Hymn of Praise ................................................................. Anton Bruckner
Blessed Are They ............................................................. Jean Pasquet

Blessed are they who have not seen and yet have believed (John 20:29)

Christians Come With Praises ........................................ Sigismund Biechteler
Blessing and Honor, Praise and Love ............................... Johannes Brahms

Christians come with praises
Blessing and honor, praise and love,
Let all who owe to Thee their birth,
In earth below, in heav’n above,
And shout, ye morning stars, for joy.

John Wesley

Blessing and honor, praise and love,
In earth below, in heav’n above,
By all Thy works be paid to Thee.

Giovanni Pergolesi

Blessed are they who have not seen and yet have believed

Christ the Lord is risen, alleluia!

Psalm 150 ............................................................................. Ethan Haimo

This piece was written for and is being premiered at this 1977 Baccalaureate.

Praise God in his holy place,
O praise him in sound of trumpet,
O praise him with resounding cymbals,
Christ the Lord is risen, alleluia!

Praise him in his mighty heavens.
Praise him with lute and harp.
Praise him with clashing of cymbals.

Praise him for his powerful deeds.
Praise him with timbrel and dance.
Let everything that lives and that breathes

Praise his surpassing greatness.
Praise him with strings and pipes.
Give praise to the Lord. Alleluia!

You are God; we praise you;
You did not disdain the Virgin's womb.

You are the Lord: we acclaim you;
You overcame the sting of death and opened the kingdom of heaven to all believers.

You are the eternal Father;
You are seated at God's right hand in glory.

All creation worships you.
We believe that you will come, and be our judge.

To you all angels, all the powers of heaven,
We govern and uphold them now and always.

Cherubim and Seraphim, sing in endless praise;
Day by day we bless you;

"Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
We praise you forever.

Heaven and earth are full of your glory."
You praise your name forever.

The glorious company of apostles praise you.
Today, Lord, keep us from all sin.

The noble fellowship of prophets praise you.
Have mercy on us.

The white-robed army of martyrs praise you.
Lord, show us your love and mercy.

Throughout the world the holy Church acclaims you;
For we put our trust in you.

"Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
In you Lord is our hope, may we never be confounded.

OPENING HYMN

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty

text: Joachim Neander
tune: Stralsund Gesangbuch
arr. Paul Manz

Please stand and sing at the direction of the cantor.

Choir: 2. Praise to the Lord, who o'er all things so wondrously reigneth
   Who, as on wings of an eagle, uplifteth, sustaineth.
   Hast thou not seen
   How thy desires all have been
   Granted in what He ordaineth?

ALL: 3. Praise to the Lord, who hath fearfully, wondrously made thee;
   Praise Him, whose death and arising most surely hath stayed thee.
   What need or grief
   Ever hath failed of relief?
   Wings of His mercy did shade thee.

Choir: 4. Praise to the Lord, who doth prosper thy work and defend thee,
   Who from the heavens the streams of His mercy doth send thee.
   Ponder anew
   What the Almighty can do.
   Who with His love doth befriend thee.

ALL: 5. Praise to the Lord, Oh, let all that is in me adore Him!
   All that hath life and breath, come now with praises before Him!
   Let the Amen
   Sound from His people again;
   Gladly, for aye we adore Him. Amen.

GREETING

Priest: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

People: And also with you.
GLORIA

HOMILY
Rev. Theodore M. Hesburgh, C.S.C.
President of the University

There will be a few moments of silent reflection after the homily

Please be seated.
PROFESSION OF FAITH

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, one in Being with the Father. Through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation He came down from heaven:

All bow at the following words up to: and became man.

by the power of the Holy Spirit
He was born of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate; He suffered, died, and was buried.

On the third day He rose again in fulfillment of the Scriptures; He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.

With the Father and the Son He is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

HYMN

God of Our Fathers

Our God of our Fathers, whose all-mighty hand
Leads forth in beauty all the starry band
Of shining worlds in splendor thro' the skies,
Our grateful songs before thy throne arise.

2. Refresh thy people on their toilsome way,
Fill all our lives with love and grace divine,
Lead us from night to never-ending day;
And glory, laud and praise be ever thine.

The Academic Costume Code

The history of academic dress reaches far back into the early days of the oldest universities. Academic dress finds its sources chiefly in ecclesiastical wear, although mediaeval scholars tended to adopt a collegiate costume. A statute of 1321 required that all "Doctors, Licentiates and Bachelors" of the University of Coimbra (Portugal) wear gowns. Beginning with the second half of the 14th century, civilian collegiate costume was specified in various regulations of the universities. European institutions continue to show great diversity in their specifications of academic wear.

In American colleges and universities, the academic costume is prescribed by the American Council of Education, and its present form was adopted in 1932. The first suggestion for a uniform code was made in May, 1895, following an educational conference at Columbia University. In 1902, the Intercollegiate Bureau of Academic Costumes was created. It codified the 1895 rules and its legal firm serves as a clearinghouse and "repository" for official university and college colors, costumes and insignia.

The present academic dress consists of gown, hood and cap with the pattern and trimmings listed below. Exceptions have been granted to specific universities upon request.

GOWNS: Black cotton with long pointed sleeves for the Bachelor’s Degree, long closed sleeves (with a slit for the arms) for the Master’s Degree, and bell-shaped open sleeves for the Doctor’s Degree. The Bachelor’s and Master’s gowns do not have trimmings. The Doctor’s gown is faced down the front with black velvet and there are three bars of velvet across the sleeves.

HOODS: Black in all cases. For the Master’s it is three and one-half feet long and closed at the end. The Doctor’s hood is four feet long with panels at the sides. All hoods are lined with the official color or colors of the college or university which conferred the highest degree. The edging of the hood is velvet and three inches and five inches in width for the Master’s and Doctor’s degrees, respectively, while its color is distinctive of the subject field.

CAPS: Black cotton and stiffened into the so-called mortarboard style. Each cap has a long tassel fastened to the middle point of the top of the cap. The tassel color denotes the subject field. The Doctor’s cap may have a tassel of gold thread. University administrators may also have a tassel of gold thread.
