Members of the Third Order of St. Francis will meet in the church at 7:00 p.m. tomorrow. Those who have not been upheld with cords, etc., will receive them then. Attendance at meetings is required for the spiritual benefits of indulgences and general absolution.

Lectures on Meditation.
The second series of lectures on meditation will begin in the Sorin Hall chapel at 5:00 p.m. Thursday. They will continue for about a week at the same time and place.

Aren't you Ashamed of Yourself?
The following letter, from a pastor in the mountains of Tennessee, should make you ashamed of yourself if you have not returned your questionnaire for this year:

"Reverend and dear Father:

Many thanks for the Religious Survey. It is so vivid that it puts a panorama of life before in the fullest reality, and it must do untold good to the people who read it.

I have only a small congregation of 25 families, and they find so many excuses for not going to Holy Communion, so I want to place this fine Bulletin before them in the pews. Many a one will look into a part of it, and I think with spiritual profit.

What a glorious thing it will be for Notre Dame to have added so many voices to that eternal hymn, 'Sanctus, Sanctus, Sanctus,'---for ever and ever the same, yet eternally fresh, and gaining in beauty forever."

If you are now properly ashamed of yourself you will dig up the questionnaire that you have left lying around, and send it in to add to the eternal hymn of praise.

Choose Your School Wisely.
Students arranging a transfer to another school for next year should look over the ground carefully. Some suggestions will be offered on the Bulletin as space permits. The appended social calendar will interest many. The name of the school putting it on will be furnished on application:

What About Your Father?
The Novena of thanksgiving began this morning. It is suggested that you offer it for your father. What have you done for him this year, aside from relieving him of the spiritual stigma that goes with wealth?
