Religious Bulletin.
May 5, 1924.

Even Republicans Have Souls....

And having souls, they have an obligation in conscience to vote intelligently. Students who are entitled to vote in the Indiana primaries are bound to inform themselves of the fitness of the candidates for office and to cast their votes in tomorrow's primaries.

And Even Juniors Have Mothers.

The girls eclipsed the mothers over the week-end, and broke up the Novena for Our Mothers. If your mother has a neighbor whose son is a Senior she will feel hurt if the neighbor receives a spiritual boquet while she has only roses. Start your Novena over again tomorrow and send your mother something that she can always keep -- even in heaven.

From the Survey.

I.

"If I didn't have my family to repay I would change my course and become a priest."

Consult a priest or your own Bishop about this.

II.

"How is it that some fellows will get half-tight (to excess) and receive Holy Communion the following day without going to confession?

III.

"Environment has made me much more fervent than before."

IV.

"I was a better Catholic before I came here."

V.

"Why do not all young men treat all girls as they would their own sistem"

VI.

"I need will-power badly. Can Communion help me in this? It has not so far."

Holy Communion and meditation will solve your problem. You need to read a great deal -- and under direction. You will never develop willpower until you do what you dread most -- seek advice. Read Newman's "Neglect of Divine Calls and Warnings"; Papini's "Life of Christ"; "The Following of Christ"; and Father Hull's pamphlets on character. Come around and get something to read.