Say a Prayer for Bishop Noll.
Bishop Noll is to be consecrated Bishop of Fort Wayne today. Say a prayer for him. It's bad enough to be a Bishop without having to be Bishop of Fort Wayne in the bargain.

The Sophomore Ideal.
Yesterday you saw how the freshmen fell down in their chase of the Notre Dame ideal. Today we have the sophomore ideal, traced now with tears, and now with gall:

"The ideal Notre Dame man should not get conditioned in any subjects."

"My ideal was shattered after several weeks here. Now there ain't no such animal."

"I am inclined to swearing spontaneously."

"Laziness has overcome me."

"I have revolutionary ideas as to discipline, etc."

"I haven't enough fight in me when tempted."

"I haven't seen a movie downtown this year, and I have had but two dates."

"I should have a stonger will and a larger body."

"I get tired of the school and dislike it."

"I'm not tough enough."

"In every way that I can think of."

"Not wideawake enough."

"In believing in these infernal rules and traditions."

"Inability to mix athletics and studies. It's hard for me to abandon athletics."

"I don't play football and use smutty language."

"I might become foolish occasionally when with the fellows."

"In everything—religion and spirit."

"I could be more studious and more athletic, and lead a cleaner life."

"I have no mental stamina—at least, not enough to keep my good resolutions."

"I change sides too quickly and easily with God and the Devil."

First Friday Coming.
Be prepared to have your composure shaken. Next Friday is the First Friday.
