Dr. Bonine, of Niles, great benefactor of the human race and loyal friend of Notre Dame, is quite ill with double pneumonia; your earnest prayers are bespoken in his behalf. Dr. Bonine has literally restored sight to thousands, and the poor more than the rich have always been the object of his solicitude. -- Russell Christie asks prayers for a deceased aunt. Add three other deceased persons.

For Bill Daily.

Donations to the committee for flowers and Masses for Bill Daily amounted to approximately $75.00. Most of this came from freshmen in their dining room. Upperclassmen who wish to leave offerings may place their contributions in the box in the rear of the Sorin chapel.

Adoration All Day.

The Blessed Sacrament remains exposed today for your adoration. You can enter best into the spirit of this Notre Dame institution if you vest in cassock and surplice and occupy a place in the sanctuary. You will find cassocks and surplices in the sacristy, which is located in what you would call the left wing of the church; more technically, it is situated just beyond the door of the west transept. -- The football team will appreciate a remembrance in your prayers before the Blessed Sacrament today and in your Holy Communion tomorrow; what happened to Fred Collins last week should be lesson enough. Nearly a thousand students failed to respond last Saturday to the appeal to offer Holy Communion to prevent injuries to the team.

Great Indulgences Tomorrow.

A plenary indulgence for each visit to the church may be gained from noon tomorrow until Sunday evening, provided you receive the Sacraments either of the two days, and pray each visit for the intentions of the Holy Father. These are what are called the Indulgences of the feast of the Holy Rosary. The feast is Sunday; the first Vespers of the feast begin at noon Saturday.

It would be well for you to make a list of the persons for whom you wish to offer the indulgences of your visits: place on the names of members of your immediate family who may be deceased, then your ancestors and other relatives, your school friends, the deceased pastors of your home parish, those of your old teachers who have gone to their reward, Bill Daily, deceased Notre Dame students, and so forth. You will find that you have many to pray for.

To make a visit you have to enter the church, say a prayer, and leave. For a prayer you may offer five Our Father's and Hail Mary's, or something equivalent, such as a Litany. No set prayers are prescribed, but they must be for the intentions of the Holy Father, which are, peace among nations, the triumph of the Church, the conversion of sinners, and the extirpation of heresies.

What is an indulgence? It is the remission of all or part of the temporal punishment still due to sin after the sin itself has been forgiven. A plenary indulgence is the remission of all punishment still due. The amount of remission you gain when you fulfill the works prescribed for the indulgence by the Church, depends upon your dispositions. Do the best you can. -- And don't despise this great opportunity.

General Confession.

Most fears about past confessions are vain; but if you can't dismiss a worry about the past, tell a priest about it. He will settle your doubt in short order.
