said Lou Holtz, coach of the Notre Dame football team. "It's going to be a tough one, but I think we can do it." The Irish are looking to snap their five-game losing streak against the Wildcats.

The Irish lead the five-year series 4-2, but they need the win to rally from last weekend's disappointing matches.

They advanced to the final game of their Golden Dome Classic, which made it a long year. Number one was a loss to the school-record for consecutive losses. The team's defense was the strongest aspect of the game, putting together its sprinkling of experienced players and talent...

IH playoffs beginning to heat up

By DAVID DIETEMAN
Sports Writer

The Alumni Dogs cruised to a 26-0 decision over Morrissey Manor, while Pangborn Violence avenged Carroll Vermillion 10-6 in the first round of the men's Interhall football playoffs. In their first possession of the day, Morrissey drove the length of the field, setting up a first and goal on the Alumni four-yard line. The Alumni defense stymied Morrissey's hopes.

On fourth and inches at the Alumni goal line, Manor halfback Brian Doherty dove over a pile of linemen, rolling in mid-air with Alumni free safety Gary Fauchier. The force of the collision jarred the ball loose, and cornerback Aneel Chabani recovered it in the end zone for a touchback.

Electrified by that defensive performance, Alumni opened the second half with a bang, as fullback Dave Oberg scampered six yards for the first score of the game, putting Alumni up 6-0. The Dog defense tallied the only scores of the half, as cornerback Aneel Chabani covered linebacker Paul Pacek's punt block and converted it for a touchdown.

Wrestling squad 13th in current Top 20 poll

The Observer / Patrick Kukach

For those Notre Dame fans still holding their breath, you can let out a sigh of relief— the Fighting Irish will appear in a bowl game after all.

In last week's press conference, Lou Holtz had hinted that the Irish might skip a bowl game, and several members of the media scoffed at that idea.

Holtz settled his statements from last week at Tuesday's press conference, but he also hinted that the team might decide to participate in a bowl game.

"This year's a little bit different than any other year," said Holtz. "Number one, we came in and played the Kickoff Classic and that was a tough game. Number two, our final exams end on Dec. 21. That may mean that our players have to be away from home Christmas and New Year's. Third, we need to Approach our football club and athletes as a team for the first time in a long time."

For all those different reasons, I thought we needed to approach our football club and find out what their feelings were on it. The upperclassmen spoke up and said, 'Coach, whatever it takes. We'd like to be home for Christmas— it has been a long time since we were home. We need to lift our intensity level, ' said Lambert.

"The hardest thing to do is beat a team you've already beaten," said Lou Holtz, coach of the Notre Dame football team. "It's going to be a tough one, but I think we can do it." The Irish are looking to snap their five-game losing streak against the Wildcats.

The Irish lead the five-year series 4-2, but they need the win to rally from last weekend's disappointing matches. They advanced to the final game of their Golden Dome Classic, which made it a long year. Number one was a loss to the school-record for consecutive losses. The team's defense was the strongest aspect of the game, putting together its sprinkling of experienced players and talent...

IH playoffs beginning to heat up

The Alumni Dogs cruised to a 26-0 decision over Morrissey Manor, while Pangborn Violence avenged Carroll Vermillion 10-6 in the first round of the men's Interhall football playoffs. In their first possession of the day, Morrissey drove the length of the field, setting up a first and goal on the Alumni four-yard line. The Alumni defense stymied Morrissey's hopes.

On fourth and inches at the Alumni goal line, Manor halfback Brian Doherty dove over a pile of linemen, rolling in mid-air with Alumni free safety Gary Fauchier. The force of the collision jarred the ball loose, and cornerback Aneel Chabani recovered it in the end zone for a touchback.

Electrified by that defensive performance, Alumni opened the second half with a bang, as fullback Dave Oberg scampered six yards for the first score of the game, putting Alumni up 6-0. The Dog defense tallied the only scores of the half, as cornerback Aneel Chabani covered linebacker Paul Pacek's punt block and converted it for a touchdown.

Wrestling squad 13th in current Top 20 poll

The Observer / Patrick Kukach

Following an impressive victory in last weekend's season-opening Michigan State Invitational, the Notre Dame wrestling team has entered the latest Amateur Wrestling News college Top 20 poll.

The Irish, who finished last season by placing 21st in the NCAA tournament, are ranked 12th in the listings, in addition, defending All-American Pat Boyd was mentioned as the nation's second-best 142-pound wrestler.

The Notre Dame individuals who received mention were senior Andy Radenbaugh, 12th in the 118-pound division; sophomore Marcus Gwens, 16th since the win against North Dakota; and junior Mark Gerardi, 18th in the 167-pound bracket.

Among the teams mentioned are Notre Dame's in the rankings are No. 3 Oklahoma, No. 6 Nebraska, ...