Superpowers agree on German reunification

OTTAWA (AP) — The United States and its European allies forged agreement with the Soviet Union and East Germany Tuesday on a two-stage formula to reunite the two Germans after 45 years of division, according to a statement obtained by The Associated Press.

In the first stage, East Germany and West Germany would meet on legal, economic and political issues according to the statement. The talks would begin soon after East Germany holds its March 18 national elections.

In the second stage the foreign ministers of the two Germanies would meet with the foreign ministers of the United States, France, Britain and the Soviet Union "to discuss external aspects of the establishment of German unity, including the issues of security of the neighboring states."

The statement, hammered out at an East-West "open skies" conference and scheduled to be released later in the day, added that "preliminary discussions at the official level will begin shortly."

Although the statement was not specific, among the "external aspects" to be considered by the Big Four allies of World War II — who delineated shapes, acrylic legs filled with German unity, including the issues of security of the neighboring states.

The United States wants a united Germany to remain in the NATO alliance, while the Soviet Union wants a neutral Germany. East Germany now is a member of the Warsaw Pact.

Soviet Foreign Minister Eduard Shevardnadze met earlier Tuesday along with his West German counterpart, Hans-Dieter Genscher and with U.S. Secretary of State James Baker III.

Genscher on Tuesday affirmed that East and West Germany would reunite and sought to reassure the world that the new country would not pose any threat to peace.

"We tell all our neighbors that we want to unite. The Federal Republic of Germany, the German Democratic Republic and the whole of Berlin — no less, and no more. We do not have territorial claims against any of our neighbors."

"We seek a European Germany, not a German Europe."

Alcohol Policy hits ads in 'U'

The following is part one of a two-part series dealing with Notre Dame's alcohol policy.

By JOE MOODY
News Writer

"Non-alcoholic" versions of "U. The National College News- paper" will now be distributed to Notre Dame beginning with the April issue.

This resulted from a controversy over whether the newspaper violated the policy in its earlier statement that no publication funded by the University or bearing sponsorship by use of its name may contain advertisements promoting alcohol.

U. has consistently had alcohol commercials since it has been

Valentine's Day means big bucks

By JOHN CRONIN
News Writer

Money really can buy love

(AP) - Oh, St. Valentine! How to capture the rapture? Does confection affirm affection? Do flowers flow? Or will it take a gold mine to get you to be mine?

Letters to the Love God and Goddess/ page 10

Valentine's Day — colored rose red, punctuated with arrows from Cupid's bow, sweet as a bon bon and pretty as a bouquet — actually has its roots in blood, gore, guts and glutony.

Historians say Valentine's Day began in the third century, when two Christian saints, both named Valentine, were executed. Because the martyrs' feast day, Feb. 14, was around the time of a pagan Roman festival called the Lupercalia, which celebrated fertility, St. Valentine was popularly designated the patron saint of lovers.

It's been 1,720 years since the heathens had their way — today, we shower our loved ones with perfume, jewelry, lingerie, candy and plush teddy bears.

We'll also buy them pajamas, stuffed animals in all shapes, and washers with German chocolate — at what we want to unite: The United States Senator because I value the guidance of principled, the demands of compassion."

"I ask for your support when you're convinced I have a record of commitment to principle."

Promising to run his campaign "based on what I'm for, not what I'm against," Coats said he hopes to avoid the negative campaign tactics that have been so successful in past elections.

In his first year, Coats' legislation has concentrated on the quality of life, with particular emphasis on the family. Coats introduced 27 different bills, 13 of which were passed. The Republican incumbent added that he would continue to focus on the family, for he believes it to be the basis for finding solutions to many social problems.

"I want to remain your United States Senator because I seek to serve a standard we share—the guidance of principle, the demands of compassion," said Coats.

The Senator stated that he supported the Clean Air bill as long as Indiana is not asked to do more than its share. However, Coats expressed concern for maintaining a balance between proper advances in cleaning up the environment and still maintaining an economic base. "It is in the back room negotiating stage at this point..., but we will have a clean air bill this year," said Coats.

Buy me

Theodore's held a Valentine's celebrity auction Tuesday. Pictured left to right are: Jamere Jackson, Joe Frederick, Tim Crawford, Monty Williams, Nick Smith, Jamie Bailey, Raghib "Rocket" Ismail (obscured), and auctioneer Tim Flood.

American's will buy 70 million roses — Valentine's Day this year. You can tell a dozen roses given every minute over the full 24 hour day.

80% Red
70% Other colors

Source: NAF, Confectioners Assn., Soc. of American Florists projections

20% Other colors

February 1990
Valentine's Day
love is food for thought

It's Valentine's Day and I'm lonely. That's nothing new; I've been lonely on past Valentine Days, too. Nobody visits me or calls me. I seldom get valentine cards, and that's as just as well. Cards are nice, but if you really care, send food. You know something, loneliness rots. But, for that matter, so does love. I'm talking about romantic, not familial or platonic love.

My ex-roommate once said, "Love is a splintered peace, but you think of it much of the time, but I have since observed it to be true. The more you come in contact with it, the more you get hurt.

Take some advice from a guy who knows: if you feel yourself falling for someone, think it through. Spare yourself the hassle of emotional involvement.

My heart has been broken so many times that my cardiologist told me to lay off heavy relationships altogether.

Despite the trouble relationships cause, people still go hog wild over Valentine's Day.

How did all this fuss get started? The legend says that cupid, a mischievous little boy who depicting St. Valentine as the patron saint of lovers.

According to one legend, he had a garden where he let children play and lovers meet. While in prison, St. Valentine tied the keys to his cell, and there's a legend that he sent messages to children, calling the children to return.

We know the valuable such stories about St. Valentine; there are 17 listed in the Catholic Church's book of saints.

But we do know that an Italian priest named Valentine was martyred in the year 270 when he was beaten with clubs and beheaded. It has must have affected people in love, because there are stories about them the way the act the same way.

Love isn't as bad as it seems; it's worse. It seems good, until you see it for what it is: headaches and heartaches.

If you can't have love on Valentine's Day, don't fret. Enjoy the other aspect of this holyday—food. I especially enjoy getting sweets, such as chocolate.

Aztec chieftain Montezuma was believed to have drunk large quantities of "chocolate" before entering his harem. He thought it increased his virility.

Chocolate doesn't necessarily make you more virile, but it does put me in a better mood. Care packages are just the right perks when I've had a lousy day. Few things brighten the afternoon gloom like home-baked goodies.

If you love were like eating chocolate. Now, that would be sweet.

The views expressed in the Inside column are the author's and not necessarily those of The Observer.

Regis Coccia
Managing Editor

Valentine's Day. Love is food for thought.
Mandela welcomed home 120,000 hail return of their hero in Soweto

SOWETO, South Africa (AP) — Nelson Mandela came home a hero Tuesday, welcomed after nearly three decades by an ecstatic throng of blacks who delighted in his freedom but also heard him mourn the oppression of apartheid.

More than 120,000 people crammed into the country's largest stadium to greet the man revered by most South African blacks as their leader. Many were getting their first glimpse of him.

"The march toward freedom and justice is irreversible," Mandela told the roaring crowd in the township that has become one of the bleakest symbols of apartheid.

At the independent South African Press Association called the largest political rally ever in southern Africa, Mandela exhorted blacks to end white-minority rule.

"We're giving by taking them to you and your classes for $99.98."

Noortw *oinh.pw *xJit*dw ior*dellw niap*)fx. N o * nppiiitehenSun earn* a id  d»».s*B*icei0»WS<inl*r»«*. Other l*n*e* dghlty higher.

African blacks as their decades by an ecstatic welcomed after nearly three came home a hero Tuesday, Mandela told the government in its statement since his release Sunday after more than 27 years in prison.

Constitutional Development Minister Gerrit Viljoen said the government agreed with Mandela that apartheid must be eliminated and voting rights extended to blacks. But he criticized Mandela's support for continued guerrilla violence and economic sanctions.

"The government is not prepared to accede to the handing over of power," Viljoen said. "If that is the goal of the armed struggle, then there is no meaningful way ahead." Mandela, speaking from a podium on the playing field, thanked the government for returning to Soweto helped him endure his years in prison.

"I am.returning to Soweto fills my heart with joy," Mandela said. "At the same time, I have returned with a deep sense of sadness that you are still suffering under an unjust system.

In Cape Town, the government issued its first formal response to Mandela's statements after his release Sunday after more than 27 years in prison.

"This is the second year that Christmas in April will take place and Croteau stressed the need for student volunteers."

She said that sign-ups are taking place now through March 5 in the residence halls.

"Christmas in April is scheduled for the same weekend as Senior Formal weekend," said Croteau. "Students should not sign up unless they are not going to Senior Formal. We don't want to disappoint people.

If seniors would like to make a contribution to Christmas in April, Croteau said that there will be a special collection at the front desk on Feb. 25. She said, however, that the student's time is the most valuable asset to this project.

She said that no special skills are necessary to participate because skilled labor is provided by workers in the South Bend community.

If people would like to sign up in groups, they should contact the committee that sponsors it at Christmas in April is sched-uled for April 7, 1990, and the committee did not want to take on too many homes last year, to ensure that no one was disappointed.

"It is important that we have an even greater response than last year," she said.

Christmas in April is scheduled for the same weekend as Senior Formal weekend, said Croteau. "Students should not sign up unless they are not going to Senior Formal. We don't want to disappoint people.

If seniors would like to make a contribution to Christmas in April, Croteau said that there will be a special collection at the front desk on Feb. 25. She said, however, that the student's time is the most valuable asset to this project.

She said that no special skills are necessary to participate because skilled labor is provided by workers in the South Bend community.

If people would like to sign up in groups, they should contact the committee that sponsors it at Christmas in April is sched-uled for April 7, 1990, and the committee did not want to take on too many homes last year, to ensure that no one was disappointed.

"It is important that we have an even greater response than last year," she said.
Currency talks to aid German reunification

BONN, West Germany (AP) — The Germans agreed Tuesday to begin formal talks on making the West German mark the official currency of East Germany, a move that could lay the economic foundation for reunification.

The rush to reunify the Germans gained further impetus in Ottawa, where British Foreign Secretary Douglas Hurd said Tuesday that the Western allies and the Soviet Union are close to agreeing on a way to unite the Germans.

The announcement referred to a U.S. plan to have East and West Germany work out procedures for a merger immediately after East Germany holds national elections on March 18.

The allies of World War II — the United States, Britain, France and the Soviet Union — then will discuss security questions, including whether a reunified Germany would be a member of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

The Soviets want a neutral Germany, while the United States is pressing for NATO membership.

Hurd made the announcement during an East-West summit on aerial surveillance.

Deep problems, meanwhile, still exist between the government of West German Chancellor Helmut Kohl and the rickety Communist coalition of East German Premier Hans Modrow.

"We still have a difficult stretch of road ahead of us before fulfillment of German unity," Kohl told reporters after his meeting with Modrow.

Their brief summit produced an agreement to set up a joint commission to devise a way to make the West German mark the official currency of both nations.

Although the commission, which is to begin talks next week, will deal with an important component of reunification, any system it comes up with would not be put into effect until after Modrow's lame-duck government is succeeded in March.

Survey shows Germans favor neutrality

MUNICH, West Germany (AP) — A survey has shown that 28 percent of West Germans and 92 percent of East Germans questioned want military neutrality for a unified Germany, a magazine said Tuesday.

The survey also showed overwhelming support for Berlin as the capital of a single Germany, the Munich-based weekly magazine Quick said.

The survey, which questioned 3,599 Germans — 2,170 in West Germany and 1,429 in East Germany — was conducted for the magazine by the Tuebingen-based Wickert Institute.

Seven percent of the East Germans and 42 percent of the West Germans questioned would want a unified Germany to be a NATO member, the survey said.

Only 1 percent of East Germans questioned would favor continued membership in the Warsaw Pact, according to the survey.

Support for Berlin as the capital was overwhelming. The survey said that 91 percent of East Germans questioned want Berlin as the government seat of a unified Germany. East Berlin already is the capital of East Germany, although the United States, France and Britain say that status violates post-war agreements.

WHAT'S THE FUTURE OF THIS RELATIONSHIP?

For couples in a serious relationship who want to explore choices and decisions for the future including the possibility of marriage.

TOPICS TO BE PRESENTED:

- Stages of relationships
- Expectations for the future
- Steps in making healthy decisions

PRE-REGISTRATION

Campus Ministry Office: Badin Hall or 103 Hesburgh Lib. Applications are due by Wednesday, February 21st.

Senior Formal

1990

Bid Sales

March 14- N.D. LaFortune 6-10pm
15- N.D. LaFortune 6-10pm
16-S.M.C. LeMans 5-9pm

*Bid price: $75 per couple
*Tux fittings
*Flower orders
*Room arrangements
*Dinner seating- 5 couples per table

Wonderful Tonight...
Bush considers using radar net versus drugs

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Bush may use the four-nation drug summit to revive the idea — shunned in Latin America — of using U.S. military forces to cast a “radar net” over Colombia to track cocaine-carrying aircraft, a senior adviser said Tuesday.

Brent Scowcroft, Bush’s national security adviser, said the idea was “on the shelf for the moment” because Colombian officials balked last year at news reports that the United States was considering a naval “blockade” of their ports.

Scowcroft said the plan probably would not win approval “in the next several days” — the summit is Thursday — but he added that “it’s an idea we think has merit.” He said, “I expect it might be discussed” at the summit.

Another administration official, speaking anonymously, played down the sensitive subject, calling it “not a significant agenda item.”

Bush, after a pre-dawn flight from Washington on Thursday, will join the leaders of Colombia, Bolivia and Peru in the coastal resort of Cartagena for six hours of drug-fighting talks.

The summit site, at a heavily guarded naval base isolated on a peninsula, was selected to provide maximum protection in a nation torn by drug-related violence.

Underscoring the hazards, police reported Tuesday that leftist guerrillas had kidnapped two Americans in the drug capital of Medellin, Colombia, to protest Bush’s visit. They were identified as David Kent, a teacher from Indianapolis, and James Donnelly, employed by a company that manufactures hydraulic equipment.

Colombian authorities say about 5,000 security agents will be on hand for the presidents’ protection at the summit.

To bolster security, two American warships have been deployed in the Caribbean, along with a Colombian escort ship.

The U.S. vessels are the USS Nassau, an 820-foot amphibious assault ship which carries helicopters and a Marine landing team, and the USS Sampson, a 417-foot destroyer armed with missiles.

You were a great valentine 22 years ago and you are still a sweetheart of a son and brother!

Love, Dad, Mother and Mara

Will You be Looking For A Job During Spring Break? Do you need help with your interviewing skills? Get help from a personnel manager! There are 50 interviewing hints and a job search checklist from a professional interviewer in the booklet, “Making Every Interview Count.”

To order, just send $3 along with your name and address to: “Making Every Interview Count” c/o Adobe Publishing 9417 Crystal Spring Drive, Dept. N-21490 Fort Wayne, Indiana 46804-6513

Bruno’s

14" $6.00 FREE DELIVERY
16" $8.00 with coupon
18" $10.00 *limit one item per pizza

LARGE PARTIES (minimum 12 people)
*All you can eat for $4.00
*Free pop and specials
*Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays only

289-4625

Dear Nursing Boards booster,

(Excerpts from actual letters)

Stanley H. Kaplan has received from satisfied NCLEX-prep takers.

"Not passing the NCLEX the first time was the worst thing to happen to me... taking Kaplan was the best thing I’ve ever done..." —Student from Berkeley, California

"I feel that your nursing program is solely responsible for my 550 point increase..." —Student from Birmingham, Alabama

"I had no idea what the NCLEX was and did not pass. Kaplan really motivated me to study hard to achieve a passing score the second time around..." —Student from New York City, New York

KAPLAN

1717 E. South Bend Ave. South Bend, IN 46637 PHONE 219/272-4133

Dear Nursing Boards booster,
Abortion issue not helped by 'The A Rag'

Dear Editor:

Returning from dinner Sunday night, I noticed a stack of newspapers on a table in my dorm's lobby. On the top of the pile was an unfamiliar newspaper entitled "The A Rag". I returned to my room and read the four-page pro-life journal.

The paper contains two news stories: one concerning a pro-life march on Washington, D.C. and another concerning a pro-life rally in South Bend. The paper also contains a personal reflection on the Washington march, a profile of a woman who once had an abortion, but is now anti-abortion, and a list of upcoming events of interest to pro-life supporters. However, the bulk of the paper, which The A Rag is now definitely the time to be so, is pro-life oriented "The A Rag" does little to help serious students be heard. They do not need to see frightened young women made to feel like murderers. We don't need to see an abortion clinic blown up. We don't need to see politicians and doctors benefitting from the misery of others. We don't need to see another abortion clinic closed down.

Some people may justify this by saying that they balance the bias of other news papers or that The A Rag is not a newspaper but a pro-life leaflet. Whether these statements are valid or not, The A Rag does little to help serious debate of the abortion issue. Pro-life (or even pro-choice) propaganda disguised as news only adds to the close-mindedness of strong supporters of either side and to the confusion of undecided people, such as myself.

Abortion is one of the most important moral issues of the previous two decades, and in 1990, we are no closer to a resolution of the abortion debate than we were in 1970. Scientific fact and human feelings should guide this debate. Biased rhetoric and misposition of religious sentiments are irrelevant. Both sides of the issue have valid points that people should hear. Unfortunately, some pro-lifers and pro-choicers would rather name-calling than logic and important moral issues of the day.

The Observer's News Today, one observer who reads it at least two and one half years of reading it, I have never counted in the continuing struggle over a child's right not to be killed by abortion. Certainly the articles in The A Rag are biased. Some may justify this by saying that they balance the bias of other news papers or that The A Rag is not a newspaper but a pro-life leaflet. Whether these statements are valid or not, The A Rag does little to help serious debate of the abortion issue. Pro-life (or even pro-choice) propaganda disguised as news only adds to the close-mindedness of strong supporters of either side and to the confusion of undecided people, such as myself. Abortion is one of the most important moral issues of the previous two decades, and in 1990, we are no closer to a resolution of the abortion debate than we were in 1970. Scientific fact and human feelings should guide this debate. Biased rhetoric and mis-position of religious sentiments are irrelevant. Both sides of the issue have valid points that people should hear. Unfortunately, some pro-lifers and pro-choicers would rather name-calling than logic and important moral issues of the day.

The Observer's News Today, one observer who reads it at least two and one half years of reading it, I have never counted in the continuing struggle over a child's right not to be killed by abortion. Certainly the articles in The A Rag are biased. Some may justify this by saying that they balance the bias of other news papers or that The A Rag is not a newspaper but a pro-life leaflet. Whether these statements are valid or not, The A Rag does little to help serious debate of the abortion issue. Pro-life (or even pro-choice) propaganda disguised as news only adds to the close-mindedness of strong supporters of either side and to the confusion of undecided people, such as myself.
is ROTC consistent with Christianity, and therefore, good for the country. It is a question of whether Notre Dame, as a Catholic university, does or does not purge its military.

This article is not about whether or not states have a right to conscript or to the use of violence. And, the intention of this article is to provide voluminous scriptural passages to support my arguments. I shall present the general impressions of what I have read, and then present a relatively uncontroversial reading of Christianity. This is a Catholic universitv, even in the face of violence.

What is taught in ROTC that makes it so antithetical to Christianity? The cadets are taught behavior which creates leaders, and other things which are not taught anywhere else. The cadets will say that they are learning all of these skills and are participating in the military to keep peace by preventing conflict from breaking out. Some of them have said that they are in the same business as law enforcement, the FBI, or the Federal Judicial Institute—peace. Yet, at the very heart of their training, the ROTC cadets are being taught to follow orders and ultimately, if they are ever called to do so, to kill human beings, whether one by one in a ground war some Third World country or on a massive scale with nuclear weapons.

There are several responses given to this. First, the cadets will say that the fact that they are receiving their ROTC education at Notre Dame, which puts emphasis on Catholic values, means that they will be better prepared to use their moral background to influence U.S. military policy. While I do not impugn their motives, will a few mid-level officers who may think that the U.S. does not use force, or even advocate a nonviolent approach, actually be consistent with Christian values much of a difference? For example, I have seen a ROTC cadet from Notre Dame interviewed for a program about peace-making, I hear him say that the United States needs to function as a "big brother" in the world, states, especially those in Latin America, because they do not always make the right choices for themselves. I have found this paternalism and arrogance prevalent among the military, as well as the students. ROTC at Notre Dame is in achieving its goal of instilling the Christian values which might be useful in the military.

These are lofty goals, but they must be meaningful. When the moment, each of these officers will play an active part in the preservation of peace, the provision of security, and the maintenance of freedom. Their commissions charge them to act as representatives of the United States, in accordance with the laws, treaties and values that define this mission. Training and instruction they receive in ROTC classes make very clear the obligations they have under the law, and the moral/ethical foundations of these obligations.

But ROTC classes are only a part of their education and growth. If a university is truly a university, itself, one who is in the presence of the ideas with which students come in contact sixteen or more hours a day even are more significant in their preparation of leaders. And then when these members of the student body develop leadership, judg­ment, and the ability to influence others, the emphasis on responsibility, integrity and ethical action which they receive through ROTC is fed back into the community at large.

Commitment to ethical values is a frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightening, frightenin
Happy Valentine's Day to the B. R. in London. Welcome without Jeff.

LAURA GRITZ:

Happy Valentine's Day!

MELISSA MANGICAS

HAPPY VALENTINE'S DAY

J.M.

Lisa Michelle.

Happy Valentine's Day! The past four years have been the best. I LOVE YOU. Rob

Love, Mitch

K.J.T.

Somehow you've made it to February, somehow you already knew. 2. Pat Midden's RED sleepwear, his teddy bear, his beer mug, and his Olympic" ice-throwing and Doug's listening ability just can't be beat. -IT WUB

Happy Valentine's Day to the

DAN

Love and plenty of chocolates.

Happy Valentine's Day to the

DAN

Love and plenty of chocolates.

LAURA GRITZ

Happy Valentine's Day to the B. R. in London. Welcome without Jeff.

MELISSA MANGICAS

HAPPY VALENTINE'S DAY

J.M.

Lisa Michelle.

Happy Valentine's Day! The past four years have been the best. I LOVE YOU. Rob

Love, Mitch

K.J.T.

Somehow you've made it to February, somehow you already knew. 2. Pat Midden's RED sleepwear, his teddy bear, his beer mug, and his Olympic" ice-throwing and Doug's listening ability just can't be beat. -IT WUB

Happy Valentine's Day to the

DAN

Love and plenty of chocolates.

LAURA GRITZ

Happy Valentine's Day to the B. R. in London. Welcome without Jeff.

MELISSA MANGICAS

HAPPY VALENTINE'S DAY

J.M.

Lisa Michelle.

Happy Valentine's Day! The past four years have been the best. I LOVE YOU. Rob

Love, Mitch

K.J.T.

Somehow you've made it to February, somehow you already knew. 2. Pat Midden's RED sleepwear, his teddy bear, his beer mug, and his Olympic" ice-throwing and Doug's listening ability just can't be beat. -IT WUB

Happy Valentine's Day to the

DAN

Love and plenty of chocolates.

LAURA GRITZ

Happy Valentine's Day to the B. R. in London. Welcome without Jeff.

MELISSA MANGICAS

HAPPY VALENTINE'S DAY

J.M.

Lisa Michelle.

Happy Valentine's Day! The past four years have been the best. I LOVE YOU. Rob

Love, Mitch

K.J.T.

Somehow you've made it to February, somehow you already knew. 2. Pat Midden's RED sleepwear, his teddy bear, his beer mug, and his Olympic" ice-throwing and Doug's listening ability just can't be beat. -IT WUB

Happy Valentine's Day to the

DAN

Love and plenty of chocolates.
Dear Accent Love Goddess,

It's been 41 days since we last talked. I'm still feeling the effects of being away from you. I'm trying to convince myself that it's too late. I'm dating a tall, beautiful Notre Dame junior who is interested in me. She's intelligent, kind, and funny. This is my problem. I don't want to be afraid to layer your leathers. But I think your best bet would be to procure a provocative nickname. Women are irresistibly drawn to guys named "Snake." We can't help but wonder how the "Rocket" really got his name. Animal nicknames are preferred: ask yourself, "What pork would I like to be?" If you have an unfortunate haze, you might try off women, or "Sperm Whale." Which might frighten them. Trust me, "Chinellia" will get more chicks than "Warren" will. (P.S.)

Dear Accent Love God,

I am embarrassed to write because I think you might find my problem silly. You see, I have a crush on one of my teachers. She's a lot older than me and I can't even get up the courage to talk to her. I have tried slipping in phrases in my papers that say things like, "I want you so bad," hoping she'll leave some positive comments on my paper. However, she returned it with only "It's only you so bad," not so bad. Needless to say, I'm failing her class. Please help me before I either flunk out or explode with desire.

—Frustrated in American Studies

You're right, I do find your problem silly. What a silly problem you have! HA HA HA! NO, no just kidding, we here at Accent Love Goddess have problems with students. (Not to their face, anyway.) So you're in love with your teacher. Your first move, trying to reach her through your assignments was a good one, but perhaps you should stop trying to address her conscious mind. Try accessing the subconscious, as is illustrated by the "by the late 16th century (You love me), the Renaissance was in full bloom (You want me) as artists from throughout Europe sought the patronage of (You need me) of the powerful deMedici family." After a few more paragraphs like that, she'll either be pretty in your hands or your grades will be so bad you'll finally be able to drop out of Notre Dame and earn some money teaching English in a financially rewarding world of refrigerator repair. (I.M.)

Dear Accent Love Goddess,

I am a beautiful junior, the pride and joy of Mod Quad. My problem is I want freshmen. Big inexperienced freshmen. Is this motherly instinct normal?

—A Siren in Siegfried

Who can resist a younger one? They're fresh, unsupplied, and haven't really realized yet that lines like "Have you seen the view of the Dome from my hands?" don't work. But you're forgetting that they are at an impressionable age, and are especially vulnerable to advances from sultry older temptresses. Instead of toying with them, encourage them to go out with girls of their age, share some interests, who are in the same gym rotation. The gratification from "breaking in" a freshman is nothing compared to the warm feeling of socializing a freshman. If you don't teach them that there is more to Notre Dame than Nintendo, Monday Night Football, and passing out after 11 Bud Lites, they'll never know. (P.S.)

Dear Accent Love Goddess,

Please help me before it's too late. I'm dating a tall, beautiful Notre Dame junior who is interested in me. She's intelligent, kind, and funny. This is my problem. I don't want to be afraid to layer your leathers. But I think your best bet would be to procure a provocative nickname. Women are irresistibly drawn to guys named "Snake." We can't help but wonder how the "Rocket" really got his name. Animal nicknames are preferred: ask yourself, "What pork would I like to be?" If you have an unfortunate haze, you might turn off women, or "Sperm Whale." Which might frighten them. Trust me, "Chinellia" will get more chicks than "Warren" will. (P.S.)

Dear Accent Love God,

I am embarrassed to write because I think you might find my problem silly. You see, I have a crush on one of my teachers. She's a lot older than me and I can't even get up the courage to talk to her. I have tried slipping in phrases in my papers that say things like, "I want you so bad," hoping she'll leave some positive comments on my paper. However, she returned it with only "It's only you so bad," not so bad. Needless to say, I'm failing her class. Please help me before I either flunk out or explode with desire.

—Frustrated in American Studies

You're right, I do find your problem silly. What a silly problem you have! HA HA HA! NO, no just kidding, we here at Accent Love Goddess have problems with students. (Not to their face, anyway.) So you're in love with your teacher. Your first move, trying to reach her through your assignments was a good one, but perhaps you should stop trying to address her conscious mind. Try accessing the subconscious, as is illustrated by the "by the late 16th century (You love me), the Renaissance was in full bloom (You want me) as artists from throughout Europe sought the patronage of (You need me) of the powerful deMedici family." After a few more paragraphs like that, she'll either be pretty in your hands or your grades will be so bad you'll finally be able to drop out of Notre Dame and earn some money teaching English in a financially rewarding world of refrigerator repair. (I.M.)

Dear Accent Love Goddess,

I am a beautiful junior, the pride and joy of Mod Quad. My problem is I want freshmen. Big inexperienced freshmen. Is this motherly instinct normal?

—A Siren in Siegfried

Who can resist a younger one? They're fresh, unsupplied, and haven't really realized yet that lines like "Have you seen the view of the Dome from my hands?" don't work. But you're forgetting that they are at an impressionable age, and are especially vulnerable to advances from sultry older temptresses. Instead of toying with them, encourage them to go out with girls of their age, share some interests, who are in the same gym rotation. The gratification from "breaking in" a freshman is nothing compared to the warm feeling of socializing a freshman. If you don't teach them that there is more to Notre Dame than Nintendo, Monday Night Football, and passing out after 11 Bud Lites, they'll never know. (P.S.)

Dear Accent Love God,

I am embarrassed to write because I think you might find my problem silly. You see, I have a crush on one of my teachers. She's a lot older than me and I can't even get up the courage to talk to her. I have tried slipping in phrases in my papers that say things like, "I want you so bad," hoping she'll leave some positive comments on my paper. However, she returned it with only "It's only you so bad," not so bad. Needless to say, I'm failing her class. Please help me before I either flunk out or explode with desire.

—Frustrated in American Studies

You're right, I do find your problem silly. What a silly problem you have! HA HA HA! NO, no just kidding, we here at Accent Love Goddess have problems with students. (Not to their face, anyway.) So you're in love with your teacher. Your first move, trying to reach her through your assignments was a good one, but perhaps you should stop trying to address her conscious mind. Try accessing the subconscious, as is illustrated by the "by the late 16th century (You love me), the Renaissance was in full bloom (You want me) as artists from throughout Europe sought the patronage of (You need me) of the powerful deMedici family." After a few more paragraphs like that, she'll either be pretty in your hands or your grades will be so bad you'll finally be able to drop out of Notre Dame and earn some money teaching English in a financially rewarding world of refrigerator repair. (I.M.)

Dear Accent Love Goddess,

I am a beautiful junior, the pride and joy of Mod Quad. My problem is I want freshmen. Big inexperienced freshmen. Is this motherly instinct normal?

—A Siren in Siegfried

Who can resist a younger one? They're fresh, unsupplied, and haven't really realized yet that lines like "Have you seen the view of the Dome from my hands?" don't work. But you're forgetting that they are at an impressionable age, and are especially vulnerable to advances from sultry older temptresses. Instead of toying with them, encourage them to go out with girls of their age, share some interests, who are in the same gym rotation. The gratification from "breaking in" a freshman is nothing compared to the warm feeling of socializing a freshman. If you don't teach them that there is more to Notre Dame than Nintendo, Monday Night Football, and passing out after 11 Bud Lites, they'll never know. (P.S.)
Sports Wednesday

February 14, 1990

SPORTS CALENDAR

Sports Calendar: Home games in CAPS

Wednesday

---

Men’s Basketball vs. MARQUETTE, 7:30 p.m.

Top 25 Basketball Polls

The Top Twenty Five

The Weekly Top Twenty Five women’s basketball learners, with first-place votes and points based on 25-24-23-22-21-20-19-18-17-16-15-14-13-12-11-10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 season records through Feb. 11, points and last week’s ranking.

1. Duke
2. North Carolina
3. Stanford
4. Michigan State
5. Tennessee
6. Michigan
7. Texas
8. Texas A&M
9. UCLA
10. UCLA
11. Arizona
12. Arizona
13. Kentucky
14. Kentucky
15. LSU
16. LSU
17. Kentucky
18. Kentucky
19. LSU
20. LSU

Scoreboard

Hockey

(T - tonight
T/N - tonight and tomorrow night)

Hockey

- Saturday
  -  Det. at St. Cloud St. 6:05 p.m.
  - San Antonio vs. Houston 7:30 p.m.
  - Portland at Los Angeles Lakers 10:30 p.m.
  - Utah at Phoenix 9:30 p.m.
  - Baltimore at Boston 8:30 p.m.
  - Philadelphia at New Jersey 10:30 p.m.

Women’s basketball

- Saturday
  - Utah at Denver 7:30 p.m.

Basketball

- Friday
  - Detroit vs. Miami 7:30 p.m.

Basketball

- Tuesday
  - Boston at San Antonio 8:30 p.m.

Women’s Basketball

Saturday

- Detroit vs. Miami 7:30 p.m.

Women’s Sports

Tuesday

- Women’s sports at Texas
  - 5:00 p.m.
  - Women’s tennis at Texas-San Antonio
  - Women’s tennis vs. BALL STATE, 1 p.m.
  - Women’s tennis at St. Louis

Saturday

- Hockey at St. Cloud State, 6:05 p.m.

Monday

- Women’s sports at Oklahoma State, 6:30 p.m.

Wednesday

- Women’s sports at Oklahoma State, 6:30 p.m.

Sports Wednesday

Sport Calendar

Home Games in CAPS

---

Wednesday

- Men’s Basketball vs. Marquette, 7:30 p.m.

Scores

Wednesday’s Games

- Men’s Basketball vs. Ball State, 1 p.m.
- Women’s Basketball vs. Ball State, 1 p.m.
- Men’s Basketball vs. Detroit, 7:30 p.m.
- Women’s Basketball vs. Detroit, 7:30 p.m.

Sports Wednesday

Sports Calendar

Home Games in CAPS

---

Wednesday

- Men’s Basketball vs. Marquette, 7:30 p.m.

Scores

Wednesday’s Games

- Men’s Basketball vs. Ball State, 1 p.m.
- Women’s Basketball vs. Ball State, 1 p.m.
- Men’s Basketball vs. Detroit, 7:30 p.m.
- Women’s Basketball vs. Detroit, 7:30 p.m.

Sports Wednesday

Sport Calendar

Home Games in CAPS

---

Wednesday

- Men’s Basketball vs. Marquette, 7:30 p.m.

Scores

Wednesday’s Games

- Men’s Basketball vs. Ball State, 1 p.m.
- Women’s Basketball vs. Ball State, 1 p.m.
- Men’s Basketball vs. Detroit, 7:30 p.m.
- Women’s Basketball vs. Detroit, 7:30 p.m.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES BOARD

“WHEN HARRY MET SALLY”

tonight and tomorrow night in Carroll Auditorium

$1.00 admission at 9:00 and 11:15

Reminder: Elections begin this Sunday—come meet the candidates on February 19 in Haggar watch for signs—it’s your democratic duty to vote!

Coming soon: “Parenthood”, Sophomore Parents Weekend, WELLNESSic, and much more!!!

“HAPPY VALENTINE’S DAY”
IH women head into post-season

By RICH KURZ
Sports Writer

If it’s the middle of February, then it must be playoff time for Women’s Interhall Basketball. Regular season play wound down last night as several teams made their final appearances of the year and the playoff schedule was finalized.

Siegfried, the lone playoff team in action last night, tuned up for the playoffs with a 58-14 demolishing of Badin while Pasquerilla West notched a 39-22 victory over Lyons in A1 play. Howard knocked off Walsh 39-32, and Lewis took a forfeit win from Knott in A2 action.

In B league games, the graduate student team, BTTCG, accepted a forfeit victory over Lyons, and Siegfried’s tough defense held Breen-Phillips to 13 points as the teams met for the second time on the year.

Meanwhile, this past Sunday saw a full load of action. In A1 games, BP defeated PW 39-24 to ensure themselves of a playoff spot, while Badin routed their game to Lyons. In the A2 division, Knott took away a 58-14 win from meeting with Howard, and PE clinched a playoff spot as they handed Lewis their first loss, 38-29.

The top two teams from each of the A divisions advance to post-season play, and all four teams in the B league were entered in the playoffs.

The A league games will take place next Monday night, Feb. 19, in Gym 4. PE will square off with Siegfried at 7:00, while Lewis and BP will meet in the second game, scheduled to tip-off at 8:00.

All four teams head into the playoffs with identical 5-1 records.

"I would have to make Lewis the favorite," said PE coach Ray Flannery, citing talent and a tradition of winning as Lewis’s strengths. "We just try to work hard."

B league playoff games start tomorrow night in Gym 2 with first-place Siegfried facing BP at 7:00, and second-place BTTCG taking on Lyons at 8:00.

Women’s team beats Butler to remain unbeaten in MCC

Special to The Observer

Kris Davis scored 17 points and pulled down a game-high seven rebounds in her Indianapolis homecoming Tuesday to lead the Notre Dame women’s basketball team past Butler 59-46, keeping the Irish undefeated in the Midwest Collegiate Conference.

Davis, a 5-foot-9 junior, hails from Nobleville, a suburb north of Indianapolis. Her efforts helped lead the Irish past a tough Butler team which has lost only two conference games this season, both to Notre Dame.

"It was probably our toughest conference game of the year," Davis said. "They definitely showed up ready to play and ready to knock us off since we were their only loss in the MCC."

Margaret Nowlin added 15 points for the Irish on a perfect shooting day, hitting 6-of-6 from the field and 3-of-3 from the line.

The Irish, who led just 28-26 at halftime, improved to 11-0 in conference play and 16-6 overall. Notre Dame has won five straight games and has a 16-game MCC winning streak dating back to last year.

Butler (15-5 overall, 9-2 in MCC) was led by Shelley Roby and her game-high 18 points. Roby, a 5-foot-11 senior, scored the Bulldogs’ first 12 points.

ICEBERG DEBATES

Wednesday, February 14
9:00 p.m.

A debate on ROTC’s Compatibility with Notre Dame’s Christian Character will be held at a dorm near you.

Get out and support your team.
Vincent hopes to prevent lockout

NEW YORK (AP) — Commissioner Fay Vincent gave the union a new management proposal Tuesday at the staked baseball labor talks, and the union will consider it on Wednesday — one day before spring training was to begin.

Management negotiator Chuck O'Connor described Vincent's concepts as "substantive and procedural." Head Donald Fehr said cautiously: "There was a series of suggestions made. I don't know where, if anywhere, this...

Items
continued from page 16

Notre Dame wrestling coach Fran McCann will be inducted into the NAIA Hall of Fame next month in honor of his nine years spent coaching Winona (Minn.) State. McCann, whose lifetime record is 156-99-2, coached Winona State from 1969 to 1978 and his Warrior teams finished in the NAIA Top 20 six of those seasons. Winona State also won two Northern Intercollegiate championships under McCann. After leading Winona State to a third-place finish in the NAIA championships in 1970, McCann was selected as NAIA coach of the year. He earned similar honors from the Northern Intercollegiate Conference twice.

While tallying a 50-29-2 record, McCann produced 14 NAIA All-Americans at Winona State, and three of those wrestlers earned the same distinction from the NCAA. One of the McCann-coached All-Americans, Jim Panniehill, will be inducted into the Hall of Fame with his former coach Feb. 29 at Fort Hayes, Kan. St. Edward's Hall and Fairley Hall sponsored a celebrity auction Tuesday night at Theodore's, allowing students to bid for the opportunity to "own" some Notre Dame sports heroes for a few hours.

For what it's worth, three Irish track stars went for $37, while you needed just $25 (less than half the price of season tickets) to buy the majority of the men's basketball team. The female contingent of the Irish cheerleading squad took in $110.

The Observer

Douglas is champion, Tyson seeks rematch

NEW YORK (AP) — Now, the boxing world agrees. Buster Douglas is heavyweight champion. And it almost agrees: His first challenger will be Mike Tyson.

The final barrier to Douglas-Tyson II was breached Tuesday when Evander Holyfield's manager, Ken Sanders, said in Atlanta that his boxer probably would step aside to allow the rematch.

Billionaire developer Donald Trump says Douglas-Tyson II will be June 18 in Atlantic City, although neither Douglas nor Tyson have signed contracts.

In fact, Douglas only learned hours earlier that he was undisputed champion when the World Boxing Association became the last of the sport's three major governing bodies to recognize his 10th-round knockout of Tyson on Sunday in Tokyo.

"We don't have a rematch now," Don King, Tyson's promoter and advisor, said Tuesday at a news conference. "We're trying to get one. The first thing we have to do is get a rematch. As you know, the catching comes before the hanging." King said he was negotiating with representatives of Douglas and Holyfield to work out an agreement.

Tyson, who appeared with King at the news conference, said his loss was "a temporary, minor setback. I don't take it to heart. I'll be the champion again. I'm still one of the best fighters in the world and when the rematch comes I'll prove it."

Holyfield, as the No. 1-ranked contender, is the WBC's and WBA's mandatory challenger, but it looks like he'll wait for Tyson-Douglas II, then fight the winner.

"We've been approached to make a deal, by Don King, to step aside and make way for the rematch," Sanders, said. "We're waiting for the contract from him. If it's what they said it would be, we probably would do it."

Sanders said Holyfield would fight a tuneup on the undercard, then fight the Tyson-Douglas winner in September or October.

Manager application deadline is Feb 23. Bartender application deadline is March 7.
Missouri knocks off No. 1 Kansas in quest to regain top spot in polls

LAWRENCE, Kan. (AP) — After struggling with the basket that gave Missouri the lead for good, and the second-ranked Tigers beat No. 1 Kansas for the second time this season, 77-71, on Tuesday night.

The Tigers (23-2, 7-2) beat the Jayhawks (24-2, 7-2) 95-87 on Jan. 20 and their second win over Kansas keeps them atop the Big Eight standings as well.

Missouri's last victory was also over a top-ranked Kansas team. The Tigers were ranked fourth that week and moved to the top spot with the win. They held No. 1 for three weeks until losing last Thursday at Kansas State.

This was the first matchup of Nos. 1-2 since top-ranked North Carolina beat Georgia Tech 74-77 on Feb. 4, 1986, and that was also a road victory. Kansas coach Roy Williams was a member of a hospital for observation.

Zadra continued from page 16

says Zadra.

Dean Smith's staff in the game.

PROVIDENCE 94,

Georgetown 90

PROVIDENCE, R.I. — Providence made a season-high 12 3-point shots and carried the Friars with 29 points as they upset No. 2 Georgetown 94-90 Tuesday night.

The Friars beat the Hoyas without junior guard Eric Murdock, their leading scorer, who complained of fatigue before the game and was taken to a hospital for observation.

Georgia Tech 80,

Maryland 78

ATLANTA — Dennis Scott scored 36 points, including a tie-breaking 3-pointer, as No. 13 Georgia Tech edged Maryland 80-78 in an Atlantic Coast Conference game.

Zadra's performance this weekend helped him break out of a mini-slump during which he was benched briefly for taking too many senseless penalties. His bad luck continued in the first period of the Lake Forest game Friday night when he was stopped on a breakaway by Forester goalie Dan Vacco.

"I was kind of frustrated," says Zadra. "When the goalie made the big saves, I just had to dig deeper down and put it by the guy."

Zadra's digging resulted in two power play goals in the third period which transformed a 4-3 deficit into a 5-4 lead for the Irish, who went on to win 6-4.

But Zadra is not only concerned with winning games now. As he is joined on the team by talented sophomores Bankoske, Pat Arendt and Kevin Patrick as well as numerous highly-skilled freshmen, Zadra is enthusiastic about what lies ahead for Notre Dame hockey.

"I see a bright future ahead for the Irish," says Zadra. "Especially with the influx of freshmen we've had this year. The young talent we have is amazing, so I can only see better things ahead for us in the future."

And in the future, the bump and grind play of Lou Zadra will continue to pay off for the Irish, as they continue to build their program.
Campus

Wednesday, February 14, 1990

12:10-1:00 p.m. Closed Meeting of Alcoholic Anonymous. Holy Cross House.

7:30 p.m. Basketball ND vs. Marquette. JACC arena.

Lecture Circuit

4:20 p.m. "Theory of Large Amplitude Collective Motion with Applications to Chemistry and Nuclear Physics," Bill Jacob, University of California. Second Floor Lafortune Building, Coffee room 201 at 2:45. Sponsored by Dept. of Physics.

5:30 p.m. Applications for K-theory in Galois Theory," Mike Rapoport, University of Pennsylvania. Room 284. Sponsored by Dept, of Physics.

Menus

Notre Dame

Cajun Chicken Breast
Ham & Broccoli Rolls
Rotellini w/Vegetables

Crossword

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Across</th>
<th>Down</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Martin's fur</td>
<td>1. &quot;The Square Egg&quot; author</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6. Cudgel</td>
<td>21. &quot;...and a Gamma...&quot;</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>10. Neat</td>
<td>22. Bridge ace</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>16. Decorate anew</td>
<td>25. Resigned</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>17. Make merry</td>
<td>29. Fines</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>20. Native</td>
<td>30. Incite</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>22. Bridge ace</td>
<td>32. Kind of car or game</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>23. Hit hard</td>
<td>33. Range of vision</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>25. Resigned</td>
<td>34. Deter from doing</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>29. Fines</td>
<td>35. Go on a spree</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>30. Incite</td>
<td>36. Stolen goods</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Answer to Previous Puzzle

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Across</th>
<th>Down</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. &quot;...and a Gamma...&quot;</td>
<td>1. &quot;The Square Egg&quot; author</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>21. &quot;...and a Gamma...&quot;</td>
<td>21. &quot;...and a Gamma...&quot;</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>22. Bridge ace</td>
<td>22. Bridge ace</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>23. Hit hard</td>
<td>23. Hit hard</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>25. Resigned</td>
<td>25. Resigned</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>29. Fines</td>
<td>29. Fines</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>30. Incite</td>
<td>30. Incite</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Executive Council Positions for 1990-91

Applications for:

- Board Manager
- Director of Programming
- Director of Relations
- Director of Marketing Controller

Now available at the Secretary's Desk

2nd Floor LaFortune

Due February 22, 1990
Irish host rival Marquette tonight

By GREG GUFFEE
Assistant Sports Editor

A big smile appeared when someone asked Notre Dame men's basketball coach Digger Phelps the biggest difference between now and when the Irish played Marquette in December.

"This time we'll have LaPhonso Ellis," he said.

Without Ellis in December, Notre Dame dropped an 80-68 decision to the Warriors in Milwaukee. That loss was the third consecutive at the time for the Irish and lowered their overall record to 1-3.

Ellis, after missing the first six games because of academic ineligibility, has been Notre Dame's leading scorer and rebounder with 16.2 points and 12.4 rebounds per game. He is hitting 55 percent of his shots from the field.

Ellis and the Irish face a must-win situation at home following a 1-2 roadtrip that included losses to Duke and Houston. At 12-8, Notre Dame looks to avenge trouncing earlier this year following a 1-2 roadtrip that included losses to Duke and Houston.

"We're a better hockey team than we were last year," said Schafer. "That was my mistake." Schafer attributes the team's improvement to a change in schedule strength and experience.

"We're a better hockey team than we were last year," said Schafer. "That was my mistake." Schafer attributes the team's improvement to a change in schedule strength and experience.

"We're a better hockey team than we were last year," said Schafer. "That was my mistake." Schafer attributes the team's improvement to a change in schedule strength and experience.

"We're a better hockey team than we were last year," said Schafer. "That was my mistake." Schafer attributes the team's improvement to a change in schedule strength and experience.

"We're a better hockey team than we were last year," said Schafer. "That was my mistake." Schafer attributes the team's improvement to a change in schedule strength and experience.

"We're a better hockey team than we were last year," said Schafer. "That was my mistake." Schafer attributes the team's improvement to a change in schedule strength and experience.

"We're a better hockey team than we were last year," said Schafer. "That was my mistake." Schafer attributes the team's improvement to a change in schedule strength and experience.

"We're a better hockey team than we were last year," said Schafer. "That was my mistake." Schafer attributes the team's improvement to a change in schedule strength and experience.

"We're a better hockey team than we were last year," said Schafer. "That was my mistake." Schafer attributes the team's improvement to a change in schedule strength and experience.

"We're a better hockey team than we were last year," said Schafer. "That was my mistake." Schafer attributes the team's improvement to a change in schedule strength and experience.

"We're a better hockey team than we were last year," said Schafer. "That was my mistake." Schafer attributes the team's improvement to a change in schedule strength and experience.

"We're a better hockey team than we were last year," said Schafer. "That was my mistake." Schafer attributes the team's improvement to a change in schedule strength and experience.

"We're a better hockey team than we were last year," said Schafer. "That was my mistake." Schafer attributes the team's improvement to a change in schedule strength and experience.

"We're a better hockey team than we were last year," said Schafer. "That was my mistake." Schafer attributes the team's improvement to a change in schedule strength and experience.

"We're a better hockey team than we were last year," said Schafer. "That was my mistake." Schafer attributes the team's improvement to a change in schedule strength and experience.

"We're a better hockey team than we were last year," said Schafer. "That was my mistake." Schafer attributes the team's improvement to a change in schedule strength and experience.

"We're a better hockey team than we were last year," said Schafer. "That was my mistake." Schafer attributes the team's improvement to a change in schedule strength and experience.

"We're a better hockey team than we were last year," said Schafer. "That was my mistake." Schafer attributes the team's improvement to a change in schedule strength and experience.

"We're a better hockey team than we were last year," said Schafer. "That was my mistake." Schafer attributes the team's improvement to a change in schedule strength and experience.

"We're a better hockey team than we were last year," said Schafer. "That was my mistake." Schafer attributes the team's improvement to a change in schedule strength and experience.

"We're a better hockey team than we were last year," said Schafer. "That was my mistake." Schafer attributes the team's improvement to a change in schedule strength and experience.

"We're a better hockey team than we were last year," said Schafer. "That was my mistake." Schafer attributes the team's improvement to a change in schedule strength and experience.

"We're a better hockey team than we were last year," said Schafer. "That was my mistake." Schafer attributes the team's improvement to a change in schedule strength and experience.

"We're a better hockey team than we were last year," said Schafer. "That was my mistake." Schafer attributes the team's improvement to a change in schedule strength and experience.

"We're a better hockey team than we were last year," said Schafer. "That was my mistake." Schafer attributes the team's improvement to a change in schedule strength and experience.

"We're a better hockey team than we were last year," said Schafer. "That was my mistake." Schafer attributes the team's improvement to a change in schedule strength and experience.

"We're a better hockey team than we were last year," said Schafer. "That was my mistake." Schafer attributes the team's improvement to a change in schedule strength and experience.

"We're a better hockey team than we were last year," said Schafer. "That was my mistake." Schafer attributes the team's improvement to a change in schedule strength and experience.

"We're a better hockey team than we were last year," said Schafer. "That was my mistake." Schafer attributes the team's improvement to a change in schedule strength and experience.

"We're a better hockey team than we were last year," said Schafer. "That was my mistake." Schafer attributes the team's improvement to a change in schedule strength and experience.

"We're a better hockey team than we were last year," said Schafer. "That was my mistake." Schafer attributes the team's improvement to a change in schedule strength and experience.

"We're a better hockey team than we were last year," said Schafer. "That was my mistake." Schafer attributes the team's improvement to a change in schedule strength and experience.

"We're a better hockey team than we were last year," said Schafer. "That was my mistake." Schafer attributes the team's improvement to a change in schedule strength and experience.

"We're a better hockey team than we were last year," said Schafer. "That was my mistake." Schafer attributes the team's improvement to a change in schedule strength and experience.

"We're a better hockey team than we were last year," said Schafer. "That was my mistake." Schafer attributes the team's improvement to a change in schedule strength and experience.

"We're a better hockey team than we were last year," said Schafer. "That was my mistake." Schafer attributes the team's improvement to a change in schedule strength and experience.

"We're a better hockey team than we were last year," said Schafer. "That was my mistake." Schafer attributes the team's improvement to a change in schedule strength and experience.

"We're a better hockey team than we were last year," said Schafer. "That was my mistake." Schafer attributes the team's improvement to a change in schedule strength and experience.

"We're a better hockey team than we were last year," said Schafer. "That was my mistake." Schafer attributes the team's improvement to a change in schedule strength and experience.

"We're a better hockey team than we were last year," said Schafer. "That was my mistake." Schafer attributes the team's improvement to a change in schedule strength and experience.

"We're a better hockey team than we were last year," said Schafer. "That was my mistake." Schafer attributes the team's improvement to a change in schedule strength and experience.

"We're a better hockey team than we were last year," said Schafer. "That was my mistake." Schafer attributes the team's improvement to a change in schedule strength and experience.

"We're a better hockey team than we were last year," said Schafer. "That was my mistake." Schafer attributes the team's improvement to a change in schedule strength and experience.