Notre Dame Archives: Alumnus
Drop down dew, ye heavens, from above and let the clouds rain the Just.
— Isaiah 43:8.

And she brought forth her first born Son and wrapped Him in swaddling clothes and laid Him in a manger.

Merry Christmas
To the Coaches and the Team of 1938

Notre Dame men, through the ALUMNUS, take this opportunity to extend congratulations to head coach Elmer Layden, '25, his assistants, and the varsity squad of 1938.

An alumni-coached team in an alumni-administered college must always advance alumni interest and enthusiasm. When it is accompanied by victories, as in the 1938 season, naturally both are intensified. And when, in defeat, as in the ultimate reversal at Southern California, appear those things deeper than victory, which Notre Dame has always taught, and which informed American sportsmanship under the leadership of Knute K. Rockne, '14, then alumni everywhere rejoice.

The football season of 1938 has produced—and nothing more complimentary could be said—another company of Notre Dame men who take their places with '88, '03, '09, '24, '29, '30, and other Notre Dame immortals beloved but less sung.

SOME OF THE WORLD'S foremost scholars gathered at Notre Dame on November 4 and 5 to address and attend a Symposium on Political and Social Philosophy.

The speakers and their subjects were as follows:

Jacques Maritain (Institut Catholique, Paris) "Integral Humanism and the Crisis of Modern Times.
Carl J. Friedrich (Harvard University) "The Threat of State Absolutism.
Jerome G. Kervin (University of Chicago) "The Church and the Garrison State.
Ferdinand A. Hermens (University of Notre Dame) "Dictatorships and Economic Policy.
Goetz Briefs (Georgetown University) "The Rise and Full of the Proletarian Utopia.
Mortimer J. Adler (University of Chicago) "Parties and the Common Good.
Walidemar Guriin (University of Notre Dame) "Problems Facing Catholic Rulers.
Donald Davidso (Vanderbilt University) "Agrarianism and Politics.
Yves R. Simon (Faculte Catholique de Lille and University of Notre Dame) "The Concepts of Work and Workman.
Rev. Virgil Michel (St. John's University, Minnesota) "Ownership and the Human Person.
Charles G. Fenwick (Bryn Mawr College) "The Eclipse of International Law.
Father Leo R. Ward, associate professor of philosophy, presided at the sessions of the symposium. The addresses of Dr. Adler and Dr. Fenwick were presented in Washington Hall for the benefit of a much-interested and appreciative public.

Most of the papers to the symposium are soon to appear in the Review of Politics, new Notre Dame quarterly edited by Dr. Waldemar Gurian. The Alumnus will not, therefore, attempt to present these papers. Interested persons may subscribe to the Review at a cost of $2.50 per year or 75 cents a single copy.

Dr. Irvin K. Abell, Louisville, Kentucky, president of the American Medical Association, received the Laetare Medal for 1938 in a Washington Hall ceremony on November 5. The presentation was made by Rev. John F. O'Hara, C.S.C., president of the University. Rev. Norbert C. Hoff, associate professor of philosophy, gave an outstanding address on the significance of the Medal.

Among the many distinguished guests present for the occasion were the following: Most Rev. Joseph Schrembs, bishop of Cleveland; Most Rev. Joseph E. Ritter, bishop of Indianapolis; Rev. Dennis F. Burns, S.J., president of Xavier University, Cincinnati; Rev. John L. Sheridan, president of Mt. St. Mary's College, Emmitsburg, Maryland; and Dr. R. A. Kent, president of the University of Louisville, with Mrs. Kent. Members of the St. Joseph Valley section of the American Medical Association were especially invited guests.

Newspaper and Radio have long since brought to most Alumnus readers the happy news that Father John F. O'Hara, C.S.C., president of the University, is one of his country's representatives to the Pan-American conference which opened in Lima, Peru, on December 9. Father O'Hara, with other members of the United States delegation headed by Secretary of State Cordell Hull, sailed for South America on November 25.
OLD-TIMERS AT MINNESOTA GAME

The ALUMNUS photographer caught this imposing group of Old-Timers in the stadium on November 12. Seated with Cap Edwards is the famous Joe Pliska.

Notre Dame monogram men of all sports who played from 1910 to 1914 — the era of Knute K. Rockne’s collegiate career — cheered as the 1938 Irish edition toppled Minnesota before 56,000 spectators in Notre Dame stadium, November 12.

On the Friday preceding the game, the Old-Timers were guests of honor at a dinner in the University dining hall. Frank Miles, South Bend, national secretary of the Notre Dame Monogram club, presided. Rev. Hugh O’Donnell, C.S.C., vice-president of the University, spoke briefly.

Before the dinner, the Old-Timers attended the pep rally in the gymnasium, listening to such speakers as: the Rev. John C. McGinn, professor of sociology at Notre Dame; Father O’Donnell; Lowell Thomas, radio commentator, who had broadcast from the east dining hall earlier in the evening; Francis Wallace, author and Notre Dame alumnus; Coach Layden; Warren Brown, Chicago Herald and Examiner sports editor; and Jim McGolbrick, football captain.

Following the rally, the Old-Timers were guests at a smoker sponsored by the Notre Dame club of the St. Joseph Valley in the Elks’ temple in South Bend. Speakers there included: Coach Layden, Walter (Red) Barber, Mutual Broadcasting company sports announcer; Joe Boland, Irish line coach; and other newspapermen and sports celebrities. Howard (Cap) Edwards, South Bend captain of the 1909 Notre Dame team, was toastmaster. Track Coach John P. Nicholson refereed a mock wrestling match, which was the major entertainment.

Arthur R. Carmody, ’15, Shreveport, Louisiana; Charles G. Corcoran, ’17, Springfield, Illinois; Clarence J. Kline, ’21, Notre Dame; James R. Walsh, ’17, Chicago; Fred L. Steers, ’11, Chicago; Cecil E. Birdie, ’14, St. Paul, Minnesota; Martin L. Henchey, ’14, Toledo, Ohio; Paul K. Barsalou, ’11, Chicago; Rev. J. J. Reynolds, ’17, Notre Dame; John J. Voelkers, ’07, South Bend; Leo J. Vogel, ’17, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania; Edward J. Lynch, ’18, Toledo; and Howard (Cap) Edwards, ’10 — the last two were coaches in the era. Jesse C. Harper, Rockne’s coach, was unable to be present.
Giving Is Not a New Idea

Rockne Memorial Campaign Among Notre Dame Alumni Reveals Our Alumni Unaware of Vital Part of Giving in Development of American Higher Education

(Ed Note: Following is an article prepared by the executive committee of the Rockne Memorial which every alumnus should find of importance.)

Since 1920, Notre Dame has grown rapidly and steadily in every proper direction of higher education.

Plant, personnel, enrolment, curriculum, and supplementary details have been built to a newer, larger scale, retaining the spirit of Notre Dame through it all, and bringing constantly increasing prestige to Notre Dame men.

Since 1921, when the first appeal was made by Notre Dame for funds to outside friends and alumni, gifts and bequests have amassed at Notre Dame slightly under $1,000,000 in endowment, scholarship funds, and special funds of various kinds.

With this comparatively small total financial resource, Notre Dame has nevertheless brought itself into the forefront of Catholic education, and has taken its place among the leading American universities.

From reactions to the Rockne Memorial campaign, friendly in themselves but uninformed, and a handicap to the progress of the Memorial and the University, it becomes evident that a little more emphasis must be placed on the need for financial support if this place in the sun which Notre Dame has won is to be maintained.

Most graphic emphasis this month is a set of statistics compiled by the John Price Jones Corporation, showing the gifts and bequests made to some half hundred American educational institutions from July 1, 1920, to June 30, 1937 — the same period during which Notre Dame has done an outstanding job not of keeping pace but of gaining steadily on the leaders. A few examples are selected, largely those schools with whose grad-

Surely, from the above figures, it is obvious why Notre Dame, even with its enrolment, with its endowment, and with its athletic receipts, enjoys a comparatively good season, must seek additional aid.

The miracle of Notre Dame’s demands is its modesty. Particularly is this so in the face of achievement.

Last year, and this year, Presidents William E. Cotter and Ambrose A. O’Connell have outlined to you these facts in various graphic form.

We had hoped that the position of the University in the solicitation of funds for the Rockne Memorial was clear.

Circumstances indicate that the program of education of our alumni is far from complete.

We believe that you have, as you have always had, the real spirit of Notre Dame.

But when only 2% of our Notre Dame men contribute to a Memorial of the nature and the purpose of the Memorial to Knute K. Rockne, in the height of a season that has made him live again gloriously in the minds and hearts of all America, we believe that something is wrong.

Campaign Consolations

Not all of the outlook of the Rockne Memorial is as gloomy as the figures indicate.

Brightest spot, in one sense, and most embarrassing from the alumni standpoint, is the work of the so-called Civic Committees, albeit there has been a happy participation by some of our well known alumni in these groups.

In the St. Joseph Valley, in New York, and in Chicago, to date, there has been, in addition to the work of the Alumni Clubs there, the organization of a committee of prominent citizens, alumni and friends of Notre Dame who are not alumni, to solicit larger contributions from their own ranks and from personal friends of the committee members known to be friendly to Knute Rockne and the University.

In all three instances the Civic Committee chairmen have been alumni — E. M. Morris, ’06, in South Bend; Grattan Stanford, ’04, in New York, and Arthur J. Hughes, ’11, in Chicago. But sharing the glory of achievement in all three Committees have been men who never attended Notre Dame, but who have willingly and with enthusiasm given not only of their resources, but of their time and effort, to reach the several goals.

Our Organization Improved

Considering the fact that this is the first major organization responsibility given to the District Governors, re-

| Forty-nine American colleges and universities, from 1920 to 1937, received total gifts of $538,089,355, an average of approximately $11,000,000 each. Notre Dame received, in gifts and bequests, less than $2,000,000. |

| Someboby paid 36% of your way through Notre Dame, since figures show that THE STUDENT PAYS ONLY 64% OF HIS PER CAPITA EDUCATION COST. Won’t you help continue this opportunity for some one else? |

The University spends as much ANNUALLY on student employment as the total amount sought for the Rockne Memorial from alumni, $200,000.

Don’t overestimate the football gate receipts, even this year. ATHLETICS RETURN ONLY 18% OF THE UNIVERSITY INCOME ANNUALLY.
results so far indicate that we are moving ahead encouragingly in the field of organization mechanics. With only two or three exceptions, the 22 District Governors, and in most cases their Lieutenant-Governors, have cooperated actively in the work of distributing the assignments of the campaign.

It is not so surprising, but it is most stimulating, to have the majority of the Local Alumni Clubs, respond actively to the demands of the drive.

From the angle of intensifying our organization and motivating our officers, we will emerge from this work vastly improved, on the basis of present indications.

Our records will be greatly improved as a result of the mailing of the Memorial folder to every non-graduate as well as graduate on our list. Obviously, in the non-graduate category, there were many errors in address, as this was the first general mailing sent to this group in several years. The indulgence as well as the assistance of the officers throughout the country in checking and correcting these errors has been asked by the Alumni Office.

The Sine Qua Non
But in the last analysis, the measure of the success of a campaign is not its enthusiasm, not its inches of newspaper publicity, not its radio appeals, not its number of active workers, not the merit of its appeal, not the by-products such as the building of records and the engendering of permanent good-will.

The success of the drive is measured by the figures that follow the $. We needed, thanks to liberal factors which reduced our obligations, some $200,000.

With all the benefits to date as outlined, the unhappy fact is that we are still some $150,000 short.

BUT — if the 98% of our alumni who have not yet responded, would respond in anything like the proportions of the 2% who have volunteered at the first call, the Memorial would be fittingly free from further obligations. It is not now a nebulous thing, but a great and majestic part of the campus where Knute Rockne studied, lived, played, taught, and contributed so brilliantly to Notre Dame that for years his work has carried a burden for Notre Dame that would otherwise have most certainly been ours.

So why don't you sit down, now, and write out a check, or fill in that pledge card. Don't send in $5 cash if you think it will mean as much as $1 or $2 each month for a year. There's a little more red tape to the deferred payments, but this is one instance where the bird in the hand theory doesn't hold. We need an average of $10 from every N. D. man. It is doubtful if 50% will respond. That means an average of $20 from each responding alumnus. And since many are giving smaller amounts, that means a large number of gifts are necessary from $25 and $50 up.

As the folder said, do not only your share, but the share of some N. D. man who perhaps wants to give and can't.

Let us do our part in maintaining and increasing the prestige of our Alma Mater. Let's help them carry the torch of Christian education for the benefit of our country.

We have a simple but definite manner in which we may cooperate at this very time. For years Notre Dame has been handicapped by the lack of adequate facilities for the physical and recreational developments of the very time. For years Notre Dame has been handicapped by the lack of adequate facilities for the physical and recreational developments of the rank and file of her students. Depending on us, the authorities of the University have gone ahead with the

Don’t we know there’s a depression? In the statistics from the John Price Corporation, elsewhere GIFTS AND BEQUESTS TO HIGHER EDUCATION WERE ALMOST THE SAME DURING THE DEPRESSION WHICH FOLLOWED 1929.

Erection of the Rockne Field House which will meet all these requirements. As designed, the building will be the center of interhall athletics. The minimum cost of the Memorial is estimated at $350,000, which has already been accounted for. A further sum of $200,000 is needed if the structure is to be completed.

This is where we come into the picture. Our help is needed in raising these funds. If each of us will do his hit wholeheartedly, the money can be raised. I am very proud of the work that many of our Alumni Clubs have already done in this connection. If you have not been contacted through your Alumni organization, you will be; and when you are approached, I am satisfied you will do the best you possibly can in the promotion of this splendid enterprise. You will be offering a tribute to the immortal Rock and you will be helping in a most worthy and laudable project.

(Sig.) AMBROSE A. O’CONNELL; ’07
President of the Alumni Association

FROM THE PRESIDENT . . .

The magnificent work that has been done by Elmer Layden and the Notre Dame team upon the gridiron has brought added distinction and prestige to every Notre Dame man throughout the nation. Their success in playing a most difficult schedule and in overcoming tremendous odds has meant a great deal to us in our daily lives. In business and professional life and in our social contacts we have all felt the benefit of the victories of our team. There is no one who is not happy to stand out and proclaim himself a Notre Dame man.

The good fathers and brothers at the University also have been doing for us in the field of education what Elmer and his boys are doing for us on the football field. The inspired work of Father O’Hara and those associated with him at Notre Dame has established the University as one of America’s foremost institutions of education. All of us who have had the good fortune to attend Notre Dame share in the ever-increasing glory of our University, and I take this occasion on behalf of the Notre Dame Alumni Association and myself to express to Father O’Hara, to the priests and brothers at Notre Dame, to Elmer Layden, and to the members of his squad our heartfelt congratulations and our grateful appreciation for all they are doing and have done for us.

Let us not break faith with them.

PRESIDENT O’CONNELL

Last year 5,000 Northwestern alumni gave Northwestern $60,000 just on the Living Endowment Fund. In 17 years, by the way, Northwestern has raised $40,500,000.
“It pertains to the wise man to put things in order.” Aristotle first said this. Saint Thomas Aquinas repeated it. To put things in order is to put them in their proper places. The opposite of wisdom is folly. The wise man brings about order; the fool produces chaos. If there is chaos in modern life today, then the fool is at work. To get rid of the chaos the first need is the formation of wise men.

What is wisdom? It is a form of knowledge. It is not ordinary knowledge, though the wise man must be a man of common sense. It is not what is ordinarily meant by science, though the wise man is scientific in a very profound sense. Ordinary knowledge is largely about facts, and is acquired in a fragmentary fashion. Scientific knowledge is chiefly about causes, and is acquired in a methodical fashion. Wisdom is the knowledge about the ultimate causes of things. The wise man, therefore, is he who contemplates the totality of things in the light of their ultimate foundations. The wise man “sees life steadily and sees it whole.”

Concerning Superficial Order

Why sapientis est ordinare? Because only he whocontemplates the whole knows where the part in the last analysis belongs. It is true enough that superficial order may be brought out by the fool. But superficial order is fundamental disorder. There is superficial order under the lash of a tyrant or a dictator. There may be superficial order in a college curriculum. In these and other instances where the direction of true wisdom is or may be despised the latent chaos is bound to become manifest after a time.

There are three, and only three, forms of Wisdom. All forms must be present and operative in a given society if order and peace, which is merely the tranquillity of order, are to prevail. The almost complete absence of any of these forms of Wisdom in modern life accounts for the rampant chaos in the different fields of human endeavor. The fool for the time being has triumphed. There is no reason to believe, however, that his triumph will be perpetual.

The three forms of wisdom are Metaphysics, Sacred Theology, and Mystical Wisdom (the gift of the Holy Ghost). The least noble form is metaphysics. The metaphysician, by the light of reason alone, analyzes the nature of the universe about him, and ascends to a consideration of its first cause, God. The object of his study is Being, and the ultimate cause of Being. Though the lowest among the types of Wisdom, metaphysics, by the reason of the dignity and universality of its object, is necessarily superior to every form of science. The fool disdains metaphysics, and believes that order can be effected without it. It is a manifestation of foolishness to believe that science can by itself alone bring about order in human life.

Theology’s Proper Object: God

About the wisdom of philosophy is the wisdom of supernatural theology. It is supernatural, because its principle is the infused virtue of Faith. Theology has for its end the conceptual analysis of revealed truths and the deduction of other truths virtually contained in the data of Revelation. Its proper object is God, the ultimate cause, and therefore it is wisdom.

Theology is a higher wisdom than

ROCKNE MEMORIAL FUND

Lack of space on pages 76 and 77, devoted largely to the acknowledgment of contributions to the Rockne Memorial Fund, prevented the inclusion of several explanatory notes.

James M. Cleary, Chicago, gave a total of $100 in November. Of this amount, $80 was to be credited to a previous most generous pledge to the Fund and $20 was included in the November entries as officially printed.

Similarly, Robert V. Dunne, ’26, San Francisco, contributed a generous $100 in November. Of this, $56 was paid on a previous pledge and $44 entered as a new pledge.

Arch Ward, ’21, a member of the Civic Committee in Chicago, not only raised well over $2,000 among his friends for the Fund, but he himself gave $50 in November, of which $35 was a new contribution.

To all of these (and others not so far listed) the officers of the Rockne Memorial Association express special thanks. A second contribution to the Fund is an evidence of particular loyalty to Notre Dame and Rock.

Metaphysics, because it studies God not merely in so far as He is knowable through creatures, but in so far as He is known only to Himself, an intimate knowledge communicable to others only by Revelation. The theologian knows God as God, in His very Deity or in His intimate life, God as the author of grace and of eternal beatitude, an object of knowledge essentially supernatural.

Theology is the complement of philosophy, as grace is of nature. The one (Theology) draws its first principles from Revelation; the other draws its from nature. Philosophy primarily ascends, from man and nature to their Creator: theology primarily descends, from the Creator and Redeemer to creature.

There is a third wisdom, the supreme wisdom of life. It is the wisdom of the saints, the gift of the Holy Ghost, the gift of Wisdom. Founded on infused Charity it acquires its possessor a quasi-experimental knowledge of God. It enables him not merely to assent to the truth of the revealed mysteries but to regard them as sovereignly good and worthy of love. St. Catherine of Siena was endowed fulsomely with this form of wisdom. She brought order about in the Church. St. Joan of Arc also possessed it in rich measure. She brought order about in France. Maritain believes that the teachings of St. Augustine were largely the fruit of this highest wisdom.

Putting the Cart First

From the viewpoint of practical ordering of human affairs, Theology is the most important form of wisdom. In a state of pure nature, the natural wisdom (metaphysics) would have sufficed for intellectual perfection and the effecting of order (through Ethics). But man has been elevated to the supernatural order. Intellectual and moral perfection now require a higher wisdom. The de facto supernatural order demands an ethics which is supernaturalized, a fusion with theology. And those subjects subordinate to ethics: education, sociology, economics, political science, etc., must submit to the same theological enlightenment or fail to be realistic or Catholic. A great scholar has recently declared that the decline of theology is one of the main causes for the evils which afflict us today.

SPOTLIGHT ALUMNI

Born in Ottawa, Illinois, within a few months of each other, classmates in law at Notre Dame as well as roommates, close friends through all the years, Harry Kelly, Detroit, and John Cassidy, Peoria, both of the class of 1917, were at almost the same time chosen for two of the highest offices in their respective states. Harry was elected secretary of state in Michigan on November 8. Two weeks later, John was appointed attorney general of Illinois by Governor Henry Horner to fill a vacancy.

The parallel lines in their lives didn't end at Notre Dame. Both of the student lawyers left the campus in the spring of 1917 to enlist in the first Officers' Training Camp, Fort Sheridan, Illinois, both were there commissioned as lieutenants and both were sent overseas for active service in the World War. Harry fought in the battles of Belleau Wood and Chateau Thierry and, in the latter, suffered the loss of a leg. He received the Distinguished Service Cross and the Croix de Guerre for gallantry in action. John participated in every major combat of the American Expeditionary Forces and was wounded in the second Meuse-Argonne Drive. Upon being mustered out in 1919, he was awarded the decoration of the Purple Heart, given only to wounded soldiers.

Harry returned to Ottawa in 1918 to serve a four-year term as state's attorney. In 1922 he followed his father and his brother to Detroit to form the legal firm of Kelly, Kelly & Kelly. There, in 1930, he was appointed assistant prosecuting attorney and, in 1935, he was named Detroit manager of the Michigan Liquor Control Commission. In the primaries of 1938 he served as Wayne County campaign manager for Governor-elect Fitzgerald of Michigan.

Always intensely enthusiastic and active in Notre Dame affairs Harry was elected president of the Notre Dame club of Detroit in 1930 and is at present a trustee of the club. In 1937-38, he was first vice-president of the Alumni Association. He and his wife (the former Anne O'Brien of Detroit) are the parents of four boys (including seven-year old twins) and one girl.

John began his law practice in Chicago in the legal department of the Aetna Life Insurance Company and, in 1920, was transferred to Peoria by the company. He began a private practice of law in Peoria in 1921 and has continued successfully in that field since then. He was, in 1932, a delegate to the Democratic national convention and, in 1934, was appointed director of the National Emergency Council in Illinois.

Like Harry Kelly, John has always been in the forefront of Notre Dame activities and has been one of the leading figures in the Notre Dame Club of Peoria. He is at present lieutenant-governor of District 16 of the Alumni Association. He and Mrs. Cassidy, formerly Susan Casey of Peoria, are the parents of four boys and three girls.

Where do the parallel lines diverge? Harry is a Republican and John is a Democrat.

David Worth Clark, '22, Boise, is the new United States senator from Idaho after serving two terms as congressman from the second Idaho district. Previously, in 1933-34, Worth was assistant attorney general in his home state.

Research brings to light many interesting things about Senator-elect Clark; throughout his four years at Notre Dame he was prominent in campus activities. An honor student, he was a member of the varsity debating team and the Commencement orator for his class. On the social side, he was a member of the Senior Ball committee in 1922 and was active as well in the guidance of other formal dances.

Significantly, the class prophet said of him in the 1922 Dome: "To concentrate an adequate idea of this man's personality and the scope of his duties into the confines of this prophecy is properly the work of a hydraulic press rather than of a very human pen. Worth has the faculty of making and holding friends. We are certain that the '22 alumni will include among them the first man of the land, Mr. Justice Clark, or something of that nature.”

Worth attended Harvard Law School after leaving Notre Dame and was married to Virgil Irwin, of Tulsa.

Governor-elect of Nevada

is Edward P. “Ted” Carville, ’09, one of the most devoted and generous of Notre Dame alumni, and, incidentally, one of three Notre Dame men in his whole state.

Within three years after finishing his law course on the campus, the young Attorney Carville was district attorney of Elko County, Nevada. He served in that office for six years. In 1926 he became district judge for the fourth judicial district of Nevada and, in his eight years on the bench, disposed of, with distinction, some of the state’s most important problems. He was United States attorney for Nevada from 1934 until June of this year and in the discharge of his federal duties won the special commendation of Attorney General Cummings.

Governor-elect Carville was governor of District 20 of the Alumni Association in 1935-36. He was married, in 1910, to Irma Callahan and there are three Carville sons. One of the sons, Edward, was a student at Notre Dame in 1930-32.

Vincent F. Harrington, ’25

SIOUX CITY, was returned to Congress in the November 8 elections and will again represent the ninth district of Iowa. He was elected for the first time in November, 1936.

After a student life of prominence at Notre Dame where he was a leading guard in the Four Horsemen era of football, Vince was athletic director again of football, Vince was athletic director and instructor at the University of Portland, Portland, Oregon, for two years. He returned to Sioux City in 1927 as vice-president and general manager of the Continental Mortgage Company. From 1932 to 1936 he served as state senator in three sessions of the Iowa Senate. He was nominated for lieutenant-governor of Iowa on the Democratic ticket in the June, 1936 primary, but later withdrew to run for Congress.

Congressman Harrington, ’25

Vince was married to Catherine O’Connor, of Homer, Nebraska, in 1929 and he is the father of two daughters. He has been consistently a leading figure in Sioux City affairs. He was author, in 1931, of a pamphlet entitled The Tax Tangle in Iowa.

are three Carville sons. One of the sons, Edward, was a student at Notre Dame in 1930-32.

Robert A. Grant, A.B. ’28, LL.B. ’30, South Bend, was, on November 8, elected congressman from the third district of Indiana on the Republican ticket after a close battle with another Notre Dame attorney from South Bend, George Beumer, ’29, Democrat.

Bob was born in Bourbon, Indiana, attended grade school in Hamlet, Indiana, and high school in South Bend. He is a member of the law firm of VoOr (Bill, ’25), Jackson and Grant. He has served as deputy prosecutor of St. Joseph County, as well as federal conciliation commissioner for the county under the Farm Act. The commissioners of St. Joseph County named him as county representative on the local licensing board.

An active member of the First Methodist Episcopal Church in South Bend and a former officer of the South Bend Union of Epworth Leagues, Bob is also well known as a 32nd degree Mason. One of the University’s leading musicians in his student days,
CAMPUS NOTES

PURELY SMOKE

When the doldrums hit the campus about this time every year comes inevitably the flock of rumors that everyone sincerely believes and spreads and forgets. In the short time that has elapsed since September we have heard the following: three extra days at Thanksgiving; only Monogram men will be admitted to the Rochelle Memorial. But last month saw a juicy bit floating through the air and into ears that would do credit to a Paul Bunyan. As reported by the Scholastic's "Week," Bill Donnelly, Queen's Village, New York, it went like this:

"1. The R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company has offered to pay the expenses of every student for a trip to the Pacific Coast for the Southern California game on condition that the migration be entitled 'The Camel Caravan' and that it be used for the publicity purposes of the company.

"2. The University authorities have accepted the offer.

"3. LATE FLASH 'Camel Caravan' report further verified with the added information that the method of transportation will be to fly a flotilla of airplanes flying in the formation of a huge ND."

And the final report on the affair was that if the Camel people wouldn't do it the Marijuana people would.

THE BEST

According to a poll conducted by a member of the Scholastic staff Ted Hunsing topped all other broadcasters for the position of favorite sports observer. Far behind were Red Barber and Bill Stern, and still farther behind were Bob Elson and South Bend's Lee Douglass.

CRITICISM

Members of the Glee Club, recently streamlined, reorganized, and with a new director, were highly indignant at a review of their two concerts carried in the Scholastic. Proclaimed the reviewer: "Neither improvement nor retrogression was noted. . . ."

RUBBER, FOOD, TAPE, ETC.

Dave Meshill, Boston, led the boys of the Commerce Forum on an investigation tour of Mishawaka—supposedly to inspect the Ball Band plant. The Forum also held its annual Communion breakfast on December's first Sunday. Approximately 150 attended.

"The Spoils of Victory" were enjoyed by those few Sophomores who attended the Sophomore Cotillion. President of the class, Joe Mulligan, Cleveland Heights, Ohio, presided at a dinner paid for by what was left over from the dance.

T. McGee Reardon led club presidents to the tape by a nose when he announced that his Kansas City club would host its Christmas dance December 20.

Chemists found much to praise in Editor Joe Mooreman's, four years out of Cincinnati, Ohio, first Catalyst.

Going high pressure and very Billy Roseish the Linnets, freshman choral, and dramatic, and music, and a lot of other things group, trotted out the complete and uniformed freshman football team to demonstrate one phase of Notre Dame Life at a show in which they paid respects to the varsity team of this year. Next week "An Afternoon at St. Mary's" with—?

Fred Sisk, Trinidad, Colorado, led two members of his Academy of Political Science round the Round Table early this month in a radio discussion of "The City-Manager Governing System." The others taking part: Joe Messick, Chester, Pennsylvania, and Ted Kniecik, Muskegon, Michigan.

STAGNATION

Club activity on the campus this year has been almost stagnant. In times past the Scholastic carried what amounted to two or more columns of news about city or state clubs. This year it is an occasional issue which mentions anything about club doings and the reason is that the clubs just aren't doing. George O'Neill's Men's club has been the least offender, having run through a golf tournament, a Communion breakfast and a few other activities. But with the exception of this group and possibly one or two others there is decay and death among groups; from what we can gather most of them haven't even held a meeting right up to the time of this writing.

WOMEN

Competing with the Marx Brothers (whose version played at the Palace at the same time) the University Theatre presented that grand old drama "Room Service," complete with ice-bags, underwear, moose-heads, and real women, at two performances, November 22 and 23. Audience reception was astounding—in the good sense.

Jerry Hogan, Brooklyn's gift to the "drummer," played the lead while Miss Barbara Southard put up with him for three acts. Walt Hagen, Detroit, "owed" the boys with his staff owls, staff act, and cigar. Others in the cast were Miss Gertrude Krause; Vernon Witkowski, Detroit; Vincent Doyle, Brooklyn; Bill Cotter, New Rochelle, New York; John Coppinger, Brooklyn; Tom Tearney, Chicago; Robert Blake, Canton, Ohio; Erwin in Stefanie, Chicago; William Mulvey, Erie, Pennsylvania; and John Collins, Brooklyn.

WILES WILL WIN

It will be Morrissey vs. Alumni in the finals at the interhall debate league at St. Mary's. Richie Kieser, coached by Frank Fitch, Cherokee, Iowa, consisting of Tom Grady, former City, Illinois; Jack Walsh, Chicago; and Fred Holl, Honesdale, Pennsylvania, will be somewhat at a disadvantage because the Alumni boys are coached by Bob Worley, Cleveland Heights, Ohio's, gift to the Religious Bulletin, who has had some six year's experience with what goes on across the road, and who threatens to bring women's wiles into play to aid his boys.

One of the boys in Alumni Hall had a bright idea about a week ago; a very bright idea indeed, well planned and cleverly carried out. Said senior has a "one and only" at Phoenix, Arizona, and to play a cute prank on her enlisted the aid of the football team. On the way out to the disillusioning Saturday afternoon at Los Angeles, they were to drop off letters to give her the impression he was en route to the game.

But the team stopped a few days at Tucson, Arizona, and there was a real problem. But our hero was equal to it. Fearing that the girl might drive over to Tucson, he had one of the managers send a wire telling her that he had been called directly to Los Angeles.

Everything rosy, the clever lad sat back to await the acknowledgment of his genius. It came all right. Saturday morning he was handed a telegram from the girl: "Received your Tucson wire stop am in Los Angeles stop where are you?"

Now he's looking for a nice spot in the East where he can spend the Christmas vacation.
FOOTBALL

"Should Notre Dame slip past its first two or three games without a defeat, it will be a hard team to beat."—Alumnus, October, 1938.

Well, as you know from the public prints and from the very able review of the early season by Bill O'Toole, '39, in the November issue, the boys did slip by the first two or three games. And you also know by now that they were very hard to beat the rest of the way.... so hard that the season came right down to the last game before U. S. C. was able to turn the trick, 13 to 0.

Confidence was what the 1938 Irish needed more than anything. They got a fair share of this important ingredient by licking a strong Kansas team, 52 to 0, in one of those snow-balling openers.

Then came the 14 to 6 victory over Georgia Tech, when mistakes of inexperience were numerous, but not too numerous for a touchdown-minded Layden team to overcome. The Ramblin' Wrecks, celebrating their 50th anniversary, were a scrappy team, the aggressor all the way, and a team that ordinarily would get the breaks. But a fair amount of luck smiled on the Irish—Lou Zontini intercepted a pass and Joe Gubanich blocked a punt and twice Notre Dame got the ball on Tech's 43, punching it over in short order.

Notre Dame lightning struck twice to defeat Illinois, 14 to 6, when Harry Stevenson passed to Earl Brown for 35 yards after five minutes of play, and when little Ben Sheridan carried an Illini punt back 68 yards.

Nobody would believe it at the time, but Carnegie Tech was the toughest opponent faced by Notre Dame all season, and the Irish came out of that one the victors by 7 to 0. Tech was undefeated and untied except for the Notre Dame game, and will beat Texas Christian in the Orange Bowl, Jan. 2. There is no additional charge for this information. There are those who say Notre Dame was lucky to beat Tech, because of some confusion on the number of downs late in the game which resulted in the Irish getting the ball on the Tartan 47-yard line. But 47 yards is a long way to go against Carnegie, and the Irish—after wasting one play—used three offensive maneuvers previously undisclosed and marched to the end zone with Bill Kerr, sub left end, making the final seven yards on an end-around sweep.

Layden still wanted to know at this stage of the season if his team had heart, the kind of heart that brings warriors back from the jaws of defeat to victory. Notre Dame had never been behind when it went into the Army game. But Army proved a willing testing ground, taking the opening kickoff on the goal line and marching to a touchdown without losing the ball. Notre Dame scored on a Bob Saggau-to-Earl Brown pass, but Army's first extra point in 13 years and 13 attempts still left the Cadets ahead, 7 to 0, as the quarter opened. And don't let anyone tell you the Cadets overpowered the Irish. Army used its second team eight minutes of the second quarter while the Irish No. ones were still in there. But Sheridan fooled Army momentarily on a fake pass and ran 33 yards to the one-yard line, then plunged over for the winning score. Shortly later, Joe Thesing, who made 133 yards in 14 trips for his best day in two years of varsity fullbacking, got away for 47 yards and the clincher. Final: Notre Dame, 19; Army, 7.

These peculiar 1938 Irish stalled around for 20 minutes in the Navy game before deciding to go to work. Then Saggau entered the game at left halfback, and he and Zontini immediately launched a drive which carried for 80 yards, Saggau making the final 16. Later Notre Dame recovered a Middle fumble on the 16-yard line, and Thesing punched the ball across in easy stages. George Rassas, No. 3 left end, batted down a Navy pass in the closing minutes in the end zone for the safety that made it 15 to 0.

Came the Big Three: Minnesota, Northwestern, and Southern California—and we do mean BIG. The Irish had the speed and precision to offset Minnesota's size in the first of the three. Zontini went 84 yards on a perfect play, Johnny Kelly taking the safety man from his right end position, with the game less than five minutes old. With seconds left of the first half, Saggau unleashed a long pass to Earl Brown for another perfect play—Brown was in the clear by nearly 10 yards. Then with seconds left of the final quarter Saggau pitched another one to Kelly for a touchdown, and it was 19 to 0.

Notre Dame began to lose its edge against Northwestern, which overmatched the Irish in reserve strength. But Bill Hofer, husky senior quarterback who had been trying for three years, finally and his day. He carted an intercepted pass back 65 yards behind clean-up blocking to put Notre Dame ahead, but Northwestern forged to the front, 7 to 6, before the half. Then late in the game, Hofer was rushed in to try a placement from the 17-yard line. As John Carmichael of the Chicago Daily News put it, “Hofer put the ball on the end of his toe and booted it into the victory column, 7 to 7.”

Riding high in the No. 1 spot on football’s hit parade, the Irish tried to make it unanimous in Los Angeles before a Pacific Coast record crowd of 10,000 fans (plug for the publicity department.) No kidding, all the seats and eleven aisles were filled. Many factors entered into S.C.'s 13 to 0 victory, and we shall try to assure your sorrow over the outcome with a few “might have been.”

The Trojans were picked for the Rose Bowl the Monday before the Notre Dame game, in the face of no little criticism from the northern part of the state of California. They were out to prove their right to the bid. Coach Howard Jones said at a lunch-on during the week “I am trying to impress my boys with the necessity of stopping that ‘one play’ that Notre Dame, has been able to work for victory all season.” And to do this, he sent on to the field as demonica a group of tacklers as these eyes have ever seen. Shoestring or shoulder or jersey tackles—they served their purpose. Southern California had all the size of Minnesota and Northwestern, and twice the speed.

The Irish had been outkicking the opposition all year and Southern California had kicked poorly all season—but the tables were turned on Dec. 8. The Irish might have had the opportunity all year, but in that game Southern California took advantage of two breaks to win. Let's consider that much-discussed fourth down running play for which Quarterback Steve Sitko has been taking so much abuse. There were 35 seconds left to inside time would have gone on, and there was no reason to suppose the officials’ judgment all the way. Then, when Notre Dame took the kickoff, Saggau was loose except for one Trojan, Mickey Anderson, who might have been knocked down by one Notre Dame blocker had the latter been so minded—and Notre Dame might have gone ahead, 7 to 6, at this stage.

Southern California got its second touchdown after recovering Milt Piepul’s fumble on the Notre Dame 35. The Trojans simply punched their way through the second string line to cut up the yardage necessary. But not to censure Piepul, who turned in some grand ball games for the Irish this year, and committed only that one fumble all season.

Notre Dame could have come back into the game in the closing minutes—and it’s been done before—after marching to the Trojan 16 from the Irish 32. Here Saggau was rushed on a pass and he threw to Brown in the end zone when Sitko was wide open. Southern California got its second touchdown after recovering Milt Piepul’s rumble on the Notre Dame 35. The Trojans simply punched their way through the second string line to cut up the yardage necessary. But not to censure Piepul, who turned in some grand ball games for the Irish this year, and committed only that one fumble all season.

Notre Dame could have come back into the game in the closing minutes—and it’s been done before—after marching to the Trojan 16 from the Irish 32. Here Saggau was rushed on a pass and he threw to Brown in the end zone when Sitko was wide open on the five-yard line. This is not to be taken as criticism of Saggau or anyone else, for he was rushed, and he played a beautiful game from start to finish. These are just—as we said—some of the might-have-beens.

In short, Notre Dame was beaten by a team that was better on that particular day, although the lads insist that Carnegie Tech and Northwestern were both tougher football teams. The Trojans deserved to win—we merely want to point out how Notre Dame might have won itself at left tackle, Joe DeFranco and Joe Gubanich, miniature guards, proved their sea-worthiness by surviving some of the nation’s best power attacks unscathed; Johnny McDonyle has the makings of a great center and Ted Harvey at right tackle. Saggau was loose except for one Trojan, Mickey Anderson, who might have been knocked down by one Notre Dame blocker had the latter been so minded—and Notre Dame might have gone ahead, 7 to 6, at this stage.

Looking toward next year, here’s the situation we find: the entire front line with the exception of Johnny Kelly, right end and captain-elect, lost by graduation. This includes Earl Brown, Ed Beiner, and Ed Longhi, who were rated as all-Americans; Paul Kell and Augie Bossu on the right side of the line, and Capt. Jim McGoldrick, a great leader and a fine left guard. The backfield loses such frequently seen operators as Hofer and Emmett Crowe at quarterback; Mete Toeselli and Ed Simovich at fullback; Paul Morrison and Max Burnell at right half. These are not the only casualties—only the principal ones.

Returning will be the first string backfield—Sitko, Zontini, Thesing and (take your pick) Sheridan, Saggau or Stevenson at left halfback. Bill Kerr at left end was only a step or so behind Brown. Gallagher at left tackle got a lot of seasoning and he should give good account of himself at left tackle. Joe DeFranco and Joe Gubanich, miniature guards, proved their sea-worthiness by surviving some of the nation's best power attacks unscathed; Johnny McIntyre has the makings of a great center and Ted Harvey at right tackle. Saggau was loose except for one Trojan, Mickey Anderson, who might have been knocked down by one Notre Dame blocker had the latter been so minded—and Notre Dame might have gone ahead, 7 to 6, at this stage.

It looks to this department like next year's biggest problem will be getting the lads ready for the opener with Purdue's Big 10 championship (Prediction No. 3—we really ought to charge you for these). If the Irish can come up to that one ready for anything, then not let down too much for the next three, we say again “they'll be a hard bunch to beat.” We personally guarantee victories over Carnegie Tech at Pittsburgh on Oct. 28 and over Southern California at Notre Dame Nov. 25.

A word about this department's favorite topic, the box office. Notre Dame played to total crowds in excess of 500,000 to top all other teams in the country in a nine-game schedule. There were sellouts at Atlanta, New York, Baltimore, Evanston, and Los Angeles, as well as at Notre Dame for the Minnesota game.

The Frank G. Dickenson system ranked Notre Dame No. 1 in the country, and the good professor personally presented Coach Layden with the Rockne Memorial trophy at the (Continued on Page 107)

Our regular October meeting was held in the Bohemian Room of the University Club where our guests were Father Hugh O'Donnell, vice-president of the University, and Jim Armstrong, our secretary. We thoroughly enjoyed having both of these men with us. Father O'Donnell spoke of the Rockne Memorial and imparted much new information as to where the various monies taken by the Notre Dame Club of Canton, Ohio, are now living at 310 Crescent Avenue, of this city.

Although we are quite late with the news, we wish to congratulate Fran Hanse in on his marriage September 24 to Miss Olive Lonz. Fran and the little lady are now living at 210 Crescent Avenue, of this city.

The Capital District Club set a new high in dinner turn-outs on October 26. Father O'Donnell gave an enjoyable, instructive talk. His appropriate stories prepared the minds of the 90 alumni and friends for his more serious points on the renewed Rockne Memorial Drive. The officers hope his words had the desired effect. Nevertheless, they are asking all the alumni to get their pledge cards in at once.

Some alumni that we haven't seen much of lately were out. Most of them rushed in so fast that the secretary couldn't get a line on them.

We did spot Nick Ambrosi, Bill Branigan, Bill Kearney, Ed Herlihy, Elmo Mayer, Leonard Mayer, Nick Tanscridi, Al Roeke, John Campbell, Bill Fitzpatrick, Joe O'Kane, and Frank Mahar.

To prove that the best laid plans go awry just consider that Nick Tanscridi and Dan Cunha didn't win the Football Trophy. Christian Brothers Academy is the 1938 winner of the Rockne award.

Joe O'Kane has started Catholic Central High School of Troy back to the football war. We understand that they will be competing for the Rockne Trophy next fall.

Louis Orgerson of Troy hopes that his work for the state in Syracuse shallacks in time for him to attend the Christmas dance.

Elmo Mayer has corrected the statement that house cleaning kept him from the outing last summer. The stock does not respect outing dates. Elmo's third child is named Nancy Ann. Elmo also was envying Marc Kirchner his trip to the Minnesota game.

The Minnesota game found all the club steadies grouped in Albany, chuckling as Minnesota got the first downs and we got the scores. Harold Rhodes almost fell off his chair when Zontini started his long gallop.

After this broadcast the tickets for the Christmas dance were distributed. A large gathering is expected on December 27 at Wolfert's Roost Country Club when the club members and friends will dance to the tuneful melodies of Gerde Randall's NBO orchestra.

This year, as never before, the alumni are coming together for small parties before the dance. We would like to have every person attending the dance attend one of the small parties where things will be served.

The students have signified (in writing) that they intend to turn out for the dance.

This is the big affair of our social year. Let's push it.

Mike Leding.

CANTON, O. [new club]

Robert C. Streb, '32, 1319 Worley Ave., N.W., President; George P. Maloney, Jr., '34, 822 Ridge Road, N.W., Secretary.

Some time ago, Bob Streb, '32, wrote you concerning the intention of a group of Notre Dame men to establish a local Alumni Association. I am very happy to say that this thought has become a reality, and the Notre Dame Club of Canton, Ohio, is now a going concern.

On Thursday, August 4, the first meeting of the Canton Club of the University of Notre Dame took place. It was held at the Akron Club just outside of town. Some 25 members attended. The party was a great success, and a good time was had by all. Bob Streb was elected president, and I was elected secretary and treasurer.

At that time, plans were made to hold a dance on the 27th of August at the Orchard Hill Country Club. These plans were completed. Everyone had a fine time, and what's more, we made a little money.

Today, being the date of the Notre Dame-Southern California game, arrangements have been made for a radio party to listen to it. For this purpose, we have secured a room at the Garden Grill Restaurant here in Canton. Glen Black, Glen Green, Bill Mays, Ray Oakes, '35, Norm Conley, '36, and Bob Streb, '22, have done a good job of it.

The alumni clubs of Northwestern and Notre Dame held a joint function on the eve of the Northwestern game. Coach Waldorf and his assistants attended. Coach Waldorf spoke very enthusiastically about Northwestern football relations with Notre Dame. The Hon. John F. O'Connell and President Waldorf held a discussion as to how the group as Notre Dame representatives. Warren Brown did an excellent job as guest speaker. You know Warren predicted a 14 to 7 win for Northwestern. It was the fact that he was so enthusiastic that made his camouflage coupled with Jefferson's ability would be the deciding factor. Maybe Warren had something in mind, or maybe he overlooked the possibility of Northwestern wearing white jerseys. Congratulations to a great team and Elmer Layden for providing such an excellent afternoon's performance and a score of 56-0 which was a real benefit to us Chicagoans.

Woods, on Monday, November 21, 1938, a meeting, somewhat unique but nevertheless very interesting in the way of Notre Dame affairs, was held at Al Stepans' home on the north side. A group of local fellows from the classes of 1929 to 1935 were present to enjoy some delightful baked ham, cheese and Fox De Luxe beer. Very appropriately, a 15-pound turkey was awarded as a door prize.

The Notre Dame Alumnus columnist. Don't those guys have everybody reins our critics down to a canter as they present their case? The correspondent has been heckled each time (he considers it an honor) he has reported the victories of Joe Beinor, Ted Twomey, and the combination of Joe Beinor, Ted Twomey, and Dracula. If Elmer had only seen that massacre I know he'd have invited us along to help him trim the Trojans, Jack, and myself. Naturally, and as long as you didn't see the game, we four starred. Dick threw the passes, Jim caught them, Kraftbeer made up the team, and I was our little assistant, the combination of Joe Beinor, Ted Twomey, and Dracula. The drive for the Rockne Memorial is under way among the alumni. Chairman Ed Gould has delegated to a number of assistants the naming of the alumni to contact by phone or in person, to keep alive the purpose and accomplish the desired financial goal.

A number of fellows from the Chicago area have been perpetuating the old time evening gatherings as might be held in the rec room of Browning Hall. It has been highly successful get-together. I attended the last one and enclosed a report of it as submitted to me. Had I only wished it was possible to have more class groups like this. Also more turkeys to win.

The Ohio State Alumni Association's Paul Oelerich has been chosen captain of Princeton's eleven for next year.

This has nothing to do with our local club, but did you read where Jack "Mother" Tierney's (Howard Hall, '29) young brother has been chosen captain of Princeton's eleven for next year?

Bob Zillik is now located in Chicago. I will never forget that day at school when Bill opened up his wallet and pulled out a dollar (Ind.). "Buzzle," or whatever it was, and there, in screaming, double face headlines, were the words: "Welcome, Natural Gas, Welcome."

Our Scholarship Fund was increased by more than $100 through the distribution of 16 tickets to the Minnesota game. The fund now totals nearly $400.

The annual Christmas Scholarship dance will again be held at the Lake Shore Athletic Club and Eitel's Yankee Grill. They were moved to the O'Toole residence on Luella Avenue where they grew tremendously. About 32 fellows were present at our meeting to consider the plans. It has been the aim of this group to meet in different sections of the city with the result that the recent meeting was held at the north side residence of Al Stepans. Neil Harley has offered the use of his room in River Forest for the meeting on January 16, 1939. Anyone from out of town who will be in Chicago at that time is welcome to attend. Jim Doyle, Eddie Ryan and Don O'Toole have more or less informally arranged for the various meetings from time to time.

This group, composed of Chicagoans who attended the Princeton game, has been getting together mainly to maintain that friendship and have a chance to talk things over in a very informal manner.

Jim Iggo, George Braunsfirm, Tige Woods, Fran Oelerich and Edwin Black, fellows of the local club, were guests. Other fellows present were Bill Chawko, Jack Schmidt, John Sherman, Bert Metzger, Eddie Ryan, Maury Lee, Paul and Don O'Toole, John and Jim O'Shaughnessey, Fred Beckenfield, Joel Os­ transder, Walt Roney, Ray Milton and Henry Fox, Al Stepans, our host, Jim Downs, Bill Leasy, Jim Carr, Bob Wilson, Richard B. Seaman, Barry O'Keefe, Ben Oakes, Bob Pendergraft, Frank Holland, Ben Salray, Karl Kleighe, Jack Lynch, Vine Ponie, Walter Cahill, Red O'Connell, Jack Crowley, Bill McCurdy and Bud Groves.

Theatre was celebrated at a dance held at the Stevens Hotel, Saturday night, November 21. The official attendance figures are not in yet, and estimates of anywhere from 500 to 700 couples have been made. Colonel Frank Fehr of Louisville, Kentucky was one of the distinguished guests. The colonel played on the original Notre Dame team of '37. He told of defeating Northwestern 9 to 0 in 1932, and described the entire Northwestern white jerseys. Congratulations to a great team and Elmer Layden for providing such an excellent afternoon's performance and a score of 56-0 which was a real benefit to us Chicagoans.

The last meeting, held at Kemper Lane Hotel, was attended by several notable alumni such as Elmer Layden, Bob Wilke, Matt Thomas, and about 25 fellows from the local clubs. The location has not been selected to date. The committee in charge of the dance is headed by Walter Niesavich, chairman. The rest of the committee is composed of Joseph Morrissey, George Ang, Robert Hughes, Donald Dixon, Richard Shiel and Ray Pellman. Joseph Moorman will represent the committee on the West Coast.

Ever since the local group started the publication of "Notes and Dates" your correspondent has been heckled each time the Alumni Columnist gives me an article or other epithets which we wouldn't print here but which wouldn't be at all out of place in "Notes and Dates." We merely turn the other cheek and, nothing further, ask what did Hoover promise in '29 which usually reins our critics down to a canter as they can’t figure that one out and don’t realize that we can’t either. So everyone’s happy, thank you.

It is anticipated that the committee will select two young men for scholarships at the University next year.

We learn that Ed Masterson is studying the Rockne Memorial Drive is under way and will be completed before the next issue of this reaches you. Mailing lists have been compiled and fastidiously revised. The entire membership is to be divided into small groups which will be contacted by 50 key men. The most of whom will be addressed in省 and to the dignity. Don Kayler will accompany the harpist during the dinner from 8 to 10 and then will lead his 11 piece orchestra for five dances. Don and an outstanding pianist having performed at the Continental Punch Club and at most of the better country clubs in this area.

The employment bureau is active and he is hoping that, with improving business conditions, even more openings will be reported to Karl Martin.

The scholarship committee, recently announced, consists of James Dubbs, Sr., assistant manager of the Great Lakes Dredge and Dock Company, chairman, Fash B. Reardon, secretary; Tom Salmon, secretary, and Otty Cerny is now assistant secretary of the First Federal Savings and Loan.

Just a line to let you know that we are all well and enjoying club work. Our club members have been quite active in helping the Catholic Lecture series. Ed Sullivan, '24, our president, has been secretary and treasurer for the past two years, and has always done a good job. I personally have handled the usher's job, being assisted by Henry Humberbrecht, and my brother, Paul DeWald. Some of the Notre Dame alumni attending the lectures included Dannelly and Ken McDoland, Henry Hasley and Pat Donahue.

Practically the entire Notre Dame Fort Wayne club was present at the Minnesota game. Everyone was very pleased with the results. The local club was able to raise almost $1,000 for the Memorial under the able direction of Dannelly McDonald.

Several Fort Wayne people went on the Notre Dame-Southern California trip. In fact, a trip was awarded as second prize at our parish (St. Jude's) Fall Festival. The lucky person was Miss Kathleen O'Dowd, '24, St. Mary's graduate. Our club met at the K.C. Club rooms for the Notre Dame-Army game. During the half-time of our football game, was held the battle. The old officers were re-elected.

At the October meeting of the Grand Rapids Notre Dame Club, held October 5 in the Pantlind Hotel, the club held its election of officers and made plans for the coming year. Earl Leach, ex. M. Mueller, treasurer.

The club disposed of sets of tickets and expense money to game owners at Notre Dame this fall. This venture made it possible for the club to make a substantial subscription to the Rockne Memorial Fund.

Tickets have already been distributed to the members for the Christmas Dance to be held in 1015 at the Rockne Hotel on December 26. This renewed activity on the part of the reorganized club has stimulated attendance at the club meetings, and we have every reason to look forward to a highly successful year.

We had our first meeting of this fall on November 9 in the Derby Room of the Brown Hotel. About 50 or 40 members were present. We hope to have a much larger audience next meeting, however, as we expect to get our mailing list revised and completed so that we may contact all members. We would appreciate it if all those alumni of N.D. who reside in Louisville or vicinity, and who have not been in touch with regard to meetings, would call in touch with us so that we may notify them of our next meeting.

The Christmas dance is next on our list of events. There will be buffet supper and entertainment. We hope to make this a gala affair and have a large attendance.

LOCAL CHICAGO
Local club members followed the football team almost to a man this season. Don Wise, Tom Felly and most of the fellows attended the Notre Dame games. Bob Duffy, Joe Kurtzich, Tom, Don and others saw the Northwestern game in Evanston. Tom Feely and another local group took in the Kansas game.

A very successful Halloween party was held with about 40 people in attendance. The party was arranged for the evening. Marie Hedges served as hostess, with the students in charge of the food and games. The guests were served with music, dancing, and entertainment and a midnight buffet supper being the features. Clarence Wilkins and Charles Leonard were the ring leaders in comedy for the evening.

Best wishes of the season to all from the bunch.

Since your last issue we have received several sharp queries from Massachusetts correspondents about our illegal tactics in advertising weight reducers. It seems that we had advertised Hec Garvey, of Holyoke, as weighing 265; in reality he tipped the beam at 285. Someone one thought we had another Hollywood diet substitute; but Hec's activity here could not have taken much off him.

Many of the alumni of this district, having taken in the Minnesota and Northwestern titles, commented on how the Big Ten teams. Among those on the football trips were: Barney Quirk, Joe Walker, Bob Pendergrass, Frank Tyler, Rich Bowes, Charles Metzler, Sr., Fred Mancuso, Ed McGrath, John O'Connor, Sr., Chasly Higgins, Ernest Manrin, Jerry Daves, Ed Reardon, Dave Crooks.

November 28 marked the passage of the football special, en route to Los Angeles. About 1,500 alumni and friends of Notre Dame gathered at the depot to greet the traveling gridiron. The train was about three hours late, so the majority went there different ways; but a few of the activists gathered at X.M. and rode the Pullman vestibules while the cars and the sleeping occupants were switched back and forth through the yards.

Our scout reports the use of a feared pass combination in the South Side Sunday P.M. Touchball League (not affiliated with the A.A.U:): "Fippin' Frank" Izen to "Jarrin" Jim Higgins, ably aided by that sturdy "Hump" Thompson, "thumped" the opposition for 26 pounds of wildcat. The sticker-footed Izen polished his open field technique last spring by skiing C.O. picker lines. Says the conservative "Summit News" of him: "Here indeed is a man of whalebone and whipcord." Their club is eagerly awaiting a bid to play New Year's Day in some — or any — Wasseni Bowl.

Notes: Ed Seiter, '36, is the parent of a husky son, John Fry, '35, engineering out of Kansas, relates that the Dutch Bowl hotels try to limit the guests to two baths a week. Like the Missouri Towers, the former Cleveland Comet, is doing well here in the auto accessory business. Chet Conklin is also with an engineering outfit here. Norb Schwartz is doing yeoman work on the renewed Rockne Drive out in Salina, Hal Quinlan saw the Dartmouth-Harvard game, and described the New Hampshire Indians as sharp and hard-hitting. Fred Wirthman favors a resumption of athletic relations with Nebraska. Bill Dolan is working for a milling firm in Topkea, Kansas. Otto Schmidt, a Notre Dame law man, is a United States assistant district attorney here.

We trust that the response to our Pan-American Tower Committee is indicative of the success of that important conference in Lima. About 55 members of this club received Communion December 11 at the Guardian Angel Church in Lima as a part of a United States program there. Rev. John O'Hara, C.S.C., is a member of the United States Commission.

We are looking forward to more programs of high plane set by duPont in its epic of Knute Rockne on the Cavalcade of America, of December 5.

The Milwaukee Notre Dame Club has purchased a trophy which will be presented every year for the championship of the Catholic State High School football conference. The trophy is named the "Rockne Memorial Trophy." I think that this is the first time that any- thing like this has ever been done in this town. The only trouble is that there were co- champions this year and we are trying to figure out what to do. Looks like our safest bet will be to give it to each school for six months.

President James Corrigan presented it to St. John's Cathedral High School at their Victory Banquet a few weeks ago. A short time after it was presented to Marquette High School. We have received much favorable comment from everyone, and I am sure that it will result in more Milwaukee men enrolling at Notre Dame in the future.

As Universal Notre Dame Night rolls around again, we are trying to make it a program from which we would like to have somebody come up from the campus, so keep us in mind when the time comes for making appointments.

Hugh O'Keefe, '21, 211 Walker St., Butte, President; Ray Cowles, '27, 213 N. Idaho St., Butte, Secretary.

As this is written, it's all aboard for the Notre Dame-South California game, dealing Butte on November 30. Official representatives include Club President Abe O'Keefe, Judge T. E. Downey, Pat "Duck" O'Donnell, and Dr. R. F. Schaefer. There will be 65 more from Butte, and another hundred from the rest of the state.

The Club offers its deepest sympathy to T. H. Oas over the death of his mother last month.

In addition to individual donations, the club is making a drive to raise its share of the Rockne Memorial Fund. President O'Keefe expects to sell the "gold" bricks all the way from Butte to Southern California. Another star salesman is Jack Stansfield, who was a teammate of Rock. Jack is now living in Butte.

The next meeting of the Treasure State alumni will be held late this winter with Elmer Layden as our guest of honor (we hope).

At a regular meeting, held November 7, at the Essex Hotel in Newark, to which a large number of members was present, matters of immediate interest were discussed at length and many constructive innovations undertaken. Final preparations for the movie presentation to be presented by the Rev. Doctor Wansbrough will be held at the Academy of Medicine in Newark on Wednesday evening, November 30, were completed, and we are awaiting the committees to handle the affair: Dan O'Neill, Sol Bontempo, Bill Comber, Tom Farrell, Ray Geiger, Jack White, Jerry Froelich, Dan Sullivan, Harvey Rockwell and Jack Adams. Pete Quinn reported that the Navy game was a huge success.

Pete Quinn and Harvey Rockwell were appointed on a committee to receive advices concerning all I3 members of the club so that the proper responses can be made for the club members to those who are ill. Anyone having knowledge of any sick member is requested to report to Pete or Harvey.

A spirit of good cheer seemed to have arisen as a consequence of the recent activities in the seating arrangements at the Army game, as well as at the fine work of Mr. Cassaneta and his band. Good wishes and appreciation were extended to all those who were responsible for making the Army game enjoyable in every way.

Charles Laughry, a new member of our club, in appearing for his concern was instrumental in the birth of a bureau on employment of which Harvey Rockwell was appointed chairman. All those members who are in need of employment, or those who feel that they could desire a change into some other field, are requested to contact Harvey Rockwell, who will forward them an application blank to be filled out so that their names can be placed on file. Also, those who have positions to fill would like to have them filled with Notre Dame men should also contact Harvey so that the most good for the most number of men can result.

A report on the Hard Times Dance, which was held a short time ago, was written and it proved to be, not only a financial, but a social success.

Members of the New Year's Eve Ball committee are working hard to make this year's affair a complete success. The Ball will be formal and refreshments will be served during the course of the evening, and noise makers, souvenirs, streamers and other New Year's Eve necessities will be provided for the entertain­ ment. Dr. O'Neill was present to conduct it. On the various committees are Phil Heinkel, chairman, Ray Geiger, and the two campus representa­ tives, Bob Teson and Larry Doyle. This year is to be regarded as a forerunner of those to come in subsequent years.

NEW YORK CITY

Daniel J. O'Neil, '25, 101 Cooper St., Presi­ dent; Robert A. Hamilton, '26, 63 Wall St., Secretary.

Bob Hamilton has given me the job of writing the New York Club column for the December issue of the Notre Dame Alumnus.

On October 25 a special meeting was held to award the prizes of our annual Scholarship Drive. Two hundred and twenty-five members attended and our recently married presi­ dent, Dan O'Neill, was present to conduct it. Before awarding the prizes Father Cosmos Shaughnessy, our Retreat Master, gave a beautiful presentation of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. Besides giving an insight into parts of our religion we had never before understood.

Following Father's talk, Jordan Hargrove told the members of the Club Directory which would be distributed, free, with the December issue of the New York Alumnus. Then came the awarding of the Army-Notre Dame tickets. As Dan Seih said "a bunch of lad­ ners from Dutch from points of the States were most of them." It must have been legal though, because Jim Rizer did win two re­ served seats.

October 28 probably was the biggest night ever in the club's history. Over 1,250 people attended the Reunion and Gala celebrating the silver anniversary of the Army-Notre Dame game at the Grand Ballroom of the Hotel Pennsylvania. Frank (Sat. Eve. Post) Wallace was M.C., and Jack Boyd, his assist­ ant. Two programs were conducted for the season's games, the Ohio State game and Rock, to whom the entire program was dedi­ cated; the Army-Notre Dame broadcast over the National Broadcasting Company; and many speeches by prominent alumni and guests. Among the speakers were Father O'Hara, Elmer Layden, General Benedict and Coach Wood of the Army, Grantland Rice,
Jim Farley, Ambrose O’Connell, national alumni president, Hugh O’Donnell, our honorary president, Father Hugh O’Donnell, vice-president, Notre Dame, Angus McDonald, from Los Angeles, Gene Tunney, Put’O’Brien, Father Murdock, chaplain of West Point, Frank Walker, and Father MacNamara, all of whom gave short but very interesting talks. Other guests who were given a spotlight introduction by Jack Hoyt were: Paul Castner, Merrill-lat, Oliphant and Pitchard of the Army ’33 team, Red Salerno, first of N.D.’s famous fullbacks, Kay Kyser, General Fehlan, Dean McCarthy, John Kieran, John Law, Gene Buck, Arch Ward and many others.

Several hundred dollars were collected from this meeting for the Rockne Memorial Fund and much of the credit for the success of it should go to the committee who worked so hard in preparing it. Dick Benshoof and his Guest and Speakers Committee are especially to be complimented for the great program they prepared. Among his assistants were: William Corr, William Cronin, L. J. Calliner, Ed Fallon, Vic Fisher, Jerry Gillespie, Dan Halpin, John Hinkel, John Hoyt, John Lavelle, Frank McGee, Ray McGee, Ed Neather, Dan O’Neill, Jack O’Shea, Jack O’Shea, George Schilbe, George Vergara, Nobby Gelson, Paul Mahdielje and George Rohrs. Ed Beckman and his Arrangement Committee also did fine work. His helpers were: George Vann, John Jordan, John Hoyt, who also did some fine singing at the Rally: John Moran, John Lavelle, Dan Sehl, Tom Lantry and Tim Too- maye. Another committee which worked hard and obtained many favorable notices for the affair in the newspapers and over the radio, was the Publicity and Program Committee under Jordan Harrogate.

The next afternoon, however, some 213 members and friends of the club took advantage of the club’s special train to Balti- more and Washington. Although it was a wet day, according to Warren Freul who ran the trip, everyone enjoyed it immensely.

Leo McLaughlin and his corps of assistants have their Rockne Memorial Fund Drive well under way at this time. With the fine start they received from the Rally it is to be hoped that they will be very successful.

Our own scholarship drive, which annually sends a boy to Notre Dame, was very successful this year, making enough profit to cover a deficit in the expenses. John Balle has been highly praised for the fine work which he and his committee members performed this year.

bumped into some of our Rhode Islanders recently and "threatened" to join up locally.

Jim Burns' Coyle Memorial High School football squad has just completed another brilliant season over at Taunton. Now for basketball, a sport in which we can only guess how well Coyle just broke the interclass rooster year after year.

Dr. Eddie Anderson's legion of Holy Cross supporters throughout Rhode Island are wondering if his Notre Dame friends can't prevail on him from leaving Worcester for Iowa. It appears, at this writing, that they can do naught.

One of the sport highlights of Rhode Island's winning season was be a Providence County Alumni testimonial to Coach Hugh Devore whose first season wound up here with a surprising victory for Providence over Rhode Island State. Ed Crotty, another Notre Dame grad, has been named basketball coach and director of intramural sports at Providence College. Hugh Devore is daddy to a son whose first utterances, according to the sport's scribels, were "Hike, hike!" Charlie Grimes.

ROCHESTER (New York)
John Dorschel, '31, 184 Carleol St., President; John Norton, '36, 50 Rockiew Terrace, Secretary.

Our dinner meeting at the Rochester Club on Thursday, November 2, in honor of Father Hugh O'Donnell and Jim Armstrong brought out about 20 members. Among those we hadn't seen in quite a while were Joe Miller, Vic O'Donnell, Ray Margrave, Ken Powers, Joe Doran and Walt Murphy.

Driving in from surrounding towns were George Ball, Jim McGuire, John Hurley and Jim Gleason. Between courses Bill Bell, Bill Merriman, Joe Flynn and Art Curran were heard discussing older teams, while Bill Jonen, Frank Crotty, Jim Connolly brothers, Pete and Frank, Chuck Braeg, John Gilly and John Odenbach recalled more recent teams. Marty Bayer had his hands full taking care of the money end. Gerry Farrell, John Dorschel, Bernie Hennessey and Judge Harold Burke discussed plans for the Rockne Drive with Father O'Donnell. Several others dropped in after dinner to hear Father O'Donnell's speech concerning the Rockne Memorial Drive. Other speakers were Jim Armstrong, John Dorschel, Bernie Hennessey and Judge Burke, who favored us with another amusing story of life in old St. Joe Hall. The meeting ended with the showing of pictures of last year's Minnesota game which were enjoyed by all.

The Rochester Club was invited to participate in the activities of the regional conference of the Laymen's Retreat organization on November 13. Considering the football games that week-end we had a good representation. Several members attended the dinner in honor of Monsignor Fulton Sheen, who delivered a very fine address.

Dick Tobin arranged an excursion to the Army game again this year, and he reports about 150 people made the trip. I saw Harvey Rockwell at the rally Friday night at the Penn Hotel, and he informed me that he is still with the Instrument Co. Business at Taylor Instrument must be fine, for Bill Bell has taken a vacation and gone to California for the U.S.G. game. Expect to get first hand report of the game when he returns.

As this is written, plans are being made for our second annual Communion Breakfast on December 4. Last year we had a fine turnout, and a much larger representation is expected this year.

Robert A. Gorden, '22, 216 Calton Ave., President; John J. Leathy, '23, 415 Chamber of Commerce Block, Secretary.

I deeply regret the fact that I have not seen in any account of the doings of the Notre Dame Club of San Antonio for several months. However, we haven't had many activities, and I personally have not had much interest in life in general. This has been due to the fact that on October 4 my oldest son, Edvin, age seven years, drowned in the river just after I delivered a manuscript, and just as I have not been able to get my mind off the subject. The members of the Notre Dame Club of Saginaw were very kind to Mr. Leathy and myself during our period of greatest sorrow, and we shall long remember their kind deeds and actions.

Instead of devoting a lot of time to planning unusual activities for special occasions, our club has recently decided to strive to maintain interest in making each and every one of our monthly meetings as interesting as possible. As an initial step in this direction, at our last meeting we voted unanimously that one member of the club be called on to address the club on the subject, "My Experiences in Life Since Leaving Notre Dame," at each of the monthly meetings until every member has taken his turn. Consequently, we are certain we are going to have some very interesting speeches.

Bill Blewitt, '27, has been selected to give the first of these addresses to our next meeting to be held Tuesday, December 13. Bill is one of Dr. Coney's journalists. He is editor and publisher of "Irish Facts," a magazine devoted to the furtherance of safety measures in the anthracite coal mines. He is also engaged in the men's clothing business in Carbondale, Pennsylvania, a suburb of Scranton.

And, by the way, our last meeting at which this new program was adopted was one of the best attended meetings we have had since our club organized last February. Those present were Father O'Neill, "Irish Facts," Bill Golden, '22, Bill Greavy, '24, Bill Harrison, '23, Jim Jordan, '07, Joe Manning, '29, Vincent McCool, '23, Tony O'Doyle, '31, Joe O'Hara, '25, Chick O'Malley, '29, Dr. Eddie Anderson's legion of Holy Cross smokers, were guests of honor. "Cap" Howard Edwards, Notre Dame athletes of former years, were guests of honor. "Cap" Howard Edwards, toastmaster, introduced them. Tails were made by Maurice "Vips" O'Keefe. Joe Boland, Mike Moore and Mike Moore acted as co-chairman of the banquet.

Nationally famous football coaches and sports celebrities entertained hundreds of homecoming alumni and friends at pre-game activities sponsored the evening before each home game by the Notre Dame Club of St. Joseph Valley.

The largest crowd, 430 alumni and friends, jammed their way into the Elks' Temple the night before the Minnesota game. The "Old Timers" Notre Dame athletes of former years, were guests of honor. "Cap" Howard Edwards, toastmaster, introduced them. Tails were made by Maurice "Vips" O'Keefe. Joe Boland, Mike Moore and Mike Moore acted as co-chairmen of the banquet.

The Carnegie smoker, held in the Oliver Hotel Friday night before the Carnegie game, drew the second largest crowd. Speakers included Elmer Layden, Bill Kern, Carnegie Tech coach; Bill Ryan, Chicago "Daily News" sports writer; and Warren Brown. Frank Coughlin and Mike Moore acted as co-chairmen.

The Illinois and Kansas smokers, held at the Oger Hotel, naturally drew smaller crowds. Both, however, were well attended.

Our club recently made arrangements for a Mass to be said at St. Peter's Cathedral, which is centrally located, on March 31, 1929, for the repose of the soul of our beloved Coach Rockne. And, that is about all we have to report for the present.

and had excellent programs. Jerry Clays, George and Karl King were co-chairmen of the Illinois smoker, while Harry Bier and John Gibbons managed the Kansas affair.

More than 100 members of the club attended a smoker in the lay faculty room in the Notre Dame dining hall Friday evening, November 25. The purpose of the meeting was to launch the Notre Dame Memorial Drive among St. Joseph Valley alumni. The duties of Valley alumni were clearly set forth in a splendid talk by Paul Butler. Jim Armstrong, alumni secretary, explained the workings and details of the drive, and Frank Lloyd, University comptroller, told of the success of Rockne Memorial drives in other cities. Movies of the Northwestern game were shown.

Bill Voer and his committees have worked hard in the past few months and arrangements for the club’s Annual Testimonial Football Banquet, which will be held this year December 12, and will be history by the time this is printed. Complete details of the banquet will be published in the next issue of the ALUMNUS.

William E. Voer, general chairman of the testimonial banquet, will be assisted by Herbert E. Jones and Albert McGann, in charge of the testimonial banquet committee. The program consists of:

Program: Francis Jones, James E. Armstrong, Louis C. Chappeau and John W. Schindler.

The Notre Dame Catholic Capital Dance, on Thanksgiving Eve, was the occasion for another Notre Dame get-together. It seems that all the members were present. Father Bannoon of Syracuse was the keynote speaker. Regis McNamara, ‘32, former Notre Dame tackle, led the group in the singing of Notre Dame songs. When the orchestra swung into the Victory March Mike Mullen, ‘34, was at the head of the Grand March. Notre Dame men present and their guests were Patrick Quick, ‘32, of Cortland, with Miss Margaret Toomey; Bill Yeager, ‘24, president of the club, with Miss Dorothy Boyle; Jim Hogan, ‘34, with Miss Ann Keery; Mr. and Mrs. John Donnelly, ‘34; Mr. and Mrs. Mike Mullen; Dr. and Mrs. O’Brian; Dr. and Mrs. Frank Kane; District Attorney Dan McAvery and wife; John Jone, ‘30, and Regis McNamara, who had as his guest, Miss Jane Bradley.

The Triple Cities Club is proud to welcome this year’s Mike Mullen, ‘22, who is associated with Ford Motor Co., Inc., and who is now stationed in Binghamton. Mike was married three months ago.

The club also extends a hearty welcome to John Clifford, ‘35, who is assistant manager of Grant’s department store of the city. John hails from New Haven, Connecticut, and the club wishes him the best of luck in his work and hopes that he will find Binghamton a pleasant place.

TRI-CITIES (Illinois-Iowa)

Hayes Murphy, ‘28, Rock Island Manufacturers Bank, Rock Island, Ill., President; Joseph E. Whalen, ‘29, Hotel Fort Armstrong, Rock Island, Ill., Vice-President. I have been more than negligent in taking care of my duties as secretary-treasurer of the Tri-City Notre Dame Club since the election of officers last spring. However, as a matter of record, the following officers were elected, Hayes Murphy, ‘28, Rock Island Manufacturers Trust Building, Rock Island, Ill.; vice-president, George W. Vander Venne, ‘23, Union Bank Building, Davenport, Iowa; secretary-treasurer, Joseph E. Whalen, ‘29, Hotel Fort Armstrong, Rock Island, Ill.,

There has been very little done in the line of club activities during the last several months. The third Friday of each month is designated as the official club meeting day, and there is always an informal luncheon meeting at the Hotel Fort Armstrong on that date. A few days ago the officers voted to change the date from the third Friday to the third Wednesday of each month. The meetings will continue to be held at the hotel.

We have a very interesting personage here in the Tri-Cities in the person of Major William J. Stevenson. The major is identified with the Corps of Engineers, U.S. Army, located in Rock Island. He was connected with the A.E.F. in Siberia during the World War. He attended the University during the years 1899, 1900 and 1901.

Other news concerning members of the club is rather scant. However, on August 20, Miss Mary O’Connor became the bride of John McDonnell, ‘35. The wedding took place in St. Mary’s Church in Davenport, Iowa. On October 15 Mr. and Mrs. Myron Murphy became the parents of a daughter, Patricia Mary, and, on October 27, Mr. and Mrs. George Vander Venne became parents of a daughter, Margaret Mary.

At the last meeting of the club, President Hayes Murphy appointed a committee to arrange for some plan of raising a subscription for the Rockne Memorial.

LOCAL POLITICS

The Notre Dame Club of the St. Joseph Valley staged unusually out of local politics, in one sense. But the November ballot took on some of the qualities of a club roster, in another.

With M. Edward Duran, '20, Democratic chairman, and Charles Peter, '19, Republican chairman, the district personnel of both major parties was liberally dotted with N. D. men.

The race for Congress was between the successful candidate, Robert Grant, '28, Republican, and George Beamer, '29, Democratic nominee. The vote was close, and Grant won by virtue of a large vote from the district outside St. Joseph county, where the Republicans held sway. Since the election, Beamer, who was prosecuting attorney, has been named city attorney for South Bend by the new mayor, Jesse Pavey.

Beamer is succeeded as prosecutor by Arthur Scheer, '36.

Clifford Putts, '25, was defeated for Judge of Superior Court No. 1, by the Democratic nominee and incumbent.

Judge J. Elmer Pesk, '12, led the Democratic ticket in being returned as Judge of Superior Court No. 2.

Eugene J. Payton, '23, credit expert and professor in the College of Commerce, was successful Democratic nominee for the Indiana State Senate.

Irvining Garnett, '25, was elected a state representative from St. Joseph county on the Democratic ticket, and Gerald Hodges, '22, was defeated for the same office on the Republican slate.

Peter Becklewies, '15, incumbent county treasurer, was returned to that office on the Democratic ticket.

Alexis Coguillard, '23, was defeated for county recorder on the Republican ticket.

Thomas DuMont, '23-'24, was elected county surveyor, Democrat.

George Schock, '13, was elected city judge, Democrat. Charles Wells, '23, was one of the few local Democrats defeated, losing to the veteran Republican incumbent, George Hull, of the famous Hullie and Mike tradition, in a city councilman race.

Two N. D. justices of the peace won on the Democratic ticket, Joseph Nyulos, '23, and Francis X. Kopinski, '31, and in Mishawaka, Peter LaCava, '26, was elected to the same office, also Democratic.

ED SULLIVAN'S COMMENT

(Under the title "Alma Mater," the following by Ed Sullivan, Hollywood reporter for the "Chicago Tribune" appeared in that paper on December 6, in the regular column called "Looking at Hollywood"—Eds.)

Hollywood, Calif., Dec. 5.—For some time I've been convinced that college football had reached such a stage of professional ballyho that it had outgrown its purpose. It seemed that the game had taken from the kids to such an extent that all that remained was a billion dollars worth of over-emphasis. At the Los Angeles Coliseum, as late as Saturday afternoon, the thought struck home again.

Then on Saturday night we had dinner with five of the Notre Dame youngsters who had played in the game, and my conclusion is that if college football produces boys of the type of Capt. Jim McGoldrick, Joe Thesing, Paul Kelly, Ted Harvey and John Kelly it certainly is worth its salt. If this type of boy is typical of college football, the future is assured.

Dejected? Undoubtedly, McGoldrick and Kell had just played their last game. But their dejection was not a personal thing. "At Kansas City we passed through at 1 o'clock in the morning," said one Skip-Jack, "five thousand people were at the station to cheer us. We would have liked to win for them and people like them who never went to our school and yet had adopted us as a Alma Mater." . . . They didn't dwell overly long on a reason that was closer to their hearts. They had wanted desperately to win for Elmer Layden, because this year's club was really Layden's own team. His last year's club had contained left overers from Hunk Anderson's regime, but this year's team was all of Lay- den's kids, and they would have given everything they possessed to close out the season for him without a break in the victory parade. So they had reason for dejection, when they met us for dinner, but what they said was the manner in which they concealed it.

We had gone to the Coconut Grove for dinner, Rudy Vallee directed attention to them with a very graceful reference, and immediately hundreds of diners gravitated to the table. It was amusing to witness the audible affection of those who called to them, or slapped them on the back. "You can lose every game and you're still tops with us." Alice Fay told them. . . . It was nice to see the manner in which the kids handled themselves. They answered questions about the game quickly and clearly to Southern California Rooters, offered no allus, indicated no post mortems. If they were asked about teammates' blunders they sidestepped the question. If they were asked about Trojan players, they praised them wholeheartedly. The questioning went on for hours, yet not once did these Irish kids let any of their interrogators know that they were thinking of the Kansas City crowds that had cheered them at, and thought they were thinking of Layden, or that McGoldrick and Kell were thinking that they had played their last game. That, I think, is the definition of the type of boy I've never seen dramatized before.

They put a great kick out of meeting Joe E. Brown, Alice Fay, Tony Martin, Wendy Barrie, Ben Oakland, and Rudy Brown, who is going to South Bend for the N. D. rally, listened to the football fans who were attempting to console them by picturing future seasons and future games, "I know just how you feel," said Joe E. "There's nothing that anybody can tell you that will make you forget today's game." They looked at him and nodded.

"Rosie" Rosenberg, an All-American from Southern California, stopped at the table. "They were hot today, and you guys were just a bit past your peak," he said. They nodded. This was a fellow talking their own language about the game. "The second team gave them a good loser, and these kids dramatized it as well as anything it is accomplishing a great thing in the pattern of American life, because in this life it is of importance to dish it out.

Deaths

Rev. Walter H. Coffeen, '12, assistant pastor of St. John the Baptist Church, New Orleans, died on October 25 after being struck by a heart attack three days before. He was buried on October 27 in New Orleans.

Father Coffeen was ordained to the priesthood in 1916 in Little Rock, Arkansas. He joined the New Orleans archdiocese in 1920 and had served in St. John the Baptist parish since 1922.

Mrs. William J. B. Macaulay, who as Mrs. Genevieve Garvan Brady received the Laetare Medal in 1934, died on November 24 in Rome. She was the wife of the Irish minister to the Holy See.

Widely respected for her devotion to the Church and her generosity to Catholic charities, Mrs. Macaulay was, in 1926, made a papal duchess by Pope Pius. She participated widely in many philanthropic activities.

John L. Lavelle, '26, Bellevue, Ohio, is dead, according to a notification from the post office.

The ALUMNUS extends sincere sympathy to Peter J. Trollo, '32, upon the death of his father; William Ashenden, ex. '36, upon the death of his father; Edward J. McCauley, '28, upon the death of his father; Albert J. 14, Arthur J. 17, and Joseph J. 24, Bergman, upon the death of their father.
Persons

Before 1880 Secretary: Hon. T. F. Galagher, Fitzburgh, Mass.

1889 Secretary: P. E. Burke, 301 Camp New Orleans, Louisiana.

1890 - 1893 Secretary: Louis P. Chute, 7 Univ. Ave., Minneapolis, Minn.

1894 Secretary: Hugh A. O'Donnell, 1 W. 6th St., New York City.

1895 Secretary: Eustace Collum, Sr., 1401 Mills Tower, San Francisco, Calif.

1897 Secretary: Rev. J. A. MacNamara, St. Joe, Sanitaria, Mich., Clemens, Mich.

1898 Secretary: William C. Kelger, 9th & Sycamore Sts. Cincinnati, Ohio.

1899 Secretary: Dr. Joseph F. Dunn, 418 Jefferson Blvd., Fortis, Ill.

1900 - 1901 Secretary: Joseph J. Sullivan, 1200, 125 N. Clark St., Chicago, Ill.

1902 Secretary: C. C. Mitchell, 110 South Dearborn St., Chicago, Ill.

Most Rev. Timothy J. Crowley, C.S.C., D.D., Bishop of Dacca, has been a welcome visitor in the United States Province of the Congregation of Holy Cross. Bishop Crowley is returning to India, where he has won a high place as a priest and a medical benefactor to the natives.

1903 Secretary: Francis F. Burke, 904 Trust Co. Bldg., Milwaukee, Wis.

1904 Secretary: Robert E. Proctor, Manger Bldg., Eilhart, Indiana.

Judge Thomas D. Lyons, about whom the ALUMNUS has said much from time to time as a brilliant legal career unfolded, was one of the lecturers chosen this year by the Notre Dame lawyers to present a special series. Judge Lyons, of Tulsa, Okla., very fittingly and ably presented "Oil and Gas Law."

1905 Secretary: Daniel J. O'Connor, 18 S. LaSalle St., Chicago, Ill.

1906 Secretary: Thomas A. Lally, 811-13 Paishen Bldg., Spokane Wash.

1907 Secretary: Rev. Thomas E. Burke, C.S.C., Notre Dame, Ind.

1908 Secretary: Frank X. Coll, Buley Building, Cleveland, Ohio.

1909 Secretary: E. F. Cleary, Notre Dame, Indiana.

Rev. Cornelius J. Donovan, chaplain of the Notre Dame Club of Boston, has just been named pastor of St. Mary's Church, Holliston by Ills Eminence Cardinal O'Connell. Father Donovan had been assistant at St. Philip's, Roxbury.

1910 Secretary: Rev. M. L. Mortarly, 1041 Euclid Ave., Cleveland, Ohio.

1911 Secretary: Fred Streis, 1666 First National Bank Bldg., Chicago, Ill.

1912 Secretary: B. J. Kaiser, 324 Fourth St., Pittsburgh, Pa.

1913 Paul R. Byrne, University Library, Notre Dame. Eion, John F. O'Connell, Chicago, just re-elected Judge of the Probate Court of Cook County, has contributed greatly to the prestige of Notre Dame in the Chicago area. The Judge ran with the endorsement of the Chicago Bar Association, a tribute to his conduct of the office in his previous term. The ALUMNUS regrets that space in this issue does not permit the full reprinting of a letter from Harry Kirk, 1404 Otis St., N.E., Washington, D.C. Harry's daughter is now Sister Kathleen, in the Order of Our Lady of Mount Carmel. This is the order of The Little Flower, and the first religious community to be established in the thirteen original States of the U. S. Harry asks the prayers of the alumni "in thanksgiving for God's great mercy and kindneess, and that Sister Kathleen may persevere in doing His will with all her strength."

1914 Secretary: Frank H. Hayes, 406 Bank of America Building, Los Angeles, Calif. C. E. Conron, vice-president of the Thos. Conron Hardware Co., Danville, Illinois, writes that a son, Jack, is interted in architecture and will be graduated from high school in the spring. Mr. Conron himself was one of the first residents of Walsh Hall. An older brother, Ray, who was later an instructor at M. T. T. and who died in 1913, had preceded Carl, and was a resident of Sorin Hall. So young Jack will come with a rich Notre Dame background.

1915 Secretary: James E. Sanford, 1524 Farwell Ave., Chicago, Ill.

1916 Secretary: Timothy P. Galvin, First Trust Bldg., Hammond, Ind.

Among the campus visitors this fall was James E. "Tip" Hogan. Tip, formerly of Tipton, Indiana, but now in Elgin, West Virginia, with the C. & O. Ry., was paying his first visit to the campus in 20 years, and of course found himself wishing for a few C. & O. tracks to get around the modern plant.

1917 Secretary: Edward J. McOsker, 104 S. Mill St., Elgin, Ill.

John U. Riley, an associate of Stoddard & Co., Boston, is the author of an article in the "Eastern Underwriter," on the importance of insurance gauging the general trends of public opinion. Stoddard & Co, are pioneer New England public relations counselors, and, of course, have an able associate in this field in John.

1918 Secretary: John A. Lemmer, 1116 6th Ave., Escanaba, Michigan.

Judge Thomas J. O'Connell, N. Jackson St., Elgin, Illinois, was recently elected president of the Kane County Title Co., and a new director of the same organization. Tom has been on the legal staff of the Kane County Title & Trust Co. since 1924. He was appointed judge of the city court of Elgin in October, 1936.

1919 Secretary: John A. Lemmer, 1116 6th Ave., Escanaba, Michigan.

Judge Thomas J. O'Connell, N. Jackson St., Elgin, Illinois, was recently elected president of the Kane County Title Co., and a new director of the same organization. Tom has been on the legal staff of the Kane County Title & Trust Co. since 1924. He was appointed judge of the city court of Elgin in October, 1936.

Judge Thomas J. O'Connell, N. Jackson St., Elgin, Illinois, was recently elected president of the Kane County Title Co., and a new director of the same organization. Tom has been on the legal staff of the Kane County Title & Trust Co. since 1924. He was appointed judge of the city court of Elgin in October, 1936.

Rev. Francis Boland, C.S.C., is up and about after a serious illness of pneumonia, which attacked him in October.

1919 Secretary: Clarence Bader, 620 Pierce Street, Gary, Indiana.

1920 Secretary: Leo B. Ward, 1012 Black Bldg., Los Angeles, Calif. M. Edward Deran has just been elected to the presidency of the St. Joseph County Bar Association. Ed is also county and third district chairman of the Democratic party. Ralph Feiz, '07, was nominated for the bar association vice-presidency, and George Kropf, '20, for secretary.

1921 Secretary: Dan W. Duffy, 1600 Terminal Tower, Cleveland, Ohio.

1922 Secretary: Gerald Ashe, Buffalo Athletic Club, Buffalo, N. Y.

After a great week-end at the Minnesota game, the Kid comes up with the following: "For the benefit of those who may have overlooked an item of very special interest to our classmates in the avalanche of election returns, it should be recorded here that Dave Worth Clark of Pocatello, Idaho, was victorious in the election for the office of U.S. senator for Idaho. The name of Senator Borah of Idaho has been most prominent in the press for many years. We predict that Senator Clark will be as well known and as much prominence and renown as his fellow senator, before he completes his labors in the Senate."

"As usual the football coaches of our class have turned in excellent records for the campaigns just concluded:"

"Edie Anderson lost but a single game at Holy Cross—to Carnegie Tech by a one-point margin. This performance was as good as and better than that of a first-class team in the East, and better than most of them. Eddie has been made head coach at the University of Iowa."

"Back Shaw at Santa Clara did equally as well on the west coast. Buck's teams have been the most consistent winners in that area for the past three seasons."

"Harry Mohr at Mississippi expected to make things hot for unbeaten Tennessee in a late season game."

"At Cincinnati, Hunk Anderson came through with a zood record."

"The J. P. Collins of Los Angeles are to be congratulated on the arrival of a baby daughter, recently."

"We are happy to announce that Judge Al Scott of the Superior Court of California, in Los Angeles is to carry on for six more years at the same old stand. Al was unopposed in the primaries."

"Among the notables attending the Minnesota game at South Bend who died in 1935, had "Butch" Jones, Jim Fore, Harold Weber, George Henehan, Clet Wynne, Gus Dersch, Cernie Pfeiffer, Gene Smokey, Danny Coniff, Tom Lee, Pat Manion and Fred Dressel.

"After the Minnesota game, James Vincent Jones took a trip to Chicago to dispose of a few cases (legal) with his old pal—Jerry Dixon."

1923 Secretary: Paul H. Castner, 17 Cornell Road, West Hartford, Conn. Linus Glotchbach, New Ulm, Minnesota, has just been appointed State Administrator of the WPA for Minnesota. Linus had previously been Administrator for southern Minnesota area, and was Minnesota representative for Howard Hunter, regional administrator out of Chicago. Linus practiced law in New Ulm, and was New Ulm city attorney for two terms.

1924 Secretary: J. P. Hayes, Wm. J. Pedrick and Co., International Building, Rockefeller Center, New York City.

Harry Driggs, of the First Bank & Trust Co., has been winning considerable acclaim in the St. Joseph Valley by his keenness to high school students on the problems of banking.

1925 Secretary: John P. Buxley, 2885 Brookdale Road, Toledo, Ohio.

Just in under the w.k barbed wire is this from the furniture man of Toledo:

"Leo Grace, from Kokomo, crashes through in time to make the deadline— hope, Thanks, Leo.

"I was mighty glad to receive your card requesting that I send some information about myself for the ALUMNUS."

"There is not a great deal of news available at this time, John, other than that I am still connected with the Kokomo Lithographic Company and happily married, with a fine little three-year-old boy, prospective fullback at our house. I do occasionally have an opportunity to see a few of the Notre Dame fellows in and around this part of the country. I did particularly enjoy a visit a few days ago from Joe Harmon, who is now coaching at the Cathedral High School in Indianapolis. This is the first time I have seen Joe in probably 10 or 12 years, and he seems to be about the same as ever."

"Of course, I visit a great deal with Paul Johnson, of the class of '26, whom I am sure you will remember."

"I am sorry that I don't have a great deal of information to offer at this particular time but I want you to know that I greatly appreciate your efforts as secretary of our class. I know that the class of '25 in general, appreciates your efforts also."

"Paul Heschl passed through Toledo on his way back to Boston from Detroit and came out to the house. We had a very pleasant visit. Paul is a superb student for the Phoenix Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford. He is married and has a fine baby boy and a much traveled one at that, having been in 16 states and 300 towns old, and is another prospect for the Irish Ramblers.""}

"Bill Hurley was the only '26er that I saw at the Minnesota game. Bill looks fine and tells me he is still on the bachelor list."

Thomas D. Kenney is the promotion manager for the Newark, New Jersey, "Evening News."

Daniel J. O'Neil, New York City, A. T. & T.'s chief engineer-lawyer, and his wife, and I do mean wife, were visitors for the Minnesota game weekend. O'Neil was married October 1 as per announcement, afterward, Mrs. Daniel Joseph O'Neil, class of 1916. John Lynch, Jerryl Holland, Gil Schaefer, Joe Hocan, and neighboring '26 alumni, Dennis O'Neil (of the Jersey coast), Vir Yawman, and Connie Oehse, '26, who came from Mexico to witness the phenomena, gathered about the happy couple, who had sought doubtful sanctuary in the Editor's home.

1927 Secretaries: Joseph M. Boland, Athletic Office, Notre Dame, Ind.; Edmund Dunn, 11 Park Ave., Chicago. Joe Boland came up with this just before he left for Los Angeles:

"Now that the glaring absence of news from the last ALUMNUS' class notes section, class of '27, has been duly noted, this observer takes a hint to gather together the scattered notes of a hectic football season and serve a better fare to the doings of those '27 boys who have crossed the path. Make allowances, boys, for the fact that the season is not yet over while these words are being written and you may read this in the usual accelerated stage; otherwise, he's perfectly normal."

"Frank McCarrie, now president of the, Chicago Club, is busy prosecuting those violators of the Devil codes the enforcement officers clock up with in Chicago. He made the Minnesota game, among other, to check in with the lads, and doing a swell job of it, I'm told. Both boys checked in with letters during the season, but didn't make any of the games. Although the '27 was a big deal just about when it was time to leave for one of the contests, Horace Spiller checked in for the Minnesota week-end, but I couldn't catch up with him in my frantic endeavors to buy some of that oil stock he peddles from time to time."

"Rome Dugan, who can be found under several class headings in these notes, as he wanders from class to class in the ratings, checked in from Fort Worth, where I am fees from an attack that Benda claims must have been 'chiggers.' Rome indignantly denied this allegation, and claimed to have been to Texas under the West side, with a blanket that defied every one—Rome included. He's swell now, and practically running Kansas City. George 'Chummy' Martin reported via the mails from his Houston, Texas, law offices, with no complaints and the light green shining. He's with Wood & Morrow, Shell Building, in case 'ny of the brethren want to know."

"Bernie Abriot, from the secluded chambers as special referee in bankruptcy, U.S. District Court, Mills Building, San Francisco, Calif. (adv.) reports progress for the West Coast division of '27. An extra special surprise on the Army trip was the meeting with Art Monaco, who later checked in with a long letter to inform me of other mates long wandered from our green pastures, among them Jimmy Gains, still busily turning out tons of all sorts at his successful publishing house; Larry Groden, Snub Murphy, Bob Shields, assistant city editor of the American, 430 N.W. 10th, O. C.; Bob Stephan, Art's secretary, is now located in New York City, with U.S. Gypsum Co."

"Chris Flanagan made the Minnesota game weekend and brought reports—all favorable—on the action. Jimmy Green has made in law and oil down Texas way. Hugh McCaffrey flew in in one of those high-powered jobs from Lansing Field, Va., for the game. Ted Beckerly, of the class of 1928, is bucking in with a report as to where he's been. Seems that he has been hidden in a select colony of 'economic royalists' at the Emigrant Industrial Savings Bank, New York City. Ted finished in law at Fordham ('28) and is now engaged in the practice of law at 51 Chambers St., New York, in case the brethren want good legal advice. He's living in Scarsdale, Westchester County, is married and has a young daughter not quite two years old. He has seen Jack Gminating, a few lawyers and living in Brooklyn, but reports missing other '27 lads in his daily rounds."

"Frank Mayer, in from St. Paul for the Minnesota week-end, nearly tore the pressbox down when Zostani ran for a counter, with great help from your correspondent. It's told in amused, wondering tones today around South Bend that the N.D. pressbox will outlast the pyramids now that it has successfully weathered the storm of having two such huge carcaasses tossed around in it with abandon!"

"Earlier, much earlier than the football season, your correspondent was the recipient of a letter to inform me of other mates long wandered from our green pastures, among them: John Lynch, Merle Doo, and neighboring '26 alumni, Dennis O'Neil (of the Jersey coast), Vir Yawman, and Connie Oehse, '26, who came from Mexico to witness the phenomena, gathered about the happy couple, who had sought doubtful sanctuary in the Editor's home."

"I have a bit of headline news this month concerning the '25 men. Mike Ricks is the father of twin boys, born October 15 in Lafayette, Indiana. He now has three boys to send to Notre Dame to take economics under the class secretary. Mr. Ricks requested the ad­dress of Martin Callagy and Frank Reganry. Mike is practicing law in Lafayette and has served as a judge there."

"The class of '25 will be represented in the next Congress. Bob Grant, running on the Republican ticket, defeats his N.D. opposition, Dan and high school boy friend, George Beamer, in a close race for Congress from the third district in Indiana. I believe Bob is the 'first' to be elected to Congress. Congratulations, Bob, and best wishes for a most successful political career. Bob will be a welcome addition to the '25 gang now in Washington."

"I met Bob Graham of Grand Rapids the other day. Bob has been with the Securities and Exchange Commission here in Washington for the past three years. He is married and has one child."

"I had a call the other day from John Fredrick, who was in Washington on business. John mentioned that Jerry Biege recently became a father."

"Many of you probably saw the picture in the October 31 issue of 'Life' of August Grams and his four daughters: Mary, 7, Ellen, 5, Joan, 4, and Paddy, 2, all in N.D. monogram sweaters. We understand the four daughters out for scripture every afternoon. How about challenging Jim Armstrong and his four-son team to a game, August?"

"Frank Ready writes from Monroe, Michigan, where he is prosecuting attorney that Jim Allen was in his office recently. Jim, according to Frank, is now the Detroit representative for the lumberman's Mutual Insurance Company."

"Thank you, 'March of Time' Wingert, for coming through with your 'famine of facts' last week. It was an excellent beginning for what I hope will be another successful series of columns by guest writers each month. I will be glad to have any of you offer suggestions as to whom you would like to select for the job in the coming issues."

"I am turning the column over to Joe Mor­

"turn." Giving me five days in which to get this copy to you (on top of preparations for the joint N.D.- Northwestern alumni shin-dig which is now imminent) would be unfair to labor, whether A.F. of L., G.I.O., L.U., or A.W.O.L. The new Wages and Hours Bill compiles matters — it is necessary now to fill the editorial space for the next 44 days on my Wall Street job and also for this secretarial effort, whereby previously I worked a straight 8-hour week and no questions asked. After the election the recent election went the ‘Right’ way, 49 of the 44 hours were spent in defense of Capitalism against Communism. Now that things are getting back to normal, I'll be able to put more time and effort into any and all endeavors without recourse to official charts for guidance. It is now 4 A.M. (I’m writing the introduction after having finished the rest of this note) and well past the 8-hour limit. If an alphabetical snooper peers in my window, the responsibility is yours!!! Note the Wall Street angle on the outlook — we’re rugged individuals but hungry wolves!

"Surprising as it may seem to you, there are only 12 graduates (including myself) of the class of 1928 who were born and reared in the city of New York. Oddly enough there are more graduates of all schools who have made this village their home town since graduation. Even more surprising is the irrefutable conclusion that the fellows who have adopted New York as home are much more active members of the local alumni club than those who were born here. After you get through reading about some of the boys you will note that most of our absentees seem to come from Brooklyn. I don’t know the reason for this because our meetings are held at a very central point — the Centre Club — and it costs only a nickel to get there from any of the five boroughs via IRT, BMT, 5th Avenue, bus, surface cars, etc. We’d like to adopt more ‘28ers to help rejuvenate natives. I must say that the class of ’28 could be a lot stronger as far as representation at the meetings is concerned.

"We rarely, if ever, see Jim Conney, who is with Billings, O'Occlot & Co. Perhaps he is still submerged in the deep indigo which has pervaded Wall Street for the past ten years and has not as yet emerged.

"Bill Crenin, who is secretary to Frank Weygandt of All Hallows, has been of late and, in some extreme good work for us, particularly in getting the Twentieth Century-Fox people to put together a worthwhile film about Roecke and the University, which was shown at the Army-Notre Dame Reunion and created much favorable comment. It may interest you to know that Bill seldom, if ever, played golf in his life, but won the prize at the Westchester Country Club this summer for the longest drive in the golf tournament which we ran. You can reach Bill at 1060 Broadway.

"Lui Chiu-Yuen (Julian Lewis to you) dropped in recently and calmly announced that he was the largest and latest newspaper in the East — The Chinese Republic, and that his wife had recently opened a restaurant at 39 West 46th Street, called ‘Ho-Fong.’

"As you know Joe Thornton is no longer with us but we would sure like to hear from him. He wrote some time ago telling us that he was doing some work on the campus, but since that date we have had no further details.

"John Van Deventer is another one of the boys who has been on the metropolitan scene and is now working for Kip Linson as editor of a builders’ supply magazine. You probably know that he is John Law’s brother-in-law.

"Charlie Shelsnakay had a harrowing experience during the recent hurricane on Long Island. His home is at West Hampton Beach and was right in the vortex of the storm. Some 30 people were killed or drowned within two miles of the beach — but somehow the entire township was wiped off the map. Notre Dame must have had her eye on Charlie because nobody in his family suffered in the least, and the worst he got was a broken leg. It involved an argument with the landlord to replace his garage which had moved off its foundation. He couldn’t make the Rally but did go to Baltimore on our special train.

"Joe Kisling has moved to Flushing and is practicing law out there. He lives only a few blocks from me, but the only time I see him is when we are at a meeting. He lives at 155-17 Sanford Avenue.

"Tom Purcell also lives but a few blocks from me in Flushing — I met him in a restaurant one night recently. That is about the only time I have seen him in six years. He’s married and lives on Kissena Boulevard — I believe that he is a practicing attorney.

"Larry Cullins is doing good work for us on the staff of the New York ‘Alumnaux.’ You will remember that he was head man on the ‘Jugger’ back at school. To help us along he has volunteered his services to make sketches, etc. He is being kept very busy and on the jump with his work. He’s among the Centre Club — 120 Central Park South.

"Vic Fisher has attended our meetings religiously. He has proven to be an invaluable member. He, Bill Crenin and I were the only three of the class of ’28 to attend the retreat at the Camp Malloy House. Vic works for the West Shore out of Weehawken and lives at 310 Mosheke Parkway, Bronx.

"John Antus (21 Fifth Ave.) has been coming around quite frequently to our affairs. He practices law in this city — and he’s still the same smiling John.

"Dr. Dan Bradley now lives at 123 Barview Avenue, Amityville, L.I., where he is held in high regard as an M.D. He induced a couple of local boys to sign up at N.D. this year and had them in tow at our Freshman Sendoff. He was all over the Penn the night of our Rally.

"I haven’t seen George Byrne of 130 Park Place, Brooklyn, more than once in five years. He evidently gets his mail okay, but doesn’t show up.

"But Callagy has left N.Y.C. and is now living a few doors from my house. He’s gone along very nicely but when Dick invited him over to meet his wife at 2 A.M. my in-law thought it was time to say ‘Bow Sbir.’

"Bob Grant holds a responsible position in Washington, D.C. with the SEC as an expert accountant. If Duffy & Grant get together very often, I can see the financial giants of the country trembling! Yeah!!

"Jim Hartley, my old side kick in classes, is down on the city of Chicago now and the boys at the office are raving about him. It was my father-in-law, obviously. They met while bending elbows in a local stube, and, when they discovered that they had something in common, they became practically inseparable. For the rest of the evening, things got along very nicely but when Dick invited my padre by marriage to come along with him and meet his wife at 2 A.M. my in-law thought it was time to say ‘Bow Sbir.’

"Bob Grant holds a responsible position in Washington, D.C. with the SEC as an expert accountant. If Duffy & Grant get together very often, I can see the financial giants of the country trembling! Yeah!!

"A letter recently from Dr. Joe Kane. He’s back in Binghamton now and stepping right into his great dad’s shoes. About the only time I see Frank Kelly is at the Army game. I may be wrong but somewhere I got the dope that he is now in Bob Kirby’s line.

"Tate Kelly is doing right well by himself coaching basketball at DeSalle Academy. He also teaches in one of our local schools and does officiating on the side. Jack Lavelle is coaching at All Hallows school in the Bronx and is a big-time football and basketball referee in the Eastern A.L. Despite his baldness he can still move fast.

"Search me as to Walt Lame’s whereabouts — and you won’t find anything. He was quite active heretofore a few years ago, but he’s gone with the wind. The night of the Rally I called him up to get a chance to stalk a big guy who looked like Frank McCarthy from Indianapolis. I’d almost be certain it was him — ‘wuz you there, Mac? ’ I wish to trade place with you on that one.’ He was here a year ago and said he was being transferred to the Minneapolis office of McKinney & Thompson, a stock exchange house.

"Although we see Mike Blasko occasionally since he moved from Tucro Park to Clifton, New Jersey, we never see Dick Novak of the same town. Lt. Tom Noon came to our last meeting after running through his duties at Fordham. He didn't have a chance to change from his nifty looking Marine uniform. He looks great. He also took in the Army-Notre Dame Military Ball, Comm. John Worden and the crew from Ringe Tech and said an unshorn, uncouth individual, representing himself to be Connie Ochoa of Mexico, was in his office looking for a hand-out. I told him, 'Hold him, I'll be over to look and give the doorknob a rub.' I wasn't. Changing the lock might fit as aindle and like a million dollars — he came all the way back to see the Army game, plus Minnesota and Northwestern.

"Joe Repetti is on our mailing list at 40 Downing Street, New York City — his mail has never been returned, so I guess he's still around, but you couldn't prove it by his attendance at our functions. Several years ago George Sarazen of New York was looking for the FC & Co.'s, but we haven't seen him for a long time. I heard that he returned to his native Belleaire and opened a very successful department store. I sincerely hope it's true.

"At Taylor is still around Brooklyn but he has taken the home office. Lives at 1234 Smith Street, Saw Dr. John Vitkory a couple of years ago in Cleveland. We didn't get a chance to do any nightclubbing but we were old friends of his and we didn't have time to see his new office. Like most modest hard-working professional men, John was even then building up an enviable reputation. I hope he has continued to progress and prosper.

"Here Zimmern never shows up at a meeting. Five or six years ago I used to meet him occasionally in Wall Street and two or three years ago I used to see him in church upstate, near Kinderhook Lake where his mother has a beautiful estate and not many miles from where my people live. He's still on the mailing list but we never see him. His address is 539 Carroll Street, Brooklyn. Jim Hubbard lives at 217 North York St. He's in the field Gardens, L.L. but when, as and if he engages in club activities, he must do it on the QT.

"Mr. Stattler dropped in a few months back after an air jaunt from California. He's doing all right by his employers, an accounting outfit with headquarters in Pittsburgh. He travels a lot and on his recent junket just had time to see his wife between plane trips. Ed Cunningham's father was in an automobile accident recently and injured his hip. Ed lived out on 'Longspring' for a while but recently came back to our midst and now we see him quite often. He looks fine. Lives at 556 East 58th Street, New York City. John Paul Courts graduated with high honors from Fordham Law School. We met him once or twice since and understand that he's on his own, but he never comes to see us and we don't know where he's located.

"Let me tell you a little about what they're doing: John and Pete Btmc, Frank Donovan, Bob Evans, Pete Gallagher, Joe Geraghty, Jed Jeffrey's, Gus Jenkins, Gene Schaller of the Wire Service, Franco Stadler.

"I see George Conner since McGarrel's 42nd Street plant occasionally, but never at a meeting. He's in their advertising department. Bud Farley, another old roommate of mine, is doing quite well in his work right in Albany. He runs Farley's Tavern on South Pearl Street like an old hand and has the welcome mat out for all Notre Dames all the time. His wife and three beautiful youngsters are something to look at!

"Saw Pat Canny at the Reunion and Rally. He reminds me of Buddha — he doesn't change or age with the years. Still the same heart, half-folks-never-nothing type for the same old period. He's good and I believe works out of his own town — Corning. Maybe it's Cleveland.

"I received this letter just as I was about to mail copy to you and I see no reason for delaying any part of it. Glenn Match was thinking of the same lines I was when writing about the three "It's." I'm sure like to see him some day. He's a little ahead of me in one respect. I've got one daughter so far. I live only a few blocks from the fair so I'll be looking forward to seeing him.

"This morning I received my copy of the ALUMNUS and was mighty glad to note that you are going to substitute for Buckley and loop a few more lines through the basket for the next issue of the ALUMNUS.

"This announcement brought to my mind the good old combination of Hamilton, Hartley, who so successfully baffled the hard-working professors in 1928 by giving them some type of answer (right or wrong) to every question asked, so what would be more fitting than for Jim and I to give you a bit of news to help you out with your editorial problem.

"I had written an outstanding series of articles, in collaboration with Rev. Dr. Thornberry, on the problems of newspaper boys and girls and Cy was selected to work on this special report. Government service depreciation and organizing boys' groups from coast to coast and up in Canada. In 1931, to pursue his studies, he left high school subjects at the Christian Brothers' conducted Saint Raphael's Academy in Pottsvan, Lake Island, which is presently quite active. And this was followed by practical studies in delinquency control at the Connecticut Reform School. Along about this time President Roosevelt desired a comprehensive report on the problems of newspaper boys and girls and Cy was selected to work on this project. He was editor of the school newspaper and Cy was sent to see him some day. He's a little ahead of me in one respect. I've got one daughter so far. I live only a few blocks from the fair so I'll be looking forward to seeing him.

"Several fellows have been asking to hear about Bob Dick, so in response to a bit of curiosity, I have rounded up some information regarding Cy Costello's other activities: After graduation in 1930 the Boy Life Bureau of the Knights of Columbus acquired Cy's services as a field secretary and permitted him to see America first, lecturing and organizing boys' groups from coast to coast and up in Canada. In 1931, to pursue his studies, he left high school subjects at the Christian Brothers' conducted Saint Raphael's Academy in Pottsville, Lake Island, which is presently quite active.

"Cy said that he had met today's Richard Harding Davis, newsleather John V. Hinkel of 'Scholastic' fame, in New York just after Hinkel had returned from Spain, about which John had written an outstanding series of articles, in collaboration with Rev. Dr. Thornberry. Cy also spoke of his work with Charley Grimes back in '29 when they labored together to promote the Notre Dame Club of Rhode Island, which is presently quite active.

"Years truly continue in business at the same old stand —ten years now. If any of the boys are considering financial reorganizations, want underwritings successfully concluded, are recapitalizing or wish to dispose of large blocks of stocks without disturbing the general market in same, or perhaps do a little trading, I'd like to get a crack at 'em. Despite Martin Acts and SEC regulations, we've managed to keep out of jail and pay our employees in cash — no mean feat these days and practically a success in this business. Nor would I want to become a Monday morning quarterback, but if you have a vacationing in Atlanta either — or would they? As for athletes, I'm still like an old fire horse—and about as fast as a 20-year plug. The New York A.C. basketball committee will be parking me off so that they can get a captain who's on his feet more than otherwise — and these new rules are no help to an old guy.

1929 Secretary: Joseph P. McNamara, Attorney Gen. Office, Indianapolis, Ind.

Joe McNamara is preparing for the way to the next issue with the following swell contribution:

"Now that the telephone companies are proving the futility of the adage 'a corporation has no soul' by sentimentally providing us newspapers can be expected to break forth with the annual reprint of Virginia O'Hallan's letter about Santa Claus and what the papers are doing for the poor little child. We hope it is reply. All of which is by way of setting the stage for the class secretary to wish each and every Twenty-Niner the happiness he so richly deserves. Let us not forget the Mildred ebuli and the heritage of a son of Notre Dame . . . and let us hope that the year will bring the satisfying peace of the little-town-of-Bedfellows. The nation's pinned too much faith in Bethlehem, Pa.

"Now that red haired autumn is fading fast into the season in which the lichens form their haphazard constellations in the tall buildings before closing time, New Haven, Connecticut, and the Yorks of the Yorks are looking for a hand-out, I'm going to substitute for Buckley and loop a few more lines through the basket for the next issue of the ALUMNUS. What would be more fitting than for Jim and I to give you a bit of news to help you out with your editorial problem. If you've got any questions, I'm sure like to see him some day. He's a little ahead of me in one respect. I'm going to substitute for Buckley and loop a few more lines through the basket for the next issue of the ALUMNUS.
for the kickoff. Last week in October we listened in on the Army game. We had several Army officers at a luncheon as our guests among whom was the football representative of West Point in 1912. We enjoyed his stories very much and particularly the story of how Notre Dame went to West Point with a guard of 25 men.

"Harry Lawrence, '29, is secretary of the club and when not promoting some club function is working hard pulling in the shekels for New England Electric Company. Harry married a very lovely girl in 1923."

"My brother Bill is married and working hard with American Steel and Wire when not out hunting or fishing, which, by the way, is very good in this particular region."

"John Moran, '25, formerly of Denver and Continental Oil Company, has transferred his activities to Houston, Texas."

"Charles Haskell and Al Frantz, '29, are both competitors of mine in the legal profession. Both are married and have very lovely families."

"Ray Brady, '25, of Salt Lake City, Utah, was in the office recently. He plans to attend the Minnesota game."

"We do not have many visitors and I can't understand how Denver [name] is one of the finest cities and Colorado a wonderful state. A million tourists in Colorado a year and I'll bet that, in a good many years, not a very large number of them all."

"Well, Joe, this isn't what I would call a successful letter, but it is my initial try and hereafter I will try and report a little more faithfully to the class secretary."

"Thanks a lot, Bob! Your courtesy in responding is greatly appreciated."

"Those who go looking for Fred N. Bier should know that he has moved to 132 Seventh Avenue, LaGrange, Illinois. Incidentally, you find when you return to your home in Denver is one of the finest cities and Colorado a wonderful state. A million tourists in Colorado a year and I'll bet that, in a good many years, not a very large number of them all."

"Several years ago Elmer Layden was in town with one of his former football teams and we had a nice chat. There are a few Notre Dame men in this state and, of course, any contact with anyone is enjoyable. I extend to you a welcome to any student present or past who happens to be in this vicinity to taste our southern hospitality."

"Joe, see if you can get James T. L. Morrissey of Walsh Hall to give us a few words concerning himself. Last report I had he was in Shelton, Washington. Also my old friend George Le Grand Housley, whom I know is married and I believe in Washington, D.C."

"I hear from D. M. Donahoe about once a month and he has established himself in the practice of law in Chicago. The only dark note in all my last few years has been the death of my mother in August, which was a sad blow to our family. Notre Dame lost one of her staunchest supporters with her passing."

"Please convey my regards to Father O'Hara and Dean Konop, the next time you see them. Also to others who may be interested."

"You may be certain that you have our grateful appreciation for that fine letter, John. Do it again sometime!"

"Back in the days when Tyndall, South Dakota, was represented on the campus by Jim Krall (James E. to the Bostonians) he gave every indication of being a benefactor to the human race. He was providing the surrounding territory with Burroughs Adding Machines—and, to one who has labored hard trying to fill out tax returns, an adding machine is a godsend! Jim attended the Methodist Notre Dame game and announced confidentially that he believed the team would go through the season without a defeat. For a while it looked as though Jim was managing director of the South Dakota Sales and Net Income Tax Department and an examiner in the Division of Audits and Accounts. Jim reports that the Notre Dame men around Sioux City are very scattered, but that he occasionally sees Cy Kasper, who is the Collector of Internal Revenue at Aberdeen, South Dakota, and also Lou and Virgil Nolin, of Mitchell, South Dakota. We are happy to hear that Vince Harrington was re-elected to Congress from the district of Iowa which embraces Sioux City. This was an exceptional achievement since in the trend in voting in 1936 was all the other way. . . . Best of all we liked Jim Krall's statement that "business is good."

"Those who want to drop Jim a line can reach him at the Burroughs Adding Machine Company, 797 Douglas Street, Sioux City, Iowa."

"There is at least one member of the Class of '29 who is happy that public opinion runs the other way—there is no medium between hot and cold. After six years or so of counting New Deal measures jumping over the Constitution and trying to convince the populace that it had been a real joy,评论文章 Avenue were tombridges Philip C. Landisman is wearing one of those coast to coast smiles these days. And he deserves to! Phil has been the Republican chairman up in Buchanan, Michigan, almost continuously since 1929. He has also been quite successful in practice law in Buchanan and has been acting as an attorney (at least in my opinion) it was worth while to note that Buchanan benefited from a number of worth while PWA allotments. Phil has been married since 1934 and has two or three of the same age and very stable lad that we all liked so well. He hasn't changed much."

"Another city attorney from the '29 ranks is Casper R. (Cappy) Graithwohl over at Niles, Michigan. Casper is married and has three wonderful children. Your scribe found that he was very well-liked by his fellow townsmen and still plays well at everything—especially golf. Good old Tom Farrell is also practicing law at Niles and in addition resides as just two miles from the line, is married, without issue, a perfect gentleman and a good lawyer."

"Harold Reynolds, Pat Marion's former right hand man, visits Landsman very often. Harold has a splendid law practice in Chicago and his work takes him to all parts of the country. Your secretary is wig-waggling Reynolds to forward some of the information that he has collected on the '29ers on these travels."

"The imitable Mr. Dooley (the other one—RD) said that the vote is a thing of the past, and ours is a free country. That being the case your class secretary believes that he has sufficient precedent for presenting a few remarks by another Republican Revere, who, before the fact, wrote the following:

"Briefly, the story is this: After leaving Notre Dame, I went to work for my father, Frank McHugh up to Cambridge, at the Harvard Law School. Bill, no doubt, has told you of our friendship. We are both graduates in 1932. In 1932 I became associated with Arthur T. Vanderbilt, president of the American Bar Association, and reminized with him until 1935. About that time I decided that it was best to get out and try to make my own living rather than live on somebody else's prestige, and entered into a partnership with a classmate of mine, William Braggin, to practice law in the state of Michigan. We have been very successful, and have done our share to make the practice of law in Michigan a profession of such high standing that we are all proud of it."

"I received your letter the day before election, and activities among political lines have prevented me from answering it until today. I was very glad to hear from you, however, and wish to apologize for not having kept you informed of what I have been doing for the last few years."
at Harvard, under the firm name of Carton and Abramoff. We are practicing in my home town of Youngstown, Ohio, but I'm glad that I did not particularly like to work for the State, and I resigned from it. I was recently elected a member of the Republican County Executive Committee, which is my political office, and have been taking some part in political campaigns."

"You will be surprised, I think, to know that I married Katherine Pettit, a student at State Teacher's College, two years ago. We live in the village of Harwich, Massachusetts."

"There are a number of Notre Dame boys in this vicinity, notable among whom are Dr. George McDonnell, who also graduated in 1929, and handles several other important accounts besides the Old Heidelberg."

"There used to be a melodrama—and there always will be one—in which the golden-haired heroine says 'I was never more serious in my life.' That furnishes the theme for the statement that he is in a position to make about Clarence (Osie) Donovan. Just before the Northwestern game I had the good fortune to see Osie at Evanston and can report authentically that he is just as handsomely and just as much of an 'All-American' man as he was back in the days when we looked gay on her. Bill is a real power in the American Bar Association Convention this summer. Bill Boles was also a convention visitor in Cleveland, and I had lunch and a good talk with him."

"A varied group of '30 men all appeared, among them two newly-weds, Bernie Conroy and Don Laurie, Judge Con Carey came down from the North Country and although a 'noisy' fellow, he was good sport for the picking. Tom Cansingh ushered Con and Bernie around and looked to be enjoying the job immensely. I forgot to mention that Tom Laramie, who is with the Republican County Executive Committee, was a member of the crowd."

"The writer had as his guests for the week-end, the party which had the most successful outing of the week preceding the game."

"Reliable Matt Cullen has moved his firm of retailing and wholesale grocery business."

"'Bob HcHumng has designated me as secretary for the coming issue of the ALUMNUS and Rally commemorating the 25th anniversary of the Notre Dame-Army game. As you know, the party which won the Beanpo­

"'Before closing, I want to compliment you on the fine work you are doing in the trouble to collect information from such un­worthies as myself.'"

"We had our annual outing at the Army-Notre Dame game in New York together. George is so uninterested, he seems likely to change his status at any time."

"'I saw Gus Bondi and Bill Walsh at the game itself. I was recently elected a member of the Republican County Executive Committee, which is a minor political office, and have been taking some part in political campaigns."

"'I see him at the reunion at Notre Dame next spring.'"

"At most all the football games this year some one has been asking for information about Frank J. Bellin. Investigation proved that Frank is in industrial engineering with the American Steel and Wire Company, a sub­sidiary of the United States Steel Corporation in Cleveland. Ohio. Frank is one of the brave lads that I saw at all of the games this year. At that time he was selling for Swift and Company out of Toledo, Ohio. At the height of the depression he moved back to Cleveland and

"started in industrial engineering with Swift and Company, following which he did advance study with A. V. Segur Company of Chicago, and was designated in his present position. Frank reported on the other members of the class whom he had seen recently in about the following ways:"

"'I occasionally see Tom Kienzer, who is in the coal business at Cleveland. Karl Marte­nstiek and I have lunch frequently; Karl be­coming connected with the Great Lakes Dredge and Dock Company; the Great Lakes Dredge and Dock Company, I enjoyed seeing Bob Trettier, who is with that concern, at a Notre Dame summer dance. Bob is lo­cated in Springfield, Ohio. I last saw Cleve Schneider he was telling me all of the advantages and disadvantages of being a 'gent­leman farmer.' Cleve is working in Cleveland and furnishes competition truly."

"Latter: I have been in touch with Dick Donehoo as I promised, and he advises me that also present at the party from the class of 1930 were Jack Cassidy and Frank Mosher, both working in Chicago, as well as Walt Lissman, who originally hailed from Vermont. Dick also tells me that Gas Bondi and Bill Walsh, whom I saw at the game, were both at the game party.

"Others include Jim Mulvaney, of Auburn, New York. Johnny Law, down from his superintendency job at Woodburne, Chick O'Malley from Key West, Florida, and Tom Bradley, who succeeded in making the long trek from Riverdale in the Bronx."

STILL LATER:

"This constitutes my second supplemental letter relative to the 1930 reunion at the Army game party. I am sending it for my own protection, as much for as the news value, in view of the threats I have received if classmates then present are not mentioned.

"First of the new men on the list is Tim O'Reourke, the Astoria executive, who with his better half, received a 12 o'clock 'pes' from his wife; also Gene Kennedy, John Nanovic and Andy Aman, apparently all the way from Ohio. Howie Smith came, from somewhere where he had a successful year coaching Mt. St. Michael's Prep School. You should have heard the gloating when his team beat Jack Lavelle's All Hallow's club, 7-4.

"I forget to mention an interesting experience I had this week with an article on a picture of John Dubuisson's brother as a member of the Army team playing in the backyard. The picture is the image of John, only older and a bit more stocky, and when the lineup showed him to be from Opelousas, Louisiana, I was convinced that one of John's family had finally made something of himself. I do not understand how John let him get away from our club, but Army is certainly a good second choice. The boy played very well against us and will probably be a real threat for the next two years."

Bob Hellzur is here again with a lot of dope for you. He says:

"By way of supplement to Warren Foggel's article on the New York Reunion, for which I am duly appreciative, you may have the following tidbits of news from your St. Louis correspondent.

"First, congratulations are in order for Waren and the rest of the gang in New York who were responsible for the success of that reunion.

"On December 3, the 'thirties of California and the west coast are to follow suit and will hold a class reunion in Los Angeles, in connection with the U.S.C. game, with Doug Donoghoe, a native of Hong Kong, by the way, now in charge of the annual president of the Notre Dame Club of Los Angeles, and will be in charge of the entire show. The next issue of the ALUMNUS will contain his graphic description of the entire affair 'play by play.'

"During the past month, your correspondent has heard from Jack "Red" Flynn, sounding like a voice from the wilderness, all the way from his ranch and cactus, Prescott, Arizona. Jack is a bacteriologist, chasing bugs in his father's clinical laboratory. He tells me that Eddie Collins, from Oak Park, Illinois, who spent a summer in Prescott several years ago, is the only Notre Dame man he has seen 'in those parts' . . . and what's more, all he sees are health-seekers, gold-miners, prospectors, cattle thieves, and rattlesnakes. However, Jack and Mrs. Flynn are going to gallop out to Los Angeles to see the Notre Dame crowd at the U. S. C. game.

"Larry Cotter, an architect of this class of '30, who hails from Buffalo, New York, is now permanently situated here in St. Louis with the architectural firm of O'Meara & Hills. Larry goes great guns in gait in New York City, after seven years experience designing skyscrapers. Larry is unattached, quite eligible, and, if any of you boys have health problems, Larry may send him a bid at $709 Waterman, St. Louis, Missouri.

"Larry Crenin, of Elmina, New York, spent about seven years in New York City, as a special agent for the Prudential Life Insurance Company. We understand that he is now back in Elmina, insuring everybody in the old home town.

"Here's a surprising parcel of news: Jim Shockey, who hailed from Seneca, New York, and graduated in engineering in '30, decided that he would rather work on the human body than on a steel structure. A year and a half ago, Jim went to work in a hospital in Arizona. Jack is a bacteriologist, chasing rattlesnakes. However, Jack and Mrs. Flynn more, all he sees are health-seekers, gold-mine projectors in and around Glens Falls."

Bob Massey is a field man for the duPont Company in Wilmington, Delaware. Jim Bourdeau is in Saranac Lake, New York, assisting his father in the meat packing business. Frank McNeil has opened his own law office in the 10 LaSalle Building, Chicago, after a two-year tenure with the Chicago Title and Trust Co. Joe O'Hara has received many advancements with the General Electric Co. Sebecentry, New York, and is now in the experimental division. His old friend, Bill Karl, is with Continental Motors, Detroit. Jack Keefe, with the R.J.P.C. in Chicago, is planning on being married soon after the first of the year. Pat Mangan has recently transferred to Western Adjustment Bureau Office in Springfield. Jack Saunderson, Dick Barber, Rye barrister; Ed Caningham, Al Howard, Ben Oakes, Bob Massey, Johnny Byrnes, and Roy Bailey.

Dan Williams, also in New York as an attorney with an insurance company; John Foley, who has forsaken law and is teaching up Tarrytown way; Dick Donehoe, who had a big hit in making the biggest sale of the great success it was. Others we saw—and there some I've probably forgotten—were Dave Nash, Charlie "Kid" Spinitelli; Jack Saunders; Dick Barber, Rye barrister; Ed Caningham, Al Howard, Ben Oakes, Bob Massey, Johnny Byrnes, and Roy Bailey.

There is still an opening in this department for many news reports of class members who have been absent from this column for the past seven years. We urge some news from the absentees so that we may pass on their achievements and whereabouts."

Louis Heiger, who has been at Muskogon, Michigan, has gone to the Atlanta, Georgia, headquarters of the E. H. Sheldon Company.

1932 Secretary: Herb Glancy, 905 18th Street, Hollis, L. L., New York.

1933 Secretary: Donald Wise, 110 Pleasant Street, Joliet, Illinois.

Don Wise is coming through with this grand stuff:

"Bill Lynch writes from Yonkers, New York, and really cracks the ice with a generous contribution—here it is:

"'Jim 'Rip' Engels is teaching school in Green Bay, Wisconsin, and is the proud father of two future bakers of the Engels banner.'"

"Mike De Lay is managing one of his father's banks in Northfield, N. Y. He, too, is the father of a little daughter."

"Sappy Addenio is a physical education instructor in the New Jersey school system."

"Rafe Birelli, ex-'33, is in the contracting business in Harrison, New York."

"Johnny Burke, from Glenn Falls, New York, is in charge of some of the P. W. A. projects in and around Glenn Falls."

---
"Lee Cullings is with a steamship concern. Johnny English is running his own shoe store in Chicago. Incidentally, Johnny is once more up and around after an operation on an injured knee."

"Dick Meade is the manager of the Pacific Fruit Company in Portland, Oregon."

"Andy Betti has the Ford agency in Middletown, New York, and from all reports is doing quite well."

"J. Lavery is now an insurance broker—he has his own firm in Brooklyn."

"Jim McLaughlin, of Atlantic Highlands, New Jersey, is on the legal staff of the Third Avenue Railway System in New York."

"Hank Pendergast is an ace reporter for the "Newark Evening News.""

"Douglas Giorgio is interning over at Mary Immaculate Hospital in Jamaica, Long Island."

"Joe Clark has resumed his position as a national bank examiner after a few months illness."

"Herb Schwartz is with the Lee Hardware Company in Salina, Kansas."

"Marty Lipsky is with Sears Roebuck in Chicago. Jack Kelley, of Eau Claire, Wisconsin, was at the pep rally prior to the Army game. He is working for a travel bureau."

"Jack "Chet" Hoyt is one of New York's very best people. He has really settled down and is no longer a rival of Fred Astaire or Maury DeWald. Dave McCaffery is working at West Point. He is on an engineering project of the government. Frank "Gunner" McGee is still with the government as a national bank examiner. He and his wife are home to guests every night but Tuesday in the Bronx. Tuesday they have he-burgers. Harry Graften is an education adviser with the C.C.C. Louis "Bud" Murphy is still with his father's concern in Columbus, Ohio."

"Ed Eckert was married late in the month of August by the Rev. T. J. Eckert, of the A. J. Eckert Plumbing Company in Albany, New York. Jerry Finneran is with the New York "Journal-American." The last report on Jerry was that he was in the seed and farm department of the paper. Jack Finneran is still with the New York "Daily News"—he is now the proud father of his second little girl. Frank Fallon is practicing law in New Rochelle, New York. Frank Martin and Charley Quinn were seen at the Pennsylvania Hotel the night before the Army game."}

Don Wise has heard from Tony Wallace, who passed the Pennsylvania bar and was admitted on October 17. Don also writes that Maury Scoulion is a division manager for the American Tobacco Company.

1934 Secretary: James Moscow, 2220 North Peoria and vicinity, Chicago, Illinois

Jim Moscow, of good old Providence Mutual—comes through after a long absence:

"I regret having been such a "scoopless" reporter for so long but, truly, news of the '34 group is about as scarce as Chicago Maroons football victories."

"First of all I would like to catch up on a few marriages. Last June found Andy Aush being linked with Miss Nellie McCormick in Washington. In the same month Miss Lucile Buckley married in California. John Hickey of 34B class, became the bride of Ed Fisher. It is rumored that Erwin Keip is soon to take on a Notre Dame class of '34 brother-in-law also. Incidentally, Epy most recently has taken an important Missouri district for the American Drugists Syndicate. This column would like him to put the "beel" on Landes, Massett and a few more for a line now and then."

"Coming back to weddings we find that Bill O'Brien of Connecticut (was it Bridgeport or New Haven?) was married to Miss Marie Siegmann in Pulaski, Tennessee, on August 11. This was when I called again on your next trip to Chicago, Bill."

"John Kiley is the proud daddy of a Patrick James—Congratulations, Betty and Jack."

"Charley Schwartz was a most welcome visitor to Chicago last September. Still faithful to New Albany, Indiana. Charley reports a booming business in the nearby states in which he operates."

"Jimmy Dunnigan announces the formation of a law partnership of Dwyer, Gold, Kennedy, and Dunnigan. They operate from 41 East 2nd Street in New York City. Good luck, Jim, and please forget the suit for my not acknowledging this sooner."

"Another Jim, namely Kearns, continues his rapid strides as a popular sports columnist for the 'New York Post.' He seems to have old times to us Chicagoans to be reading Jim's accounts of Irish football games."

"Food for thought: Only six months until our five-year-reunion! Just thought I'd mention it so some of you boys can start working on the wives for a weekend-per.""

"Much more than welcome is this swell letter from the guy who must certainly rate as the most courageous member of the class—George Helbing:

"After reading Ed Moran's "wee bit" of information in the current issue of the ALUMNUS concerning the members of the class of '34, there is little to be added. However, I have heard directly or indirectly from a few of the boys and I can do more with his gloe trotting, and am passing on the news.

"At the present time I am completing my twenty-eighth month in hospitals or sanatoriums in a fight against a swell case of tuberculo­sis. The prospects at this time are very good, but it will be quite a while yet before I can be up and around. At the moment I am recovering, from two thoracoplasty operations, in which a total of seven ribs were removed. Now, as the surgeon told me, I would be a real halfback for Elmer Layden, literally speaking. But everything is coming along for hoping, can they?"

"Now about some of the other '34ers. Joe Hanraitty was in the auditor's office of the city of Parma. Bob Rainey transferred from his home town of Teoria to Chicago, where he is going to college. Bill has been a most faithful correspondent during my incarceration, and from his letters the following has come to light. Jack Grieser is making Persia and vicinity Palomvile soap conscious. Vince Rickey is proprietor of his own grocery store in the same city and doing right well, thank you, with his dad in the laundry business in Persia."

"Going out West we find Gene Blash creating ideas for the Meeder Engraver & Company, of Denver, Colorado, advertising agency. Ed Mackay, also in Denver, Wells Robison is still engineering for the government with G.H.Q. at Davenport, Iowa. Joe Clark, ex '34, is postmaster at Newport, Idaho, and holds an office in one of the postmasters' national organizations. Jim Gleason is insuring everyone in Imus, New York, through his own agency, for the Phoenix Mutual Life Insurance Company. Bill Reilly, of the East Orange, New Jersey, Reilly, was married last spring and is doing rewrite for the Newark Star-Eagle. Bill Hasavard, the former Buffalo, who has been down to Cleveland to see me a few times, is with one of the large steel companies in Lackawanna, New York. Tom Brennan, also of Buffalo, is representative for the Dennison Manufacturing Company. The last I heard from Jim Gart­land he was doing social service work in Way­zata, Minnesota."

"Well, that's all the news for this time. Tell the boys that I would be more than happy to hear from them. I have plenty of time on my hands and nothing to do with it. I may be reached at Montreat, Montreat, Brecksville, Ohio. Incidentally, if any of the boys ever get to Cleveland and have a few hours to spare, please be to do to see them. The sanatorium is only about 13 miles southwest of Cleveland."

A letter from Los Angeles, from Ben Alexander, informs us that Nick Lakats is the greatest actor out there, and that Jack Car­berry is now in charge of letting that fact leak out for Nick.

Word from the Law School is that Edwin J. Holman, Leavenworth, Kansas, was elected to the state legislature on November 8, on the Republican ticket.

C. T. Williamsen is now with the political department of the Hattly Bearing Di­vision of General Motors, Harrison, New Jersey, the home address being Bayview Avenue, Great Neck, L.I., New York. He was formerly in Dayton, Ohio, as district repre­sentative of the Torrington (Conn.) Company.

1935 Secretary: Franklin C. Hochreiter, 610 Rodd Street, Midland, Michigan.

Here, friends of the ALUMNUS audience, is a miracle. The cloud-walking Hochreiter turns out a column for us, and away, nub, with the best wishes of the staff:

"Here we are again, nuth, but this time we have a new headliner for the first shot out of the journalistic gun.

"Since the beehived and the scribe became very tired of making week-end jumps to carry on a romance, they both grabbed off healthy positions when they presented themselves in the same town. The next column comes from New Orleans, Louisiana, where Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Hochreiter will be enjoying mixed French and Spanish culture, with a remnant of Huey Long.

"The date—December 26. The place—Mt. St. Mary's Academy, Kenmore, N. Y. The official witness—Rev. Thomas J. Brun­nan, C.S.C. The bride—Miss Clara Ann Ball of Buffalo, New York. The lucky person—definitely yours truly, not the bride. The day after the wedding takes us to the sunny warm climes of New Orleans where Mrs. Hochreiter becomes a special social worker of the new Child Guidance Institute, and the 'little man' takes over another venture in probation. The Louisiana address is not yet at time of writing, so you can still send those epistles to the Midland number until we give further notice. Once we are settled down New Orleans way we'll be expecting to see that southern contingent real often — that means Slath, Gravel, Jacobs, etc.

"And now to the correspondence of the month. Things began picking up and we have three meaty epistles from which to draw our chatter. But first a note on Bill Messer. While in New York giving holiday greetings we ran into Bill in the Terrace Room of the Statler. The Williamsville Adonis is teaching at the local high school, looks very healthy and plans to have grown more serious in his professorial status.

"Two letters from the east arrived on the same day - one from Vermont and one from New York City. We'll take them in order.

"The New England missive was a welcome messenger from Ed Bried. Ed is head of the Chemistry Department at St. Michael's College in Winookski Park, Vermont. Let's trace through his history. We left him in the gym back in June, 1935.

"After graduation Ed spent a year at the University of Cincinnati in the graduate school of chemical engineering. Then he returned to N.D. and received the degree of Doctor of Philosophy. He is now back at the last summer session. Upon receiving the sheepskin Ed took the first train for St. Petersburg, Florida, and was married there to Miss Martha Louise Tice of West Virginia and St. Petersburg. Two weeks of travel in the southern states brought the Brieds to Burlington, Vermont, where Ed had previously accepted a position at St. Michael's as head of their chemistry department.

"Show felicitations on your success, Ed, and on your marriage. They certainly placed you on 'top of the heap' and right in the front lines of the '35 advance guard of matrimony. May your success and happiness continue and become fuller as the years roll on.

"With Ed at St. Michael's are two more Notre Dame men. Father J. T. Purcell, M.A. 37, is dean of studies, and Joe Deegnan, '34, is also a member of the faculty and in charge of publicity. As a point of information, Ed — we are not with Dow, though the plant controls everything in these parts. We are working until December 17 for a private board and the state, in social work.

"Next we move on a news summary sent in by Frank Sinnott. After taking a crack at the law in St. Petersburg, Florida, and the Bronx Dapper Dan swung over to Fordham Graduate School and hit out for an M.A. in English. At the present writing all looks well for Frank's capturing the degree next year. In the interim between law and graduate study, our corres-pondent reported meeting his feminine companion were Adrian Wackerman and is fair one. Since last heard from Adrian has joined up with another architectural firm in Philadelphia. This was a recent change, and from all reports, the little blonde group of six still stick. Old Deadhead, the picture up to date for a lot of the gang of whom we have heard nothing for a long time. Now, how about the rest of the crowd breaking some with a letter or a pen and stick with us. Let's get going and hit our stride again! This month brings us back into the swing, and next time we will have to fill one whole page in the old monthly. What do you say — are you willing?

"Don't forget — you can still address us at 610 Rodd in Midland, and the mail will be forwarded to New Orleans. Next time we will give you the Louisianas address.

"Here is to a really Merry Christmas and a Prosperous New Year from us to all you guys out there!"

1936 Secretary: John Moran 61 E. 55th St. Apt. 2, New York City.

Great stuff, this, is following Johnny's Army weekend. Here we go:

"By the time these notes reach print, the football season will be just a memory, yet here we are reporting on the gang that came to New York to see Notre Dame beat Army on October 29. So now we are back out of town that week-end that at this late date you'll have to pardon us if we accidentally overlook a few. Get angry enough to send a kick at the matter to our attention — we'll be glad to hear from you. But no law suits, please.

"The festivities started Friday evening with a brilliant array of speakers attracting a singing turnout of 1,200 N.D. rooting for the Grand Ballroom of the Hotel Pennsylvania for a pre-game Unison and Rally. Prominent on the committees responsible for the success of the affair were Bud Goldman and Joe Schmidt who worked on the publicity. Gathered around the tables reserved for '35ers were Dan Sullivan who reported that he is now with the printing department of the International Tailoring Company in New York, and August "Sunny" Church, economics student par excellence.

"Dan revealed that his old side kick, Bob Sceurman, has gone west end, is now doing very well on the editorial staff of a newspaper in or near Denver, Colorado. A little more information is in order, Bob. Sunny is putting into practice the Distributive Justice precepts Father Balger poundcd into our respective skulls. His boast is that he and his Dad operate one of North Plainfield, New Jersey's, largest grocery stores where every one of the eight clerks receives a substantial living wage. He also admitted to having journeyed afterward last January.

"Joe Redigan was present to listen to Grand Forks, Redinger, et al. and incidentally to inform us that he returned from his European vacation jaunt in time to continue with his medieval literature studies at Fordham. Joe reported that his correct address was recently requested in these columns for the Alumni Association, has been confined to the Springbrook Sanatorium, Aurora, Illinois, for the last year and a half. Joe has been out twice to visit Dave who has been fighting a winning battle against tuberculosis. Best of Jack, Dave, and we trust that you will be recovered sufficiently to be on hand for next year's game. How about a letter to Dave, boys?

"Jim Sheery was around frantically hunting

Class of '36 members will regret to learn of the serious illness of Carlos P. Romero, distinguished Philippines publisher, who deliv- ered the great oration on government at the Roosevelt Convention in December, 1935, and was, together with the President, awarded an honorary LL.D., at the time.

Frank Wade has joined the roster of the Besthe Brakes, one of the fast basket- ball units in the semi-pro. Minnesota game, saw a flock of the boys, wandered in disbelief about the campus and will try to remember some of the goings on.

"Among those jammed into the stadium (we trust), were Paul Sheedy, still hitting the ball in Sioux City, N. Y., (yes, Katie Phillipson was at that place). Mr. Sheeder was also hand, dapper as a duke and brought word of Tom Condon and the rest of the Buffalo contingent. Tom recently hooked up with an insurance firm in St. Paul and is said to be insuring everything in sight.

"Geographical notes; You should take a gander at the new candy store! Everything in stock from Little Liver Pills to big chocolate maldens in paper pails. It's the McCoy and the Rainier. We are sorry to report that we pulped up a malted and a Dainty Delight Pimento Cheese and Pineapple" sandwich, without once seeing a tattered suede jacket and a voice bellowing for milk and chocolate Graham. "O tempora! O mores!" Even the cognit displays in crepe paper have gone Finshley.

"Then downtown. We like to drive right smack through South Bend because they went and streamlined the front of Hoot's so it looks like a cross between the Burlington Zephyr and a new gas stove. But they haven't streamlined the boys in front nor the Southenders who are so fondly gazed at by said gentlemens.

"Others on hand for the 1910 affair were Jack Hurley, with whom we talked just briefly; 'Slick' Emmett Hart, fresh from big business machinations; Henry Raen, the proud parent of a Ullman, not a proud papa, but working for one; Roy Barron and Bob Siegfried, together as usual, and with whom we managed to palaver only briefly.

"From our Eastern representatives comes all kinds of glad tidings. Most of them date back almost as far as the Army game, and you know what that means.

"We are told that Charles Roggenstein, of the Rockville Centre Roggensteins, now tops the beam at 174 and was at Columbia Law School. We deem it wise to say no more of the law school.

"With Roggenstein at the same institution was James Waldron, who is still battling the boys. We are sure will triumph.

"Cousin Joe O'Neill was at Temple Law school, another school career we will refrain from reviewing. We are told, but hesitate to report, that O'Neill is working. Such may be the case, but we would like to see the handle of the pick.

"Joe Quinn was reported temporarily out of a post, but will no doubt, smile his way back into one, possibly before this type is even set. C. Stroker, the Scholastic's best manning editor during 1916-1917, is reported doing very well on the East coast, as everyone knew he would.

"Freddy Gast is said to be working for a company in Benezon, New York, where he is employed as a chemist and is said to be doing right well with the tubes and portions. John Campbell and Larry Barnett are medical students in Philadelphia.

"The Harvard trio, consisting mainly of John Marbach, Harry Baldwin and George Law, seems to be in good health and indescribably and one can presume the boys are still absorbing culture, etc., under the ivy. Pee Wee Hardart and 'Moe Bob' Gishers are studying medicine at Columbia, New York. Same old place in New York somewhere about the time of the Army game.

"We report for what it is worth, the bare skeleton of a story of Jack Gillespie, Jack Byrne and 'Yussel Joe' Moore. They are said to have batted about New York quite properly. Moore, incidentally, had a rip-roaring season with a high school football club he is coaching; Byrne is heir apparent for the Snuggie crown and Gillespie is journalizing at Westfield.

"From outside the Manda Belt, we journey in a flash to Arkansas, where a flash means what it flashes. Bob Furrany, our plain correspondents, reports that Johnston with the Furrany Grocery Company.

"At the Minnesota game we also saw a good many of the Chicago contingent reported on rather regularly. Frank Lessleyong, from way up in the copper country, now of Chi., tells us he is too well stilled, but appeared not the least depressed.

"It also seems that Frank Geddes, of the Windy City, is, or was, in a marrying mood. We hesitate to report an actual wedding because we can't remember Lessleyong's conversation, interrupted by many, many side issues. Yeah he is.

"This will stagger to a close of this canto, remember. I am now working on the pumpkin, the yule log has been hewn, and Santa Claus and his thousands of brothers have been bringing the tombourines for to these many days. We are happy to report that on this, our second from the Golden Dome, most of the boys seem to be happily situated, some have had disappointments, at least one of our members has died—but in a true sense of thankfulness for what we have in common, we wish everyone of 'it a truly Merry Christmas and a joyous New Year. Jeeves, the plum pudding and a bit of tinsel — 'tis the Yuletide."

"William V. Jordan is working in South Bend with the J. C. Penney Company, and taking the opportunity to finish his thesis for his M.A.

"Robert M. Siegfried won a distinction with his appointment as secretary of the State Insurance Board in Oklahoma. Bob is associated with his father in the insurance business. The Board, consisting of only three members, has full and complete charge of some 17,000 agents and 100,000 licenses and the enforcement of state insurance laws for some 600 companies operating there. The appointment to the board is made by the governor of the state. Bob is the first Tulsan, the youngest man, and the first Catholic appointed to the important post, Carl Senger sends in a letter."

1938 Secretary: Harold A. Williams, 216 East Lake Ave., Baltimore, Maryland.

"This, my kind friends, is the William Alumnus for December. Settled down for a couple of hours and read on:

"On November 1, in the hope of getting some information from various sections of the class, I mailed post cards to Steve Dietrich, Jack Simon, Hugh Correll, Jim Blunt, Frank Detacher, Pierre de la Vergne, Rus Fitzgerald, Spud O'Brien, John Marrin, Gus Sidler, George Sauter, Rus Redgate and Vernon Ruge.

"So far, I have had three replies. Steve Dietrich, writing for the "Trenton Times" where I hold the position of manager of the Merchandising Department, I make contacts for national advertisers. For instance, Chesterfield (plug) writes to the paper: "What do you want to know about our cigarettes other cigarettes? I then cover the required number of stores and get the data from them. It keeps me quite busy. I have been with the paper since the first of October, and like it very much."

"As for any other information, I am married and have been since January, 1936. That's one on the boys of Notre Dame. My wife is with me and we get along very well.

"I'm sorry that I could not get this information to you any sooner than you understand. In the future you may reach me at 43 Evans Avenue, Trenton, New Jersey. Congratulations, Steve, and blame on you for keeping us in the dark so long.

"Hugh Carroll replied to the post card inquiry in this fine way, 'Received your card a few days ago and determined to reward your investment with a reply. There is nothing to offer as far as news personal.' He is employed as a chemist and is said to be well situated, and beginning to wonder when, if ever, something will break. I am without hope, however, for I have few good friends in mind that might turn out for the best. Time will tell and goodness knows I have plenty of that.'

"Took a trip East this past summer and saw some of the boys. Wasn't able to see many of them due to lack of time. Chick Gallagher was at the college for Dad, and, so he says, is quite a salesman. Joe Corcoran is working for the city of Brockton, Massachusetts, and is going back to school the second semester to get his degree.'

"You were wrong about Charlie Macklus. He is not working for his Dad, but is teaching at his school. I haven't seen him for a couple of months but expect to in the near future. Harry Fox is working for his Dad, and Bob Hackett's working, but I haven't heard from him.

"Leo McFarlane was here over a week-end late in the summer, and, although he finished before we did, I thought you might like to know. He's teaching and coaching at St. Mary's High School, Mishawaka.

"I'm going down to South Bend for the Minnesota game this week-end. Tom Rini wired Sunday about it, so we'll go down tonight. I'll see that all the boys are in by 12. I was down at Virginia Beach this summer, but didn't know Hook Xerwin and party were playing there. Result — I didn't see them. Tell them for me they weren't billed as they should have been.'

"I hope to see some of the boys this week-end, if and if I have a chance. I'm glad to hear he's working. I rather feared what an inactive period might do to him. . . ."

"Thanks ever so much, Hugh, and here's hoping that there will be more letters from Canton, Ohio.

"The old red-bulter, Rus Fitzgerald, writes in red ink, 'I have turned from political reform to social welfare work. . . . My first position was teaching in one of these "vacation schools," which seemed to be a part of the Catholic Action program. And, ready now, Hal—one of the subjects I taught was Christian Doctrine. At the end of the summer I took a vacation to the Windy City, (and nearly went New London) blowing me into a job with the local health department as a food inspector. It was only with superhuman power (for which I'm noted) that I was able to supervise the destruction of condemned cases of beer. I've become quite interested in public work, and I think I'll stick with it. At the present time I'm trying to work my way into the State Department of Health at Hartford, having served an apprenticeship for a month now.' Rus rambles on in a humorous fashion and concludes by saying that "As Bob Tobin is back to school, we'll have a little more updates. Let's have some more letters, Rus.

"I hear from Jim Burgess occasionally — if he writes you that I have grown a mustache, disbelieve him because the thing was cut off a few dates ago. . . . Saw Dan Cochran at the Elitmore: he stopped by to have a cocktail with me. Said the work was plenty tough. Well, I'm not complaining: the work at Wharton isn’t that hard. . . ."

"Some week-end, Jack, when time hangs heavy on your hands, jump in your car and drive down to the Utopia, and I'll do my best to entertain you. P.S. — Bring ‘South Africa’ Zerbst along. . . ."

"John Cleary, of Taunton, Massachusetts, probably the greatest Lothario of our class, wrote me a short letter along about the end of October. The body of the letter concerned plans for the Army game, but Jack also managed to mention that he is working for Tuckaway Farms near Taunton, as a butter and egg man, and that Jimmy Malchay is teaching school at Coyle High, Taunton. Jack, in characteristic fashion, concludes his letter, ‘I remain as ever, deeply in love. . . .’"

"Jim Sullivan, from Binghamton, New York, is thoughtful enough to write a personal letter. He includes the information that he is still unemployed and says, ‘I worked in the state hospital on Long Island until the middle of September, but began to be afraid that they might lock me up. I am hoping to land a job teaching, but no luck as yet. . . . I think I’ll write a book on “How Not to Get a Job.”’ Jim passed along some news about the fellows, but since it has already been covered from other sources it is omitted.

"Bill Wolsens, certainly one of the best writers our class turned out, pens the glad news that he is now employed for either Calvert Distilling Co., Carstair Distilling Co., or Joseph E. Seagram & Sons. I haven’t found out yet, for I’ve only been working there a week (This was written on October 24 so Bill probably known by now.) It’s a bottling plant, by this time I have found out that much. But the sign on the front of the building says “Carstair Distilling Co.,” at the top, and after a lot of printed matter has “Calvert Distilling Co.” at the bottom. But Seagram’s hired me. It’s one of those corporations-within-corporations within corporations things. At present I am in what is known as the “general utility gang.” . . ."

"In passing you might like to know that John Schwartzd, New Albany, Indiana, is at present an insurance salesman, but I don’t know who he’s selling for. . . ."

"Bill asked for the addresses of Ras Redgate, Bob Malen, Dick Heassey, Bud Dark, and Larry Larkin. Those boys were furnished, so you fellows can expect some fine letters from the Louisville Liquor Maker.

"I’ll make this a miscellaneous paragraph and clear up a few bits of stray information that have floated in by various means. Tom McGrath, now of C.U. in Washington, spent the Minnesota week-end in Baltimore with me, and we had a swell time listening to the game and celebrating the victory. He’s coming for the Southern Cal week-end, and I’m looking forward to seeing him there. It’s a ‘Sage’ game, and I’ve no doubt that Jack Zerbst will be there and ready to entertain."

forward to another victory and another celebration. Tiger pounces the word alone that Art Mulhern, the Orson Welles of the N.D. radio players, is now at Harvard Law, and that Jim Mulhern, the old associate football manager, is at Georgetown Law. Tom Hutchinson asks that I print his Indianapolis address just in case anyone who wants to give away a weekly newspaper can write to him. Here it is: Works Progress Administration of Indiana, 1200-02 Kentucky Avenue.

"Among the many fellows we forgot to mention who returned to N.D. for Law is the name of Leon Lancaster. How about a note, Leon? Nick Lambertin was seen by our cousin at the Minnesota Ponderation. I hope these items will help out a little, Hal. If you should happen to run into that lighthogger, Ward, any place in your general neighborhood, do me a favor and tell him he owes me a letter." Nice going, George, and thanks for answering the call for news. I'd appreciate hearing from you more often.

"Another letter for this issue comes from that tried and true pool-shooting friend, Jake Lechner. Jake writes of personal, other, record letters on both sides of legal size stationery. He voices a complaint: 'I've been pouring out information concerning myself in my letters and all 1 get in your lousy column is one or two lines.' Good old modest Jake. He continues in the same modest tone, 'I suppose you have read in the South Bend papers that my Father was elected county assessor of St. Joe County. I delivered some 20 speeches during the campaign. It has certainly seemed good to have time to do other things besides delivering speeches before large, cheering audiences.' Jake rambles on for two or three thousand words about himself and his ability — business and social — and concludes with giving the information that Louis Vetel is working for the Pennsylvania R.R. (Jake, you're not such a hot reporter; you neglect to say where he's working and what he's doing.), and Jack Moeller, after working for the Cushdy Packing Company of Chicago, has returned to South Bend to work for his Father in the Moulder Automobile Sales Co.

"The Placement Bureau of the Alumni Office sends on the following news on men and jobs: George McDermott, temporary work as accountant, Studebaker Corporation, South Bend; George Thomas, temporary work in Chicago offices of Rockefeller Memorial Fund; Tom Kavanagh, salesman for the Solvent Chemical Products, Inc., Detroit; John Scott, program director for WXYZ, Detroit; Ralph Fbeits, superintendent of the Wilton Public School System. Here it is: 'Works Progress Administration of Indiana, 1200-02 Kentucky Avenue."

"And just as I was about to close this collection of notes, along comes two more letters. George Kerwin (P.O. Box 150, Southard, Oklahoma) writes, 'Even though our respective paths didn't cross very often at the Great Bear Lake in the Northwest Territories; Jack Moulder, in the laboratories of the Bendix Products Company, South Bend; Zanny Geddes and Abe Zona, both doing grateful work in chemistry at Notre Dame; Herb Weber, accountant for the Indiana & Michigan Electric Company, South Bend; Bill Bawes, doing graduate work at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor; Marcellus Ball, had temporary work in the Democratic campaign in Indiana, but now is working from the home base in Plymouth.

"That's about all I have for this issue. The request for Information in the past ALUMNUS produced results in the past, and I'll supplement this request with post card inquiries.

"Jare Scherzer, a Chicago attorney, is working with his Father in the Moulder Automobile Sales Co..."
ATHLETICS

15th annual civic testimonial dinner to the team given by the Notre Dame club of the St. Joseph Valley, December 12. We hope that Southern California and Carnegie Tech are successful on January 2 in order to add weight—if any be needed—to the professor's selection.

BASKETBALL

At this writing, you know as much about Notre Dame's basketball situation as anyone else. The Irish opened impressively by smashing New Orleans, 94 to 13, and Ball State, 70 to 56. All that was obviously warm-up tests. Then, before we could return for a personal scout, Coach George Keogan rushed his lads out of town and up to Madison to take a 45 to 39 licking from Wisconsin. He played a hang-up game against the Badgers, defensively, but his passing and shooting were excusably spotty. Meanwhile, Sophomore Larry Ryan, who filled in for Brown, is out for two weeks with weak arches. And meanwhile again, Mark Ertel and Rex Ellis are doing their best to make their 6 feet 4 inches mean something at center.

But don't sell 'em short off that Wisconsin game. The Badgers were hot and Notre Dame wasn't. Notre Dame outplayed Wisconsin everywhere except at the little iron pay-off rim, and Notre Dame has scoring potentials and speed which are bound to get results under Brown's fearless leadership and Keogan's experienced hand.

The remainder of the schedule follows:

• Dec. 15—Michigan at Notre Dame
• Dec. 21—Wichita at Notre Dame
• Jan. 2—Cornell at Notre Dame
• Jan. 7—Butler at Notre Dame
• Jan. 14—Kansas at Louisville
• Jan. 16—Western Reserve at Notre Dame
• Jan. 21—Canisius at Buffalo
• Jan. 23—John Carroll at Cleveland
• Jan. 26—Minnesota at Notre Dame
• Feb. 3—Illinois at Notre Dame
• Feb. 11—N. Y. U. at New York
• Feb. 13—Saint Rose at Saint Rose
• Feb. 18—Marquette at Notre Dame
• Feb. 25—Marquette at Milwaukee

Mar. 1—Butler at Cincinnati
Mar. 7—Cincinnati at Notre Dame
Mar. 12—N. Y. U. at Notre Dame

“B” TEAM FOOTBALL

Notre Dame’s "B" team, under the joint direction of Coaches Bill Cerney and Jake Kline won three of its four games, tying the fourth, a point at which the rating systems apparently have missed.

The way it works is this: Cerney coaches the team all week, then goes off somewhere to scout, while Kline takes charge for the day. Whoever is responsible—we leave it up to you—here is the record:

Notre Dame, 12; Jordan College, 12.
Notre Dame, 6; Northwestern B, 6.
Notre Dame, 11; Purdue B, 6.

CROSS-COUNTRY

Captain Glen Rice of the cross-country and track teams presented Notre Dame with the second national title of his career—he was the N.C.A.A. two-mile champion of 1937—when he led the country's best runners home in the national collegiate cross-country meet held at East Lansing, Michigan, November 21. His time for the four-mile course was 20 minutes 12.9 seconds, breaking the course and Central Collegiate Conference marks. His fine finish placed Notre Dame second behind Indiana in the team rankings.
