Eight Notre Dame Men Get Woodrow Wilson Fellowships

Eight Notre Dame seniors and alumni have received Woodrow Wilson Fellowships for their fifth year of graduate study next fall.

The fellows, with their majors, are: Ralph C. Martin, Jr., philosophy; Michael McJintock, English; Frank D. Menninger, engineering; Michael W. Messmer, history; Craig M. Simpson, history, and Edward P. Ward, political science. All are seniors.

Charles J. Day also received a Wilson fellowship for an undergraduate in the Arts and Letters, and Joseph H. Deftos, a Program, with degrees in philosophy and mechanical engineering.

In 1935 and 1936 he will do graduate work in philosophy.

The Wilson grants provide full tuition plus a fellowship of $5,800 and allowances for dependents.

This year there were 1,955 Woodrow Wilson fellows representing 90 major graduate institutions. The grants are intended to produce "college teachers for tomorrow," but recipients are not committed to a teaching career.

Three seniors were awarded fellowships by the Northfield Foundation. They will receive tuition and living expenses for four years of study for a doctoral degree in preparation for a career in college teaching.

The winners are James V. Malach, a senior majoring in philosophy at the University of Rochester; and Richard B. Crosson, William Smith is the guitarist.

"The Old Maid and the Thief" spotlights singers Carl-

Noyes, Helen K. Beery, "Nite Wind" and Charles Bonis.

Both operas include a mixed chorus of the students and alumni.

The entire production is under the direction of Dr. William Cole. Set production will be handled by JohnPatrick Hart.

Collegiate Folk Festival

N.D. Freshman Awarded
One Week Paid Engagement

Don Connors, a Notre Dame freshman, and the Prairie

Travelers of Illinois Wesleyan University won awards as best entertainment at the first annual Collegiate Folk Festival held here last Saturday. Both will participate in the world's premiere of the Ford Caravan of Music in Daytona Beach over Easter.

Paty Johnston of Mar-

quitas University was presented the trophy for best vocalist in the festival.

Connors received a clas-cial guitar donated by the Hurst instrument company as best guitarist, as well as an award for best original composition and best electric performance.

The Prairie Travelers were named best entertainers of the festival.

Other winners were: the Four Winds, University of Detroit; the Beausacres, Illinois University; and Nancy Katz, a 15-year-old high school freshman from South Bend. She was admitted to this honor on the recommendation of a record producer, who heard her on one of her home recordings. She was told she was potentially the best vocalist in the festival.

The judges were: Robert Hester, President of Delphos Music Records; Peter Wilding, Assistant Editor of& the Beausacres; and Mrs. Wedding.

The Question of an Honor System:

What Does An Honor System Involve?

Tomorrow, Notre Dame freshmen, sophomores and junior will have a chance to express themselves on the question of an honor system. The question of an honor system was requested by 2,000 students who signed petitions on the campus last fall.

The Honor System Committee had that 1,500 signatures on the platform would show sufficient interest to call a committee of 15 or more students to discuss the question.

The voting will take place in each hall at noon and from 5:30 to 8:00 p.m., instead of the usual 3:00 to 6:00 p.m., the referendum will consist of two questions:

1. Are you in favor of an honor system at Notre Dame?
2. Are you in favor of the proposed plan?

The Honor System Committee is hoping for a significant majority on both questions.

Dr. Harvey A. Nielsen has been appointed chairman of the Department of Philosophy at the University of Notre Dame, and Dr. Samuel J. Beina of the Department of Business Administration and Management.

Nielsen succeeds Rev. Herman H. Scholz, O. P., who retired last year. He held the chairmanship of the Business Administration department since 1954.

Nielsen, a specialist in modern philosophy, joined the Notre Dame faculty in 1954. He was educated at Rutgers University, the University of Connecticut and at the University of Nebraska.

At Mail To St. Mary's

Brother RR, C.C.S., Postulator, has announced that the rate of the new biannual friendship correspondence between the University of Notre Dame and St. Mary's College, Bankstown, Australia, is 4 cents per ounce. This is a reduction from the previous rate of 5 cents per ounce, as announced by the regional office of the Post Office Department in Cincinnati.

Referendum To Be Submitted To Students

The Honor System Committee has proposed a plan that will place the undergraduate student body of the University under an academic honor system covering all aspects of campus life and discipline. The primary use of an honor system would be during testing, when the instructor will be expected to test the student honestly.

If a student should witness a violation of the honor code, he is encouraged to make a verbal warning to the violator, involving no penalty, the warning not to be, heard, then the student is expected to make a formal accusation to the honor committee. The accusation is to be filed with the secretary, who will be the chair.

The honor committee will be composed of fifteen men selected by a special board, composed of the honor secretary, the President of the Board of Work, the Chairman of the Blue Circle, the President of the Catholic Student Association, and a representative of the faculty. When a case is brought before the honor committee, a court of six members will be chosen by the chair.

It is our hope that you will consider this matter closely as it is of considerable importance to yourself and to your University. The system offers an opportunity for positive improvement if we can achieve its goal.

2uit Worrying, Vote Constructive Woodsmanship

There is a campus-wide referendum tomorrow that can affect you more than any other voting opportunity that has been made available to you.

That vote will be yes or no for an honor system to govern your academic life.

A yes vote should mean you believe in yourself and in your classmates; that you will discipline yourselves in accordance with the principles of the honor system.

A no vote should mean you lack faith in your ability to live up to that code.

The honor system is based on your own judgment and a personal decision. If passed without a commendation of, or opposition to, any faction or group, the system will fall flat when put into practice.

But if those who will vote will do in good faith what they say in the ballot box, the system can be a good one, and will become a permanent part of the student body.

President Woods sees a gap on the campus which the political Science Academy could fill with distinction. The University should not extend any political or social influence into these organizations, but rather let them develop on their own, in order to have a balance within the University, with the result that none feels any special commitment.

As a permanent organization, the Political Science Academy will be able to use the talents of the political science majors in the University, and will not need the aid of political figures, which are usually political in nature.

The Mock Convention is only the most spectacular of the proposed functions of the Academy. The Academy would like to take charge of campus elections and, possibly, to make the decision for students in the future.

The Academy, next October, will sponsor the first annual Notre Dame Career Day, to be advertised in the local newspapers. A no, yes vote is a way of life.

If you think that you, not "all the other guys," should decide the future for Notre Dame, you may be a campus journalist, a member of the Academic Senate, or, perhaps, one that will bring more of the exciting, grass-roots talent of the folk music world to this campus.
BILLY MAY, "MOON RIVER" & THE JULIO PROM

BILLY MAY's orchestra, the band that bosses Frank Sinatra, will play at the Junior Prom on Friday, March 3. The theme of the dance is "Moon River." According to general chairman Frank Knipp, decorations will create an outer space atmosphere in the Union Center. Every junior ticket will receive a 21-ct. brandy bottle as a favor.

On Saturday, an excursion with the sophomore to the Dunes is planned — music provided by the Nightingales. The Kingston Trio concert is scheduled for 7:00 o'clock that night. Their performances will be followed by a party at Robert's Upper Club.

On Sunday morning the Sophomores and Junior Communion Breakfast will be held in the North Dining Hall, with Father Hesburgh as the guest speaker. A date plane is scheduled from New York City, on May 1, and accommodations are available at Randall's Inn, Holiday Inn, Town Tower and the Travel Lodge. Ticket sales are scheduled for Tuesday, April 5; and Sunday, April 15. Further information on sales, tax rentals and accommodations are being announced by flyers and posters this week.

At each ticket sale, chances will be sold on a free weekend. Included in the package are a trip to the prom on May 1 and free tickets to the Dunes Trip, the Kingston Trio concert, the off-campus party and the communion breakfast.

The winner will also receive a wash-free room and a room for the date. For the weekend arrangements, the winner is being made with a trip to the prom; and the winner with a wash-free room.

Application forms for the Medical College Admission Test are available in Rooms 215, 216. Deadline for application is April 18 for admission to medical school in the fall of 1965.

Also, the Department of Guidance and Testing is administering the Miller Analogies Test on Thursday, May 1, at 8:00 a.m. in rooms 225-227. The test is a measure of general scholastic aptitude.

Soph Weekend, May 1-3
Begins With Fri. Nite Ball

"Clair de Lune" this year's Sophomore Cotillion will be presented by the Class of 1965 on the weekend of May 1-3. The formal dance will open festivities on Friday evening in the LaPorte Student Center.

The main ballroom will be transformed into a medieval English castle, Don Jeron and his orchestra will provide the music. A traditional Dunes beach party on Saturday afternoon has been planned for those attending both the Cotillion and the Junior Prom, also that weekend. The Nightlighters will provide entertainment at the Dunes. The Kingston Trio concert, slated for Saturday evening, will also be a highlight of the weekend. Howard Johnson's Motel, will be turned into a "Cotillion Center." The entire motel, 60 rooms, has been secured to provide accommodations for the sophomore class.

Nite Ball tickets are scheduled for Monday, April 8, on a first come, first served basis. More information on tax rentals, etc., will be given at that time.

Bach, Baroque is the General Chairman for this year's Cotillion. He is being assisted by the various committee heads: Joe King, Andy Dennis, John Buech, Paul Walker, John Dempsey, Tony Anders, Tom Bauher, John Swartz, Greg Calhoun, Barry MacNamara, and Tom McManus.

Measles 'Epidemic' Hospitals 150

An extraordinary number of measles cases has struck the University; the students have been admitted to the infirmary for treatment. The outbreak began about two weeks ago, and is expected to continue for some time. A nurse estimated that there were over two dozen cases, even a child in the hospital, and many other students confined to bed in the infirmary with cases of measles. At first, parents of students out of town were not told of this outbreak, but when the number reached over 100, students, particularly those who have not been vaccinated, were told to report to the infirmary. The infirmary doctor, a mathematics professor, said that there were still students confined to bed for the infirmary with cases of measles. The doctor estimated that there were over 200 students in the infirmary for treatment. The student health center has been closed for the week.

The student health center has been closed for the week. The center was closed Saturday due to an outbreak of measles. The center will be closed for the week due to the outbreak.
Mound Problem Faces Kline

To any baseball coach, the loss of 10 men is considered a severe problem. Thus, it is to be wondered what one game for the previous year's All-American and one for the team this year's pitchers who won in the majors last year. The cobweb of a high school season in these times will be a difficult one to solve.记得去年在教练库克的指导下，他赢得了1965年的全美最佳新人奖。但是今年的球队面临着一个巨大的问题：如何解决投手问题。

LaCrosse Is Here To Stay

LaCrosse at Notre Dame is here to stay. With minor sports becoming more a part of the intercollegiate athletics program, some sports are being phased out. This season, a move in this direction shows how much the team members understand of this Eastern state. LaCrosse in an integral part of sports, and as the team finishes off the season, it will form the foundation for future years.

Full practices sessions gave the 60-man roster an idea of the new coach's philosophy towards the basketball, and even he's able to stay for the season. Only one of the three freshmen is a veteran. The team is looking forward to the next season under new leadership.

3 Fencers Compete in NCAA Meet

Three members of the 1964 Notre Dame fencing team have been picked to represent the Irish this year at the NCAA Championships at Houston, March 25-28. The team is Bill Fournier, Pat Schrader, and George Armento.

The fencing squad ended its season Saturday with a 2-1 victory over Illinois. Class fencing, a demanding sport, and a (1-3 in 1963, with Tennessee) for the NCAA ratings. The Irish are now 8 in a 1942 graduate of Notre Dame, and is a former University in 1961, as an opponent of the Irish, a large team is better.

Bowlers Clinch Midwest Title

With but one match remaining, the Notre Dame squad has already captured first place in the Intercollegiate Bowling Championships. This was accomplished last week as second place Loyola of Chicago dropped nine out of a possible eleven points to host DePaul.

No matter what the Irish do against St. Joseph of Indiana on April 18, the Irish will win the Midwest. The bowlers, now at 1-3, are clearly ahead of Loyola in second place with an 1-13 record.
