Eugene Field expresses far better than you or I can the way we all feel about Mother. Here is the oft-repeated stanza concerning "Mother" which he wrote in his poem: "Good-by—God Bless You:"

I love the words,— perhaps because
When I was leaving Mother,
Standing at last in solemn pause
We looked at one another.
And I—I saw in Mother's eyes
The love she could not tell me,—
A love eternal as the skies,
Whatever fate befall me;
She put her arms around my neck
And soothed the pain of leaving,
And though her heart was like to break—
She spoke no word of grieving;
She let no tear bedim her eye,
For fear that might distress me,
But, kissing me, she said good-by,
And asked our God to bless me.

Did you ask God to bless your Mother by making the Novena for Mother's Day? Be sure, whatever you do tomorrow, to offer Mass and Communion for her?

The Eucharistic Congress.

At 2:00 tomorrow, the University Gymnasium will be filled in honor of Christ in the Blessed Sacrament. The Most Reverend Bishop, sponsor of this Congress, invites you to share with the clergy and parishioners of the South Bend Deanery the public tribute paid Our Lord on this occasion. The afternoon will close with Benediction at the Grotto.  Singing will be provided by parish choirs, the St. Mary's College choir and the Moreau Choir of Notre Dame.

Clothe The Naked.

Because Christ lives in men; because He associates Himself particularly with their souls (no matter how tattered their suits and dresses may be), He once said: "Whatsoever you do to the least of my brethren, you do to Me,"  Yet, because God does dwell within, all men should be neat in their external appearance.  The St. Vincent De Paul Society knows many families whose apparel is a little shabby through no fault of their own. Keep in mind the dignity befitting all men, as Temples of God, when one of the local Vincentians calls at your door next Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday to pick up whatever you'll give of your bursting wardrobe for Christ's poor.

Money Back, Please.

The Prefect of Religion would like to square his account with the Catholic Digest. If committeemen who distributed the May number through the halls will make their returns before ten tomorrow night (107 Cavanaugh Hall), he will pay his debts Monday.  THE PUBLISHING EDITOR OF THE DIGEST OFFERS YOU THE SUMMER NUMBERS AT THE SAME PRICE MAIL IT TO YOUR HOME ADDRESS. DEPARTURES AT ANY REFLECT OF DIGESTION "THEY CAN'T GET AWAY.
