When You Miss One Holy Communion.

It is well for you to consider what you lose every morning that you pass up Holy Communion:

1. You miss a personal visit with Jesus, Author of all spiritual energy and of all holiness;
2. You lose a special increase of sanctifying grace, which makes your soul more pleasing to God;
3. You lose a quota of sacramental grace, which entitles you to special help in times of temptation and in the discharge of your special duties;
4. You lose a precious opportunity of having all your venial sins wiped away;
5. You miss the special preserving influence which each Holy Communion confers against the fires of passion;
6. You miss the opportunity of having remitted a part, or all, of the temporal punishments due to your sins;
7. You lose the spiritual joy, the sweetness, and particular comfort that come from a fervent Holy Communion;
8. You lose a part of the glory that your body might enjoy at its resurrection on the Last Day.
9. You lose the greater degree of glory you would possess in Heaven for all eternity;
10. You may lose:
   a. complete victory over some fault or passion;
   b. some particular grace long prayed for;
   c. the conversion or salvation of some soul;
   d. deliverance of a relative or friend from Purgatory;
   e. many graces for others, both the living and the dead.

Will a few extra minutes of sleep repay you for all these losses?

Crusade of Prayer.

The Crusade of Prayer until the Feast of Christ the King started this morning. It will consist of daily Mass and Communion; a Rosary said either at the Grotto or at Adoration — or better, at both places; and morning and night prayer.

The intention — for peace, but if war comes that it be a just one to be followed by the Pope's Tomorrow.

The upperclassmen (particularly the Gold Coasters) whom war will most effect still keep on, unmoved by "the next retreat-master in the country," by First Friday, by Mary's Daily, or by the Bulletin. A little thing like war or your appeal, John Doe, can't expect to wake them up, either.

Do You Join? First —

1. There is a plenary indulgence granted for the recitation of the Rosary in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament, whether exposed or unexposed.

2. Communion is distributed and Confessions heard Sundays before breakfast, 7:30 - 9:00 A.M., in Dillon Chapel. Confessions heard every evening, Dillon, 5:15 - 7:00.

3. If all men were as afraid of the devil as they are of work, the devil would be mighty longgone.
